Conservatorium of Music Handbook

Message from the Dean

Welcome to the Sydney Conservatorium

Auspicious, Bold, Creative, Daring

The Sydney Conservatorium of Music is a place for artists and scholars – a magical and wonderful place. I am extremely privileged to serve as the Dean. Since its inception, the Sydney Conservatorium has been reinventing the musical experience. As a forum for interpreting culture through music and the arts, our talented international students and visitors engage with the dynamic music and ideas of our time, as well as the great masters and musical traditions dating back to the ancient tones of antiquity. The Conservatorium is a distinctive part of the arts and educational nucleus that celebrates all that is unique to New South Wales while contributing to music worldwide.

The strength and heart of the Sydney Conservatorium’s rise to excellence, lies with its faculty and their significant contributions: their research, their creative activity and the courses they teach. Sydney is a city of boundless energy and astonishing diversity; qualities that I think are reflected in the offerings of the Conservatorium. The spirit of great music lives in Sydney, in every room and stage at the Conservatorium of Music.

The auspicious foyer, a showplace of the University, invites audiences to enter some of the finest performance spaces in Sydney where musicians of all ages bring vitality, energy, intimacy and passion for music. This extraordinary commitment to music and its future is the constant vein in the conservatorium’s history, a pulse shared by every student who has studied or faculty member who has taught here. The extraordinary building pieces together the enormous jigsaw puzzle of people and music, works and composers, programs and performances that comprise the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. The Conservatorium complex includes an extraordinary concert hall, two recital halls, and opera teaching and performance centre with flexible seating and staging configurations, a music technology suite, an excellent library, research centre and numerous teaching and practice studios. Lorin Maazel and Zubin Mehta are among those who have chosen the venue.

The most comprehensive selections of chamber music, a distinguished list of artists and scholars, we are delighted to introduce some of the brightest talents in the international music world. We continue to be grateful to all who contributed to the exquisite building and facilities to complement the beauty of the music making. It places us in a unique position worldwide where one can enjoy unusual works of music in such splendid settings.

As a gathering place for experiencing contemporary music performance, scholarship and culture – by individuals who push the boundaries of innovation, creativity, cognition and expression. The Conservatorium of Music’s alumni enjoy exceptional careers worldwide as performers and scholars in the finest musical company. Alumni include: conductors Richard Bonynge and Simone Young, violinists Richard Tognetti and Kirsten Williams, cellists Nathan Waks and David Pereira, pianists Roger Woodward and Michael Kieran Harvey, jazz virtuoso James Morrison, composers Gerard Brophy, Elena Kats-Chernin, Michael Smetanin and countless others. Additionally the Conservatorium has in place international student exchange agreements with highly regarded music institutions such as the Royal College of Music and the Royal Academy of Music in London, the Hochschule für Musik in Detmold, and the Musikhochschule, Freiburg in Breisgau, Germany. I welcome you to explore and share the excitement that results from uniquely talented professional musicians of tomorrow whose virtuosity will define the future of music.

The Conservatorium of Music brought the first String Quartet and the first Symphony Orchestra to Australia early in the early 1900s. The historical involvement with famous artists such as Nellie Melba, Jascha Heifetz and Fritz Kreisler continues today with regular visits from world-class performers and conductors.

Competitive scholarships and awards are available for the top talent in all realms. While places are limited, there is emphasis on recruiting the finest artists and scholars of tomorrow.

Music is the most universal language ever developed, and nowhere is it spoken more eloquently than here in Sydney. I invite you to join the conversation and hope to welcome you to our venue.

1. Profile of the Sydney Conservatorium

The following information is a printed version of the information available through Handbooks Online, on the University of Sydney website. Please visit http://www.usyd.edu.au/handbooks/.

The Sydney Conservatorium of Music, established in 1915, is one of the oldest music schools in Australia.

Vision and Mission of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music

Vision
The Conservatorium of Music, University of Sydney seeks to be the foremost school of music in Australasia and one of the world leaders, achieving pre-eminence in performance, scholarship and pedagogy, and through its graduates promoting and shaping the cultural identity of Australia and music worldwide.

Mission
The mission of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music is to provide distinguished instruction in music and music-related fields as well as outstanding opportunities for performance, composition, research and teacher training for music and cultural studies. These opportunities are designed to meet the following purposes within the framework of the University of Sydney and Australia:

1. To prepare students for careers as performers, composers, scholars, teachers, musicians and administrators in higher education, pre-tertiary settings, the professional music world, the private sector and supporting fields.

2. To provide musicians and university non-music majors the opportunity to develop their knowledge, understanding and ability in all aspects of music at a level appropriate to their needs and interests.

3. To broaden and deepen the knowledge and understanding of all aspects of music through research and publication.

4. To enrich the lives of students, faculty, community, the state, the nation and the world with performances of a wide variety of music. The excellence, authenticity, and originality of these performances also serve as models for future performances by students and as criteria for future listening experiences.

3. Student Information

The following information is a printed version of the information available through Handbooks Online, on the University of Sydney website. Please visit http://www.usyd.edu.au/handbooks.

Introduction

The information provided below is intended to assist students with aspects of their study specific to the Conservatorium. Further general information about study at the University of Sydney is provided at the end of this handbook.

Academic Misconduct

Academic honesty is a core value of the University of Sydney and the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. The University is committed to the basic academic right that students receive due credit for work submitted for assessment. Deliberate breaches of academic honesty constitute academic misconduct and may include:

- plagiarism
- fabrication of data
- recycling previously submitted material
- engaging someone else to complete an assessment task or examination on one's behalf
- misconduct during examinations
- submitting a fraudulent special consideration application

Plagiarism can be broadly defined as presenting another person's ideas, findings or work as one's own by copying or reproducing the work without due acknowledgment of the source. The most common form of plagiarism is where a student presents written work, including sentences, paragraphs or longer extracts from published work without attribution of its source. Work submitted for assessment may also be regarded as plagiarised where significant proportions of an assignment have been reproduced from the work of another student, since this exceeds the boundaries of legitimate cooperation.

Misconduct during examinations involves any actions not permitted during the exam, including communicating with others, attempting to read another student's work, and bringing unauthorised material or equipment into the exam room.

Students with any queries should consult the policy - Student Plagiarism: Coursework and can be found at: http://www.usyd.edu.au/ senate/policies/Plagiarism.pdf

Steps to follow:

- Students must submit original, non-plagiariised work. In developing original work, students will commonly draw on the words and ideas of others. It is vitally important that such words and ideas be fully referenced.
- Students who require assistance with academic writing and referencing skills are strongly advised to participate in the support programs offered by the Learning Centre in Student Services:
  - room 722 Level 2, Education Building
  - phone: +61 93513853
  - email: lc@stuserv.usyd.edu.au

Appeals

Students who have a complaint about an academic decision must first attempt to discuss the matter with the academic staff member who assigned the mark (if the appeal concerns a particular assessment task) or the unit of study coordinator (if the appeal concerns the final assessment for a whole unit of study). If the matter is not resolved in the course of the initial discussion, students can ask for the assignment to be re-marked by another academic staff member. (This is organised by the unit of study coordinator). If this approach is unsatisfactory, students may write a formal appeal letter to the Chair of Unit.

Where the Chair of Unit is the subject of complaint, reports should be made to the Pro-Dean/Head of School. Students should contact the Student Administration Office for further avenues for appeal or if they require guidance.

In cases of alleged harassment or discrimination, of professional misconduct, or the failure of a staff member to attend to teaching or supervisory duties, the student should first approach the lecturer in charge. However, given the nature of such complaints, this may be difficult. In such situations, students are advised to contact the Student Administration Office for guidance. Students should refer to the University Policy on Appeals for further information on the appeals process.

Commonwealth-supported students

If students withdraw from a unit of study prior to the census date, the unit of study does not appear on their academic transcript and they are not charged for this unit. If students discontinue a unit of study after the census date, the unit will appear on their transcript along with the date the unit was discontinued.

In some circumstances the Faculty may consider that a unit of study be discontinued with permission after the relevant date if there is evidence of serious illness or misadventure. Students should contact the Student Administration Office for further information.

Conservatorium Library

Library hours during semester are:

Monday to Thursday from 8.00am to 8.00pm
Friday from 8.00am-6.00pm, and
Saturday from 10.00am-5.00pm.

Any variations will appear on noticeboards and the Conservatorium webpage.

Undergraduate and postgraduate students can borrow from all University of Sydney Libraries. Postgraduates can request items from other libraries to be picked up at the Conservatorium Library by using the inter-library loans interface. Both undergraduate and postgraduates can place holds on material currently on loan.

To find out all about the Library, attend Library tours and Information Literacy classes at the beginning of each semester.

Conservatorium Students' Association (CSA)

The Conservatorium Students' Association represents the student body. Its aim is to promote student morale and to encourage communication amongst students and between students and staff. It also acts as a liaison organisation between Conservatorium students and the University of Sydney student organisations. The Student Council meets monthly to consider student needs and requirements. The Executive Committee of the Association meets weekly.

The CSA Annual General Meeting is held in September or October each year when office bearers, year and course representatives are elected. The CSA offices are located on Level 4 adjacent to the Student Administration and Finance Offices.

An Administrative Assistant is available on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays to assist with student matters.

Email accounts

Students of the University have access to electronic mail facilities.

The University's Information and Communications Technology (ICT) provides all students with an email account free of charge. At the beginning of each academic year the ICT will allocate you an email account, details of which will be printed on your Confirmation of Enrolment. As some students may not have computers of their own, ICT has installed an extra email interface which is convenient for use in computer laboratories. This basic, web-based email client can be used from any Web browser which can read pages on the University's network.
3. Student information

If you have your own computer or subscribe to additional options on the extranet system, you will be able to choose from a number of different mechanisms for reading your email. The Web interface is intended to provide basic functionality only.

Fees for non-award courses

Students may not generally undertake or enrol in Principal Study on a non-award basis. Tuition fees are payable by students enrolled in non-award units of study. Tuition fees are calculated on a semester basis. All fees are payable in advance.

Graduation

All students enrolled in the final year of their course are strongly advised to confirm that the selection of units in which they have pre-enrolled will enable them to complete all requirements for the award.

Along with other enrolment variations, changes to enrolment to establish potential graduation status must be made before the end of March for Semester 1 and before the end of August for Semester 2. Students should apply to the Student Administration Office for a graduation check well before the end of March or August.

Hiring of instruments

The Conservatorium has a limited stock of instruments for loan to enrolled students. Hirers pay a modest hire fee and are to arrange relevant insurance cover. Hirers are liable for the cost of lost or damaged instruments, as well as incidental items such as strings. Please consult your teacher or Chair of Unit in the first instance for information on instruments available. Hire agreement forms, including terms and conditions are available on the Conservatorium website.

Information on the Web

The Conservatorium maintains a website and some information is included for internal use only for example course outlines for units of study, Conservatorium policies, and other resources to assist student learning.

Noticeboards

An official Conservatorium noticeboard with information relevant to enrolled students is located in the corridor outside the Student Administration Office on the upper level of the Greenway building. Additional noticeboards containing information about ensemble activities, Concert Practice, Health and Safety can be found at the rear of the building on Level one and Level two. All students must regularly check the noticeboards for announcements.

Official correspondence

In the first instance all official correspondence should be addressed to the Manager, Student Administration.

Performance examinations

The Conservatorium requires all public performance examination programs to be approved. Each student must complete an Application for Recital Examination Program Approval when preparing for their performance examinations, and must submit this six (6) weeks prior to the examination.

Performance Workshop

All performance students are required to participate in and attend Performance Workshop. Programs must be presented by the due date on an appropriate form.

Information about Performance Workshop is displayed on the Performance Workshop notice board on Level 1 (opposite the Percussion Studios).

Practice facilities

The Conservatorium has a generous supply of acoustically treated practice rooms (approximately 70) for the use of enrolled students. These rooms are located on the Level 1 inner corridor at the rear of the building and near the Percussion studios (perception only), on Levels 2 and 3 in the corridors around the recital halls, and in the front turrets of Level 4 in the Greenway building. Enrolled students may use these facilities at any time when the building is open without booking and are encouraged to make maximum use of the facility. The efficient management and sharing of this resource requires that students using practice facilities adhere to the following code of conduct:

- Students must carry their current student card with them at all times and show that card to Conservatorium or security staff on request.
- Students may practise for as long as they wish unless another student requires the room in which case they must vacate it on the hour if requested to do so. In periods of heavy use, if no practice rooms are available, students may knock on the door of any room on the hour and politely request that it be vacated. The student occupying the room at that time should vacate it promptly. Students who have vacated one room in this way may relocate to another room either when one becomes available or by using this principle.
- Please leave the practice rooms equipped with pianos for pianists.
- Practice rooms are to be used for practice only. Students may not take food or drink into practice rooms.
- Under no circumstances should practice rooms be used for private teaching. Students who teach in practice rooms may have their rights to practice revoked.
- Music stands must be returned to their original location at the conclusion of any group rehearsal.
- Keyboard students requiring the use of a grand piano may request special access to teaching studios at the Administration Counter (Room 2151). Double Bass, Harp and Harpsichord students may also book studios for practice. In all other cases, teaching studios should not be used for student practice.
- Please look after the practice rooms for present and future students.

Public performances
Students may take part in performances outside the Conservatorium but in no case can an absence conflict with rehearsals, concerts or any teaching activity without the prior approval of the Pro-Dean/Head of School. The appropriate approval form can be obtained from Student Administration and must be lodged at least four weeks in advance.

Scholarships
The Conservatorium is pleased to award a number of scholarships to students undertaking tertiary study.

Unless specifically noted otherwise, the award of all merit determined scholarships will be based on the results obtained in auditions for entry to Conservatorium tertiary programs or, for currently enrolled students, from end of year examinations and assessment.

Students or prospective students wishing to be considered for the award of a scholarship on the basis of financial need, should submit a separate Application for Scholarship form to the Faculty Administration Office (Room 2140). These applicants should be prepared to submit confidential information about their financial circumstances to assist the Conservatorium in awarding scholarships.

The Conservatorium Scholarship Committee will determine and notify the recipients of all scholarships early in each year. The payment of all scholarships is subject to full-time enrolment in a Conservatorium course and can be expected by students in March/April.

The University also has Scholarships available. Please refer to the following website: http://www.usyd.edu.au/fs/student/scholarships.shtml

Special Consideration
The Conservatorium recognises that the work of students may be adversely affected by illness or misadventure which leads to absence from lectures, inability to perform at a recital, failure to hand in an assignment, poor performance in an examination, etc. In simple cases occurring during the semester, such problems can be handled by discussing the issue with a member of academic staff or the Chair of Unit.

In the event of serious illness or misadventure, provision is made for special consideration. Any student who believes that his/her performance has been or may be adversely affected by an occurrence of serious illness or misadventure may request the Conservatorium to grant special consideration. All such requests must:
• include the completion of a special consideration application form available from the Student Administration Office;
• be supplied within one week of the occurrence; and
• be accompanied by an appropriate Professional Practitioner's Certificate or other relevant documentary evidence apart from the student's own submission. For guidelines on what constitutes satisfactory documentation, please refer to the Special Consideration section at http://www.music.usyd.edu.au/staff/special_consideration_policy.html

The Conservatorium intends to compensate for sub-standard performance only in assessments that do not reflect a student's true competence in a unit of study, and such provisions must not act to the disadvantage of other students. It is important for students to understand that non-attendance at an examination, together with submission of any accompanying Professional Practitioner's Certificate or documentary evidence of misadventure, does not guarantee that a deferred assessment will take place.

Students with serious disabilities which are likely to affect a high proportion of the end-of-semester examinations are advised to discuss the situation with the appropriate Chair of Unit.

