What is a handbook?
The handbook is an official publication and an essential guide for every student who studies at the University of Sydney. It is an important source of enrolment information. It can also help you with more than just planning your course of study.

As a student at the University of Sydney you need to be aware of course structures and content, who your lecturers are, as well as examination procedures. You should also become familiar with University policies and faculty rules and regulations. The handbook will supply a lot of this information.

It will also point you to places and people around the University who can help you with enquiries about library loans, childcare, fees, casual employment, places to eat and stay, support groups and much, much more.

What new students need to know

- terminology used for courses and programs of study
- semester dates and examination periods
- important contact details
- how to plan your study program
- rules and policies on assessment, satisfactory progression, honours etc.
- what University services are available and where to find them
- how to get around your campus

At the beginning of many of these chapters there will be explanations to help you proceed further.

Where to find what

Course terminology

University terminology – like ‘credit point’, ‘unit of study’, ‘WAM’ etc – can be found at the back of all handbooks.

Definitions of all terminology are located in the General University information section under Abbreviations and Glossary, at the back of this handbook.

Dates

The start and finish dates of semester can be found in the front section of the handbook. Summer School dates are in the General University section at the back of the book.

Contents and index

The comprehensive contents section at the front of the handbook explains the details you’ll find within each chapter.

You’ll find information like:

- how and where to contact Faculty staff
- how to select your units of study and programs
- a list of degrees
- detailed information on all units of study – classified by unit identifiers (a four-alpha, four-digit code and a title)
- electives and streams
- scholarships and prizes
- information specific to faculties

The index lists units of study only. It allows you to check every reference which refers to your unit of study within the handbook.

Colour-coded sections

- Ivory – for undergraduate courses
- Blue – for postgraduate courses

Faculty rules and regulations

Faculty resolutions are the rules and regulations pertaining to a specific faculty. They can generally be found in their own chapter, or next to the relevant units of study.

These should be read along with the University’s own Coursework Rule 2000 (as amended) which can be found in the general University information towards the back of the book. Together they outline the agreement between student and faculty, and student and University. Senate resolutions are located in the University Calendar.

General University information

This is information about the University in general, rather than information specific to the faculty. This information is at the back of the book and includes, among other things:

- the University Coursework Rule
- the PhD Rule
- University terminology and abbreviations
- campus maps to help you find your way around
- Summer School information
- international student information
- student services

Course planner

You might like to plot the course of your degree as you read about your units of study. This planner can be found at the back of the handbook.

Timetables

For information about personal timetables, centrally timetabled units of study, and venue bookings, see http://www.usyd.edu.au/studentcentre/timetabling.shtml.

For the session calendar, see http://web.timetable.usyd.edu.au/calendar.jsp

Students with a disability

Accessible versions of this document, including word, pdf and html versions are available at http://www.usyd.edu.au/handbooks/handbooks_disability/.

You can find information on Disability Services in the General University information section of the handbook. The Service can provide information regarding assistance with enrolment and course requirement modifications where appropriate.

For details on registering with the Service and online resources see the Disability Services website http://www.usyd.edu.au/disability.

Handbook updates

The information in the handbook is current at the time of publication. Updated information to handbooks and references to University policies such as plagiarism and special consideration, among others can be found in the University’s website.

Message from the Dean

I extend a warm welcome to commencing and continuing students in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Sydney. As a student in the Faculty you are embarking on one of the most enriching experiences of your life. The Faculty strives to offer teaching, learning and scholarship which bring to each student skills and knowledge relevant for your future place in employment, at the same time as being intellectually, socially and culturally rewarding. In recent years there has been much talk of the information revolution but as astute observers of these enormous social and economic changes know, information is useless unless we can turn it into knowledge.

Our society needs people skilled in critical analysis, people with the insight, creativity and imagination to transform information into something meaningful. We need people with the capacity to communicate knowledge to others in accessible and informed ways. Increasingly these are the skills that employers are seeking in all their workers and these are precisely the talents you will develop in undertaking your studies in the Faculty of Arts. In this diverse and stimulating intellectual climate you will have the opportunity to explore many fields in the humanities and social sciences, developing new ideas and ways of seeing the world.

Of course an Arts degree does not fit you for a specific job; rather it lays the foundation for success in many spheres. Our graduates are found in many walks of life. But the message we are getting from employers more and more is that they want graduates with good generalist degrees. Thus students entering the Faculty can have confidence that their studies here are an excellent passport to the future. You should see your studies here as part of a larger package, where you will need to combine your generalist degree with either a vocational program (through our combined degrees), a specialised postgraduate coursework degree or on-the-job training provided by an employer (and sometimes a combination of these). What the Faculty prides itself on is the excellence of the generalist foundation it provides. Graduates from this Faculty have forged stimulating and important careers in many fields, such as the professions, the media, government, business, industry, commerce, community organisations and the arts.

An education in the humanities and social sciences, however, is more than just a means of fitting you for the demands of a career. By introducing you to the riches of the humanities, the social sciences, languages, music and the arts, the Faculty seeks to develop new horizons for all its students, to help them achieve their potential as productive, fulfilled, creative, imaginative, tolerant and useful citizens. We believe that what you learn here will stand you in good stead for the rest of your lives, not just your working lives.

You are joining a body of about 6500 students, almost 5500 of whom are undergraduates, with an academic staff of about 220 and 80 administrative staff. Students come from a diversity of backgrounds: Australian and overseas born, of English and non-English speaking backgrounds, domestic and international students, students of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander background, recent school leavers and older students who may have begun or completed other forms of vocational or higher education, with a range of employment experiences, all creating a richness in the student population which contributes to the scholarly debates in formal tutorials and seminars and in your informal discussions.

You will be assisted in all of your learning by the excellent resources of the University Library, by the Multimedia and Educational Technologies in Arts (META) Centre, linking print-based scholarship with other forms of computer-based learning, essential for the acquisition of knowledge and mastery of the new technologies in the contemporary world and the contemporary labour force.

As a new student, how can you find your way around this large and widely dispersed Faculty? The Arts Faculty Office with its central administrative functions is located on the western side of the University quadrangle. The Faculty Office will link you to the central University and more particularly serve as an information centre for the various departments, interdepartmental programs and schools listed in this handbook, where lectures and tutorials and numerous informal meetings, academic and social, take place. To find your way, both in the geographic and the scholarly sense, chairs of departments, heads of schools and other academic staff, as well as school administrative staff are a mine of information. Staff in the Faculty Office are equally ready to assist you. The University Counselling Service is also available to help you with any difficulties which might arise in coping with the demands of university life.

I encourage you to participate in the life of the clubs and societies of the Faculty and the wider University. I also wish to encourage you to consider spending time overseas as part of your degree. We have a wide range of exchange agreements with overseas institutions which allow you to study abroad while enrolled here. This is an opportunity to broaden your horizons even further. Studying Arts, either as your main degree from which you enter your career, or as foundation for other professional degrees, or studying one of the more specialised three and four-year degrees taught in the Faculty, offers a unique opportunity to participate in and contribute to the generation of knowledge in the humanities and social sciences and to shape Australia’s future.

Professor Stephen Garton
Dean of Arts
1. Introduction to undergraduate study

New students
Upon enrolment you will receive a handout which will assist you in structuring your degree. For this information to make sense, it is recommended that you familiarise yourself with terminology like ‘credit point’, ‘unit of study’, ‘major’, ‘junior credit points’, ‘prerequisites’, ‘corequisites’ etc. You will find definitions in the glossary at the back of this handbook.

Extra information
For more comprehensive information about degree pathways, Frequently Asked Questions and much more, go to the Arts website: http://www.arts.usyd.edu.au.

Values in teaching and learning in the Faculty of Arts
The Faculty is committed to:

- the basic importance of the liberal arts and social sciences for the enrichment of social, cultural and individual life
- critical and open enquiry
- intellectual freedom and academic autonomy together with social responsibility
- provision for cooperative and collegial relationships in teaching and learning
- fairness, honesty and concern for truth, tolerance and mutual respect between teachers and students in all aspects of teaching and learning

Study in the Faculty should lead to the development of:

Outcomes of a bachelor degree in the Faculty of Arts

- an ability to communicate orally and in writing
- an analytical and critical competence in the knowledge, language and forms of argument of several fields of enquiry, and an understanding of the connections between them
- a knowledge of the major theoretical approaches in the relevant fields
- an awareness of cross-cultural issues, involving if possible the study of another language
- an ability to live within a complex intellectual domain, using that domain to criticise familiar contexts and assumptions
- an understanding of ethical issues associated with the acquisition of knowledge
- the capacity to extend the acquired knowledge and skills beyond the university

Honours graduates are expected to be more knowledgeable in their field, to possess more highly developed conceptual, critical and analytical abilities, and to have more advanced research skills.

Regulations of the degrees
There is a great deal of information in this Handbook about the regulations of the degrees in which you are enrolled and also about departments and interdisciplinary programs in the Faculty and the many units of study which are the building blocks of your degree. If you are not clear about these regulations and degree structures it is best to write to or call at the Faculty Office, while questions about subjects and units of study and how they fit together in both the scholarly and logistical sense are best addressed to the department concerned.

University Counselling Service
The University Counselling Service is available to help you with any difficulties which might arise in coping with the demands of university life.

For other University services, see the General University section at the back of this handbook.
1. Introduction to undergraduate study

Application for admission

Undergraduate degrees and combined degrees

Details of the Faculty's Undergraduate Admissions policy are available at Future Students. (http://www.arts.usyd.edu.au)

Application for admission to candidature for undergraduate degree and combined degree programs is made through the:

Universities Admission Centre (UAC)
Quad 2, 8 Parkview Drive
Homebush Bay NSW 2127
Phone: +61 2 9752 0200
Postal Address: Locked Bag 112, Silverwater NSW 2128.

Enquiries concerning the various Special Admission schemes offered by the University (including Mature Age) should also contact the University of Sydney Special Admissions Office, phone +61 2 9351 3615.

Undergraduate diplomas

Application for admission to candidature for undergraduate diploma programs is made directly to the Faculty of Arts Office, where application forms are available. Applications close 31 October 2007 for graduate applicants, and 2 February 2007 for undergraduate degree candidates from other faculties of the University of Sydney who wish to enrol concurrently in one of the diplomas. (The application must include written permission from the Dean, Director or Principal of the other faculty or college in which you are enrolled.)

The Diploma of Arts, Diploma of Languages and Diploma of Social Sciences each require the completion of 48 credit points (including at least 36 senior credit points) in one subject area from Part A of the table of units of study for the Bachelor of Arts degree. Candidature is available to enrolled undergraduates and to graduates and may be full-time (depending on subject area of study and/or prerequisites) or part-time within the time limit of five years.

Faculty policies and general information

To be read in conjunction with Senate and Faculty resolutions.

Attendance at classes

In order to pass a unit of study candidates must attend the classes for that unit of study. Candidates who are unable to attend all classes should consult the chair of the department teaching the unit of study, as non-attendance could lead to failure. Candidates who will be totally absent from all classes for more than one week should seek leave of absence from classes by writing to the Faculty of Arts Office. If you are absent without leave from more than 10 per cent of the classes in any particular unit of study you may be asked to show cause why you should not be deemed to have failed to complete that unit of study.

Efforts are made to avoid timetabling clashes but it is not possible to eliminate them completely. Students who have clashes with classes should consult the relevant teaching staff in the departments concerned and acquaint themselves with the departmental policies regarding attendance before they make a decision about how to deal with such clashes. Students must be aware that ultimately they are responsible for the consequences of any decision they make.

Students who decide to continue with both units of study must check that the relevant teaching staff are made aware of their intention. Furthermore, students should note that they may not use a timetable clash to gain, for instance, special consideration, negotiate due dates, or miss in-class testing.

Students should be advised that they need to keep in mind the final dates for changing or withdrawing from units of study so that they do not incur penalties or additional HECS.

Credit transfer policy

Please refer to chapter 9, section 14 for the Faculty's credit transfer policy and its policy on units of study offered by other faculties within the University but not listed in Part B of the Table of units of study for the Bachelor of Arts.

Complaints and grievances

Students who believe they have been unfairly treated are encouraged to speak to their teachers or to the Chair of the department in the first instance. Students may, of course, also wish to seek advice and support from the Counselling Service or from student welfare officers. If the problem cannot be resolved at the departmental level, students may write to the Dean, care of the Faculty Office.

Dean's List of Meritorious Students

The annual Dean's List of Meritorious Students recognises academic excellence by students enrolled in the Bachelor of Arts (including combined degree programs). Faculty views the establishment of the Dean's List as recognition of the high standard of academic excellence of Arts students and as a means of making their achievements known to both the wider University community and the public in general.

- The List is produced on the basis of each calendar year, since 1999, and will include the 20 most meritorious students in the Faculty of Arts.
- To be included in the annual Dean's List a student must have completed in the calendar year, usually in any year of enrolment after their first, usually at least 48 credit points. (A candidate enrolled in the Honours course is ineligible for inclusion in the Dean's List).
- The sole criterion in determining the award of a place in the list shall be the marks approved by the first and second semester Board of Examiners' meetings. (Late or subsequently altered results will not be considered in any circumstances.)
- Candidates for combined degrees are eligible, even if also eligible for inclusion in the Dean's List in another faculty or board of studies.
- Cross-institutional and other non-award students, diploma and postgraduate students are not eligible for inclusion in the Dean's List.

Deferment of UAC offers

Special provisions apply to persons who receive an offer of a place and wish to defer taking up an offer.

Persons who have not previously attended a recognised tertiary institution are normally able to defer commencement of their candidature for one year. Applications, which are handled by the Admissions Office of the University, must be made during the UAC enrolment period and be accompanied by the "offer of enrolment" card.

Email accounts

All students and staff of the University have access to electronic mail facilities.
Enrolment
Correct enrolment is the individual responsibility of each candidate.

The Faculty assumes that those enrolled in the Faculty have an understanding of the rules and regulations outlined in this Handbook as they relate to the particular program being undertaken.

While the Faculty of Arts Office will assist you to understand and interpret these rules and regulations, it is in your interests to put your requests in writing to the Faculty, in order to obtain a written reply for your own records and to ensure that a copy is placed on your student file for future reference.

Verbal advice, while given in good faith, may be given on an incomplete understanding of your situation as you have presented it, or may be misinterpreted or misunderstood. A candidate cannot count any unit of study or part-unit in which the candidate is not enrolled, even if a department has calculated and provided an informal result.

Persons who wish to re-enrol after an approved period of suspension of candidature or as Honours conversion candidates need to complete an application to re-enrol after an absence. Application forms are available from the Faculty of Arts office or on the Arts website and must be lodged by the end of October for the following year.

Re-enrolment
All currently enrolled candidates will receive re-enrolment advice in October. Failure to re-enrol or have a suspension of candidature approved results in termination of candidature.

Current students wishing to enrol in Fourth Year Honours should note advice about entry in this Handbook. The Honours Year has been divided into four (4) units of study for enrolment purposes only. Each unit of study has a credit point value of 12. In most cases Honours units of study have unit codes ending in 4011, 4012, 4013 or 4014.

Full-time candidates enrol in 24 credit points per semester (e.g., February semester: ENGL4011 and ENGL4012. July semester: ENGL4013 and ENGL4014). Approved part-time candidates enrol in 12 credit points each semester (e.g. Year 1: February semester ENGL4011, July semester ENGL4012. Year 2: February semester ENGL4013, July semester ENGL4014).

Variation of enrolment
Students should carefully check the statements of enrolment posted to the semester address registered with the University. Variations of enrolment may be made via the Internet (access is via the University of Sydney home page) or through the Faculty Office by the due date.

Advising the lecturer or the department is not sufficient. Students have sometimes found themselves with an unwelcome result of Absent Fail or with an unnecessary HECS liability because they either did not check their enrolment carefully or forgot to advise the University of a new semester address. Students are encouraged to check with the Faculty Office without delay if they believe their formal enrolment may not be correct.

Students wishing to withdraw from a unit of study in which they have enrolled and enrol in a new unit of study must do so at the Faculty of Arts Office or via the Internet by:

- the end of the second week of first semester (for first semester units of study)
- the end of the second week of second semester (for second semester units of study)

Suspension of enrolment
Pass course
- Students must re-enrol annually. A student who wishes to suspend candidature must first obtain approval from the Faculty.
- The candidature of a student who has not re-enrolled and who has not obtained approval to suspend will be deemed to have lapsed.
- Suspensions are not approved for more than four semesters.
- Candidates who re-enrol after a period of suspension must complete the requirements for the award course under such conditions as determined by the Dean.
- Candidates who have completed the requirements for the pass degree may not suspend their candidature and must be awarded the degree unless they are enrolled in the Honours course.

Examinations and results
There is a formal examination period at the end of each semester following a one-week "study vacation".

Draft examination timetables are issued well in advance. Candidates should make an effort to check the draft timetable as soon as it is released and immediately report any clashes to the Examinations Office. Draft examination timetables usually become final after 7 days.

Information as to the time of particular exams is never available before the draft timetable is released.

Candidates are expected to be available throughout the examination periods; Faculty will not approve leave of absence for these times. (It may be possible to make special arrangements with individual departments and schools on an informal basis; but only if such arrangements are acceptable to the examiners and do not involve the University in additional expense.) Candidates should not make overseas travel arrangements before the final dates of their examination are known.

Examination rules
The general rules which apply in examinations are reproduced with each timetable.

Assessment Consideration
The Faculty of Arts assesses student requests for consideration relating to completion of assessment in accordance with the regulations set out in Part 5 of the Academic Board's policy on Assessment and Examination of Coursework and the Special Arrangements for Examination and Assessment policy. Students are expected to become familiar with the University's policies and Faculty procedures relating to Special Consideration and Special Arrangements.

There are two types of consideration students can apply for as follows:
- Special Consideration – for serious illness or misadventure.
- Special Arrangements – for essential community commitments.

Special consideration
The University's assessment practices are designed to ensure that conditions are fair to all students, as consistent as possible, and that individual students are not disadvantaged by adverse personal circumstances beyond their control or by the activities of other students.

There is a clear distinction between longstanding serious illness or misadventure and short-term serious illness or misadventure.

Longstanding serious illness or misadventure
Students who, because of serious illness or misadventure, are prevented from attending classes for prolonged periods should seek an interview with the Undergraduate Coordinator in each of the departments in which they are studying. Even if they do not exceed any specified permitted period of absence, they may need to consider whether their best interests are served by discontinuing with permission from the course until they are able to resume their studies effectively. They may apply to the Faculty of Arts in writing for a suspension (leave of absence) of their candidature or to withdraw from the unit or units of study affected. International students may seek advice from the International Office regarding visa requirements prior to making any changes to enrolments.

Short-term serious illness or misadventure

Only well-attested serious illness or misadventure during a semester or occurring at the time of an examination will warrant special consideration for academic performance. This policy deals with short-term serious illness or misadventure that may prevent an otherwise well prepared student from sitting for an examination or completing a particular assessment.

Special Consideration will NOT be granted in the following instances:

- Occasional brief or trivial illness of a one or two week duration that occur one week or more before an assessment is due or an examination undertaken;
- Workloads from other units of study, disciplines and faculties, except where the request for special consideration is made within the first three weeks of semester;
- Employment where the request for special consideration is made less than four weeks before the date of the assessment;
- Illness and misadventure that have prevented students from acquiring a Pass level of knowledge/skills (including all illnesses/misadventures resulting in the student missing six weeks or more of lectures or tutorials);
- Adequate standards of documentation and processes have not been met;
- Requests for extensions for assignments made after the assignment is due or an assessment has taken place (except where the circumstances prevented earlier provision; no special consideration requests shall be processed if submitted more than one week after the assessment);
- The supporting documentation post-dates the period for which special consideration was sought;
- The performance of the student was equivalent or superior to that demonstrated in other assessments in the unit of study; and they pertain to planned commitments, such as elective surgery, holiday or work, where the student could reasonably be expected to have scheduled the commitment or their studies to not adversely affect their studies;
- Computer-related problems, except where a police report is provided indicating that burglary or calamity has resulted in the loss of both a computer and backups from the student's place of residence (NB it is assumed that students keep regular back-ups of their work, so theft of a laptop is not grounds for special consideration);
- Jury Service, Military Service, National Sporting, religious or cultural commitments and other unforeseen events are not dealt with under this policy, as they are not instances of illness or misadventure. Such matters are dealt with under the Special Arrangements policy.

Any student who is found to have provided forged documentation in order to obtain special arrangements will be subject to the University's procedures for dealing with cases of student discipline as set out in Chapter 8 of the University of Sydney By-law 1999 (as amended).

Requests for special consideration are sympathetically treated, but candidates must appreciate that in some cases Faculty cannot make the concession requested, even when strong evidence is presented. The special consideration application form, further information and the Academic Board policy are available from the Arts website: www.arts.usyd.edu.au.

Special Arrangements

Special arrangements may be made available to any student enrolled in a Faculty of Arts unit of study, who is unable to meet assessment requirements or attend examinations, because of one or more of the following situations:

1. essential religious commitments or essential beliefs (including cultural and ceremonial commitments);
2. compulsory legal absence (eg jury duty, court summons, etc);
3. sporting or cultural commitments, including political/union commitments, where the student is representing the University, state or nation;
4. birth or adoption of a child, and
5. Australian Defence Force or emergency service commitments (including Army Reserve).

The special arrangements application form, further information and the Academic Board policy are available from the Arts website: www.arts.usyd.edu.au.

Any student who is found to have provided forged documentation in order to obtain special arrangements will be subject to the University's procedures for dealing with cases of student discipline as set out in Chapter 8 of the University of Sydney By-law 1999 (as amended).

Students should first contact either their unit of study coordinator or the department's undergraduate coordinator.

Further tests

All requirements for the unit of study (essays, assignments, examinations and any further tests) must be completed and assessed before the finalisation of results for that semester. Supplementary examinations are not awarded to degree candidates in the Faculty of Arts and have been replaced by "further tests".

Where there is doubt about a candidate's performance, departments may arrange further tests after the examination period but before the finalisation of results.

Where a candidate has been prevented by sufficient and duly certified illness or misadventure from completing a unit of study, examiners (at their discretion) may award further tests or additional assignments. The date for such further tests, and the deadline for assignments, are at the discretion of the department concerned. Where possible and practicable, all further tests will be administered before the advertised date for release of results. No further tests can be taken, and no late work submitted, in the following academic year in any circumstances.

No further tests will be granted for Law units of study.

Results: Junior and Senior units of study

In accordance with Academic Board Policy, departments are encouraged to make results available to students directly after they have been confirmed by the Chair. Students will receive written confirmation of results. Students can also access results via the Internet.
Appeals against results
A written request to the department or school should be made by the candidate. It is expected that appeals would be lodged within three months unless there is a good reason for delay. As examination scripts are destroyed four months after examination, no appeal can be made after that. Such requests are considered by the department in consultation with relevant members of the department. A report and recommendation is then submitted to the Dean for consideration and final decision.

The weighted average mark
A WAM may be calculated for students who have attempted Senior units of study. The WAM for students in the Faculty of Arts is the average mark per unit of study of all Senior units attempted. Results of W (Withdrawn) and DNF (Discontinued – not to count as failure) are ignored in the WAM calculation.

A document providing more information about the WAM and the ways in which it is used is available from the Faculty of Arts Office. Students are encouraged to read it and raise any concerns they have with members of the academic staff or with an Undergraduate Adviser in the Faculty Office.

Full-time, part-time status
To be considered “full-time”, a student must have a HECS HELP liability in one of 4 semesters, 7.5 in a year. In terms of the Faculty degrees, this means a student must be enrolled in at least 18 credit points in a semester. Students with enrolments below this level are part-time.

HECS HELP
HECS HELP (the Higher Education Contribution Scheme, which may either be paid in full with a discount or deferred) is determined on a semester basis from the “weight” of the units of study the student is enrolled in. This means that workload determines HECS HELP liability. An enrolment in 24 credit points in a semester is the standard full-time load and costs approximately 0.5 HECS.

Information and Advice
Any candidate who wishes to make an application relevant to a degree, or who needs advice as to degree or unit of study requirements should contact the Undergraduate Adviser for the Faculty of Arts. The adviser is located in the Faculty of Arts Office, Ground Floor, Western Tower (opposite the Clock Tower at the foot of the MacLaurin Hall stairs), Quadrangle. The office is normally open for enquiries from 10.00am to 4.00pm (Mon – Fri). The phone number is +61 2 9351 3129; fax +61 2 9351 2045. Detailed or complex requests should be made in writing to:

The Student Administration Services Manager
Faculty of Arts Office
Quadrangle A14
University of Sydney
New South Wales 2006

Email: ug@arts.usyd.edu.au.

Repeating a unit of study
A student repeating a unit of study may be exempted by the department from some sections of the unit of study. Nevertheless, the student must enrol in the unit of study and is liable for the full HECS cost for the unit of study.

Talented student program
The Faculty of Science offers a talented student program in many of its subject areas. Arts students taking units of study in Mathematics or other Science areas may also apply to enter the talented students program. Further information is available from these departments.
Timetables
Details of class times and locations are available from the department concerned, and are usually posted on the departmental noticeboard. All students will have access to their timetable via the Internet. Details about access will be provided at enrolment.

Timetable clashes – see Attendance at classes

Majors
Students will be asked to nominate their primary major. All majors which a student is eligible for will be reflected on the testamur for the pass degree.

BA (Asian Studies) degree award
Eligible students will be advised and if they do not confirm their intention in regard to the degree by the due date they will be awarded the BA (Asian Studies) degree and may not revert to the BA only.

BA (Languages) Exchange
Students must spend at least one semester on exchange organised through the International Office, or undertake in-country study at an appropriate university where the target language is the official language of that university/country. If students spend one semester on exchange or in-country study, they must complete a minimum of 24 senior credit points (counted here as exchange units), including 12 senior credit points in the language major. If students choose to spend two semesters abroad, they may claim up to 48 senior credit points, including 24 in the language major.

Library Skills
ARTS1000 eSearch to Research Library Skills.
This unit of study has zero credit points and is a voluntary unit of study for students in 2007. However, it is strongly recommended that all commencing Arts students complete this unit in their own time, within the first five weeks of their first semester. From 2008, it will be a compulsory unit for all commencing arts students.
Aboriginal Studies/Indigenous Australian Studies

Koori Centre
Academic Coordinator
Dr Wendy Brady
Programs/Subject Coordinator
Ms Leah Lui-Chivizhe

Indigenous Australian Studies is a multi-disciplinary field aimed at providing students with an understanding of the major issues impacting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. Units of study focus on: the writing of Indigenous histories; Indigenous cultures, economics, politics and health; the nature of European colonisation and the status of Indigenous Australians in contemporary Australian society; Indigenous writing; language and literature; archaeology and contemporary cultural heritage and ethnographic issues.

The Koori Centre coordinates the Indigenous Australian Studies major of the Bachelor of Arts and teaches core units of study within this program. The Centre also teaches Indigenous Australian Studies subjects within other faculties as elective and compulsory subjects.

18 junior credit points are required to enrol in Introduction to Indigenous Australia (KOCR2600). This unit of study is also a prerequisite for most other KOCR units of study. Check the unit of study outlines for prerequisite and corequisite details.

For an Indigenous Australian Studies major, students must complete 36 credit points of Indigenous Australian Studies. This can include up to 18 credit points of cross-listed study.

Enrolment and registration
All students completing the Indigenous Australian Studies major are required to enrol into the relevant faculty. Students will be allocated tutorial sessions automatically as part of the enrolment procedure online.

Advice on units of study
The Koori Centre office is open for enquiries in September/October for pre-enrolment, and during the orientation period. The Koori Centre can provide information regarding the Indigenous Australian Studies major, as well as specific information on the units offered through the Koori Centre (Introduction to Indigenous Australia, Colours of Identity: Indigenous Bodies, Speaking Gamilaraay 1, Indigenous Creative Expression, Indigenous Health and Communities, Indigenous Land and Culture, Issues in Indigenous Rights, Torres Strait Histories and Experiences, Indigenous Australia: History and Health).

For further information contact the Koori Centre.

Anthropology
The department of Anthropology is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). The SOPHI Enquiry Counter is located on Level 3, Quadrangle. Telephone +61 2 9351 2862.

Anthropology may be described as the study of human societies and cultures. Although it shares much of its theory and method with a wide range of social and humanistic disciplines, it remains distinct

1. in its emphasis on comparison;
2. in its interest in the full range of human, cultural and social diversity;
3. in its use of prolonged fieldwork in distinct locations as its primary research method.

While often associated with the study of small scale stateless societies, contemporary social anthropology is increasingly concerned with the investigation and analysis with modern nation states. Junior units of study introduce students to core themes revealing the fundamental character of cultural difference, the continuing significance of cultural difference in a globalised context, and the development of major traditions of social theory in relation to these key problems in anthropology.

Confronting cultural difference raises general issues of human cognition and communications, social structure, performance, semiotics and representation, and calls into question taken for granted categories such as religion, politics and economics. Senior units of study address these theoretical and conceptual challenges.

Anthropology also has a long tradition of engagement with key contemporary social issues. The question of race and racism, processes of urbanisation, globalisation, the dynamics of poverty, the politics of ethnicity, the social impacts of development projects, medicine as a cultural issue, have all loomed large in teaching and research. The Anthropology curriculum supports a distinct major in Culture and Development.

In regional terms, current units of study focus on various aspects of the sociocultural circumstances of both Aboriginal and immigrant Australians, as well as a wide range of Asian, Pacific and other cultures and societies.

Students should consult the departmental web site for advice on combinations of units of study that form the major streams in the curriculum.

Honours entry units of study and Fourth Year Honours are designed to develop an understanding of these concerns as a product of Anthropology as a discipline with a distinctive methodology and history. The aim is to provide students with the research skills and breadth of disciplinary knowledge required for them to formulate their own research project culminating in a Fourth Year Honours thesis.

Arts graduates with an Anthropology major meet the recruiting requirements of a variety of organisations requiring an understanding of the cultures and social institutions of indigenous Australians, Australia’s Asian and Pacific neighbours and trading partners. These include a number of branches of the public service, aid and development agencies including the United Nations, a variety of non-government organisations, and businesses with a core interest in international trade.

A major in social anthropology should also prove useful for prospective high-school teachers interested in teaching the HSC subject “Society and Culture”. There are also increasing opportunities for good honours graduates in social anthropology for contract-type employment in connection with Aboriginal land claims.

Finally, for those who proceed to successful postgraduate research and training there is a chance to compete for academic positions in both Australian and overseas universities and other tertiary institutions.
First Year Anthropology
There are two junior Anthropology units of study, each worth six credit points:
- ANTH1001 Anthropology and Cultural Difference
- ANTH1002 Globalisation and Experience

A combination of two junior units of study is a prerequisite for all other anthropology units.

Major in Anthropology
Anthropology
A major consists of 36 senior credit points in Anthropology.

Culture and Development
Students are required to complete three senior units of study from the designated Culture and Development pool and three from senior general anthropology or cross-listed units. The designated pool of Culture and Development units includes:
- ANTH2625 Culture and Development
- ANTH2626 The City: Global Flows and Local Forms
- ANTH2627 Medical Anthropology
- ANTH2628 Migration and Migrant Cultures

At least two of these units will be offered each year on a rotating basis although more may be offered in one year.

Fourth Year Honours in Anthropology
To proceed to Fourth Year Honours in Anthropology students must have a credit average or better in 48 Senior credit points of Anthropology, including ANTH3601 Pre-Honours Seminar and one other ANTH3600 level unit of study.

Any problems students may encounter due to the new prerequisites should be referred to the Departmental Honours Coordinator.

Cross listing (units of study from other subject areas)
Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Arabic and Islamic Studies
The department of Arabic and Islamic Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

Arabic is the major language in the Middle East and North Africa, with over 280 million speakers. Islam is the faith of over a billion people. As a religion, a civilisation and cultural and political factor its significance can be seen, both in world history and in the globalised context of our modern world. Arabic is the language of Islam’s scriptures and of significant Arabic speaking Christian communities. It is also one of the six official languages of the United Nations. Arabic is both the language of an ancient civilisation and the living medium of a vibrant contemporary literature and culture. Apart from its strong influence on Persian, Turkish, Urdu, Indonesian and Malay, within the Islamic world, Arabic has also influenced several European languages through hundreds of loan words in various fields of knowledge.

Studying Arabic introduces learners directly to the Middle Eastern heritage, to Islamic sources, and to the contemporary culture and media of the Arab world. Studying the Arab World, Islam and the Middle East will enable students to comprehend the history, culture and politics of a significant part of our present world, as well as the place of Islam globally.

The department of Arabic and Islamic Studies offers two types of units covering two inter-related areas of study: Arabic Language and Literature (ARBC) units are language based and deal with Arabic language material (advanced classes are conducted mostly in Arabic); and units of study on the Arab World, Islam and the Middle East (ARIS, where classes and texts are in English). Arabic Language programs are offered in two streams: One for beginners, where first year units focus on language acquisition and skills. Students taking these units are able to develop their language skills and knowledge of Arabic literature and culture in subsequent years. The other language stream is for advanced students with sufficient learning experience of Arabic (HSC Arabic or equivalent) and who already read and write in Arabic. The Arab World, Islam and the Middle East units deal with the history, civilisation, society and politics of the Arab and Islamic Middle East (West Asia and North Africa) and the place of Islam as a religion and a civilisation in history and in the modern world. ARIS units are open to students whether they are taking ARBC units or not.

A major in Arabic and Islamic Studies combines ARBC and ARIS units, and allows more focus on either area of study as follows:
- Arabic Language, Literature and Culture major: consisting of 24 senior ARBC units plus 12 senior ARIS units; OR
- Arab World, Islam and the Middle East major: consisting of 24 senior ARIS units plus 12 senior ARBC units.

Arab World, Islam and the Middle East
The six ARIS units of study deal with aspects of the history, society, religion, culture, thought and politics of the Arab and Islamic Middle East from pre-Islamic times to the present. The approach is historical and sociological. Lectures and tutorials are conducted in English and the units of study are available to all students who wish to study this area and its place in the world, in some depth, particularly students with interest in the study of History, Asian Studies, Anthropology, Sociology, Global Studies, Religion and Politics, as well as those majoring in Arabic and Islamic Studies.

There are two junior (first year level) units and four senior (second and third year level) units of ARIS. The four senior units are offered in alternating sequence to ensure continuity over three consecutive years. Students who have already completed ARIS1671 and ARIS1672 will proceed to ARIS2673 and ARIS2674 in 2007. Students who complete ARIS1671 and ARIS1672 in 2007, will proceed to ARIS3675 and ARIS3676 in 2008.

Cross-listed units of study
Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Arabic Language, Literature and Culture
There are six units of study in each of the two Arabic language strands, depending on the student’s existing knowledge of Arabic or lack of it. These units are concerned with Arabic language and literature, offering direct insights into Arabic culture and society. The beginner (first year) units focus on practical language skills, using living Arabic in context. The language taught is Modern Standard Arabic, the variety of learned Arabic common across the Arabic speaking world. Students will also be gradually familiarised with a variety of Arabic dialects. The senior units seek to extend these skills while introducing students to samples of contemporary Arabic literature and the media. Advanced units seek to develop writing and translation skills as well as study and analysis of Arabic literature and media.

Language levels
There are two alternative pathways in Arabic language components. Students with no learning experience of Arabic will need to enrol in the B strand units: beginning with ARBC1611 and ARBC1612, proceeding to ARBC2613, ARBC2614, ARBC3615 and ARBC3616. Students with 2 unit Continuers HSC Arabic (or equivalent) will need to enrol in the A strand units: beginning with ARBC2633 and ARBC2634, proceeding to ARBC3635, ARBC3636, ARBC3637 and ARBC3638. Students with 2 unit General HSC Arabic are required to take a placement test, administered by the department, to determine their appropriate entry level. Students cannot enrol concurrently in both strands, and those eligible to enrol in the A strand cannot enrol in the B strand (ARBC1611, etc).

A major in Arabic and Islamic Studies will require a minimum of 36 credit points at senior level. Students can combine units as follows to make up a major in Arabic and Islamic Studies:
Either Arabic Language, Literature and Culture (ARBC): 24 credits points of Arabic language senior units (ARBC2613-3616 B strand; ARBC3635-3638 A strand), plus 12 credit points from the ARIS senior units (ARIS2673-3676).

Or Arab World, Islam and the Middle East (ARIS): 24 credit points of ARIS units (ARIS2673-3676), plus 12 credit points of senior Arabic language units (ARBC2613-3616 B strand or ARBC3635-3638 A strand).

Students taking senior units in the ARBC A strand may be taught in a combined class for practical purposes (e.g. ARBC3635 and ARBC3637). Contents offered to such a combined class alternate from year to year to ensure a continuing sequence.

Honours entry requirement

The honours program in Arabic and Islamic Studies (ARBC/ARIS honours) requires 48 credit points at senior level in Arabic and Islamic Studies, to be completed as entry requirements at an average of 'Credit' level or better. These include the 36 credit points of the major in Arabic and Islamic Studies either the ARBC or the ARIS alternative (as specified above) plus 6 credit points chosen from any of the remaining ARBC or ARIS units, and the obligatory honours entry six credit points of ARIS3680 (Approaches to Arabic and Islamic Studies).

Students with interdisciplinary interests can enrol in joint honours or double honours, combining Arabic/Islamic Studies with another subject area.

Students continuing under the old system can complete the required number of credit points for their major from the available ARBC or ARIS senior units of study. Such students should take the honours entry unit, ARIS3680, provided that this does not cause them to exceed the required total of credit points in their degree structure.

Department permission is required for honours enrolment.

Archaeology

The department of Archaeology is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

Majors are offered in three areas: Classical and Near Eastern Archaeology, Prehistoric and Historical Archaeology, and Heritage Studies. From 2006, 36 senior credit points are required for a major in any of these areas.

The sequence of units in Classical Archaeology aims at providing students with a well rounded knowledge of the ancient Mediterranean, specialising in Greek, Roman and Italic/Etruscan archaeology. The units of study deal with all aspects of material culture and its interpretation, with special emphasis on the evidence of art and architecture; major sites of the Classical World are discussed in detail.

The units of study offered in Near Eastern Archaeology cover a wide range of areas and periods from the origins of agriculture in Western Asia through Alexander's conquests in the East to the coming of Islam, encompassing the material history of an area from the Mediterranean Sea to the western borders of China. The wide region was the heartland of early civilisations, and units within Near Eastern Archaeology explore the rise of early city states, kingdoms and empires. Areas of teaching cover regional and chronological studies, examining in detail the archaeology of the Levant, Mesopotamia, Iran, Central Asia and the Indus Valley.

Units of study are designed to address key areas of ancient development, with emphasis on recent fieldwork and current theoretical issues. Staff members within the department maintain active fieldwork programs (currently in Iran, the Greek Islands, Central Asia, southern Italy and Jordan), which provide a significant resource for course work and student research. Students in Classical and Near Eastern Archaeology are recommended to combine their studies with units within other areas of Archaeology, and with Ancient History; Classics, Classical Studies and Art History and Theory. These departments offer units relevant to students with a particular interest in Classical Archaeology.

Prehistoric and Historical Archaeology uses archaeological data to study the whole range of the human past. Throughout all units of study there is a focus on archaeological methods, techniques and theory, with an emphasis on the special nature of the material record, the scales at which it can be studied and the contribution that archaeology makes to our knowledge of the past. Prehistoric Archaeology covers most of the period of human existence, the last 14 million years, and it is primarily through archaeology that we can discover and understand human physical and cultural evolution. Prehistoric Archaeology studies the material manifestations of human experience, such as artistic traditions, economies, settlements and tool assemblages with an emphasis on world wide perspectives. The archaeology of Australia and Southeast Asia is a special interest, including the relevance of archaeology to today's society. Historical Archaeology studies the last 300 years and combines physical and material evidence with written, oral and visual sources.

The Heritage Studies program examines the historical, theoretical and political issues associated with the conservation, management and interpretation of indigenous and non-indigenous heritage places and landscapes and the history and role of museums in contemporary society. A major in Heritage Studies will prepare students for employment in a range of heritage related industries and government organisations. The Heritage Studies major facilitates an interdisciplinary approach to a field which is of special interest to students in many disciplines including archaeology, history, anthropology, art history, geography and environmental science. Students intending to complete a major in Heritage Studies can include units of study from archaeology, history, art history and anthropology in their major. All units of study involve fieldtrips to heritage places and museums. Heritage Studies also acts as a feeder into postgraduate programs in Museum Studies, History and Heritage Conservation.

Further information

Information on units of study can be obtained from the departmental website, arts.usyd.edu.au/departs/archaeology or by phoning the School office on +61 2 9351 2862.

Art History and Theory

Candidates for the Bachelor of Arts may count up to 72 credit points (12 junior and 60 senior) from Art History and Theory toward degree requirements. There is no entry requirement for Art History and Theory 1001 or 1002. Students intending to major in Art History and Theory must complete both ARHT1001 and ARHT1002.

You may take Art History and Theory units of study as follows:

Art History and Theory 1001 and 1002: two semester units of study, 6 credit points each. These units of study are the prerequisite for senior units of study.

Senior units of study are worth 6 credit points each commencing in 2006.

Majoring in Art History and Theory

To do a major in Art History and Theory, a student must complete a total of 12 junior credit points, and at the senior level, a minimum of 36 credit points and a maximum of 48 credit points.

Students can either choose a wide range of units of study to create a generalist degree or choose units of study to create a more specialised major (for example, with a focus on Art History before
5. Subject areas within the Faculty of Arts – A-K

ARHT2642 Art in the Age of the Samurai
• ARHT2641 Art and Archeology of Southeast Asia

Area 4:
• ARHT2641 Art and Archeology of Southeast Asia
• ARHT2642 Art in the Age of the Samurai

Students can choose additional units according to whether they wish to achieve a specialist or a generalist degree. For example, those hoping to work in an art museum might choose to specialise in European and Australian art or in Asian art with relevant courses in European art history.

Practical studies
Students in the Department of Art History and Theory are encouraged to enrol in practical units of study offered at the Art Workshop (Tin Sheds) in the Faculty of Architecture, Planning and Allied Arts. Units of study are normally offered in the following media: Ceramics, Drawing, Painting, Photography, Screenprinting, Sculpture, Video and Web Design.

Students undertaking the Art History and Theory First Year Program are able to enrol in one introductory level workshop. Students enrolled in senior units of study can take one advanced level workshop, each worth 6 credit points. A listing of these units of study can be found in the Faculty of Architecture Handbook.

These units of study are additional to the 48 credit points required for a major in Art History and Theory but will count towards a student’s degree total.

For more details please consult the Art Workshop on +61 2 9351 3115.

Availability of senior level units of study
Not all units of study listed will be offered in any one year. Almost all will, however, be offered over the two years during which a full-time student does senior units.

