As you take up (or resume) your studies in Social Work, I extend my congratulations on your choice of degree. The breadth and complexity of issues facing Australian and global societies demand increasing numbers of persons able to bring a strong intellectual, policy and professional outlook to social change. The Social Work profession has been quick to adjust to the many changes taking place around it. At the forefront of leadership in the profession has been The University of Sydney, which remains committed to the academic excellence and professional strength of its degree programs.

The Department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology - as with the University itself - was the first of its kind in Australia. Many features of Social Work across and beyond Australia began here, and innovation and flexibility continue to be special characteristics of the Sydney degree and experience. It is your Department, with enviable strengths and resources available to all its students. Do take advantage of them.

We have committed ourselves to the on-going strengthening of the Social Work profession, chiefly through the quality of our graduates. We believe that our graduates, in turn, are committed to attaining the highest professional and ethical standards in their work, are committed to a constructive approach to social policy needs, and are committed to being lifelong learners. Further, I remind you of the rich array of postgraduate courses available at Sydney - and it is not too early to envisage yourself now as a postgraduate student!

The undergraduate Social Work course allows a wide choice of subjects in the first two years of study. These form a highly flexible basis for the more specific professional subjects undertaken in the final two years. The Faculty of Arts Undergraduate Handbook provides details of available course units, and you should consult it as well as this handbook in planning the overall shape of your degree. Decisions about your first two years of study influence the kind of professional Social Work expertise you develop. Because these choices are important ones, you should discuss them and your career interests with those best able to help you. For example, the Chair of the Department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology (Associate Professor Jude Irwin) and the Secretary of the Board of Studies in Social Work (Ms Robyn Longhurst) are available to provide advice.

The more formal avenues for consultation between students and University staff are outlined in chapter 6 of this handbook. I know, however, that all members of the Department will be pleased to meet with you more informally to discuss issues of interest and concern to you. A great additional resource is the Sydney University Social Work Students' Association and I hope you will actively participate in its work.

I wish you every success in your studies, and hope that much enjoyment and satisfaction accompanies them.

Associate Professor Phillip Jones
Chair, Board of Studies in Social Work
1 Guide to the Board of Studies

The Board of Studies

Chairperson
Associate Professor Phillip Jones

It is the task of the Board of Studies in Social Work to oversee the Bachelor of Social Work and related postgraduate degrees. The Board was originally set up to draw on expertise from across different faculties in the university, thus recognising the importance of the inter-disciplinary dimensions of social work education. Membership includes senior academic staff from departments and schools of other disciplines at The University of Sydney (such as education, health sciences and medicine). The Chair of the Board is elected from university members of the Board. The current Chair is Associate Professor Phillip Jones, Pro Dean, School of Policy and Practice, Faculty of Education. Membership of the Board also includes all full-time members of academic staff of the department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology, three elected student representatives and up to eight practitioner members. Social work practitioner members are appointed for a two year period and can be re-appointed. The membership of practitioners on the Board of Studies is a form of accountability to the social work profession.

The Department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology is one of five departments located in the School of Society, Culture and Performance within the Faculty of Arts. The department offers a professional education to men and women who wish to become social workers. The qualification offered is a requirement for employment in this field. The course involves the study of social policy, social administration, community studies and the social sciences generally. The department is also responsible for teaching sociology and social policy units of study in the Faculty of Arts.

Social work

In contemporary Australia, social work is a crucial activity. For example, some of the worst consequences of events such as an economic recession can be alleviated by Federal, State and local initiatives in social policy over which social workers exercise influence, in particular in projects often described as 'community development'. In addition, there are many areas of national life where politically initiated reforms, whether in the administration of justice or the provision of child care or in attempts to increase employment opportunities for disabled people, have to be carried out by staff who have some expertise in managing the human and other resources of organisations and who know how to make effective use of other professionals and volunteers. The promotion and administration of changes in key areas of health and welfare are also tasks for social workers.

A more traditional job of social workers is to provide those statutory services that aim at meeting basic human needs, whether for income maintenance, shelter, personal support, information, guidance and counselling, and to carry out those statutory functions, such as supervision and control which may involve involuntary clients. These services for individuals and families involve casework but they also require social workers to know about agencies' resources and to be effective in planning, organisation and administration.

The importance of social work in providing services for individuals lies in the location of social workers between powerful institutions on the one hand and the predicament and powerlessness of ordinary people on the other. This requires that social workers and social policy planners have extensive knowledge of the social, political and economic contexts of welfare practice.

The fields

Social work can be roughly classified into fields indicating the groups of social agencies that serve each area, as follows:

- Physical health: general hospitals, government departments of health, rehabilitation centres, special agencies for the physically handicapped;
- Mental health: psychiatric hospitals, child guidance clinics, community health centres;
- Corrections: probation and parole services;
- Public welfare: the major government departments charged with the individual's economic and social security;
- Family and child welfare: various government and voluntary services that care for the needs of the families and children both in and out of their own homes; and
- Community work: the process of enabling local people, including participants in specific projects, to develop their own resources and initiatives in improving services and to increase their power over various forms of decision making.

This is only a selection covering the chief areas of social work services.

Professional education

While social work has come to be regarded as a profession only during the last sixty years, appropriate training at the tertiary level is now widely accepted and demanded. This demand has accompanied developments in the biological, psychological and social sciences and the increasing complexity of industrial society. The emergence of 'social work' has, in fact, been universally associated with the growth of industrial society.

In Australia in the last fifty years developments in the field of social work have been rapid. These have included the provision of undergraduate social work education in university departments of social work, among which Sydney's is the oldest.

Courses given take a variety of forms but in no case can a recognised undergraduate qualification be obtained in less than four years, dating from the beginning of this period.

Employment and training

In carrying out these activities, whether in community development, in social policy initiatives including research or in the direct provision of services, social workers are employed by a range of government and non-government organisations. In New South Wales, their major employers are hospitals and the Department of Health, Centrelink, the Department of Community Services and the Department of Corrective Services, the last being responsible for probation and parole supervision.

In the non-government or voluntary sector there are employment opportunities in women's and youth refuges, and in residential child care, with housing associations and a variety of self-help organisations concerned to develop services for particular minority and other disadvantaged groups.

In some of these organisations there are career ladders, in others the duration of the social worker's job is limited to the completion of particular projects. In all of these posts the direction of social work depends partly on the values and beliefs of the practitioners and on their skills in making effective alliances with people who share their objectives. In all of these activities the competence of social workers depends on their knowledge of policies and agencies' resources, their skills in research and administration and on their ability to communicate effectively, orally and in various forms of writing from letters to memoranda, and from social enquiry reports to the completion of research-type papers. The demanding standards expected of social workers and the complex nature of their activities underline the need and importance of professional training.

A professional qualification in social work opens up opportunities for experience outside Australia. In the first place, Australians find interesting employment in most English-speaking countries, and secondly, provided they hold a degree, they may proceed to a higher qualification or take shorter specialised courses offered by schools of social work, particularly in the United States and Britain.

There are two undergraduate programs offered:
- Bachelor of Social Work (BSW)
- Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Social Work (BA/BSW)

The BSW is studied over four years, and the combined BA/BSW is a five-year program. In both programs you complete units of study within the Faculty of Arts and, depending where your interests lie, you can choose from a wide range of units including sociology, history, economics, psychology, government, and languages. This provides a strong base for subsequent studies in social work and social policy.

Entry to both courses is at first year or, for qualified applicants, at second or third year level.

It is possible to undertake the first two years of the social work degree program by studying less than the full component of units of study in each year. There are time limits to the completion of the course as a full-time program.

There are formal requirements governing the order in which the various units of study may be attempted. Students who wish to complete the program in more than the minimum time must ensure that their course plans meet all these requirements. These requirements are set out in the Resolutions of the Board of Studies in Social Work contained in chapter 4.

Length of candidature: in both the BSW and the BA/BSW combined program the maximum length of candidature is twice the minimum period required at point of entry.

Structure of the BSW course

The course involves four years full-time study. A full-time candidate would normally proceed as outlined below:

First Year
48 credit points comprising:
(a) Introduction to Sociology 1 and Introduction to Sociology 2 (12 credit points);

honours BSW course within the combined course program. For the BA honours course an additional honours year is completed
after the third year of the combined course program, before enrolment in the fourth year (which is the equivalent of the third year in the BSW degree course). Students proceeding full-time would normally complete an honours BA course and a BSW course (pass or honours) in six years of enrolment. For information about the honours BA course, the Faculty of Arts Handbook should be consulted.

field education supervisors, for the evaluation of the candidate's performance in the field.

account the performance of students generally, including the

19. If a candidate graduates with First Class Honours and the Board is of the opinion that the candidate's work is of sufficient merit, that candidate shall receive a bronze medal.