Student administration and enquiries
The Student Administration Office in Room 4023 (Greenway Building, Macquarie St) is the initial point of contact for administrative enquiries. Students can obtain information and advice, as well as various forms relating to their candidature, including change of address notification, application for transfer, scholarships, leave of absence and other student related matters. The office is open 10am-4pm.

Student Exchange Opportunities
Both the Conservatorium and the University of Sydney have a range of Student Exchange Programs with universities and music schools throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and Asia. The exchange programs allow students to complete a semester or a year of their degree overseas and have the results credited towards their degree at the University of Sydney. The Conservatorium has special exchange agreements with the Royal Academy of Music, the Royal College of Music, Birmingham Conservatoire, the Staatliche Hochschule für Musik, Freiburg and the Hochschule für Musik, Detmold, both in Germany, and the Norwegian Academy of Music.

Student files
All major documentation related to a student's candidature is attached to a student file that is held in the Student Administration Office. Students may review their file on request.

Student identification cards
All undergraduate and postgraduate students will be issued with a student identification card upon enrolment. Each student will be assigned an individual student number that will be printed on the card. The Student ID card should be carried during attendance at the Conservatorium and presented, upon request, when borrowing material from the library and when applying for concessions. A replacement charge of $20 (plus GST) is levied.

Student lockers
A limited number of instrument and bag lockers are available in the Conservatorium building. Students should apply at the Finance Office, Room 4026 (Greenway Building). The charge is $30 per annum (including GST) + a refundable deposit of $15. (A refund of $15 will be given when keys are returned upon completion of the academic year).

Student responsibilities
Each student is responsible for ensuring that their enrolment is correct and that their progress in the award course is in accordance with the Resolutions of the Senate. While the Faculty makes every effort to provide advice and information, the onus is on students to ensure that deadlines and award course requirements are met. Each student is required to check prerequisites and co-requisites for each unit of study. If a student is enrolled in a unit that they have not met the prerequisites for, they must withdraw immediately from the unit in question.
There are many University procedures (such as special consideration, student counselling) to accommodate students who experience personal problems, illness and misadventure. It is important for students to familiarise themselves with the regulations for their chosen award course and with the services available at the University.

Terminology

There are a number of different terms which are used throughout this handbook that students may be unfamiliar with. Students should consult the Glossary located at the back of the handbook if they require clarification of the terms used.

Timetable

The Conservatorium Timetable is prepared twice a year. Students should check class and rehearsal times at the beginning of each semester. Timetable information will be available on the web: http://www.music.usyd.edu.au/CS/courseinfo/timetables.shtml

University correspondence

It is important that students read all information sent to them by the University, via both postal mail and email. Students must ensure that they keep their contact details up to date and should check their student email account on a regular basis.

Variations of enrolment

The key dates at the beginning of this handbook set out the deadlines by which variations of enrolment must be made. The key dates are based on University policies.

Local fee-paying students

If students withdraw from a unit of study prior to the census date, the unit of study does not appear on their academic transcript. If students discontinue a unit of study after the census date, the unit will appear on their transcript along with the date the unit was discontinued. Students who withdraw will receive a full refund of the fee for the unit. Students who discontinue will receive no refund. In some circumstances the Faculty may consider that a unit of study be discontinued with permission after the relevant date if there is evidence of serious illness or misadventure. Students should contact the Student Administration Office for further information.

International students

If students withdraw from a unit of study prior to the census date, the unit of study does not appear on their academic transcript. If students discontinue a unit of study after the census date, the unit will appear on their transcript with the date the unit was discontinued. Students are advised to contact the International Office to determine if financial penalty will apply due to a variation of enrolment. In some circumstances the Faculty may consider that a unit of study be discontinued with permission after the relevant date if there is evidence of serious illness or misadventure. Students should contact the Student Administration Office for further information.

Withdrawal and Discontinuation for first-year students

First Year students who discontinue totally (either “DNF” or “DF”) will be asked to show cause why they should be permitted to re-enrol. First Year students who withdraw totally must reapply for admission through UAC.

Definitions

Admission
Please also see Admission in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.

All undergraduate applicants are required to lodge an application for admission to a course with the Student Administration Office as well as the Universities Admission Centre (UAC). All applicants for admission to a postgraduate course must submit an application form to the Student Administration Office at the Sydney Conservatorium. Postgraduate applicants are requested to attach a certified copy of their full academic record. Photocopies cannot be accepted unless they are clear copies and officially signed and certified as to their accuracy.

Admission restrictions
It is necessary to regulate the admission of candidates for courses to ensure that students accepted will not exceed the number for which adequate accommodation and facilities are available. Entry to the courses is competitive. For further information please refer to course descriptions later in this Handbook.

Advanced standing
Please also see Credit in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.

Students admitted to a course at the Conservatorium may be granted advanced standing based on previous attainment in another course at a recognised tertiary institution. Advanced standing is granted in the form of credit points which count towards the requirements for the course.

Applications for advanced standing in Principal Study shall be made at the time of making application for admission and determined at the audition. Application forms are available from the Student Administration Office and must be submitted along with complete information about the relevant prior study before a student will be permitted to enrol with advanced standing.

Award
An accredited tertiary course of study conducted by the Conservatorium consisting of such units of study, progressive sequences and other requirements as are presented in the Conservatorium Rules, Faculty Resolutions for each course (where enacted) and associated schedules and documents. After successful completion of a course of study, students graduate with an academic award.

Board
The College Board of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Census dates
Please see HECS Census date in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.

Credit
Please also see Credit in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.

Credit is the recognition of prior work successfully undertaken by the student in an approved academic institution and allowing its contribution towards a Conservatorium award. Specific credit may be given as recognition of prior work as directly equivalent to a unit of study at the Conservatorium or as non-specific credit when it is not linked to a Conservatorium unit of study. Generally, the same unit of study cannot be counted towards the requirements for two different awards.

Graduates, however, may be given a limited amount of credit for units of study already counted in a completed qualification. The Academic Board policy on Advanced Standing, Credit and Exemption states that the maximum credit granted in such cases will be determined by the requirement that a graduate who is admitted to candidature for a degree of bachelor with credit for completed units of study shall attend units of study for the equivalent of at least two full-time years in that course, unless additional credit from an uncompleted course or courses has also been granted.

Application forms are available from the Student Administration Office.

Credit point
The value assigned to a unit of study as specified in the schedule for the course and indicative of the relative weight of the unit of study in the course. The requirements for each course are expressed as a minimum total number of credit points. Students earn an approved number of credit points for each unit of study which is successfully completed.

Concurrent enrolments
A student enrolled in a course at the Conservatorium cannot be concurrently enrolled in another course at the Conservatorium, the University of Sydney or in another tertiary institution without the approval of the Board.

Conservatorium
The Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Corequisite
A unit of study which must be undertaken concurrently with another prescribed unit of study.

Course transfer
Students wishing to transfer from one Conservatorium course to another [possible only at the beginning of a semester] must submit an application form at least two weeks prior to the commencement of semester to the Manager, Student Administration, who will submit the application to the Chair, Undergraduate or Graduate Studies Committee for determination.

Deferral of enrolment
Please also see Admission (deferment) in the Glossary at the back of this Handbook.

A candidate offered admission to a Conservatorium course who then applies to defer enrolment in that course for a semester, is subject to re-audition/interview prior to enrolment.

Enrolment
Enrolment is the process by which an applicant officially accepts the offer of a place in a particular course. Enrolment is the nomination by a student of the units of study to be studied in a specified semester or year of a course. Enrolment comprises completion of the official enrolment form and payment of all prescribed fees, including arrangements for the Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS).
Exemption
Exemption is the granting of a "waiver" from parts of the prescribed work for a particular unit of study on the basis of fully documented study successfully undertaken by the student at an approved academic institution. In such cases no credit is given and the student will be required to complete an alternative unit of study as approved by the appropriate Chair of Unit and the Assistant Principal.

Application forms are available from the Student Administration Office.

Bachelor of Music (BMus)

The Bachelor of Music is a degree for musically talented students aspiring to a professional career in music. The course supports the development of scholar-musicians through their acquisition of an integrated body of knowledge, skills and attitudes which provide a sound basis for future professional growth.

The goals of the Bachelor of Music are:

- to develop musicianship whether it be in the area of performance, musicology, composition or music education;
- to develop students’ ability to see themselves, their musical art and their educational activity in a wide cultural perspective; and
- to develop generic skills essential to study at tertiary level.

A more detailed explanation of the aims and objectives of the Bachelor of Music and its specialisations can be found at [www.mus sic.usyd.edu.au](http://www.mus sic.usyd.edu.au) and follow the links to future students / courses.

The degree is offered in four areas of specialisation: Performance (including Jazz Studies), Composition, Musicology and Music Education. Candidates nominate their specialisation on entry but may apply to change the specialisation at the end of the first year provided they meet the prerequisites for the new area of specialisation.

Admission for all areas of specialisation is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate [HSC], or its equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Sydney Conservatorium. Candidates should ideally:

- have gained a Universities Admission Index (UAi) at the Higher School Certificate or equivalent, including English and Music at the level of the Music 2 syllabus (or equivalent), and
- undertake a practical audition or interview or submit work according to the proposed specialisation as set out below:

(a) BMus (Performance) [including Jazz Studies] - a practical audition for Major level study in the nominated instrument or voice

(b) BMus (Composition) - submission of at least three compositions in different performance media to demonstrate the level of achievement as composers, and an interview

(c) BMus (Musicology) - submission of an example of recent written work and an interview

(d) BMus (Music Education) - an interview and an audition, submission and/or further interview for either Major or Minor level of study in instrument or voice, composition or musicology, and
- undertake a written Music Skills test or Jazz Aptitude Test.

Course structure

The course is structured to allow students to:

- achieve a high standard in their area of specialisation;
- undertake core musical studies central to the development of the professional musician; and
- pursue other studies in an area of their choice, either within their area of specialisation, in another area of musical study at the Conservatorium or in another faculty of the University of Sydney.

The Bachelor of Music is awarded at both pass and honours level. To qualify for the pass degree, candidates must specialise in one of four areas, Performance, Composition, Musicology or Music Education, and complete courses to the value of 192 credit points, which include:

- (a) requirements for their specialisation, including a Principal Study, core requirements, and other units of the student’s choice.

The course requires the successful completion of 192 credit points of study over four years of full-time study. A minimum of half of the credit points for the entire course is taken in the area of specialisation.

Part-time study may be available to students on application. A student who is granted approval to undertake a course on a part-time basis shall undertake units of study as determined by the Conservatorium.

Bachelor of Music - honours grade

Honours is begun in the different specialisations as follows:

- Performance: seventh semester
- Composition, Musicology and Music Education: fifth semester.

Eligibility for admission to honours

To be eligible for admission to honours candidates will normally have achieved the requirements as set out below according to their specialisation:

(a) BMus (Performance) a Distinction in Principal Study 4 and 6 (Major), a Credit average in all other units in the first three years of the course, successful completion of 144 credit points of study including the prerequisites for Principal Study 7 (Honours) as set out in Chapter 6 of the Handbook;

(b) BMus (Composition) a Distinction in Principal Study Composition 4 and a Credit average in all other units in the first two years of the course and successful completion of the prerequisites for Composition 5 (Honours) as set out in Chapter 6 of the Handbook;

(c) BMus (Music Education) a Distinction average in Music Education and Education units of study, a credit average in all other units in the first two years of the course and a proven capacity to write extended essays of quality;

(d) BMus (Musicology) a Distinction in Musicology 3 and 4 and a credit average in all other units in the first two years of the course.

The number of honours students in any one-year group in the BMus (Music Education) will not normally exceed 25 per cent of the total numbers of that year group.

Honours enrolment requirements

Honours candidates complete a research project in their area of specialisation. To qualify for an honours degree, candidates must complete the requirements for the pass degree, except as set out below, and additional requirements according to their specialisation as set out below:

Bachelor of Music (Performance)

As the focus is the development of performance skills, Performance specialists must take a vocal or instrumental Principal Study at the Major level of study. Performance specialists in jazz take Jazz Performance as their Principal Study. Principal Study is taken together with Chamber Music or Jazz Small Ensemble for (Jazz Majors), Orchestral Studies (for those playing an orchestral instrument) and other performance-related studies. In addition, students take core studies in aural perception (jazz ear training for Jazz Majors), harmony and analysis (jazz harmony and arranging for Jazz Majors), music history, music technology, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies.

For Performance specialists, Major level study is available in:
- Brass: French horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
- Jazz Performance: areas of bass, brass, drums, guitar, piano, vibraphone, voice, woodwind
- Keyboard: harpsichord, piano
- Organ
- Percussion
- Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, lute, viola, violin
- Voice
- Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, baroque flute, oboe, recorder, saxophone.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Performance)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 5.3. units of study in each area are listed in Tables 5.20 to 5.26 at the end of this chapter.

Typical enrolment pattern

Tables 5.2 and 5.3 show typical enrolment patterns with the appropriate credit points. These patterns are for guidance and are not mandatory as the course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Bachelor of Music (Composition)

The major focus is the development of composition skills, together with work in Electronic Music, and studies in Compositional Techniques and Analysis. Students work with performers in Composer-Performer Workshop where they have the opportunity to hear and refine the music they write. In addition students take core studies in aural perception, harmony and analysis, music history, music technology, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Composition)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 5.4. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 5.19 to 5.25 at the end of this chapter.

Bachelor of Music (Musicology)

Students concentrate on the development of skills in researching, thinking and writing about music. Musicology specialists enrol in Musicology Workshop, units in the history and analysis of music, analysis and palaeography and also take core studies in aural perception, harmony and analysis, music history, music technology, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies to provide a framework for their musical research.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Musicology)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 5.6. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 5.19 to 5.25 at the end of this chapter.

Typical enrolment pattern

Table 5.7 shows a typical enrolment pattern giving the appropriate credit points. These patterns are for guidance and are not mandatory as the course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Bachelor of Music (Music Education)

The major focus is on developing teaching skills through studies in education, music education, choral and instrumental pedagogy and music technology. In the third and fourth year students undertake extended Practice Teaching sessions in schools supported by both high school teachers and experienced music education lecturers from the Conservatorium.

Music Education specialists also develop practical, compositional, or research skills by taking a minimum of 6 semesters Principal Study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology. The Principal Study may be taken at either Major (6 credit points) or Minor level (3 credit points), depending on ability. Students also take part in Choir, Wind Symphony or Orchestra and other performance units. All students take core studies in aural perception, harmony and analysis, music history, music technology, pedagogy and historical and cultural studies.

For Music Education specialists, Principal Study is Major or Minor level study in:

- Brass: French horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
- Composition (Major level only)
- Jazz Performance (Major level only): bass, brass, drums, guitar, piano, vibraphone, voice, woodwind
- Keyboard: harpsichord, piano
- Musicology
- Organ
- Percussion
- Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, lute, viola, violin
- Voice: Jazz (Minor Level only) or Classical
- Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, baroque flute, oboe, recorder, saxophone.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Music Education)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 5.8. units of study in each area are listed in Tables 5.19 to 5.25 at the end of this chapter.

Bachelor of Music Studies (BMusStudies)

The Bachelor of Music Studies is a degree for students seeking a broad musical education and its structure facilitates creative interdisciplinary links within music disciplines and between music and other subject areas in the University of Sydney. The course develops broadly educated musicians who are able to apply their knowledge, skills and attitudes creatively and flexibly in a variety of music and music-related professions.

The goals of the Bachelor of Music Studies are:
• to develop general musical abilities in the areas of performance, musicology, composition and music education;
• to develop students’ ability to see themselves, their musical art and their educational activities in a wide cultural perspective; and
• to develop the generic attributes of graduates of the University of Sydney.

A more detailed explanation of the aims and objectives of the Bachelor of Music Studies can be found at: www.music.usyd.edu.au (http://www.usyd.edu.au/http://www.music.usyd.edu.au) and follow the links to future students/courses.