Area 1: European art history from the Early Renaissance to late 19th century. The discipline was founded and developed on European modes of representation through many parts of the world, including Australia.
• ARHT2610 European Modernism
• ARHT2612 Baroque Courts
• ARHT2613 The Art of France
• ARHT2617 Art and Society in Victorian England
• ARHT2616 High Renaissance Art
• ARHT2618 French Art, Salon to Post-Impressionism
• ARHT2671 Orientalism and Visual Culture

Area 2: Modernist, Post-modernist and Contemporary art. This area covers most aspects of visual culture from the late nineteenth until the early 21st centuries. It includes the study of photography, popular culture, art, design and architecture.
• ARHT2621 European Modernism
• ARHT2624 Contemporary International Art
• ARHT2636 Contemporary Indigenous Australian Art
• ARHT2643 The Art and Architecture of Modern Japan

• ARHT2653 Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Cinema
• ARHT2655 cinema and Spectatorship
• ARHT2656 National and Transnational Cinemas
• ARHT2657 Contemporary Hollywood

Film Studies major
A Film Studies major is offered by Faculty coordinated from within the Department of Art History and Theory with ARHT2652 Silent to Sound Cinema as the core unit. The following units have been approved for inclusion in this major and are on offer in 2007:
• ANTH2622 Ethnographic Film
• ARHT2601 Recent Approaches to Art and Film
• ARHT2652 Silent to Sound Cinema
• ARHT2653 Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Cinema
• ARHT2655 cinema and Spectatorship
• ARHT2657 Contemporary Hollywood
• ASLT2615 Shooting Back: 4th World Writing & Film
• CSTM2603 Australian Film and National Identity
• ENGL2638 Literature and Cinema
• ENGL3604 Cinematic Modernism
• FRNC2681 French Narrative Cinema
• HSTY3640 Film in Black and White

Area 6: General Studies. This area includes studies with broader time frames and/or a specific theoretical focus.
• ARHT2601 Recent Approaches to Art and Film
• ARHT2660 Masterpieces and Metapictures
• ARHT2662 Photography: Image and Document
• ARHT2671 Orientalism and Visual Culture

Assessment
Students of Art History and Theory are required to:
• attend all lectures and all tutorials
• complete prescribed written work
• read all the recommended texts before each week’s tutorials

During each semester, coursework is credited towards the final result. Coursework consists of visual tests, essays, class papers and class participation in differing proportions. Students will be given assessment details early in each unit of study.

Enrolment
Students must enrol in units of study in Art History and Theory through the Faculty in which they are completing their degree. Advice in choosing units of study is available at pre-enrolment and enrolment time. Students must notify any changes to both the Faculty and the department. Students should consult the departmental noticeboards for additional information.

Noticeboards
Noticeboards are located on the second floor of the RC Mills Building in the vicinity of the departmental offices.

Honours
Art History and Theory IV honours candidates must have obtained results of credit or above in at least 48 senior credit points including ARHT2601 Recent Approaches to Arts and Film (or ARHT2901).

Art History and Theory IV honours comprises four semester-long units of study and a thesis which is 50 per cent of the year mark. A unit of study may not be offered if there is too small an enrolment. Students are required to submit written work totalling 4000 words for each option. The thesis is 15,000–18,000 words in length.
Intending Art History and Theory IV honours students are required to pre-enrol in October with the Faculty and make a preliminary registration with the department in November of the preceding year. They should also have an approved dissertation topic by then. Acceptance of the thesis research area will depend on the availability of a supervisor.

Students are able to undertake Film Studies honours, please see the Film Studies entry for further information.

While knowledge of another language is not compulsory, university education provides many opportunities for acquiring or improving language skills which may be difficult to find later. These language skills are essential for research in many cases and are often highly valued by future employers, particularly in museums and art galleries. Students wishing to proceed to postgraduate research in Art History and Theory are therefore strongly advised to acquire a good reading knowledge of a language other than English. Furthermore, much significant scholarship is not translated (or if it is, much of its meaning changes); moreover understanding of languages other than English helps one's command of English. A student may be precluded from doing postgraduate research in a particular area if s/he does not have reading knowledge of the appropriate language/s.

Asian Studies

The Asian Studies program is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The University of Sydney has a long tradition in Asian Studies dating back to the establishment of the Department of Oriental Studies in 1918. Since then, the University has developed considerable resources in teaching and research in the languages, culture, history and societies of Asia in order to enable the Faculty to respond better to the country’s need to produce many more graduates trained in Asian languages and studies.

Within the School of Languages and Cultures several departments or sections contribute to the teaching of Asian Studies: Chinese Studies, Indonesian Studies, Indian and Sub-continental Studies and Japanese and Korean Studies. There is also a program in Asian Studies which offers undergraduate units of study, an honours program and postgraduate training by coursework and research. Units of study in Asian Studies are concerned with the study of Asia or parts of Asia, employing a range of methodological approaches. The aim is to develop an interdisciplinary and comparative examination of the historical, cultural, economic, political and religious aspects of Asian societies. Consequently, while based in the School of Languages and Cultures, the program in Asian Studies draws on the expertise of Asian specialists from many departments in the School of Languages and Cultures and other faculties in the University.

At junior level, the program in Asian Studies and the department of History offer three 6 credit point first year units of study, Modern Asian History and Cultures 1 and 2, which provide a general introduction to Asia, as well as Introduction to Chinese Civilisation which does the same for China. Students are able to complete a major in the subject area of Asian Studies, selecting from a pool of senior level units on aspects of the study of Asian history, politics and culture etc.

Although study of an Asian language is encouraged in conjunction with Asian Studies units of study, it is not required as all units of study are conducted in English and use English-language texts. No prior study of Asia is required for entry into the first-year units of study, which introduce students to the study of Asia through an emphasis on comparative themes and concepts. The pool of Senior units of study available for completing a major in Asian studies is made up of Asia-related units of study in the departments of Art History and Theory, Studies in Religion, Music, Anthropology and History, Government and International Relations as well as Asian Studies.

The University of Sydney holds exchange agreements with a number of universities in the Asian region, including Tokyo University, Waseda University, Hosei University, Kwansei Gakuin University, Doshisha University and Nagoya University in Japan, Seoul National University, Korea University, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies and Yonsei University in Korea, and Shandong University in China. Many of these institutions offer scholarships to University of Sydney students, while others waive course fees.

Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website, and consult the relevant departments regarding availability of units of study for 2007.

However, here is a guide for units of study already cross-listed:

- ANTH2619 Chinese in South East Asia
- ARHT2641 Art and Archaeology of South East Asia
- ARHT2642 Art in the Age of the Samurai
- ARHT2643 The Art and Architecture of Modern Japan
- CHNS3640 Chinese History through Chinese Eyes
- CHNS3641 Chinese Philosophy
- HSTY2621 Greater China
- HSTY3686 Democratisation in the Asia Pacific I
- HSTY3687 Democratisation in the Asia Pacific II
- MUSC2606 Topics in Asian Music
- RLST2603 Classical Hinduism
- RLST2604 Medieval and Modern Hinduism
- RLST2609 Theravada Buddhism
- RLST2611 Mahayana Buddhism
- RLST2623 Meditation and Self Transformation
- RLST2629 Confucian Spirituality
- RLST2630 Taoism: Potency and Immortality

Honours Fourth year

The honours program consists of three seminars and a 15,000 – 20,000 word thesis weighted at 50 per cent of the final result. As with the undergraduate Asian Studies major, all units and the thesis will be in English. However, we encourage students with Asian-language proficiency to utilise sources in that language for their thesis research and to seek permission to substitute Asian-language honours-level coursework in their coursework component.

For their coursework component, students may take three from the following pool of subjects, whose availability may vary from year to year:

- ASNS5902 Research Methods in Asian Studies
- ASNS5981 Gender and Culture in Premodern East Asia
- ASNS6900 Contemporary Asian Societies
- ASNS6976 Buddhism and State in Northeast Asia
- JPNS6901 Japan in the Western Imagination
- JPNS6902 Japanese History
- JPNS6904 Japanese Thought
- JPNS6909 Issues in Contemporary Japan
- CHNS6975 Society and Individual in Post-Mao China
- CHNS6982 Approaches to Research on Modern China
- CHNS6938 The City in Chinese Film and Fiction
- CHNS6966 State and Society in China, 1368-1911
- CHNS6942 Change and Innovation in Tang Poetry (requires sound basic knowledge of Classical Chinese)
- CHNS6953 Expression and Repression in Premodern China

Students may cross-list up to two of the three coursework components from units of study offered in other departments and faculties. They should check the availability of those units with the different departments.

Australian Literature
The Australian Literature Resources Centre (N411) and noticeboard are situated on the top floor of the John Woolley Building A20. Students may take a major in Australian Literature by completing senior units of study to the value of 36 credit points. For 2007, four 6 credit point units of study are available.

An honours program is also available in Australian Literature. Students who have gained 12 senior credit points of Australian Literature with a credit or better average may enrol in ASLT3601 and ASLT3602, in preparation for entry to Australian Literature honours IV.

See the Table of units of study for entry requirements.

Cross listing (units of study from other subject areas)
Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Honours IV: Australian Literature
Honours IV students will take four semester units of study. All students will submit a long essay on a topic to be approved. Essays are 18,000 words in length, and are due on Monday 15 October 2007.

Semester options
Australian Poetry and the Symbolists – Associate Professor Brooks
Journeys of Healing – Dr Brennan
Australian Postmodernism – Dr Rowe
Postcolonial Literature – Dr van Toorn

Note: Students may also be given permission to choose up to two semester units of study from those offered for the MA program, and for English IV.

Australian Studies
The Australian Studies program enables students with an interest in Australian culture to pursue a program of study at senior level across a wide range of subject areas.

In addition, it offers three interdisciplinary core units of study in Australian Studies, each worth 6 credit points, which can be taken independently of an Australian Studies major. The entry requirement for each of these is 18 junior credit points.

Students who wish to major in Australian Studies (a minimum of 36 credit points at senior level) must complete the three core units of study. The remaining units of study may be chosen from a list of cross-listed units of study in the Australian Studies area, offered by participating departments.

Further information is available from the Director of the Australian Studies Program, Dr Brigid Rooney, Room N328, Woolley Building. Phone +61 2 9351 2349 or +61 2 9351 4517.

Biblical Studies
Biblical Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The Hebrew Bible in translation forms the major focus of this program. The two junior units provide an introduction to the study of the texts. The formation of the Bible, literary, religious and historical elements of the texts of Law and early Prophets, and the relationship between Ancient Israel and surrounding peoples and cultures are examined and analysed. An important aim is the development of the ability to read texts critically, with an awareness of the range of scholarly approaches.

In the four senior units of study, the focus moves, in BBCL2603, to an exploration of the phenomenon of prophecy and particular prophetic works and in BBCL2604 to narrative, poetic and wisdom texts from the Writings. The other two units deal with post-biblical material. There is an examination in BBCL2605 of early post-biblical works linked to the Hebrew Bible, and an investigation in BBCL2606 of apocalyptic literature found in the Hebrew Bible, the Christian Scriptures and in apocryphal and pseudepigraphic works. All sections of the program consider relevant material from the Qumran discoveries (the Dead Sea Scrolls).

The four senior units are offered cyclically over a two-year period. In 2007 the units available will be Literature of Second Temple Judaism (BBCL2605) and Jewish Apocalyptic Literature (BBCL2606).

To obtain a major in Biblical Studies, students must successfully complete the above units as well as 12 credit points of Classical Hebrew. Rlst2611 may be substituted for one of the senior units.

Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Chinese Studies
The department of Chinese Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The Chinese Studies program offers units of study in Chinese language, society and culture for a wide range of students: from complete beginners to students with extensive prior knowledge of spoken Chinese but little knowledge of characters to native speakers who, on starting university, can already read Chinese fluently. All new students are interviewed during the enrolment period to determine which unit(s) of study will best meet their needs. The department operates a flexible enrolment policy to ensure appropriate placement for new students whose Chinese-language proficiency does not match any first-year unit of study. Times when staff will be available to conduct interviews (other than during the main enrolment period) will be posted on the department noticeboard and website.

The department teaches Modern Standard Chinese (putonghua, also known as Mandarin). Throughout the handbook entries, the word "Chinese" refers to Modern Standard Chinese unless otherwise indicated. Students also have the opportunity to learn Classical Chinese, the gateway to much of China's rich cultural heritage. All lectures, classes and tutorials begin in the first week of each semester.

Students may be required to show their high school or other relevant transcripts to confirm the appropriateness of their enrolment. The department will assist students who have enrolled in an inappropriate unit of study to correct their enrolment. It reserves the right to place students in the unit of study that it deems most suitable for them. Students who fail to withdraw from an inappropriate enrolment when directed to do so will be reported to the Dean.

The Chinese Studies major
The major in Chinese Studies consists of 36 senior CHNS credit points. Especially advanced students may request special permission to crosslist designated Asian Studies units of study to the Chinese Studies major (see below, under "Recommended units of study from other subject areas", for information about how to do this).

All students who are seriously interested in the Chinese language and Chinese society and culture are advised to take as many CHNS units of study as possible (up to the permitted maximum of 60 senior credit points), as well as the ASNS and other directly relevant units of study listed below under "Recommended units of study from other subject areas". The Chinese language is exceptionally rich and challenging – a vital tool not only for communication, but also for in-depth study of the monumental changes that the Chinese economy and Chinese society have undergone since 1949. China's long history of recorded civilisation has left masterpieces of literature and historical and philosophical writing that can be appreciated in translation or – still better – the original. The 36-credit-point major offers a basic introduction to the Chinese world, but further study is essential for the serious student. A semester (or at least a summer program) in China or Taiwan is also recommended. You do not expect to learn to speak Chinese well unless you are prepared to study it intensively in-country.

The following information about typical patterns of progression is offered to assist students with varying levels of proficiency in planning their majors. Of course, if you have already taken senior CHNS credit points under the pre-2006 codes, these will still count towards your major.

Pathways to a Chinese Studies major

1. For speakers of non-Chinese languages

   There is a four-year "ladder" of basic language instruction, with various supplementary options along the way. Where you first step on the ladder depends on the results of your placement interview; however, only units whose first digit is "2" or higher count towards the major. You can step off with a major after the third level if you take a supplementary option, or you can progress to level four if your degree structure permits this.

   The "ladder" is structured as follows: CHNS1101/1102, Chinese 1A and 1B (For Beginners); CHNS2601/2602 Chinese 2A and 2B (Lower Intermediate); CHNS3601/3602, Chinese 3A and 3B (Upper Intermediate); and CHNS3603/3604, Chinese 4A and 4B (Advanced).

   In addition, you are advised to take ASNS1101, Introduction to Chinese Civilisation in your first year. Senior electives that will be available in 2007 for you to count towards your major are as follows: CHNS2611/2612, Classical Chinese A and B; CHNS3608/3609, Chinese for Business Purposes A and B; CHNS3641, Chinese Philosophy; CHNS3646, Classical Chinese Fiction; and Chinese In-country Study. ASNS units of study that focus on China can be counted towards an Asian Studies major.

2. For students who speak (but not read) a Chinese language fluently

   If you are already fluent in a Chinese language (e.g. putonghua, Cantonese) but have limited knowledge of characters, you may enter the language program either in a specially designed first-year sequence or at the advanced level, depending on how much you know.

   The first-year sequence is CHNS1201/1202, Chinese 1C and 1D (For Advanced Beginners). In addition, you are advised to take ASNS1101, Introduction to Chinese Civilisation in your first year. For your major, the core subjects will be CHNS3603/3604, Chinese 4A and 4B (Advanced). The senior electives that will be available in 2007 for you to count towards your major are as follows: CHNS2611/2612, Classical Chinese A and B; CHNS3608/3609, Chinese for Business Purposes A and B; CHNS3632, The Novel in Premodern China; CHNS3641, Chinese Philosophy; CHNS3646, Classical Chinese Fiction; ASNS2618, Remaking Chinese Society, 1949-Present (with permission); ASNS3617, Citizens and Politics in China Today (with permission); ASNS2611, China's Last Dynasties: What Changed? (with permission); and Chinese In-country Study.

3. For students who can read Chinese fluently

   If you can already read Chinese fluently, you can move straight to the study of Chinese society and culture, perhaps taking the time to learn some Classical Chinese first. Here is the recommended program for students who can read Chinese fluently, speak a Chinese language (e.g. putonghua, Cantonese) and would like to study Chinese culture, literature and society in a Western academic context.

   In your first year, you are advised to take ASNS1101, Introduction to Chinese Civilisation and CHNS2612, Classical Chinese B. The senior electives that will be available in 2007 for you to count towards your major are as follows: CHNS2612, Classical Chinese B; CHNS3632, The Novel in Premodern China; CHNS3641, Chinese Philosophy; CHNS3646, Classical Chinese Fiction; ASNS2618, Remaking Chinese Society, 1949-Present (with permission); ASNS3617, Citizens and Politics in China Today (with permission); ASNS2611, China's Last Dynasties: What Changed? (with permission); and Chinese In-country Study.

Honours program in Chinese Studies

If you are earning 70 per cent or higher in your Chinese Studies subjects, you are encouraged to upgrade your qualifications by staying for an honours year. There will be a range of options for students with different proficiency levels; however, the more Chinese you have learned before you start, the more interesting the options that will be available to you.

The department is also positively interested in arranging joint honours programs for suitably qualified students in accordance with Faculty resolutions. The minimum requirements for admission to honours are as follows: (1) a major in Chinese Studies plus sufficient additional credit points selected from CHNS and ASNS261x (or 211x) and 361x units of study to reach 48 senior credit points; and (2) a credit average in all qualifying units of study. In addition, the following are strongly recommended:

- ASNS3690 Approaches to Research in Asian Studies (or the old CHNS3902). This may be counted towards the required 48 senior credit points by all students except those whose qualifying senior credit points include CHNS2601/2602, Chinese 2A and 2B (Lower Intermediate) (or the old CHNS2101/2102, Second-Year Chinese).
- At least a year of Classical Chinese.
- As many as possible of the units of study listed below under "Recommended units of study from other subject areas".
- For students who have taken CHNS2601/2602 or 2101/2102, 60 credit points of senior CHNS units of study, preferably including at least 24 credit points of in-country study.
- For students who are seriously interested in the study of premodern China) As much Classical Chinese as possible (priority 1) plus as much Japanese language as possible (priority 2).

Further information

See the department website.

Recommended units of study from other subject areas

Cross-listing to the Chinese Studies major is normally not permitted. However, the following units of study are strongly recommended (as available) for all Chinese Studies students. In addition, students whose first CHNS senior unit of study is CHNS3603 or CHNS3604, who have successfully completed HSC Chinese for Background Speakers or who can already read Chinese fluently may request special permission to count certain designated units towards the Chinese Studies major. The designated units are marked with an asterisk below. Permission must be sought through the unit coordinator by Wednesday of Second Week in the relevant semester.

- ASNS2611 China's Last Dynasties: What Changed?
- ASNS2618 Remaking Chinese Society, 1949–Present
- ASNS2675 Gender in East Asian History and Culture
- ASNS3617 Citizens and Politics in China Today
- ASNS3619 China and Globalisation

Classics and Ancient History
Ancient History and Classics are taught by the department of Classics and Ancient History which is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

The department of Classics and Ancient History offers four separate majors in ancient world studies: Ancient History, which has a history-centred disciplinary approach to the ancient world; Latin and Ancient Greek, language-based majors which allow for progression from complete beginners to an advanced mastery of the language and literature; and Classical Studies, which explores the cultures, literature, and societies of the Classical world but does not require the acquisition of an ancient language. Students are encouraged to supplement the focus of their particular major by drawing on the wide range of units of study available within the department (and in related departments, such as Archaeology and Philosophy) to build an Arts degree with a deep, cross-disciplinary grounding in the ancient world.

Ancient History
We teach the discipline of history and use it to offer undergraduate and postgraduate students at all levels a wide range of units on the ancient Greek, Roman and early post-Roman and Byzantine civilisations. We look at the evidence for this world: literature; documents on stone, metal, clay, wood or papyrus; coins; visual images and material sources. We use various historical approaches to try to recover the past in a way that is meaningful to the present. You can do as many units of study of Ancient History as you wish in a full sequence towards a BA degree, or you can do as little as one or two units as part of a degree specialising in something else, such as Archaeology or Art History and Theory or Commerce or Law (Combined BA/LLB students only). Ancient History units can be combined with other units in History (which is a separate subject area) to make up a major in History. Senior level units in Ancient History run on a cycle, generally a two-yearly one.

Knowledge of an ancient language (Greek or Latin for example) is not necessary for a full sequence of undergraduate units in Ancient History, but it is desirable and if you have a particular interest in Ancient History you should consider taking an ancient language among your first year units. Note that you can still pick up your ancient language as senior units via the units in Accelerated Greek (GRKA2611/2) or Accelerated Latin (LATN2611/2).

If you wish to do Ancient History IV honours, you will need to have knowledge of an ancient language before entering your honours year and to complete the relevant units of study. Consult members of the Ancient History staff about the pre- or corequisites for honours and what is involved in an honours course.

Cross-listing (units of study from other subject areas)
Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Classical Studies
Classical Studies is coordinated by the department of Classics and Ancient History which is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

The Classical Studies Program facilitates an interdisciplinary approach to the study of Graeco-Roman culture, a field which is of special interest to students in many disciplines as it is the ancestor of modern western cultures. No knowledge of Latin or Greek is assumed. Students may complete a major in Classical Studies by pursuing two or three strands of interest, that is, by taking two or three units of study per year from the following areas: Ancient History; Classical Archaeology; Classics. At least one unit of study will be available from each of these areas every year. At the junior level, Classical Mythology is offered in Semester 1 and Greece and Rome in Performance in Semester 2. Students may also enter a Classical Studies major at the senior level after having passed at least 18 junior credit points including 12 junior credit points from amongst units of study in Ancient History, Classical Archaeology, Ancient Greek or Latin. To fulfil the senior level requirements for a major in Classical Studies (i.e. at least 36 senior credit points), students must complete at least two core units of study at senior level – core units of study can be identified by a CLCV2XXX (pre-2006) or CLS26XX (post-2006) code, and at least one is offered every year. For details of units of study offered by Classical Archaeology, Ancient History, see the entries under the names of those areas. It is also important to note that the units of study in Ancient History and Classical Archaeology involve cumulative learning; thus, in order to take one at senior level in these areas, students must have passed the necessary prerequisite at junior level.

Enquiries
Should be directed in the first instance to the School office, phone +61 2 9351 2862. Further information about units of study in the Classical Studies major may be sought from the Director of the Classical Studies Program or the units of study coordinators whose names, phone numbers and office numbers will be posted on the website.

Cross-listing (units of study from other subject areas)
Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Greek (Ancient)
Ancient Greek is taught by the department of Classics and Ancient History which is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

The study of Ancient Greek focuses mostly on Classical Greek, with some coverage also of the post-Classical period. Initial emphasis is placed on mastery of the language, and study of the literature and other aspects of Greek culture is approached primarily through the reading of texts, but the more advanced units provide an opportunity for study in greater depth of selected areas of Greek language, literature, history, philosophy, culture and religion. The elementary course also provides a suitable foundation for those who wish to read the New Testament.

Units of study in Ancient Greek
The department offers a full range of units in Greek for both the pass and the honours degrees.

The Greek 1 units of study assume no previous study of Greek and aim at providing students with a basic knowledge of the language. Those who have achieved the appropriate level of Ancient Greek at the HSC or equivalent examination may be granted Senior status and be admitted to Greek 2. Senior units focus on prescribed texts and a selection of extension topics, which cover literary genres and features of language or society. At senior levels special entry honours units of study are offered (GRKA3609 and GRKA3610). These are intended to prepare students for more advanced work and are prerequisites for entry into Greek IV (honours).

Latin
Latin is taught by the department of Classics and Ancient History which is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

Units of study in Latin deal with various aspects of Roman language and culture. Study of the language is regarded not merely as an end in itself but as a critical tool for the appreciation and understanding of Latin literature and Roman history, culture and society.
Books
Students should normally have a copy of each literary text to be prescribed for detailed study, and also a good Latin dictionary and grammar (see under Language Study, Latin entry ch 6). Books are often obtainable from the Classics department or from academic Sydney bookshops, or, if time allows, may be ordered from book suppliers overseas.

Further information
Students seeking further information about units of study, or about the books recommended for study, should call at the School office on level 3 of the Quadrangle, or phone +61 2 9351 2862.

Intending Honours students
Students wishing to take Latin honours should consult members of the Latin staff about the prerequisites and corequisites for honours and what is involved in an honours course.

A note on Greek
Roman civilisation is in many ways indebted to that of the Greeks. A knowledge of Ancient Greek is invaluable for studying Latin literature and Roman culture; so students who are considering taking Honours in Latin and who have not previously studied Greek, are strongly encouraged to take at least one year of Greek.

Comparative Literature
See International and Comparative Literary Studies.

Cultural Studies
Cultural Studies is an interdisciplinary major offered by the Department of Gender and Cultural Studies, within the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). The Cultural Studies major enables students to undertake a broad study of culture in Media and Communications, English, Art History and Theory, Sociology and Anthropology as well as dedicated Cultural Studies units on topics such as: media and cultural practice; youth cultures; everyday cultures; consumer identities and practices; popular genre studies; and critical cultural theory.

Cultural Studies allows students to explore their own and other cultures, providing them with the tools to analyse a wide range of issues. The department is committed to equipping students with research and writing skills that will assist in opening up a range of career prospects. The study of conetemporary culture also complements all forms of study in the humanities and social sciences as well as law, the sciences, the arts, government, economics, commerce and education.

Cultural Studies is available at second and third year and at fourth year honours level. A major in Cultural Studies requires passes in units totalling at least 36 senior credit points (chosen from Cultural Studies units and units cross-listed for the major). These must include:

- GCST2601 Introducing Media and Popular Culture
- at least one of the following:
  - GCST2606 Genres in Cultural Context
  - GCST2608 Gender, Communities and Difference
  - GCST2611 Everyday Cultures
  - GCST2612 Youth Cultures
- and at least two of the following:
  - ANTH2628 Migration and Migrant Cultures
  - ARHT2656 National and Transnational Cinemas
  - ENGL2617 Postmodernism
  - GCST3603 Consumer Cultures
  - GCST3604 Cultural Theory
  - MECO3605 Media Globalisation
  - SCLG2609 Contemporary Cultural Issues

Honours
To proceed to fourth year honours in Cultural Studies students must have a credit average at senior level Cultural Studies units (including cross-listed units) totalling at least 36 senior credit points, one of which must be GCST2601 Introducing Media and Popular Culture.

The honours year consists of: a 15,000 word thesis on a topic devised by the student in consultation with a supervisor appointed by the department; a methods unit that provides training in thesis research and writing; a series of practical research skills workshops; and two research seminars chosen from a list that changes from semester to semester.

For honours in Cultural Studies, students should enrol in:
- GCST4101 Arguing the Point
- GCST4102 Research Skills
- GCST4111 Cultural Studies Honours Seminar A
- GCST4112 Cultural Studies Honours Seminar B
- GCST4113 Cultural Studies Honours Seminar C
- GCST4114 Cultural Studies Honours Thesis A
- GCST4115 Cultural Studies Honours Thesis B
- GCST4116 Cultural Studies Honours Thesis C

It is also possible in 2007 to do joint honours in Gender and Cultural Studies. Prospective students for this joint program should see the departmental website or handbook.

Digital Cultures
The Digital Cultures program is an innovative new program that critically investigates the social and cultural implications of new media and digital technologies. How do emerging technologies influence the ways information and knowledge are created and circulated? How are networks transforming local and global social relations? How have the arts, commerce, government, media and entertainment adopted digital technologies?

The Digital Cultures Program puts intelligent, interactive, mobile and networked technologies into context, taking an interdisciplinary approach that draws on sociology, history, philosophy, media studies, cultural studies and new media studies. The program combines face-to-face coursework with exercises in computer labs such as web production, blogs and wikis.

The Digital Cultures Program offers a major in Digital Cultures, an Honours Program and the Bachelor of Arts (Digital Technology and Culture).

The Bachelor of Arts (Digital Technology & Culture) is a specialist four-year degree that combines studies from the Faculty of Arts with others from the School of Information Technology in the Faculty of Science. The degree was developed in recognition of likely employer demand from two main fields: information-technology industries seeking people with the broad critical, analytical and communicative skills of arts graduates, and arts-related industries in need of technologically literate people capable of capitalising on the opportunities offered by new digital technologies. By combining studies in humanities and social sciences with studies in information technology, the Bachelor of Arts (Digital Technology & Culture) revolutionises traditional approaches to the broad disciplines offered by arts and science. This innovative program focuses on the human aspect of IT and information systems, including the social, cultural and aesthetic dimensions of information, rather than just the technologies themselves. To complete the Bachelor of Arts (Digital Technology & Culture), students undertake studies in the Digital Cultures Program and information systems as well as a major chosen from one of nearly 50 specialist areas in the Faculty of Arts.

In 2007 a major in Information Systems consists of 36 intermediate and senior credit points as follows:

Junior prerequisites for the major

- INFO1003 Foundations of Information Technology
ARIN1000 Digital Communication and Culture

Intermediate (2nd year) and senior units
ISYS2140 Information Systems

Education

Arts students may enrol in Education units of study as listed in Part B of the table of units of study for the BA.

The Faculty offers a wide range of units of study. These are not designed to prepare students for teaching but rather seek to promote the understanding of education as a social phenomenon. As such they open up for analysis the complexities of education through study in a number of fields. For example, there is the study of the nature, context and processes of education through historical, psychological, philosophical and sociological perspectives; of human growth and development and their implications for education; and, across different societies and cultures, of the relationship between education and politics, social organisation and economic development.

Details of the diploma and degree courses supervised by the Faculty of Education and Social Work such as the BEd, MTeach and MEd programs, may be found in the Education and Social Work Handbooks (postgraduate and undergraduate).

Pass and special entry units of study

Junior units of study in Education are available to Arts students. However, entry into intermediate and senior units in Education is possible, subject to completion of junior units in a range of other disciplines (see table of units of study in Education).

EDSE3047 and EDSE3048 are available to students with 28 credit points in a language other than English. Enrolment in these units will be restricted to students in the fourth and fifth year of their candidature for the BA (Languages) by Education and Social Work.

Noticeboards and phone numbers

Students should check on the noticeboard in the foyer of the Education Building Complex A35, for staff locations and phone numbers.

Coordinators

Education 200 level: Dr Craig Campbell and Dr Richard Walker
Education 300 level: Dr Craig Campbell
Honours Coordinator: Dr Robyn Gibson

Advice

Members of staff will be available in the Education Building Complex at pre-enrolment time in October to give advice on planning units and sequences of units. Students should consult the relevant noticeboards for details of appropriate advisers.

Registration

Students should register with the appropriate coordinator during the week preceding the commencement of classes.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours in Education)

Fax: +61 2 9351 4580
Email: r.gibson@edfac.usyd.edu.au

Suitably qualified Arts candidates are invited to undertake honours in Education. The honours thesis involves an investigation of a topic of students' choice relevant to their own interests, and will be supervised directly by a member of the Faculty. Though the length of the thesis will vary with the nature of the investigation, and length does not indicate quality, the thesis will normally comprise 20,000–25,000 words.

Prerequisites

Students intending to take Honours in Education must have achieved a Credit average result or higher in an Arts subject area, for example History, Anthropology, etc.

Enrolment

Students enrol in the following Education units of study.

Second Year

Pass units
EDUF2006 Educational Psychology. 6 credit points
EDUF2007 Social Perspectives on Education. 6 credit points

BA Hons units
6 credit points from those Education units offered at 300 level
Total for Second Year: 18 credit points

Third Year

Pass units
Three pass units of study from Education 300 Level. 18 credit points.

Fourth Year

Honours units of study (EDUF4215/4216). 48 credit points
Total for Fourth Year: 48 credit points

English

English is the largest department in the Faculty of Arts, and the range of its interests is correspondingly wide, in terms of both course coverage and varieties of critical approach. The areas of literature and language taught in English units of study range from contemporary Australian, American, and Caribbean back to medieval Anglo-Saxon and Norse. They range across genres and media from romantic fictions to life-writing, from film as narrative to digital communications. Senior units of study are normally offered in rotation; that is, a unit of study on offer in one year will not be offered in the next year but will reappear the year after that. This expands students' range of choice, and means that with careful planning they may build their English studies around particular areas of interest.

As well as educating students in areas of literature and language, English also trains students more generally in the proficiencies of reading and communication. Students develop their abilities to recognise and analyse the multiple effects of meaning and argument operating within a variety of texts – oral, written, and visual. To complement this, they develop skills of expression in their own writing and speaking. The more obvious career paths of our graduates are in teaching and public service, media, advertising and marketing. But students who have learned to think responsively and clearly, and to communicate effectively, are much in demand by employers beyond those areas.

The English department is situated in the John Woolley Building A20, Science Road. Enquiries should be directed in the first instance to the General Office, room N386; phone +61 2 9351 2349 or +61 2 9351 3251; fax +61 2 9351 2434; email english.enquiries@arts.usyd.edu.au.

Departmental noticeboards are in N335, the open area at the middle of the entrance floor of the Woolley Building. The department's web address is http://www.arts.usyd.edu.au/departs/english/index.shtml
The English department offers units of study in both English and Australian Literature (that is, Australian Literature is available as a separate major or honours course). Units of study are offered at both junior and senior levels for the pass degree, while fourth year honours is offered as an additional full year of study at senior level to suitably qualified candidates. Subject to the by-laws and resolutions of the Senate and Faculty, 36 credit points (six units) at senior level are required for a major in English, but students may take from a single subject area up to 78 credit points (18 credit points, or three units, at junior level, and 60 credit points, or 10 units, at senior level) out of the 144 required for the pass degree.

Cross listing (units of study from other subject areas which may be counted towards a major)

Some English units of study are cross-listed to other subject areas such as Medieval Studies, International and Comparative Literary Studies, Australian Studies, Gender Studies, and Media and Communications. Students should consult the relevant Handbook entries for these departments or programs.

Though the English department provides an ample number of units for students majoring in the subject, some units may be cross-listed to count towards the 36 credit points required for a major in English. A total of 18 credit points may be cross listed. Units that may be cross-listed for an English major are:

Australian Literature
- ASLT2601 Australian Literature 1920 – 1960
- ASLT2602 Australian Literature 1960 – 1988
- ASLT2605 Reorientations in Australian Literature
- ASLT2615 Shooting Back: 4th World Writing & Film

International and Comparative Literary Studies
- ICLS2633 Cities of the World
- ICLS2634 Literature and Revolution
- ICLS2635 Science Fiction: The future is now

Linguistics
- LNGS2604 Discourse Analysis

Medieval Studies
- MDST2601 The Written Record of the Middle Ages
- MDST2607 Medieval Literary and Artistic Modes

Music
- MUSC2677 Shakespeare as Opera

Evening classes

The department of English normally repeats one junior level unit and at least one senior level unit in the evening in each semester.

Assessment

Students should acquaint themselves with the department’s Statement on Assessment on the departmental noticeboards and website. Details of the assessment in individual units of study are included with the descriptions of those units of study.

Assumed knowledge

Units of study offered by the English department are all designed for students with native-language ability in English. Students whose language competence is not at this level should undertake preliminary studies such as those offered by the Language Centre before contemplating enrolment in English.

Junior units of study

ENGL1002, ENGL1005, ENGL1015 and ENGL1025 are each 6 credit point units of study. They have no formal prerequisites, but are based on the assumption that students will have completed one of the more demanding courses for the Higher School Certificate. Each of these units of study consists of three hours of classes a week for one semester.

Completion of 12 junior units of English is a prerequisite for proceeding to the study of English at senior level.

ENGL1000, Academic Writing, is a 6 credit point unit of study designed to introduce students across the university to interdisciplinary writing practices and theories. The unit is appropriate for all students wishing to improve their abilities in academic writing and critical analysis. It is taught in three hours of classes per week for one semester. Native or near native competence in English is required. ENGL1000 may not be counted as one of the junior level prerequisites for entry to senior level English.

A student may not take more than 18 junior credit points from one subject area.

Senior units of study

The full range of senior units of study across the department is available to students who have passed 12 junior credit points of English (excluding ENGL1000). Senior units have a value of 6 credit points and involve 3 teaching hours a week over the semester. All units include some small-group teaching, either by seminar or tutorial. When choosing senior units, students should note the following points:

(a) This Handbook gives details of units of study offered in 2007. In general, senior units rotate from year to year, so that units offered in 2007 will not be offered in 2008, while those offered in 2006 will return in 2008. The department offers advisory assistance to students choosing their units of study at both pre-enrolment and enrolment time.

(b) The range of units of study offered in the department allows students to plan their senior studies according to their personal interests. Some senior units within the department cover specific historical periods, while others cross both genres and historical periods in order to study a particular theme or themes. Some units concentrate on a particular genre, or explore the relation between literature and film. Some of the medieval period units give students the opportunity to learn either Old or Middle English or related languages like Old Norse. Other units, which focus on grammar as a descriptive tool for understanding language, use or explore questions associated with the nature and function of the media.

(c) Units have been designed and programmed in ways which should assist students in devising a coherent program over their two senior years of English. Students are encouraged to become acquainted with a wide range of periods, authors, or subjects, in order to make informed choices about the particular areas or subjects they wish to pursue.

For further advice consult Dr Barry Spurr, the Director of Undergraduate Studies (Room N431; phone +61 2 9351 2689).

Special Entry and Advanced units of study

These have two purposes:

- to provide work at an advanced standard for students who have shown the ability to undertake it;
- to prepare students for entry to English Honours.

Advanced units of study: ENGL3601 to ENGL3662

Advanced units of English offer students with a credit average in 12 senior credit points of English the opportunity to take on more challenging intellectual tasks. Each advanced unit is taught as a series of seminars and entails writing a major essay derived from independent research work. The advanced units cover topics in Medieval, Early Modern, Nineteenth Century, and Modern and Contemporary English, as well as topics in language and literary theory, and film. They are designed for all students majoring in English who do consistently well, for BA (Advanced) students, and for students qualifying for English Honours.

ENGL3961 and ENGL3962 are open to students with a credit average in 18 senior credit points of English. These units introduce intending Honours students to a range of skills and methodologies that the department considers essential preparation for honours work in English.

Qualifying for English Honours

In 2007, the prerequisite for English honours will be a credit average in 48 senior credit points of English, including: either (a) ENGL2901, ENGL2902, and ENGL3692, or (b) ENGL3691 and ENGL3692; AND (c) any two advanced units except ENGL3601.

These prerequisites are designed to emphasise the importance of Old and Middle English to English studies, and to foster a closer acquaintance with English language and literature before 1900.

English IV Honours

English honours candidates write a 15,000-word thesis and take five coursework options, three in the first semester and two in the second. For one of the first-semester options, candidates present a paper at the departmental honours conference.

The five options may be chosen not only from the English Honours options, but also, with some restrictions, from the Australian Literature Honours options and from Advanced units of English.

Summer School

The department will be offering the following undergraduate units of study as part of the 2007 University of Sydney Summer School:

ENGL1000 Academic Writing
ENGL2829 Victorian Literature

Further information about the University’s Summer School may be obtained by phoning +61 2 9351 5542.

European and Middle Eastern Studies

The European and Middle Eastern Studies program is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

Why do European and Middle Eastern Studies?

The European and Middle Eastern Studies program enables students with an interest in European and Middle Eastern society, politics, history and culture from the medieval to the modern period to pursue a program of study at senior level across a wide range of subject areas. Students are able to specialise in streams which include Medieval, Renaissance, Early Modern, Modern, and Contemporary Europe, and the Middle East or to choose from a broad range of units of study dealing with European and Middle Eastern society, politics, culture and history combining different streams. Students may undertake some units which examine the cultural and political background of modern Europe and the Middle East from the Department of Archaeology, Classics and Ancient History, and Studies in Religion. The European and Middle Eastern Studies Centre offers the possibility of majoring in European and Middle Eastern subjects.

The European and Middle Eastern Studies major consists of courses cross-listed with the following departments and programs:

- Arabic and Islamic Studies
- Archaeology
- Art History and Theory
- Classics and Ancient History
- English
- French Studies
- Germanic Studies
- Government and International Relations
- History
- International and Comparative Literary Studies
- Italian
- Jewish Civilisation, Thought and Culture
- Medieval Studies
- Modern Greek
- Music
- Philosophy
- Sociology and Social Policy
- Studies in Religion

Details of the specific units of study in these disciplines that are offered in 2007 are available from the Director of the European and Middle Eastern Studies program.

The entry requirements for European and Middle Eastern Studies is 48 junior credit points.

Students majoring in European and Middle Eastern Studies (a minimum of 36 senior credit points) enrol in at least ONE compulsory core unit of study in European and Middle Eastern Studies, worth 6 credit points. In 2007, the two core units of study are, in Semester 1: HSTY2659 Nationalism, and in Semester 2: HSTY2668 French Politics and Culture. Remaining units of study will be chosen from a designated list offered in the area of European and Middle Eastern Studies by participating departments. Students will also complete EITHER 12 credit points of a European language other than English at junior or senior intermediate level or 24 credit points of a European language other than English or a Middle Eastern language at Beginners, introductory and senior intermediate level. Languages that can be studied at the University of Sydney include Arabic, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Ancient Greek, Modern Greek, Latin, Yiddish and Spanish. Credit points that specifically involve the learning of a language are excluded from the number of credit points which make up the minimum for a major (36 senior credit points) in European and Middle Eastern Studies.

Students must complete units of study across at least two language/country areas over the period of their major. They should seek advice from the Director regarding the combination.

Although there are no junior European and Middle Eastern Studies units of study at present, students intending to major in European and Middle Eastern Studies are advised to include 12 junior credit points of European and Middle Eastern History and 12 junior credit points of an appropriate language in their program. European and Middle Eastern Studies students intending to take units of study offered by the department of Philosophy are strongly advised to have completed at least 6 junior credit points of Philosophy before enrolling in any senior Philosophy units of study.

Honours

European and Middle Eastern Studies honours (EUST4014) can be taken as part of a Combined honours degree. The prerequisites are a credit average in 36 senior credit points of European and Middle Eastern Studies units, plus either 12 advanced level credit points OR 24 introductory/intermediate level credit points of a Middle Eastern or non-English European language. Prerequisites and requirements can only be waived by the Faculty on the recommendation of the Director.

Summer School

Units of study offered as part of the University of Sydney Summer School may only be counted towards a major in European and Middle Eastern Studies. Students are advised to check the Summer School list and unit of study offerings.

Registration

Students register first with the European and Middle Eastern Studies Director and then, if necessary, with the department from which they are selecting a unit of study. This is in addition to their normal University enrolment in the unit of study. Full details can be obtained from the European and Middle Eastern Studies program in early 2007 or from the European and Middle Eastern Studies website on the Faculty of Arts homepage. Students are strongly advised to consult the European and Middle Eastern Studies Director for advice on coordinating a program of study.

Further information

Noticeboards and student advisers are located in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC) on level 5, phone +61 2 9351 2869, Fax +61 2 9351 3919 or email SLC@arts.usyd.edu.au

Enquiries should be directed to: The Director, Dr Andrea Williams in the department of French Studies.
Film Studies Honours

Film IV Studies honours candidates have obtained results or credit above in 48 senior credit points within the Film Studies Major, listed above. One of these units must include the compulsory core unit for the Film Studies major, which is ARHT2652 From Silent to Sound Cinema.

Film IV Studies honours has three components: two semester-length seminars (50 per cent) and a dissertation (50 per cent of the year mark). The seminars must be designated Film Studies units of study from the approved pool. The thesis is 15,000–20,000 words in length.

Intending Film IV Studies honours students are required to pre-enrol in October with the Faculty of Arts Office and make preliminary registration with the department in November of the preceding year. They should also have an approved dissertation topic by then.

NOTE: Not all units of study will be offered in any one year. These courses are based on weekly four-hour sessions (two-hour screenings and two-hour seminars). Students are required to submit written work totalling 8000–9000 words for each option.