(d) recommend to the Chairperson of the Board that the student not be placed or continued in field education.

23. A student may not enrol without first obtaining permission from the Chairperson of the Board in additional units of study once the degree requirements of 192 credit points have been satisfied.

Repeating a unit of study
24. Where a student enrols in a unit of study which is the same as, or has a substantial amount in common with, a unit of study previously attempted but not completed at the grade of Pass or better, the Chair of Department concerned may exempt the student from certain requirements of the unit of study if satisfied that the relevant competence has been demonstrated.

Cross-institutional enrolment
25. Provided that permission has been obtained in advance, the Chairperson of the Board may permit a student to complete a unit of study at another institution and have that unit credited to his/her course requirements provided that either:
(a) the unit of study content is material not taught in any corresponding unit of study in the University; or

Re-enrolment after an absence

29. A student whose candidature has lapsed shall not re-enrol as a candidate for the degree unless selected for admission through UAC.

■ Support for research

Dr Helen Marchant-Pritchard Memorial Scholarship

The scholarship was established in 1988 following donations received from the family, friends and colleagues of Dr Helen Marchant, a distinguished teacher and researcher in the Department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology.

The scholarship is to support research in some areas to which Dr Marchant was particularly devoted, such as: social work and social change, gender and social welfare, women, work and technology, immigration, social welfare and social work.

Applications for the scholarship must include statements about the purpose for which support is sought; an outline of the research as a whole; detailed budget, including details of current or proposed sources of funding; and the intended outcome of the research.

Katharine Ogilvie Memorial Award

The award was established in 1988 following donations received from a group of retired social workers to honour pioneer social worker Katharine Ogilvie, and to support postgraduate research in social work.

The award is open to enrolled postgraduate research students within the Department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology, who are eligible for membership of the Australian Association of Social Workers.

The committee making the award takes into account the academic merit of each applicant and the appropriateness and quality of the research project.

The level of an award is determined by the committee, taking into account the availability of the funds and the level of financial support necessary for conclusion of the project.

■ Units of study available in 2002

Note: SCWK 6902 and SCWK 6943 are core units of study for the Master of Social Work.

Semester 1

SCWK 6902 Social Research
This unit will introduce students to a range of research methods and will focus on survey design and at least one qualitative method. Many other research issues will be addressed through the semester. It is intended that, by the conclusion of the unit, students will have a basic understanding of how to design a research project.

SCWK 6909 Comparative Social Policy
This unit will provide theoretical and historical contexts for comparative studies of ageing. Social, political and economic factors will be related to cultural differences in regard to social policy and welfare analyses, and attention will be given to the implications of these issues for social planning.

SCWK 6918 Debates in Human Services Management
This unit analyses contemporary issues in the organisation and delivery of social services. Issues such as direction, accountability and authority are examined, as are the possible clashes of efficiency and equity. Consideration will be given to issues of leadership, financial and human resource management in human services.

SCWK 6943 Social Work Practice: Theory Development
Students will have the opportunity to examine current practices and practice theories in light of competing ideas espoused and employed in social work. Practices will be examined in the light of constraints and opportunities in the workplace and of the diverse personal, cultural and social understandings which people hold about life threatening illness, dying, death and mourning in contemporary Australia.

SCWK 6944 Death, Dying and Mourning
The purpose of this unit of study is to introduce students to the various, often competing, discourses both constituting and challenging notions of self around death, dying and mourning. An important focus is sociological approaches to these issues as they reflect broader cultural understandings of such issues as community relations and continuity, sex and sexuality, disease, stigma and social control.

SCWK 5902 Indigenous and First Nations Children
This unit will consider the comparative aspects of the development of social policy and legislation to address the needs, rights and interests of indigenous children in Australia and Canada. Students will be asked to consider the commonalities and differences in the governance of indigenous children and to begin a critical evaluation of those services and programs which developed in both national sites.

Semester 2

SCLG 5901 Empirical Sociological Methods
6 credit points. Semester: 2.
This unit addresses the political, ethical and practical problems that may arise during the process of conducting research, the social context of research, and assists students to develop research proposals which logically link theory, method, data and analysis. In the seminars students will critically examine the work of other researchers to clarify the strengths and weaknesses of their approaches. For assessment, students will select a topic of their own choosing and develop a theoretically informed research proposal. This unit assumes a knowledge of social research methods.

SCWK 6901 Power, Citizenship and Civil Society
6 credit points. Semester: 2.
An examination of various theories and their implications for social welfare. Issues to be considered include the role of the state in welfare; ideology and social work theory; political contexts of social welfare practice and theory, and the relationship between public issues and private troubles.

SCWK 6922 Gender and Social Policy
6 credit points. Semester: 2.
This unit will examine social policy developments in Australia and comparable industrial countries as they effect women and gender relations. Discussion of the relationships between gender and social policy will draw on a range of theoretical perspectives, including feminist theories, labour market theory and industrial relations theory as well as family policy analysis.
SCWK 6927  Theories of Prof Practice Supervision
6 credit points.  Semester: 2.
Permission required for enrolment.
This unit of study will examine and critique different approaches to professional supervision in the human services. It will identify the key features of a working environment that can enhance or inhibit supervision. In doing this it will explore ethical issues, conflicts of interest, power differentials and outcomes for the client. It will also identify the strategies and skills required in the application of both staff and student supervision.

SCWK 6942  Dying: Ethics, Policy and Politics
6 credit points.  Semester: 2.
The point of this unit of study is to discuss the key ethical issues surrounding dying, death and mourning - not simply as abstract philosophical questions - but as they are worked out in actual real-life policy and resource decisions, dilemmas and programs.

SCWK 6945  Palliative Care: Policies and Practices
6 credit points.  Semester: 2.
This unit of study will emphasise study of the social dimensions of health and social policy with respect to health gained across different cultures. It will also examine questions of distribution and equity in health and social care planning and provision.

SCWK 5901  Family Violence: Australia and Canada
6 credit points.  Semester: 2.
This unit will consider the comparative aspects of the development of social policy and legislation to address the needs, rights and interests of indigenous children in Australia and Canada. Students will be asked to consider the commonalities and differences in the governance of indigenous children and to begin a critical evaluation of those services and programs which developed in both national sites.

SCWK 6947  Medical Humanities
6 credit points.  Semester: 2.
This is a cross-disciplinary subject examining the impact of modern medicine on society. It presents critical debates over the functions and role of medical knowledge as they influence contemporary social and cultural issues. The unit also examines representations of medicine in the public domain with regard to popular entertainment (TV, cinema), literature and policy.

Both semesters

SCWK 6917  Practice Development
6 credit points.  Semester: 1, 2.
This unit will take an interdisciplinary approach to professional practice issues. It aims for the development of knowledge for reflexive practice in contemporary sites of social work endeavours.

SCWK 6908  Authorised Independent Study and Report
6 credit points.  Semester: 1, 2.
The student seeking to complete this unit must:
(a) identify an area for study
(b) contact a member of staff in order that
(c) the member of staff approves the topic and is willing to act as marker for a 5000-7000 word essay produced by the student.
No one may embark on this option without such prior agreement.
Enrolment, re-enrolment and variation of enrolment

Enrolment
Correct enrolment is the individual responsibility of each candidate.

The Board of Studies assumes that students have an understanding of the rules and regulations outlined in this Handbook as they relate to the various undergraduate and postgraduate degree programs.

While the Departmental Office will assist you to understand and interpret these rules and regulations, it is in your interests to put your requests in writing to the Board, in order to obtain a written reply for your own records and to ensure that a copy is placed on your student file for future reference. Verbal advice, while given in good faith, may be given on an incomplete understanding of your situation as you have presented it, or may be misinterpreted or misunderstood.

A candidate cannot count any unit of study or part-unit in which the candidate is not enrolled, even if a department has calculated and provided an informal result.

Persons who wish to re-enrol after an approved period of suspension of candidacy need to complete an application to re-enrol after an absence. Application forms are available from the Departmental Office and must be lodged there by the end of October for the following year.

Re-enrolment
All currently enrolled candidates will receive re-enrolment advice in October. Failure to re-enrol or have a suspension of candidacy approved results in termination of candidacy.

Variation of enrolment
Students should carefully check the statements of enrolment posted to the semester address registered with the University.

All variations of enrolment must be made through the Board of Studies Office by the due date. Advising the lecturer or the department is not sufficient. Students have sometimes found themselves with an unwelcome result of Absent Fail or with an unnecessary HECS liability because they either did not check their enrolment carefully or forgot to advise the University of a new semester address. Students are advised to check with the Board of Studies Office without delay if they believe their formal enrolment may not be correct.