Admission is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate [HSC], or its interstate or overseas equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Sydney Conservatorium. Candidates should normally:
• have gained a Universities Admission Index (UAI) at the Higher School Certificate or equivalent, including English and Music at the level of the Music 2 syllabus (or equivalent), and
• undertake a practical audition or submit work according to their proposed Principal Study specialisation as set out below:

(a) Major level of study in an instrument or voice
an audition according to the requirements laid out for the relevant Major study

(b) Minor level of study in an instrument or voice an audition according to the requirements laid out for relevant Minor study

(c) Major level of study in composition submission of at least three compositions in different performance media to demonstrate the level of achievement as composers and an interview

(d) Major or Minor level of study in musicology submission of an example of recent written work and an interview
  • undertake a written Music Skills Test.

Course structure
The degree is structured to allow students flexibility in their choice of units so they may pursue their own combinations of musical and non-musical disciplines. Students may choose units of study taught at another faculty of the University of Sydney up to a maximum credit point value of 28 credit points or take units of study taught only within the Conservatorium.

All students take a Principal Study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology, core units in music skills, music history and technology and other units of their own choice. Principal Study may be at Major level (6 credit points) or Minor level of study (3 credit points) depending on preference and level of ability. Principal Study is available in:
• Brass: French horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
• Composition (Major level only)
• Keyboard: harpsichord, piano
• Musicology
• Organ
• Percussion
• Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, lute, viola, violin
• Voice
• Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, baroque flute, oboe, recorder, saxophone.

The course requires the successful completion of 144 credit points of study over three years of full-time study and is awarded only as a Pass degree. The credit points for units completed should include:
(a) six semesters of Principal Study, as defined above
(b) core requirements, as tabled below
(c) other units of the student’s choice

Part-time study may be available to students on application. A student who is granted approval to undertake a course on a part-time basis shall undertake units of study as determined by the Conservatorium.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music Studies
Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 5.10. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 5.19 to 5.25 at the end of this chapter.

Typical enrolment pattern
A typical program in the Bachelor of Music Studies, together with the credit point value, is set out in Table 5.11. The course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Diploma of Opera (DipOp)

The Diploma of Opera prepares graduates for the various demands of the profession. At the end of the course students will sing with technical proficiency and perform with a sense of musical style and dramatic interpretation. Study of the vocal and physical aspects of performance will be complemented by a general awareness of professionalism and the practicalities of theatre, its requirements and environment.

During the course, students will acquire a thorough understanding of musicianship, the capacity to sing in the major operatic languages and perform movement and dance sequences, and learn to build a character on developed stagecraft skills.

Applicants must be at least 21 years old by 1 March 2004. Admission is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate [HSC], or its interstate or overseas equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Sydney Conservatorium. Candidates are expected to have presented a minimum of two units of English and two units of Music for the HSC examination or equivalent, and must also undertake an audition. Admission may also be granted on the basis of having undertaken other tertiary studies, adult entry or special admission.

Course structure

The Diploma of Opera is a three-year course of full-time, intensive study and students must demonstrate satisfactory progress in vocal, musical and performance skills in order to progress through the course.

All full-time students must complete units of study worth 24 credit points per semester: a total of 144 credit points for the entire diploma course.

The course structure of the Diploma of Opera, together with the credit point value, is set out in Table 5.16.

Public examination recitals (undergraduate)

All students enrolled in BMus, BMusStudies, BA/BMus Studies, DipMus and DipOp whose Principal Study is an instrument or voice at the Major level are required to present public performance examination recitals as part of their course. They must also successfully complete technical "in-unit" examinations not open to the public. The examination recitals normally take place in June and October/November each year.

The requirements for public examination recitals are set out in Table 5.17.

Students should discuss their recital programs with their teacher and Chair of Unit at the beginning of the examination semester or the semester before. It is the student's responsibility to discuss suitable repertoire and performance requirements with their teachers to avoid inappropriate choices and problems with the availability of associate artists/accompanists. Recital programs must be submitted for formal approval by the Chair of Unit by the conclusion of week 9 of the appropriate semester. Forms and the examination recitals leaflet are available from the Recitals Coordinator.

Candidates for public recital examinations are assessed against the following criteria:

- The performance, as a whole, displayed instrumental or vocal control appropriate to the level of examination.
- The performance was accurate with respect to rhythm, pitch, articulation and dynamic.
- The performance (where appropriate) was a faithful reading and/or memorisation of the composer's text.
- The performance displayed musically effective production, projection and variation of tone.
- The candidate communicated well with other players, demonstrating good listening and ensemble skills, and leadership (where appropriate).
- The performance communicated an understanding of expressive, stylistic, musical and structural issues.
- The performance displayed musical creativity, artistic individuality and effective audience communication.

Transfer from Minor to Major Principal Study

Instrumental and vocal students may apply to transfer from Minor level study to Major level at the end of Principal Study 2. Students requesting transfer will be expected to undertake an audition to demonstrate skills and achievement equivalent to that required of equivalent Major level students. Successful students will usually be permitted to transfer to Principal Study 3 (Major) only on the understanding that they would be required to have maintained the 48 credit point per annum model across their enrolment and that no credit would be given to bridge the gap between Principal Study at Minor level and Principal Study at Major level.

Students should apply to take the audition and transfer levels before the end of the mid-semester break for the following semester. Students should note that in some cases a transfer from Major level to Minor level of Principal Study at Major level will also require a transfer to another undergraduate award. Application forms are available from the Student Administration at least two weeks before the commencement of teaching in the semester for which the transfer is sought. Students should note that it is not possible to apply to transfer to another course in their last semester.

Undergraduate units of study by area

Tables 5.19 to 5.25 list units of study for the Diploma of Music, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Music Studies and the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music Studies. They are listed by area as described in the Core Requirements tables (Tables 5.1, 5.4, 5.6, 5.8, 5.10 and 5.12). Students should consult the individual unit of study descriptions for information about prerequisites and corequisites, restrictions on enrolment and other information.

This component includes an historical overview of the development of musical notation and will also focus on changing practices in the 20th century - additions and modifications to traditional notation, time/space and aleatoric notation, musical graphics, notation of electronic music etc, and the ideas which underlie the techniques covered.
3. Aspects of pitch rhythm and form: an introduction to concepts relating to the use of instrumental/sound material is organised ranging from traditional to more contemporary approaches.
4. Production to orchestration. Students will look at the development of the orchestra and will examine techniques of orchestration up to, and including, works from the early 20th century repertoire. For further information, contact the Chair of Unit.

Corequisites: CMPN 2003 Composition 3 (Major).
Assessment: Class exercises, assignments (40%); take home exam (60%).
A major component of the unit is the study of variation technique as a compositional principle. Works from various historical periods are analysed in-so-far as they relate to variational patterns and cycles. Techniques of elaboration in both solo and multi-voiced composition such as contrapuntal techniques and processes of prolongation and elongation are investigated. Concepts of timbre and texture are introduced by the study of works by various composers and the processes of klangfarben construction are examined in works such as Schoenberg's Orchestral Pieces Op. 16 and Webern's Five Pieces for Orchestra Op. 10. This unit provides innovations in ensemble and orchestral writing in the works of composers such as Ives, Varese, Messiaen and early post-war composers such as Lutoslawski, Ligeti and Xenakis.

The purpose of this unit is to introduce students to the study of education through an examination of the purposes of schooling, a study of the developing child, and the development of some basic teaching skills. A course of lectures and seminars will be supplemented by microteaching experiences at Fort St Public School. The cognitive and learning models of development will be our main tool as we examine them as a background to their study of teaching. Subsequently students will observe, analyse and practise some basic teaching and lesson components, namely, introductions, conclusions, questioning, reinforcement and variability. Students not enrolled in BMus(Music Education) are required to meet with the Course Coordinator before enrolling in this unit. For further information contact Dr R. Gilbert (General Studies).

The origins and development of behaviourism, cognitivism and humanism in educational psychology will be reviewed and related to teaching methods and practices, and to the specific issues of motivation and the transfer of learning. Each approach will be examined for its relevance to the different types of learning evident in music education. The classroom teaching skills which facilitate each type of learning will be identified and practised. Finally, the integral role of assessment and evaluation in providing feedback development of successful teaching and learning will be highlighted. Students not enrolled in BMus(Music Education) are required to meet with the Course Coordinator before enrolling in this unit. For further information contact Dr D. Collins (General Studies).

GENS 2000 Education 3: Developmental Psychology
3 credit points. B Mus Studies. UG Study Abroad Program. I. Smith (General Studies). Session: Semester 1. Classes: 3hr lec and 3hr tut/wk. Prerequisites: GENS1001 Education 2. Assessment: One seminar presentation (30%), one 1500w essay, research report or case study (40%), and several short examinations (30%).

A unit designed to provide students with knowledge, understanding, and skills related to the developing needs of adolescents within the contexts of the human life span and secondary school education. It focuses on the developmental tasks of adolescence and the various interacting forces that influence adolescents' motivations, achievements, and adjustments. It provides an awareness of the changing roles of adolescents in Australian society and of the individual differences that exist in these roles. Specific references to the interaction of developmental psychology with music education are regularly included. Student involvement in case study, observational, and survey research will be used to increase learners' awareness of the adolescent period and to develop skills that can be applied in secondary school environments. Students not enrolled in BMus(Music Education) are required to meet with the Course Coordinator before enrolling in this unit. For further information contact Dr D. Collins (General Studies).
GEND 2001 Education 4: Studies in Teaching
3 credit points. B Mus Studies, UG Study Abroad Program. Dr R. Gilbert (General Studies).
Session: Semester 2. Classes: 2hr lee and 1hr tut/wk. Assessment: One 1500w essay (30%), seminar participation (30%), final exam (40%). The purpose of this unit is to use the prior practical and academic experiences of those enrolled in the Bachelor of Music (Music Education) program as a basis for the development of further skills in, and understanding of, classroom teaching. The content will consist of two related strands, namely, cooperative learning and classroom management. Cooperative learning is emphasised because there has been a tendency for music teachers to work mainly in a teacher centred setting. Students will study cooperative learning by working in small groups practising advanced questioning and active listening skills. The second strand, classroom management, will emphasise such concepts as demonstrating authority, organising the classroom, choosing rules and procedures, communicating with students and the management approaches of Glasser, Canter and Dreikurs.
Students not enrolled in BMus(Music Education) are required to meet with the Course Coordinator before enrolling in this unit. For further information contact Dr D. Collins (General Studies).

GEND 3000 Education 5: Philosophy and History
3 credit points. B Mus Studies, UG Study Abroad Program. Dr D. Collins (General Studies).
Session: Semester 1. Classes: 1hr lee and 1hr tut/wk. Assessment: One 2000w essay (50%), seminar presentation (50%). The purpose of this unit is to assist students in their thinking about the aims and practices of education by introducing them to a study of the philosophy and history of education. Emphasis is placed upon the methods of philosophical thought and upon encouraging students to apply these in their thinking and discussion of the nature of education and educational processes. The students are introduced to some of the great educational thinkers and to contemporary educational thought in order to stimulate them to examine educational issues and to apply the methods of analysis they are learning to the teaching of music. Students not enrolled in BMus(Music Education) are required to meet with the Course Coordinator before enrolling in this unit. For further information contact Dr D. Collins (General Studies).

GEND 3001 Education 6: Curriculum- Theory & Design
3 credit points. B Mus Studies, UG Study Abroad Program. Dr R. Gilbert (General Studies).
Session: Semester 1. Classes: 2hr lee and 1hr tut/wk. Assessment: Seminar presentation (30%) portfolio containing a curriculum design and reflective discussion (70%). The study of curriculum asks, “What should students learn?” and, “How should this learning take place?”. In a democratic society where teachers have considerable choice in the selection of content and the mode of delivery it is essential that student teachers be aware of the philosophical and theoretical issues relating to curriculum and to the process of curriculum design. The purpose of this unit is to introduce students to curriculum theory through the study of current practices and through the activity of course design.
The content of the unit will be presented under four major headings:

i. Forms of curriculum organisation;

ii. Curriculum development in New South Wales;

iii. The elements of curriculum, viz., objectives, content, method and evaluation;

Students not enrolled in BMus(Music Education) are required to meet with the Course Coordinator before enrolling in this unit. For further information contact Dr R. Gilbert (General Studies).

GEND 4001 Education 7: Individual Differences
3 credit points. B Mus Studies. M. Delaney (General Studies).

A unit designed for students undertaking studies in special education as part of their regular teacher training in music education. Students will be given an understanding of the reasons why children with disabilities attend regular schools, and strategies that can be used to optimise the educational experiences of students with disabilities in regular classes. This course fulfils the NSW Government 1992 Special Needs Condition of Employment for Teacher Education Graduates. Students not enrolled in BMus(Music Education) are required to meet with the Course Coordinator before enrolling in this unit. For further information contact Dr D. Collins (General Studies).

Electronic Music
CMPN 1007 Electronic Music 1
3 credit points. B Mus Studies, Dip Mus, UG Study Abroad Program. Dr A. Hood (Composition and Music Technology).
Session: Semester 1. Classes: 2hr lab/studio session/tut/wk. Prerequisites: MUCED1002 Music Technology 1. Assessment: Sound examples of processed material (30%), an essay on musical work (70%). Transformation of digitised audio using Digital Signal Processing can create a continuum from acoustic to electronic soundworlds. Exploring these new soundworlds presents exciting new challenges and opportunities for composers. By the end of this unit, students will have developed; an understanding of Digital Signal Processing (DSP) where samples of sound become constituent, skills associated with the building of an electroacoustic sound piece, a knowledge of some of the relevant repertoire, and skills in recording, editing and mixing.

Harmony and Analysis

MCGY 1008 Harmony and Analysis 1
- 3 credit points. B Mus Studies, Dip Mus, UG Study Abroad Program. L. Cornwell (Musicology).
- Session: Semester 1, Semester 2.
- Classes: 1 lecture, 1 tutorial/wk.
- Assessment: Assignments (40%), examination (60%).

An understanding of the materials of tonal music is fundamental to all aspects of a student's musicianship. The acquisition of practical skills in harmony provides a means of examining in their essence issues of musical structure and technique that apply throughout the tonal repertoire. In February Semester students gain fluency in writing four-part harmonisations using diatonic vocabulary, learning the basic chord functions and voice-leading patterns that will provide a framework for later elaboration. Exercises in species counterpoint are included to assist in the comprehension of voice leading principles, and the linear conception of music is further explored through introductory exercises in analysis.

MCGY 1009 Harmony and Analysis 2
- 3 credit points. B Mus Studies, Dip Mus, UG Study Abroad Program. L. Cornwell (Musicology).
- Session: Semester 1, Semester 2.
- Classes: 1 lecture, 1 tutorial/wk.
- Assessment: Assignments (40%), examination (60%).

Having acquired basic skills in voice leading and an understanding of diatonic chord functions, students are introduced to more advanced concepts that are encountered frequently in the tonal repertoire. These include modulation, diatonic sequences and techniques for working with instrumental textures. Counterpoint studies are continued, both in practice and in analysis, where some aspects of Baroque musical forms are considered.

MCGY 2010 Harmony and Analysis 3
- 3 credit points. B Mus Studies, Dip Mus, UG Study Abroad Program. L. Cornwell (Musicology).
- Session: Semester 1, Semester 2.
- Classes: 4 lectures and 8 keyboard tutorials/semester, 1 tutorial/wk.
- Assessment: MCGY1008 Harmony and Analysis 2.
- Assignments: Assignments (30%), Keyboard assessments (30%) examination (40%).

In Semesters 1 and 2 some separation is maintained between studies in counterpoint and harmony but the emphasis here is upon drawing together these two aspects. An ideal model for this approach is offered by the chorales of J.S. Bach, which form a focus in Semester 3.

Each topic is, however, extended to embrace later styles and as­signments include the writing of short piano pieces, along with chorale settings and figured-bass exercises. With the benefit of a broader harmonic vocabulary, students will also investigate some aspects of fugal technique and sonata forms.