If the above units of study are taken as a Film Studies major normal prerequisites may be waived. Additionally it is advisable to consult with the Film Studies major coordinator for advice on appropriate choice of junior units.

French Studies

The department of French Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

Units of study in the department of French Studies are concerned with French language, literature, culture and society, including the many Francophone cultures outside France. Units in the department are language based – of choice for students, who may be taking the subject as a major or who may be taking it as an adjunct to other studies.

The first year units stress practical language acquisition and the development of reading skills, as well as an introduction to French life and civilisation.

In later years, students are able to improve their language and cultural skills as well as specialising in one or more of four strands:

1. French linguistics
2. French literature and cinema
3. French society and culture
4. Francophone studies

The department will advise students who may have completed units that are no longer listed as to their equivalences in terms of the units shown in this handbook.

Language levels

The department offers two language streams: one for students who already have a knowledge of the language (Advanced French) and another for beginners (Introductory French in the first year; French in later years). In the first year only, a stream (Intermediate French) has been designed for students whose competence falls between these two levels.

Placement of students in the three first year levels is usually as follows:

- FRNC1611/FRNC1612: complete Beginners; or less than two years of French; or less than 65 per cent in Beginners HSC French
- FRNC1612/FRNC1622: less than 80 per cent in French Continuers; or more than 65 per cent in Beginners HSC French
- FRNC1631/FRNC1632: French Extension or more than 80 per cent in Continuers HSC French

Students who do not fall easily into one of the categories above, including advanced and native speakers of French should contact the coordinators of the relevant units so that their level can be assessed.

Program of units of study

The structure of the junior and senior program is outlined here. Detailed descriptions of units, including information on prerequisites and corequisites, will be found in chapter 6.

Units of study for students not specialising in French Studies

Students not specialising in French Studies can choose flexibly from the whole range of units offered by the department in practical language and/or content study, within the limits imposed by prerequisites and corequisites.

Introductory stream

For students intending to specialise in French Studies and who enter at Introductory level, a typical program of units (12 in first year, and 36 or more credit points in later years) would be as follows:

First Year
First Year
FRNC1611 and FRNC1612 Junior French 1 and 2.

Second Year
FRNC2611 and FRNC2612 Senior French 1 and 2
FRNC2614 and FRNC2615 French Reading 1 and 2.

Third Year
FRNC2621 and FRNC2622 Senior French 3 and 4.

Intermediate stream

For students intending to specialise in French Studies and who enter at Intermediate level, a typical program of units (12 credit points in first year, and 36 credit points in later years) would be as follows:
First Year
FRNC1621 and FRNC1622 Junior French 3 and 4.

Second and Third Year
Students in this stream will, generally, follow the pattern of the Introductory French stream in their choice of senior units.

Advanced stream
For students intending to specialise in French Studies and who enter at advanced level, a typical program of units (12 credit points in first year, and 36 or more credit points in later years) would be as follows:

First Year
FRNC1631 and FRNC1632 Junior French 5 and 6.

Second Year
FRNC3621 and FRNC3622 Senior French Language 5 and 6 together with 6 or more credit points from units listed below under Thematic Options.

Third Year
FRNC3631 Senior French 7 together with 12 or more credit points from units listed below under Thematic Options.

Fourth Year Honours
Full-time:
FRNC4011, FRNC4012, FRNC4013 and FRNC4014 (48 credit points).

Part-time:
FRNC4011, FRNC4012, FRNC4013, FRNC4014 (French IV Parts 1, 2, 3 and 4) (12 credit points each).

Details of entry to fourth year honours are given below.

Thematic options
The following groups of options are offered at senior level under four headings: Linguistics, Literature and Cinema, Society and Culture, and Francophone studies. They are not all offered in any one year. Note that some units have codes starting with “3” but are available to Advanced Stream students in their second year. Likewise units with codes starting with “2” can be taken by students in their second or third years.

Linguistics
FRNC2651 Introduction to Linguistics
FRNC3652 Textual Linguistics
FRNC3653 French Translation
FRNC3654 Deconstructing French Texts

Literature and Cinema
FRNC2681 French Narrative Cinema
FRNC2682 The Legend of the Holy Grail
FRNC2683 Communicative Structures in the Novel
FRNC3682 French Popular Culture
FRNC3683 Uses and Interpretation of Literature
FRNC3684 L'autobiographie et l'autportrait
FRNC3685 French Renaissance
FRNC3686 French Baroque and Classicism
FRNC3687 French Enlightenment
FRNC3689 French Romanticism

Society and Culture
FRNC2691 Revolution and Social Thought
FRNC2692 The Second French Revolution
FRNC3693 French Intellectual Movements Since 1945
FRNC3694 Sociology of Literature
FRNC3654 Deconstructing French Texts
FRNC3688 Franco-Australian Connections

Francophone studies
FRNC2671 Francophone Studies 1
FRNC3672 Francophone Studies 2

Special Entry units
FRNC2666 Research Methods in French Studies

Major in French Studies
The requirements for all majors in French should include 36 credit points to be taken from senior units of study:

- A major in French (Introductory Stream) should include FRNC2622 or equivalent.
- A major in French (Intermediate Stream) should include FRNC2622 or equivalent.
- A major in Advanced French should include FRNC3631 or equivalent.

Honours
All students may qualify for fourth year honours, regardless of the language level at which they commenced in the department.

The requirement for entry to fourth year honours is a credit average or better in the major (36 senior credit points) plus 12 senior credit points including FRNC3631 Senior French Language (or equivalent) and FRNC2666 Research Methods in French Studies.

Assessment
Assessment in the department is cumulative and based on class work, regular exercises, essays, tests and, in some cases, examinations.

Noticeboards
Noticeboards are located in the School of Languages and Cultures, Level 5 and level 7 MacCallum/Brennan Building A18, and the departmental website.

Textbooks and duplicated material
Booklists are subject to revision, and students should check with the department before purchases are made.

Student applications
Applications for exemption from departmental rules will be referred to the department's Committee for Undergraduate Studies. Applications for credit and advanced standing must, however, in the first instance be submitted to the Faculty.

Overlapping of units
Students may not take any two units which overlap substantially in content. The department will advise students who may have completed units no longer listed as to their equivalents in terms of the current units.

Gender Studies
The Gender Studies program is offered by the department of Gender and Cultural Studies, within the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). The interdisciplinary Gender Studies major enables students to undertake a broad study of sex and gender in contemporary and past cultures. Some of the areas that are studied include: bodies, sexualities and identities; masculinity; the intersection of gender, ethnicity and class; theories of love and friendship; constructions and representations of violence; feminism and globalisation; and theories of gender.

Gender Studies allows students to explore how sex and gender are understood and lived in their own and other cultures, providing students with the tools to analyse a wide range of issues. The department is committed to equipping students with research and writing skills that will assist in opening up a range of career prospects. The study of gender also profoundly enriches studies in the humanities and social sciences and provides an important complement to degrees specialising in law or legal studies, the sciences, the arts, government and policy-making, and international relations.

Gender Studies is available at second and third year and at fourth year honours level. A major in Gender Studies requires passes in units totaling at least 36 senior credit points (chosen from Gender Studies units and units cross-listed fro the major). These must include:
• GCST2602 From Suffragettes to Cyborgs

Units of study in German language
The department distinguishes three broad levels of study in its language units. In all cases, students will be directed by the department as to the appropriate language unit for them to enrol in (advice to commencing students as to the unit they should initially enrol in can be found in the section Junior units of study.)

The department’s language courses are aligned with both the European and International reference framework. Students of each level will reach the equivalent of one of the internationally recognised German certificates, the Zertifikat Deutsch, the Zentrale Mittelstufenprüfung or the Zentrale Oberstufenprüfung.

Units of study in German literature and culture
At senior level these units normally require prior completion of 12 credit points of German at junior level, in order to ensure that students have a sufficient command of the language. Students lacking the formal prerequisite who nevertheless believe their knowledge of German is sufficient are invited to discuss the matter with the department, when the prerequisite may be waived. Some of these senior units of study may be counted for a major in European Studies or International Comparative Literature Studies and Film Studies, and in some cases in other interdisciplinary areas of study.

The major in German
The major in German comprises both the German language and the culture for which that language is the medium. To obtain a major in German, students must complete senior units of study in German in the value of 36 senior credit points.

1. For students coming from Junior German 3 and 4 (Junior Intermediate German 1 and 2) and from Junior German 5 and 6 (Junior Advanced German 1 and 2): the department advises that of the 36 senior credit points required for the major, 18 credit points must be gained in language units of study and 18 must be gained in non-language units of study.

2. For students coming from Junior German 1 and 2 (Junior Introductory German 1 and 2): the department advises that of the 36 credit points required for the major, 24 credit points must be gained in language units of study. Such students must also include “Reading Comprehension and Text study” (GRMN2631) as part of their non-language units of study.

In all the department’s junior units of study, the language content and the cultural content are combined. Junior students will enrol initially in semester 1 in a 6 credit point unit of study at their appropriate level.

All students with very little or no experience of the language should enrol in Junior German 1 (GRMN1111). For students who enter Germanic Studies at this level and wish to continue with their German language studies, the normal progression would be: GRMN1111, GRMN1122, GRMN2611 (GRMN2211), GRMN2612 (GRMN2222), GRMN2613 (GRMN2311), GRMN2614 (GRMN2322).

Students who completed the HSC German Beginners Course or German Continuers (with a mark below 70 per cent or equivalent) should initially enrol in Junior German 3 (GRMN1211). For students who enter Germanic Studies at this level and wish to continue with their German language studies, the normal progression would be: GRMN1211, GRMN1222, GRMN2613 (GRMN2311), GRMN2614 (GRMN2322), GRMN2615 (GRMN2331).

Students who completed the HSC German Extension Course or the HSC German Continuers Course (with a mark above 70 per cent or equivalent) should initially enrol in the unit of study Junior German 5 (GRMN1311). For students who enter Germanic Studies at this level and wish to continue with their German language studies, the normal progression would be: GRMN1311, GRMN1322, GRMN2616 (GRMN2342), GRMN2617 (GRMN2351), GRMN2618 (GRMN2362).
Students progressing into senior levels of language study are advised to pre-enrol according to the above progressions; however some variation of enrolment may be required at the commencement of the next semester of study should the department, at its discretion, deem it appropriate. In all cases the department reserves the right to determine the level of senior German language to be taken by a student.

Students who have successfully completed GRMN2614, GRMN2616 or 2618 may sit for the additional examinations and thus obtain an internationally recognised certificate of German language proficiency (See units of study in German language above).

Honours
All students may qualify for the honours year, regardless of the language level at which they commenced in the department. (For a formal statement of the entry requirements for German IV honours the Table of units of study should be consulted.) Students must complete a major in German with a credit average in 48 senior credit points of German including 12 credit points at 2680 level.

Information
General enquiries about the department or its units of study may be made at the office of the School of Languages and Cultures, located in the MacCallum/Brennan Building A18.

Global Studies
The Global Studies program is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). The SOPHI Enquiry counter is located on Level 3, Quadrangle. Telephone +61 2 9351 2862.

Further information and advice
The Director of the Bachelor of Global Studies is Dr Danielle Celermajer, Room 169 RC Mills Building, A26, ph: +61 2 9351 7641, email: Danielle.Celermajer@arts.usyd.edu.au

In the contemporary transnational context, graduates are increasingly recognising the value of "global competencies" for participating in the public sphere, and operating effectively in industry, the corporate world and a range of professions. The Arts Faculty has designed this new degree in recognition of the increasing importance of global perspectives in the humanities and in the career paths of our graduates. The program comprises a three year inter-disciplinary core program which takes students through the various dimensions of global change, including issues such as the social and cultural impact of globalisation, human rights and the global public sphere, migration and refugees. The degree structure combines this broad analysis of global dynamics with a concentration in a specific region and one language (both chosen by the student), a semester overseas (partially funded) and personal mentoring. This unique combination will equip graduates with: the ability to relate knowledge about a particular part of the world with larger trends affecting all societies; the regional expertise and linguistic competence to work in a range of organisations with an international scope, and; the capacity to communicate effectively across cultural and linguistic boundaries.

The requirements for the Bachelor of Global Studies are:

1. A Global Studies major comprising:
   - GBST1001 Global Studies: Themes and approaches
   - ANTH1002 Globalisation and Experience
   - GBST2601 Global Studies: Society, Culture, Nation – to be offered in 2008
   - GBST2602 Human Rights and the Global Public Sphere – to be offered in 2008
   - GBST2603 Methodologies for a Transcultural World – to be offered in 2008

   Another 18 credit points from:
   - GBST2801-8 Global Studies Exchange
   - ANTH2625 Culture and Development
   - ANTH2626 The City: Global Flows and Local Forms
   - ANTH2628 Migration and Migrant Culture
   - ARHT2671 Orientalism and Visual Culture
   - ARIN2500 Technocultures
   - ARIS2673 Islam and Muslims in World History
   - ARIS2674 Islam and Politics: Traditions and Modernity
   - ASNS2660 Islam, Trade and Society – Arabia to SE Asia
   - GRMN2682 Foreign & Exotic in the German World
   - HSTY3204 Imperialism, 1815 – 2000
   - HSTY3622 Cosmopolitanism to Transnationalism

2. An Area Studies major (36 Senior credit points) in one of: Asian Studies, Australian Studies, American Studies, Arab World, Islam and the Middle East Studies or European Studies.

American Studies major prerequisite for senior AMST unit to be available in 2008 is – 18 junior credit points from History, and/or English and/or Art History and Theory.

3. 24 credit points in a language other than English.

Honours in Global Studies
Students intending to proceed to Global Studies IV (honours) must meet the requirement for the Pass degree with a credit average across all their senior Global Studies units.

Basic Requirements
Global Studies IV students are required to write a thesis and undertake two units of study run in the first semester. The thesis will be worth 60 per cent of the final grade, the two units of study are worth 20 per cent each of the final grade. Students will also attend a Research Seminar in Semester 2.

The thesis is written under the individual supervision of a member of staff. Students and their supervisors see each other regularly and work together to ensure that deadlines for progress and submission are met. Theses are to be between 15 000 and 20 000 words in length.

Thesis Topic and Supervision
Students intending to enrol in Global Studies IV are encouraged to make an appointment to see the Director late in their third year to discuss their thesis and supervision. In order to choose a thesis topic you should form some idea of the field that you wish to research. You should then discuss these ideas with staff members whose research interests coincide with your chosen area, as advised by the Global Studies Director.

Greek (Modern) Studies
See Modern Greek

Hebrew (Classical)
Hebrew (Classical) is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

Classical Hebrew is best known as being the language of the Old Testament/Tanakh of the Bible. However, it is also well known as the language of the majority of the Dead Sea Scrolls, as well as other ancient sources such as inscriptions unearthed by archaeologists.

Students entering the department with HSC Hebrew should consult the department in regard to placement at the appropriate level. The “B” (beginners) stream of Hebrew courses is designed to introduce those students with no background (or little) to the language.

Classical Hebrew may be studied up to a fourth honours year. Students taking both the Classical and Modern strands of Hebrew may not count more than 60 senior credit points of Hebrew for the degree.

Cross listing (units of study from other subject areas)
Classical Hebrew students may take the following Ancient History senior units of study towards a major in Hebrew. For details see the Ancient History Handbook entry. The prerequisite for Classical Hebrew students is HBRW2661 and HBRW2662:

- ANHS3625 Amarna Age I
- ANHS3626 Amarna Age II

Hebrew (Modern)
Hebrew (Modern) is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

Hebrew is one of the oldest languages in the world. In the modern period it has been reborn and its evolution is inextricably bound up in Zionism and the development of the modern State of Israel. The units of study offered will focus on the Hebrew language as it is spoken in Israel, as well as issues of contemporary Israeli society and culture. These will be dealt with through a communicative approach to language learning together with exposure to a variety of texts such as newspaper articles, essays, short stories, poems and other literary texts.

The Modern Hebrew program offers several entry points depending on students’ proficiency in using the language. Therefore, it is imperative that on enrolment all prospective students contact the coordinator to arrange for a placement test.

Entry points
Students who have little or no previous knowledge and practice of the language are placed in Hebrew Modern B1 (HBRW1011). This unit of study begins by learning the Hebrew alphabet as well as basic vocabulary. As the learning advances it fosters the development of oral communication skills relating to everyday topics and situations. It is expected that as the learning progresses students will increase and improve their proficiency and performance in everyday Hebrew conversation. As well, students will be able to comprehend and discuss a variety of text types in modified Hebrew.

Students who enter the program with good knowledge of modern Hebrew will follow an intensive language-learning program, which aims to enhance both their communicative and literacy proficiencies. Students will be introduced to contemporary texts, which reflect social and cultural issues of Israeli society covering the period from the 19th century to the present time.

Cross listing (units of study from other subject areas)
All students have the opportunity of taking a major in this subject, and to progress to the honours year and postgraduate work. Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Heritage Studies
Heritage Studies is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

The Heritage Studies major facilitates an interdisciplinary approach to a field which is of special interest to students in many disciplines, including architecture, history, environmental science, museum studies, archaeology and anthropology. This major will prepare students for employment in a range of heritage related industries and government organisations. It also acts as a feeder into postgraduate coursework programs in Museum Studies and History. No knowledge of Heritage Studies is assumed. The program examines the historical, theoretical and political issues associated with the interpretation of historic sites and environments and involves an overview of the history and role of museums as they relate to the collection and display of cultural heritage. Heritage Studies is part of the Heritage and Museum Studies program which also offers the country’s leading postgraduate courses in Museum Studies for students interested in a career in a museum or art gallery.

The Heritage Studies major consists of 36 Senior credit points including HRTG2601 and at least 12 other credit points of Heritage Studies. The remaining credit points may be made up from the approved cross-listed units. Contact Dr Annie Clarke for further details or check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website: Web site.

In 2007 the following units of study may be cross-listed by students undertaking a major in Heritage Studies:

- ANTH2604 Australia-Pacific: Indigenous Worlds
- ANTH2605 Aboriginal Australia: Cultural Journeys
- ANTH2625 Anthropology of Development
- ANTH3613 Reading Aboriginal Ethnographies
- ARPH2605 Archaeology of Modern Times
- ARPH2606 Australian Archaeology
- ARPH3693 Archaeological Practice
- HSTY2614 Australian Social History: 1919-1998
- HSTY2655 Race Relations and Australian Frontiers
- HSTY2691 Writing History
- HSTY3601 Issues in Travel and Tourism

History
The department of History is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

History is a rigorous discipline aiming to understand past human cultures. In doing so it is excellent training in how to think, analyse, research, write and communicate – what employers now call generic, general and transferable skills – vital to a modern ever changing world. Students learn to work as individuals and in groups, to communicate effectively using all verbal and written forms (including the latest technology), to analyse problems and present answers. History furnishes students with a liberal education and provides them with a sense of the past, an appreciation of context, continuity and tradition, an understanding of the processes of change, and a perspective on present culture.

Graduates of this department have found satisfying careers in such fields as advertising, public relations, museums, arts administration, the law, politics, research, media and journalism, as well as more traditional fields such as academia, teaching and public administration.

The department of History at The University of Sydney is the oldest and one of the largest History departments in Australia, and offers a wide range of historical subjects and areas. It has the largest History Honours program and Postgraduate Research program in New South Wales, and one of the largest in Australia. It affords all students great opportunities to further their historical studies.

The History junior units of study emphasise approaches to history, overview and generalisation. The senior units of study allow students to focus on particular problems, periods and countries.

Those seeking further training in historical research and method can undertake honours entry units. These units are open to all students with a credit or above grade in junior History and are compulsory for all intending fourth-year honours students. Intending honours students must enrol in HSTY2691 Writing History, normally in second semester or their second year. In the History fourth-year honours, students undertake supervised research and seminars designed to further develop skills in the theory and practice of history. Students will also write a major thesis based on original research.

Departmental handbook

All History students should obtain a copy of the departmental handbook, available free of charge from the SOPHI Enquiry Office, level 3, Quadrangle A14.

Reading in foreign languages

Reading in foreign languages is a valuable asset in many history units of study. Students should note that the Faculty of Arts has beginners’ units of study in many languages. Some History honours thesis topics may require reading knowledge in a particular language.

Enquiry office

The SOPHI Enquiry office is on Level 3, Quadrangle A14, phone +61 2 9351 2862, fax +61 2 9351 3918, email sophi.enquiries@arts.usyd.edu.au or consult the website.

Undergraduate course structure

Units of study are counted towards the degree in credit points. The credit point values and entry requirements can be found in the table of units of study.

History junior level: junior units of study are introductions to the study of history.

History senior level: senior units of study generally examine particular problems, periods and countries. The honours entry unit of study (HSTY2691) provides students intending to proceed to History honours with higher level work in historical theory and practice.

To major in History, a minimum of 36 credit points at senior level must be completed, including one 3000 level unit of study. History honours entry units of study are open to all history students who qualify even if they do not plan to proceed to History honours.

Check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Indian Subcontinental Studies

The department of Indian Subcontinental Studies is in the School of Languages and Culture (SLC).

Central to the Indian Studies program is the study of Sanskrit language, the most important classical language of India. The combined study of Hindi and Urdu is also offered. Hindi and Urdu are essentially the one language written in different scripts. They are the most widely spoken and official languages of India and Pakistan respectively. Introductory units in Pali language, an important canonical language for Buddhism, are also taught. An honours program is available in Sanskrit, which will equip students with the necessary linguistic and methodological skills to carry out higher level research in the language. Courses are offered in Indian philosophy, religion, history and culture through other schools and departments.

Students who wish to major in:

Sanskrit

36 senior credit points in Sanskrit

Hindi and Urdu

HIUR2601 and 2602

HIUR3601 and 3602

Two 6 credit point units of study chosen from:

- Applied Hindi (Summer School at ANU);
- Any Sanskrit senior unit;
- ARBC2613 Arabic Language and Literature 3 or;
- ARBC2614 Arabic Language and Literature 4;

ASNS2620 Classical Indian Philosophy;

RLST2604 Medieval and Modern Hinduism;

ARIS2673 Islam and Muslims in World History;

ARIS2674 Islam in Politics: Modernity and Challenges;

ARIS2675 Society and Politics in the Middle East;

ARIS2676 Issues and Debates in Arab Culture

Honours

Sanskrit honours entry will require 8 senior units of study: a major at credit average and two additional units chosen from:

- ASNS2620 Classical Indian Philosophy, ASNS2621 Buddhist Philosophy, ASNS2622 Buddhist Scriptures, RLST2603 Classical Hinduism, RLST2604 Medieval and Modern Hinduism, and any senior units of Hindi/Urdu, or equivalent as determined by the department.

Honours is not available in Hindi and Urdu.

Indonesian Studies

The department of Indonesian Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The Indonesian Studies program is designed to provide students with the communication skills to use Indonesian in a variety of social settings. It also introduces intermediate and advanced students to the study of Indonesian culture, politics and society, through the use of Indonesian-language source material.

Indonesian Studies caters for students with a range of language backgrounds, including beginners, school leavers, and background speakers of Indonesian. Many students of Indonesian combine their study of the language with a separate major sequence in Asian Studies, where in addition to studying Asian societies in comparative perspective, they are able to specialise in the study of Indonesia and its people through studies in English. Indonesian is also a valuable addition to vocational degrees like law and business.

Students who have a minimum of 12 junior credit points in Indonesian or an equivalent mastery of Indonesian can enrol in senior units of study at the 2000 level. School leavers may enrol in 2000 (or 3000 level units with departmental approval). Background speakers and students with an advanced language level may enrol in Advanced Studies units.

Major in Indonesian Studies

A major in Indonesian Studies consists of senior units of study totaling 36 credit points. A major may consist entirely of Indonesian Studies units or combine language study with some of the following units about Indonesia and Southeast Asia taught in English through the Asian Studies program:

- ASNS2660 Islam, Trade and Society: Arabia to Southeast Asia
- ASNS2661 History of Modern Indonesia
- ASNS2662 Southeast Asian Dictators and Democracies
- ASNS2663 Social Activism in Southeast Asia
- ASNS3690 Approaches to Research in Asian Studies

Note that in order to acquire a major in Indonesian, at least 24 of your senior credit points must be selected from "language core" units.

The major also includes a range of options for in-country study. Students have access to a range of options for in-country studies, from summer intensive programs at an Indonesian university to full semester or year long programs offered through the Australian Consortium for In-Country Indonesian Studies (ACICIS).

Honours

Students with good records of academic achievement in their pass degrees are encouraged to consider a fourth (honours) year in Indonesian Studies. Most honours students will have completed ASNS2661 History of Modern Indonesia and ASNS3690 Approaches to Research in Asian Studies. Completion of each of these units with a result of credit or above, along with a major in Indonesian Studies also with a credit or above average, is the normal requirement for entry into the honours program. These units may constitute part of a major in Asian Studies or the Indonesian Studies major.

The honours program in Indonesian Studies is comprised of 50 per cent coursework and 50 per cent research thesis. Coursework consists of a research seminar conducted in Indonesian and a unit of study appropriate to students’ research topics. The honours thesis in Indonesian Studies is an original piece of research and writing on an Indonesia-related topic using English and Indonesian language sources. It may also involve fieldwork in Indonesia. The thesis is 20,000 words long and is written in English.

Intending students are advised to check the Indonesian studies website http://arts.usyd.edu.au/departs/indonesian/index.html for further details or contact the Chair of department, Dr Michele Ford, by email on michele.ford@arts.usyd.edu.au or by phone +61 2 9351 7797.

International and Comparative Literary Studies (ICLS)

ICLS investigates cultural and literary phenomena across different cultures. In a globalised and highly mobile world characterised by cultural diversity, international, cross-cultural and interdisciplinary education is a vital requirement for those wishing to become active participants in the life of the future community. A literary education in particular provides important cultural insights, as literature both reflects and shapes a society’s cultural and intellectual life. The ability to understand and appreciate different literatures and cultures; and also to move across linguistic and cultural boundaries is a major asset to individuals and is already recognised by employers as a vital skill.

ICLS enables students interested in interdisciplinary, cross-cultural and literary studies to undertake a program of study at senior level that provides a strong theoretical foundation as well as specific education in a variety of literary and cultural movements, genres and periods. The major in ICLS integrates well with units of study in the School of Letters, Art, and Media, the School of Languages and Cultures, in European Studies, as well as in other fields of study concerned with the process of internationalisation and cross-literary and cultural issues.

The entry requirement for ICLS units of study is 18 credit points at junior level from any department in the Faculty of Arts from Part A, of which 12 credit points are from one subject area. Although study of a language other than English is encouraged in conjunction with ICLS units of study, there are no language prerequisites as all units of study are conducted in English and use texts in English. No prior study of comparative literary studies is required for entry into ICLS units of study as all units provide a foundational theoretical module as part of their syllabus.

Units of study in ICLS rotate yearly with three units of 6 credit points each offered in each year of enrolment (consult the SLC office for details of all units of study offered within ICLS or visit the ICLS Web page). All units in ICLS are team-taught by three or four academics from different departments.

Students, who wish to major in ICLS, must complete 36 senior credit points, consisting of:

- At least 24 senior credit points from ICLS units of study (i.e. four units over two years); and
- 12 senior credit points from the relevant cross-listed units of study (consult the director of ICLS for advice).

All ICLS units of study are cross-listed with English and European Studies and count towards a major for either English or European Studies. Students therefore do not necessarily have to major in ICLS to enrol in ICLS units of study.

A note for continuing students wishing to major in ICLS

Students who have completed two ICLS units of study in 2006 and wish to major in ICLS in 2007 will have to enrol in the three units of study offered in 2007 (ICLS2633: Cities of the World, ICLS2634: Literature and Revolution, and ICLS2635: Science Fiction: The Future is Now); and also in one of the cross-listed units of study listed above.

Italian Studies

The department of Italian Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The Italian Studies program is designed to develop the four macro language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing) in the target language, standard Italian, along with the analytical and critical skills necessary to pursue studies in all areas in which the department has special competence. These encompass Italian literary history and criticism, philology, literary culture of the 14th to 16th centuries (Middle Ages and the Renaissance), literary culture of the 19th century, and 20th century literature and society in a European context; Italian medieval and Renaissance theatre, the Commedia dell’Arte, and performance studies; Italian language studies, sociolinguistics, language acquisition, and language teaching methodologies.

School office

Italian Studies is part of the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC). The SLC office is located on level 5 of the MacCallum/Brennan Building Building A18. Administrative enquiries should be directed to SLC by phone +61 2 9351 2869; fax +61 2 9351 2319; email: slc@arts.usyd.edu.au.

Staff offices

Staff offices are located on level 7 of the MacCallum/Brennan Building A18.

Department noticeboards

Information on Undergraduate units of study is displayed on a designated noticeboard at the SLC office. There is also an Italian Studies noticeboard on level 7 of the MacCallum/Brennan Building. Other information will be emailed directly to students via WebCT.

Italian Studies Web page

A comprehensive overview of the department and its activities can be accessed through the Web page. The department maintains the web page in preference to preparing a student information booklet.

Timetable

As early as possible each semester, a timetable will be posted on the department’s Web page. Parts of the timetable and courses offered may change in the period between the first posting and the first week of semester, in response to the availability of funds, changes in student numbers or for any other reason. All classes in the department meet in the first week of semester.

Student registration in the department

In addition to Faculty enrolment, students must register with the department in the first class of each Italian unit of study.

Junior units of study

Native speakers of Italian and other students with advanced knowledge of Italian language and culture are required to identify themselves to the Chair of Department before registration. It may be appropriate for such students to seek advanced standing and enter senior level units of study in Italian, but only after they have completed at least 18 junior credit points in one or more other subject areas.

Senior units of study

Students who have a minimum of 12 junior credit points in Italian may enrol in any Italian language prerequisites or senior units of study, 2000 or 3000 level, for which they have the assumed knowledge. Students may take up to 60 senior credit points in Italian.
Major in Italian Studies

A major in Italian Studies consists of senior units of study totalling 36 credit points. These 36 senior credit points normally include: either (a) 18 credit points of senior language acquisition units and 18 credit points of non-language units for students who entered junior levels at ITLN1611 (Introductory Italian 1); or (b) 12 credit points of Senior language acquisition units and 24 credit points of non-language units for students who entered junior level at ITLN1632 (Advanced Italian 2). Students with very advanced Italian language competence, as established by the department, must choose their units in consultation with the Chair of Department.

Cross-listed units of study

Students may take up to 12 credit points of cross-listed units from History, Art History, Linguistics and International and Comparative Literary Studies to count towards a major in Italian Studies. In practice, however, students are advised to develop their language skills through ITLN code units of study.

Honours in Italian Studies (Italian IV Honours)

To be eligible to enter Italian IV honours students must have qualified for award of the pass degree with a major in Italian Studies (36 senior credit points). In addition, they will have completed ITLN3691 and ITLN3692 or equivalent units as approved by the department. Intending honours students should attain a credit average result in senior Italian units taken as part of their major.

Attendance requirements

The Faculty of Arts requires students to attend lectures, tutorials and seminars, to participate in class discussion, and to complete satisfactorily all written work and examinations as prescribed. The Faculty requires satisfactory attendance. The Department of Italian Studies considers as "satisfactory" attendance at a minimum of 80 per cent per semester for tutorials/seminars. Students who attend between 50 per cent and 80 per cent of tutorials/seminars without furnishing written evidence of illness or misadventure will be liable to penalty. Students who attend less than 50 per cent will be deemed not to have fulfilled the requirements, and not to be eligible for assessment. The University does not recognise employment or timetable clashes as excusing unsatisfactory attendance. Students are advised that they should not enrol for a unit of study if they cannot meet its attendance requirement.

Availability of units of study

This handbook is a guide to the Faculty of Arts and the undergraduate studies offered by the Faculty. However, the information set out in it is an expression of intent only and should not be taken as a firm offer or undertaking.

The Faculty reserves the right to make alterations to any information contained within the publication without notice.

Japanese Studies

The department of Japanese Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The department of Japanese Studies aims for graduates to achieve an understanding of Japan through the medium of the Japanese language and to acquire the intellectual skills needed to communicate that understanding in a critical way.

In the process of achieving these goals, students completing the undergraduate degree course will acquire:

- communication skills in speaking, listening to and writing Japanese;
- a solid foundation in reading Japanese;
- familiarity with Japanese socio-cultural patterns;
- the ability to access relevant materials for continuing independent learning; and
- skills identified by this University as desirable generic attributes of its graduates.

Structure of the Japanese Studies Program

Units of study in Japanese Studies are categorised as Japanese language units of study or specialist Japanese studies units of study. Japanese language units of study aim at developing skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening, while Japanese studies units of study require development of a higher level of reading and writing skills, socio-cultural knowledge and generic skills, such as critical, analytical thinking, independent learning, essay writing, and cooperative group skills.

Language units of study are arranged in ten levels. Students may enter at any level depending on their proficiency level, which is determined by the department. Most students will enter at 1, 3, or 5:

- Japanese 1: Students with no assumed knowledge
- Japanese 3: 65 per cent or higher in HSC Japanese Beginners or less than 70 per cent HSC Japanese Continuers or equivalent with departmental permission
- Japanese 5: HSC Japanese Extension or more than 70 per cent in HSC Japanese Continuers or equivalent with departmental permission

Students who do not meet the standard entry criteria must consult with the department. Native and near-native speakers of Japanese are not permitted to take language units of study, but it may be possible for them to complete a major in Japanese Studies – see below.

Studies units of study appropriate for the various Japanese language levels are:

1. Japanese 3 – 4: JPNS2660
2. Japanese 5 – 6: JPNS2670 series

Major in Japanese Studies

Students who wish to major in Japanese Studies must take at least 36 senior credit points from a combination of language and studies components. A minimum of 24 credit points must be taken from language components and a minimum of 12 credit points must be taken from studies components at the appropriate Japanese language levels.

Native speakers and near-native speakers

Native speakers and near-native speakers of Japanese must obtain permission to enrol from the department.

Native speakers and near-native speakers of Japanese will not be permitted to take language units of study. Provided they have completed at least 36 junior credit points in other subject areas, in their senior years they may complete a major in Japanese Studies by taking three Japanese Studies units in the JPNS3670 series and three Japan-related Asian Studies units.

Honours

In order to qualify for entry into the Honours IV program, students must have completed the requirements for a BA degree. In addition, they must have achieved a credit average or better in the major plus 12 additional senior credit points. The 12 additional senior credit points must include ASNS3690 Approaches to Research in Asian Studies. They may include one 6-credit point Japan-related Asian Studies unit of study.

Honours IV students are required to complete all four components: JPNS4011, JPNS4012, JPNS4013, JPNS4014. These components comprise coursework from a pool of postgraduate offerings plus a thesis. Coursework and thesis components are each weighted at 50 per cent of the final result. Students will complete coursework in three of the following areas depending on staff availability:

2. Japanese thought: Discussion of the thought modes, value systems and behaviour patterns that run throughout the course of Japanese history.
3. Japanese history: Focus on conceptual and methodological issues in modern Japanese history, with emphasis on historiography, examining both Japanese and Western historical writings.

Jewish Civilisation, Thought and Culture

Jewish Civilisation, Thought and Culture is located in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

A fascinating study of two millennia of Jewish Civilisation. Students will explore the development of the Jewish people from the time of Alexander the Great, experiencing their history, philosophy, literature and ethics. The course focuses on the historical evolution of Judaism, and how Jewish identity has been moulded by key Jewish thinkers and the Jewish historical experience. It traces this experience over five continents – Asia, Africa, Europe, the Americas and Australia, looking at communities as far flung as the Jews in Kaifeng in China, Spanish Jewry and the history of Jews in Australia. The first year JCTC options can also lead to options in Modern Middle East and the Arab-Israeli conflict offered through the discipline of Government and International Relations (in the Faculty of Economics and Business) and the Department of History, Faculty of Arts.

For a major, students must complete 36 senior credit points, consisting of JCTC2603, 2604, 2605, 2606, 2607 and one cross-listed unit of study, either HSTY2607 or GOVT2702. This is highly recommended to students with an interest in history, government or religion. Students can undertake specific individual units of study of interest to them within the four year program. The Coordinator for this course is Associate Professor Suzanne Rutland, Department of Hebrew, Biblical and Jewish Studies, Room 618 MacCallum/Brennan Building A18, phone +61 2 9351 6662, fax +61 2 9351 2319, email suzanne.rutland@arts.usyd.edu.au.

Korean Studies

The Korean Studies program is located in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The Korean Studies program provides a broad foundation in Korea-related fields, encompassing not only ‘language’ units but also a range of ‘studies’ units such as Korean history, linguistics, culture and society, translation and interpretation, and media and communication.

Major in Korean Studies

Students who wish to major in Korean Studies must complete at least 36 senior credit points from a combination of language and studies units in Korean Studies (Course code KRNS) and/or the following Korean-related Asian Studies (ASNS) units:

- ASNS2640 Mass Media in Korea
- ASNS2641 Traditional Korea
- ASNS2642 Modern Korea
- ASNS2670 Mass Media in East Asia

In addition to the language units, the following studies units will be offered in Korean Studies. Notice that not all units of study are offered in an academic year:

- KRNS2671 Translation and Interpretation
- KRNS2672 Issues in Korean Language
- KRNS2673 Korean Phonology
- KRNS2674 Korean Grammar
- KRNS2675 Contemporary Korean Society and Culture

Beginners:

Learners of Korean as a foreign language (hereafter KFL), who start with Korean 1 and Korean 2 (i.e. KRNS1621 and KRNS1622 respectively), must take a minimum of 24 credit points from senior language units and a minimum of 12 senior credit points from Korean studies units and/or the fore-mentioned Asian Studies units.

Heritage speakers:

Heritage speakers of Korean, who have Korean parents and have less than two years of formal education in Korea, may begin with Korean 9 and Korean 10 (i.e. KRNS1631 and KRNS1632 respectively), and must take 36 credit points from senior Korean studies units and/or fore-mentioned Asian Studies units.

Native or near-native speakers:

Native or near-native speakers of Korean, who have more than two years of formal education in Korea, are not permitted to take language units of study, but to major in Korean Studies they should take 36 credit points from senior Korean studies units and/or the fore-mentioned Asian Studies units.

Honours

Students who achieve results of credit or better in their first year Korean units are encouraged to pursue the BA Honours degree in Korean Studies. Students who would like to pursue the BA Honours degree in Korean Studies should consult with the course coordinator as early as possible. In order to enter the fourth year BA Honours (Honours IV) in Korean Studies, candidates should have taken additional 12 credit points from Korean studies units, including ASNS3690: Approaches to Research in Asian Studies.

Honours IV students are required to complete all four components KRNS4011, KRNS4012, KRNS4013, and KRNS4014, plus a thesis. These components comprise coursework from a pool of postgraduate offerings in the following areas:

- Korean language and linguistics: The major topics include Korean phonology, morphology, syntax, sociolinguistics, and language teaching and learning.
- Korean history and thought: Focused on conceptual and methodological issues in Korean history, religions, thought, or value systems, examining both Korean and Western literatures in the field(s).
- Korean media and communication: Cultural, social and political aspects of mass media and communication in Korea. The major topics include media/communication industry, production, content and media/communication policy in Korea.
- Thesis: Candidates are required to present a 15,000–20,000 word thesis on an approved topic.
Linguistics

Of all the skills that human beings possess, language is the most quintessentially human. The practices and institutions that we take for granted, such as law, religion and science, would not be possible if not for the communication of symbolic and abstract meanings that language makes easy. No other animal has anything even approximating human language, and this is no doubt the reason for the complete absence of such institutions even among our closest relatives, the great apes.

In spite of the fact that we all use language intensively each day and are constantly surrounded by its spoken and written forms, most of us are completely unaware of its true nature and structure. This is because it is so close for us, so much a part of our daily lives, that we use it unconsciously. It is a skill we take for granted like riding a pushbike or driving a car. But this easy, largely unconscious skill is very deceptive, for all human languages are highly complex systems for communication, with greatly elaborated structures and rules. Linguistics is the discipline that takes language as its particular object of study, to uncover its structures and rules and to understand how these are used in human acts of communication.

Linguistics studies the full range of aspects of human language. It investigates the phonetics, grammar and semantics of individual languages, but through this seeks to uncover the features common to all human languages, the ‘linguistic universals’. These are equivalent to the set of constraints on what is a possible human language, the so-called universal grammar. Various linguistic theories have been proposed which attempt to characterise this underlying structure of all languages; these theories are then used as a guide for the description of individual languages and revised accordingly. Languages, which seem on first view to be very different may turn out, on closer scrutiny, to share many important deeper similarities in terms of their overall structural patterning.

Linguistics occupies a privileged position in the field of the humanities and sciences in that it touches on many of the central issues that concern a number of disciplines. Because language is concerned with communication between humans, it is relevant for the social sciences like anthropology and sociology; but because it is the central instrument for thinking and other cognitive tasks, it is also important to psychologists. Problems of language also loom large in fields like philosophy and literary criticism. Finally linguistics has many practical applications in fields like language teaching, general education, and computer science.

Units of study

The Department of Linguistics offers units of study at junior, senior and IV honours level. The entry requirements for these are set out in the table of units of study for the BA.

Pass units of study

Junior units of study are a general introduction to the study of linguistics and provide the foundation for senior level units. However, they are designed as self-contained units and, therefore, may be useful for those not proceeding further with linguistics.

To major in linguistics, students must complete 36 senior credit points, including 12 from two of the following units of study: Semester 1 – LNGS2602, LNGS2603, Semester 2 – LNGS2601 and LNGS2604.

Students are free to choose from any offered units of study in Linguistics provided they meet the prerequisite requirements. However, students may choose to specialise in one of three distinct areas of linguistics by completing a recommended pattern of units of study.

Areas of specialisation

Theoretical Descriptive Studies: This area of specialisation will be useful to anyone with an interest in the structure of language and especially professionals whose work requires them to have a good insight to the way language is built and is used to express ideas. Students completing this major will be able to deal with phonological, grammatical or semantic data from any language and produce an explicit, systematic and theoretically informed description of them. Graduates will be fully trained in the techniques and analytical skills needed to produce such useful descriptions. In addition, they will have learned very valuable skills of argumentation in ways for weighing one possible description over alternatives. These skills are useful in many professions from computer programming and language teaching to bilingual education programs and publishing.

Social Discourse Analysis: This major offers a range of theoretically informed approaches to discourse analysis found nowhere else in the world. Students finishing this major will be able to recognise and use the methodological and theoretical tools most suited to their interests, and be able to produce systematically, theoretically informed, data-driven analyses. There is a strong applied component with the understanding that discourse is central to most, if not all, human endeavours. Those completing this major will not only be up to date on cutting-edge discourse theory, but also be able to use that knowledge in areas such as education and the law.

Psychology and Linguistics: The combined study of Psychology and Linguistics is a particularly exciting and vibrant field of research bringing two complimentary perspectives together on the study of language and cognition. The Linguistics major provides the vocabulary for talking about the ways in which language works; psycholinguistics is concerned with the processing of language in the brain. Work in cognitive psychology requires knowledge of linguistics and linguists need to understand cognitive processes and their neural underpinnings. Such a double major is particularly well suited for students interested in pursuing a graduate career in Cognitive Psychology, Linguistics, Communication, Cognitive Science, or Speech and Hearing Sciences.