Students wishing to withdraw from a unit of study in which they have enrolled and enrol in a new unit of study must do so at the Board of Studies Office by:
• the end of the second week of first semester (for first semester units of study)
• the end of the second week of second semester (for second semester units of study).

Class timetables
First and second year undergraduate students can collect a computer-produced individual timetable from the Student Centre during the Orientation period.

Attendance at classes
In order to pass a unit of study candidates must attend the classes for that unit of study. Candidates who are unable to attend all classes should consult the chair of department teaching the unit of study as non-attendance could lead to failure.

Candidates who will be totally absent from all classes for more than one week should seek leave of absence from classes by writing to the Board of Studies Office.

Examination and assessment
Units of study are assessed in a variety of ways including:
• seen, unseen and take-home examinations
• essays, assignments and projects
• oral tests
• visual tests
• practical work.

The assessment criteria for each unit of study offered by the Department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology are indicated in abbreviated form as part of the unit’s description in chapter 3. More detailed information on other units of study is available from the relevant department.

The Faculty of Arts and the Department of Social Work, Social Policy and Sociology have policies on matters such as late submission of work, assessment and feedback and plagiarism. Students should ensure that they are aware of these policies. Faculty policies are displayed on noticeboards and are available in the Faculty Office.

Examinations
There is a formal examination period at the end of each semester following a one-week ‘study vacation’. Draft examination timetables are issued well in advance.

Candidates should make an effort to check the draft timetable as soon as it is released and immediately report any clashes to the Examinations Office. Draft examination timetables usually become final after seven days.

Information as to the time of particular exams is never available before the draft timetable is released.

Candidates are expected to be available throughout the examination periods. The Board will not approve leave of absence for these times. (It may be possible to make special arrangements with individual departments and schools on an informal basis; but only if such arrangements are acceptable to the examiners and do not involve the university in additional expense.) Candidates should not make overseas travel arrangements before the final dates of their examination are known.

Examination rules
The general rules which apply in examinations are reproduced with each timetable.

One of these rules is that, unless specifically authorised in advance by the examiner, no paper or written or printed material of any kind can be taken into or out of an examination room.

Candidates whose native language is not English may apply to the Student Centre for permission to take an English dictionary into certain examinations.

Special consideration
Candidates who have or have had medical or other serious problems which could impair their performance in examinations should lodge a request for special consideration at the Student Centre.

Where special consideration is being claimed on medical grounds, an original medical certificate must be attached which shows:
(a) the date(s) on which treatment was sought
(b) the nature of the illness or disability and the period concerned, and
(c) the doctor’s professional opinion as to the effect of the illness or disability on examination performance.

Where special consideration is sought on non-medical grounds the application must include a full statement of the circumstances and any supporting evidence should be attached. Examiners may respond to a request for special consideration in one or more ways:
(1) When the candidate is on the ‘borderline’ between grades the examiners may elect to give the higher grade
(2) The candidate may be given a further test

Counselling Service
The Counselling Service aims to help students fulfil their academic, individual and social goals through professional counselling which is free and confidential. Counselling presents an opportunity to: gain greater self awareness; learn to cope more efficiently with the problem at hand; discuss any work related, social or personal issues that cause concern; explore options with professionally trained staff. In addition, workshops are offered each semester on topics such as stress management, relaxation, exam anxiety, communication skills and others.

Disability Services

Disability Services is the principal point of contact and advice on assistance available for students with disabilities. The Service works closely with academic and administrative staff to ensure that students receive reasonable accommodations in all areas of their study. Assistance available includes the provision of note-taking, interpreters, and advocacy with academic staff to negotiate assessment and course requirement modifications where appropriate.

Enrolment and pre-enrolment

Students entering first year

Details of the enrolment procedures will be sent with the UAC Offer of Enrolment. Enrolment takes place at a specific time and date, depending on your surname and the Faculty in which you are enrolling, but is usually within the last week of January. You must attend the University in person or else nominate, in writing, somebody to act on your behalf. On the enrolment day, you pay the compulsory fees for joining the Student Union, the Students' Representative Council and sporting bodies and nominate your preferred 'up front' or deferred payment for your Higher Contribution Scheme (HECS) liability. You also choose your first-year units of study, so it's important to consult the Handbook before enrolling. All other students

A pre-enrolment package is sent to all enrolled students in late September, and contains instructions on the procedure for pre-enrolment.

Examinations

The Examinations and Exclusions Office looks after the majority of exam papers, timetables and exclusions. Some faculties, such as the Sydney Conservatorium of Music, make all examination arrangements for the units of study that they offer.

Freedom of Information

The University of Sydney falls within the jurisdiction of the NSW Freedom of Information Act, 1989. The Act requires information concerning documents held by the University to be made available to the public, to enable a member of the public to obtain access to documents held by the University and to enable a member of the public to ensure that records held by the University concerning his or her personal affairs are not incomplete, incorrect or out of date. By definition, a 'member of the public' includes staff or students of the University.

Application may be made for access to University documents, however the Act provides some exemptions to particular documents. The Act contains review and appeal mechanisms which are required to be explained to applicants where applicable. The University is required to report to the public on its FOI activities on a regular basis. The two reports provided are the Statement of Affairs and the Summary of Affairs. The Statement of Affairs contains information about the University, its structure and function and the kinds of documents held. The Summary of Affairs identifies each of the University's policy documents and provides a contact list for those wishing to access these documents. Further information, and copies of the current reports may be found at www.usyd.edu.au/arms/foi/.

It is a requirement of the Act that applications be processed and a determination be made generally within 21 days. Determinations are made by the University's Registrar.

Grievances) appeals

Many decisions about academic and non-academic matters are made each year and you may consider that a particular decision affecting your candidature for a degree or other activities at the University may not have taken into account all the relevant matters.

In some cases the by-laws or resolutions of the Senate (see University Calendar) specifically provide for a right of appeal against particular decisions; for example, there is provision for appeal against academic decisions, disciplinary decisions and exclusion after failure.

A document outlining the current procedures for appeals against academic decisions is available at the Student Centre, at the SRC, and on the University's web site at www.usyd.edu.au/su/planning/policy/.

Intranet
USYDnet is The University of Sydney's intranet. It provides easy access to staff and student directories, maps, software and useful resources for both staff and students. As well as delivering information, the intranet provides interactive services such as the calendar of events, where staff and students can enter events and publish them University-wide.

MyUni is the personalised section of USYDnet. All staff and students are provided with access to MyUni through a login name and password. This enables them to customise the information they see and also receive delivery of personal information such as exam results and seat numbers. MyUni is a portal from which students and staff can complete tasks that were previously only possible offline. Web enrolment variation is one of the first of many facilities that are helping to move the everyday tasks of all members of the university online.

Koori Centre and Yooroang Garang
The Koori Centre provides tutorial assistance: access to computers, Indigenous counsellor, Aboriginal Studies library study rooms, Orientation program at the beginning of the year, and assistance in study and learning skills. Education Unit: courses in Education for ATSI students. Indigenous Studies Unit: aims to increase the awareness of Indigenous Australian issues through courses across the University.

Part-time, full-time
Students are normally considered as full-time if they have a HECS weighting of at least 0.375 each semester. Anything under this amount is considered a part-time study load. Note that some faculties have minimum study load requirements for satisfactory progress.

Privacy
The University is subject to the NSW Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (the Act). Central to the Act is Part 2 which contains twelve Information Protection Principles (IPPs) which regulate the collection, management, use and disclosure of personal information.

In response to Section 33 of the Act the University has developed a Privacy Management Plan which includes a new University Privacy Policy incorporating the requirements of the IPPS. Both the Plan and the new University Privacy Policy were endorsed by the Vice-Chancellor on 28 June 2000. The Privacy Management Plan sets out the IPPS and how they apply to functions and activities carried out by the University.

Further information and a copy of the Plan may be found at www.usyd.edu.au/arms/privacy/. Any questions regarding the Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act or the Privacy Management Plan should be directed to:

Student identity cards
In 1999 the University incorporated a photograph into the student identity card. This means that all students have to provide a colour, passport-sized, head and shoulders photograph when they attend on campus sites to have their student ID card laminated. University student ID cards also function as transport concession cards for eligible students, thus eliminating the need for a separate concession card. The endorsement for concession travel will take the form of a hologram sticker attached to the front of the student ID card.

Student Services
Student Services exists to help you achieve your educational goals by providing personal, welfare, and academic support services to facilitate your success at University. Many factors can impact on your well being while studying at University and Student Services can assist you in managing and handling these more effectively. Refer to Accommodation Service, Casual Employment Service, Child Care, Disability Service, Financial Assistance Office, Learning Centre, Mathematics Learning Centre. The web site is at www.usyd.edu.au/su/stuserv.

