Social work education
Voices from the Asia Pacific

Edited by Carolyn Noble, Mark Henrickson and In Young Han

Sydney University Press
Contents

Introduction v

Cultural voices 1

1. Call for incorporating cultural competency in South Korean social work education 3
   Jun Sung Hong and In Young Han

2. Respecting knowledge: circular movement in teacher/learner roles to advancing Indigenous social work education and practice 29
   Lorraine Muller and Susan Gair

3. Diversity in gender equality in Asia 55
   Murli Desai

4. Teaching heterosexual privilege 81
   Mark Henrickson

5. Authentication in social work education: the balancing act 105
   Moses Faleolo

National voices 133

6. Social work definition in Japan: international definition of social work and the Japanese social work education community 135
   Kana Matsuo

7. Social work education in Vietnam: developments and progress 153
   Richard Hugman, Bùi Thị Xuân Mai and Nguyễn Thị Thảo Lan

8. The development of the social work profession and social work education in China: issues and prospects 175
   Joe C. B. Leung
9. Contemporary challenges to social work education in Cambodia
   Keo Chanvuthy
   207

10. Social work education in South Asia: a Nepalese perspective
    Bala Raju Nikku
    227

Curriculum and Practicum
245

11. Designing advocacy and social action curriculum: reflections from the classroom
    Heather Fraser
    247

12. Walking the talk in social work education
    Ksenija Napan
    277

13. Reciprocity and cultural diversity: creating successful field education placements
    Louise Coventry and Marty Grace
    303

14. Field education in Fiji: practice challenges and opportunities
    Kate Saxton
    325

Policy Voices
341

15. Social work and the Asia Pacific: from rhetoric to practice
    Carolyn Noble
    343

16. The humanitarian perspective in social work and community welfare education
    Deborah West and Dan Baschiera
    367

17. Labour migration and human rights: challenges for social work practice and education
    Nilan G. Yu
    389

18. Asylum seekers, human rights and social work
    Linda Briskman
    411

Contributors
433