Computation and Linguistics: This is a growing area of research and development with prospects for employment in modern language technology industries. It requires people trained both in linguistic analysis and in information technology. Staff and students from the Linguistics Department and the School of Information Technologies collaborate on projects. Students interested in this area of specialisation are asked to contact both the Linguistics department and the School of Information Technologies for information about which units to undertake for the development of a joint program of study in computation and linguistics. Students interested in either of these specialisations should contact the department for further information.

Linguistics IV Honours

To be eligible for Linguistics IV honours students must have obtained a Credit result average or better in 48 senior credit points (including LNGS3601 Semantics and Pragmatics and three of LNGS2601, LNGS2602, LNGS2603, LNGS2604).
Media and Communications

The Bachelor of Arts (Media and Communications) is an interdisciplinary degree offered at both pass and honours level. The media and communications component of the four-year pass degree offers students professional training in the main areas of media production and an advanced education in the history and theory of the field. Core units of study focus on digital media production and consumption, the structure of the media and communications industry, the media’s role in culture and politics, the regulation of the media and legal and ethical issues in the field. Students will explore these areas through a diverse array of disciplinary perspectives and relevant critical theories. They will develop professional skills in the fields of print, radio, video, online media and media relations. In the fourth year of their study, students will undertake an industry internship. The degree will equip students for entry into areas such as print, broadcast and online journalism, international communications, media regulation and public policy, media and public relations and corporate communications. The four-year structure of the Pass degree also qualifies students to apply to those programs in the United States which require a four year undergraduate degree.

The Bachelor of Arts (Media and Communications) requires the completion of 192 credit points over four years of full-time study. The degree consists of compulsory units of study in Media and Communications (78 credit points), a major in Part A and further units of study which may add up to a second major in either Part A or B. The compulsory units of study in Media and Communications include two junior units of study (12 credit points), a prescribed junior unit in the area of language and communication (6 credit points), eight senior units of study (48 credit points) and an Internship (12 credit points). The compulsory units may vary as determined by the department and the Faculty. A standard pathway through the Bachelor of Arts (Media and Communications) degree is four units of study per semester for eight semesters.

Media and Communications Compulsory Units 2007

- MECO1001 Australian Media Studies
- MECO1003 Principles of Media Writing
- ENGL1000 Academic Writing
- MECO2601 Radio Broadcasting
- MECO2603 Media Relations
- MECO3601 Video Production
- MECO3602 Online Media
- MECO3603 Media Law and Ethics
- MECO3605 Media Globalisation
- MECO3606 Advanced Media Writing
- MECO3609 Critical Practice in Media
- MECO3671 Media and Communications Internship
- MECO3672 Internship Project

An honours program is also available in Media and Communications. See the Table of units of study for entry requirements.

Medieval Studies

Medieval Studies is an interdisciplinary program of study administered by the Centre for Medieval Studies. The purpose is to enable students who have developed an interest in various aspects of medieval civilization to pursue a program of study which offers a wide range of subject areas and removes as many departmental prerequisite and corequisite barriers as possible. It is offered at senior level only and students are admitted if they have successfully completed a minimum of 18 junior credit points in any two subject areas from part A of the Table of units of study.

A major in Medieval Studies consists of at least 36 senior credit points (including MDST2601 and one other MDST unit of study, to the value of a total of 12 credit points) from the units of study Medieval Studies or from the cross-listed units of study. For admission to Medieval Studies IV Honours, students must have completed units of study to the value of at least 48 senior credit points from the units of study for Medieval Studies and from the cross-listed units of study (including MDST2601 one other MDST 6 credit point unit of study) and 12 credit points from List B of the cross-listed units of study. Students who have difficulty fulfilling this last requirement should consult the Coordinator at the earliest opportunity to discuss alternatives.

Students intending to undertake units of study to count towards a major in Medieval Studies are strongly advised to consult the Coordinator before enrolling. The maximum number of credit points in Medieval Studies which can be counted towards the BA is 60.

Junior level students prospectively interested in Medieval Studies should consult the Coordinator about their choice of junior units of study.

A wide range of units of study are available, both from the Centre for Medieval Studies and also from other departments. For students counting units of study in other departments towards a major in Medieval Studies, the prerequisites are those of Medieval Studies, not of the departments in which the units are offered except in obvious cases; for example, in a language department or in music, where an appropriate level of language or musical ability is necessary.

Medieval Studies units of study

- MDST2601 The Written Record of the Middle Ages
- MDST2608 The First Crusade
- MDST2610 Medieval Cosmology

Modern Greek

The department of Modern Greek is located in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

The department is centred around the Sir Nicholas Laurantus Chair of Modern Greek, which was endowed by the benefactor whose name it bears, supported by many other individuals and organisations, particularly from the Greek community of New South Wales.

Units of study in the department are mainly concerned with contemporary Greek language, history, literature and society in the last two centuries. Earlier periods (i.e. Byzantium), however, are not neglected, especially in senior units.

All students, whatever their previous contact with Greek, have the opportunity to take a major in the subject and to progress to the honours year and postgraduate work. The major may begin either at the basic level with MGRK1601, or at the post-HSC level with MGRK1621. For details of first-year placement and the major, see below.

MGRK2691 and MGRK3692 can be taken as additional senior units by students who meet the entry requirements. They are a prerequisite for the honours year. There is also a full range of postgraduate courses.

All students, including those who have Greek as their first language, should purchase dictionaries. The following are recommended:

- You will need an English-Greek dictionary and either a Greek-English dictionary (if your first language is English) or a Greek-Greek dictionary (if your first language is Greek). Not all published dictionaries are satisfactory. If you wish to purchase a dictionary not on the list above, it would be wise to check with the department first.
- A Greek Grammar in English is available from the department: it is highly recommended for purchase by all students.

First Year placement

All students enrolling in Modern Greek for the first time will be placed by the department in one of the following units of study:

- MGRK1601: A unit for students with little or no prior knowledge of Greek. Students who have HSC Modern Greek are placed in MGRK1601 only in exceptional circumstances.
- MGRK1621: for students who show proficiency in both spoken and written Greek, and who have taken HSC Continuers or Extension Modern Greek; in exceptional cases a student with good knowledge of the language but with no formal qualifications in the subject may be placed in MGRK1621.

Placement in these units of study and groups is made by the department on the basis of students’ HSC results and their general level of proficiency in the language. In borderline cases placement tests may be held at the beginning of the year. Arrangements for placement tests will be made at the time of departmental registration during the orientation period. The department reserves the right to take the final decision regarding the placement of students in appropriate units, and in the appropriate group within a unit.

Non-degree students

Subject to observance of final dates for application there should be places available in 2007 for students undertaking a degree, especially in Arts or Education, at another tertiary institution, if they wish to take units of study from this department and count them towards that degree. It is recommended that students inquire at the Arts Faculty Office as early as possible.
Other non-degree students, not enrolled in degree courses at tertiary institutions, should apply to the Arts Faculty Office for details of application procedures and fees payable.

Majoring in Modern Greek
To complete a major you must complete senior units of study in Modern Greek to the value of at least 36 credit points. Of these, no less than 18 should be in language units (i.e. MGRK2603, 2604, 3617 and 3610) and no less than 18 in non-language units. The 6 credit point Intermediate Modern Greek units (MGRK2601, 2602), for the purposes of the major, are counted as 6 credit points of language and 6 credit points of non-language study.

Prerequisites and corequisites
Prerequisites and corequisites have been drawn up to direct students' progress through the units in logical sequence, ensuring that they have the necessary knowledge and skills at each step. However they may cause questions in some cases: students who feel that the rules are excluding them from a unit are invited to put their case to the Chair of Department.

Lecture times
As some of our students are working full-time, or studying at another university, many teaching sessions are held in the late afternoon. For some classes, especially tutorials, there is a choice between an early and a late time.

Further information and advice
From the notice boards in the MaCallum/Brennan Building A18, or departmental brochures are available from the School of Languages and Cultures Office, MacCallum/Brennan Building A18. Go in person, or phone +61 2 9351 2869. The departmental website is: arts.usyd.edu.au/departs/moderngreek/. Registration
In addition to enrolling with the University, you should register with the department in the first class of every Modern Greek unit of study.

Multimedia and Educational Technologies in Arts (META) Centre
The Multimedia and Educational Technologies in Arts (META) Centre provides support to the Faculty of Arts in the innovative use of new technologies in its teaching and learning, research and student support activities. One major focus of the Centre is the learner and the development of flexible, learner-centred, technology-mediated learning environments in the Humanities and Social Sciences. The Centre's activities involve online educational development, including the management of an extensive library resource for language study and educational technology, video and audio production, web and multimedia development, video-conferencing, satellite television and the management of the Faculty's web presence and information and communication technology infrastructure. Access to the Arts computer labs and video-conferencing facility is free to all Arts students and the specialised resource for language study is open to all University of Sydney staff and students.

Music
The Arts Music Unit has a distinguished record of music scholarship, composition and teaching, and has produced many of Australia's leading music professionals. Its aim is to enrich Australia through a unique multi-cultural music education, broadly based in studies of society, culture and performance. The unit offers a wide range of units which are designed for both intending professional musicians, students with broad interests in the study of music in culture, and students who will pursue other careers. The unit has its own branch of Fisher Library and a Computer Music Laboratory on site in the Seymour Centre, and also presents an extensive range of public seminars and concerts on campus.

Music is offered as part of the Bachelor of Arts degree for up to six semesters of full-time study at pass level and eight semesters of full-time study at honours level. The music curriculum focuses on the study of both western and non-western music from musicological, compositional and performance perspectives.

The Arts Music Unit is now part of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music, but still located in the Seymour Centre on the main University campus.

BA Junior units of study
There are two entry levels (advanced and beginners) for first year music. MUSC1501 Concepts of Music (6 credits) is for students who have a minimum HSC Music 2 result of 67 per cent or equivalent. MUSC1503 and 1504 Fundamentals of Music I and II (6 credits each) are beginner entry courses. Students can also choose either MUSC1506 Music in Western Culture or MUSC 1507 Sounds, Screens, Speakers: Music and Media (6 credits each). 12 junior music credits permits access to a wide range of senior music units.

BA Senior units of study
Students wishing to take a major in Music must complete a minimum of 36 senior music credit points including MUSC2651 Australian and Asian Music, which has a prerequisite of 12 junior music credit points including either MUSC1501 or MUSC1504. Many senior music units do not require previous musical study and have no specific prerequisites. All students, whether they come to the Arts Music Unit as beginners, or with an HSC in Music, or even self trained in music, can take a major in Music and from there proceed to an Honours year, and/or postgraduate study in the subject.

Students are permitted to undertake Sydney Conservatorium of Music units of study which are approved by the Chair of the Arts Music Unit to count towards the Music major in the BA. Students may not exceed requirement limits.

Music Honours
Admission to Music honours is granted to students who have completed a major in Music (credit average) plus 12 special entry credit points as follows: MUSC3609 Musicology and either MUSC2631 Fieldwork, Ethnography and Transcription or MUSC3608 Musical Analysis.

Peace and Conflict Studies
Peace and Conflict Studies is an interdisciplinary program offered by the Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies (CPACS) in the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). It aims to provide students with an understanding of the causes of violence and war, and the means to achieving peace with justice. The Centre combines teaching and research with practice in the fields of conflict resolution and peacebuilding, human rights, nonviolence and social change.

CPACS currently offers one senior undergraduate unit “The History and Politics of War and Peace” jointly with History and an extensive postgraduate program including topics that may relate to students in history, philosophy, sociology, psychology, law, international relations, religion, gender, poetry, performance, tourism, journalism, the environment and development.
Performance Studies

Performance Studies at the University of Sydney draws upon a range of disciplines, including anthropology, history, philosophy, critical theory, semiotics, cultural studies, musicology, dance and movement studies to develop understandings of, and approaches to the study of, the broad spectrum of cultural performance.

This broad spectrum encompasses not only easily recognised western aesthetic genres of performance, such as theatre, dance, opera and various musical forms, but practices and performances from a range of cultures, including ritual and festivities, and a range of more familiar practices, including sport, legal practice, various forms of social action and everyday activities. Performance Studies challenges students to think "performatively": that is, to understand cultural practice as complex collaborative, negotiated and temporal undertakings, in which audiences and participants share the responsibility for the meaningfulness of the experience.

Much of the teaching and learning in the department involves versions of fieldwork and ethnographic practice. Although the department does not offer vocational or practical training, the backgrounds of the teaching staff in a variety of performance traditions also informs classes, which sometimes take the form of practical workshops. Note: there are no practical prerequisites for Performance Studies; nor are students assessed on their performance skills, even though they may be encouraged to engage, performatively, with some of the material in individual units of study.

Students intending to take fourth year honours in Performance Studies will observe and analyse performance projects undertaken in conjunction with the artist-in-residence scheme funded by the department. This will involve attendance at a number of workshops, rehearsals and performances as part of the Special Entry units of study undertaken in third year.

First Year Performance Studies

The Department of Performance Studies does not offer any junior units of study. Instead, students wishing to enrol in senior Performance Studies units need to complete at least 18 junior credit points in no more than two subject areas, including 12 junior credit points from Table A. This effectively means that we encourage all prospective Performance Studies students to complete two full semesters before embarking on PRFM2601 and other senior Performance Studies units.

There is no assumed knowledge, nor are there any prerequisites for entry into second year Performance Studies units, beyond the above.

Second Year Performance Studies

Coordinator: Dr Ian Maxwell (Semester 1); Dr Paul Dwyer (Semester 2)

The second year course in Performance Studies consists of PRFM2601 Being There: Theories of Performance, offered in Semester 1, and PRFM2602 An Audience Prepares in Semester 2. Completion of both these units is a prerequisite for PRFM3600 units. Together, these units establish the key ideas informing Performance Studies, including methodologies for the analysis of live performance.

PRFM2601 Being There: Theories of Performance will introduce students to the study of performance, tracing the discipline's foundations in anthropology, theatre studies, history, phenomenology and a range of other disciplines. PRFM2602 An Audience Prepares develops, through workshops and visits to a range of performances, a language for understanding and analysing complex cultural events.

In addition, students may take PRFM2604 Sociology of Theatre in semester 2.

Third Year Performance Studies

Coordinator: Dr Laura Ginters

Students in third year may select from a range of units of study to complete their major. In Semester 1, those units are:

- PRFM3601 Anthropology of Performance
- PRFM3604 Embodied Histories

In Semester 2, the offerings are:

- PRFM3602 Playing Around with Theatre History
- PRFM3606 Theories of Acting
- PRFM3610 In the Zone: Sport as Performance

Special Entry

Students wishing to take Performance Studies IV should take the special entry units PRFM3961 Rehearsal Studies and PRFM3962 Rehearsal to Performance in addition to 36 senior credit points in other Performance Studies units. Credit results in PRFM2600-level units are prerequisite for PRFM special entry units.

Major in Performance Studies

To complete a major in Performance Studies you must complete 36 senior credit points of Performance Studies (6 units of study). Two of these units are mandatory; the other four you may select from the other offerings. The mandatory units are PRFM2601 Being There: Theories of Performance and PRFM2602 An Audience Prepares, both of which are prerequisites for PRFM3600 level units of study.

Fourth Year Honours Performance Studies

Coordinator: Dr Laura Ginters

The fourth year program in Performance Studies involves the completion of two seminars in Semester 1. In 2007, these seminars will be:

1. Critical Theory and Performance with Dr Ian Maxwell
2. Embodiment with Dr Lowell Lewis

Honours students are also required to attend the department's weekly staff and postgraduate research seminar.

In addition, students attend a weekly, one hour Group Supervision session, in which they prepare to write both their dissertation and casebook, which are due in Semester 2.

At some point in the year, all honours students will take part in a placement with a professional performance company, or an equivalent organisation or project. The exact nature of this placement will be negotiated with the Honours Coordinator, and will ideally involve a sustained observation or a rehearsal and/or performance preparation process.

From this placement, students will prepare a 12,000–15,000 word casebook, submitted late in Semester 2. The other major component of the year is the dissertation, of 12,000–15,000 words, on a topic to be negotiated in consultation with the Honours Coordinator and a designated supervisor.

To qualify for honours in Performance Studies, you must complete 48 senior credit points in Performance Studies units of study, including PRFM3691 Rehearsal Studies and PRFM3692 Rehearsal to Performance, and 36 senior credit points in other PRFM units of study.

In effect, this means completing the 36 senior credit point major and additionally completing the two special entry units. A pass at credit level or above in these units of study is required for entry into honours. Credit results in other senior units of study and Special Entry units in humanities subjects together with an appropriate practical background may, with the approval of the Faculty of Arts, be accepted as the prerequisite to entry into honours.

Cross-listed units of study

Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.
Philosophy

The department of Philosophy is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI).

Philosophy is a subject that develops critical thinking, writing and reasoning skills while inquiring into fundamental questions about ourselves and the world. The department of Philosophy offers a wide range of units of study in the areas of: History of Philosophy; Epistemology, Metaphysics and Logic; and Moral, Social and Political Philosophy. Philosophy junior units are introductions to basic areas of philosophy. Senior units may then be taken from a pool of options; 36 senior credit points constitutes a major in Philosophy. For those students wishing to continue the study of Philosophy at an advanced level, Philosophy IV honours is available to qualified students.

Junior Philosophy units

There are three junior units of study, each worth 6 credit points:

- PHIL1010 Society, Knowledge and Reason
- PHIL1011 Reality, Ethics and Beauty
- PHIL1012 Introductory Logic

You can do any one, any two, or all three. The normal requirement for entry to senior philosophy units is PHIL1010 and PHIL1011. However, if you have done a different combination of junior units worth 12 credit points (including PHIL1016 Mind and Morality SCS) you may apply for special permission to proceed to senior philosophy. For details of units see chapter 7.

Senior Philosophy

The following units of study will be available; all are worth 6 credit points.

History of Philosophy program

- PHIL2605 Locke and Empiricism
- PHIL2607 Eighteenth Century French Philosophy
- PHIL2613 Plato and Aristotle
- PHIL2629 Descartes and Continental Philosophy
- PHIL2641 Classic German Philosophy
- PHIL3612 Origins of Analytical Philosophy

Epistemology, Metaphysics and Logic program

- PHIL2611 Problems of Empiricism
- PHIL2615 Intermediate Logic
- PHIL2622 Reality, Time and Possibility: Metaphysics
- PHIL2626 Philosophy and Psychoanalysis
- PHIL2627 Philosophy and Psychiatry
- PHIL2628 Elementary Logic
- PHIL2638 Husserl's Phenomenology
- PHIL2639 Heidegger's Phenomenology
- PHIL2640 Sustainability, Systems and Society
- PHIL2642 Critical Thinking
- PHIL2643 Philosophy of Mind
- PHIL3618 Pre-Honours Seminar

Aesthetics, Ethics and Political Philosophy program

- PHIL2612 History of Ethics
- PHIL2617 Practical Ethics
- PHIL2618 Aesthetics and Art
- PHIL2623 Moral Psychology
- PHIL2633 Theories of Modernity I
- PHIL2634 Democratic Theory

Philosophy Honours

The requirement for entry to fourth year honours is 48 senior credit points, with a credit average of 60, and including at least 6 credit points from each of the three programs above. For details of the honours year see chapter 8.

Cross-listed units

Please check the cross-listing schedule located on the Faculty of Arts website.

Psychology

Psychology, a discipline within the Faculty of Science, is often taken as part of a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Liberal Studies. It can be taken as a major within either of these programs. Students should note that in the Bachelor of Arts degree, Psychology may only be taken as a second major, and students must also take a major from one of the subject areas listed under Part A of the Table of units of study for the BA (refer to chapter 6 of this Handbook). Different rules apply to the Bachelor of Liberal Studies. Under these rules, students may take a major in Psychology as their major in Science and will also take their major in Arts from one of the subject areas listed under Part A of the Table of units of study for the BA.

For a major in Psychology, the minimum requirement is 48 credit points across intermediate and senior Psychology* units of study. The Intermediate Psychology units required for the major are PSYC2011, PSYC2012, PSYC2013 and PSYC2014. No other Intermediate Psychology units can be counted towards the major. The senior units must include at least one of PSYC3011, 3012, 3013 and 3014.

*Note: HPSC3023 History and Philosophy of Science and Psychiatry can be counted towards a Psychology major.

The Psychology units of study are outlined in Part B of the Table of units of study in this Handbook, and further details of all Psychology units of study can be found in the Faculty of Science Handbook. For progression to a fourth year in Psychology at the University of Sydney, please see below for the requirements for entry into Psychology 4 Honours, and see the Faculty of Science Handbook for the requirements for entry into the Graduate Diploma in Science (Psychology).

Students who first enrolled in Psychology within an Arts degree at the University of Sydney prior to 2002 may, upon application to the Faculty of Arts, be permitted to graduate with a major in Psychology with 32 credit points of senior Psychology as normally required for a Part A major. However, this does not qualify students for entry to a fourth year of Psychology study and does not meet the minimum requirements for professional recognition of a Psychology major.

Psychology 4 Honours

Prerequisite for entry: A major in Psychology (as above) with an average of Credit or better across the prescribed PSYC2000 level units of study and across the PSYC3000 level units of study that make up the remainder of the 48 credit points which must include PSYC3010. Permission of the School of Psychology is required. Due to restricted resources for research supervision, the intake to Psychology 4 honours is limited to approximately 55 students and is determined by academic merit in PSYC2000 and 3000 level units of study.

Social Sciences

The Bachelor of Social Sciences program is administered by the department of Sociology and Social Policy. The department of Sociology and Social Policy is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). The SOPHI Enquiry counter is located on Level 3, Quadrangle A14, Telephone +61 2 9351 2862.

Further information and advice

The Director of the Bachelor of Social Sciences is Dr Jennifer Wilkinson, Room 135 RC Mills Building, A26, ph: +61 2 9351 2862.

The Bachelor of Social Sciences is a specialist four-year degree program. You will be required to undertake two majors, one in the Social Sciences and one in the Humanities, as well as a sequence of core units of study, including:
You will also undertake an internship in your third or fourth year representing the full annual workload, where you will gain valuable practical experience working in a social science setting, participating in social research and social policy analysis. The specific requirements of the degree are outlined in chapter 9 of this handbook.

Sociology and Social Policy

The department of Sociology and Social Policy is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). The SOPHI Enquiry counter is located on Level 3, Quadrangle A14. Telephone +61 2 9351 2862.

Social Policy

Social Policy is the study of a range of policies which affect the social and economic welfare of individuals, families and broader social groupings. The study of social policy enables students to develop an understanding of the arrangements and principles underpinning the provision and administration of social policies and can lead to careers in both government and non-government organisations. Policy areas studied can include: income support, work and unemployment, health, housing, family and children’s services, youth, policies for the aged, health policies, policies for women, indigenous and multicultural policies, urban and regional development.

Studies in Social Policy at the University of Sydney are concerned with the history and contemporary institutions and practices of Australian social policies; comparative studies of policies in other countries; and the principles of social policy. Units of study combine studies of theory, research and application of policies to real world issues.

Major in Social Policy

36 senior credit points in Sociology or Social Policy, including SCLG2601 Australian Social Policy, SCPL2602 Contesting Social Policies, SCLG2611 Comparative Sociology of Welfare States, SCLG2601 Sociological Theory, SCLG2602 Social Inquiry: Research Methods. This is in addition to the First Year requirements of Introduction to Sociology 1 – SCLG1001 and Introduction to Sociology 2 – SCLG1002, and the other junior and senior units required for your degree.

Sociology

Sociology is the study of human behaviour in its diverse social contexts. The subject matter of sociology includes patterns of social interaction in its institutional, organisational and cultural settings. A major focus of sociological research and theory has been the making of the modern world. The sociology taught at the University of Sydney emphasises both an historical and a comparative approach to the discipline and its subject matter.

The study of sociology is a rewarding and stimulating enterprise, both intellectually and in terms of future career prospects in a variety of professional fields. It is also an important addition to related disciplines such as Government, Economics, Philosophy, Education, Psychology, Anthropology and History, and it usefully complements studies in English, Art History and Theory, Languages, Law and Science.

Major in Sociology

36 senior credit points in Sociology or Social Policy, including SCLG2601 Sociological Theory and SCLG2602 Social Inquiry: Research Methods.

This is in addition to the First Year requirements of Introduction to Sociology 1 – SCLG1001 and Introduction to Sociology 2 – SCLG1002, and the other junior and senior units required for your degree.

Double Major in Sociology and Social Policy

Many students undertake majors in both Sociology and Social Policy, allowing for study of social issues both historically and comparatively in breadth and depth. Students intending to complete a double major in Sociology and Social Policy will need to complete Sociological Theory – SCLG2601, Social Inquiry – SCLG2602, Australian Social Policy – SCPL2601, Contesting Social Policies – SCPL2602, Comparative Sociology of Welfare States – SCLG2611 and an additional 42 credit points of senior level Sociology or Social Policy.

This is in addition to the First Year requirements of Introduction to Sociology 1 – SCLG1001 and Introduction to Sociology 2 – SCLG1002, and the other junior and senior units required for your degree.

First Year Sociology

There are two junior Sociology units:

- SCLG1001 Introduction to Sociology 1
- SCLG1002 Introduction to Sociology 2

Senior Sociology

The senior units of study make it possible for students to build on their junior year and focus on particular fields of sociological theory and research, including: childhood and youth, the media, social movements, violence and power, sport, social justice and law, human rights, the welfare state, health and illness, social inequality, identity and the self, deviance and difference, globalisation, mental illness, science and technology. The are organised into the following streams, with some units of study playing a role in a number of different streams:

1. Social Theory: Sociological Theory, Violence Imaginaries and Symbolic Power, Contemporary Sociological Theory, Law and Social Theory, Global Transformations, Contemporary Cultural Issues, Sociology of Knowledge

2. Media, Culture and the Self: Social Construction of Difference, Media in Contemporary Society, Self and Society, Childhood and Youth, Sociology of Sport, Contemporary Cultural Issues

Sociology Honours

Students intending to proceed to Sociology IV (honours) must complete at least 48 senior credit points of Sociology or Social Policy, with a credit average across all their senior Sociology and Social Policy units.

Basic requirements

Sociology IV students are required to write a thesis and undertake two units of study run in the first semester. The thesis will be worth 60 per cent of the final grade, the two units of study are worth 20 per cent of each of the final grade. Students will also attend a Research Seminar in Semester 2.

The thesis is written under the individual supervision of a member of staff. Students and their supervisors see each other regularly and work together to ensure the deadlines for progress and submission are met. Theses are to be between 15,000 and 20,000 words in length.
Thesis Topic and Supervision
Students intending to enrol in Sociology IV are encouraged to make an appointment to see the honours coordinator late in their third year to discuss their thesis and supervision. The honours coordinator is Dr Amanda Elliot. Room 132 RC Mills Building A26, phone: +61 2 9351 5131, email: Amanda.Elliott@arts.usyd.edu.au.

In order to choose a thesis topic you should form some idea of the field that you wish to research. You should then discuss these ideas with staff members whose research interests coincide with your chosen area, as advised by the Honours Coordinator. The research interests of staff are available on the departmental website: http://www.arts.usyd.edu.au/departs/social/stacademic.html

Social Policy
The department does not currently offer a specific honours year in Social Policy. However, many of our students undertake research for their thesis in the field of Social Policy.

Socio-Legal Studies
The Socio-Legal Studies program is administered by the department of Sociology and Socio-Legal Policy. The department of Sociology and Social Policy is part of the School of Philosophical and Historical Inquiry (SOPHI). The SOPHI Enquiry counter is located on Level 3, Quadrangle A14. Telephone: +61 2 9351 2862.

Further information and advice
The director of the Bachelor of Socio-Legal Studies is Associate Professor Robert van Krieken, Room 138 RC Mills Building A26, phone: +61 29351 2641, email robertvk@usyd.edu.au.

Bachelor of Arts and Sciences
Students enrolled in the Bachelor of Arts and Sciences are required to complete two junior units in Law/Legal Studies. Two of these are offered by the department of Sociology and Social Policy within the field of socio-legal studies, which encompasses the study of legal ideas, institutions and practices from the perspective of the humanities and social sciences. They are SLSS1001 Introduction to Socio-Legal Studies and SLSS1003 Law in Contemporary Society.

Bachelor of Socio-Legal Studies
The Bachelor of Socio-Legal Studies is designed for students who are interested in studying and understanding legal ideas, institutions and practices from the perspectives of the humanities and social sciences. It is not a professional law degree, but an opportunity to engage with the ever-changing relationship between law and society using the methods of a broad range of humanities and social science disciplines, including history, philosophy, political science, sociology, social policy, performance studies, anthropology, literary studies, and economics. It combines a clear focus on the core socio-legal subjects with the breadth provided by a second major in Arts and Government and International Relations, as well as a pool of related electives.

Whether your interest is participating in the many exciting fields of research studying legal ideas and institutions in their historical, cultural and social contexts, or working in the fields of professional practice that link an understanding of law with other forms of knowledge, the Bachelor of Socio-Legal Studies will provide you with the skills and capacities you need. As well as giving you a solid starting point for a research degree in socio-legal arenas, the degree will provide the foundation for a wide variety of professional fields which lie outside the legal profession itself, but articulate closely with it: social policy, government and business administration and management, non-government organisations, criminology, public advocacy, etc.

The requirements for the Bachelor of Socio-Legal Studies are:

1. A major in Socio-Legal studies comprising:
   - SLSS1001 Introduction to Socio-Legal Studies and SLSS1002 Law as Language, Culture and Performance
   - SCLG2601 Sociological Theory
   - SCLG2615 Law and Social Theory
   - PHIL2645 Philosophy of Law
   - SCLG2634 Crime, Punishment and Society
2. A choice of four senior units drawn, provisionally, from the following list:
   - SCLG2605 Social Justice, Law and Society
   - SCLG2608 Social Construction of Difference
   - SCLG2618 Violence, Imaginaries and Symbolic Power
   - SCLG2621 Power, Politics and Society
   - ASLT2617 Writing and Justice
   - HSTY2652 Genocide in Historical Perspective
   - PHIL2607 Indigenous Rights
   - PHIL2635 Contemporary Political Philosophy
   - PHIL2617 Practical Ethics
   - WORK2207 Labour Law
   - WORK2219 Management and Organisational Ethics
   - GOVT2665 Ethics and Politics
   - GOVT2111 Human Rights and Australian Politics
   - GOVT2336 Gender and Human Rights
   - ECO3017 Political Economy of Human Rights

Please note that the exact range of electives offered may differ in 2008.

3. A second major from the Part A list of subject areas in the faculty of Arts, or Government and International Relations.

Honours
Students intending to proceed to Socio-Legal Studies IV (Honours) must meet the requirement for the pass degree with a credit average across all their Senior Socio-Legal units.

Basic requirements
Thesis Topic and Supervision

Spanish and Latin American Studies
The department of Spanish and Latin American Studies is in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

Spanish at The University of Sydney is designed to develop the four language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing) in Spanish. In addition to language studies, the beginner’s units contain an introduction to Spanish and Latin American culture and history. Intermediate and advanced units can be taken together with separate 6 credit point courses which deal with the culture and history of Spain and Latin America in greater depth.

Timetables
Timetables for each group will be posted on the Spanish website as early as possible, and enrolled students will be allocated to these groups in Orientation Week. Registration will take place at the first class in Week 1.

Junior units
SPAN1601 Introductory Spanish 1 and SPAN1602 Introductory Spanish 2 are 6 credit point junior level units for students who have no substantial prior knowledge of the language.

Students who have already studied Spanish at HSC level, or who have equivalent knowledge, may apply for advanced standing.

Students who are uncertain about their language level should email a short note in Spanish to Dr Kathryn Cramer (kathryn.crameri@arts.usyd.edu.au) setting out their circumstances. She will reply and advise the appropriate level of enrolment. Students with a prior knowledge of Spanish who enrol in SPAN1601/1602 without checking their eligibility may subsequently be obliged to withdraw and enrol in another unit of study.
Senior units
SPAN2601 Intermediate Spanish 1 and SPAN2602 Intermediate Spanish 2 are 6 credit point senior units of study, available to students who have completed SPAN1601 and SPAN1602 at this University or who have completed the equivalent elsewhere and been granted either credit or advanced standing.

Major in Spanish
Students who satisfactorily complete second year Spanish (SPAN2601 and SPAN2602) may apply to complete a Part A major (36 senior credit points) by enrolling in SPAN3601 and SPAN3602 and two of the following: SPAN2621 (Spanish Culture 1), SPAN2622 (Latin American Culture 1), SPAN3621 (Latin American Culture 2) and SPAN3622 (Introduction to Translation). In addition there may be courses cross-listed in the Faculty of Arts that can be taken to make up the major. Students are reminded that at least 24 senior credit points must be in language units of study.

Staff offices
Spanish staff offices are located on level 7 of the MacCallum/Brennan Building A18.

Spanish noticeboards
Information on Undergraduate units of study is displayed on a designated noticeboard at the School of Languages and Cultures office. There is also a designated Spanish noticeboard on Level 7 of the MacCallum/Brennan Building A18.

Spanish Web page
A comprehensive overview of the Spanish program can be accessed through the web page.

Studies in Religion
The Department of Studies in Religion is located within the John Woolley Building.

The study of religion is one of the most exciting and relevant areas in the contemporary humanities, as we daily encounter situations (globally and in the Australian context) that indicate the vital part religion(s) play in people’s lives. The department provides open, serious, scholarly and critical study of religion, aiming to offer the broadest possible curriculum. Units of study covering Celtic and Germanic mythology, history of Christianity, meditation and other spiritual practices, Chinese religions, the interface of religion with art and film, Australian Aboriginal traditions, Buddhism and a range of new religions, are offered on a rotating cycle.

The study of religion can be fruitfully combined with studies in many other departments within the Faculty of Arts, such as Philosophy, Jewish Studies, Ancient History, English, Medieval Studies and Arabic and Islamic Studies.

Students begin Studies in Religion by completing Junior units of study, of which there are three available on rotation. RLST1001 Paths to Enlightenment introduces key concepts in Aboriginal Australian and Asian religions; RLST1002 The History of God charts the rise of monotheism in the cultural context of the Ancient World; and RLST1004 New Religious Movements covers religions in the West from the 1950s to the present. Two of these three units are offered every year.

A major in Studies in Religion is 36 senior credit points (6 Senior units of study). It is possible to do fourth year honours in Studies in Religion if you complete a further 12 senior credit points and your average result across the 48 credit points of religion is a Credit or better (65+). Honours is a stimulating and prestigious way to cap off your undergraduate studies, and involves a methodology seminar, completion of two postgraduate coursework units, and the writing of a thesis in which you personally devise and research a project under the supervision of an academic staff member.

Thai Studies
A program in Thai Studies will be available at the University of Sydney in 2007. Students enrolling in Thai language units will be taught through a consortium arrangement with the University of Technology, Sydney, with the units being offered at the University of Technology, Sydney. In addition the University of Sydney units ASN2662 Southeast Asian Dictators and Democrats and ANTH2601 The Ethnography of Mainland Southeast Asia, have Thai Studies content and are cross-listed to the Thai Studies major. Alternatively students can complete their major by enrolling in the University of Sydney Exchange program and studying at partner institutions in Thailand. Depending on requirements there may be other special arrangements. Students wishing to complete their major should seek advice from the Head of School. There is no guarantee of continued availability. A major may not be available.

Yiddish
Yiddish is located in the School of Languages and Cultures (SLC).

For a millennium, Yiddish has been the spoken and literary language of Ashkenazi/European Jewry. As a language it entails the fusion of three major components – German, Hebrew/Aramaic and Slavic. There is a vast corpus of Yiddish literature published from the 14th century until the present day.

Since 1997, Yiddish has been available at the tertiary level for those beginning the language. The junior units of study do not require a previous knowledge of the language, but are intended to give a firm grounding in the skills on which all senior studies will be based. Yiddish at both junior and senior levels is available in the Faculty of Arts.

Students who wish to major in Yiddish must complete 36 senior credit points consisting of 24 senior credit points from Yiddish (YDDH2603, 2604, 3605 and 3606) plus 12 senior credit points in JCTC and/or HBRW units (Classical).

Honours
Students must complete 48 senior credit points consisting of 24 senior credit points from Yiddish and 24 senior credit points from JCTC and/or Hebrew (Classical) all at Credit level or above.

To enrol in Senior Chemistry in 2008 it will be a requirement that students complete CHEM (2401 or 2911 or 2915) and CHEM (2402 or 2912 or 2916). Students are advised that combinations of CHEM units that do not meet this requirement will generally not allow progression to Senior Chemistry.

Aboriginal Studies

KOCR2600
Indigenous Australia: An Introduction
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Ms Shino Konishi Session: Semester 1, Semester 2 Classes: (2 lec x 1hr & 1 x 2hr tut)wk Prerequisites: KOCR2100 or KOCR2600 Prohibitions: KOCR2101 Assessment: one 2000 word essay (40%); one tutorial presentation (10%); one 1000 word tutorial paper (20%); WebCT activities equivalent to 1500 words (30%).

This unit of study explores the historical, social and political contexts of the survival and growth of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and philosophies. The unit is structured around the themes of representation and identities; the colonisation of land and people; and resistance and agency. It will provide students with an introduction to Indigenous philosophies and theories by examining 'contact history' and resistance within a critical framework.

KOCR2601
Indigenous Australia: Land and Culture
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Ms Leah Lui-Chivizhe Session: Semester 2 Classes: (1x 1hr lec & 1 x 2hr tut)wk Prerequisites: KOCR2100 or KOCR2600 Prohibitions: KOCR2101 Assessment: identity exercise(10%), tutorial presentation(20%), tutorial paper(20%) and essay(50%)

This unit of study traces Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander relationships to country and place, and the continuities and dynamism of contemporary Indigenous Australian cultures. It will celebrate the fact that, despite the impact of colonisation, Indigenous Australian peoples have maintained unique identities and connections to land and sea. Through the themes of Indigenous Sydney, Connections to Place, and Cultural Continuities, we will examine Indigenous belief systems, art, language, performance, and film. This unit of study will include excursions to cultural sites around Sydney.

KOCR2602
Issues in Indigenous Rights
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Mr Pete Minter Session: Semester 2 Classes: (2 x 2hr seminars)wk Prerequisites: KOCR2100 or KOCR2600 Prohibitions: KOCR2102 Assessment: Participation (10%), Seminar Presentation (25%), Literature Review (10%) Media Report (15%) and Research Project: (40%)

In the second half of the 20th Century Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples began to culturally and politically recover from the effects of colonisation and assimilation. Having had fundamental human rights severely limited by state and federal legislation, and having experienced years of disempowerment, dislocation and social disruption, Indigenous peoples have sought to reclaim independent social and political power. This unit of study explores national and international developments in this history, addressing issues of political and social representation, and examining contemporary analyses of Indigenous rights to self-determination in legal, political and community spheres.

KOCR2603
Indigenous Health and Communities
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Ms Katrina Thorpe Session: Semester 2 Classes: (1 x 1hr lec and 1 x 2hr tut)wk Prerequisites: KOCR2100 or KOCR2600 Prohibitions: KOCR2111 Assessment: tutorial presentation (20%), critical review (30%) and essay (50%)

The continuing poor health status of Indigenous people is well documented. However, attempts at improving Aboriginal health have often been met with inappropriate policy and practice. The challenge in improving Aboriginal health lies partly in improving the knowledge of non-Indigenous Australians of the historical, cultural and contemporary issues which impact on health. This unit of study will provide opportunities for meaningful contact with Indigenous Australians as a foundation for building partnerships with Indigenous people to improve Aboriginal health.

KOCR2604
Colours of Identity: Indigenous Bodies
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Ms Shino Konishi Session: Semester 1 Classes: (1 x 2hr lec and 1 x 2hr tut)wk Corequisites: KOCR2100 or KOCR2600 Assessment: one presentation (20%); one 2000 word take-home exam (30%); one 3000 word research essay (50%).

This unit of study explores various ways in which the body contributes to the formation of Indigenous Australian identity, both from within and without. Using contemporary theoretical approaches we will explore the ways in which Indigenous Australian bodies were constructed by colonial discourses; how they were ‘othered’, fragmented, gendered, and subordinated. We will also explore how Indigenous agency has manifested through the body, for example through withholding labour, political activism, and creative re-presentations of the body.

KOCR2605
Speaking Gamilaraay 1
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Mr John Hobson Session: Semester 1 Classes: (1 x 3hr seminar)wk Corequisites: KOCR2100 or KOCR2600 Assessment: worksheets(60%); essay(20%) and class test(20%)

Gamilaraay is an Indigenous Australian language from the mid north-west of NSW that is currently undergoing revitalisation. This Unit of Study will provide students with a basic competence in speaking, understanding, reading and writing Gamilaraay sufficient to recognise and construct simple utterances in the language, and to understand its relationships with other languages. Classes will take the form of three hour intensive oral workshops which progressively develop each student’s abilities in the language. Assessment will be by short written assignments based on lesson content and an appraisal of individual oral/aural performance together with a short essay on Gamilaraay culture or a related topic.

KOCR2606
Torres Strait Histories and Experiences
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Ms Leah Lui-Chivizhe Session: Semester 2 Classes: (1 x 1hr lec and 1 x 2hr tut)wk Prerequisites: KOCR2100 or KOCR2600 Assessment: tutorial presentation(20%), critical review(30%) and essay (50%)

Torres Strait Islanders are often talked about as Australia’s other indigenous minority and many Australians know little about the region and its people. This Unit of Study will introduce students to Torres Strait societies through the themes of governance, migration and resource management. Students will learn about the diversity within Torres Strait communities and how Torres Strait Islander experiences of colonisation and responses to colonisation were and are as complex as those of Aboriginal people.

KOCR2607
Indigenous Creative Expression
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Ms Michelle Blanchard Session: Semester 1, Summer Dec Classes: 1 x 3hr seminar Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points Assessment: essay (40%), seminar presentation (25%) and creative exhibit (35%)

The concept of ‘traditional’ versus ‘contemporary’ is very much at the forefront of defining meanings for art works created by Indigenous artists. Typically works created by Indigenous artists are delegated to either one of these categories. This unit will examine the theoretical frameworks which position Indigenous artists, through the study of Indigenous artistic expression across a range of genres. It will provide students with the opportunity to engage with Indigenous artists on a formal and informal basis and to discuss complex issues pertaining to Indigenous works, in performance, literature(writing), music, dance and film.

Ancient History

ANHS1003 Foundations for Ancient History: Greece

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr. A. Blanshard, Dr. J. Kindt
Session: Semester 1
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Assessment: One 2000 word class paper, one 2.5 hour exam

This unit of study seeks to reconstruct the social and political history of the men and women of Archaic and Classical Greece through their literature, monuments and traditions. The approach will be themetic rather than chronological, with a concentration on such aspects as religion; social values; developments of law and government; warfare as a social experience and physical reality; competition; the development of natural science, medicine and philosophy and the changing patterns of life in the Greek states and Greece as a whole.

ANHS1005 Power and Persuasion in Rome

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Peter Brennan
Session: Semester 2
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Assessment: One 2000 word class paper, one 2.5 hour exam

Roman History is divided between ‘free’ Republic and ‘autocratic’ Empire. The Republic was a system of persuading Romans they were free. The Empire was a system of persuading Romans to accept autocracy. In both periods it was not merely Romans who had to be persuaded: the Roman Empire was a system of world power and world persuasion. Between the Gracchi and the Julio-Claudian emperors the world changed.