The Sydney Summer School
Most faculties at the University offer units of study from degree programs during January/February. As the University uses all of its HECS quota in first and second semester, these units are full fee-paying and entirely voluntary. However, Summer School units enable students to accelerate their degree progress, make up for a failed unit or fit in a unit which otherwise would not suit their timetables. New students may also gain a head start by completing requisite subjects before they commence their degrees. Units start on 2 January and run for up to six weeks (followed by an examination week). Notice of the units available is contained in the various faculty handbooks and is usually circulated to students with their results notices.

Timetabling Unit
The timetabling unit in the Student Centre is responsible for producing students’ class and tutorial timetables. Students can obtain their Semester 1 timetable from the Wednesday of Orientation Week via the web.

The Sydney Conservatorium of Music operates in accordance with a local calendar of dates and produces a complete timetable.
for all teaching that it delivers. The timetable is available on enrolment at the Conservatorium.

Glossary

This glossary describes terminology in use at The University of Sydney.

Academic Board
The Academic Board is the senior academic body within the University. In conjunction with faculties, the Academic Board has responsibility for approving, or recommending to Senate for approval, new or amended courses and units of study and policy relating to the admission of students. (For further information, see the University Calendar.)

Academic cycle
The academic cycle is the program of teaching sessions offered over a year. Currently the cycle runs from the enrolment period for Semester 1 through to the completion of the processing of results at the end of Semester 2. (See also Stage.)

Academic record
The academic record is the complete academic history of a student at the University. It includes, among other things, personal details, all units of study and courses taken, assessment results (marks and grades), awards and prizes obtained, infringements of progression rules, approvals for variation in course requirements and course leave, thesis and supervision details.

Access to a student's academic record is restricted to authorised University staff. A student's academic record is not released to a third party without the written authorisation of the student. (See also Academic transcript.)

Academic transcript
An academic transcript is a printed statement setting out a student's academic record at the University. There are two forms of academic transcript: external and internal. (See also External transcript, Internal transcript.)

Academic year
An academic year is a normal full-time program taken in a course in a year. Some courses consist of stages, which may readily be equated with academic year. Others use the aggregation of credit points to do this (eg, 48 credit points = an academic year). (See also Academic cycle, Stage.)

Addresses
All enrolled students need to have a current postal address recorded on FlexSIS to which all official University correspondence is sent. (See also Business address, Permanent home address, Semester address, Temporary address.)

Admission
Admission is governed by the University's admission policy and is the process for identifying applicants eligible to receive an initial offer of enrolment in a course at the University. Admission to most courses is based on performance in the HSC with applicants ranked on the basis of their UAI. Other criteria such as a portfolio, interview, audition, or results in standard tests may also be taken into account for certain courses.

Admission basis
The main criterion used by a faculty in assessing an application for admission to a course. The criteria used include, among other things, previous secondary, TAFE or tertiary studies, work experience, special admission and the Universities Admission Index (UAI).

Admission (deferment)
An applicant who receives an offer of admission to a course may apply to defer enrolment in that course for one semester or one academic cycle.

Admission mode
Admission mode is a classification based on how a student was admitted to a course, for example 'UAC' or 'direct'.

Admission period
The period during which applications for admission to courses are considered. The main admission period takes place before Semester 1, but there may also be an admission period for mid-year applicants before the beginning of Semester 2 and other admission periods.

Admission reply
A code used by FlexSIS to indicate whether an applicant who has received an offer has accepted the offer or not.

Admission result
A code used by FlexSIS to indicate the result of a direct application to study at the University (eg, offer, unsuccessful, withdrawn).

Admission year
The year the student began the course.

Advanced diplomas
See Award course.

Advanced standing
See Credit.

Advisor
A member of academic staff appointed in an advisory role for some postgraduate coursework students. (See also Associate supervisor, Instrumental supervisor (teacher), Research supervisor, Supervision.)

Annual Progress Report
The Annual Progress Report is a form issued by faculties which is used to monitor a research student's progress each year. The form provides for comments by the student, the supervisor, the head of the department and the dean (or nominee). The completed form is attached to the student's official file. FlexSIS records that the form has been sent out and that it has been satisfactorily completed.

APA
Australian Postgraduate Awards. (See also Scholarships, UPA.)

Appeals
Students may lodge appeals against academic or disciplinary decisions. FlexSIS will record an academic appeal (eg, against exclusion) while they are under consideration and will record the outcome of the appeal. Disciplinary (that is, non-academic) appeals are not recorded on FlexSIS.

ARTS
Automated Results Transfer System. This system was developed on behalf of ACTAC (Australasian Conference of Tertiary Admissions Centres) to allow the electronic academic record of a student to be accessible, via an admission centre, between tertiary institutions.

Assessment
The process of measuring the performance of students in units of study and courses. The assessment of performance in a unit of study may include examinations, essays, laboratory projects, or assignments. (See also Board of examiners, Result processing, Result processing schedule.)

Associate supervisor
A person who is appointed in addition to the supervisor of a research student who can provide the day-to-day contact with the candidate or provide particular expertise or additional experience in supervision. (See also Advisor, Instrumental supervisor (teacher), Research supervisor, Supervision.)

Assumed knowledge
For some units of study, a student is assumed to have passed a relevant subject at the HSC and this is called assumed knowledge. While students are generally advised against taking a unit of study for which they do not have the assumed knowledge, they are not prevented from enrolling in the unit of study. (See also Prerequisite.)

Attendance mode
A DETYA classification defining the manner in which a student is undertaking a course - ie, internal, external, mixed or offshore.

Attendance pattern/type
Refers to whether the student is studying part-time or full-time. For coursework students this is a function of course load - ie, the proportion being undertaken by the student of the normal full time load specified for the course in which the student is enrolled.
To be considered full-time, a coursework student must undertake at least 0.75 of the normal full-time load over the academic cycle or at least 0.375 if only enrolling in half of an academic year. It is important to note, however, that, for some purposes, to be considered full-time a student may need to be enrolled in at least 0.375 in each half year. Research students, with the approval of their faculty, nominate whether they wish to study part-time or full-time. The attendance status is then recorded on FlexSIS as part of the application or enrolment process. (See also Coursework, Student load.)

Award course

An award course is a formally approved program of study that can lead to an academic award granted by the University. An award course requires the completion of a program of study specified by course rules. (See also Course rules.) Award courses are approved by Senate, on the recommendation of the Academic Board. Students normally apply to transfer between Award courses through the UAC. The award course name will appear on testamurs. The University broadly classifies courses as undergraduate, postgraduate coursework or postgraduate research. The award courses offered by the University are:

- Higher doctorates
- Doctor of philosophy (PhD)
- Doctorates by research and advanced coursework
- Master's degree by research
- Master's degree by coursework
- Graduate diploma
- Graduate certificate
- Bachelor's degree
- Advanced diplomas
- Diplomas
- Certificates

(See also Bachelor's degree, Course rules, Diploma, Doctorate, Major, Master's degree, Minor, PhD, Stream.)

Bachelor's degree

The highest undergraduate award offered at the University of Sydney. A bachelor's degree course normally requires three or four years of full-time study or the part-time equivalent. (See also Award course.)

Barrier

A barrier is an instruction placed on a student's FlexSIS record that prevents the student from re-enrolling or graduating. (See also Deadline (fees), Suppression of results.)

Board of examiners

A Board of examiners was a body appointed by a faculty or board of studies which met to approve the results of all students undertaking courses supervised by that faculty or board of studies. Boards of examiners were dis-established following revision of the University's examination procedures in 2000.
(See also Assessment, Result processing, Result processing schedule.)

Board of studies

An academic body which supervises a course or courses and which is similar to a faculty except that it is headed by a chair rather than a dean and does not supervise PhD candidates.

Bursaries

See Scholarships.

Business address

FlexSIS can record a student's business address and contact details. (See also Addresses, Permanent home address, Semester address, Temporary address.)

Cadigal Program

The Cadigal Program is a University wide access and support scheme for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders.

Campus

The grounds on which the University is situated. There are eleven campuses of the University of Sydney: Burren Street (Institute for International Health, Institute of Transport Studies), Camperdown and Darlington (formerly known as Main Campus), Camden (Agriculture and Veterinary Science),
Conservatorium (Conservatorium of Music), Cumberland (Health Sciences), Mallett Street (Nursing), Orange (Faculty of Rural Management), Rozel/Ue (Sydney College of the Arts), St
James (Law) and Surry Hills (Dentistry).