MCGY 2011 Harmony and Analysis 4
- 3 credit points. B Mus Studies, Dip Mus, UG Study Abroad Program. L. Cornwell (Musicology).
- Session: Semester 1, Semester 2.
- Classes: 1 lecture, 1 tutorial/wk.
- Assessment: MCGY2010 Harmony and Analysis 3.
- Assignments: Assignments (50%), examination (50%).

The study of pre-20th century tonal harmony is completed with a consideration of chromatic techniques, particularly those found in the music of the first half of the 19th century. An exhaustive study of these 19th century techniques is beyond the scope of a course at this level, but is intended that students will at least acquire the ability to look further into the music of that period as they encounter it. In keeping with the stylistic orientation of the course, emphasis is placed upon developing facility with instrumental textures and working with some of the smaller forms found in 19th century music.

Music through Literature
MCGY 3017 Music Through Literature
3 credit points. B Mus Studies, Dip Mus, UG Study Abroad Program. Session: Semester 1. Classes: One 1hr seminar/wk. Assessment: Seminar presentation (50%); 2000w essay (50%).
This unit will explore specific works of literature which deal with musical matters or which make significant statements about musical aesthetics. The contribution towards understanding musical experience of creative artists who are not, or not primarily, musicians, is sometimes ignored in courses for the training of musicians. Yet, in the case of writers, such artists are often better equipped than musical professionals to capture in words, the ineffable nature of musical experience and aesthetics. Moreover their place as receivers rather than makers sometimes enables them to make statements about the broader cultural significance from a perspective outside that of production and performance. This course exists to allow trainee performers, teachers and musicologists an opportunity to explore such perspectives.
Topics will include novels by: Thomas Mann, Herman Hesse, Gunter Grass, Milan Kundera, James Joyce, Bruce Chatwin, Thea Astley, Vikram Seth and others. For further information contact Chair (Musicology).

Assessment: Weekly journal and 2 short written tasks (65%), seminar contribution (20%), seminar presentation (15%).
The unit of study provides musicians/performance makers with opportunities to engage in cross-art form practice through exploring the collaborative process in a specific performance project. In 2004, the project will be a collaborative music project "Song of Ghosts" with PACT Youth Theatre. The aim of this unit is to develop skills in three key areas: improvisation, running a Creative Music Workshop, and skills for professional development. Students will be given the opportunity to gain leadership experience by leading various musical tasks in the seminars. A generic approach is taken to the improvisation work that can be applied to other improvisatory contexts. Students will bring their own style to the class.

Musicology Major, Minor and Honours
MCGY 1017 Musicology 1 (Major)
6 credit points. B Mus (Mus Ed), B Mus (Musicology), B Mus Studies, UG Study Abroad Program. Dr K. Nelson (Musicology). Session: Semester 1. Semester 2.
Classes: One 2hr class/wk and attendance at Musicology Workshop. Assessment: Annotated bibliography and 2500w paper on a topic of medieval music (to early 15th century), research process (100%).
The emphasis in Musicology 1-4 (Major) is strongly methodological, and is directed towards training students to become increasingly self-reliant researchers, as well as assisting them in the clear and accurate presentation of their findings. Topics to some extent will relate to areas covered contemporaneously in the foundation Music History courses. Assessment is primarily based on the major written paper for each semester. In addition, the assessing tutor will normally take into account the research process and initiative demonstrated by the student throughout the semester. The paper lengths specified are a guide only and are likely to vary according to the project. Students in Musicology 1 (Major) will attend Musicology Workshop but are not required to present a major paper or enrol in that unit. From Musicology 3 (Major), students will be required to enrol and participate in Musicology Workshop as a corequisite.

Candidates who demonstrate through audition, interview and/or portfolio of work that they have the capacity to undertake the Master of Applied Science in Music Performance or the Master of Music degree in Performance, Composition, Musicology, Applied Research in Music Performance or Music Education but whose prior learning is deficient in a specific area may, on the advice of the Graduate Studies Committee be admitted to the Masters Preliminary Course.

Programs within the master's preliminary courses will be drawn from existing undergraduate units of study within the Conservatorium, programs delivered by the Student Learning Centre at the University of Sydney, and preliminary research projects in the student's area of research interest, designed to give the student basic research competencies. Programs will be designed around the individual needs of particular students on the advice of the admission panel.

The course normally represents 15 credit points per semester, and is subject to pro-rata fee payment.

Assessment in this course will consist of the following:

- Completion of assessment requirements of specified undergraduate units of study and Student Learning Centre units as stipulated by the Head of School, and
- A long essay of 5000 words on a negotiated topic, demonstrating competence in research and academic writing.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

Candidates may undertake supervised research in composition, music education, musicology, performance or interdisciplinary applied research in The Australian Centre for Applied Research in Music Performance (ACARMP). Regulations for doctoral study at the Conservatorium are governed by the regulations of the Senate of the University of Sydney for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy and by resolutions of the Academic Board. These are set out in the Postgraduate Research Studies Handbook available from the Conservatorium and also from Sydney University Postgraduate Representative Association (SUPRA).

Admission is determined on the basis that an applicant will:

- have gained either a relevant master's degree by research, a relevant master's degree by coursework with a minimum grade point average of 80 per cent, or a relevant Bachelor's degree with 1st or 2nd class honours
- submit to the Conservatorium an outline of proposed research which, in the opinion of the Conservatorium, is appropriate for study at doctoral level and will make a substantial contribution to the candidate's field of study
- demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Conservatorium that the necessary training, skills and ability required for doctoral study and successful completion of the proposed research have been acquired, and
- in addition to these requirements, in the case of progression by performance and thesis, successfully perform at an audition on the chosen instrument/voice.
Admission to candidature for the PhD is probationary for the first twelve months of enrolment. The University’s policies governing annual review of candidature apply.

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy is awarded by the University to appropriately qualified candidates who have fulfilled a program of research and submitted a thesis. The means for meeting these requirements consist of either a thesis of between 80,000 and 100,000 words, a portfolio of compositions with accompanying thesis of between 15,000 and 20,000 words, or three substantial recitals with an accompanying thesis of between 30,000 and 80,000 words. Candidates can also be expected to attend seminars to support their research. In the case of the Doctor of Philosophy by portfolio of compositions and thesis, the thesis consists of analytical notes on the portfolio. In the case of the Doctor of Philosophy by performance and thesis, candidates will perform twice a semester in a suitable graduate context and in addition to the thesis, write detailed, analytical documentation to support the required three recitals (minimum of 3,000 words for each recital).

Candidates for the degree of PhD are supervised by appropriately appointed staff. In the case of candidates studying for the PhD by thesis and performance, this is normally four full-time semesters of performance supervision and two full-time semesters of academic supervision. The seminar requirement for such students is ongoing enrolment in Graduate Seminar and in research seminars as required by candidates’ research topics and backgrounds.

Intending candidates should refer to the admission and degree requirements in the University of Sydney Statutes and Regulations and the Postgraduate Research Studies Handbook. They should also discuss their application and intended research with the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies) in the first instance.

The audition panel retains the right to curtail the performance and select excerpts of the works presented as it sees fit. At the interview, candidates should be prepared to discuss their proposed area of research and its relationship to their performance work.

Course structure

The Master of Music (Performance) course is minimally completed in two years of full-time study and comprises a Major study in an instrument or voice, and academic units. The academic studies component assumes that candidates have a sound basic knowledge of the history and harmonic practice of Western music from at least the Baroque era to the present day. The purpose of the seminar program is to build upon this knowledge in a manner appropriate to the requirements of the mature postgraduate performance Major.

Candidature will include:

- Individual lessons together with masterclasses and graduate seminars (attendance and performances mandatory). An instrumental or vocal teacher will be appointed for each candidate to act as the principal supervisor;
- participation in seminars dealing with essential areas of research method and music analysis and with transitional periods in western music history;
- development and presentation of four 50 minute recitals or performance projects which demonstrate originality and which investigate and expand the boundaries of the discipline of performance. Each performance is accompanied by Critical Notes which articulate the aim of the performance and its place in the area of the student’s research enquiry;
- submission of a thesis of 10,000 - 15,000 words on a topic relevant to the performance interest developed with the supervisor and where appropriate, a co-supervisor who will be appointed to advise on research and the Critical Notes and the thesis components.

Graduate Diploma in Music (Opera) and Master of Music Studies (Opera), GradDipMus(Opera) and MMusStud(Opera)

The study of opera within the Graduate Diploma and the Master of Music Studies (Opera) is designed to meet the needs of graduate opera students who wish to extend their technical knowledge of the repertoire and performance practice. It is intended for graduates and professional singers who wish to enhance those skills required on the opera and music theatre stage.

Admission is determined on the basis of:

- successful completion of a relevant undergraduate program.
- applicants who do not have a recognised tertiary award but who demonstrate an equivalent musical ability and maturity at the audition and interview, and who can show considerable performing experience may be admitted; and
- an audition; and
- an interview.
Audition requirements
Candidates should be prepared to present a varied program of at least four arias at an advanced level of difficulty and to a high standard of excellence. In an interview following the performance, the student will outline a proposed plan of study.

Course structure
The course aims to develop and refine the technical and interpretive qualities of the student’s voice as an operatic instrument with emphasis on developing self-sufficiency in role selection, concert repertoire and program building.

It includes a focus on text related matters in various kinds of vocal music to foster the development of skills as an interpreter in all the major operatic languages. Candidates also study language structure, poetry, and operatic text within a cultural and historical context and will focus on increasing awareness of the word/music relationship.

Both the Graduate Diploma and the Masters include a series of masterclasses, ensemble rehearsals, workshops and concert and/or staged performances to develop skills as an operatic performer, with particular emphasis on character and role building, movement and gesture, the understanding of emotional context and general communication skills.

The Opera Performance Portfolio in the Masters course requires selection of a particular aspect of operatic specialisation for extensive exploration. This investigation may focus on the historical, cultural and political contexts of the operas or could explore unifying thematic or stylistic elements of selected roles. The final presentation of all the roles studied is accompanied by a written reflective element.

Tables 7.9 and 7.10 show the structures of the Graduate Diploma of Music (Opera) and the Master of Music Studies (Opera). These programs normally are available only for full-time study.

Students enrolled in the Graduate Diploma of Music (Opera) may apply for admission to the Master of Music Studies (Opera) at the end of Semester 2 if they wish to continue and do not take out the Graduate Diploma.

University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended)

Preliminary

1. Commencement and purpose of Rule

(1) This Rule is made by the Senate pursuant to section 37(1) of the University of Sydney Act 1989 for the purposes of the University of Sydney By-law 1999.

(2) This Rule comes into force on 1 January 2001.

(3) This Rule governs all coursework award courses in the University. It is to be read in conjunction with the University of Sydney (Amendment Act) Rule 1999 and the Resolutions of the Senate and the faculty resolutions relating to each award course in that faculty.

Rules relating to coursework award courses

1. Definitions

In this Rule:

award course means a formally approved program of study which can lead to an academic award granted by the University.

coursework means an award course not designated as a research award course. While the program of study in a coursework award course may include a component of original, supervised research, other forms of instruction and learning normally will be dominant. All undergraduate award courses are coursework award courses.

credit means advanced standing based on previous attainment in another course or at another institution. The advanced standing is expressed as credit points granted towards the award course. Credit may be granted as specific credit or non-specific credit.

specific credit means the recognition of previously completed studies as directly equivalent to units of study; non-specific credit means a “block credit” for a specified number of credit points at a particular level. These credit points may be in a particular subject area but are not linked to a specific unit of study; and credit points means a measure of value indicating the contribution each unit of study provides towards meeting award course completion requirements stated as a total credit point value.

dean means the dean of a faculty or the director or principal of an academic college or the chairperson of a board of studies.

degree means a degree at the level of bachelor or master for the purpose of this Rule.

embedded courses/programs means award courses in the graduate certificate/graduate diploma/master's degree by coursework sequence which allow unit of study credit points to count in more than one of the awards.

faculty means a faculty, college board, a board of studies or the Australian Graduate School of Management Limited as established in each case by its constitution and in these Rules refers to the faculty or faculties responsible for the award course concerned.

major means a defined program of study, generally comprising specified units of study from later stages of the award course.

minor means a defined program of study, generally comprising units of study from later stages of the award course and requiring a smaller number of credit points than a major.

postgraduate award course means an award course leading to the award of a graduate certificate, graduate diploma, degree of master or a doctorate. Normally, a postgraduate award course requires the prior completion of a relevant undergraduate degree or diploma.

research award course means an award course in which students undertake and report systematic, creative work in order to increase the stock of knowledge. The research award courses offered by the University are: higher doctorate, Doctor of Philosophy, doctorates by research and advanced coursework, and certain degrees of master designated as research degrees. The systematic, creative component of a research award course must comprise at least 66 per cent of the overall award course requirements.

stream means a defined program of study within an award course, which requires the completion of a program of study specified by the award course rules for the particular stream, in addition to the core program specified by award course rules for the award course.

student means a person enrolled as a candidate for a course.

testamur means a certificate of award provided to a graduate, usually at a graduation ceremony.

transcript or academic transcript means a printed statement setting out a student's academic record at the University.

unit of study means the smallest stand-alone component of a student's award course that is recordable on a student's transcript. Units of study have an integer credit point value, normally in the range 3-24.

undergraduate award course means an award course leading to the award of an associate diploma, diploma, advanced diploma or degree of bachelor.

2. Authorities and responsibilities

(1) Authorities and responsibilities for the functions set out in this Rule are also defined in the document Academic Delegations of Authority. The latter document sets out the mechanisms by which a person who has delegated authority may appoint an agent to perform a particular function.

(2) The procedures for consideration of, proposals for new and amended award courses will be determined by the Academic Board.

Division 1: Award course requirements, credit points and assessment

3. Award course requirements

(1) To qualify for the award of a degree, diploma or certificate, a student must:

(a) complete the award course requirements specified by the Senate for the award of the degree, diploma or certificate concerned;

(b) complete any other award course requirements specified by the Academic Board on the recommendation of the faculty and published in the faculty resolutions relating to the award course;

(c) complete any other award course requirements specified by the faculty in accordance with its delegated authority.
and published in the faculty resolutions relating to the award course; and
(d) satisfy the requirements of all other relevant by-laws, rules and resolutions of the University.

4. Units of study and credit points
(1) A unit of study comprises the forms of teaching and learning approved by a faculty. Where the unit of study is being provided specifically for an award course which is the responsibility of another faculty, that faculty must also provide approval.
(b) Any faculty considering the inclusion of a unit of study in the tables of units available for an award course for which it is responsible may review the forms of teaching and learning of that unit, may consult with the approving faculty about aspects of that unit and may specify additional conditions with respect to inclusion of that unit of study.
(2) A student completes a unit of study if the student:
(a) participates in the learning experiences provided for the unit of study;
(b) meets the standards required by the University for academic honesty;
(c) meets all examination, assessment and attendance requirements of the unit of study; and
(d) passes the required assessments for the unit of study.
(3) Each unit of study is assigned a specified number of credit points by the faculty responsible for the unit of study.
(4) The total number of credit points required for completion of an award course will be as specified in the Senate resolutions relating to the award course.
(5) The total number of credit points required for completion of award courses in an approved combined award course will be specified in the Senate or faculty resolutions relating to the award course.
(6) A student may, under special circumstances, and in accordance with faculty resolutions, be permitted by the relevant dean to undertake a unit or units of study other than those specified in the faculty resolutions relating to the award course and have that unit or those units of study counted towards fulfilling the requirements of the award course in which the student is enrolled.