ANHS1801 Ancient History Exchange

Credit points: 6
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

ANHS2601 Ancient Imperialism

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Alastair Blanshard
Session: Semester 1
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prohibitions: ANHS2902
Assessment: one 2 hour exam, one 2000 word class paper

The empire of Rome made the Mediterranean World one. How did a single city win this controlling position? What were the experiences of Rome’s predecessors (Sparta, Athens, Carthage) and why did a city-state of the same order make the breakthrough which they did not? Material factors (military, demographic and economic) are balanced against imperial concepts (glory, service, faith and majesty) and the question posed: Is this universal empire best seen as an achievement of conquest, an economic imperative or a world-community being formed? How applicable are our findings to other empires at other times or was Rome historically conditioned and unique?

ANHS2604 Pagans and Christians in the Roman World

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Peter Brennan
Session: Semester 1
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prohibitions: ANHS2902
Assessment: one 2500 word essay, one 1.5 hour exam

We examine varieties of religious experience and sources of religious authority in the Roman world (c.150-364 CE): ritual, sacrifice, prayer, dreams, visions, oracles, miracle, wornderworking, asceticism, religious “knowledge” (gnosis); the appeal of “new” deities (especially Isis, Mithras and Christ). Did Christianity make a difference in beliefs, experiences, aspirations, attitudes (to the games, war and the military, slavery, sexuality, death and “the world”) or the image of snakes? What was the impact of the “conversion of Constantine” and the apostasy of Julian?

ANHS2605 Ancient Greek Religion

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Julia Kindt
Session: Semester 2
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prohibitions: ANHS2902
Assessment: one 2000 word class paper, one 2 hour exam

This unit explores Greek religion as a defining feature of what it meant to be Greek. We will investigate similarities and differences between religious beliefs and practices throughout the ancient Greek world and trace how religion changed over time. Topics addressed include sacrifice, religious festivals and games, the use (and abuse) of divination, and shared notions of purity and pollution.

ANHS2691 Ancient Historians Rethink History I

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Peter Brennan
Session: Semester 1
Classes: One 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prohibitions: ANHS2902
Assessment: one 2500 word essay, one 1.5 hour exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

The nature, purpose and use of history is constantly being rethought. We begin with the historian buffeted by the winds of modern life, theory and the forces of history. The aim is to familiarise you with major theories and theorists underpinning different approaches to history through the ages down to present times.

ANHS2692 Ancient Historians Rethink History 2

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Kathryn Welch
Session: Semester 2
Classes: One 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prohibitions: ANHS2902
Assessment: one 2500 word essay, one 1.5 hour exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Ancient historians wrote within their own contexts. This semester investigates not only the context of major ancient historians (such as Herodotus, Thucydides, Sallust, Livy, Tacitus) but also how modern historians, under the influence of theories, theorists and approaches studied in first semester, have seen these ancient historians. A major research essay with a strong historiographical orientation will give practice in writing ancient history in the contemporary world.

ANHS2804 Ancient History Exchange

Credit points: 6
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

ANHS2805 Ancient History Exchange

Credit points: 6
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.
Herodotus' outlook is equally grounded in the archaic and classical worlds. What made Herodotus inhabit and relate them to the world he created in his ‘Histories’? Perhaps this will enable us to see the link between Cambyses' madness and the gold-digging ants of India?

Anthropology

ANTH1001 Cultural Difference: An Introduction
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Daryl Feil Session: Semester 1, Summer Main Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week, occasional hour-long optional film-screenings and workshops Prohibitions: ANTH1003 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (50%) and one 2 hour exam (50%)

Anthropology explores and explains cultural difference while affirming the unity of humankind. It provides accounts of cultural specificity that illuminate the world today. Lectures will address some examples of cultural difference from the present and the past. These examples will introduce modern Anthropology, the method of ethnography, and its related forms of social and cultural analysis.

Textbooks readings will be available at the University Copy Centre

ANTH1002 Globalisation and Experience
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Ghassan Hage Session: Semester 2 Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prohibitions: ANTH1004 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (50%) and one 2 hour exam (50%)

Anthropology's ethnographic method, long term embedded-ness within a specific culture, allows for a particularly intimate understanding of people's experiences of the social worlds they inhabit. This course shows the importance of this experiential intimacy for understanding some of the key issues associated with globalisation: the culturally diverse adaptations of global capitalism, the transnational communities emanating from global population movements, the transformations of colonial and post-colonial cultures, the rise of global Islamic movements and the corresponding transformation of Western nationalism.

ANTH1801 Social Anthropology Exchange
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

ANTH1802 Social Anthropology Exchange
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

ANTH2604 Australia-Pacific: Indigenous Worlds
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Daryl Feil Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 16 Junior credit points Prohibitions: ANTH2112 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit explores specifically anthropological issues of the indigenous peoples of Australia and the Pacific in comparative perspective. Topical themes will include the common threads of prehistory, history, colonialism and change and development, gender, economy and social organisation. The theories anthropologists have used to understand these societies will provide the framework for discussion.

ANTH2606 Culture and the Unconscious
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jadran Mimica Session: Semester 1 Classes: three hours of lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites:
7. Undergraduate units of study descriptions

12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Assessment: one 3500 word essay (70%) and one 2 hour exam (30%)

This is a unit on psychoanalytic anthropology. With the focus on the unconscious dimension of human cultural existence the unit critically examines the systematic topical, theoretical, ethnographic and historical aspects of this unique field of anthropological inquiry. All psychoanalytic conceptual frameworks are elucidated and assessed through ethno-psychoanalytic work done in different cultural life-worlds. Firmly grounded in detailed ethnographic evidence the unit provides a comprehensive phenomenological-existential validation of the discipline and its contribution to both anthropology and psychoanalysis.

ANTH2613
Imagination, Narcissism & Identification
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jadran Mimica Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Prohibitions: ANTH2013 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit explores psychoanalytic anthropology in relation to three pivotal modalities of the psyche. Although psychoanalytic theory is treated in its diversity, a special emphasis is placed on the originality of Melanie Klein and the British Object-relations theory of psychoanalysis, and on the Jungian analytical of the archetypal dimension of human psyche. The diversity and validity of psychoanalysis are assessed both in relation to the primary field of its analytic-therapeutic practice and anthropology as grounded in ethnographic fieldwork.

ANTH2621
Initiation Rituals
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jadran Mimica Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Prohibitions: ANTH2013 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit examines and elucidates a wide range of phenomena commonly known as "initiation rituals". Through a wealth of ethnographies the course surveys male and female forms of these practices and appraises their various interpretations by anthropologists, psychoanalysts and scholars of comparative religion. A special focus is on the psycho-dynamics and meanings of self-transformations which these radical practices effect upon the practitioners themselves. The unit also articulates a general theory of ritual action grounded in phenomenology and psychoanalysis.

Textbooks
readings will be available at the beginning of lectures

Ethnographic Film
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Neil Maclean Session: Semester 2 Classes: 3 hours of lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Prohibitions: ANTH2106, ANTH2022 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit examines the ethnographic value of film in contrast with more conventional textual forms of representation. The first half focuses on theories of ethnographic filming and the second on the significance of film within the ethnography of Papua New Guinea. Themes include family narratives or ethnographic soap opera; problems with the representation of violence and the value of 'shock'; filming and contextualising intimacy; primitivism as an ethnographic subject; irony and humour. This unit is a critical, not practical unit of study.

ANTH2623
Gender: Anthropological Studies
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Michael Nihill Session: Semester 1, Summer Main Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week

Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Prohibitions: ANTH2020, ANTH2023 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit explores the social and cultural dimensions of gender and sexuality in non-western societies. The main focus is the body in two interrelated senses. Firstly, how the body is culturally constructed by giving aspects of gender and sexuality meanings that do not simply reflect biology. Secondly, how bodies are socially constructed, for example through ritual. The relations of the dimensions of the body to the articulation of power and social change are also considered.

The City: Global Flows and Local Forms
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Prohibitions: ANTH2025 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

Modern cities are produced in two ways: (a) as types of city responsive to their larger social and cultural environment - the metropolis, the trading or rural centre and the city of sprawling shanty towns; (b) as types of ordered urban space that allocate different identities to a city's inhabitants. This unit focuses on ethnographic and historical studies of urbanism around the world. Lectures will also discuss the method of ethnography and its many uses for research in urban environments.

ANTH2628
Migration and Migrant Cultures
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Ghassan Hage Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Prohibitions: ANTH2120, ANTH2121 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit deals with the anthropology of migration and settlement. We examine the social cause of migration and the subjective experience of migrants from the moment they begin to contemplate leaving to the moment they actually arrive in another country. We study the migrant cultures that take shape in the process of settlement: the sub-national 'ethnic' cultures that emerge in specific countries and the transnational cultural forms that emerge from migrants relating to each other across national borders.

ANTH2630
Indigenous Australians and Modernity
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Gaynor Macdonald Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Assessment: one 1500 word essay, one 2500 word essay and one 2 hour exam

Australian Aboriginal peoples have always engaged with the 'modern world' but Enlightenment ideas established a colonial context juxtaposing modernity with tradition. Indigenous difference was locked into past-oriented, static and small scale traditions. The unit examines some key concepts of modernity, including progress, civility, change, tradition - and modernity itself - so as to shed light on Australian Indigenous people's experiences, past and present, as colonial subjects. The unit will explore Aboriginal engagement with, for instance, work, vehicles, the law, and the arts (painting, music etc) as practices through which Aboriginal people have sought 'alternative modernities'.

ANTH2653
Economy and Culture
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Neil Maclean Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology Assessment: one 2500 word essay (50%) and one 2 hour exam (50%)

Economic anthropology teaches that there are different kinds of economy, grounded in different forms of value (gift, commodity) and on different rationalities (kinship, chiefly, market). The nature of these differences is explored through ethnographic studies, as are the conflicts that arise from their articulation within a global system. Characterisations of economic practice are as corrupt, irrational, informal, black, profit as the work of the devil, money as bitter are treated as signs of such systemic conflict.

New Heavens, New Earth
Credit points: 6  Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Neil Maclean  Session: Semester 2  Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology  Prohibitions: ANTH3955  Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)  Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

'Cargo cults' are a major focus of cultural change in Melanesia. 'Cargo' refers to the desire of local people to attain new forms of material goods and - given the centrality of wealth for articulating both individual identities and social relations in Melanesia - the means for expressing and experiencing new forms of self and society. A variety of theoretical and methodological issues are explored through these movements being utilised to explore aspects of historical anthropology.

ANTH2662
Jamaican Popular Culture
Credit points: 6  Teacher/Coordinator: Prof Diane Austin-Broos  Session: Semester 2  Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Anthropology  Assessment: one 2000-2500 word essay and one 2 hour exam

Jamaican culture today includes a number of notable forms - Revival, Rastafarianism, reggae, dancehall and 'dub'. This unit explores the social, symbolic and political contexts of these forms including the changing significance of Jamaican black nationalism. Lectures will consider the debates that have revolved around each one. Some of the ethnographers discussed include Meggitt, Hiatt, Myers, Stanner, Munn, Morphy, Dussart, Povinelli and Morris. The debates will involve issues of social organization, art and representation, gender, and change. This unit will also address the practice of ethnography and changing conceptions of it.

This unit explores the distinctiveness of New Guinea modes of existence through a set of regionally connected ethnographies. Standard anthropological categories of kinship, social organisation, exchange, ritual, etc. are placed in the perspective of New Guinea realities and accounted for in terms of experiences, meanings, and understandings internal of indigenous cultural life-worlds. Critical attention is paid to the anthropological theoretical perspectives which determine ethnographic interpretations. One Reading Ethnography Unit (ANTH361X) must be taken for entry into Anthropology Fourth Year Honours.

Arabic Language, Literature and Culture

ARBC1611
Arabic Introductory 1B
Credit points: 6  Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Nijmeh Hajjar  Session: Semester 1  Classes: 4 face-to-face classes per week and 1 hour autonomous learning in language lab  Prohibitions: ARBC1311, ARBC1312, ARBC1101, ARBC1102  Assessment: 2.5-hour exam, regular assignments, class assessment.

This unit aims to teach Arabic as a living language. It is meant for students with no previous learning experience of the language. The unit is designed to introduce and build up basic language skills: listening and speaking, reading and writing, using modern standard and educated every-day Arabic. Students will learn basic vocabulary, language structures, morphology and syntax of Arabic in context, through lively dialogues, realistic conversational situations, story lines, exercises and drills, rather than formal grammar. On completion of this unit, students progress to ARBC1612 in second semester.

Archaeology (Classical)

ARCL1001
Art & Archaeology of the Classical World
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Prof Margaret Miller, Dr Ted Robinson
Session: Semester 2
Prerequisites: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Assessment: one 2 hour exam (40%), two visual tests (30%), one 1500 word essay (30%)

Introduction to the art and archaeology of the Mediterranean and especially the Classical World. This unit of study has a double aim: to provide a solid basis for those students who intend to pursue archaeological studies, possibly to a postgraduate level, and to give an overall survey to those who have an interest in the Ancient World as a complement to their studies of any aspect of Western civilisation. The unit of study focuses on some of the most important archaeological sites of Greece, starting with the Bronze Age (Knossos, Santorini, Mycenae) before turning to the Iron Age, the Classical and Hellenistic periods (Athens, Delphi and Olympia). The unit of study then moves to Italy, starting with the Bronze Age (particularly the flourishing Nuragic civilisation of Sardinia), then continuing with the Early Iron Age Villanovan culture of Central Italy, Greek colonisation, and the indigenous populations of the peninsula, particularly the Etruscans. The unit of study concludes with Pompeii (with due assessment of the contributions made in recent years by an Australian team to our knowledge of its history) and Rome. Throughout the unit of study we will be looking at the methods used by archaeologists to study the different classes of material, and at the history of the study of Classical monuments, Classical Antiquity has been of great importance far beyond the bounds of archaeology, and we will look at how the Classical past has been constructed and used in more recent times.

The unit focuses on the development of Athenian vase-painting, sculpture and architecture during the sixth and fifth centuries BC. Questions of chronology, style, technique and iconography/iconology are addressed and are related to the social, political and historical context in which Athenian material culture took shape. Lectures are complemented by regular tutorials which make use of Ancient Greek artefacts in the collections of the Nicholson Museum.

ARCL2603
Archaeology of Pre-Roman Italy
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Ted Robinson
Session: Semester 1
Prerequisites: six 1 hour credit points of Archaeology and either 6 Junior credit points of Archaeology or Classical Civilisation or Classical Studies or Ancient History
Prohibitions: ARCL3001
Assessment: one 2000 word essay, one 2 hour exam, classwork in tutorials

This unit of study will concentrate on South Italy and Sicily; beginning at the transition to the Neolithic period, particular attention will be given to the Bronze Age and the contacts between Italy and the wider Mediterranean at that time. The main focus of the course will be on the Iron Age and the development of the numerous and varied groups of indigenous Italians who inhabited South Italy and Sicily. The phenomenon of Greek colonisation will be treated in detail, and the course will conclude with the Roman conquest of these regions and the changes wrought by Roman domination of the Greek and indigenous territories.

ARCL2604
Aegean Prehistory (ca 3000-1100 BC)
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Prof Margaret Miller
Session: Semester 1
Prerequisites: 6 Junior credit points of Archaeology and either 6 Junior credit points of Archaeology or Classical Civilisation or Classical Studies or Ancient History
Assessment: one 2 hour mid-term test (20%), one 3000 word essay (40%), one 2 hour exam (40%)

In the Greek bronze age, three distinctive but interrelated cultures arose: the Cycladic in the Aegean islands, the Minoan on Crete, and the Helladic (Mycenaean) on the Greek mainland. Their characteristic features are outlined in roughly chronological order through focused study of specific sites and categories of materials. Then such themes as state formation, social structure, religious expression, local and international trade, and the collapse of the palace-based economy at the end of the bronze age, are explored.

ARCL2605
The Archaeology of the Roman East
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Kate da Costa
Session: Semester 2
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Archaeology or Classical Civilisation/Classical Studies or Ancient History
Assessment: one 2500 word essay (40%), class work in tutorials (25%), one 1 hour exam (35%)

Between the inheritance of Pergamon in 133BC and the Islamic conquest of the Levant in 640AD, Rome gained political control over territory stretching from Asia Minor, through the Levant to Egypt. This course introduces significant sites and material culture showing the interaction of Rome and local cultures. It examines evidence from settlement patterns, architecture, trade and manufacture, luxury and humble products, domestic and sacred contexts in order to understand the nature and functioning of the Roman Eastern Empire.
The unit critically explores Athenian material culture in the Archaic and Classical periods as a tangible but complex reflection of Athenian society's beliefs, attitudes, perceptions and value systems. Themes covered include body ideal, homosexuality, gender, age, social class, women, children and foreigners. Students are encouraged to suggest additional topics in which they might have a particular interest.

In each year a specific issue of current interest is chosen. For 2007 the topic is The Greek Symposium - an archaeological approach. The symposium (literally "drinking together") was a central Greek social institution throughout the Archaic, Classical, and Hellenistic periods. The material evidence of the symposium is studied through the archaeological, iconographic, and literary evidence. To provide contrast and context, parallel practices in other cultural traditions (Bronze Age Greece, Ancient Near East, Roman Italy) are considered.

Archaeology (Prehistoric and Historical)

ARPH1001
Introduction to Archaeology
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Martin Gibbs, Dr Lesley Beaumont Session: Semester 1, Winter Main Classes: one 2 hour lecture per week; one 2 hour workshop per week for 6 weeks of semester Assessment: one 2000 word essay, short exercises (including self-guided tutorials, on-line quizzes), one 1500 word exam

Archaeology is a dynamic world-wide discipline which draws on both the sciences and humanities to interpret material remains of the human past. This unit presents archaeology's major discoveries from the earliest origins of humanity in prehistory to more recent historical periods. Case studies based on current field research in the Mediterranean, Near East, West and South East Asian, Australia and beyond will introduce students to key aspects of archaeological method and theory and explore links between current archaeological practice and heritage issues of wide public interest. The unit is taught by staff from across the spectrum of archaeology. It provides an introduction useful for any senior unit of study in Archaeology. It will also interest anyone with a more general interest in this fascinating, popular and topical field of study.

Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Simon Ringer, Ms Wendy Peade Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 3 hour lecture/seminar per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Archaeology Prohibitions: ARPH2621 Assessment: four 1000 word assignments

This unit examines the structure and properties of archaeological materials, with an emphasis on the methodology and approaches to scientific analysis. A range of analytical techniques, including spectroscopic and electron microscopy methods, is introduced. The accent is on archaeological applications, and assessment is by assignment and practical sessions.

ARPH2603
The Archaeology of Society
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Dougal O'Reilly Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Archaeology Prohibitions: ARPH2003 Assessment: two 1500 word essays and one 1500 word project

A global introduction to the processes and issues involved in the major transformation of human settlement behaviour since the end of the last glacial phase. Essay and project topics are arranged on an individual basis in consultation with the coordinator to suit the interests of students. Topics may be chosen on a worldwide basis. This unit of study can be used to conduct a detailed study of one region or to gain experience of a diversity of regions and topics.

ARPH2605
Archaeology of Modern Times
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Wayne Johnson Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 1 hour lecture and one 2 hour lecture per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Archaeology Prohibitions: ARPH2005 Assessment: one 2500 word essay, one 1000 word paper and presentation, one class test

This unit investigates the material culture of European colonialism and expansion after AD1500, examining Southeast Asia, the Americas and South Africa, with an emphasis on Australia from AD1788 to the present day. The course will include a hands-on workshop examining artefacts from post-AD1788 Australian sites.

The Archaeology of Asia
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Dougal O'Reilly Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Archaeology Prohibitions: ARPH1003 Assessment: two 2000 word essays

An introduction to the archaeology of eastern and southern Asia from two million years ago to the fall of the Ching dynasty in the 19th/20th century AD in China.

ARPH2612
Historical Archaeology
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Martin Gibbs Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Archaeology Prohibitions: ARPH2702 Assessment: one 4000 word essay, one 2000 word take-home exam or online test

This course will introduce students to the international development of historical archaeology since 1960. Because of its explicit links to historiography and documentary scholarship, historical archaeology enjoys a uniquely interdisciplinary perspective, and has been directly influenced by shifts in both anthropology and history. The current practice and international form of historical archaeology will therefore be explored in detail. Students will be required to participate in class discussions, produce oral presentations on reading materials, and complete written assignments.

ARPH2614
Archaeological Methods
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Dougal O'Reilly Session: Semester 2
Classes: 3 hours of workshops per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Archaeology Prohibitions: ARPH2604 Assessment: laboratory exercises and 3000 word report, one 1500 word exam Practical field work: Fieldwork and/or laboratory work

An introduction to post-fieldwork archaeological laboratory principles and practices. The unit introduces students to key principles for the effective management and processing of archaeological finds and other materials excavated from archaeological sites, recording and interpretation of data recorded from this materials and the application of various methods of analysis which can be used to produce different types of archaeological knowledge and interpretation.

ARPH2616
Public Archaeology
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Sarah Colley Session: Semester 2
Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour seminar per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of Archaeology Prohibitions: ARPH2010 Assessment: one 2500 word essay, one 1000 word seminar write-up, one 1000 word in-class test

This unit introduces and discusses the theory and practice of archaeology in the public domain where archaeologists have responsibilities to Indigenous peoples, community groups, clients and government. Australian and other case studies will be used to discuss the public benefits of archaeology and ways in which government policies and legislation and issues surrounding ethics and professionalism interact with popular and public understandings of the past to produce different kinds of archaeological knowledge and practice which have historical and contemporary evidence.

This unit introduces students to the methods and theory behind the analysis and interpretation of flaked stone technology. Students will develop skills in the identification, classification and recording of stone artefacts which are valuable in consultancy and research archaeology worldwide. Topics will include the origin and development of stone technology in world prehistory, the reductive nature of artefact manufacture, identifying artefact attributes, implement typology and theoretical links between artefacts and human behaviour.

Archaeologists make increasing use of databases, whether recording evacuated material, museum collections, specialist datasets or sites on landscapes. Much archaeological data is also spatially located.
This unit of study introduces the concepts of data description, data recording, database management, data analysis and computer mapping, including the use of Geographic Information Systems for spatial and environmental analysis. Readings, exercises and other information for this course are placed on a www site. Assessment tasks are submitted electronically and students can use the Archaeological Computing Laboratory for this purpose. Students should be familiar with word-processing, spreadsheets and graphics.

Art & Experience: The European Tradition
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr L Marshall Session: Semester 1
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Assessment:
On-line quizzes (10%), one 1000 word visual assignment (35%) and one 3000 word essay (55%) Practical field work: The Art Workshop. Students undertaking the Art History and Theory First Year Program are encouraged to enrol in a practical unit of study offered at the Art Workshop in the Faculty of Architecture. Only one introductory level workshop (worth 6 junior level credit points) is permitted. For more details please consult the Art Workshop on 9351 3115.

ARHT1001 and ARHT1002 offer an introduction to the study of art history and theory as it is taught at the Senior and Honours levels in the Department. The subject matter covers a wide range of art practices and media, film, design and costume, and includes the examination of art from different cultures. In each semester unit, historical analysis will be combined with discussions of the different methodologies and approaches to the interpretation and study of these visual materials. Art and Experience: the European Tradition will focus on the history of art and architecture in Western Europe from classical antiquity to the early modern period. A key focus will be on recognising the importance of the social, cultural, political and religious purpose an object or building was designed to serve, and the range of meanings the work was intended to embody - and how these change across time.

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit will examine some of the major theoretical influences on recent approaches to the study of art and film. We will explore and assess the impact of some recent key ideas and theories through a number of case studies from different historical periods. While the unit will be situating recent approaches to art and film within the broader perspective of theoretical developments within the humanities in general, the focus will be on how these new ideas relate to the activity of visual analysis and interpretation that is specific to art and film.

This unit of study will examine the origins of Modernism in the nineteenth century and its evolution in the twentieth, focusing on Modernism between the World Wars. It will consider Dada and Surrealism's radical thrust to the 'call to order' - their invocation of the absurd, of the anarchic, of irreason, madness and desire. It will also consider the relationship between the arts and contemporary philosophical and theoretical investigation and will take into account Postmodernism's disruption of the concept of Modernism. The focus of the course will be on European modernism. Australian and American modernism are examined in other advanced options.

Note: Film Studies Core Unit. This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This course examines film/cinema as a manifestation of modernity i.e. as commodity, industry, institution and mass production of the senses (aesthetics). These concepts integral to modernity will be explored through a study of Early American cinema and the Weimar cinema of Germany in the 1920s. Detailed work will be done on the following genres, Slapstick & Melodrama (in Hollywood), and Horror/Fantasy (in Weimar cinema). While the focus will be on the aesthetics of these films, the historical and industrial context of each national cinema will form an essential background. The course will introduce a selection of major classical and contemporary film theories such as those of Sergei Eisenstein and Gilles Deleuze as well as the recent scholarship on silent film aesthetics and spectatorship within the under intellectual tradition of theorising modernity and vernacular modernisms. An emphasis will be placed on the idea of filmic performance (film as an art of movement and time) which includes camera rhetoric, editing, acting, mise-en-scene. The course will study the phenomenon of stardom through one of cinema's very first global icons, Charlie Chaplin whose work will enable us to cross the technological divide between silent and sound cinema in the last segment of the course.

Prohibitions: ARHT2053  Assessment: one essay, one film analysis, one tutorial presentation totalling 4000-4500 words

This course has three primary foci: 1. A historical study of independent cinema, or New Wave movements in post-World War II Europe, including Italian Neo- Realism, the French New Wave and New German Cinema among others. 2. The study of Gilles Deleuze's thesis about these cinematic movements and the cinematic concepts that they gave rise to as elaborated in his books, Cinema 1, Movement Image and Cinema II, The Time Image. 3. A study of the idea of Epic cinema as distinct from Dramatic cinema through a selection of films cross-culturally. In addition there will also be a selection of films of auteurs who help formulate cinematic ideas and concepts, such as for example the gothic, in innovative ways. Despite the historical component of the course it is not structured chronologically but rather, conceptually. And the main concept is that of non-chronological time. This approach will enable an exploration of cinematic invention of new images of time itself. As such it is primarily concerned with cinematic aesthetics across different film cultures and the cultural politics essential to such invention will form an essential background to the course.

<td>India: Tradition and Modernity</td>
<td>This unit explores assumptions underpinning Indian thought and culture with specific reference to Indian religious traditions. In particular, traditional notions of the individual, authenticity, and the concept of dharma will be addressed through an exploration of social and political structures, gender and the family, and forms of artistic, literary and religious expression. A key focus will be on the continuity of tradition and its interaction with modernity and the implications this has for understanding today's India.</td>

<td>India: Tradition and Modernity</td>
<td>This unit explores the historical validity of key motifs of Japanese &quot;tradition&quot;. Through the liberal use of primary sources (texts, pictorial sources and archaeological artifacts) students will gain first-hand knowledge of such diverse topics as the lives of the samurai, imperial authority, Zen monastic life, Japanese architecture, geisha, and the tea ceremony. By attempting to separate stereotype and cliché from history, we will seek to construct a more sober yet ultimately more viable narrative of early Japanese history and culture.</td>

<tr>
<td>ASNS2632</td>
<td>Modern Japanese Social History</td>
<td>This unit of study will begin with examination of social aspects of the Meiji reforms, evaluating interpretations of their aims and effects. The focus will then turn to the emergence of new social forces in the twentieth century, including industrial workers, an urban middle class and a women's movement. We will also explore changes in daily life and attitudes to work and leisure as urbanisation and industrialisation progressed and assess the effects of the Second World War and the Occupation.</td>

Samurai and Merchants: Tokugawa Japan
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Olivier Ansart Session: Semester 1 Classes: 2 hours of lectures, 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 credit points in Asian Studies, History, Economic History, Government and International Relations, and/or an Asian language. Prohibitions: ASNS2304 Assessment: Attendance and participation in tutorials (15%), tutorial writing tasks and essays (equivalent to 2500 words, 45%), 2 hour final exam (equivalent to 2000 words, 40%). Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Tokugawa Japan (1603-1868) had a complex feudal structure articulated around the shogun, the feudal lords and their samurai retainers. It also had huge cities, birthplaces of some of the first modern ways of life. The tensions between the feudal framework and the embryonic modernity of Tokugawa society make a fascinating case study in the non-Western world of what is to be modern. To do so, we shall follow a cross disciplinary approach: history, politics, sociology, economy, religion, arts and literature.

Biblical Studies 1
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Shani Berrin Session: Semester 1 Classes: Three hours per week Assessment: Exam (40%), 2000 word essay (30%), other written assignments and assessments (30%).

This unit provides an introduction to the study of the Bible including: textual, literary and structural criticism; the relevance of other academic disciplines to the study of the Bible; material from the Dead Sea Scrolls and other non-biblical texts. The first five books of the Bible are the focus of textual study in this semester. There are weekly tutorials at which students present papers.

BBCL1002
Biblical Studies 2
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Shani Berrin Session: Semester 2 Classes: Three hours per week Assessment: Exam (40%), 2000 word essay (30%), other written assignments and assessments (30%).

This unit focuses specifically on books of the Hebrew Bible such as Judges, Samuel and Kings. The course explores events of the period, the historiography of the texts, and religious and historical viewpoints conveyed. Attention will be directed to other relevant writings of the period in the Ancient Near East. There are weekly tutorials at which students present papers.

BBCL2605
Literature of Second Temple Judaism
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Shani Berrin Session: Semester 1 Classes: Three hours per week Prerequisites: BBCL1001, BBCL1002 Prohibitions: BBCL2005 Assessment: 1.5 hour exam (35%), 1600 word essay (35%), other written assignments (30%).

This unit considers a range of biblical and extra-biblical texts composed during the Second Temple period (500 BCE - 100 CE). Students will read and analyse English translations of works originally composed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek. Our critical approach to these texts will incorporate an examination of literary, historical and religious issues.
BBCL2606
Jewish Apocalyptic Literature
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Shani Berrin Session: Semester 2 Classes: 3 hours per week Prerequisites: BBCL1002 Prohibitions: BBCL2006 Assessment: 1.5 hour exam (35%), 1600 word essay (35%), other written assignments (30%).

This unit considers biblical and extra-biblical apocalyptic writings of the Second Temple period of Judaism (c 500 BCE - 100CE). Apocalyptic works are concerned with the revelation of transcendent knowledge, especially eschatology and the nature of the heavenly realm. Texts will include the Book of Daniel from the Hebrew Bible, extra-biblical works such as the Book of Enoch, and, from the Christian Scriptures, the Book of Revelation. We will examine the development of the literary form of the apocalypse, and explore how these texts express religious, socio-cultural, and historical developments of the period.

Classical Chinese A
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr D Herforth Session: Semester 1 Classes: 3 class hours per week. Prerequisites: CHNS1102 or CHNS2102 or CHNS2602 or CHNS2602H or CHNS2102 or CHNS2102 or CHNS2102H or CHNS2104 or CHNS2204 or department permission Prohibitions: HSC Chinese for Background Speakers (or equivalent) Assumed knowledge: Minimum of one year of Chinese at introductory level, preferably full-form characters. Assessment: Classwork (10%); two 30-minute tests (5% each); three 40-minute tests (20% each); cultural exploration project resulting in an essay of 1500 words (20%).

Foundation work in Classical Chinese, an ancient language that still plays a role in modern China and that often challenges Western notions of how languages behave. Students will develop a basic understanding of the grammar and vocabulary, thus equipping themselves for exploration of China’s distinctive philosophical and literary traditions in the original language. They will undertake supplementary reading in English on a topic of their choice, thus enriching their knowledge of premodern Chinese culture.

Chinese 4A (Advanced)
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr S Kong Session: Semester 1 Classes: 3 or 4 hours per week. Prerequisites: CHNS2102 or CHNS3602 or CHNS3104 Prohibitions: HSC Chinese for Background Speakers or equivalent; CHNS3223; CHNS2204 Assessment: (Subject to revision) classwork (20%); two 1-hour tests (20% each); group presentation (10%); Chinese-language writing assignments, at least one of which may be done under test conditions (30%).
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.
Advanced training in modern Chinese language, with a focus on reading. By studying a range of literary and non-literary texts, graded for difficulty, students will acquire the reading skills necessary for advanced work in Chinese Studies. They will enrich their knowledge of Chinese as a vehicle for literary expression and discussion of important issues, while developing their own skills in oral and written expression of relatively complex subject matter. They will also acquaint themselves with some major Chinese authors.

Chinese 4B (Advanced)
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr S Kong Session: Semester 2 Classes: 3 or 4 hours per week. Prerequisites: CHNS3603 or CHNS2203 Prohibitions: HSC Chinese for Background Speakers or equivalent; CHNS3224 Assessment: (Subject to revision) classwork (20%); two 1-hour tests (20% each); group presentation (10%); Chinese-language writing assignments, at least one of which may be done under test conditions (30%).
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.
Continuation of Chinese 4A (Advanced). Further training in the reading skills necessary for advanced work in Chinese Studies or professional work requiring Chinese-language literacy. Students will gain familiarity with a broader range of literary and non-literary texts reflecting the concerns of Chinese people in the modern world, while enhancing their ability to discuss complex subject matter in both spoken and written Chinese.

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Beauty, fantasy, satire, eroticism, humour, historical romance, apt character depiction, monumental scale, reflection of popular taste, appeal to refined sensibility... The numerous novels written in pre-modern China have diverse characteristics, and some are better known than others. Students will read one or more novels in the original and/or translation. Intensive study of selected chapters, read in the original, will be combined with consideration of Chinese and/or Western scholarship on the texts in question.

Textbooks
Will include readings available from the University Copy Centre and/or online.

CHNS3641
Chinese Philosophy
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr D Herforth Session: Semester 1 Classes: 2 class hours per week Prerequisites: 12 credit points of Chinese language; or 12 non-language credit points from Table A of the Table of Units of Study in the Faculty of Arts; or department permission. (Note: students who hope to attend the Chinese-language tutorials must have successfully completed one of the following: CHNS2512, CHNS2112, CHNS2904, CHNS1314). Prohibitions: CHNS3351, CHNS3451 Assumed knowledge: No knowledge of the Chinese language or of Chinese philosophy is required. Assessment: Classwork (15%); 1-hour test (25%); 20-minute oral presentation (15%); 2500-word essay (25%); additional written assignments to a total of 1500 words, at least part of which may be done under test conditions (20%).

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit offers students the opportunity to explore China's great philosophical traditions through readings of important texts either in the original or in English translation. While the coverage will be broad, there may be some focus on one or more of the following: pre-Qin philosophical diversity; Daoism and Neo-Daoism; the Song and Ming Neo-Confucian schools; Chinese political philosophy; Chinese contributions to Buddhist philosophy. Students will be expected to read relevant secondary scholarship in the areas selected for study.

Classical Chinese Fiction
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 2 Classes: 3 hours per week Prescribed texts: CHNS2612 or CHNS2112 or CHNS3114 or CHNS2904. Prohibitions: CHNS3343, CHNS3443 Assumed knowledge: Good grounding in Classical Chinese Assessment: Classwork (20%); two 40-minute tests (15% each); 2000-word essay (25%); oral presentation based on work for essay (10%); other exercises (e.g., translation) equivalent to 1000 words of essay (15%). The essay may be in Chinese (consult instructor for the required number of characters).

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

How does the lean prose of Classical Chinese express complexities of feeling or imagination? What issues does fiction in this ancient language raise about traditional Chinese society, beliefs and values? This unit of study examines samples of such fiction from one or more historical periods (e.g., pre-Tang tales of the supernatural, the chuanqi fiction of the Sui and Tang, the "strange stories" of the seventeenth-century scholar Pu Songling) in light of these questions and of modern scholarship.

Classical Mythology
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Prof Eric Csapo Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Assessment: two class tests, one 1500 word written assignment, attendance and participation

This is the junior level Classical Civilisation core unit of study. In the context of a survey of the development of myth in Greece and Rome, the unit of study examines the individual myths paying attention to their diffusion in space and time. The unit of study is not simply descriptive but looks at the relationship between myth and the culture that produced it; for example, it explores the nature of myth, its relationship with ritual and folklore, the ways in which Greek and Roman literature made use of myth. Some attention is paid to modern theory of myth as well as key modern interpretations of particular myths.

Textbooks

CLCV1802
Classical Civilisation Exchange
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1, Semester 2 Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

This unit of study explores the 'performance culture' of Classical Greece and Imperial Rome. It studies a wide range of performances - including Greek and Roman tragedy, comedy, mime, gladiatorial exhibitions and staged executions in the arena. And it adopts a wide range of approaches to analyse these performances in the terms of the original contexts of their production. It also explores the ways in which they are related to other kinds of cultural performance and self-fashioning, - religious, political and personal.

CLSS1002
Greece and Rome in Performance
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Prof Eric Csapo Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Assessment: one 2500 word essay, one 2 hour formal exam

This unit of study examines performance, ritual, art, architecture, literary form, and culture in ancient Greece and Rome and its role in defining the classical experience. It will consider the production, consumption, and meaning of choral and solo drama, as well as other forms of public performance (e.g., the role of the toga, imperial pageants, oratory), and explore the nature of the audience for these performances. We will also consider the role of performance in the writing of history and in the written and classical hermeneutics of modern times.

Cultural Studies

GCST2601
Introducing Media and Popular Culture
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1, Winter Main Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points, 12 of which must be in ANTH, ARHT, ENGL, MECC, or SCLG. Prohibitions: WMST2001 Assessment: one 2000 word in-class exam and one 2000 word take-home exam

This unit of study will introduce students to the discipline of Cultural Studies through the analysis of media and popular culture. The unit of study will draw on a range of inter-disciplinary theories in order to explore how contemporary media and popular culture is analysed within Cultural Studies, including focus on magazines, advertising, cinema and televisual genres, popular music and video, and the internet.

GCST2606
Genres in Cultural Context
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Catherine Driscoll Session: Semester 1, Summer Main Classes: one 1 hour lecture, one 1.5 hour tutorial, half an hour of online work per week Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points Assessment: participation, five online journal entries (totalling 1250 words), two 500 word short research projects, choice of final take-home exam or final 2000 word research essay

This unit introduces students to some theories of genre and to textual examples of specialised genres. Several genres will be studied; possible examples may include romance, soap opera, sci-fi, horror, the musical, music video, and reality TV. Examples will be drawn from different media and from both popular and "high" culture. Key themes will include the place of gender in genre and the role of textual conventions in structuring meaning.

GCST2608
Gender, Communities and Difference
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Linnell Secomb Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points. Prohibitions: WMST2008 Assessment: one 500 word tutorial assignment, one 1500 word essay and one 2000 word take-home exam Note: This unit is available as a designated "Advanced" unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit examines difference and diversity within community. It looks at the operation of power and at how power produces and regulates communities and identities. It questions the assumption that community is based on the unity and similarity of citizens and examines alternatives such as difference and sociality. Specific debates about the regulation of reproduction, the production of sexuality, and the provision of welfare are examined. The course is divided into 2 sections: Gender, Community and Difference; and Foucault, Power and Governance.

GCST2611
Everyday Cultures
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Natalya Lusty Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 1 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points. Prohibitions: WMST2011 Assessment: one 1000 word close-reading assignment, one 3000 word observation task and one 2000 word take-home exam, participation.

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

What does everyday culture tell us about ourselves and how might a critical reflection on the ordinary and the everyday reveal extraordinary kinds of knowledge? In examining how the concept of culture and cultural value has shifted in the wake of Raymond Williams' integrated account of culture as "a whole way of life", this course will draw on a range of theoretical concepts and methodologies employed in Cultural Studies. These critical tools will be used to investigate the ways we form meanings, stereotypes and values around particular social practices and identities.

GCST3603
Consumer Cultures
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Ruth Barcan Session: Semester 2, Winter Main Classes: three hours per week Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points, including 6 credit points in GCST. Prohibitions: WMST3003 Assessment: attendance and participation, one 3000 word essay, one 1500 word in-class test

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

From the theoretical basis of feminist cultural studies, this unit examines the ways in which identities are increasingly formed through consumption. It looks both at critiques of consumer societies and at more-optimistic theories about the different forms of identity that are promoted by consumer culture, including the forms of identity and belonging they engender. We will consider elements of both material culture (e.g. possessions) and media culture.

Cultural Theory
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Catherine Driscoll Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 1 hour lecture, one 1.5 hour tutorial and 30 minutes of online learning per week. Prerequisites: GCST2606, GCST2608, GCST2611, GCST2612, or GCST3603 Assessment: four 500 word responses to readings (15% each); choice of exam or 2000 word research essay (25%); participation in class and online

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Cultural Studies was widely discussed as one of the "New Humanities" in the 1990s, but a long history of debates about and theories of culture precede the discipline, and the processes of deciding what are the key texts and concepts of Cultural Studies is ongoing. This unit overviews the most frequently most frequently referenced critical and theoretical texts of the Cultural Studies "canon". Students will also consider in detail the place of Cultural Studies in the humanities and debates over its institutionalisation.

Classes: One 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week.
Prerequisites: 18 junior credit points
Prohibitions: ARIN3000
Assessment: One 1500 word review essay, one 1000 word online project, one 2000 word research essay and class participation.
Note: Available to students enrolled in the BA (Digital Technology and Culture) and BA.

Technocultures explores how technology and culture are bound together in increasingly complex ways. Information and communication technologies in particular are contributing to widespread reconfigurations of writing, sociality, politics, aesthetics, perception, memory and thought itself. Drawing on recent critical theory and cultural research, this unit offers ways to unravel the complex interplay between humans and technologies.

Digital Cultures Internship
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr C Crowe Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
2 Prerequisites: ARIN1000 and either ISYS1003 or INFO1000 or INFO1003. 36 senior credit points of ARIN and ISYS/INFO Corequisites: ARIN3670 Students will usually not enrol in ARIN3670 until the second semester of their 3rd year. Prohibitions: Enrolment is subject to approval by the Director of the BA (Digital Technology and Culture) program and locating an appropriate match between student and organisation. Assessment: Students must satisfy the requirements of an internship contract with their workplace, including attendance and performance, as evaluated through a workplace supervisor report. Students will also be required to keep an online journal during the duration of the internship. The internship and journal are assessed on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis.
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

The internship consists of a work placement comprising a minimum of 20 working days in an appropriate organisation, assisted and supervised by both the workplace and staff from the Digital Technology and Culture Program. Placements may include arts and cultural organisations and information and communication technology organisations. Students will be required to keep an online journal documenting and analysing their experiences during the internship. In consultation with their supervisor, students will formulate a topic for their research essay for the co-requisite unit ARIN3670 Digital Cultures Internship Project.

ENGL1000
Academic Writing
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr R Johinke (Sem 1 2007); Dr S Thomas (Sem 2 2007) Session: Semester 1, Semester 2, Summer Main, Winter Main
Classes: One 1 hour lecture and one 2 hour workshop per week
Prerequisites: This unit is available to all enrolled students and will count for credit across all faculties. There are no specific pre-requisites, co-requisites or prohibitions, but students are expected to have native or near native competence in written English. Students not meeting this requirement should enrol in appropriate remedial English courses before undertaking ENGL1000. ENGL1000 cannot be counted towards the junior credit points required to enrol in senior units of English, though it can be counted as an elective in most degree programs. Assessment: One 750 word annotated bibliography, one 1500 word essay, one 1000 word critical reading task, one oral presentation and a weekly journal

Academic Writing is designed to improve student writing at all undergraduate levels in a variety of formats across a range of disciplines. Lectures and workshops are organized around readings about rhetoric and its aims, films that illustrate the arts of rhetoric at work and exercises in writing, critical analysis and editing. Students are presented with examples of ‘real’ student writing and taught to differentiate between effective and ineffective approaches.