Census date

See HECS census date.

Centre for Continuing Education

The Centre for Continuing Education develops and conducts courses, conferences and study tours for the general public and professional groups. The Centre offers approximately 1,000 courses for approximately 20,000 students each year. Most of these courses are held over one of the four main sessions that are conducted each year, though the Centre is offering an increasing number of ad hoc courses in response to increased competition and changing demands. The Centre operates on a cost recovery/income generation basis. (See also Continuing professional education.)

Centrelink

Centrelink is the agency responsible for providing information and assistance on a range of Commonwealth Government programs including Youth Allowance. (See also Youth Allowance)

Ceremony

See Graduation ceremony.

Chancellor

The non-executive head of the University. An honorary position, the Chancellor chairs meetings of the University's governing body, the Senate, and presides over graduation ceremonies amongst other duties.

Class list

A listing of all currently enrolled students in a particular unit of study. (See also Unit of study.)

Combined course

A course which leads to two awards. For example the Arts/Law course leads to the separate awards of B achelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws.

Combined degree

See Combined course.

Commencing student

A student enrolling in an award course at the University of Sydney for the first time. The DETYA glossary provides a more detailed definition.

Comp subs

See Compulsory subscriptions.

Compulsory subscription rates

There are two rates for some annual subscriptions: full-time and part-time. (See also Compulsory subscriptions.)

Compulsory subscription waiver provision

Certain students over a certain age or with disabilities or medical conditions may be exempted from the subscription to the sports body.

Students with a conscientious objection to the payment of subscriptions to unions of any kind may apply to the Registrar for exemption. The Registrar may permit such a student to make the payment to the Jean Foley Bursary Fund instead. (See also Compulsory subscriptions.)

Compulsory subscriptions

Each enrolled student is liable to pay annual (or semester)
subscriptions as determined by the Senate to the student organisations at the University. These organisations are different on different campuses. There are different organisations for undergraduate and postgraduate students.

At the Camperdown/Darlington campus (formerly known as Main Campus), compulsory subscriptions depend on the level of study.

Undergraduate: the University of Sydney Union, Students' Repreprentative Council (SRC) and the University of Sydney
Sports Union or the Sydney University Women's Sports Association.

Postgraduate: the University of Sydney Union and the Sydney University Postgraduate Representative Association (SUPRA).

Student organisations at other campuses include: the Conservatorium Student Association, the Cumberland Student Guild, the Orange Agricultural College Student Association and the Student Association of Sydney College of the Arts.
Course suspension

See Course leave.

Course transfer

A course transfer occurs where a student changes from one course in the University to another course in the University without the requirement for an application and selection (eg, from a PhD to a master’s program in the same faculty).

Course type

Course type is a DETYA code.

Coursework

Coursework is a classification used to describe those courses that consist of units of study rather than research work. All undergraduate courses are coursework programs. Postgraduate courses can be either research courses or coursework courses.

(See also Course (research).)

Credit

The recognition of previous studies successfully completed at this or another recognised (by the University of Sydney) university or tertiary institution as contributing to the requirements for the award of the course in which the applicant requesting such recognition has been admitted.

Where the University agrees to recognise successfully completed previous studies, their contribution to the requirements for the award of the course, in which the applicant has been admitted, will be expressed as specific or non-specific credit.

Credit awarded to a credit applicant - whether specific or non-specific - will be recorded with a mark and grade of 50 pass, unless in individual cases the credit is assessed by the faculty as having a mark and grade greater than 50 pass. This equivalent mark and grade will be used for the purposes of calculating a student's weighted average mark and for the purposes of satisfying prerequisite rules where a level of passing grade is specified.

(See also Precedents, Specific credit, Non-specific credit, Waiver, Weighted average mark (WAM).)

Creditpoints

Credit points are a measure of value indicating the contribution each unit of study provides towards meeting course completion requirements stated as a total credit point value. Each unit of study will have a credit point value assigned to it, normally in the range 3 to 24. Resolutions of Senate set the number and level of credit points required for graduation.

Cross-institutional enrolment

Cross-institutional enrolment is an enrolment in units of study at one university to count towards an award course at another university. Cross-institutional enrolments incur a HECS liability or tuition fee charge at the institution at which the unit of study is being undertaken. Students pay compulsory subscriptions to one university only (usually their home university - i.e., the university which will award their degree). (See also Non-award course, Enrolment non-award.)

DAC (Data Audit Committee)

DAC is a sub-committee of the VCAC Enrolment Working Party, chaired by the Registrar, with membership including the deans, the Student Centre, FlexSIS and the Planning Support Office. Its role is to oversee the integrity and accuracy of the course and unit of study data as strategic university data. It has a role in advising the Academic Board on suggested policy changes with relation to course and unit of study data.

Deadlines (enrolment variations)

See Enrolment variations.

Deadlines (fees)

The University has deadlines for the payment of fees (eg, HECS, compulsory subscriptions, course fees, etc). Students who do not pay fees by these deadlines may have their enrolment cancelled or they may have a barrier placed on the release of their record. (See also Barrier.)

Dean

The head of a faculty or the principal or director of a college (such as the Conservatorium of Music or the Sydney College of Arts).

Dean’s certificate

A statement from the dean certifying that all requirements, including fieldwork and practical work, have been met and that the student is eligible to graduate. Not all faculties use dean's certificates. In faculties that do, qualified students have 'dean's certificate' noted on their academic record.

Degree

(See also Award course, Bachelor's degree.)

Delivery mode

Indicates the mode of delivery of the instruction for a unit of study - eg, normal (ie, by attending classes at a campus of the University), distance (ie, remotely by correspondence or other divisible means - eg, Web delivery). The delivery mode must be recorded for each unit as distinct from the attendance mode of the student - ie, an internal student may take one or more units by distance mode and an external student may attend campus for one or more units.

Department

For the purposes of FlexSIS, a department is the academic unit, which is responsible for teaching and examining a unit of study. It may be called a school, a department, a centre or a unit within the University.

DETYA

The Department of Education Training and Youth Affairs is the Commonwealth Government department responsible for higher education. The University is required to provide DETYA with information about its students three times a year. The Government in its funding deliberations uses this information.

Differential HECS

(See Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS).)

Diploma

The award granted following successful completion of diploma course requirements. A diploma course usually requires less study than a degree course. Graduate diploma courses are only available to students who already hold an undergraduate degree. (See also Award course.)

Direct admissions

For some courses, applications may be made directly to the University. Applications are received by faculties or the International Office, registered on FlexSIS and considered by the relevant department or faculty body. Decisions are recorded on FlexSIS and FlexSIS produces letters to applicants advising them of the outcome. (See also Admission, UAC admissions.)

Disability information

Students may inform the University of any temporary or permanent disability, other than a financial disability, which affects their life as a student. Disability information is recorded in FlexSIS but it is only visible to particular authorised users because of its sensitive nature.

Discipline codes

Discipline codes are four-letter codes for each area of study available at the university (eg, CHEM Chemistry, ECON Economics).

Discipline group

A DETYA code used to classify units of study in terms of the subject matter being taught or being researched.

Discontinuation (course)

See Enrolment variation.

Discontinuation (unit of study)

See Enrolment variation.

Dissertation

A dissertation is a written exposition of a topic and may include original argument substantiated by reference to acknowledged authorities. It is a required unit of study for some postgraduate award courses in the faculties of Architecture and Law.

Distance and flexible learning

Distance and flexible learning affords the opportunity to provide higher education to a much wider market - including students from anywhere in the world- at times, locations and modes that suit them.

Doctor of philosophy (PhD)

(See Award course, Doctorate, PhD.)

Doctorate

The doctorate and the PhD are high-level postgraduate awards available at the University of Sydney. A doctorate course normally involves research and coursework; the candidate submits a thesis that is an original contribution to the field of study. Entry to a doctorate course often requires completion of a master's degree course. Note that the doctorate course is not available in all departments at the University of Sydney. (See also Award course, PhD.)

Earliest date

See Research candidature.

EFTSU

The equivalent full-time student unit (EFTSU) is a measure of student load expressed as a proportion of the workload for a standard annual program for a student undertaking a full year of study in a particular award course. A student undertaking the standard annual program of study (normally 48 credit points) generates one EFTSU.

EFTYR

The effective full-time enrolment year (EFTYR) is a calculation of how long, in terms of equivalence to full-time years of enrolment, a student has been enrolled in a course. If a student has always been full-time, the calculation is straightforward (eg, the fifth year of enrolment is EFTYR 5). If the student has had a mixture of part-time and full-time enrolment, this can be equated with an EFTYR. (See also Stage.)

