

A Longitudinal Study of Ngarrindjeri

Corinne Bannister

A thesis submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Liberal Studies (Honours)

Department of Linguistics
University of Sydney

November 2004

Acknowledgements

Firstly, any studies of Ngarrindjeri, including this one, would not have been possible if the Ngarrindjeri people had not so generously shared their language, and had others not valued it and recorded it.

Secondly, I would like to thank my supervisors Dr Jane Simpson and Prof. William Foley for their wisdom and patience and time. And also thanks to Mark Cerin for sharing all the Berndt texts that he had keyboarded.

Lastly, I would like to thank my mum, dad and brother, as well as my friends, for their encouragement and support.