5. Unit of study assessment
(1) A student who completes a unit of study will normally be awarded grades of high distinction, distinction, credit or pass, in accordance with policies established by the Academic Board. The grades high distinction, distinction and credit indicate work of a standard higher than that required for a pass.
(2) A student who completes a unit of study for which only a pass/fail result is available will be recorded as having satisfied the requirements.
(3) In determining the results of a student in any unit of study, the whole of the student's work in the unit of study may be taken into account.
(4) Examination and assessment in the University are conducted in accordance with the policies and directions of the Academic Board.

6. Attendance
(1) A faculty has authority to specify the attendance requirements for courses or units of study in that faculty. A faculty must take into account any University policies concerning modes of attendance, equity and disabled access.
(2) A faculty has authority to specify the circumstances under which a student who does not satisfy attendance requirements may be deemed not to have completed a unit of study or an award course.

Division 2: Enrolment

7. Enrolment restrictions
(1) A student who has completed a unit of study towards the requirements of an award course may not re-enrol in that unit of study, except as permitted by faculty resolution or with the written permission of the dean. A student permitted to re-enrol may receive a higher or lower grade, but not additional credit points.
(2) Except as provided in subsection (1), a student may not enrol in any unit of study which overlaps substantially in content with a unit that has already been completed or for which credit or exemption has been granted towards the award course requirements.
(3) A student may not enrol in units of study additional to award course requirements without first obtaining permission from the relevant dean.
(4) Except as prescribed in faculty resolutions or with the permission of the relevant dean:
(a) a student enrolled in an undergraduate course may not enrol in units of study with a total value of more than 32 credit points in any one semester, or 16 credit points in the summer session; and
(b) a student enrolled in a postgraduate award course may not enrol in units of study with a total value of more than 24 credit points in any one semester, or 12 credit points in the summer session.

Division 3: Credit, cross-institutional study and their upper limits

8. Credit for previous studies
(1) Students may be granted credit on the basis of previous studies.
(2) Notwithstanding any credit granted on the basis of work completed or prior learning in another award course at the University of Sydney or in another institution, in order to qualify for an award a student must:
(a) for undergraduate award courses, complete a minimum of two full-time semesters of the award course at the University; and
(b) for postgraduate award courses, complete at least 50 per cent of the requirements prescribed for the award course at the University.
These requirements may be varied where the work was completed as part of an embedded program at the University or as part of an award course approved by the University in an approved joint venture with another institution.
(3) The credit granted on the basis of work completed at an institution other than a university normally should not exceed one third of the overall award course requirements.
(4) A faculty has authority to establish embedded academic sequences in closely related graduate certificate, graduate diploma and master's degree award courses. In such embedded sequences, a student may be granted credit for all or some of the units of study completed in one award of the sequence towards any other award in the sequence, irrespective of whether or not the award has been conferred.
(5) In an award course offered as part of an approved joint venture the provisions for the granting of credit are prescribed in the Resolutions of the Senate and the faculty resolutions relating to that award course.

9. Cross-institutional study
(1) The relevant dean may permit a student to complete a unit or units of study at another university or institution and have that unit or those units of study credited to the student's award course.
(2) The relevant dean has authority to determine any conditions applying to cross-institutional study.

Division 4: Progression

10. Repeating a unit of study
(1) A student who repeats a unit of study shall, unless granted exemption by the relevant dean:
(a) participate in the learning experiences provided for the unit of study; and
(b) meet all examination, assessment and attendance requirements for the unit of study.
(2) A student who presents for re-assessment in any unit of study is not eligible for any prize or scholarship awarded in connection with that unit of study without the permission of the relevant dean.

11. Time limits
A student must complete all the requirements for an award course within ten calendar years or any lesser period if specified by resolution of the Senate or the faculty.
Division 5: Discontinuation of enrolment and suspension of candidature

12. Discontinuation of enrolment
   (1) A student who wishes to discontinue enrolment in an award course or a unit of study must apply to the relevant dean and will be presumed to have discontinued enrolment from the date of that application, unless evidence is produced showing:
      (a) that the discontinuation occurred at an earlier date; and
      (b) that there was good reason why the application could not be made at the earlier time.
   (2) A student who discontinues enrolment during the first year of enrolment in an award course may not re-enrol in that award course unless:
      (a) the relevant dean has granted prior permission to re-enrol; or
      (b) the student is reselected for admission to candidature for that course.
   (3) No student may discontinue enrolment in an award course or unit of study after the end of classes in that award course or unit of study, unless he or she produces evidence that:
      (a) the discontinuation occurred at an earlier date; and
      (b) there was good reason why the application could not be made at the earlier time.
   (4) A discontinuation of enrolment may be recorded as "Withdrawn (W)" or "Discontinued Not To Count As Failure (DNF)" where that discontinuation occurs within the time-frames specified by the University and published by the faculty, or where the student meets other conditions as specified by the relevant faculty.

13. Suspension of candidature
   (1) A student must be enrolled in each semester in which he or she is actively completing the requirements for the award course. A student who wishes to suspend candidature must first obtain approval from the relevant dean.
   (2) The candidature of a student who has not re-enrolled and who has not obtained approval from the dean for suspension will be deemed to have lapsed.
   (3) A student whose candidature has lapsed must apply for re-admission in accordance with procedures determined by the relevant faculty.
   (4) A student who enrolls after suspending candidature shall complete the requirements for the award course under such conditions as determined by the dean.

Division 6: Unsatisfactory progress and exclusion

14. Satisfactory progress
   A faculty has authority to determine what constitutes satisfactory progress for all students enrolled in award courses in that faculty, in accordance with the policies and directions of the Academic Board.

15. Requirement to show good cause
   (1) For the purposes of this Rule, "good cause" means circumstances beyond the reasonable control of a student, which may include serious ill health or misadventure, but does not include demands of employers, pressure of employment or time devoted to non-University activities, unless these are relevant to serious ill health or misadventure. In all cases the onus is on the student to provide the University with satisfactory evidence to establish good cause. The University may take into account relevant aspects of a student’s record in other courses or units of study within the University and relevant aspects of academic studies at other institutions provided that the student presents this information to the University.
   (2) The relevant dean may require a student who has not made satisfactory progress to show good cause why he or she should be allowed to re-enrol.
   (3) The dean will permit a student who has shown good cause to re-enrol.

16. Exclusion for failure to show good cause
   The dean may, where good cause has not been established:
      (1) exclude the student from the relevant course; or
      (2) permit the student to re-enrol in the relevant award course subject to restrictions on units of study, which may include, but are not restricted to:
         (a) completion of a unit or units of study within a specified time;
         (b) exclusion from a unit or units of study, provided that the dean must first consult the head of the department responsible for the unit or units of study; and
         (c) specification of the earliest date upon which a student may re-enrol in a unit or units of study.

17. Applying for re-admission after exclusion
   (1) A student who has been excluded from an award course or from a unit or units of study may apply to the relevant dean for re-admission to the award course or re-enrolment in the unit or units of study concerned after at least four semesters, and that dean may readmit the student to the award course or permit the student to re-enrol in the unit or units of study concerned.
   (2) With the written approval of the relevant dean, a student who has been excluded may be given credit for any work completed elsewhere in the University or in another university during a period of exclusion.

18. Appeals against exclusion
   (1) In this Rule a reference to the Appeals Committee is a reference to the Senate Student Appeals Committee (Exclusions and Re-admissions).
   (2) (a) (i) A student who has been excluded in accordance with this Rule may appeal to the Appeals Committee.
      (ii) A student who has applied for re-admission to an award course or re-enrolment in a unit of study after a period of exclusion, and who is refused re-admission or re-enrolment may also apply to the Appeals Committee.
   (b) The Appeals Committee shall comprise:
      (i) three ex officio members (the Chancellor, the Deputy Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor and Principal);
      (ii) the Chair and Deputy Chairs of the Academic Board;
      (iii) two student Fellows; and
      (iv) up to four other Fellows.
   (c) The Appeals Committee may meet as one or more subcommittees providing that each subcommittee shall include at least one member of each of the categories of:
      (i) ex officio member;
      (ii) Chair or Deputy Chair of the Academic Board;
      (iii) student Fellow; and
      (iv) other Fellows.
   (d) Three members shall constitute a quorum for a meeting of the Appeals Committee or a subcommittee.
   (e) The Appeals Committee and its subcommittees have authority to hear and determine all such appeals and must report its decision to the Senate annually.
   (f) The Appeals Committee or a subcommittee may uphold or disallow any appeal and, at its discretion, may determine the earliest date within a maximum of four semesters at which a student who has been excluded shall be permitted to apply to re-enrol.
   (g) No appeal shall be determined without granting the student the opportunity to appear in person before the Appeals Committee or subcommittee considering the appeal. A student so appearing may be accompanied by a friend or adviser.
   (h) The Appeals Committee or subcommittee may hear the relevant dean but that dean may only be present at those stages at which the student is permitted to be present. Similarly, the dean is entitled to be present when the Committee or subcommittee hears the student.
   (i) If, due notice having been given, a student fails to attend a meeting of the Appeals Committee or subcommittee scheduled to consider that student’s appeal, the Appeals Committee or subcommittee, at its discretion, may defer consideration of the appeal or may proceed to determine the appeal.
   (j) A student who has been excluded in accordance with these resolutions and has lodged a timely appeal against that exclusion may re-enrol pending determination of that appeal if it has not been determined by the commencement of classes in the next appropriate semester.
Division 7: Exceptional circumstances

19. Variation of award course requirements in exceptional circumstances
The relevant dean may vary any requirement for a particular student enrolled in an award course in that faculty where, in the opinion of the dean, exceptional circumstances exist.

(3) Classes which may be used for the award of honours are:
   First Class
   Second Class/Division 1
   Second Class/Division 2
   Third Class
(4) With respect to award courses which include an additional honours year:
   (a) a student may not graduate with the pass degree while enrolled in the honours year;
   (b) on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned, a dean may permit a student who has been awarded the pass degree at a recognised tertiary institution to enrol in the honours year in that faculty;
   (c) faculties may prescribe the conditions under which a student may enrol part-time in the honours year;
   (d) a student who fails or discontinues the honours year may not re-enrol in it, except with the approval of the dean.

22. University Medal

23. Award of the degree of master with honours or merit
The award of honours or pass with merit is reserved to indicate special proficiency or particular pathways to completion. The basis on which a student may qualify for the award of honours or the award with merit in a particular degree is specified in the Faculty Resolutions relating to that degree.

This Rule applies to all candidates for degrees, diplomas and certificates who commence candidature after 1 January 2001. Candidates who commenced candidature prior to this date may choose to proceed in accordance with the resolutions of the Senate in force at the time they enrolled, except that the faculty may determine specific conditions for any student who has re-enrolled in an award course after a period of suspension.

Disability Services is the principal point of contact for advice on assistance available for students with disabilities. The service works closely with academic and administrative staff to ensure that students receive reasonable accommodations in their areas of study. Assistance available includes the provision of note taking, interpreters and advocacy with academic staff to negotiate assessment and course requirement modifications where appropriate. For details on registering with the service and online resources see the Disability Services website via your MyUni student portal or the Services for Students website www.usyd.edu.au/stuserv.

Enrolment

Students entering first year

Details of enrolment procedures will be sent to you with your UAC offer of enrolment. Enrolment takes place at a specific time and date, usually during the last week of January, depending on your surname and the faculty in which you are enrolling. You must attend the University in person and else nominate somebody in writing to act on your behalf. On enrolment day you pay the compulsory fees for joining the Student Union, the Students' Representative Council and sporting bodies. (These are currently subject to Parliamentary Review and may be voluntary in 2006.) You also nominate your preferred payment option, either "up front" or deferred, for your Higher Contribution Scheme (HECS) liability. You will also choose your first-year units of study, so it's important to consult the appropriate faculty handbook before enrolling.

All other students

A pre-enrolment package is sent to all enrolled students in late September and contains instructions on the procedure for pre-enrolment.

Environmental Policy

The University of Sydney's Environmental Policy promotes sustainable resource and product use; and encourages the practice of environmental stewardship by staff and students. The policy is supported by the University wide Sustainable Campus Program.

Financial Assistance Office

The University of Sydney has a number of loan and bursary funds to assist students experiencing financial difficulties. Loan assistance is available for undergraduate and postgraduate students enrolled in degree and diploma courses at the University. The assistance is not intended to provide the principle means of support but to help enrolled students in financial need with expenses such as housing bonds and rent; phone and electricity bills; medical expenses; buying textbooks and course equipment. Loans are interest free and are repayable usually within one year. Bursaries may be awarded depending on financial need and academic merit and are usually only available to local full-time undergraduate students. Advertised bursaries, including First Year Bursaries, are advertised through the MyUni student portal in January each year. For details of types of assistance and online resources provided by the service see the Financial Assistance website via your MyUni student portal or the Services for Students website www.usyd.edu.au/stuserv.

Freedom of Information

The University of Sydney falls within the jurisdiction of the NSW Freedom of Information Act, 1989. The act:

• requires information concerning documents held by the University to be made available to the public;
• enables a member of the public to obtain access to documents held by the University; and
• enables a member of the public to ensure that records held by the University concerning his or her personal affairs are not incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading.

(Note that a "member of the public" includes staff and students of the University.)

It is a requirement of the act that applications be processed and a determination made within a specified time period, generally 21 days. Determinations are made by the University’s Registrar.

While application may be made to access University documents, some may not be released in accordance with particular exemptions.
provided by the act. There are review and appeal mechanisms which apply when access has been refused.

The University is required to report to the public on its freedom of information (FOI) activities on a regular basis. The two reports produced are the Statement of Affairs and the Summary of Affairs. The Statement of Affairs contains information about the University, its structure, function and the kinds of documents held. The Summary of Affairs identifies the University’s policy documents and provides information on how to make an application for access to University documents.

Further information and copies of the current reports may be found at www.usyd.edu.au/arms/foi

(Grievances) Appeals
You may consider that a decision affecting your candidature for a degree or other activities at the University has not taken into account all relevant matters.

In some cases the by-laws or resolutions of the Senate (see the University Calendar (http://www.usyd.edu.au/about/publication/pub/calendar.shtml)) provide for a right of appeal against particular decisions; for example, there is provision for appeal against academic decisions, disciplinary decisions and exclusion after failure.

A document outlining the current procedures for appeals against academic decisions is available at the Student Centre, at the SRC, and on the University’s policy online website (http://www.usyd.edu.au/policy) (click on “Study at the University”, then click on “Appeals” - see the Academic Board and Senate resolutions).

MyUni Student Portal

Launched in July 2004, the MyUni student portal (http://my­uni.usyd.edu.au) is the starting point and “one-stop” environment for students to access all their web-based University information and services. MyUni automatically tailors what a student sees based on their login-in and offers students the option of further personalising content. Most importantly, MyUni allows students to complete tasks online that would previously have required attendance in person. The following are examples of MyUni services and information:

- support services for students in health, counselling, child care, accommodation, employment and well-being;
- student administration systems for obtaining exam results, enrolment and variations, timetabling, email services and links to courses and units of study information;
- links to the University’s e-learning systems;
- library services;
- important messages and student alerts;
- information technology and support services;
- information for international students; and
- campus maps, with descriptions of cultural, sporting and campus facilities.

Part-time, full-time

Undergraduate Students

Undergraduate students are usually considered full-time if they have a student load of at least 0.375 each semester. Anything under this amount is considered a part-time study load. Note that some faculties have minimum study load requirements for satisfactory progress.

Postgraduate Students (Coursework)

For postgraduate coursework students part-time or full-time status is determined by credit-point load. Enrolment in units of study which total at least 18 credit points in a semester is classed as full-time. Anything under this amount is a part-time study load. Please note that classes for some coursework programs are held in the evenings (usually 6-9pm).