Enrolment

A student enrolls in a course by registering with the supervising faculty in the units of study to be taken in the coming year, semester or session. The student pays whatever fees are owing to the University by the deadline for that semester. New students currently pay on the day they enrol which is normally in early February. Students already in a course at the University re-enrol each year or semester, for most students pre-enrolment is required. (See also Pre-enrolment.)

Enrolment non-award

Non-award enrolment is an enrolment in a unit or units of study, which does not count towards a formal award of the University. Non-award enrolments are recorded in various categories used for reporting and administrative purposes. (See also Cross-institutional enrolment, Non-award course.)

Enrolment status

A student's enrolment status is either 'enrolled' or 'not enrolled'. An enrolment status is linked to an enrolment status reason or category.

Enrolment status reason/category

Not enrolled status reasons/categories include: withdrawn, totally discontinued, cancelled, on leave (suspended), transferred, lapsed, terminated, qualified and conferred.

Enrolment variation

Students may vary their enrolment at the beginning of each semester. Each faculty determines its deadlines for variations, but HECS liability depends on the HECS census date. (See also HECS.)

Enrolment year

See EFTYR, Stage.

Examination

See Examination paper code, Examination period, Supplementary exams.

Examination paper code

A code that identifies each individual examination paper. Used to help organise examinations.

Examination period

The examination period is the time set each semester for the conduct of formal examinations.

Exchange student

An exchange student is either a student of the University of Sydney who is participating in a formally agreed program involving study at an overseas university or an overseas student who is studying here on the same basis. The International Office provides administrative support for some exchanges.

Exclusion

The faculty may ask a student whose academic progress is considered to be unsatisfactory to 'show cause' why the student should be allowed to re-enrol. If the faculty deems the student's explanation unsatisfactory, or if the student does not provide an explanation, the student may be excluded either from a unit of study or from a course. An excluded student may apply to the faculty for permission to re-enrol. Normally at least two years must have elapsed before such an application would be considered.
University policy relating to exclusion is set out in the University Calendar. (See also Senate appeals.)

Extended semesters
Distance learning students may be allowed more time to complete a module/program if circumstances are beyond the student's control - e.g., drought, flood or illness, affect the student's ability to complete the module/program in the specified time.

External
See Attendance mode.

External transcript
An external transcript is a certified statement of a student's academic record printed on official University notepaper. It includes the student's name, any credit granted, all courses the student was enrolled in and the final course result and all units of study attempted within each course together with the result (but not any unit of study which has the status of withdrawn). It also includes any scholarships or prizes the student has received. Two copies are provided to each student on graduation (one with marks and grades for each unit of study and one with grades only). External transcripts are also produced at the request of the student. The student can elect to have marks appear on the transcript or not. (See also Academic transcript, Internal transcript.)

Faculty
A faculty, consisting mainly of academic staff members and headed by a dean, is a formal part of the University's academic governance structure, responsible for all matters concerning the award courses that it supervises (see the 2001 University Calendar, pp. 140-141). Usually, a faculty office administers the faculty and student or staff inquiries related to its courses. The Calendar sets out the constitution of each of the University's 17 faculties. (See also Board of studies, Supervising faculty.)

Fail
A mark of less than 50% which is not a concessional pass. (See also Results.)

Fee-paying students
Fee-paying students are students who pay tuition fees to the University and are not liable for HECS.

Fee rate
Local fees are charged in bands, a band being a group of subject areas. The bands are recommended by faculties and approved by the DV-C (Planning and Resources).

Fee type
Fee type can be 'international' or 'local'.

Flexible learning
See Distance and Flexible learning.

Flexible start date
Full fee-paying distance students should not be restricted to the same enrolment time frames as campus-based or HECS students.

FlexiSIS
FlexiSIS is the computer-based Flexible Student Information System at the University of Sydney. Electronically FlexiSIS holds details of courses and units of study being offered by the University and the complete academic records of all students enrolled at the University. FlexiSIS also holds the complete academic records of many (but not all) past students of the university. For past students whose complete records are not held on FlexiSIS, there will be a reference on FlexiSIS to card or microfiche records where details are kept.

Full-time student
See Attendance status, EFTSU.

Grade
A grade is a result outcome for a unit of study normally linked with a mark range. For example, in most faculties, a mark in the range 85-100 attracts the grade 'high distinction' (HD). (See also Mark.)

Graduand
A graduand is a student who has completed all the requirements for an award course but has not yet graduated. (See also Graduation, Potential graduand.)

Graduate
A graduate is a person who holds an award from a recognised tertiary institution. (See also Graduand, Graduation.)

Graduate certificate
See Award course.
name, SID, address, all courses in which the student was enrolled and the final course result, and all units of study attempted within each course together with the unit of study result. (See also Academic transcript, External transcript.)

International student
An International student is required to hold a visa to study in Australia and may be liable for international tuition fees. Any student who is not an Australian or New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident of Australia is an international student. New Zealand citizens are not classified as international students but have a special category under HECS that does not permit them to defer their HECS liability. (See also Local student, Student type.)

Joining fee
Students enrolling for the first time pay, in addition, a joining fee for the University of Sydney Union or equivalent student organisation. (See also Compulsory subscription.)

Leave
See Course leave.

Life membership
Under some circumstances (eg, after five full-time years of enrolments and contributions) students may be granted life membership of various organisations, which means they are exempt from paying yearly fees. (See also Compulsory subscription.)

Load
Load for an individual student is the sum of the weights of all the units of study in which the student is enrolled. (See also EFTSU, HECS.)

Local student
A local student is either an Australian or New Zealand citizen or Australian permanent resident. New Zealand students are required to pay their HECS upfront. (See also Fee type, HECS, International student.)

Major
A major is a defined program of study, generally comprising specified units of study from later stages of the award course. Students select and transfer between majors by virtue of their selection of units of study. One or more majors may be prescribed in order to satisfy course requirements. Majors may be included on testamurs. (See also Award course, Minor, Stream.)

Major timetable clash
Used by FlexSIS to denote occasions when a student attempts to enrol in units of study which have so much overlap in the teaching times that it has been decided that students must not enrol in the units together.

Mark
An integer (rounded if necessary) between 0 and 100 inclusive, indicating a student's performance in a unit of study. (See also Grade.)

Master's degree
A postgraduate award. Master's degree courses may be offered by coursework, research only or a combination of coursework and research. Entry to the course often requires completion of an Honours year at an undergraduate level. (See also Award course.)

Method of candidature
A course is either a research course or a coursework course and so the methods of candidature are 'research' and 'coursework'. (See also Course, Course (research), Coursework.)

Minor
A minor is a defined program of study, generally comprising units of study from later stages of the award course and requiring a smaller number of credit points than a major. Students select and transfer between minors (and majors) by virtue of their selection of units of study. One or more minors may be prescribed in order to satisfy course requirements. Minors may be included on testamurs. (See also Award course, Major, Stream.)

Minor timetable clash
Used by FlexSIS to denote occasions when a student attempts to enrol in units of study which have some identical times of teaching.

Mixed mode
See Attendance mode.

Mode
See Attendance mode and Delivery mode.

Mutually exclusive units of study
See Prohibited combinations of units of study.

MyUni
MyUni is a personalised space for staff and students on the University of Sydney’s intranet, called USYDNet. MyUni is used to deliver information and services directly through a central location, while also allowing users to customise certain information. Students are able to access such services as exam seat numbers, results, timetables and FlexSIS pre-enrolment and enrolment variations on MyUni. (See also UsydNet.)

Non-award course
Non-award courses are courses undertaken by students who are not seeking an award from the University. These may be students enrolled in an award course at another institution or students not seeking an award from any institution. Non-award courses are assigned a course code in the same way as award courses. A separate course code is assigned for each faculty, level (undergraduate or postgraduate) and method (research or coursework) which offers a non-award course. Various categories of non-award enrolment are recorded on FlexSIS for reporting and administrative purposes. (See also Course, Cross-institutional enrolment, Enrolment non-award.)

Non-award enrolment
See Enrolment non-award.

Non-specific credit
Non-specific credit is awarded when previous studies are deemed to have satisfied defined components of a course other than named units of study. These components include, but are not limited to:

- entire years in courses that progress through the successful completion of a set of prescribed units of study per year
- a set number of credit points within a particular discipline or level (ie, first, second or third year)
- one or more semesters for research courses.

(See also Credit, Specific credit.)

OPRS
Overseas Postgraduate Research Scholarship.

Orientation Week
Orientation or ‘O Week’, takes place during the week prior to lectures in Semester 1. During O Week, students can join various clubs, societies and organisations, register for courses with departments and take part in activities provided by the University of Sydney Union.