ENGL1002
Narratives of Romance and Adventure
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr L Semler Session: Semester 2
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Assessment: One essay, end of semester exam, assignment, oral presentation and tutorial participation

This unit explores the art of narrative from Greek and Roman antiquity to the present. What makes Homer’s Odyssey and Ovid’s Metamorphoses defining texts for the history of narrative? Why are the early masters of English narrative so compelling? How does a film like O Brother, Where Art Thou? fit in? Issues of particular relevance include the nature of epic, myth and satire; the unfolding of adventure and gender relations; the history of Britain; and the nature of humankind.

Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr N Rieter Session: Semester 2 Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Assessment: Two 500 word assignments, one 2000 word essay and one 1.5 hour exam

This course equips students with some general tools for the close analysis of literary language. Grammatical concepts will be introduced and applied to the description of prose, poetry and drama, and students will explore the changing relations between form and meaning in English from the earliest times up to the present. A number of key strands in contemporary linguistic study will also be presented, including semiotic theory, rhetoric and discourse studies and theorizations of the relationship between texts and subjectivity.

Fiction, Film and Power
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr S Matthesch Session: Semester 1 Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Assessment: Two 1500 word essays, one oral presentation and one 1 hour exam

A fundamental feature of the modern world is the predominance of media and communication technologies over older, and increasingly anachronistic, "book" cultures. This course looks at the consequences of such a shift for our sense of identity and place by focusing on translations from text to film. A principal theme will be the relations between narrative form and visual experience, with an eye always on the social contexts in which images become a form and source of power. The course will also serve as an introduction to the critical vocabulary used to understand late modern society.

ENGL2600
Anglo-Saxon Norse and Celtic Studies
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr D Anlezark Session: Semester 1 Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points of English excluding ENGL1000 Assessment: One 2500 word essay, one 1500 word tutorial performance and one 2 hour exam

This unit of study gives students the opportunity to study three closely related cultures of North-West Europe from the Early Middle Ages. These are: the cultures of the Anglo-Saxons, who migrated to England from Northern Europe; the Norse (or Scandinavians), who had a major impact on the rest of Europe in the Viking Age; and the Celtic peoples of Continental Europe and the British Isles (the Irish and the Welsh will be our focus here). Two lecture hours per week will discuss the history of the Anglo-Saxons, the Celts and the Norse; their writing systems, the extent of the written corpus of all three cultures; society and the law; and the character of Anglo-Saxon, Norse and Celtic literatures studied in translation. The third hour will be a tutorial. Each student will choose to study one of the following three languages at elementary level: Old English (Anglo-Saxon); Old Norse (Old Icelandic) and Old Irish. Students' understanding of the language strand will be examined at the end of semester. The teaching of Celtic language will depend on the availability of staff. For information, check with the unit of study coordinator. Students not otherwise qualified to enrol in Special Entry units, but who wish to continue their study of the language they have chosen in this unit of study, and have obtained a Credit or better in Anglo-Saxon, Norse and Celtic Studies, may apply to the Professor of English Language and Early English Literature for permission to continue the study of their chosen language in either ENGL3621 (Studies in Medieval Languages A, Semester 1) or ENGL3631 (Further Studies in Medieval Languages A, Semester 2).

The Shining (dir. Kubrick)

Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points of English excluding ENGL1000
Prohibitions: ENGL2013
Assessment: One in-class presentation, one 1500 word assignment, and one 2000 word research project.

This unit surveys a range of forms and genres of political writing, and offers three in-depth modules on c19th and c20th political culture. Our study of the ‘Scramble for Africa’ (1885-1902), the ‘Popular Front’ (1934-1941), and the ‘Cold War’ (1950-1988) will allow students to navigate their own pathways through a variety of politicised literary forms. You will be encouraged to contest official images of these periods, and to use texts to show how history, literature and political imaginaries are indissolubly linked.

Session: Semester 1 Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week.
Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points of English excluding ENGL1000
Prohibitions: ENGL2035
Assessment: One 15 minute presentation and tutorial mark (20%), one 1500 word essay (30%) and one 2 hour exam (50%)

Looking at cinematic, written, and hypermedia texts of the last decade, this unit asks these questions: how were "dark places" and pathologies imagined and equilibrated in popular and literary imaginaries? In an era of bust and boom, and in the "wake" of postmodernism, how do texts track their own fortunes and investments? What happens to the written text in the age of hypermedia? In short, this unit of study asks students to speculate: Whose stocks are up? Whose down?

Modern Rhetoric
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr S Thomas Session: Semester 2
Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points of English excluding ENGL1000
Prohibitions: ENGL2052
Assessment: Two 2000 word essays and tutorial participation. Note: May be cross listed to a major in Linguistics

This unit will introduce students to both the theory of rhetoric: the study of human communication, and the practice of rhetoric: the use of language, signs and silence to convey a particular message. It will trace the development of modern theories from classical and later ideas about rhetoric, and teach students to analyse and improve their own written and spoken communication. Students will learn to pay close attention to language, context, and audience. They will develop skills in analysis, interpretation and composition that apply to academic and professional communication as well as literary study.

This unit will explore the effects of the film medium on the existing cultural technologies of literature in the first half of the twentieth century. We will ask how technical possibilities only partially explored by their native medium were transmitted freely into others: poetry, prose, theatre. Blending film history with literary history, and ranging both alongside pivotal works in the cultural theory of modernism, the unit will equip students with an inter-media perspective on cultural change and transposition.

This unit examines some key historical and theoretical topics in the semiotics of language. We begin with an investigation into the structuralist legacy, concentrating on exegetical and theoretical questions raised by Saussurean value and difference. We then discuss analyses of lexical polysemy and alternatives to the Saussurean paradigm provided in the Humboldtian and Soviet traditions and in Relevance Theory. The course ends by assessing the desirability and difficulties of accommodating emotion in theories of linguistic signification.

How has English developed from several local dialects in fifth-century Britain to a global language? How have speakers and writers compelled and exploited its development? How distinct are Old, Middle, and Modern English? Why do we regard certain texts as literary, and some among them canonical? How do we describe and value them in terms of their historical derivation, their verbal constitution, and our own circumstances? How different were and are the canons of Old, Middle, and Modern English literature?

Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Bronwyn Winter
Session: Semester 2
Classes: 2 hours per week
Prerequisites: FRNC1302 or FRNC1632 or FRNC2502 or FRNC2615 or equivalent
Assessment: Class presentation in French (equivalent to 2000 words in English), essay in French (equivalent to 4000 words in English).

This unit will present 2 classic Caribbean ‘rewritings’, one Maryse Condé’s Guadeloupean version of Emily Brontë’s fiction classic Wuthering Heights, the other Martiniquan writer Aimé Césaire’s theatrical rendering of the true story of Christophe, hero of the Haitian struggle for independence at the turn of the nineteenth century, who then proclaimed himself king. Through the study of these two works by two of the French Antilles’ best known authors, students will gain some insight into the history of contemporary issues faced by the Antilles and Haiti, as well as into some of the premises of so-called “postcolonial theory”. Questions of literary and theatrical “style” within a Francophone “colonial” or “postcolonial” context, as well as the particular situation of women and the construction of créolisation, métissage and africantité within these contexts, will also be explored.

Suffragettes to Cyborgs
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Fiona Probyn-Rapsey
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one tutorial per week on one 2000 word essay and one 2500 word essay

In this unit of study, recent debates within feminist theory will be introduced. By the end of the unit of study, students will have a clear grounding in the fundamental concepts within feminist social, political and cultural theory. The course is divided into three blocks. First we explore debates about equality and difference, between women and men, and between women themselves in relation to class, race and ethnicity. Second, debates about power and discourse are introduced with a particular focus on how these concepts are conceived within feminist, postmodernist and poststructuralist theory. Finally, in a block on sex, gender and embodiment, we look at the distinction between sex and gender and at recent feminist theories of embodiment which question the sex/gender opposition.

Sex, Violence and Transgression
Credit points: 18
Session: Semester 2, Summer Main
Classes: one 1 hour lecture, one 1.5 hour tutorial and half an hour of online work/learning per week
Prohibitions: 16 Junior credit points
Assessment: one 2000 word case study, one 2000 word take-home exam, online participation
Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Violence is one of the most prevalent themes in popular culture and public discourse today. It shapes our lives in all sorts of ways, both real and imagined. Incorporating concepts and theoretical tools from gender and cultural studies, this course will examine the construction and representation of violence in relation to sexuality, transgression, difference and power.

GCST2609
Cultures of Masculinities
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Michael Moller
Session: Semester 1, Summer Main
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week

160
Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points
Prohibitions: WMST2009
Assessment: one 1500 word essay and one 3000 word essay
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

What do men want? From a traditional focus on femininity in gender studies, it is increasingly clear that masculinity has undergone tremendous changes in the last several decades. From a perspective of gender and cultural studies, this unit examines the economic, social and cultural contexts in which masculinity is lived. We will consider different case studies focused on the changing representation of men in contemporary culture. These will include aspects of style and consumption, roles within workplaces, and in domestic practices.

GCST2610
Intimacy, Love and Friendship
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Linnell Secomb
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points.
Prohibitions: WMST2010
Assessment: one 500 word tutorial paper, one 1500 word essay and one 2000 word essay
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit examines the representation and practices of intimate relationships focusing especially on the intersection between intimacy and the constructions of gender. Divided into three sections, the unit will examine theories of love and friendship, contemporary cultural representations of love, desire and friendship (especially in film and literature), and the ethics and politics of erotics. It will question the division between erotic love and Platonic love, examine the new technologies of erotics, and discuss the implications for gender and sexuality.

Gender, Race and Australian Identities
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Catherine Driscoll
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points, including 6 credit points in GCST
Prohibitions: WMST3001
Assessment: one 2500 word research journal and one 2500 word research essay
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

In this unit we explore the interconnections between gender and race in Australian culture and history. We focus on particular case studies, some historical, some contemporary: the so-called "White Australia policy"; women and the Hindmarsh Island affair; Pauline Hanson and One Nation; sex tourism; the "stolen generations"; citizenship, nationalism and multiculturalism. Throughout the course, the history and present of Australian feminism and its relations with questions of race and ethnicity are foregrounded. A major aim of the course is to introduce students to recent feminist postcolonial theorists.

Consumer Cultures
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Ruth Barcan
Session: Semester 2, Winter Main
Classes: three hours per week
Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points, including 6 credit points in GCST
Prohibitions: WMST3003
Assessment: attendance and participation, one 3000 word essay, one 1500 word in-class test
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

From the theoretical basis of feminist cultural studies, this unit examines the ways in which identities are increasingly formed through consumption. It looks both at critiques of consumer societies and at more optimistic theories about the different forms of life that are promoted by consumer culture, including the forms of identity and belonging they engender. We will consider elements of both material culture (e.g. possessions) and media culture.

GCST3604
Cultural Theory
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Catherine Driscoll
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 1 hour lecture, one 1.5 hour tutorial and 30 minutes of online learning per week
Prerequisites: GCST2606, GCST2608, GCST2611, GCST2612, or GCST3603
Assessment: four 500 word responses to readings (15% each); choice of exam or 2000 word research essay (25%); participation in class and online
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Cultural Studies was widely discussed as one of the "New Humanities" in the 1990s, but a long history of debates about and theories of culture precede the discipline, and the processes of deciding what are the key texts and concepts of Cultural Studies is ongoing. This unit overviews the most frequently most frequently referenced critical and theoretical texts of the Cultural Studies "canon". Students will also consider in detail the place of Cultural Studies in the humanities and debates over its institutionalisation.

Credit points: 6
Session: Semester 1
Classes: two 1 hour lectures, one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prohibitions: GRKA1101
Assessment: one 2 hour exam, classwork and weekly assignments

Greek 1.1 requires no previous knowledge of Greek. The aim of this unit is to provide students with a basic knowledge of Classical Greek. It caters for a wide variety of students, ranging from those who intend to subsequently to proceed with Greek, to those who wish to have a background to their studies in which a knowledge of Greek is valuable or indispensable - for example, Ancient History, Archaeology, Modern Greek and Philosophy.

This Unit provides an introduction to selected fundamental aspects of European history in the High Middle Ages, including Western contacts with the Muslim and Byzantine worlds and the further worlds of Eurasia and Africa. At home the Unit focuses on the development of feudal society and feudal monarchies; the evolution of the Church and of heretical movements, the growth of the economy and development of urban society and a bourgeois ethic, changing attitudes towards wealth and the creation of it, technological innovation in agriculture, industry and transportation; intellectual life and the emergence of universities; the crisis of aristocracy in the fourteenth century; and the impact of climatic change and the Black Death. Abroad it examines the expansion of Western Europe into Muslim Spain and Sicily, Byzantine Italy, and Slavic Eastern Europe; the expansion of intellectual horizons as a result, contacts with Muslims and Mongols, European discovery of China, India and North Africa; ending with the exploration of the Atlantic. Students have the opportunity to develop an understanding of how the European economy and society evolved during the High Middle Ages to the point that by ca. 1400 Western Europe was poised to begin its assault on the rest of the world. Tutorials examine primary source materials and students have the opportunity to develop understanding of the contexts in which they were created and the purposes for which they were created, as well as the skills necessary to comprehend them and to use them and to use them to support the writing of history.

This unit traces the history of public and private life through the examination of the political and social events which have shaped the twentieth century. In particular, the focus is on the daily lives of those who experienced these events. Using a variety of sources from oral history, first person accounts and literary works, as well as new historical interpretations, students will examine the ways in which ordinary people have attempted to respond to the changing world around them.

HSTY1045 Modern European History 1750-1914 Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Prof Robert Aldrich Session: Semester 1 Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Assessment: various pieces of written work totalling 4500 words

This unit covers the dramatic changes in European life that marked the transition from pre-modern to modern societies. We will see that these changes emancipated many Europeans from legal and physical burdens while creating many new ones of their own. The catastrophes of the twentieth century have their roots in the period we examine, a period that culminated in the First World War and the spectacular explosion of the ideals of material and moral progress that had animated bourgeois elites. In particular, we discuss the transformations that took place in the key areas of human activity: politics and ideology; family and sexual life; work and technology; religious belief; experiences of colonialism; and social class.

HSTY1076 American History from Lincoln to Clinton Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Stephen Robertson Session: Semester 1 Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prohibitions: HSTY1035 Assessment: one 500 word tutorial paper, one 1750 word essay, one group tutorial presentation (equivalent to 250 words), and one 2 hour exam
This unit examines the United States in the years in which Americans felt their society, culture, politics, and individual and national identities, were taking new, 'modern' forms. It offers insights into a nation that is one of the principal forces shaping the world in which we live. We will explore topics such as the rise and fall of racial segregation, immigration, social reform movements, mass consumer culture, sexual revolution, and the changing stance of the United States in the world.

Australian History: An Introduction
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Penny Russell Session: Semester 2 Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Assessment: one 500 word document exercise, one 2000 word essay and one 2 hour exam

Between 1880 and 1940, Australia's transformation from disparate colonies to self-conscious nation was marked by battles over land, law and labour, waged on remote frontiers and in populous cities. But it was also formed out of unities of blood, race and loyalty. Traces of a contested history lie all around us: in the transformed environment, cultural heritage, museums and memorials, libraries and archives. This unit examines those sources to discover the ways past Australians imagined their identity, in crises and in everyday life.

In 13th-century Karakorum, capital of the Mongol empire, a debate was held between Christians, Muslims and Buddhists. Starting from this, we will examine religious change as cultural change thematically and comparatively with reference to Medieval European Christianity, Islam and Chinese Buddhism. This unique unit is for religious, indifferent and anti-religious people. It involves discussion of processes of acculturation and the interplay between religious and other aspects of cultural 'conversion', including language and art.

Popular Culture in Australia 1880-1930
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Mr Richard White Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 credit points of Junior History Prohibitions: HSTY2004 Assessment: one 3000 word essay and either one 1500 word tutorial paper or one 1.5 hour exam

Between 1880 and 1930, a modern culture emerged from a collection of disparate colonies and people. Focusing on everyday life and new forms of popular culture, this unit follows the threads of modernity, gender and nationalism through this formative half-century. Popular stereotypes of Australian men and women evolved from society's engagement with new notions of time and space, urban and rural culture, modernism high and low, changing sexual and family politics, and all the seductive attractions of modern life.

This unit offers a critical understanding of the processes of colonisation in Australia, and of the national history that has been built on them. This unit considers the economic, social and cultural impact of colonisation on both the white settlers and the indigenous population. It probes the aspirations of early Australian colonists and through a focus on historic moments of struggle - over democracy, gold, labour - it considers conflict and the contested aims of colonisation within the emerging society.

Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr John Wong Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points of History, Ancient History, Economic History or Asian History and Culture. Prohibitions: HSTY2021 Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2000 word take-home exam

The 'Greater China' concept emerged as a result of China's opening itself in 1978, resulting in close co-operation among the Chinese living in the so-called four parts of China (the mainland China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macao) and abroad. The initiation of chartered flights directly across the Taiwan Strait in February 2005 was counterweighted by the USA-Japan Joint Strategic Statement so reminiscent of 'The Coming Conflict with China'. This unit analyses the past and probes the future of a Greater China.

Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Penny Russell, Dr Frances Clarke Session: Semester 1, Summer Late Classes: two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 credit points of History, Ancient History, or Asian Studies Prohibitions: HSTY2029 Assessment: one 1500 word essay and one 3000 word research paper

What makes a scandal? This unit examines a number of sensational case studies from England, America and Australia, beginning with the outrage surrounding Marie-Antoinette and then weaving through the increasingly strait-laced nineteenth century, in which scandals abounded, destroying reputations, rulers and families. It is not behaviour itself, but the ever-changing interpretations of behaviour that gave rise to condemnation and scandalised indignation. Examining occasions when social rules have been flouted allows us to consider the ways in which such rules are themselves constituted, maintained and challenged.

Prohibitions: HSTY2050 Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2 hour exam

The focus of this unit is upon the first period of European 'expansion'. The central theme is the ideologies of European expansion. What justification did the Spanish, French, English and Portuguese use for the appropriation of other peoples' lands? (This is the period which sees the emergence of the argument of terra nullius - more recently central to Australian disputes over land rights). Was colonialism supremely self-confident or did the colonisers harbour doubts about the legitimacy of their actions?

Spanish Civil War
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Judith Keene Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 credit points of Junior History, Ancient History, Asian Studies
The Spanish civil war (1936-1939) was a critical event in modern Spanish history and in international relations. The conflict in Spain elicited an enormous response from intellectuals and activists of the Left and Right around the world. As well, some hundred thousand foreigners enlisted in Spain, most with the Republican International Brigades in what, politically and militarily, was the curtain-raiser to World War Two. This unit enables students to study this important and fascinating twentieth-century event in depth.

Genocide in Historical Perspective

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Dirk Moses
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 credit points of junior History, Ancient History or Asian Studies
Prohibitions: HSTY2052
Assessment: two 1750 word essays and one 1 hour exam

In this unit we aim to come to an historical understanding of genocide in the modern era, that is, in approximately the last 250 years. We do so in a chronological, i.e. historical manner, and thereby seek not only to compare genocides, but determine how they may be related to one another. This unit begins by exploring the concept of genocide and concludes with post-1945 attempts to prevent it, as well as to prosecute its perpetrators under international law.

A House Divided: The American Civil War

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Frances Clarke
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 credit points of junior History, Ancient History, Economic, or Asian History and Culture
Prohibitions: HSTY2056
Assessment: one 500 word proposal, one 2500 word research essay, one 2 hour exam

The Civil War had momentous consequences for America – realigning the nation’s political culture, ending slavery and forever transforming millions of lives. This unit analyses the social, cultural and political history of the Civil War and Reconstruction. We begin by looking at combat experience, civilian mobilization and state formation, the war’s effects on gender and race relations and the causes for Reconstruction’s failure, and we end by focusing on how and why this war continues to resonate in American culture.

Nationalism

Credit points: 6
Session: Semester 1, Summer Late
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 credit points of junior History, Ancient History or Asian Studies
Prohibitions: HSTY2059
Assessment: one oral tutorial presentation, participation, one 2500 word essay, one 2 hour exam

This unit analyses theories of nationalism, historical episodes of nationalism and cultural representations of nationalism. It introduces various approaches to the study of nationalism and provides an overview of the development of nationalism, particularly in nineteenth- and twentieth-century Europe. Contemporary episodes of nationalism, in Europe and elsewhere, are then studied. The unit also examines nationalism in art, literature and popular culture.

This unit examines Germany and its neighbours, 911-1272 A.D., from its rise out of Carolingian Europe into the Medieval ‘Great Power’ until the fall of the ambitious and frustrated Hohenstaufen Dynasty left a disunited Germany and what ultimately became 'neither holy, nor Roman, nor an empire'. Included are Germany's prominent early medieval women and later mystic and composer Hildegard of Bingen; relationships with Italy, the Papacy and Eastern Europe; beautiful Ottonian art; brilliant literary development of Germanic and Arthurian legend.

HSTY2691 Writing History
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Nicholas Eckstein
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 1 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 credit points of junior History, Ancient History, Economic History or Asian History and Culture. Prohibitions: HSTY2901, ANHS2691
Assessment: one 1500 word book or journal review, one 1500 word reflective essay, one 3000 word diary
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Writing History offers students an introduction to the way in which historians have constructed their stories of the past. Students become familiar with a wide range of approaches to history, historical debates, and with the processes of historical research and publication. We discuss social theories (e.g. Marxism, feminism, structuralism, post-structuralism) and approaches to the writing of history.

Assessment: one 500 word proposal and one 5500 word essay
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit attempts an overview of the history of travel, working around the historical development of a distinction between 'traveller' and 'tourist'. Our route follows travellers from ancient times through medieval pilgrimage and the Grand Tour to the development of mass tourism. It then examines the development of the contemporary industry in Australia, America, Europe and the relationship between tourism and imperialism in the 'Third World'. The unit ends with considerations of postmodern travel experiences in Disneyland and cyberspace.

HSTY3612 Sydney: An Autobiography
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Mr Richard White
Session: Semester 2, Winter Main
Classes: one 2 hour seminar per week (and 1 hour travel time in some weeks)
Prerequisites: 24 Senior credit points in History
Assessment: one 500 word research exercise and 5500 word research essay

How does a city write its own history? This unit gives students the opportunity to research and write the history of the city they live in. Focusing on the period 1870-1940, which produced suburbs, railways, major churches and cultural institutions, beach culture, Harbour Bridge, Luna Park and high-rise buildings, the unit emphasises research skills. A number of seminars will be held off campus, in libraries, archives and on field trips (students should allow for travelling time in their timetables).

HSTY3640 Film in Black and White
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Clare Corbould
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour seminar per week
Prerequisites: 24 senior credit points of History
Assessment: one 6000 word essay (90%), Seminar participation (10%)
Note: This unit examines African-American filmmaking and African-American filmmakers. We will also explore the relationship between ideas about race - examined in a transnational context - and American film. In this seminar unit students will undertake one serious research essay, on a topic of their own devising, studying an aspect of one or more of these areas.

HSTY3651 Writing Place: Land & Memory in History
Credit points: 6
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Prerequisites: 24 Senior credit points of History
Assessment: one 4500 word research essay and one 1500 word seminar paper
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

What is sense of place? This seminar looks at the ways a history of place is inscribed into our imaginations. It asks how human society in the past has related to place and space. It examines contested places, places that are sacred, places that speak to an individual's identity and to the national imagination. Seminars will cover the relationship between the wilderness and the city, between rural places and urban places and between the land and the sea.

HSTY3670 Problems and Sources in British History
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Chris Hilliard
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Prerequisites: 24 Senior credit points in History
Assessment: 5-6000 words of written work (90%) and class participation (10%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit examines a number of problems in British cultural history from the late nineteenth-century onwards. Topics studied may include the role of empire in 'domestic' British cultural life; responses to mass communication and new media; and the status and significance of 'high culture' in the twentieth century. The unit also introduces students to the extraordinarily rich Mass-Observation Archive in Fisher Library.

HSTY3671 American Utopias
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Frances Clarke
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Prerequisites: 24 Senior credit points in History
Assessment: one 5500 word research paper (85%), one 500 word proposal (5%), participation (10%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

The advent of industrial capitalism ushered in new forms of oppression as well as new visions for perfecting society and the individual. In this unit we explore the utopian experiments and ideas that abounded in nineteenth and early twentieth century America, focusing on the contexts that helped to generate radical imaginings, the transatlantic currents that often shaped them, and the forces that constrained their realisation.
Most scholars agree that the origins of modernity can be found in the Victorian era. Yet where the historiography of the period once drew a straight line from repression to enlightenment, recent scholarship concentrating on the varied strands of nineteenth-century popular culture offers far more complex readings of the period. This unit analyses cultural histories that deal with the strange side of nineteenth-century life - from phrenology to spiritualism - in order to reassess Victorianism and, in turn, the basis of modernity.

Race, Empire and Bondage
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Kirsten McKenzie
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour seminar per week
Prerequisites: 24 senior credit points of History
Assessment: one 1000 word seminar paper, one 500 word word proposal, one 4500 word research paper
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Using case studies of Australia, South Africa and the Caribbean, this course takes a transitional approach to the history of unfree labour in the British Empire from the late eighteenth to the middle of the nineteenth century. We will also pursue the related debates over race, class, gender and sexuality convulsing the British Empire (including India) more generally during this period. These themes will be analysed in the light of the historiographical developments of the new cultural history of empire.

Prerequisites: 24 senior credit points in History
Prohibitions: HSTY3086
Assessment: one 6000 word essay

This unit will focus on the so-called 'Confucian societies': China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Singapore and Vietnam. It is said that Confucian ethics, values, attitudes and the like contribute to the neo-authoritarianism of these societies. Nonetheless these societies are slowly democratising their polities. Australia has decided that its future lies in Asia. It is important, therefore, that Australian students acquire a good understanding of the process of democratisation occurring in the Confucian societies of Asia.

International and Comparative Literary Studies
ICLS2633
Cities of the World
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1 Classes: 1 hour lecture and 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 credit points at Junior level from any department in the Faculty of Arts from Part A, of which 12 credit points are from one subject; or special permission by the Director of International Comparative Literary Studies Assessment: Attendance and participation (10%), class presentation (equivalent to 1000 words, 10%), two 2500 word essays (40% + 40%).

The ‘city’ is a diverse and controversial theme in world literature. It touches upon past and present, alienation and fulfillment, luxury and poverty, success and failure, anonymity and fame. There are modern and old cities, cosmopolitan and ‘holy’ cities. By examining how the cultural and historical transformation of urban living has been approached by writers of different cultural and national backgrounds, this unit of study offers a journey to different geographic locations but also a journey through time.

Literature and Revolution
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1 Classes: 1 hour lecture and 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 credit points at Junior level from any department in the Faculty of Arts from Part A, of which 12 credit points are from one subject; or special permission by the Director of International Comparative Literary Studies Assessment: Attendance and participation (10%), class presentation (equivalent to 1000 words, 10%), two 2500 word essays (40% + 40%).

This unit surveys the connection between literature and revolution by investigating the ways in which literary texts and movements across the world have influenced radical responses to the status quo, questioning, and provoking a re-conceptualisation of prevailing values and traditions. But how and when do literary experiments become revolutionary? Are they the same in different cultures? Could a pattern of synergies connecting literary with political and social revolutions emerge from a historical as well as cross-cultural investigation?

Science Fiction: The Future is Now
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 2 Classes: 1 hour lecture and 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 credit points at Junior level from any department in the Faculty of Arts from Part A, of which 12 credit points are from one subject; or special permission by the Director of International Comparative Literary Studies Assessment: Attendance and participation (10%), class presentation (equivalent to 1000 words, 10%), two 2500 word essays (40% + 40%).

Science Fiction is one of the most interesting explorations of human future. Yet it addresses a number of social, political and existential issues that refer to the present: dilemmas, phobias and hopes of a world traumatised by war, disease and internal contradictions. Through the comparative study of novels and movies, this unit explores how the future, from a promised land of a great utopia, has become the dreadful exile into a dark dystopia.

How did the religion and history of the Jewish people change from the Second Temple to the rabbinic period? Explore the history and religion of the Jews during the watershed period in Palestine under Roman rule. Study the Hellenist influence on Judaism, the development of different sects, including the Dead Sea sect, and the establishment of Jewish communities in the Netherlands and England under Christian rule in Germany, France and England in the Medieval period, including the problems of Christian antisemitism and the Crusades. These are seminal periods in the development of Jewish thought, with the contribution of great commentators and philosophers including Moses Maimonides.

Session: Semester 1
Classes: four 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prohibitions: LATN1101
Assessment: one 2 hour exam, and assignments and tests (equivalent to 2000 words)

Latin 1001 requires no previous knowledge of Latin. Normally students who have completed the HSC (or equivalent) in Latin are not admitted. The aim of Latin 1001 is to provide students with a basic knowledge of the language. It caters for a wide variety of students, ranging from those who intend subsequently to proceed with Latin, to those who wish to have a background to their studies in other subjects in which a knowledge of Latin is valuable or indispensable - for example ancient history, classical archaeology, English, modern foreign languages, medieval literature, philosophy and history. Intending Honours
Students: Latin1001-1002 students who are thinking of taking Honours in Latin should consult the Department during the year.

Textbooks
‘Latine Discamus’ available for purchase at the first lecture. A small or medium-sized Latin dictionary is recommended too.

Accelerated Latin 2.1
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Lindsay Watson Session: Semester 1 Classes: three 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 junior credit points including 12 credit points in Archaeology, Classical Civilisation / Studies, Classical Greek, Ancient History or Philosophy, or by permission. Prohibitions: LATN1001, LATN2301 Assessment: one 2 hour exam, assignments and tests (equivalent to 2000 words)

This unit is designed to allow students specialising in areas such as Ancient History to accelerate their knowledge of basic Latin at Senior level. No previous knowledge of Latin or other foreign languages is assumed, and all grammatical concepts encountered will be explained. The aim of the unit is to introduce the student to the basics of the Latin language and to Roman literature.

LATN2612
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Patricia Watson Session: Semester 2 Classes: four 1 hour lectures per week Prerequisites: LATN2302 or LATN2611 Prohibitions: LATN1002, LATN2302 Assessment: one 3 hour exam, exercises and assignments (equivalent to 2000 words)

This unit follows on from LATN2611. It builds on the basic knowledge already acquired and introduces further acquaintance along the way with most of the basic subordinate clause types and constructions. Increasing emphasis is placed on reading simple prose and verse texts. The specific goal of the unit is to accelerate the grasp of the basic tools for further study of the Latin language and Roman Literature and to improve skills in reading and writing Latin.

Structure of Language
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Prof W Foley Session: Semester 1 Classes: Two 1 hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prohibitions: LNGS1004, LNGS1005 Assessment: Ten short problem based assignments, each about 150 words, for a total of 1500 words; one 1 hour mid-term exam (equivalent to 1000 words); one 2 hour formal final examination (equivalent to 2000 words)

This unit is a comparative look at the general structure of human language. It looks at the sounds of human language: how the speech organs make them and their variety, in particular, a detailed description of English consonants and vowels and how to transcribe them. It investigates what is a possible word in English and other languages. It looks at the way speakers put words together to form sentences and how and why is English different from Japanese or even Irish.

Classes: One 1 hour lecture and one 1 hour seminar and one 1 hour optional tutorial per week. Prohibitions: LNGS1001, LNGS1004 Assessment: One 1 hour exam, various written assignments and one essay

This unit looks at the structure of English from the point of view of modern linguistics and focusses on written and spoken academic English. It will be especially valuable to non-native speakers of English in giving them an overview of how and why English works the way it does. Topics covered include: English vocabulary, phonetics; intonation; word types; count and mass nouns; verb types and sentence structures; auxiliary verbs and tense and mood; voice; topicality and information structure. Knowledge about the structure of English will be used to improve students’ writing skills in collaboration with the Learning Centre.

The material studied in this course covers phonetic processes that occur in the languages and how they constrain the sound structure of languages. We discuss how the vocal tract works in speech production and learn the phonetic alphabet while looking at a cross linguistic survey of speech sounds as well as basic acoustic phonetics and spectrogram reading. We then turn to phonological analysis and argument and learn how phonological systems are structured and what common patterns of alternation and change are found.

Syntax deals with how we combine words into phrases, clauses and sentences and how we understand these combinations. Syntax is almost purely internal to language and plays a major role in organising the language system. We look at syntactic concepts in English, languages of Europe and Asia, and those of small traditional communities around the world. Using a problem solving approach, we develop explicit models to describe syntactic phenomena that allow generalisations leading to testable predictions about possible structures.

Functional Grammar
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Prof J R Martin Session: Semester 1

Prerequisites: One of ENGL1000, ENGL1005, ENGL2619, ENGL2647,

Assessment: Four 500 word term assignments and one 2 1/2 hour exam

This unit takes a functional view of grammar, considering the ways in which English is organised to build up our picture of reality, to enable us to interact in conversation and to make our contribution coherent and relevant. It is designed to give students analysis skills in the analysis of ideational, interpersonal and textual meaning in the clause, the nature of inter-clausal relations, and the structure of nominal, verbal and adverbial groups and prepositional phrases.

Assessment: Four 500 word term assignments and one 2500 word essay

This unit of study provides an introduction to discourse analysis, which is concerned with the way in which texts are organised in relation to their social context. In linguistics, the term ‘discourse’ covers both a) the organisation of linguistic units above the sentence level (cohesion), and b) language in use or context (register and genre). The course will include analysis of texts combining language with image, from the perspective of critical discourse analysis.

Historical Linguistics
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr I Smith Session: Semester 1
Classes: One 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: LNGS2001 Assessment: Problem sets and two in-class exams totalling 6000 words

This unit looks at the mechanisms of change within a particular language as well as across groups of related languages. This raises the question of how languages can be related: whether through sharing a common ancestor; by being in contact for a long time or by being consciously planned. In each instance we must either rely on knowledge we can gain from languages still in use or on records of extinct languages or earlier stages of existing languages. Because the records are often sparse it becomes necessary to reconstruct earlier stages and the unit provides the tools for undertaking a reconstruction. Once we reconstruct a common ancestor language we are then able to make inferences about the culture of the people who spoke it as well as where they lived and how they moved about.
Each level of linguistic structure is relevant to the study of language change so that the unit considers how sounds systems change over time as well as changes in meanings and grammatical systems.

totaling 5000 words, including a group research project.
In today’s globalized and multicultural societies, cross-cultural communication is common enough. Even so, it continues to be a challenge, both for people who engage in cross-cultural communication on a daily basis, and for researchers trying to describe and understand it. In this unit of study we will consider a variety of discourse-analytic approaches to studying cross-cultural communication, including conversation analysis, speech act theory, interactional sociolinguistics, the ethnography of communication, and critical discourse analysis. In our analyses of actual samples of cross-cultural communication we will pay particular attention to the social positioning of participants in an interaction, and the ways by which social relationships (particularly of power and intimacy) between participants are reflected in their linguistic practices. The course will end with exploring applied perspectives, particularly on cross-cultural communication in educational, courtroom and workplace interactions.

Semantics deals with the meaning of words, phrases, sentences and texts, and the relations between those meanings. Pragmatics deals with how speakers use context and shared information to convey information additional to the semantic content of what they say, and how hearers make inferences on the basis of this information. Our goal is to explore the diversity of ways in which meaning can be expressed linguistically in different languages, as well as of what constitutes evidence for meaning.

We examine the construction of a linguistic theory of grammar through close examination of a particular theory of grammar, formal or functional. We consider how the theory accommodates properties such as the formal and functional properties of grammars, constituency, configurationality, grammatical functions, anaphora and cohesion, clause linkage, the division of labour between the lexicon, morphology and syntax. We test the assumptions and hypotheses of the theory with respect to data from different languages.

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: M. Hallwell
Session: Semester 1
Classes: 1
Semester: 2
Classes: 1
3 hour(s)/week
Prerequisites: 18 Junior credit points.
Assessment: 1 mid-semester assignment (1500 words), 1 essay (4500 words).

This course will study the literary and musical strategies employed by composers and librettists in the adaption of the plays of Shakespeare into opera. Operas to be examined are taken from nearly 400 years of operatic repertoire including the classical, romantic, modernist and postmodernist periods. Recent CD and DVD recordings of both the plays and operas will be used, and current adaption theory as applicable to opera will be investigated.

Mozart and his Times
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Cecilia Sun (Arts-Music)
Session: Semester 2
Classes: 2 hours/week
Prerequisites: MUSC1501 or MUSC1504
Prohibitions: MUSC2902
Assessment: Critical readings (25% for oral presentation; 20% for written submission), bibliography assignment (40%), class participation (15%).

This course will study the historical and cultural contexts in which Mozart produced his works. Students will emerge with a sense of what makes Mozart special: the ways in which he is (and is not) typical of his turbulent and fascinating age, and the reasons his music still speaks to us so powerfully today. No formal musical training required.

PRFM2001
Being There: Theories of Performance
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr I Maxwell Session: Semester 1 Classes: Two one hour lectures and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 junior credit points in no more than two subject areas including at least 12 from Part A of the Table of Units of Study. Prohibitions: PRFM2001 Assessment: One 1500 word take-home exam, one 1000 word mid-semest er essay, tutorial assignment and continuous assessment

What is performance, and how can we understand what it is that performance does? This unit of study will introduce students to the study of performance, and the particular problems associated with approaching a phenomenon that is often ephemeral, experiential in nature, and frequently shrouded in mystery. Students will learn key theoretical and methodological approaches to the study and practice of a range of performance genres, including, but not limited to theatre and other artistic practices.

PRFM2002
An Audience Prepares
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr P Dwyer Session: Semester 2 Classes: One 1 hour lecture and one 2 hour workshop/tutorial per week Prerequisites: 18 junior credit points in no more than two subject areas including at least 12 from Part A of the Table of Units of Study. Prohibitions: PRFM2002 Assessment: One 500 word performance questionnaire; one 1000 word extended essay plan; 3000 word performance analysis essay.

How do the members of an audience make meaning from the complex weave of words, movements, costumes, lighting, sound and other effects that fill the stage? To what extent are these meanings shaped by the context in which the performance event takes place? In this unit, students will develop a technical/critical language and a 'feel' for analysing live performance through lectures, practical workshops and by attending events at a number of Sydney theatres.

Sociology of Theatre
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr I Maxwell Session: Semester 2 Classes: 3 hours per week in seminar mode Prerequisites: 18 junior credit points in no more than two subject areas including at least 12 from Part A of the Table of Units of Study. Prohibitions: PRFM3012 Assessment: One 1500 word take-home exam, one group presentation and 1500 word portfolio and 1000 word formative literary summary. Practical field work: Fieldwork

Theatre and performance as artistic practices are not autonomous: they take place in a complex cultural field, the effects of which necessarily influence and shape the practice itself. In this unit of study, we will develop an understanding of the field of theatrical production in contemporary Australia, both theoretically, using the sociological theory of Pierre Bourdieu, and practically, as we create our own, viable, performing arts company.

PRFM3601 Anthropology of Performance

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr L Lewis
Session: Semester 1
Classes: 3 hours per week in seminar mode
Prerequisites: 18 credit points in PRFM2600 units (including PRFM2601 and PRFM2602) or PRFM2001 and PRFM2002
Prohibitions: PRFM3017, PRFM3025
Assessment: One 2500 word mid-term exam and one 3500 word essay
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

In recent decades, 'performance' has emerged as a central concept in several academic disciplines, from anthropology to sociology, theatre, dance, linguistics, and gender studies. The class will examine theories used to focus these interests, including: semiotics, ritual, play, framing, embodiment and emplacement. The main work will be to explore how such perspectives help researchers to understand the cultural significance of special events. The class will conclude with an in-depth study of two performance types drawn from diverse social worlds.

PRFM3602 Playing Around with Theatre History

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr L Ginters
Session: Semester 2
Classes: One 3 hour seminar per week
Prerequisites: 18 credit points in PRFM2600 units (including PRFM2601 and PRFM2602) or PRFM2001 and PRFM2002
Assessment: One 2500 word take-home exam, one 1000 word essay, and a group presentation equivalent to 1000 words
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This course reflects on the issues and methods that constitute theatre history and its relationship to Performance Studies. We will consider the source materials on which theatre history is based and some genres of historical scholarship. We will study some of the canonical texts of the European tradition (from Aristotle to Brecht) and consider the extent to which these descriptions and theorisations of creative practice continue to be influential in the work of contemporary theatre and performance practitioners.

PRFM3604 Embodied Histories

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr A Card
Session: Semester 1
Classes: 3 hours per week in seminar mode
Prerequisites: 18 credit points in PRFM2600 units (including PRFM2601 and PRFM2602) or PRFM2001 and PRFM2002
Prohibitions: PRFM3021
Assessment: One 3000 word essay and one 1500 word literature summary

Can we investigate and understand historical moments and social movements through a study of dancing bodies? In this unit we will be looking at popular dance practices in western cultures over time. From the Charleston, the Lindy & Jive, through musical comedy & jazz, to go-go, disco and hip hop we will develop an understanding of the relationship between movement, music, time and place. This will be done through a combination of observation and practical participation.

No previous dance training is required.

PRFM3606 Theories of Acting

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr I Maxwell
Session: Semester 2
Classes: 3 hours per week in seminar mode
Prerequisites: 18 credit points in PRFM2600 units (including PRFM2601 and PRFM2602) or PRFM2001 and PRFM2002
Prohibitions: PRFM3022
Assessment: One 3000 word essay; one group presentation plus write up (1000 words) and one 500 word formative literature summary

All theories of acting are grounded in implicit theories about the human self: to Stanislavsky, for example, the self is a repository of memories; while for Meyerhold, the self is a biomechanical resource. We will survey - and experiment with - a range of theories of acting, from Quintilian to Mamet, Zeami to Suzuki, uncovering the assumptions about human being underlying each. The unit involves a workshop component, although no experience is necessary: you will not be assessed on your acting ability.

PRFM3610 In the Zone: Sport as a Performance

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr L Lewis, Dr P Dwyer, Dr I Maxwell
Session: Semester 2
Classes: One 1 hour lecture and one 2 hour seminar per week
Prerequisites: 18 credit points in PRFM2600 units (including PRFM2601 and PRFM2602) or PRFM2001 and PRFM2002
Prohibitions:
Assessment: Two 750 word tutorial assignments and one 3000 word final essay

This course will review the most important theoretical work on play theory, in order to understand how sporting events can contribute to so centrally to cultural, national, and personal identity formations. We will, in some cases, compare similar sports which have developed differently in different social worlds, and in other cases focus on the relations between sport and aesthetic or political performances in given societies. Issues discussed will include ethnicity, class, gender, and embodied habit as markers of social and cultural patterns. We will read case studies and try to apply various theories to understand the deeper effects of sporting events on cultural life.

Rehearsal to Performance
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr L Ginters
Session: Semester 2
Classes: One 3 hour class a week for six weeks
Prerequisites: Credit results in PRFM2001 and PRFM2002 or 18 credit points with credit results in PRFM2600 units, including PRFM2601 and PRFM2602.
Corequisites: PRFM3691 and sufficient units for a major in Performance Studies.
Assessment: One 4500 word casebook of rehearsal process
Practical field work: Full time attendance for 2 weeks in the mid-year break.
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

In the July break students observe professional actors and director in rehearsal, they document and record the process with a view to writing a casebook about it. The classes in the first part of the session provide an opportunity to unpack the experience, to undertake some analysis of the resulting performance, and to rethick the theoretical and methodological issues in light of the practical experience.