Postgraduate Students (Research)

Full-time candidates for research degrees do not keep to the normal semester schedule, instead they work continuously throughout the year with a period of four weeks recreation leave. There is no strict definition of what constitutes full-time candidature but if you have employment or other commitments that would prevent you from devoting at least the equivalent of a 35-hour working week to your candidature (including attendance at the University for lectures, seminars, practical work and consultation with your supervisor) you should enrol as a part-time candidate. If in doubt you should consult your faculty or supervisor.

International Students

Student visa regulations require international students to undertake full-time study. International students on visas other than student visas may be permitted to study part-time.

Privacy

The University is subject to the NSW Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the NSW Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002. Central to both acts are the sets of information protection principles (IPPs) and health privacy principles which regulate the collection, management, use and disclosure of personal and health information. In compliance with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act the University developed a Privacy Management Plan which includes the University Privacy Policy. The Privacy Management Plan sets out the IPPs and how they apply to functions and activities carried out by the University. Both the plan and the University Privacy Policy were endorsed by the Vice-Chancellor on 28 June 2000.

Further information and a copy of the plan may be found at www.usyd.edu.au/arms/privacy.

Any questions regarding the Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act, the Health Records and Information Privacy Act or the Privacy Management Plan should be directed to:

Student Identity Cards

The student identity card functions as a library borrowing card, a transport concession card (when suitably endorsed) and a general identity card. The card must be carried at all times on the grounds of the University and must be shown on demand. Students are required to provide a passport-sized colour photograph of their head and shoulders for lamination on to this card. Free lamination is provided at a range of sites throughout the University during the January/February enrolment/pre-enrolment period. Cards that are not laminated, or do not include a photograph, will be rejected. New identity cards are required for each year of a student’s enrolment.

Student Services

The University provides personal, welfare, administrative and academic support services to facilitate your success at University. Many factors can impact on your wellbeing while studying at university and student services can assist you in managing and handling these more effectively. For details of services and online resources provided see the Student Services website (http://www.usyd.edu.au/stu/userv).
The Sydney Summer School
Most faculties at the University offer units of study from undergraduate degree programs during summer. There are also some units of study available for postgraduate coursework programs from some faculties. As the University uses its entire quota of Commonwealth supported places in first and second semester, these units are full fee-paying for both local and international students and enrolment is entirely voluntary. However, Summer School units enable students to accelerate their degree progress, make up for a failed unit or fit in a unit which otherwise would not suit their timetables. New students may also gain a head start by completing subjects before they commence their degrees. Units start at various times from late November and run for up to six weeks (followed by an examination week). Notice of the units available is on the Summer School website (http://www.summer.usyd.edu.au) and is usually circulated to students with their results notices. A smaller Winter School is also run from the Summer School office. It commences on 3 July and runs for up to three weeks (followed by an examination week). It offers mainly postgraduate and a few undergraduate units of study. Information can be found on the Summer School website (http://www.summer.usyd.edu.au).

Timetabling Unit
The Timetabling Unit in the Student Centre is responsible for producing students’ class and tutorial timetables. Semester One timetables are available from the Wednesday of O Week through the MyUni website (http://myuni.usyd.edu.au).

University Health Service
The University Health Service provides full general practitioner services and emergency medical care to all members of the University community. Medical centres on the Camperdown and Darlington Campuses offer general practitioners, physiotherapy and some specialist services.

A

Annual average mark (AAM)
The average mark over all units of study attempted in a given academic year (equivalent to the calendar year).
The formula for this calculation is:

AAM = \frac{2 \times (\text{marks} \times \text{credit point value})}{2 \times (\text{credit point value})}

(sums over all units of study completed in the selected period)
Where the mark is the actual mark obtained by the student for the unit of study, or in the case of a failing grade with no mark - 0. Pass/Fail assessed subjects and credit transfer subjects (from another institution) are excluded from these calculations; however, the marks from all attempts at a unit of study are included.

Academic Board
The senior academic body within the University. In conjunction with faculties, the Academic Board has responsibility for approving, or recommending to Senate for approval, new or amended courses and units of study and policy relating to the admission and candidature of students. (For further information, see the University Calendar.)

Academic cycle
The program of teaching sessions offered over a year. Currently the cycle runs from the enrolment period for Semester One through to the completion of the processing of results at the end of Semester Two. (See also Stage.)

Academic dishonesty
Academic dishonesty occurs when a student presents another person's ideas, findings or written work as his or her own by copying or reproducing them without due acknowledgement of the source and with intent to deceive the examiner. Academic dishonesty also covers recycling, fabrication of data, engaging another person to complete an assessment or cheating in exams. (See also Plagiarism.)

Academic record
The complete academic history of a student at the University. It includes, among other things: personal details; all units of study and courses taken; assessment results (marks and grades); awards and prizes obtained; infringements of progression rules; approvals for variation in course requirements and course leave; thesis and supervision details.

Access to a student's academic record is restricted to authorised University staff and is not released to a third party without the written authorisation of the student. (See also Academic transcript.)

Academic transcript
A printed statement setting out a student's academic record at the University. There are two forms of academic transcript: external and internal. (See also External transcript, Internal transcript.)

Academic year
The current calendar year in which a student is enrolled. (See also Academic cycle, Stage.)

Admission
Governed by the University's admission policy, this is the process for identifying applicants eligible to receive an initial offer of enrolment in a course at the University. Admission to most courses is based on performance in the HSC, with applicants ranked on the basis of their UAI. Other criteria such as a portfolio, interview, audition, or results in standard tests may also be taken into account for certain courses.

Admission basis
The main criteria used by a faculty in assessing an application for admission to a course. The criteria used include, among other things, previous secondary, TAFE or tertiary studies; work experience; special admission; and the Universities Admission Index (UAI).

Admission (Deferment)
An applicant who receives an offer of admission to a course may apply to defer enrolment in that course for one semester or one academic cycle.

Admission mode
A classification based on how a student was admitted to a course, for example "UAC" or "direct".

Admission period
The period during which applications for admission to courses are considered.

Admission year
The year the student expects to begin the course (see also Commencement date.)

Annual average mark (AAM)
The average mark over all units of study attempted in a given academic year (equivalent to the calendar year).

The formula for this calculation is:
\text{AAM} = \frac{\text{mark} \times \text{credit_pt_value}}{\text{credit_pt_value}}
(sums over all units of study completed in the selected period)

Where the mark is the actual mark obtained by the student for the unit of study, or in the case of a failing grade with no mark - 0. Pass/Fail assessed subjects and credit transfer subjects (from another institution) are excluded from these calculations; however, the marks from all attempts at a unit of study are included.

Assessment
The process of measuring the performance of students in units of study and courses. Performance may be assessed by examinations, essays, laboratory projects, assignments, theses, treatises or dissertations. (See also Result processing, Result processing schedule.)

Formative assessment
Formative assessment is used principally to provide students with feedback on their progress in learning. It reinforces successful learning and is an opportunity for students to expose the limitations in their knowledge and understanding.

Summative assessment
Summative assessment is used to certify competence, or to arrange students in a rank order of merit. It certifies the attainment of a standard, and is used as the basis for progression to the next part of a program, or to graduation.

Assumed knowledge
For some units of study, a student is assumed to have passed a relevant subject at the HSC and this is called assumed knowledge. While students are generally advised against taking a unit of study for which they do not have the assumed knowledge, they are not prevented from enrolling in the unit of study. (See also Prerequisite.)

Attendance pattern
Attendance pattern is classified as full-time, part-time or external, this is dependant on the student's mode of attendance and the student load.

College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHASS)
Consists of the Faculties of Arts; Economics and Business; Education; Law; the Sydney College of the Arts; and the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Combined course
A course which leads to two awards. For example the Arts/Law course leads to the separate awards of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws.

Combined degree
A combined degree is a single program with a single set of course resolutions leading to the award of two degrees (unless otherwise specified in the resolutions). (See also Combined course.)

Commencement date
The date a student commences candidature.

Compulsory subscriptions
Each enrolled student is liable to pay annual (or semester) subscriptions, as determined by the Senate, to the student organisations at the University. There are different organisations for undergraduate and postgraduate students.

Conscience
Objections to payment of subscriptions to unions of any kind may apply to the Registrar for exemption. The Registrar may permit such a student to make the payment to the Jean Foley Bursary Fund instead. (See also Compulsory subscriptions.)

Confirmation of Enrolment form (COE)
This form is issued to each student after enrolment, showing the course and the units of study in which the student is enrolled, together with the credit point value of the units of study and the HECS weights. Until all fees are paid, it is issued provisionally. A new confirmation of enrolment form is produced every time a student's enrolment is varied.

Conjoint ventures
Two or more institutions cooperate to provide a unit or course of study to postgraduate coursework students. Arrangements exist between individual departments at the University of Sydney and individual departments at the University of New South Wales (UNSW) and the University of Technology Sydney (UTS), whereby students enrolled for a degree at one institution complete one or more units of study at the other institution to count towards the award program at their "home" institution.

Continuing professional education
A process which provides a number of programs of continuing education courses for professionals as they move through their career. These programs are presently administered by the Centre for Continuing Education and a number of departments and foundations across the University. This process supports the whole of life learning concept and involves the maintenance of a long term relationship between the student and the University.

Convocation
The body comprising all graduates of the University.

Core unit of study
A unit of study that is compulsory for a particular course or subject area. (See also Unit of study.)

Corequisite
A unit of study which must be taken in the same semester or year as a given unit of study (unless it has already been completed). These are determined by the faculty or board of studies concerned, published in the faculty handbook and shown in FlexSIS. (See also Prerequisite, Waiver.)

Cotutelle Scheme
Agreement between the University and any overseas university for joint supervision and examination of a PhD student as part of an ongoing cooperative research collaboration. If successful, the student receives a doctorate from both universities with each testamur acknowledging the circumstances under which the award was made.

Course
An undertaking of study at the University of Sydney.

Award course
A formal course of study that will see attainment of a recognised award. Award courses are approved by Senate, on the recommendation of the Academic Board. The University broadly classifies courses as undergraduate, postgraduate coursework or postgraduate research. (See also Bachelor's degree, Course rules, Diploma, Doctorate, Major, Master's degree, Minor, PhD, Stream.)

Non-award course
Studies undertaken by students who are not seeking an award from the University. (See also Cross-institutional enrolment.)

Coursework
An award course not designated as a research award course. While the program of study in a coursework award course may include a component of original, supervised, other forms of instruction and learning normally will be dominant.

Research
A course in which at least 66 per cent of the overall course requirements involve students in undertaking supervised research, leading to the production of a thesis or other piece of written or creative work, over a prescribed period of time.

Course alias
A unique five character alpha-numeric code which identifies a University course.

Course code
(See Course alias.)

Course enrolment status
A student's enrolment status in a course is either "enrolled" or "not enrolled". "Not enrolled" reasons include: cancelled; suspended; under examination; or terminated. (See also Cancellation, Candidature, Course leave, Enrolment, Enrolment variation, Terminated, Under examination.)

Course leave
Students are permitted to apply for a period away from their course without losing their place. Course leave is formally approved by the supervising faculty for a minimum of one semester. Students on leave are regarded as having an active candidature, but they are not entitled to a student card. At undergraduate level, leave is not counted towards the total length of the course. Students who are absent from study without approved leave may be discontinued and may be required to formally reapply for admission. (See also Progression.)

Course rules
Rules which govern the allowable enrolment of a student in a course. Course rules may be expressed in terms of types of units of study taken, length of study, and credit points accumulated, e.g. a candidate may not enrol in units of study having a total value of more than 32 credit points per semester. Course rules also govern the requirements for the award of the course, e.g. a candidate must have completed a minimum of 144 credit points. (See also Award course, Corequisite, Prerequisite.)

Course suspension
See Course leave.

Course transfer
A transfer occurs when a student changes from one course in the University to another course in the University without the requirement for an application and selection process (e.g. from a PhD to a master's program in the same faculty).

Credit
The recognition of previous studies successfully completed at this University, or another university or tertiary institution recognised by the University of Sydney, as contributing to the requirements of the course to which the applicant requesting such recognition has been admitted. Credit may be granted as specified credit or non-specified credit.

Specified credit
The recognition of previously completed studies as directly equivalent to units of study.

Non-specified credit
A "block credit" for a specified number of credit points at a particular level. These credit points may be in a particular subject area but are not linked to a specific unit of study. (See also AAM - Annual average mark, Waiver, Weighted average mark (WAM).)

Credit points
The value of the contribution each unit of study provides towards meeting course completion requirements. Each unit of study will have a credit point value assigned to it. The total number of credit points required for completion of award courses will be specified in the Senate Resolutions relevant to the award course.

Cross-institutional enrolment
An enrolment in units of study at one university to count towards an award course at another university. Cross-institutional enrolments incur a HECS liability or tuition fee charge at the institution at which the unit of study is being undertaken. Students pay compulsory subscriptions to one university only usually their home university, i.e. the university which will award their degree. (See also Non-award course.)

Course enrolment status
A student's enrolment status in a course is either "enrolled" or "not enrolled". "Not enrolled" reasons include: cancelled; suspended; under examination or terminated. (See also Cancellation, Candidature, Course leave, Enrolment, Enrolment variation, Terminated, Under examination.)

D

The Data Audit Committee's role is to oversee the integrity and accuracy of the course and unit of study data as strategic University data. It also advises the Academic Board on suggested policy changes related to course and unit of study data. A sub-committee of the VCAC Enrolment Working Party, it is chaired by the Registrar, with membership including the deans, the Student Centre, FlexSIS and the Planning Support Office.

Deadlines (Enrolment variations)
(See Enrolment variation.)

Deadlines (Fees)
The University has deadlines for the payment of fees (e.g. HECS, compulsory subscriptions, course fees). Students who do not pay fees by these deadlines may have their enrolment cancelled or they may have a barrier placed on the release of their record. (See also Barrier, Cancellation.)

Dean
The head of a faculty, or the principal or director of a college (such as the Sydney Conservatorium of Music or the Sydney College of Arts).

Dean's certificate
A statement from the Dean certifying that all requirements, including fieldwork and practical work, have been met and that the student is eligible to graduate. Not all faculties use Dean's Certificates. In faculties that do, qualified students have "Dean's Certificate" noted on their academic record.

Deferral (Deferral)
See Admission (deferment), Course leave.

Degree
See also Award course, Bachelor's degree.

Delivery mode
Indicates how students receive the instruction for a unit of study. The delivery mode must be recorded for each unit as distinct from the attendance mode of the student, i.e. an internal student may take one or more units by distance mode and an external student may attend campus for one or more units.

Glossary

Exclusion
A faculty may ask a student whose academic progress is considered to be unsatisfactory to "show good cause" why the student should be allowed to re-enrol. If the faculty deems the student's explanation unsatisfactory, or if the student does not provide an explanation, the student may be excluded either from a unit of study or from a course or faculty. An excluded student may apply to the faculty for permission to re-enrol. Normally, at least two years must have elapsed before such an application would be considered.

University policy relating to exclusion is set out in the University Calendar. (See also Progression, Senate appeals.)

Exemption
A decision made at a sub-unit of study level to allow a student to complete a unit of study without also completing all the prescribed components of coursework and/or assessment. (See also Credit, Waiver.)

Expulsion
The ultimate penalty of disciplinary action is to expel the student from the University. The effect of expulsion is:

- the student is not allowed to be admitted or to re-enrol in any course at the University;
- the student does not receive their results;
- the student is not allowed to graduate; and
- the student does not receive a transcript or testamur.

Extended semester
A distance-learning student may be allowed more time to complete a module or program if circumstances beyond the student's control, e.g. drought, flood or illness, affect the student's ability to complete the module or program in the specified time. (See also Distance education.)

The enrolment status indicates whether the student is still actively attending the unit of study (i.e. currently enrolled) or is no longer enrolled. (See also Discontinuation or Cancellation.)

Unit of study level
Units of study are divided into Junior, Intermediate, Senior, Honours, Year 5, and Year 6. Most majors consist of 32 Senior credit points in a subject area (either 3000 level units of study or a mix of 2000 and 3000 level units of study).