Part-time student
See Attendance status, EFTSU.

Permanent home address
The permanent home address is the address for all official University correspondence both inside and outside of semester time (eg, during semester breaks), unless overridden by semester address. (See also Addresses, Business address, Semester address, Temporary address.)

PhD
The Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) and other doctorate awards are the highest awards available at the University of Sydney. A PhD course is normally purely research-based; the candidate submits a thesis that is an original contribution to the field of study. Entry to a PhD course often requires completion of a master's degree course. Note that the PhD course is available in most departments in the University of Sydney. (See also Award course, Doctorate.)

Postgraduate
A term used to describe a course leading to an award such as graduate diploma, a master's degree or PhD, which usually requires prior completion of a relevant undergraduate degree (or diploma) course. A ‘postgraduate’ is a student enrolled in such a course.

Potential graduand
Potential graduands are students who have been identified as being eligible to graduate on the satisfactory completion of their current studies. (See also Graduand, Graduation.)

Precedents
Where a credit applicant has credit approved in terms of the granting of specific or non-specific credit on the basis of study previously taken, a precedent is established at system level. Any other credit applicant subsequently seeking credit on the basis of the same pattern of previous study will be eligible to have the item of credit to be immediately approved on the basis of the previously approved precedent. (See also Credit.)
Pre-enrolment

Pre-enrolment takes place in October for the following year. Students indicate their choice of unit of study for enrolment for the following year. After results are approved, registered students are regarded as enrolled in those units of study they chose and for which they are qualified. Their status is 'enrolled' and remains so provided they pay any money owing or comply with other requirements by the due date. Re-enrolling students who do not successfully register in their units of study for the next regular session are required to attend the University on set dates during the January/February enrolment period. Pre-enrolment is also known as provisional re-enrolment. (See also Enrolment.)

Prerequisite

A prerequisite is a unit of study that is required to be completed before another unit of study can be attempted. (See also Assumed knowledge, Corequisite, Waiver.)

Prizes

Prizes are awarded by the University, a faculty or a department for outstanding academic achievement. Full details can be found in the University Calendar.

Probationary candidate

A probationary candidate is a student who is enrolled in a postgraduate course on probation for a period of time up to one year. The head of department is required to consider the candidate's progress during the period of probation and make a recommendation for normal candidature or otherwise to the faculty.

Progression

See Course progression.

Prohibition (prohibited combinations of units of study)

When two or more units of study contain a sufficient overlap of content, enrolment in any one such unit prohibits enrolment in any other identified unit. A unit related in this way to any other unit is linked in tables of units of study via use of the symbol N to identify related prohibited units.

Provisional re-enrolment

See Pre-enrolment.

Qualification

A qualification is an academic attainment recognised by the University.

Registrar

The Registrar is responsible to the Vice-Chancellor for the keeping of official records and associated policy and procedures within the University. (See the University Calendar for details.)

Registration

In addition to enrolling with the faculty in units of study, students must register with the department responsible for teaching each unit. This is normally done during Orientation Week.

Note that unlike enrolment, registration is not a formal record of units attempted by the student.

Research course

See Course (research).

Research supervisor

A supervisor is appointed to each student undertaking a research postgraduate degree. The person will be a full-time member of the academic staff or a person external to the University appointed in recognition of their association with the clinical teaching or the research work of the University. A research supervisor is commonly referred to as a supervisor. (See also Advisor, Associate supervisor, Instrumental supervisor (teacher), Supervision.)

Resolutions of Senate

Regulations determined by the Senate of the University of Sydney that pertain to degree and diploma course requirements and other academic or administrative matters.

Result processing

Refers to the processing of assessment results for units of study. Departments tabulate results for all assessment activities of a unit of study and assign preliminary results for each unit of study. Preliminary results are considered by the relevant board of examiners, which approves final results. Students are notified of results by result notices that list final marks and grades for all units of study. (See also Assessment, Examination period.)

Result processing schedule

The result processing schedule will be determined for each academic cycle. It is expected that all departments and faculties will comply with this schedule. (See also Assessment, Examination period, Result processing.)

Results

The official statement of the student's performance in each unit of study attempted, as recorded on the academic transcript, usually expressed as a grade:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Mark Range</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<td>High distinction</td>
<td>85-100</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>75-84</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>Credit</td>
<td>65-74</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>P</td>
<td>Pass</td>
<td>50-64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>R</td>
<td>Satisfied requirements</td>
<td>0-49</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

UCN Unit of study continuing

Used at the end of semester for units of study that have been approved to extend into a following semester. This will automatically flag that no final result is required until the end of the last semester of the unit of study.

PCON Pass (concessional)

A mark of 46-49. Use of this grade is restricted to those courses that allow for a concessional pass of some kind to be awarded. A student may re-enrol in a unit of study for which the result was PCON. Each faculty will determine and state in its course regulations what proportion, if any, may count - eg, 'no more than one sixth of the total credit points for a course can be made up from PCON results'.

F Fail

This grade may be used for students with marks of 46-49 in those faculties which do not use PCON.

AF Absent fail

Includes non-submission of compulsory work (or non-attendance at compulsory labs, etc) as well as failure to attend an examination.

W Withdrawn

Not recorded on an external transcript. This is the result that obtains where a student applies to discontinue a unit of study by the HECS census date (ie, within the first four weeks of enrolment).

DNF Discontinued - not to count as failure

Recorded on external transcript. This result applies automatically where a student discontinues after the HECS Census Date but before the end of the seventh week of the semester (or before half of the unit of study has run, in the case of units of study which are not semester-length). A faculty may determine that the result of DNF is warranted after this date if the student has made out a special case based on illness or misadventure.

DF Discontinued - fail

Recorded on transcript. This applies from the time DNF ceases to be automatically available up to the cessation of classes for the unit of study.
MINC Incomplete with a mark of at least 50
This result may be used when examiners have grounds (such as illness or misadventure) for seeking further information or for considering additional work from the student before confirming the final mark and passing grade. Except in special cases approved by the Academic Board, this result will be converted to a normal passing mark and grade either:
- by the dean at the review of examination results conducted pursuant to section 2 (4) of the Academic Board policy 'Examinations and Assessment Procedures'; or
- automatically to the indicated mark and grade by the third week of the immediately subsequent academic session.
Deans are authorised to approve the extension of a MINC grade for individual students having a valid reason for their incomplete status.

INC Incomplete
This result is used when examiners have grounds (such as illness or misadventure) for seeking further information or for considering additional work from the student before confirming the final result. Except in special cases approved by the Academic Board, this result will be converted to a normal permanent passing or failing grade either:
- by the dean at the review of examination results conducted pursuant to section 2 (4) of the Academic Board policy 'Examinations and Assessment Procedures'; or
- automatically to an AF grade by the third week of the immediately subsequent academic session.
Deans are authorised to approve the extension of a MINC grade for individual students having a valid reason for their incomplete status.

UCN Incomplete
A MINC or INC grade is converted, on the advice of the dean, to UCN when all or many students in a unit of study have not completed the requirements of the unit. The students may be engaged in practicum or clinical placements, or in programs extending beyond the end of semester (eg, Honours).

Scholarships
Scholarships are financial or other forms of support made available by sponsors to assist Australian and international students to pursue their studies at the University. When a student's means are a criterion, scholarships are sometimes called bursaries. (See also Prizes.)

School
See Department.

SCR
System change request.

Semester
A semester is a session whose dates are determined by the Academic Board. Normally all undergraduate sessions will conform to the semesters approved by the Academic Board. Any offering of an undergraduate unit not conforming to the semester dates must be given special permission by the Academic Board.

Semester address
The semester address is the address to which all official University correspondence is sent during semester time, if it is different to the permanent address. Unless overridden by a temporary address all official University correspondence during semester (including Session 4 for students enrolled in Summer School) will be sent to this address. (See also Addresses, Business address, Permanent home address, Temporary address)

Senate
The Senate of the University is the governing body of the University. (See the University Calendar.)

Senate appeals
Senate appeals are held for those students who, after being excluded by the faculty from a course, appeal to the Senate for readmission. While any student may appeal to the Senate against an academic decision, such an appeal will normally be heard only after the student has exhausted all other avenues - ie, the department, faculty, board of study and, in the case of postgraduates, the Committee for Graduate Studies. (See also Exclusion.)

Session
A session is a teaching period that defines the offering of a unit of study. A session cannot be longer than six months. Session offerings are approved by the relevant dean, taking into account all the necessary resources, including teaching space and staffing. The Academic Board must approve variation to the normal session pattern.

Session address
See Semester address.