PHIL1016
Mind and Morality HSC
Credit points: 6
Session: S1 Late Int, S2 Late Int, Summer Main
Note: This unit is available to HSC students only.

If a robot told you that it was in pain, would you believe it? If it is wrong to kill animals, should we try to stop animals from killing each other? How do you know what the colour red looks like to your friends? What do these philosophical puzzles reveal about ourselves, our minds, and our responsibilities towards others? This one-unit HSC course focuses on contemporary disputes regarding the nature of the mind, personal identity and ethics. As you engage with these issues, you will be introduced to the philosophical theories that underpin our notion of ourselves and our place in the world, and you will improve your ability to analyse and present complex ideas and arguments.

An introduction to central themes from post-structuralist philosophy, such as identity and difference, the nature of thought and language, philosophy and literature, law and politics. The unit of study will involve close reading of selected texts primarily chosen from those by Deleuze and Derrida. Some attention will also be paid to other French philosophers such as Foucault, Irigaray and Kolman.

PHIL2610
Exploring Nonclassical Logic
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Nicholas Smith
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 6 Junior credit points in Philosophy AND one of the following: PHIL1012 Introduction to Logic OR PHIL2628 Elementary Logic OR MATH1004
Prohibitions: PHIL3214 Assessment: two 1 hour in-class tests, one 2 hour exam

Classical logic is what you study in introductory units such as PHIL1012, PHIL2628 or MATH1004. This unit covers major extensions of and alternatives to classical logic, such as temporal, modal, intuitionist, relevance, and many-valued logics. As well as looking at the internal workings of these logics, we examine some of their applications, and the philosophical issues surrounding them.

PHIL2612

Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy
Prohibitions: PHIL2014, PHIL3014 Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2 hour exam

A critical examination of the first developments in philosophy among the early Greeks, emphasising two emerging traditions of philosophy, in Ionia and the Italian peninsula respectively. The main emphases are on the origin of thought about being and the development of different philosophical methods through the activities of criticism and response prevalent among the Presocratics. These activities are particularly well exhibited in the argumentative challenges of Parmenides and Zeno, and the responses made by the fifth-century B.C. thinkers.

Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy and PHIL1012 or PHIL2203 or PHIL2628.
Prohibitions: PHIL2215, PHIL3215 Assessment: exam and weekly exercises

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

The axiomatic approach to classical logic. The focus is on proofs of the main metalogical results - consistency completeness, etc - for the propositional and predicate calculi.

PHIL2617
Practical Ethics
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Caroline West
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy.
Prohibitions: PHIL2517 Assessment: one 2000 word essay and one 2500 word take-home exam

This unit draws on contemporary moral philosophy to shed light on some of the most pressing practical, ethical questions from our time, including euthanasia, abortion, surrogacy, censorship, animal rights, genetic testing and cloning and environmental ethics. By the end of the unit, students should have a good understanding of these practical ethical issues; and, more crucially, be equipped with the conceptual resources to think through new ethical questions and dilemmas as they arise in their personal and professional lives.

PHIL2618
Aesthetics and Art
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr David Macarthur
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy.
Prohibitions: PHIL2518 Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2500 word take-home exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Why is art important? What is an aesthetic response? Is there such a thing as objective interpretation? Or is it all a matter of taste? Should we believe in "the death of the author"? What is the relation between aesthetic criticism and philosophy? We shall discuss these and other questions from the perspective of an historical approach to the philosophical study of aesthetics and art.

PHIL2620
Probability and Decision Theory
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Nicholas Smith
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy.
Prohibitions: PHIL2220 Assessment: one in-class test, one 2000 word essay, one 2 hour exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Throughout our lives, in making decisions large and small, we gamble in the face of uncertainty. Because we are always unsure what the future holds, we base our choices on estimates of probability. But what is probability, how do we know about it, and how should we use that knowledge in making rational choices? This course provides an introduction to the foundations and philosophical puzzles of probability and rational decision theory.

Truth, Meaning and Language
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Adrian Heathcote Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2 hour exam

This unit covers basic issues in modern philosophy of language, such as the relationship between language and the world, the nature of meaning and truth, problems involved in interpreting and understanding the speech of others, the role of context in determining meaning, and the nature of metaphor.

PHIL2622
Reality, Time & Possibility: Metaphysics
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Nicholas Smith Session: Semester 1, Summer Late Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy Assessment: one 2000 word essay and one 2500 word exam

This is a course in metaphysics: the discipline that tells us about the nature of the world. The unit carries on from the Reality component of first year. We use philosophical methods to engage with questions like: What is time? What is space? What are the natures of possibility, freedom and identity? What is a cause, and what is a law of nature? Do we have free will? Does the world really exist - and what does "really" mean?

Moral Psychology
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Luke Russell Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy. Prohibitions: PHIL2513, PHIL3513 Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2000 word take-home exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

What is the ultimate good in life? What attitude should we take towards the good? Part I of the unit explores these questions. Part II investigates a range of causal explanations of moral behaviour. Has natural selection designed us to be moral creatures, or do we learn to be good? Part III turns to questions about the foundations of morality and the nature of moral judgements. The final part concerns the possible limits of morality.

Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Stephanie Winfield Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy. Prohibitions: PHIL2227 Assessment: two 2250 word essays

Can the concept 'mental illness' be a valid one? What might delusions tell us about the structure of the mind? What assumptions underlie attempts to classify mental disorder? Can we be justified in compelling people to submit to psychiatric treatment? This unit will examine philosophical questions raised by mental disorder and our attempts to understand/treat it, and will connect psychiatry to debates in philosophy such as the mind/body problem, the concept of a person, and the possibility of knowledge.

Descartes and Continental Philosophy
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Simon Duffy Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy. Prohibitions: PHIL2004, PHIL3004 Assessment: one 1000 word tutorial exercise, one 500 word essay plan, one 2500-3000 word essay

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Descartes is generally regarded as the founder of modern philosophy, and in this unit we look both at his own contribution, and at his influence on the subsequent course of philosophical thought in the work of Malebranche, Spinoza, and Leibniz. Just over half the unit will be devoted to Descartes' own thought, and we will look at the various stages in the development of his ideas. In the second half of the unit, we will examine the ideas of his successors on selected metaphysical themes, above all on the mind/body question.

Theories of Modernity 2
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr John Grumley Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week. Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points in Philosophy. Prohibitions: PHIL2532, PHIL3532 Assessment: one 500 word tutorial paper, one 2500 word essay, one 2500 word take-home exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit continues the themes developed in Theories of Modernity 1 into the Twentieth Century. We will see how the new realities of free markets, democracy, the state and bureaucracy, individualism and cultural rationalisation presented new problems and opportunities and gave rise to new theoretical frameworks for their comprehension. The unit will focus on the work of Weber, The Frankfurt School, Foucault and Habermas.

A survey of a range of classical 19th century theories from the standpoint of what they offer to the understanding of the newly emerging modern bourgeois social world. The work of Hegel, Marx, de Tocqueville, and Nietzsche will serve as paradigmatic attempts to discover the essence of this new society. Recurring themes and features will be examined through the prism of these thinkers: these include the problem of meaning after the collapse of tradition, the rise of secularism, capitalism, industrialisation, democracy, bureaucratisation and individualism -- their features, antinomies and problems. The unit is also intended as an introduction to the thinkers concerned while focusing in each case on their theorisation of modernity.

PHIL2634
Democratic Theory
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Duncan Ivison Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points in Philosophy Prohibitions: PHIL2514 Assessment: one 2000 word essay and one 2500 word take-home exam

A unit in political philosophy. The unit will examine various theoretical and normative justifications of democracy, as well as the historical foundations of these arguments. It will also examine particular issues in democracy and justice, the tension between democracy and constitutionalism and the challenges of social and cultural pluralism. The unit will also consider the scope and limits of democracy, including the extension of democratic norms and institutions across national boundaries through international law and multinational institutions.

PHIL2635
Contemporary Political Philosophy
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Justine McGill Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy Prohibitions: PHIL3535, PHIL2535 Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2500 word take-home exam Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

A critical introduction to the major schools of thought in contemporary political philosophy, organized around the theme of inclusion and exclusion. The inclusive ambitions of liberal political theory will be confronted with objections from thinkers motivated by concern with various facets of social and political exclusion, notably based on the categories of gender, cultural difference, deviancy and statelessness. Debates relating to refugees and asylum seekers will be considered in the latter part of this unit of study.

Heidegger’s Phenomenology
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Bruin Christensen Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points in Philosophy Prohibitions: PHIL3011 Assessment: two 2250 word essays

Heidegger famously asks what it means to be. We will attempt to determine what he means by this 'question of Being', concentrating on the first division of his work "Being and Time", as well as the discussion of death and authenticity, and of temporality and everydayness, in the second division. Issues to be raised include Heidegger's critique of his teacher, Edmund Husserl, the relevance of Heidegger's work for cognitive science and whether Heidegger can be understood as an existentialist or a pragmatist - or neither.

Sustainability, System and Society
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Bruin Christensen Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 junior credit points from any units within the university Prohibitions: PHIL2240 Assessment: two 2250 word essays
Note: NB: This course is taught in collaboration with the Department of Design, Faculty of Design, Building and Architecture, UTS.

Is sustainability just a matter of green product labelling? Of radical eco-efficiency? Of mimicking nature? Or of living more frugally and communally? And do sustainable products and systems presuppose a sustainable society which regulates design, production and consumption through political and philosophical reflection on what it is "to live well"? This course examines "technological" notions of the sustainable in order to expose their dependence on the political and philosophical.

PHIL2641
Classic German Philosophy
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Paul Redding Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: 12 credit points in Philosophy Prohibitions: PHIL3011 Assessment: one 1000 word tutorial exercise, one 500 word essay outline, and one 2500-3000 word essay

This unit surveys German Philosophy from the pre-critical work of Kant through to Nietzsche. The first half of the unit examines the main aspects of Kant's "Copernican revolution" as played out in his three Critiques. The second half of the unit examines extensions and transformations of Kant's philosophy by critical appropriators extending from Fichte to Nietzsche. Throughout, the philosophical views involved will be related more generally to questions of science, morals and politics, art and religion.
PHIL2642
Critical Thinking
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Luke Russell
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in any units within the University
Assessment: one 2000 word essay, one in-class test and one 2 hour exam

An introduction to critical thinking and the analysis of argument. Through examination of arguments drawn from a wide range of sources, including journalism, advertising, science, economics and politics, we will learn to distinguish good from bad arguments, and see why the good arguments are good and the bad ones bad. This makes the unit invaluable not only for philosophy students but for every student at the University. (The approach taken will be informal; very little symbolic notation will be used.)

PHIL2643
Philosophy of Mind
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof David Braddon-Mitchell
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy
Assessment: one essay and one take-home exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

An introduction to modern theories of the nature of mind, and some important contemporary issues in the philosophy of mind. Topics will include the problem of mental representation (how can minds think about the world?), the relationship of minds to brains, and the problem of consciousness.

PHIL2644
Critical Theory: From Marx to Foucault
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr John Grimley
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points
Assessment: one 2000 word essay, one 2000 word take-home exam, one 500 word tutorial paper

The idea of critical theory emerged as an attempt to go beyond the alleged impasses of philosophy and actually challenge the world. This unit will consider various phases in the history of this project: from Marx, the Frankfurt School, to Foucault and Habermas. It will examine both the innovations and weaknesses of these various formulations in their historical context, as well as considering contemporary efforts to reanimate the idea of critical theory.

PHIL2645
Philosophy of Law
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Rick Bentz
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Junior credit points in Philosophy
Assessment: one 2500 word essay and one 2 hour exam

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit looks at fundamental issues in the philosophy of law, including the role of law, civil liberties, legal obligation, punishment, responsibility and morality. It considers questions about whether or not a legal system is necessary, arguments for anarchy, and reasons for safeguarding freedoms from the force of law. It considers arguments for obedience to law, and seeks a moral justification of punishment. The discussion of practical issues in law leads to consideration of relation between law and morality.

Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 credit points in Philosophy
Assessment: one 1000 word tutorial exercise, one 500 word essay outline, one 3000 word essay

This unit will consider the emergence and recent developments of the distinctive philosophical outlook known as "American Pragmatism". We shall discuss various pragmatist approaches to central philosophical topics such as truth, mind, knowledge, logic, naturalism, apriority, and the fact/value distinction. A central theme will be the philosophical importance of the appeal to practice and the agent's point of view. Readings will include works by William James, C.S. Pierce, John Dewey, Robert Brandom, Donald Davidson, Hilary Putnam, and Richard Rorty.

PHIL3616
Conditionals
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Michael McDermott
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: 12 Senior credit points in Philosophy
Assessment: one 2250 word essay and one 2250 word take-home exam

Is the world iffy? A sentence like 'If Hitler had invaded in 1940, Britain would have been defeated' seems to be about non-actual events. But many philosophers hold that the only genuine facts are facts about the actual course of events. Must we acknowledge conditional facts as well? Is there a might-have-been reality, as well as actual reality? This course looks at a variety of theories about the meaning of conditional sentences.

Assessment: exercises and one 2500 word essay
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

In this unit we will look at quantum mechanics, through a study of its central paradoxes: the EPR situation, Schrödinger's Cat, Wave-Particle duality, etc. We will work through the book by R.I.G. Hughes, using Albert's book for some additional material. The course will involve learning the mathematical basis for QM - though the level of mathematical sophistication required will not exceed ordinary high school mathematics. Relativity theory will be discussed only insofar as it bears upon the problem of interpreting quantum theory.

Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Peter Oldmeadow Session: Semester 2 Classes: 3 hours per week Prerequisites: Credit result in SANS2001 or SANS2601 Assessment: 2 hour exam.

Designed for students hoping to specialise in Indian and/or Buddhist Studies, this unit focuses on the classical languages of India, with a view to providing students with the ability to read and conduct research into Sanskrit texts in their original language.

Social Policy

SCPL2601
Australian Social Policy
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 Prohibitions: SCPL3001 Assessment: one 1500 word essay (30%), one 1000 word tutorial paper and presentation (30%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

In this unit of study Australian social policy is explored: the legal and administrative framework; relationships between family and the state; employment, unemployment; unpaid work and welfare; the public/private mix; aged care policies, the culture of welfare state provision, indigenous policies, migration, multiculturalism and the formulation and delivery of social welfare services in Australia.

SCPL2602
Contesting Social Policies
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Alec Pemberton Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 Prohibitions: SCPL3002 Assessment: one 2500 word essay (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

The focus of this unit of study is on the concepts and principles underpinning the allocation of welfare, in the context of policy-making in Australia's complex society. Current debates on principles of allocation will be addressed, such as debates about social justice, welfare rights and social and economic needs. Australia's future policy directions are considered in relation to the parameters of international models of welfare.

Social Sciences

SSCI1003
Exploring the Social Sciences
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jennifer Wilkinson Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 1 hour lecture and one 2 hour tutorial per week Assessment: 4500 words or equivalent to include classwork (30%), one 2000 word essay (35%), one 2000 word take-home exam (35%)
Note: Bachelor of Social Sciences only
This unit is a core introductory theory unit for the Bachelor of Social Sciences. This unit of study explores the nature of the social sciences and how knowledge within the social sciences is produced. It investigates the relationship of the social sciences to other types of knowledge like the humanities and the natural sciences. It looks at the historical and social contexts in which the social sciences are produced and it explores how various social changes have influenced social scientific knowledge in contemporary settings.

SSCI2601
Social, Political and Economic Thought 1

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jennifer Wilkinson
Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 1 hour lecture and one 2 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SSCI1003 Prohibitions: SSCI1001, SSCI2001 Assessment: one 2500 word essay (40%), class presentation and discussion (30%), one 2000 word take-home exam (30%)
Note: Bachelor of Social Sciences only

This is a core theory unit for the Bachelor of Social Sciences. The unit explores the theme of the social sciences and society by critically examining debates across the social sciences about the development of modernity in the arenas of society, politics and economics. Attempts will be made to highlight the historical context in which forms of social and political and economic thought developed. This unit will also examine the significance of key debates about post modernity, globalisation and difference in transforming the world context in which social sciences are practised today and their implications for changes within the social sciences. In keeping with current debates about the nature of social sciences theory and the changing status of rationality, a key concern of this unit is to give students an understanding of the social sciences as theories embedded in society.

SSCI2602
Social, Political and Economic Thought 2

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jennifer Wilkinson
Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 1 hour lecture and one 2 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SSCI1003 or SSCI1001 and SSCI2601 or SSCI2001 Prohibitions: SSCI2002 Assessment: one 2500 word essay (40%), one class presentation (20%), one take-home exam (40%)
Note: Bachelor of Social Sciences only

This unit is a core unit for the Bachelor of Social Sciences, following on from Social, Political and Economic Thought 1. The unit explores the theme of the social sciences, humanity and ethics through an examination of central debates about democracy, justice, social welfare, social inclusion, human rights, shame, public goods, human capabilities, social capital, civility, tolerance and care. In contrast with traditional conceptions of the social sciences as ‘objective and value neutral’, a key concern of this unit is to provide an understanding of the context of human relations and moral problems in which the social sciences are practised in contemporary settings. Thus, wherever possible, the treatment of theories is examined in the context of real case studies of social science in practice.

SSCI3601
Social Sciences Internship

Credit points: 12
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jennifer Wilkinson
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2 Classes: minimum 210 hours of monitored work place experience, plus supervisory consultancies Prerequisites: SSCI1001 or SSCI2001 or SSCI2601 and SSCI2002 or SSCI2602 and STAT1021 and SCLG2602 Prohibitions: SSCI3001 or SSCI3601 Assessment: will be determined on the basis of meeting the requirements/or failing to meet the requirements of the course. In order to meet these requirements, you need to attend the internship and receive a satisfactory report by your internship supervisor within your placement.
Note: Bachelor of Social Sciences only

The internship provides an opportunity for students to gain practical experience in a professional setting as part of their academic training. Students undertake a minimum of 30 working days in a social sciences environment, from 3 to 5 days per week. They will be assisted and supervised by both the workplace and the department. Placements may include government departments, non-governmental organizations, community organizations, corporations, private consultancies, etc.

SSCI3602
Internship Research Paper

Credit points: 12
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Jennifer Wilkinson
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2 Classes: independent research with compulsory supervisory consultations Prerequisites: SSCI1001 or SSCI2001 or SSCI2601 and SSCI2002 or SSCI2602 and STAT1021 and SCLG2602 Prohibitions: SSCI3001 or SSCI3601 Assessment: one 4500 word (or equivalent) Internship research essay and one 6000 word (or equivalent) professional journal
Note: Bachelor of Social Sciences only

The Internship Research Paper provides an opportunity for students to reflect on their research experiences during the internship in a social sciences environment (SSCI3601). Students will keep a reflective journal about their research experiences during the internship, which will form the basis of a research report to be submitted for assessment. Students, in consultation with a supervisor from the Bachelor of Social Sciences program, will formulate a topic for their research essay which should demonstrate the ability to reflect critically on the relation between their practical experience in their particular placement and social science theory more generally.

Socio-Legal Studies

SLSS1001
Introduction to Socio-Legal Studies

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Rebecca Scott Bray

Social Inquiry: Research Methods
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Fran Collyer Session: Semester 2 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: Either SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 or SWK2003 Prohibitions: SCLG2002, SCLG2521 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit of study introduces students to a range of qualitative and quantitative research methods in common usage throughout the social sciences. The course has both analytical and practical components. With regard to the former, students are introduced to the methodological issues in contemporary sociology and their impact on the research process. An emphasis will be placed on developing a critical ability to read sociological research, with an eye to the methodological adequacy of social research, the use of theory in the research process, the political and ethical issues that arise whilst conducting research, and the classical and contemporary debates over interpretation and the production of knowledge. With regard to the latter component, students will undertake practical exercises in order to learn to appreciate and use a selection of research approaches, methods and techniques. This unit is mandatory for Sociology majors.

Sociology of Health and Illness
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Fran Collyer Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 Prohibitions: SCLG2526 Assessment: two essays (70%), one group exercise (30%)

Students will be introduced to both past and current sociological perspectives of health and illness, including Parsonian, Marxist, Weberian, Feminist and Postmodern approaches. We will examine topics such as the social, unequal, structuring of illness; the construction of medical 'facts'; professional, corporate and state control over health care systems; medical controversies; iatrogenic illness; and medical technology.

SCLG2604
Social Inequality in Australia
Credit points: 6 Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 Prohibitions: SCLG2010, SCLG2529 Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit examines sociological approaches to social inequality. Questions about social inequality are integral to contemporary notions of equality, citizenship, human rights, social justice and emancipation. A central theme of the unit (and a central preoccupation of sociologists) is ways in which social relations of inequality are shaped, represented, experienced, negotiated and challenged in everyday life. Some important questions for this unit are: How do sociologists understand and explain patterns of inequality? What are the enabling and constraining factors shaping people's life chances? How are social relations of inequality, experienced, challenged and disrupted? Is social inequality an inevitable condition of human existence?

SCLG2605
Social Justice Law and Society
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Robert van Krieken Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 Prohibitions: SCLG2017, SCLG2536 Assessment: one 2500 word research paper (60%) and one 1800 word essay (40%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit of study examines a range of approaches to social justice, including distributive and recognition or identity theories. We ask how one works out what a socially just society would look like, considering guiding principles such as desert, need, merit and equality of resources, opportunity or capabilities. We then link these ideas with principles and practices of legal equality and human rights law and specific contemporary social justice topics such as racial, gender, environmental and international justice.

Media in Contemporary Society
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Annette Falahay Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 Prohibitions: SCLG2018, SCLG2537 Assumed knowledge: Ability to access internet and basic web browsing skills Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit will examine key issues and debates within current sociological writings on media in contemporary society. The tutorial discussions focus on media, including radio, film, television, video, print, news, current affairs programmes and advertising, all of which are considered in relation to media audiences. We will consider the research literature on the sociology of media in order to investigate methods of carrying out media research, particularly of media audience... research. The aim is to encourage students to develop an informed understanding of media, including their own engagement with media in contemporary society, and to explore computer-based technology as an educational tool for studying media in contemporary society.

SCLG2608
Social Construction of Difference
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Alec Pemberton
Session: Semester 1, Winter Main
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Prohibitions: SCLG2004, SCLG2523
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

The focus of this unit of study is on the dynamics of the identification of ‘difference’ in society, including the processes of stigmatisation and demonisation of ‘deviants’. The unit focuses on areas such as the debates surrounding the ‘welfare underclass’, unruly youth, refugees and asylum seekers, trans-gendered persons, the care of the mentally ill, etc. Significant theoretical debates will be addressed, including ‘realism’ vs. ‘social construction’, ‘defining deviance down’ (Moynihan; Henderson), the Broken Windows thesis (Wilson and Kelling) and Jock Young’s theory of ‘Essentialising the Other’.

SCLG2609
Contemporary Cultural Issues
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Annette Faihney
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Prohibitions: SCLG2501
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit of study will examine key issues and debates within current sociological writings on culture. It will assess critically a range of cultural issues pertinent to structuralist, poststructuralist, deconstructionist as well as postmodern accounts of contemporary culture. An aim of this unit is to link concepts of culture to specific case studies, in order to facilitate the joining of theory with research. This aim will be achieved through addressing various issues, including analysis of cultural representations, popular culture, as well as the role of agency within cultural formations.

SCLG2611
Comparative Sociology of Welfare States
Credit points: 6
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Prohibitions: SCLG2509
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

Contemporary developments and debates concerning welfare in Australia are put into a new perspective when considered in comparison with welfare states throughout the world. In this unit of study, students will have the opportunity to compare Australian welfare arrangements and social policies with those in other industrialised countries. How do other countries conceptualise and make arrangements for people who are unemployed, or pregnant or sick, or old? What are the principles that underpin these arrangements and how can we account for the differences between countries? The unit will focus on social policies concerned with health, employment and unemployment, work and family, disability, ageing and childhood. Students will develop comparative analyses with both Western industrialised welfare states and the emerging Asian welfare states. In addition to developing knowledge of particular social policies in particular countries, students will explore the theoretical frameworks that have underpinned comparative welfare state analysis. They will also have the opportunity to interrogate the dominant discourses that have informed social policy development including those concerning rights, citizenship, obligations, reciprocity and social capital.

SCLG2612
Self and Society
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Craig Browne
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Prohibitions: SCLG2510
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

The nature of human subjectivity has fascinated and drawn the attention of thinkers from many different fields. While the questions, who are we? how do we become individual? are often asked, the ways of answering these questions constantly change. In this unit, the discursive construction of the self will be examined in the light of the political, technological and social changes which constantly influence the meanings and histories of self, subjectivity and identity. The unit will explore questions such as whether there is a human ‘nature’ which precedes or exists beyond society; whether historical circumstances determine human emotional response; whether new forms of technology and modes of communication influence self-knowledge; whether consumerism and materialism commodify identity; whether the roles played in everyday life and the management of social interactions produce or conceal who we are. The unit begins with commonsensical views on identity and proceeds to deconstruct them.

SCLG2613
Sociology of Childhood and Youth
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Amanda Elliott
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Prohibitions: SCLG2522
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit of study examines the main sociological approaches to childhood and youth in modern industrial societies, as well as the ways in which particular perspectives on childhood are central to all social theory. It will examine the debates surrounding the historical development of childhood, and the various approaches to the impact of state intervention and social policies on both the experiences of childhood and youth and the transition to adulthood. Specific topics discussed include; the social construction of child abuse, youth homelessness and youth criminality as social problems, the stolen generations, children and the law, the fertility decline, and the differentiation of childhood experience along lines of class, gender, race and ethnicity.

SCLG2614
Madness, Difference and Normality
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Alec Pemberton
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Prohibitions: SCLG2006, SCLG2525
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)

This unit of study will introduce students to core themes and issues in the sociological study of mental illness, with a historical and critical emphasis. Issues will be placed in their historical context wherever possible to indicate the development of particular debates in their social, cultural and political setting. The unit will also evaluate rival or alternative approaches to mental illness, as well as utilising the empirical evidence on mental illness to guide students through the issues, debates and controversies. Topics covered will include sociological studies of the causes of mental illness, cross-cultural studies, social factors in depression, labelling theory and its assessment, mental illness as myth, anti-psychiatry, feminist critiques of psychiatry, the sociology of psychiatry and psychiatric practice, the sociology of the mental hospital, and de-institutionalisation.

Law and Social Theory
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Robert van Krieken
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002 and (SCLG2601 or SCLG2001 or SCLG2520)
Prohibitions: SCLG2535
Assessment: tutorial participation (10%), one 2500 word essay (60%), one 2000 word take-home exam (30%)

Note: This unit is available as a designated ‘Advanced’ unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit provides a detailed understanding of how the work of a broad range of social theorists contributes to a specifically sociological understanding of legal ideas, institutions and practices. The unit will cover classical sociology - Durkheim, Marx and Weber, the unit will then discuss the contributions of the Frankfurt Schol, Habermas, about the relationship between human rights and culture, religion, norms, society and politics. It will consider the often implicit constraints, this dynamic with broader questions about the relationship between societies and how societies have transformed human rights, connecting in institutions have transformed states and societies (and failed to do so) and how societies have transformed human rights, connecting this dynamic with broader questions about the relationship between norms, society and politics. It will consider the often implicit constraints, as well as the liberation potential of human rights, engaging debates about the relationship between human rights and culture, religion, colonialism, imperialism, liberal individualism and globalisation.

SCLG2616 Global Transformations
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Craig Browne
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Prohibitions: SCLG2566
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit examines contemporary processes of globalisation. It investigates the personal and technological networks that constitute transnational forms of social organisation, the hybrid identities that emerge from population movements across borders and cultural interchanges, the mobilities of travel and exchange that alter the spatial context of social relations. These key developments are explored in relation to migration, multiculturalism, travel, human rights and in terms of the effects of globally orientated institutions on collective identities, citizenship, civil society and democracy.

SCLG2618 Violence, Imaginaries and Symbolic Power
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Craig Browne
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Assessment: 2500 words of written work (60%) and one 2 hour exam (40%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit examines the operation of symbolic power and diverse social manifestations of violence, from revolution through to terrorism. Of particular interest are social imaginaries and the way collective representations embody social creativity, legitimate social structures and inform projects of violent social reconstruction, including war, terrorism, nationalism and genocide. Social imaginaries are constitutive of nationalistic visions of self-determining communities, capitalist wealth and social utopias. Different modes of critical analysis are introduced, like critical social theory, discourse analysis, and psychoanalysis.

SCLG2619 Sociology of Sport
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Fiona Gill
Session: Semester 1
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Assessment: one tutorial presentation, one 1000 word tutorial paper, one 3000 word essay based on independent research

This unit will examine the relationship between sport and society, particularly the formation and reproduction of social norms and groupings. Analysing society from modernist and post-structuralist perspectives, students will use social theories of post-discourse, identity formation and power relations to explore the role of sport in the development and reproduction of gender, sexual, class, racial and national groups. Topics discussed include sport as a vehicle of social empowerment or marginalisation, sport as colonialism, and sport as consumption and popular entertainment.

SCLG2620 Human Rights and Social Transformations
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Danielle Celermajer
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Assessment: one class debate (10%), one 1500 word take-home exam (30%), one 2500 word essay (60%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit will examine both how human rights discourses and institutions have transformed states and societies (and failed to do so) and how societies have transformed human rights, connecting this dynamic with broader questions about the relationship between norms, society and politics. It will consider the often implicit constraints, as well as the liberation potential of human rights, engaging debates about the relationship between human rights and culture, religion, colonialism, imperialism, liberal individualism and globalisation.

SCLG2621 Power, Politics and Society
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Robert van Krieken
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Assessment: one 1500 word take-home exam, one 3000 word essay
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit will examine the core theoretical perspectives in the sociology of power, political action and political structures (Weber, Michelis, Lukes, Mills etc.) and the central empirical issues in political sociology. These issues include state formation and governance, political ideas and ideologies in a "knowledge society", political parties, social movements and interest groups, globalisation, modernity and post-modern politics. It will engage with these concerns in relation to a selection of contemporary Australian and global issues in political sociology.

SCLG2622 Sociology of Knowledge
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Fran Collyer
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002
Assessment: one research essay (60%), group work and class participation (40%)
Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit explores the formation, transmission and ownership of knowledge through several historical epochs. It highlights the way knowledge, in both oral and written form, reflects and expresses social structures and social processes. Students will be introduced to a range of theories about the relationship between knowledge and society, and to illustrative case studies (e.g. the patenting of diagnostic tests, the funding of research institutes and 'Think Tanks', and the buying and selling of 'expert knowledge').

SCLG2634 Crime, Punishment and Society
Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Rebecca Scott Bray
Session: Semester 2
Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial per week
Prerequisites: Two of: SCLG1001, SCLG1002, SLSS1001, SLSS1002 and LAWS1100
Prohibitions: SCLG2566
Assessment: one 3000 word essay (50%), one 1500 word take home exam (40%), class participation (10%)

This unit provides students with an introduction to the analysis of crime, crime control and punishment in their historical, social and political contexts. It discusses the major theoretical perspectives on the explanation of crime and deviance as well as the role and functions of punishment, and then examines a range of central issues in understanding crime and criminal justice, including the history and sociology of prisons, punishment and policing, the basic elements of criminal law and the criminal justice system.

Note: This unit is available as a designated 'Advanced' unit for students who are already enrolled in the BA (Advanced) degree program.

This unit provides a detailed introduction to key social theorists whose ideas are being used extensively in contemporary sociological theory and research. These theorists include: Irving Goffman, Michel Foucault and Pierre Bourdieu. A particular focus is on approaches to human action in its various structural and cultural contexts, the possibilities and limits of human agency, and questions of social change.

SCLG3602
Empirical Sociological Methods
Credit points: 6  Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Fran Collyer  Session: Semester 1  Classes: one 2 hour lecture and one 1 hour tutorial  Prerequisites: SCLG1001 and SCLG1002  Prohibitions: SCLG3003  Assessment: interview exercise, class participation and one written research proposal

This unit addresses the political, ethical and practical problems that may arise during the process of conducting research. It will also examine the social and logical links between theory, method, data and analysis. In the seminars we will critically examine the work of other researchers to identify the strengths and weaknesses of their approaches. For assessment, students will select a topic of their own choosing and develop a theoretically informed research proposal. This unit assumes a basic knowledge of social research methods.

Arab World, Islam and The Middle East

ARIS4011 Arabic and Islamic Studies Honours A
Credit points: 12 Teacher/Coordinator: Assoc Prof Ahmad Shboul, Dr Nijmeh Hajjar Session: Semester 1, Semester 2 Classes: 2 hours research seminar and 2 hours of Advanced Arabic for research purposes Prerequisites: A total of 48 credit points in a combination of ARBC and ARIS senior units, with at least credit average. These include the 36 credit points of the major in Arabic and Islamic Studies, plus two more senior units, including the special entry unit, ARIS3680 (Approaches to Arabic and Islamic Studies). Assessment: Essay, class work including seminar presentation, bibliographical assignments, in addition to the thesis. Note: Department permission required for enrolment .

The honours program is research oriented and should equip the student with better language and cultural skills for further and deeper study in a specialised area of Arabic and Islamic Studies. This can include: Arabic language and literature, Islamic Studies, Arabic and Islamic history, the contemporary Arab world and the Middle East, society and politics, and the study of Islam in history or in the modern world.

Students from ARIS and ARBC (beginners or advanced Arabic language strands) are encouraged to plan for honours from their first or second year of study. You need to be highly motivated and aim to score an average credit or higher in your Arabic and Islamic Studies major.

The fourth year honours program in Arabic and Islamic Studies consist of:

1. Practical advanced language for research purposes (in Semester 1 and 2)
2. Seminar/workshop on methodology of research in Arabic and Islamic studies (in Semester 1 and 2)
3. Four honours seminars (2 in each semester) from available advanced coursework options in Arabic and Islamic Studies
4. Writing a thesis 12,000–15,000 words (in English or Arabic) under the supervision of a member of staff who is an active researcher in the department (in Semester 2)

Students with interdisciplinary interests can enrol in joint honours or double honours, combining Arabic/Islamic studies with another suitable subject area. Students, who plan to do joint honours or double honours, need to have completed 48 senior credit points in each of the two disciplines (Arabic/Islamic and another subject area). They can take half a load in each department during their honours year, usually writing their honours thesis under joint supervision. Joint honours is usually completed in one year, double honours usually takes two consecutive years to complete.

Assessment: Art History and Theory IV Honours has 5 components: a thesis and 4 semester-length seminars chosen from a pool of units of study. Weighting: dissertation 50 per cent, units of study: 4 totalling 50 per cent Thesis on an approved subject: 15,000-18,000 words: this will be written under the individual supervision of a member of staff.

Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

Seminar units: NOTE: These courses are based on weekly 2 hour seminars. Students are required to submit written work totalling 4000 words for each option.

Semester 1

1. Cross-Cultural Art
Dr M Roberts

This unit explores major issues and debates in the study of cross-cultural art. A central focus is the examination of contemporary art in relation to its colonial heritage. The theoretical issues that inform this subject include: the relationship between aesthetics and politics, post-colonialism and feminism, questions of cultural agency and resistance, the structure and operation of the colonial stereotype, cultural hybridity, cross-cultural borrowing and appropriation. Students should complete the subject with an understanding of both the broad theoretical issues and the historical/regional specificity of cross-cultural art forms.

2. Feminism and Film Theory
Dr L Jayamanne

This seminar will provide an overview of the history of feminist film theory, criticism and film, taken as a point of departure for the study of cinematic modulation of gesture and affect. The aim is to explore the powers and qualities by which film creates bodies of all sorts (both organic and non-organic), including of course gendered bodies. This is therefore a course on film aesthetics with a precise focus on the study of how filmic powers and qualities are activated across a range of films (Hollywood genre films and Independent films), Gilles Deleuze’ film theory will be used in this course as analytic tools to open up the field to further experimentation.

3. Matisse and Picasso, Discourse and Exhibition
Prof R Benjamin

The unit offers a parallel study of the European modernists Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso from their earliest academic training in 1890 to the aftermath of World War Two. Situating them within the avant-garde and its institutions, it encompasses Fauvism, analytic and synthetic Cubism, decorative modernism, the Return to Order, Surrealism, and the Cutout. Key artworks will be a focus for analyses of the criticism of the day. Current interpretative models, textual as well as exhibition-based (e.g. Matisse/Picasso’, MoMA, New York) will also be debated.

4. Studies in 18th Century Art
Dr J Milam

This course will focus on the study of 18th-century art in European contexts. Various themes will be explored in different years: the relationship between art and nature; the origins of the Rococo style; art criticism; the Salons and the rise of aesthetic theory; women patrons and women artists; gender and painting; Enlightenment critics and the arts; landscape painting and garden design. In certain years, the course will consider specific artists, cities or court spaces.

5. Theories of Art in China and Japan
Prof J Clark

Art theories in China and Japan will be discussed with some reference to recent critical theory. For China will be examined: shamanist belief and metaphors of state power; theories of representation; the literarily empathetic expression; Marxist moralism in art. For Japan will be examined: binary constructions of cultural discourse; poetics of court romances; performer identification and performance in Noh and Tea; social aesthetics of chic and resigned acceptance; the national and the authentic; overcoming or going beyond the modern.

Semester 2

1. Critical Surrealism
Dr J Pefanis

This reading seminar sets out from the premise that the relationship between trends in post-structuralist and postmodernist writing and art and the thought of the critical surrealists is a crucial one, but one which remains largely unchartered, and whose time has come. Critical surrealism and the postmodern surreal will require careful specification: they are tendentious, volatile and slightly impossible ideas; both involve a poetics. Students will be asked to explore the relationship between the two domains, drawing on the psychoanalytic, ethnographic and political theory central to the aesthetics of surrealism.

2. Death and Disease in Renaissance Italy
Dr L Marshall

This course explore the interplay between art and disease in Renaissance Italy. Issues to be investigated include: the religious and psychological effects of catastrophic disease, such as the Black Death, and the possible effects on art; images of death and disease before and after the plague; the prophylactic role of images; Renaissance conceptions of the workings of the celestial court; civic, familial and individual patronage of plague images.

3. Film Theory: Art, Industry, Culture
Dr R Smith

The relation of film to industrial modernity is an ongoing issue for film theorists. With the advent of digital image processes and production the relation of art and industry has re-emerged with a new set of problems. How can we conceptualise the new forms? How do recent theoretical critiques and aesthetic language(s) do we draw on? And how best to rethink film in the face of rapid technologica, formal and cultural change? These issues will be investigated via an examination of the history of film theory’s attempts to formulate concepts adequate to the age of industrial modernity.

Asian Studies

ASNS4011
Asian Studies Honours A
Credit points: 12
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Prerequisites: A major in Asian Studies or in an Asian language; ASNS3690; 48 senior credit points; credit average in all qualifying units of study. Please contact the Asian Studies Program Director for any problem in the prerequisites.
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

The honours Fourth Year program consists of three seminars (that is the coursework) and a 15,000–20,000 word thesis weighted at 50 per cent of the final result.

As with the undergraduate Asian Studies major, all units and the thesis will be in English. However, we encourage students with Asian-language proficiency to utilise sources in that language for their thesis research.

Students will enrol in ASNS4011, 4012, 4013 and 4014. Those however are merely generic codes: for their coursework component, students should take three from the following pool of subjects, whose availability will vary from year to year:

CHNS6982 Approaches to Research on Modern China (Sem 1)
ASNS6900 Contemporary Asian Societies (Sem 1)
ASNS6976 Buddhism and the State in Northeast Asia (Sem 1)
JPNS6908 Issues in Contemporary Japan I (Sem 1)
ASNS5902 Research Methods in Asian Studies (Sem 2)
ASNS6901 Japan in the Western Imagination (Sem 2)
ASNS5981 Gender and Culture in Premodern East Asia (Sem 2)
CHNS6975 Society and Individual in Post-Mao China (Sem 2)

Students may cross-list up to two of the three coursework components from units of study offered in other departments and faculties. They should check the availability of those units with the different departments. In any case they should consult with the Honours Coordinator before deciding on their coursework units.

Assessment: All students will submit a long essay on a topic to be approved. Essays are 18000 words in length, and are due on Monday 15 October 2007. Each semester option is assessed by a 4000 word essay.
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

Postcolonial Literatures and Theory
Dr P van Toorn. Semester: 1. Classes: One 2 hour seminar per week.

This seminar reads a range of postcolonial novels and poems through the lens of some influential postcolonial theories, which in turn become subject to critique in the light of literary practices. After developing a foundational understanding of colonial discourse and ideology, we will focus on literary and theoretical texts from the 'second world' settler societies of Canada and Australia, the 'third world' nations of Africa, India, and the Caribbean, and the 'fourth world' indigenous societies that are now undergoing a cultural renaissance. Questions to be addressed include the appropriateness of the term 'postcolonial' and the numbering of 'worlds'; the development of hybrid languages and intercultural traditions; gender, sexuality, and empire; intra-national colonisation; postcoloniality as a reading practice; subversive mimicry and rewriting; orality and literacy; nation and narration; neo-imperialism; and the relation between the postmodern and the postcolonial.

Australian Postmodernism
Dr N Rowe. Semester: 1. Classes: One 2 hour seminar per week.

This seminar examines a range of Australian texts in the light of postmodern questions. Among the issues to be explored are: unwriting meta-narratives; writing and/as rewriting; the death of the author/birth of the reader; alliances of textuality, truth and power; discursive (de)constructions of the subject; relations between the postmodern and the postcolonial.

Chinese Studies
CHNS4011
Chinese Honours A
Credit points: 12 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Bray, Prof Dunstan, Dr Herforth, Dr Kong, Dr U, Dr Wang Session: Semester 1, Semester 2 Prerequisites: The minimum requirements are as follows: (1) a major in Chinese Studies plus sufficient additional credit points selected from CHNS and ASNS 261x, 361x, and 211x units of study to reach 48 senior credit points; and (2) a Credit average in all qualifying units of study. In addition, ASNS3690, Approaches to Research in Asian Studies (or CHNS3902) is strongly recommended and may be counted towards the required 48 senior credit points by all students except those whose qualifying senior credit points include CHNS2601 (or 2101) and/or CHNS2602 (or 2102). Intending Honours students are advised to take as many senior credit points as possible in Chinese language and China-related subjects.
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

The heart of the honours program is the research and writing, over two semesters, of a thesis of 12,000 to 16,000 words, in English, on a topic in Chinese Studies that is chosen by the student and approved by the department. Chinese-language material must be used. Supervision is available in a wide range of fields, including: contemporary Chinese politics, culture and society; contemporary, modern and classical Chinese literature; Chinese history; Chinese linguistics; and the study of gender in Chinese cultural contexts. If a substantial proportion of the thesis is to consist of translation, the written approval of the chair of department must be obtained in advance. Normally, not more than one third of a thesis may comprise translation. The thesis counts for one third of the final honours mark.

In addition to the honours thesis, students undertake four coursework components, of which one may be supervised reading in an area that especially interests the student. The coursework components will be selected, in consultation with the chair of department (or nominee), according to the student's proficiency in Chinese. Advanced language work will be available for students who have completed only the basic three-year sequence in Chinese language from beginning level. The honours-level seminars that will be available in 2007 are: Approaches to Research on Modern China (First Semester); Society and Individual in Post-Mao China (Second Semester); and Gender and Culture in Premodern East Asia (Second Semester). Each coursework component requires 5000 words of essay-type assessment (or equivalent).
The department will assist individual students to work out an honours program that is relevant to their needs and interests, within the limits of available resources. It is also positively interested in arranging joint honours programs for suitably qualified students in accordance with Faculty resolutions.