University
Unless otherwise indicated, University in this document refers to the University of Sydney.

University Medal
A faculty may recommend the award of a University Medal to a student qualified for the award of an undergraduate honours degree (or some master's degrees), whose academic performance is judged to be outstanding.

Upgrade
Where a student enrolled in a Master's by research course is undertaking research at such a standard that either the University recommends that the student upgrade their degree to a PhD, or the student seeks to upgrade to a PhD and this is supported by the University.

USYDnet
The University of Sydney's intranet system. It provides access to other services such as directories (maps, staff and student, organisations), a calendar of events (to which staff and students can submit entries), and a software download area.

V

Variation of enrolment
(See Enrolment variation.)

Vice-Chancellor and Principal
The chief executive officer of the University, responsible for its leadership and management. The Vice-Chancellor and Principal is head of both academic and administrative divisions.

Waiver
In a prescribed course, a faculty may waive the prerequisite or corequisite requirement for a unit of study or the course rules for a particular student. Unlike credit, waivers do not involve a reduction in the number of credit points required for a course. (See also Credit, Exemption.)

Winter School
An intensive session offered by the University during the mid-year break.

Weighted average mark (WAM)
This mark uses the unit of study credit point value in conjunction with an agreed "weight". The formula for this calculation is:

WAM = \frac{2,(Wc \times Mc)}{\sum (Wc)}

Where Wc is the weighted credit point value - i.e., the product of the credit point value and the level of weighting of 1, 2, 3, or 4 for a first, second, third or fourth year unit of study respectively; and where Mc is the greater of 45 or the mark out of 100 for the unit of study.

The mark is the actual mark obtained by the student for the unit of study, or in the case of a failing grade with no mark - 0. Pass/Fail assessed subjects and credit transfer subjects (from another institution) are excluded from these calculations; however, the marks from all attempts at a unit of study are included. (Effective from 1 January 2004.)

In addition, faculties may adopt other average mark formulae for specific progression or entry requirements. If such a formula is not specified in the faculty resolutions, the formula outlined above is used. (See also WAM weight.)
Glossary

WAM weight
A weight assigned to each unit of study to assist in the calculation of WAMs.

Y

Year of first enrolment (YFE)
The year in which a student first enrols at the University. (See also Commencement date.)

Youth Allowance
Youth Allowance is payable to a full-time student or trainee aged 16-24 years of age who is enrolled at an approved institution such as a school, college, TAFE or university, and undertaking at least 15 hours a week face-to-face contact.

Accompaniment

Accompaniment Performance

The sequence of Accompaniment Performance 1 to 4 and the co-requisites, Accompaniment 5 to 8, is taken in lieu of Pianoforte (Major) 5 to 8 only by students who have successfully auditioned for entry into the Accompaniment major. The Principal Study is Accompaniment 5 to 8. The four Accompaniment Performance units focus on the study of solo repertoire and technical work aimed at improving the keyboard technique. Content is chosen to be particularly relevant for the accompaniment specialization. The sequence is designed to emphasise the need for accompanists to be more than adequate pianists and students will be able to consult their keyboard lecturer on any technical matter which may arise in the preparation of their Accompaniment Senior Recitals.

Advanced Aural

Advanced Harmony

Advanced Small Ensemble

Advanced String Pedagogy

Advanced small ensemble is only available for years 2-4. Membership is selected by the teacher of the ensemble in consultation with the Chair of Jazz Studies. This ensemble operates as the other small ensembles do, with the exception that it is required to be the rehearsal band for Jazz Arranging majors. It is intended that the most skilled small group jazz studies students will make up the membership. Because this ensemble is the premier small ensemble of the Jazz Unit, it is expected that it will participate in several public performances every year.

Advanced String Pedagogy

The Advanced String Pedagogy research project presents an opportunity for students in the Bachelor of Music (Performance) and Graduate Diploma of Music (in the related studies option) to broaden their understanding. and expertise in all aspects of string teaching. Students need to identify a research topic in consultation with the Chair, String Unit. Research needs to be guided by a comprehensive and critical understanding of teaching materials and resources available in the areas of individual and ensemble teaching. The research project should be focused on improving the student's applied instrumental teaching skills and contribute to an autonomous approach to the teaching of his/her instrument. It can include both theoretical and practical elements (workshop presentations, lecture demonstrations).

Arts/Music Units

A full listing of units available for study through the Arts/Music Unit is available from the Student Administration Office, Level 4, Greenway building, Macquarie Street, Building C41. These units are usually delivered on main campus (Camperdown) and are classified as Faculty of Arts subjects for students enrolled in Sydney Conservatorium of Music courses. Students interested in taking these units as ‘free choice’ units should consult with the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) to gain approval before enrolling in these subjects.

Aural Perception

Australian Music Research

Baroque Flute Major and Minor

Baroque Flute is offered at a Major and Minor level of study. The level of study is decided in the audition. At the beginning of the major or minor level of study each student will be assigned a lecturer with whom they will normally work for the duration of the award. Continuing consultation between lecturer and student, including appraisal of technical and interpretative strengths and weaknesses, will enable regular clarification of specific learning objectives and content. At the beginning of all units included in the major and minor study the lecturer will discuss past achievements and clarify weaknesses with each student, assist them to articulate personal objectives for advancement, recommend suitable content and advise the Chair of Unit. In this context the unit descriptions which follow should be read as a guide to the minimum requirements of the major study and minor study in Baroque Flute.

Baroque Studies

The Baroque Studies units give students the opportunity to extend their knowledge of baroque music with emphasis on student participation and individual exploration. Topics in 17th century and early 18th century music are covered and are chosen to broaden familiarity with repertoire (including well-known and lesser known music), genres, styles, instruments and aspects of performance practice.

Bassoon Major and Minor

Bassoon is offered at a Major and Minor level of study. The level of study is decided in the audition. At the beginning of the major or minor study each student will be assigned a lecturer with whom they will normally work for the duration of the award. Continuing consultation between lecturer and student, including appraisal of technical and interpretative strengths and weaknesses, will enable regular clarification of specific learning objectives and content. At the beginning of all units included in the major and minor levels of study the lecturer will discuss past achievements and clarify weaknesses with each student, assist them to articulate personal objectives for advancement, recommend suitable content and advise the Chair of Unit. In this context the unit descriptions which follow should be read as a guide to the minimum requirements of the major and minor levels of study in Bassoon.

Big Band

The Big Band may, at any one time, comprise students enrolled in Big Band 1-8. The music that is studied and performed in Big Band 1-8 covers a wide range of styles from early to contemporary Jazz. Student compositions are specifically encouraged as the ensemble serves as a rehearsal band for student arrangements. Unit content in each semester is based on all aspects of professional and creative ensemble performance, including: reading, improvisation, dynamics, tone, intonation, articulation, swing, time-feel, style and ensemble interaction. Big Band membership is determined by staff from audition results so that students of similar experience can work together. This ensemble is the premier large ensemble of the Jazz Unit and will give several public performances each year.

NOTE: All Jazz Instrumental majors are required to audition for Big Band. Acceptance depends upon instrumentation balance and student competency. Jazz students who do not gain entry to the Big Band will enrol in another unit of study of their choice. Non-Jazz majors may apply to audition and may be accepted by the Chair of the Jazz Studies Unit.

Brass Performance Class

Cello Ensemble

The Cello Ensemble offers more challenge to advanced cellists than the cello part in most chamber music or orchestral literature. A wide variety of ensemble works will be studied and performed. New pieces are commissioned every year, concerts, broadcasts and tours undertaken. Performing with and without a conductor and in different positions will improve aural awareness, develop rhythmic control, coordinate pulse, balance, intonation and listening skills. Students will learn strategies to develop a cohesive ensemble with a refined and sophisticated cello sound and develop an autonomous and professional attitude to rehearsal and performance.

Chamber Music

The Conservatorium aims to establish an environment which recognises the importance of chamber music in our musical heritage and consequently in the optimal development of a complete professional musician. Units have been designed to maintain and enhance the practical role of chamber music as an integral part of all performance award programs. The ability to interact successfully with professional colleagues in an ensemble situation is an essential element in every musician's education. The definition of 'chamber music' in this context is given as any music composed for a small ensemble of from 2 to 8 musicians (inclusive) performing without a conductor. Duo combinations will only be accepted under certain conditions, prescribed by Ensemble Studies Unit staff. It is important to note that, in accordance with this definition and the outline requirements of all units, participation in other larger ensembles within the Conservatorium will not be regarded as an acceptable alternative to chamber music.

Six units of Chamber Music are compulsory for all Bachelor of Music (Performance) majors (apart from Keyboard and Jazz Studies students) and four units are required for all Diploma of Music students (apart from Keyboard and Jazz Studies students). Keyboard majors take the alternative Accompaniment 1 & 2 units before taking four units of Chamber Music in the Bachelor of Music or two units of Chamber Music in the Diploma of Music. Chamber Music is also offered to students who are enrolled in performance at the major level as their Principal Study in the Bachelor of Music (Music Education) and Bachelor of Music Studies awards. Students taking major level study in Voice may enrol in Choir or Choral Ensemble in lieu of Chamber Music for a maximum of two semesters.

Students will be guided and coached towards developing a knowledgeable and inspired musical interpretation and an accomplished technical expertise in the performance of the great masterpieces of the chamber music repertoire. Works studied will encompass an historical perspective from the Baroque through the Classical and Romantic to the Twentieth Century and contemporary Australian compositions.

From the first semester of 2002, all students, except those entering the final year of their course, have been required to work in a Composer Performer Workshop ensemble for one semester as one of the six compulsory chamber music units required for the Bachelor of Music and Diploma of Music awards. This may be as a member of a pre-existing chamber ensemble or a newly formed one. Enrolment will be as a Chamber Music unit of study not CPW. Regular supervised rehearsals, tutorials, seminar/workshops and occasional master classes will provide students with ensemble skills including an awareness of musical balance, phrasing and intonation, musical values and stylistic traditions, mutual respect, tolerance and cooperation, consultation, interaction and compromise, reciprocal inspiration and group responsibility.

Students in a Composer Performer Workshop ensemble will attend one two hour tutorial/rehearsal for twelve weeks, with staff and students from the Composition Unit. Students in a Composer Performer Workshop ensemble should consult Michael Smetanin (Composition) or David Miller (Ensemble Studies) for further information and also see the entry in this handbook under Composer Performer Workshop.

Assessment will be made of achievement and attitude in all tutorials (60%) and a final performance (40%). An 80% attendance record at rehearsals, tutorials and seminar/workshops is a requirement for all students.

Choir

Choir is offered only in Semester 1 of each year. The objective of the ensemble is to familiarise students with large-scale choral repertoire and to provide the opportunity for regular performances. Rehearsals and performances of oratorios and other large-scale choral works will usually include working with a symphony orchestra.

This sequence of units is compulsory for students in the Bachelor of Music (Music Education) who are not involved in another large ensemble. Students may also take Choral Ensemble in the second semester.

Students are required to adhere to professional modes of conduct and for this reason punctuality and disciplined behaviour will be taken into account in assessment.

Choral Ensemble

Choral Ensemble is offered in Semester 2 of each year. It may be counted towards the compulsory requirement to complete four semesters of large ensemble work for Bachelor of Music (Music Education) students.

The ensemble's aim is to familiarise students with a variety of choral ensemble repertoire including cantatas, oratorios, and choral music from Renaissance and Classical periods. Rehearsals and performances will take into account performance practices of various historic periods and may include early instrumental ensembles. Students are required to adhere to professional modes of conduct and for this reason punctuality and disciplined behaviour will be taken into account in assessment.

Clarinet Major and Minor

Clarinet is offered at a Major and Minor level of study. The level of study is decided in the audition. At the beginning of the major or minor study each student will be assigned a lecturer with whom they will normally work for the duration of the award. Continuing consultation between lecturer and student, including appraisal of technical and interpretative strengths and weaknesses, will enable regular clarification of specific learning objectives and content. At the beginning of all units included in the major and minor levels of study the lecturer will discuss past achievements and clarify weaknesses with each student, assist them to articulate personal objectives for advancement, recommend suitable content and advise the Chair of Unit. In this context the unit descriptions which follow should be read as a guide to the minimum requirements of the major and minor levels of study in clarinet.

Composer Performer Workshop

Composer Performer Workshop

The Composer Performer Workshop (CPW) provides both composers and performers with the opportunity to work together in the performance of new and experimental compositions. Student performers are encouraged to explore new instrumental techniques and combinations and to gain experience in performing the music of their contemporaries. Composers have the opportunity to try out ideas, compose for a variety of ensembles, direct and conduct their works and gain experience in working with performers. Moreover, composers gain experience in concert production and management. Performers are allocated to ensembles according to either pre-existing works by the composers or to ensembles for which new works will be composed. Under the supervision of staff composers and performers, student compositions are rehearsed, workshopped and, where appropriate, publicly performed at the assessment concerts at the conclusion of the semester. Performance students wishing to join Composer Performer Workshop for their compulsory Chamber Music in CPW semester should refer to the entry on Chamber Music in this handbook.

Assessment

For composers:

- professional approach in workshops to include presentation of clear scores and parts, assistance to performers, conducting rehearsals as necessary and supporting ideas with research when appropriate. Attendance at each workshop is compulsory. Each non-attendances other than those for which a medical certificate has been produced will result in the loss of 5 percentage points. (60%);

- CPW concert attendance, submission of program note(s) and 2 copies of each score to be played and concert management duties such as stage managing and preparation of programs and publicity (40%).

For performers:

- professional approach in workshops to include presentation or assistance to composers of research pertinent to each player's instrument and an openness to experimentation with various performance techniques. Attendance at each workshop is compulsory. Each non-attendance will result in the loss of 5 percentage points. (60%);

- performance at the CPW concert(s) (40%).

Composition Major and Honours

Composition is offered at the Major level of study only. A student completing study at the Major level will have received, or will be able to receive, his or her first public performance and will be equipped to undertake work at a professional level. Emphasis will, at all stages, be placed on original work. Assessment will be conducted at the end of each semester by a panel of lecturers chaired by the Chair of Composition and Music Technology. Students will be required to present clear original MS scores and/or tapes and/or visual media and/or give demonstrations of electronic pieces as appropriate. Students may apply for admission to the Honours program during the fourth semester of study. In addition to the formal prerequisites for the Composition (Honours) 5 unit of study, candidates must also have completed 6 credit points in History and Analysis of Music as set out in the Table of Courses in the Conservatorium Handbook.

The unit descriptions which follow should be read as a guide to the minimum requirements of the Honours and Major study in composition.

Double Bass Major and Minor

Double Bass is offered at a Major and Minor level of study. The level of study is decided in the audition. At the beginning of the major or minor level of study each student will be assigned a lecturer with whom they will normally work for the duration of the award. Continuing consultation between lecturer and student, including appraisal of technical and interpretative strengths and weaknesses, will enable regular clarification of specific learning objectives and content. At the beginning of all units included in the major and minor level of study the lecturer will discuss past achievements and clarify weaknesses with each student, assist them to articulate personal objectives for advancement and recommend suitable content for study. Students are required to make a consistent commitment towards individual instrumental practice (around 24 hours/week for major level of study, 14 hours/week for minor level). Students complete a semester outline in consultation with their instrumental teachers and have an opportunity to determine aspects of the objectives against which they will be assessed as individual development will be taken into account. For further information consult the relevant unit of study outlines or contact A/Prof Goetz Richter, Chair of Strings Unit.

Early Music Seminar

Early Music Seminar is a performance class which aims to expand students' knowledge of historical practices and repertoire. In first semester the focus is primarily on repertoire before 1700, and in second semester on music 1700-1750. Students are encouraged to explore their own interests and where possible, the use of period instruments. The class is open to any student at the Conservatorium with approval from their Course Coordinators. Most class time is spent on exploring key issues in historical performance practice through study of relevant repertoire. Other class activities may include attendance at rehearsals and/or performances by specialist early music performers, and guest lecturers on period instruments and performance practice issues. Assessment is based on two group projects (60%), class participation (25%), and a short written report on a live performance of early music (15%).