Special consideration
Candidates who have medical or other serious problems, which may affect performance in any assessment, may request that they be given special consideration in relation to the determination of their results.
They can obtain an official form from the Student Centre. The Student Centre staff and takes copies to the relevant departments. The student retains the originals. The dates for which special consideration is sought are recorded on FlexSIS and printed on the examination register.

Special permission
See Waiver.

Specific credit
Specific credit is awarded when previous studies are entirely equivalent to one or more named units of study offered by the University of Sydney that contribute to the course in which the applicant has been admitted. (See also Credit, Non-specific credit.)

Sponsorship
Sponsorship is the financial support of a student by a company or government body. Sponsors are frequently invoiced directly.

SRS
SRS is the student record system responsible, prior to FlexSIS, for the processing of student records. The functions of SRS are gradually being incorporated into FlexSIS. (See also FlexSIS.)

Stage
For the purposes of administration, a course may be divided into stages to be studied consecutively. The stages may be related to sessions or they may relate to an academic cycle. Part-time students progress through a course more slowly and would often enrol in the same stage more than once.

Status
Status is a variable for students both with relation to course and unit of study. With relation to course, students can have the status of enrolled or not enrolled. ‘Not enrolled’ reasons can be: totally discontinued, withdrawn, suspended, cancelled, awarded, etc.
With relation to unit of study, students can have the status of CURENR or WITHDN, discontinued, etc.

Stream
A stream is a defined program of study within an award course, which requires the completion of a program of study specified by the course rules for the particular stream, in addition to the core program specified by the course rules for the award course.
Students enrolled in award courses that involve streams will have the stream recorded in their enrolment record. Students normally enter streams at the time of admission, although some award courses require students to enrol in streams after the completion of level 1000 units of study. Where permitted to do so by faculty resolution, students may transfer from one stream to another, within an award course, provided they meet criteria approved by the Academic Board on the advice of the faculty concerned. A stream will appear with the award course name on testamurs - eg, Bachelor of Engineering in Civil Engineering (Construction Management). (See also Award course, Major, Minor.)

Student ID card
All students who enrol are issued with an identification card. The card includes the student name, SID, the course code, and a library borrower’s bar code. The card identifies the student as eligible to attend classes and must be displayed at formal examinations. It must be presented to secure student concessions and to borrow books from all sections of the University Library.

Student identifier (SID)
A 9-digit number which uniquely identifies a student at the University.

Student load
See Load.

Study Abroad Program
A scheme administered by the International Education Office which allows international students who are not part of an exchange program, to take units of study at the University of Sydney, but not towards an award program. In most cases the units of study taken here are credited towards an award at their home institution. (See also Exchange student.)

Subject area
A unit of study may be associated with one or more subject areas. The subject area can be used to define prerequisite and course rules - eg, the unit of study 'History of Momoyama and Edo Art' may count towards the requirements for the subject areas 'Art History and Theory' and 'Asian Studies'.

Summer School
See Sydney Summer School.

Supervising faculty
The supervising faculty is the faculty which has the responsibility for managing the academic administration of a particular course - ie, the interpretation and administration of course rules, approving students' enrolments and variations to enrolments. Normally the supervising faculty is the faculty offering the course. However, in the case of combined courses, one of the two faculties involved will usually be designated the supervising faculty at any given time. Further, in the case where one course is jointly offered by two or more faculties (eg, the Liberal Studies course) a joint committee may make academic decisions about candidature and the student may be assigned a supervising faculty for administration.

The International Office has a supporting role in the administration of the candidatures of international students and alerts the supervising faculty to any special conditions applying to these candidatures (eg, that enrolment must be full-time). (See also Board of studies.)

Supervision
Supervision refers to a one-to-one relationship between a student and a nominated member of the academic staff or a person specifically appointed to the position. (See also Advisor, Associate supervisor, Instrumental supervisor (teacher), Research supervisor.)

Supplementary examinations
Supplementary exams may be offered by faculties to students who fail to achieve a passing grade or who were absent from assessment due to illness or misadventure.

Suppression of results
Results for a particular student can be suppressed by the University for the following reasons:
- the student has an outstanding debt to the university
- the student is facing disciplinary action.

Suspension
See Course leave.

Sydney Summer School
Sydney Summer School is a program of accelerated, intensive study running for approximately 6 weeks during January and February each year. Both undergraduate and postgraduate units are offered. Summer School provides an opportunity for students at Sydney and other universities to catch up on needed units of study, to accelerate completion of a course or to undertake a unit that is outside their award course. All units are full fee-paying and enrolled students are also liable for compulsory subscriptions. Some fee-waiver scholarships are available.

Teaching department
See Department.

Temporary address
Students may advise the University of a temporary address. Correspondence will be sent to this address between the dates specified by the student. (See also Addresses, Business address, Permanent home address, Semester address.)

Testamur
A testamur is a certificate of award provided to a graduate usually at a graduation ceremony.

Thesis
A thesis is a major work that is the product of an extended period of supervised independent research. 'Earliest date' means the earliest date at which a research student can submit the thesis. 'Latest date' means the latest date at which a research student can submit the thesis.

Timetable
Timetable refers to the schedule of lectures, tutorials, laboratories and other academic activities that a student must attend.

Transcript
See. Academic transcript.

Transfer
See Course transfer.

Tuition fees
Tuition fees may be charged to students in designated tuition fee-paying courses. Students who pay fees are not liable for HECS.

UAC
The Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) receives and processes applications for admission to undergraduate courses at recognised universities in NSW and the ACT. Most commencing undergraduate students at the University apply through UAC.

UAC admissions
Most local undergraduates (including local undergraduate fee payers) apply through the Universities Admission Centre (UAC). The University Admissions Office coordinates the processing of UAC applicants with faculties and departments and decisions are recorded on the UAC system.

Applicants are notified by UAC and an electronic file of applicants who have been made offers of admission to courses at the University is loaded onto FlexSIS. (See also Admission, Direct admissions.)

UAI (Universities Admission Index)
The Universities Admission Index (UAI) is a number between 0.00 and 100.00 with increments of 0.05. It provides a measure of overall academic achievement in the HSC that assists universities in ranking applicants for university selection. The UAI is based on the aggregate of scaled marks in ten units of the HSC.

Undergraduate
A term used to describe a course leading to a diploma or bachelor's degree. An 'undergraduate' is a student enrolled in such a course.

Unit of study
A unit of study is the smallest stand-alone component of a student's course that is recordable on a student's transcript. Units of study have an integer credit point value, normally in the range 3-24. Each approved unit of study is identified by a unique sequence of eight characters, consisting of a four character alphabetical code which usually identifies the department or subject area, and a four character numeric code which identifies the particular unit of study. Units of study can be grouped by subject and level. (See also Core unit of study, Course, Major.)

Unit of study enrolment status
The enrolment status indicates whether the student is still actively attending the unit of study (ie, currently enrolled) or is no longer enrolled (withdrawn or discontinued).

Unit of study group
A grouping of units of study within a course. The units of study which make up the groups are defined within FlexSIS.

Unit of study level
Units of study are divided into Junior, Intermediate, Senior, Honours, Year 5, and Year 6. Most majors consist of 32 Senior credit points in a subject area (either 3000 level units of study or a mix of 2000 and 3000 level units of study).

University
Unless otherwise indicated, University in this document refers to the University of Sydney.

University Medal
A faculty may recommend the award of a University Medal to students qualified for the award of an undergraduate Honours degree or some master's degrees, whose academic performance is judged outstanding.
GLOSSARY

UPA
University Postgraduate Award.

USYDnet
USYDnet is the University of Sydney's intranet system. In addition to the customised MyUni service, it provides access to other services such as directories (maps, staff and student, organisations), a calendar of events (to which staff and students can submit entries), and a software download area. (See also MyUni.)

Variation of enrolment
See Enrolment variation.

Vice-Chancellor
The chief executive officer of the University, responsible for its leadership and management. The Vice-Chancellor is head of both academic and administrative divisions.

Waiver
In a prescribed course, a faculty may waive the prerequisite or corequisite requirement for a unit of study or the course rules for a particular student. Unlike credit, waivers do not involve a reduction in the number of credit points required for a course. (See also Credit.)

Weighted average mark (WAM)
The Weighted Average Mark (WAM) is the average mark in the unit of study completed, weighted according to credit point value and level. The formulae used to calculate the WAMs are course-specific: there are many different WAMs in the University.

Year of first enrolment (YFE)
The year in which a student first enrolls at the University.

Youth Allowance
Youth Allowance is payable to a full-time student or trainee aged 16-24 years of age; and enrolled at an approved institution such as a school, college, TAFE or university, and undertaking at least 15 hours a week face-to-face contact. Youth Allowance replaces AUSTUDY.