Education

Elective Jazz Orchestra

Elective Jazz Orchestra is a series of units of study offered to all University students. Enrolment in any semester is subject to a successful audition. Musicology Major, Minor and Honours

Musicology Major, Minor and Honours

Musicology is offered at Major and Minor levels, with the possibility of Honours for those studying at the major level in the Bachelor of Music. The study of musicology is suitable for students who intend to become professional musicologists, to specialise in the higher levels of music education, or to follow careers in broadcasting, recording, music administration, music librarianship, publishing, criticism and other related industries.

Musicology trains students in the methods and skills of musicological study and research. Students gain experience in various methodologies, and in the application of techniques of observation and analysis which are traditionally cultivated for the detailed investigation of Western art music. Students will develop skills in music information literacy, research method, writing, and the presentation of spoken papers. They will furthermore develop a deeper and broader knowledge and understanding of music history than is normally possible in the undergraduate degrees. By the end of the third year students will have the independent research skills suitable for the conduct of the substantial project which is undertaken throughout the fourth year. Subjects for study in the fourth year and earlier may be chosen by students subject to the availability of suitable supervisory staff.

Transfer from another major is allowed, subject to the consent of the Chair of Musicology, at any time up to the end of the second year. Transferring students must complete the first year of the Musicology major before any advanced standing will be considered. Transfer from Musicology minor to Musicology major is also possible subject to the consent of the Chair of Musicology. Two units of the minor will normally be deemed equivalent to one unit of the major.

For further information contact Dr K Nelson (Musicology).

Musicology Workshop

Musicology Workshop is a forum for undergraduate Musicology majors and postgraduate musicology students. It gives students the opportunity to present their own work in a seminar format and to discuss issues and methodology with the whole group, gaining practice in presentation and feedback. Occasional class projects are also held in which the whole group focusses on a project such as the discussion of a recent conference, musicological issues, recent literature, book reviewing, methods of spoken and written presentation, or editorial method. Workshop meetings may occasionally take place at a different time or place when opportunities arise for attendance of special lectures or consulting specialist collections.

Opera Repertoire

Students will explore the style and operatic traditions of repertoire from Monteverdi to the major works of the twentieth century. Individual coaching and ensemble classes will assist students to learn the repertoire assigned.
Emphasis is placed on an awareness of text and correct pronunciation as well as the musical and dramatic interplay of characters.

Opera Voice

Orchestral Studies

The purpose of Orchestral Studies is to develop the entire range of skills which musicians must possess to prepare them for membership of a professional orchestral ensemble.

In 2005 the orchestral program will consist of a Symphony and Chamber Orchestra, Early Music Ensemble, Modern Music Ensemble and a Wind Symphony. Students will be rostered by their Chair of Unit into one of these ensembles. Students will be rotated between ensembles each semester, so that they can experience a range of musical styles.

Students will receive weekly training and instruction in all aspects of orchestral playing through activities such as weekly repertoire classes, sectionals, intensive study on excerpts and mock auditions.

Skills to be studied throughout semesters 1 - 8 of this subject include intonation, tone control, ensemble skills (playing together precisely and rhythmically), interpreting the gestures, mannerisms and/or wishes of the conductor, as well as ethics and correct behaviour expected of a member of such an ensemble.

Assessment

This is based on aspects of participation by the student in their ensemble. The aspects considered for assessment are: level of preparation, performance in the ensemble, commitment, concentration, ability and teamwork.

Assessment weighting

This information will be made available at the first rehearsal at the start of each semester.

Organ Major and Minor

Organ is offered at a Major and Minor level of study. The level of study is decided in the audition. At the beginning of the major or minor level of study each student will be assigned a lecturer with whom they will normally work for the duration of the award. Organ Research Project

Students will receive weekly training and instruction in all aspects of orchestral playing through activities such as weekly repertoire classes, sectionals, intensive study on excerpts and mock auditions.
This series of units provides 3rd and 4th year students with an opportunity to pursue in-depth independent research into a specialised area of the organ repertoire. The topic chosen will be approved in consultation with students and supervised by staff from Musicology and/or Organ Studies.

Organ Resources

Organ Resources is an obligatory series of units for all students enrolled in Principal Study Organ (Major) and (Minor), designed to supplement the practical aspects of organists' training. Topics to be studied include organ-building and maintenance, tuning and temperament, performance practice (especially registration and ornamentation), continuo-playing and accompaniment techniques, improvisation and extemporisation. Classes are complemented from time to time by visits to local organs and through masterclasses and workshops with visiting lecturers. For further information contact P. Swanton (Organ Studies).

Organ Seminar

This series of units is directed specifically at students enrolled in Principal Study Organ (Major) and (Minor). The unit is designed to deepen student's awareness and understanding of the principal schools of organ composition and organ-building from the Renaissance to the present day. Lectures are complemented by visits to organs, masterclasses with local and visiting lecturers and other relevant activities as arranged by the Organ Studies Unit.

Palaeography

This unit offers an introductory study of some major music notations in use during the Middle Ages and Renaissance, and also introduces some important issues relating to the preparation of modern editions of the music of these periods. Students will learn to transcribe from the old notations into modern notation and will also begin to deal with the question of musica ficta. While most of the notations studied are for vocal music, notations for lute and keyboard instruments are also included. Frequent take-home tasks allow self-assessment. Palaeography will complement other studies of early music and is considered to be part of the training of students whose focus is early music or musicology. For those majoring in other areas, it offers an interesting alternative choice of elective. For further information contact Dr K Nelson (Musicology).

base and to develop artistic autonomy in the area of their Principal Study in preparation for employment within the musical profession or for postgraduate study.

The aim of the Honours program in BMus (Performance) is to develop superior performance skills, greater artistic autonomy and a sounder understanding of the scope of skills and knowledge relating to performance in their area of Principal Study than would be expected normally of Pass BMus students. By the conclusion of this course, students will have demonstrated a superior performance ability in recital, and the understanding and artistic autonomy to develop and carry out a specialised performance project.

Candidates are required to undertake a Performance Project in the area of their Principal Study in each of the final two semesters. Normally at least one of these will be a unified project displaying focus on a particular area of specialisation in Principal Study (Honours) 7 and a recital of 45-50 minutes duration to be taken in Principal Study (Honours) 8. Each Performance Project will be accompanied by notes which give the aim of the project, background to the project in terms of relevant work or critical writings, and critical commentary or analysis.

In addition to the formal prerequisites listed for Principal Study (Honours) 7, candidates for admission to the Honours program must have achieved a Distinction in Principal Study 4 and 6 and a Credit (or higher) average in all other units and have gained at least 18 credit points in History and Analysis of Music as set out in the Table of Courses [Table 5.24]. Candidates wishing to take Principal Study (Honours) 7 must apply in writing, setting out their proposed Performance Project. To qualify for an Honours degree, candidates should enrol in Principal Study (Honours) 7 and 8 in place of Principal Study (Major) 7 and 8, and successfully complete those units of study. The units of study are taken as part of the normal full-time load of 24 credit points per semester in semesters 7 and 8 of the course.

Wind Symphony

Enrolment in these units of study may require an audition. Positions within the ensemble are allocated each semester.

As is a standard practice in many conservatoires in Australia and abroad, this subject mixes all years of all awards into a composite class. First year students work side by side with their colleagues in other years and learn the necessary skills of ensemble performance in the same way as do younger, less experienced musicians in first class ensembles in the professional music world.

The skills to be studied include intonation, ensemble skills (playing together precisely and rhythmically), interpreting the gestures, mannerisms and wishes of the conductor, tone control as well as the ethics and correct behaviour expected of a member of an ensemble. In this regard, assessment is based on aspects of participation in the ensemble and will be assessed by the conductor. These aspects will be: level of preparation, performance in the ensemble, commitment, concentration, ability and teamwork.

The repertoire for this ensemble is enormous and covers a wide range of styles ranging from transcriptions of early baroque works through to contemporary scores requiring new performance techniques.

The units Wind Symphony 1-8 endeavour to give students a picture of these styles over a cycle of eight semesters. During that time, progressive assessment will be made regularly by the ensemble director and/or visiting conductors and improvement and greater understanding of the technique, styles and skills outlined earlier will be expected. Students can expect to take part in public performance.

Students enrolled in this subject who are also undertaking Practice Teaching are expected to attend all rehearsals, which will be arranged after school hours.

For wind and percussion students, participation in the Wind Symphony program can contribute to assessment in Orchestral Studies, providing the students are enrolled in Orchestral Studies and not enrolled separately in Wind Symphony.

For more information on teaching and assessment, contact the Chair (Woodwind). For organisational matters, contact the Ensembles Coordinator.

These units aim to explore with students the processes involved in bringing operatic scenes to life, and to encourage a process of inner development in order to build the skills and knowledge of the personal resources necessary for confident and skilled performance.

Language and Interpretation

Language and Interpretation

Language and Interpretation units focus on text-related matters in various kinds of vocal music in order to develop skills as an interpreter in all the major operatic languages. Knowledge of language structure, poetry, and operatic text will be developed within a cultural and historical context. Emphasis is on a heightened awareness of the word/music relationship and the development of confidence enabling students to become autonomous interpretive artists through the study of lyric diction and syntax.

Musicological Research Methods

Musicology Thesis

The candidate will write a research thesis on an approved topic. The thesis length should normally be approximately 40,000 words.

In addition to attendance at regular meetings with the research supervisor, the candidate will attend Musicology Research Workshop. In the workshop the candidate will present regular reports on the progress of the research, the Workshop providing a forum for discussion of ideas and feedback.

For further information contact Dr K. Nelson (Musicology).

Opera Performance Portfolio

These units continue work commenced in Opera Performance Repertoire 1 and 2 and are devoted to an extensive exploration of a particular aspect of a student's operatic specialisation. It will usually take the form of a more intensive exploration of operatic roles chosen in consultation with teacher and supervisor.

Opera Performance Repertoire

Over the span of four semesters in Opera Performance Repertoire 1-2 and Opera Performance Portfolio 1-2, the student, in consultation with their voice teacher and coach, will choose and study a variety of operatic roles appropriate for their particular voice type. Opera Performance Repertoire 1-2 will also serve as an introduction to the more intensive and deeper study to be undertaken in Opera Performance Portfolio 1-2.

Pedagogy

Principal Study (composition)

This series of postgraduate units runs over four semesters. Students, working under the guidance of a supervisor, research and complete a substantial body of original compositions. These may be instrumental, choral, electronic, audio-visual or contain a mixture of some or all of these elements. Where possible and appropriate, students will be responsible for their preparation, rehearsal and performance. Students normally make one public presentation of their work each semester. Various areas may be explored, possibly in collaboration with other University departments or other institutions, including:

- chamber music
- orchestral music
- choral music
- music theatre, including opera
- electroacoustic music, including computer music
- algorithmic composition
- radiophony
- audio-visual composition.

A wide range of resources may be used, including:

- live electronics
- computer systems
- MIDI devices
- instrumentalists and singers
- actors, and
- theatrical devices.

Principal Study in the Graduate Diploma

Principal Study in the Master of Music (Performance) - Instrumental/Vocal

Students develop performance projects which demonstrate originality and which investigate and expand the boundaries of the discipline of performance through such matters as expanded stylistic and interpretative horizons, investigation of historical performance practice, development of new performance modes, relationships and techniques, or enhanced critical, historical or analytical perspectives. Each performance is accompanied by Critical Notes which articulate the aim of the performance and its place in the area of the student's research inquiry.

For each student an instrumental or vocal teacher will be appointed who will act as the main supervisor of the creative work. Where appropriate, a co-supervisor may also be appointed who will advise the student on research matters.

Principal Study (Opera)

Principal Study (Opera)

To develop and refine the technical and interpretive qualities of the voice as an operatic instrument to a professional level. Emphasis will be given to developing self-sufficiency in role selection, concert repertoire and programme building.

Seminars in Musi...
Conservatorium and approved for the Musicology program. Candidates wishing to take one or both of these seminars without all prerequisites or corequisites should seek approval. For further information contact Dr K Nelson (Musicology).

20th Century Sketch Studies: The course examines sketch material by leading 20th century composers from Schoenberg and Stravinsky to Stockhausen and Ferneyhough. It aims to provide insight into the creative process, and to develop competence in the assessment and analysis of contemporary materials. R Toop.

Archival Australian Music Research: In this course students will use archives in Sydney to research topics of music history documented there, usually Australian musical history. It aims to provide experience in the use of archives and the assessment of materials, as well as knowledge of local resources. Dr K Nelson.

Classical and Romantic Performance Practice: Students should acquire sufficient knowledge about current research and contemporary source documents relating to the performance of music from the period 1750 to 1900 to be able to make informed choices on matters of style and interpretation. The seminar also aims to provide a foundation for students wishing to pursue research topics in Classic or Romantic performance practice. Associate Professor P McCallum.

Palaeography and Source Studies: This provides an introduction to the principles and practice of transcription and editing of a variety of primary music sources of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. Notations to be studied include early chant notations, black and white mensural notation, and instrumental tablatures. Dr K Nelson.

Seminars in Music Education 1 to 2

Comparative Music Education: An examination and critical evaluation of forms of music education in a range of cultural, geographical and historical contexts. The focus of study is not only on gaining an understanding of how these types of music education function, their philosophies and strategies, but also on the design and development of models for comparative study and their application to a number of music education systems. Through this, understanding of how music education systems work, their relative merits, individual strengths and weakness, and of the processual nature of music education across time can be developed.

Curriculum Design for Music Education: An investigation of methods of and ideologies for music curriculum design are investigated. This will include the purposes, problems and developments of music curriculum structures for learners at all ages and in a range of situations. Specific topics of musical content, objectives, materials, teaching and learning strategies, modes of music teaching and learning, importance of age-related factors, and forms of evaluation (both of curricula and of participants' progress) will be covered.

Foundations of Music Education: To research music education in depth, it is necessary to have clarified what music education is, how it can be conceptualised, and what praxis evolves from the interaction of philosophy and practice. In this subject theories and strategies common to all areas of music education are examined. This will necessitate review of the aesthetics and sociology of music education, the relationships between psychology and music education, aspects of teacher training for music education, and significant theories of music teaching and learning.

Multicultural Studies in Music Education: Study of the interface between government policies, the actualities of global multiculturalism, and practices of music education is the basis of this course. Through analysis of these factors the nature of multiculturalism and ways that it affects music education are examined. This will include consideration of the following topics: historical perspectives of multiculturalism; defining multiculturalism; relationships between multiculturalism and postcolonialism and other forms of contemporary thought; analysis of policy statements on multiculturalism; relationships between multiculturalism and (ethno)musicology; ethical issues; fieldwork and its applications in music education; and how multiculturalism has influenced recent developments in music education internationally.

Technology in Music Education: This course examines new technologies and their integration into the teaching of music. Current practices will be considered with a particular focus on approaches to creativity and performance in the classroom. The group will investigate new possibilities such as the use of online resources to complement student learning and will examine techniques recently developed in electronic music composition and performance.

Sociology of Music Education: Reflecting recent increased sociological readings of music teaching and learning this unit of study provides students with the conceptual framework for analysing music education in social terms. Through applications of this framework, students will analyse ways in which aspects of class, gender, and location affect music education. This requires not only an understanding of education as socially grounded, but also recognition of the social dimensions of music as responses to a range of aestheticisations of music: in forms of personal expression, as entertainment, in advertising, as expression of group membership - in general, as social practice. Ways in which such parameters govern the social norms of music, are used to construct types of acceptance/non-acceptance of different musics, and influence attitudes to music, are applied to music in teaching and learning contexts.