Cultural Studies

GCST4101
Arguing the Point
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Ruth Barcan Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour seminar per week Prerequisites: GCST2602 or WMST2002 at credit level or higher and an additional 36 credit points of Gender Studies. Prohibitions: WMST4111 Assessment: 4000-6000 words assessment Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

The Honours in Gender Studies and Honours in Cultural Studies programs are structured in the same way. For each, a student must enrol in GCST4101 and then choose two courses from the list provided at the beginning of semester.

This core unit of study aims to develop scholarly skills of research, writing and argumentation. Through the study of different examples of academic research, we will carefully draw out why and how certain research and argumentation strategies are privileged in different texts. We will also closely examine different genres of academic writing and different modes of research (including empirical research). The unit will encourage students to develop their own argumentation skills and research practices.

English

ENGL4101
English Honours A
Credit points: 12
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr B Gardiner
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Corequisites: Credit average in 48 senior English points, including either (a) ENGL2901, ENGL2902 and ENGL3692, or (b) ENGL3691 and ENGL3692 AND (c) any two advanced units except ENGL3601. Candidates who were eligible for Honours candidacy according to the Department's guidelines as they were until 2003 should consult the Honours coordinator.
Assessment:
Note: Department permission required for enrolment .

As an English honours candidate you write a thesis of 15,000 words, or undertake an editorial or bibliographical project of comparable scope and sophistication, under the supervision of a member of the department who has some expertise in the field you choose to work in. You will be offered a series of workshops and colloquia on scholarly research and writing. Your thesis will be due at the end of the October recess.

You choose five semester-long coursework options, three in the first semester, two in the second. For one of your first-semester options – whichever one you choose – you present your work in the form of a 20-minute paper you give at a Departmental Honours Conference.

Among the five options you choose you may include one or two not listed among the English honours options. As a matter of course, you can choose one or both of them from among the Australian Literature honours options. But you will need the Honours Coordinator's permission to choose one or both of them from among the Department's Advanced units, as each of them will have to be modified appropriately for you.

If your interests and achievements are sufficiently multi-disciplinary, you may undertake a joint honours program, half of it under the auspices of the English Department, half under those of another. If you do, your plans will have to be approved in advance by the Honours Coordinators of both Departments.

In 2007 (subject to staff availability and enrolment numbers), options will be available in the following fields:

1. Medieval Languages, in both semesters;
2. Medieval Literature, in Semester 1 only;
3. Early Modern Literature, in Semester 1 only;
4. The long 19th century, in Semester 2 only;
5. Modern and Contemporary Texts, in both semesters;
6. Language and Literary Theory, in both semesters.

Honours students may choose to take up to two of the Advanced units offered in 2007 in place of the honours units listed below.

Semester 1:
1. Medieval Languages 1: Old English, Old Norse
Dr D Anlezark

Students are required to have completed at least two semesters' work in the relevant language. In this option advanced students of Old English and Old Norse-Icelandic will have the opportunity to read major texts in their target language. Old Irish and Middle Welsh will be available in this option's Semester 2 counterpart (subject to staff availability). For Old English, this will be the epic poem Beowulf, for Old Norse a substantial saga and/or mythological or heroic poetry. There will also be opportunities to study the literary, social and cultural background to these texts.

2. Medieval Literature: Chaucer's Canterbury Tales
Dr Speed/Dr Rogerson

Chaucer's great canonical work draws upon a range of narrative modes, from epic and romance to low comedy. We explore the strategies through which multiple voices within it vie for supremacy, and the ways in which Chaucer pushes the boundaries of medieval literary convention. A selection of well-known and lesser-known tales will be considered, with some attention being given to recent modern retellings, such as the BBC version (2003) and that of the Royal Shakespeare Company (2005).

Textbooks:
The Riverside Chaucer, 3rd edn, gen ed Larry D Benson (OUP pbk, 1988).

3. The Poetry of Meditation
Dr Spurr

This study of 17th-century religious poetry will proceed from a consideration of the influence of manuals and procedures of meditation
This unit of study will focus on the relationship between narrative and emotion in novels that explicitly depict and engage heightened sensibility. It will examine the ways in which feeling is both conceptualised and motivated in literary texts. How is emotion deployed in the service of the novels' ethical agendas? To what extent do the feelings produced by fiction elude narrative control?

Textbooks
- Sterne, A Sentimental Journey
- MacKenzie, The Man of Feeling
- Radcliffe, The Romance of the Forest
- Dickens, The Old Curiosity Shop
- Bronte, Wuthering Heights
- Collins, The Woman in White

A course reader will provide additional material on the science and philosophy of the emotions in the period under investigation.

5. The Shape of Things to Come: Utopian Social Dreaming

Dr Marks

Beginning with HG Wells's classic A Modern Utopia (1905), the unit fast forwards in time, examining literary and cinematic utopias and dystopias from the past two decades. The unit explores the history, politics and aesthetics of the utopian genre (understood here to include dystopias), and focuses on topics such as state, religious and corporate power, genetics, ecology, gender politics, agency and identity, liberty, surveillance, and the ways in which the social dreams of some are the social nightmares of others.

Texts (You are not expected to purchase the films)
- HG Wells, A Modern Utopia
- Margaret Atwood, The Handmaid's Tale
- Ridley Scott (director), Blade Runner
- Octavia Butler, Dawn
- Andrew Niccol (director), The Truman Show
- Kim Stanley Robinson, Pacific Edge
- Michael Winterbottom (director), Code 46
- Ursula Le Guin, The Telling

6. Love and the Passions

Dr Mattesich

This option explores the contours in Western culture of a tradition centred on passion and the passions, using at its template Roland Barthes's book A Lover's Discourse. We will explore how love, emotion, intimacy, and beauty are represented (but also how they challenge representation) in literary and cultural texts from Plato to Gabriel Garcia Marquez. A central concern will be to look at how gender identity is inflected through structures of idealisation and fantasy. This will lead us to examine more critically the relations between men and women, the body and language, love and desire, romance and politics. There will also be four film nights arranged on evenings outside of class.

Course requirements
- TWO SHORTER ESSAYS on topics discussed in class or ONE LONG ESSAY with a research component (4500–5000 word range).

Required textbooks
- Roland Barthes, A Lover's Discourse
- Goethe The Sorrows of Young Werther
- Gabriel Garcia Marquez Love in the Time of Cholera
- Plato The Symposium
- William Shakespeare Othello (Arden edition)

There is also A READER that includes: excerpts from Ovid, Vita Nuova (Dante), Courtly Love poetry, excerpts from Dangerous Liaisons (Lacos) and On Love (Stendhal), Death in Venice (Thomas Mann), essays by Freud, Lacan, and Barthes.

French Studies

FRNC4011
French Honours A
Credit points: 12
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Classes: 6 hours per week
Prerequisites: Major in Advanced French or in French with credit average in 48 Senior units, including the following units: FRNC2666 and FRNC3631 or equivalent.
Assessment: Classwork, assignments, thesis.
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.
The Fourth Year honours program consists of the following segments:
(a) Practical Language Classes
Classes: Semesters 1 and 2.
Assessment: Classwork and assignments.
The aim of the segment is to further the acquisition of skills necessary for the writing of a thesis.

Advanced Practical Language A Lecturer: Dr Françoise Grauby.
Classes: Semester 1
Detailed consideration of the problems of written expression in French and of analysis of written texts. Particular attention will be paid to the development of skills associated with dissertation and thesis writing.

Textbooks
Dr Royer and Dr Grauby. Recherche: Mode d'emploi (French-Australian Research Centre).

Advanced Practical Language B
Lecturer: Dr P Cowley.
Classes: Semester 2
Detailed consideration of the problems of written expression in French and of analysis of written texts. Particular attention will be paid to expanding and enriching students' stylistic repertoire in French.

Textbooks
Materials to be supplied in class.

(b) Thesis in French (12,000–15,000 words)
The thesis topic will normally be related to one of the seminars chosen by students under (c) below. A supervisor will be appointed.

(c) Four semester-length seminars:
Ré-écritures
Lecturer: Dr B Winter.
Classes: Semester 1
This unit looks at anticolonial and postcolonial rewritings, in French, of two 17th-century 'colonial texts' that form part of the mythicised history and/or literary canon of the English-speaking world:
(a) Shakespeare’s The Tempest and
(b) the 1642 witch hunts in Salem village, Massachusetts.

These rewritings are designed to challenge the dominant ideologies and cultural references contained in these canonical texts. Relationships between form and content and between text and context will be primary foci, as will cross cultural and historical considerations. Although the French texts will be the focus of the seminar, students will also need to familiarise themselves with the English texts from which they draw their inspiration.

Textbooks
 Aimé Césaire, Une tempête (inspired by Shakespeare’s The Tempest); Maryse Condé, Moi, Tituba, sorcière (inspired by the story of the Salem witch hunts).

The Evolution of French Nationalism
Lecturer: Dr E Rechniewski.
Classes: Semester 1
This unit adopts an historical, sociological and discursive approach to the study of the development of the nation and national sentiment in France from the Middle Ages to the present. It places contemporary debates over nationhood in historical perspective and includes study of changing conceptions of citizenship. A variety of sources will be studied including literary and political texts and there will be limited references to the use of discourse analysis in analysing source materials.

Theory and Practice of Translation
Lecturer: Dr P Cowley. Classes: Semester 2

This seminar introduces students to a range of issues in translation theory, both through hands-on practical work and through critical reading of theoretical texts from a variety of genres, disciplines and periods. It also introduces students to the difficulties involved in the practice of translation, and focuses on techniques for overcoming them.

Images & Traces in French Literature
Lecturer: Dr F Grauby, Classes: Semester 2

This unit will explore the relationships and interplays between writers and visual artists in French contemporary fiction and art, it will examine the varieties of writing which engage with the production of art. Attention will be given to the work of poet/painter Henri Michaux, the art criticism of Hervé Guibert, the representation of the painter in fiction, and the documentation and record of everyday life as presented by visual/performance artists.

Gender Studies

GCST4101 Arguing the Point
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Ruth Barcan Session: Semester 1 Classes: one 2 hour seminar per week Prerequisites: GCST2602 (or WMST2002) at credit level or higher and an additional 36 credit points of Gender Studies Prohibitions: WMST4011 Assessment: 4000-6000 words assessment Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

Note: The Honours in Gender Studies and Honours in Cultural Studies programs are structured in the same way. For each, a student must enrol in GCST4101 Arguing the Point and GCST4102 Research Skills. Every student then takes four Honours Thesis units and two Honours Seminar units, in Gender Studies or Cultural Studies respectively. It is also possible to do combined Honours by enrolling in one Seminar and two Thesis units from each discipline. All Honours students are also expected to attend the Departmental research seminar series.

This core unit of study aims to develop scholarly skills of research, writing and argumentation. Through the study of different examples of academic research, we will carefully draw out why and how certain research and argumentation strategies are privileged in different texts. We will also closely examine different genres of academic writing and different modes of research (including empirical research). The unit will encourage students to develop their own argumentation skills and research practices.

Germanic Studies

GRMN4011
German Honours A
Credit points: 12
Teacher/Coordinator: Dr Birte Giesler
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Classes: 5 hours per week
Prerequisites: A major in German with a Credit average in 48 Senior credit points of German including 12 credit points of special honours entry units (2680 level)
Assessment: Language assignments, four 4000 word essays including two written in German, class presentation(s) and one long essay of 12000 - 15000 words.
Note: Department permission required for enrolment

This unit consists of the following segments:
A. Advanced Language Tuition
B. Writing of a long essay of 2,000–15,000 words to be researched and written over the whole year. A supervisor will be appointed.

C. Advanced seminars of which students are required to take two per semester. The seminars offered in 2007 are:

1. Aspects of modern German film
Dr Moulden. Offered: Semester 1. Classes: 2 hours per week.
Assessment: One 4000 word essay, class presentation(s)

In the early stages of film history German filmmakers were amongst the most prominent figures in the industry; directors such as Fritz Lang, Billy Wilder and Ernst Lubitsch produced films of a quality often matched not even today. The Nazi era brought this success to an end when it utilised the art form more as a tool for propaganda. Post war German film took a long time to recover, blossoming once again only in the late sixties with directors such as Reitz, Wenders, Herzog and above all Fassbinder. After Fassbinder’s death in 1982 German Film again went into a period of decline, and despite the occasional exception, did not produce anything of real quality until near the turn of the century. This seminar will examine a number of these newer films, analysing them from both content and stylistic perspectives.

Films
Verhoeven, Das schreckliche Mädchen; Jopp, Vergiss Amerika; Hirschbiegel, Das Experiment; Becker, Goodbye, Lenin!; Schmid, Lichter; Akin, Gegen die Wand; Levy, Alles auf Zucker; Buck, Knallhart; von Donnersmarck, Das Leben der Anderen.

2. Kleist's Prose Fiction
Dr Borgert. Offered: Semester 1. Classes: 2 hours per week.
Assessment: One 4000 word essay, class presentation(s)

Heinrich von Kleist (1777–1811) was not only one of the greatest dramatists in German literature, but he also wrote a small body of prose fiction that contains some of the most fascinating and tantalising texts in German. The world of Kleist’s stories is always a text full of puzzling implications which the characters struggle to decipher. Family relationships are fraught with latent violence; glimpses of a better world are, at best, fleeting; circumstances and coincidence play an often cruel chess-game with the fictional characters as pieces. Against this underlying grimness are the beauty and power of Kleist’s literary technique which has guaranteed that not only scholars enjoy reading his work today. This seminar sets out to offer a close reading of some of Kleist’s stories in a way that situates them in their historical context and also relates them to paradigms of modern existence.

Textbook
Kleist, Sämtliche Erzählungen und andere Prosa (Reclam UB 8232).

3. Artificial Humans in German Literature and Film
Dr Giesler. Offered: Semester 2. Classes: 2 hours per week.
Assessment: One 4000 word essay, class presentation(s)

Cyborgs, designer babies, clones, artificial intelligence – today’s mass media is crowded with artificial humans. Far from being just a recent phenomenon the artificial creation of human life is an eternal dream of humankind. This course considers the motif of the artificial human from the early myths (Prometheus, Pygmalion, Golem, etc) to its manifestations in contemporary literature, including the famous silent film “Metropolis”. We will analyse a selection of poems dealing with the tradition of this motif (poems by Goethe, Droste-Hülshoff, Dischereit etc), in addition we will examine Hoffmann's popular romantic story about a young man falling in love with a puppet. Next we will discuss an early socio-critical science fiction movie about the 'woman-machine' Maria and finally we will be investigating two contemporary works dealing with reproductive cloning and human clones.

Textbooks
Poems by Goethe, Droste-Hülshoff, Dischereit (dept selection); Hoffmann, Der Sandmann, Insel Taschenbücher 934;

4. Liebe als unmögliche Utopie: Liebesgeschichten in der modernen Literatur
Dr Bandhauer. Offered: Semester 2. Classes: 2 hours per week. Assessment: One 4000 word essay, class presentation(s).
This seminar will look at the deconstruction of traditional love stories and love myths. It will examine the roles of women in such stories and how the traditional love plot is written in modern literature by women.

Textbooks
Bachmann, Das dreißigste Jahr (Serie Piper 4550); Wolf, Medea, Stimmen (div 12444); Maron, Animal Triste (Fischer Tb. 13933).

5. German Linguistics
Dr Jäger. Offered: Semester 2. Classes: 2 hours per week. Assessment: One 4000 word essay, class presentation(s)
After an introduction to the essential elements of German linguistics this seminar will investigate the German language in its historical, regional, and sociological dimensions and how these aspects impact on standard "High German".

Performance Studies

PRFM4011
Performance Studies Honours A
Credit points: 12 Teacher/Coordinator: Co-ordinator: Dr L Ginters Session: Semester 1, Semester 2 Prerequisites: Credit results in PRFM3961 and PRFM3962 (or PRFM3901 and PRFM3902) and credit average in a further 32 credit points of PRFM units. Assessment: 5000 words (in essays and papers) for each of the three coursework seminars listed below; 12000-15000 word casebook on fieldwork experience; 12000-15000 word dissertation. Intending Honours students should speak to the Honours co-ordinator before enrolling. Practical field work: Workshops and placement in a theatre company to observe a creative process in progress; group supervision meeting.
Note: Department permission required for enrolment.

The honours year brings theory and practice together in mutually illuminating ways. The first semester involves coursework seminars, as well as participation (unassessed) at a number of practical workshops, an honours group supervision meeting and postgraduate seminars. In second semester students complete research for their dissertation and go on placement to observe training/rehearsal processes in a professional arts organisation. This placement provides the basis for the casebook.

Honours requirements:
Coursework Seminar: Embodiment
Dr L Lewis. Classes: 2 hours per week. Assessment: 5000 words in essays and papers. Semester 1
Honours requirements:

Coursework Seminar: Embodiment
Dr L Lewis. Classes: 2 hours per week. Assessment: 5000 words in essays and papers. Semester 1

Recent interest in theories (and practices) which refigure or mediate the mind/body distinction, so long dominant in Western academia, have abounded in many disciplines in the last 20 years. An initial interest in bodies and conceptions of bodies has given way, in many cases, to a focus on the process of human embodiment, seen as an existential or ontological problem. This unit will examine a spectrum of approaches to embodiment (especially European and American phenomenologies, but also poststructuralist and feminist ideas) which have been applied to human interactions and performances in a range of sociocultural settings. A serious engagement with these approaches will lead to a problematics of the theory-practice dichotomy itself, a timely issue in anthropology, performance studies, and many interdisciplinary projects.

Coursework Seminar: Critical Theory and Performance (including practical workshops)
Dr I Maxwell. Classes: 2 hours per week. Assessment: 5000 words in essays and papers. Semester 1

As an emerging discipline, performance studies has drawn upon a wide range of theoretical positions and resources, from semiotics to New Historicism, cultural studies, feminism, psychoanalysis, discourse theory, deconstruction, phenomenology, and hermeneutics. In this unit, we will read some key theoretical texts and look at how they have been applied to the analysis of performance.

Dissertation (approximately 12,000–15,000 words)
To be written on a topic selected by the candidate after discussion with the Honours Coordinator and the approved supervisor. Students may wish to choose a topic that builds on the field observations of the placement/casebook assignment (see below) but this is by no means obligatory. The important point is that the dissertation must engage with a clearly defined theoretical question and that it must advance an argument, based on the student's familiarity with the views of other authors and on some coherently pursued (primary and or secondary) research.

Fieldwork/Casebook assignment
Fieldwork placements will be arranged as early as possible in the year on the basis of discussions between students, the Honours Coordinator and other staff. Students are encouraged to nominate events/productions/companies or genres of performance that they would like to observe in development. The placement should entail observation of a more-or-less complete training/rehearsal process involving professional arts practitioners. The written casebook is an ethnographic account of this process.

9. Faculty of Arts Undergraduate Resolutions

General Faculty Resolutions

Undergraduate degrees and combined degrees

These Faculty Resolutions must be read in conjunction with the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended), which sets out the requirements for all coursework courses, the relevant Resolutions of the Senate and the relevant resolutions of other faculties offering units to students in the Faculty of Arts.

Unless otherwise specified in the Faculty Resolutions relating to a particular course, these General Faculty Resolutions apply to all students enrolled in degrees, combined degrees and joint degrees under the supervision or part-supervision of the Faculty of Arts.

Any Faculty Resolution may be varied by the Dean (or in the case of combined degrees, by the two Deans) on a case by case basis.

1. Admission

1.1 All applications for admission to candidature to an undergraduate degree in the Faculty of Arts will be subject to the Undergraduate Admissions policy of the Faculty of Arts;

1.2 All applications for admission to candidature to a combined undergraduate degree program in which the Bachelor of Arts forms a part, or to a joint degree program co-supervised by the Faculty of Arts, will be subject to the Undergraduate Admissions policies of the Faculty of Arts and of the partner faculty.

2. Units of study

2.1 Undergraduate students in the Faculty of Arts select units of study from the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study, subject to any restrictions on particular units. The Table lists units of study by subject area, and is in two parts:

2.1.1 Part A includes subjects offered by departments in the Faculty of Arts, from which all undergraduate degree, combined degree and joint degree students in the Faculty of Arts must complete at least one major;

2.1.2 Part B includes subjects offered by departments in other faculties.

2.2 Students in Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours), Bachelor of Arts (Asian Studies), Bachelor of Arts (Languages) or Bachelor of Arts (Media and Communications) may complete their entire degree from Part A subjects; students in other Arts degrees, or combined/joint degrees, take subjects from Part B according to the particular requirements of their degree.

2.3 Part A

All-Arts degree, combined and joint degree programs require the completion of at least one major from Part A

2.3.1 Aboriginal Studies
2.3.2 Ancient History
2.3.3 Anthropology
2.3.4 Arab World, Islam and the Middle East

2.4.17 Microbiology
2.4.18 Physics
2.4.19 Plant Science
2.4.20 Political Economy
2.4.21 Psychology
2.4.22 Statistics
The following Part B subject areas are available only to students in specific degrees, as indicated:

2.4.23 Law (available only to students in the combined Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws, except for LAWS 1100, which is available only to students in the Bachelor of Arts and Sciences. Law is not recorded as a Bachelor of Arts major)

2.4.24 Psychology for Social Work (available only to students in the Bachelor of Social Work or combined Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Social Work. Psychology for Social Work is not available as a Bachelor of Arts major)

2.4.25 Units of study not listed in the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study may be selected where such a selection is specifically required, or allowed by the Faculty resolutions relating to the particular degree, combined degree or joint degree in which a student is enrolled.

2.4.26 Otherwise, the Faculty will consider applications to enrol in units of study not listed in the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study only if the student is able to display to the satisfaction of the Dean the relevance of the unit to a Part A major that the student is undertaking.

2.5 The Table of units of study specifies:

2.5.1 level and credit point value of each unit;
2.5.2 any assumed knowledge;
2.5.3 any co- or prerequisites;
2.5.4 any other special conditions or restrictions;
2.5.5 the semester/s in which the unit is offered.

3. The major and cross-listing

3.1 A major from Part A of the Table of units of study consists of either:
3.1.1 36 Senior credit points in a single subject area, or
3.1.2 18 Senior credit points in a single subject area combined with no more than 18 Senior credit points cross-listed to the major, except in the case of Asian Studies, European Studies, Film Studies and Medieval Studies, or in other subject areas as may be approved by the Dean, where the entire major may be cross-listed from the Schedule of cross-listed units of study.

3.2 A major from Part B of the Table of units of study is as defined in the resolutions of the Faculty offering the major.

3.3 Cross-listing

3.3.1 Where the Faculty deems that the content of a unit of study offered in one subject area is also related to another subject area, the unit may be counted (cross-listed) as a unit in the other subject area.

3.3.2 However, cross-listed units may only be counted once, either in the subject area offering the unit, or in the subject area to which the unit is cross-listed.

3.3.3 Only units of study in the Schedule of cross-listed units of study, updated annually by the Faculty, are available for cross-listing.

4. Requirements for honours degrees

4.1 To qualify to enrol in an honours course as a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) candidate, a student must:
4.1.1 have qualified for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Arts from the University of Sydney, or have qualified for the award of a pass degree from another faculty of the University of Sydney, or from another university, and
4.1.2 have completed the prerequisites as outlined in the Table of units of study; and
4.1.3 have the written permission of the chair of department concerned.

4.2 To qualify to enrol in an honours course as a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) candidate, a student must:
4.2.1 have qualified for the award of the pass degree of the same name from the University of Sydney or from another faculty of the University of Sydney, or from another university; and 4.2.2 have satisfied all entry requirements specific to honours courses in that degree; and
4.2.3 have completed the prerequisites as outlined in the Table of units of study; and
4.2.4 have the written permission of the relevant chair of department and/or degree coordinator concerned.

4.3 To qualify to enrol in an honours course as a Bachelor of Liberal Studies (Honours) candidate, a student must:
4.3.1 have qualified for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Liberal Studies, Bachelor of Liberal Studies (International) or Bachelor of Liberal Studies (Advanced) from the University of Sydney; and
4.3.2 have satisfied all entry requirements specific to honours courses in the Bachelor of Liberal Studies (Honours) degree; and
4.3.3 have completed the prerequisites as outlined in the Table of units of study; and
4.3.4 have the written permission of the chair of department concerned.

4.4 A student who is qualified to enrol in two honours courses may either:
4.4.1 complete the honours course in the two subject areas separately and in succession, or
4.4.2 complete a Joint honours course, equivalent to an honours course in a single subject area, in the two subject areas.

4.4.3 A Joint honours course shall comprise such units of the two Honours courses as may be decided by the Dean.

4.5 An honours course consists of 48 credit points at 4000 Level in a single subject area, or in two subject areas for students completing Joint honours, completed with a minimum overall mark of 65.

4.5.1 The grade of honours and the honours mark are determined by performance in the honours course according to the following:

4.5.1.1 Honours Class I 80-100
4.5.1.2 Honours Class II (Division 1) 75-79
4.5.1.3 Honours Class II (Division 2) 70-74
4.5.1.4 Honours Class III 65-69
4.5.1.5 Pass (Honours not awarded) 50-64

4.5.2 A student with an honours mark of 90 and an outstanding academic record throughout the award course may be considered by the Dean, on the advice of the Faculty Honours Committee, for the award of a University Medal.

4.5.3 A student who fails or Discontinue - Fails an honours course may not re-enrol in it.

4.5.4 The honours course is normally full-time over two consecutive semesters. Students who are unable to enrol full-time should make written application to the Faculty to undertake the honours course part-time over a maximum of four consecutive semesters.

4.5.5.1 Students who wish to suspend their honours candidature should make written application to the Faculty.

4.5.5.2 The maximum period of suspension is one semester; the maximum period of candidature is five consecutive semesters when a suspension is approved. Honours candidates returning after a semester of suspension must inform the Faculty of Arts in writing of their intention to re-enrol.

4.5.6 A student may not:
4.5.6.1 enrol concurrently in a 4000-level unit of study and any other course or unit of study; and/or
4.5.6.2 enrol in more than two 4000-level units of study in any one semester.

4.5.7 Combined degree students, except those enrolled in BA (Advanced) (Honours)/MBBS, are required to transfer to a single Bachelor of Arts candidature when enrolled in 4000-level units of study.

4.5.8.1 The testamur for the honours course shall specify the Honours subject area/s and the grade of honours, and the University Medal if awarded.

4.5.8.2 The testamur will not include majors.

5. Enrolment in more/less than minimum load

5.1 In the first two semesters of candidature, students must enrol in a minimum of 12 Junior credit points and a maximum of 48 Junior credit points, unless in receipt of credit or advanced standing that permits enrolment in more than 48 credit points.
5.1.2 The minimum enrolment per semester is 6 credit points.
5.1.3 After the first two semesters of candidature the maximum enrolment per semester is 30 credit points.
5.1.4 From any single subject area in the Table of units of study, the maximum number of credit points that may be counted towards a degree is: Junior 18 and/or Senior 60.

6. Cross-institutional study

6.1 The Faculty of Arts may give students enrolled in award courses under the Faculty’s supervision permission to apply to undertake a unit of study at another tertiary institution, provided that the unit is to be counted towards their award course at the University of Sydney.

6.2 Applications will be considered if:
6.2.1 the student has completed 48 credit points towards the award course in which they are enrolled;
6.2.2 the unit of study is relevant to the content of the student's degree;
6.2.3 the content of the unit of study is not taught in any corresponding unit available to the student at the University of Sydney, or the student is unable for good reason to attend a corresponding unit at the University of Sydney.

7. Restrictions on enrolment
7.1 Students are subject to the provisions of Section 7 Enrolment Restrictions of the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended).

7.2.1 A student may not enrol in a unit of study based on a language other than English if, in the opinion of the chair of department concerned, on the advice of the teacher of the unit, the student's linguistic knowledge or competence would unfairly advantage them over other students enrolled in the unit of study.

7.2.2 If enrolment has already taken place, the Dean may direct that the student be withdrawn without penalty from the unit of study.

7.3.1 A student may not repeat a unit of study in which they have previously gained a result of Pass (Concessional), the credit point value of the unit cannot be counted twice towards the degree.

8. Discontinuation of enrolment
8.1 Students are subject to the provisions of Section 12 Discontinuation of enrolment of the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended).

8.1.2 With reference to section 12.2, a student who totally withdraws or totally discontinues enrolment during the first year of enrolment will, on application to the Faculty, be granted permission by the Dean to re-enrol in the same year of enrolment will, on application to the Faculty, be granted permission by the Dean to re-enrol in the same year of enrolment will, on application to the Faculty, be granted permission by the Dean to re-enrol in the same year of enrolment.

8.1.3 After that period, the student must apply to UAC and be reselected for admission in competition with other applicants, and will be subject to the Undergraduate Admission policy of the Faculty at the time.

9. Suspension of candidature and re-enrolment after an absence
9.1 Students are subject to the provisions of Section 13 of the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended).

9.2 A student who wishes to suspend candidature for one or more semesters must make written application to the Faculty.

9.3 Students who wish to re-enrol after one or more semesters of approved suspension must notify the Faculty in writing two months before the beginning of the semester in which they wish to recommence.

9.4 Other than those students who have obtained approval from the Faculty for a suspension, the candidature of a student who is not enrolled in any two consecutive semesters will be regarded as having automatically lapsed.

9.5 A student whose candidature has lapsed must apply to UAC and be reselected for admission to candidature in competition with other applicants, and will be subject to the Undergraduate Admission policy of the Faculty at the time.

10. Satisfactory progress
10.1 Students are subject to the provisions of Sections 14-18 of the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended).

10.2 The Faculty requires all students under its supervision or joint-supervision to make satisfactory progress towards completion of the award course in which they are enrolled.

10.3 The Faculty defines satisfactory progress as the successful completion of the minimum of 50 per cent of the units of study in which a candidate is enrolled in any two consecutive semesters of enrolment.

10.4 Students who do not meet this progression requirement will be notified that the Faculty wishes to see an improvement in their academic progress.

10.5 Students who then again fail to successfully complete 50 per cent of the units of study in which they are enrolled in their subsequent two consecutive semesters of enrolment will be required to show good cause why they should be allowed to re-enrol.

11. Time limits
11.1 Students are subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended).

11.2 All requirements for the award of a degree or degrees under the supervision or part-supervision of the Faculty of Arts must be completed within 10 calendar years of first admission to candidature.

11.3 If a student is admitted, or re-admitted, with credit, the Faculty will determine a reduced time limit for completion.

12. Assessment policy
12.1 The assessment requirements for each unit of study are outlined in the Faculty Handbook, and detailed in the departmental information distributed to students enrolled in that unit.

13. Attendance at classes
13.1 Students who will be absent from all classes for more than one week should seek leave of absence from the Faculty.

13.2 The Faculty regards a student who is absent without leave from more than 10 per cent of classes in any particular unit of study as having failed to satisfy attendance requirements which, if they lead to the student being deemed not to have completed that unit of study.

14. Credit transfer
14.1 Students are subject to the provisions of Section 8.1 and 8.2.1 Credit for Preceding Studies of the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended), and to the detailed provisions of the Faculty of Arts Credit Transfer Policy.

14.2 In summary that policy allows students to be granted credit for:
14.2.1 up to 96 credit points for units successfully completed in an otherwise incomplete Bachelor degree candidature at a recognised tertiary institution, provided that:
14.2.1.1 the units have not, and will not be counted towards another qualification; and
14.2.1.2 the units have been completed no more than nine years prior to the current admission or re-admission; or 14.2.2 up to 48 credit points (including a maximum of 24 Junior credit points) for units successfully completed in a completed Bachelor degree candidature at a recognised tertiary institution, provided that the units were completed no more than nine years prior to the current admission or re-admission.

14.3 Students will not be granted credit under both 14.2.1 and 14.2.2.

14.4 Students will also be granted credit for units of study completed at the University of Sydney Summer and Winter Schools where those units correspond to units of study in the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study and are not surplus to degree requirements.

14.5 The Faculty of Arts Credit Transfer Policy is available on the World Web at: www.usyd.edu.au or in the Faculty of Arts Office.

15. Advanced standing
15.1 Students may be granted Advanced Standing in a particular subject area or areas on the basis of previous studies, experience, skills or knowledge.

15.2 Advanced Standing allows the student to advance to Senior units without having to satisfy pre- or corequisites at Junior level.

15.3 Advanced Standing does not reduce the number of credit points required for the award of the degree/s.

16. Units of study surplus to degree requirements
16.1 Units of study paid for through HECS-HELP must be part of an award course. Unless Faculty permission has been given to include surplus units as part of an award course, such units must be taken on a fee-paying, non-award basis.

17. Variation of number of Junior units
17.1 The Faculty may permit candidates (other than combined degree candidates) to count up to 12 Junior credit points in place of 12 of the Senior credit points required for a particular minimum if:
17.1.1 they have completed within the Faculty of Arts 48 Junior credit points in either the first two semesters of full-time candidature, or in the first four semesters of part-time candidature; and 17.1.2 they have no discontinuations or failures.
Individual degree resolutions

Bachelor of Arts
1. To qualify for the award of the degree students must be admitted to candidature for the degree and complete 144 credit points in total, including:

2. To qualify for the award of the honours degree students must complete the requirements outlined in Section 4 Requirements for honours degrees in the Arts Undergraduate Resolutions.

Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours)
1. To qualify for the award of the degree students must be admitted to candidature for the degree and complete 144 credit points in total, including:
1.1 a minimum of 96 senior (2000-3000 level) credit points from Table of units of study, including an Arts major from Part A of the Table. (An Arts major consists of 36 senior credit points in a single subject area, or cross-listed between subject areas, as outlined in Section 3 The Major and cross-listing of the Faculty’s General Resolutions relating to undergraduate degrees and combined degrees). The credit points completed under 1.1 must include all prerequisites and entry requirements for the 4000-level units required in 1.2;
1.2 after completion of the requirements of 1.1, 48 4000-level credit points from a single subject area from Part A of the Table (this may be the same subject area as the major in 1.1), or from two subject areas, as required in Section 4 Requirements for honours degrees in the Arts Undergraduate Resolutions. Students attempting double or joint honours may include one subject area from Part B of the Table;
1.3 no more than 60 2000-3000 level senior credit points from any single subject area in the Table;
1.4 no more than 36 intermediate/senior credit points from units of study in Part B of the Table, except that students who intend to take up double or joint honours may take up to 48 intermediate/senior credit points from units of study in Part B of the Table in one of their honours subjects;
1.5 a minimum credit average (65 per cent) across all units of study attempted in any year of enrolment prior to the year of enrolment in 4000-level units of study. Students who fail to maintain a credit average will be transferred to candidature for the Bachelor of Arts degree with full credit from their Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours) candidature.

2. Award of Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours)
2.1 A student who fails to complete 48 4000-level credit points, or whose final result is below 50, will be allowed to enrol as a Bachelor of Arts candidate under the resolutions for that degree, with full credit for all 2000 – 3000 level units of study completed in their Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours) candidature.
2.2 A student who fails or Discontinue-Fails an honours course may not re-enrol in it.
3. Cross-institutional study
3.1 It is not possible for students enrolled in the BA (Advanced) (Honours) to undertake cross-institutional study.
4. Credit transfer policy
4.1 It is not possible for students enrolled in the Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours) to obtain credit through transfer.

Bachelor of Arts (Asian Studies)
1. To qualify for the award of the degree students must complete 144 credit points in total, including:
1.1 two majors, at least one of which must be a language, from the following subject areas:
1.1.1 Arabic Language and Literature
1.1.2 Arab World, Islam and the Middle East
1.1.3 Asian Studies
1.1.4 Chinese Studies

Except with the permission of the Dean or Associate Dean (Undergraduate), candidates in a Combined Law program must successfully complete Foundations of Law before enrolling in any other Bachelor of Laws units of study. Students must complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts before proceeding to the Bachelor of Laws (unless they have permission from the Faculty of Law stating otherwise). On written application to the Faculty of Arts, a student may abandon their candidature in the combined degree program and elect to transfer to the Bachelor of Arts degree in accordance with the Resolutions governing that degree at the time of transfer.

4. Requirements for honours degrees

4.1 Both the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Laws may be awarded with honours.

4.2 To qualify for the award of the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree, a student in the combined Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws degree program must:

4.2.1 with the permission of the Faculty of Law, either suspend their candidature for the Bachelor of Laws degree while undertaking the honours course, or undertake the honours course after completion of both degrees in the combined program; and complete the requirements outlined in Section 4 Requirements for honours degrees in the Faculty of Arts Resolutions relating to undergraduate degrees and combined degrees, in the Faculty of Arts Handbook.

4.2.2 Honours in the Bachelor of Laws may be awarded in two classes: Class I and Class II.

4.3 To qualify for the award of honours in the Bachelor of Laws (Honours) a student must obtain the following WAM across all Law units, including those taken as part of the combined award course and any failures:

- First class honours are awarded to students who obtain an average mark of 75 per cent or higher (weighted in accordance with the credit points for each unit of study).
- Second class honours are awarded to students who obtain an average mark of between 70 per cent and 74.9 percent (weighted in accordance with the credit points for each unit of study).

4.3.1 Honours in the Bachelor of Laws degree may be awarded in two classes: Class I and Class II.

4.3.2 Students who qualify for the award of first class honours, and whose work is of outstanding merit in the opinion of the Faculty, may be considered for the award of a University Medal.

4.3.3 An honours year is not required.

Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music Studies

[Section 1]

1. Admission

1.1 An applicant may gain admission to the program by satisfying requirements in each of the following:

1.1.1 The NSW Higher School Certificate [HSC], or its interstate or overseas equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Faculty of Arts for entry in the Bachelor of Arts. Students must have presented a minimum of two units of English and are expected to have presented a minimum of two units of Music for the HSC examination.

1.1.2 An interview and/or audition according to their proposed Principal Study as set out below:

1.1.2.1 Students wishing to undertake a major study in an instrument or voice: Applicants present an audition according to the requirements published by the Conservatorium of Music for major study in their instrument or voice.

1.1.2.2 Students wishing to undertake a minor study in an instrument or voice: Applicants present an audition according to the requirements published by the Conservatorium of Music for minor study in their instrument or voice.

1.1.2.3 Students wishing to undertake major study in composition: Applicants are required to submit at least three compositions in different performance media which should represent their present level of achievement as composers and to attend an interview at the Conservatorium.

1.1.2.4 Students wishing to undertake a major in musicology: Applicants are required to present an example of recent written work and to attend an interview at the Conservatorium.

1.1.3 A Music Skills test set by the Conservatorium.

1.2 Mature age students

1.2.1 Applicants who have attained the age of 21 years by 1 March in the year of intended enrolment may apply for Mature Age Admission.

1.2.2 Applicants for Mature Age Admission must present evidence demonstrating that they have attained a standard of education and experience adequate for entry to the program and have the capacity to successfully undertake study at the tertiary level and also satisfy requirements set out above in 1.1.2 and 1.1.3.

2. Units of study

2.1 The units of study which may be taken for the degree are set out in the relevant tables of units of study, published annually.
for the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Music Studies in the Conservatorium Handbook and Faculty of Arts Handbook

2.2 Full-time students normally take 6 units of study with a total credit point value of 24 credit points per semester for 10 semesters.

2.3 Prerequisites and corequisites for units of study are set out in the relevant tables of units of study cited in 2.1.

3. Requirements for the degree

3.1 To qualify for the award of the degree a student must complete 240 credit points in total from the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study and the units of study available to Bachelor of Music Studies candidates, comprising:

3.1.1 126 credit points from the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study, including:

3.1.1.1 a minimum of 72 senior credit points from Part A of the Faculty of Arts Table of Units of Study, including a major from Part A consisting of 36 senior credit points in a single subject area, or cross-listed between subject areas, as outlined in General Faculty of Arts Resolutions - Undergraduate Degrees and Combined Degrees - Section 9, the major and the cross-listing; and

3.1.1.2 54 credit points from the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study, which may include a second major from Part A, or a major from Part B. (A major in Part B of the Table of units of study is as defined in the resolutions of the Faculty offering the major.); and

3.1.2 114 credit points from units of study available to Bachelor of Music Studies candidates, including:

3.1.2.1 Principal Study over six semesters, as defined below; Principal Study: All students take Principal Study over six contiguous semesters. Principal Study may be taken at a Major level (6 credit points) or a Minor level (3 credit points). Principal Study is major or minor study in Voice, Piano, Harpsichord, Organ, Violin, Viola, Cello, Double Bass, Guitar, Lute, Harp, Flute, Oboe, Clarinet, Saxophone, Bassoon, Recorder, French Horn, Trumpet, Trombone, Tuba, Percussion, and such other instruments as may be approved by the Undergraduate Studies Committee, Composition or Musicology.

3.1.2.2 core requirements as set out in the table below;

3.1.2.3 other subjects from the table of courses of Bachelor of Music Studies of the student’s choice.

Core requirements for students of the Bachelor of Music Studies are set out in the table below. Students should complete a minimum of the following number of credit points in three areas (Principal Study, core units, other subjects) throughout their course and reach the following minimum levels of achievement:

If Principal Study is Performance then 69 credit points and further units to the value of approximately 27 credit points to be taken in areas of the student’s choice.

3.2 Requirements for the honours degree

3.2.1 Students who are qualified to do so may undertake honours in the Bachelor of Arts. Requirements for honours are according to the resolutions set out in paragraphs 10–27 of the Faculty Resolutions of the Bachelor of Arts Degree in the Faculty of Arts handbook.

3.3 Qualification for honours

3.3.1 Students are admitted to the honours program according to the resolutions set out in paragraphs 10–27 of the Faculty Resolutions of the Bachelor of Arts degree.

3.4 Grades of honours

3.4.1 Grades of honours are according to the resolutions set out in paragraphs 10–27 of the Faculty Resolutions of the Bachelor of Arts degree.

4. Supervision

4.1 Students will be under the joint supervision of the Faculty of Arts and the Conservatorium.

4.2 The Dean of the Faculty of Arts and the Dean of the Conservatorium shall jointly exercise authority in any matter concerning the combined degree program not otherwise dealt with in the Resolutions of the Senate or in these resolutions.

[Section 2]

5. Details of units of study

5.1 Prerequisites, corequisites, assumed knowledge, mode of delivery, assessment and course content for units of study are as published annually in the Conservatorium Handbook and as advised in unit of study handouts.

6. Variation of normal load

6.1 A normal full-time load is defined as an enrolment in a program of units of approved study to a total value of 24 credit points in any one semester. Students may enrol in a program of units of study at variance to a normal full-time load under the provision laid down in 4.2 and 4.3 of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium and in Section 2, paragraph 60 of the resolutions of the Faculty of Arts relating to combined degrees.

7. Cross-institutional study

7.1 Provided that permission has been obtained in advance, the relevant Dean may permit a student to complete a unit of study at another institution and have that unit credited to his/her course requirements provided that either 7.1.1 the unit of study content is material not taught in any corresponding unit of study in the University, or

7.1.2 the student is unable for good reason to attend a corresponding unit of study at the University.

8. Restriction on enrolment

8.1 Rules on enrolment in units of study with the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music Studies are governed by rule 3 and subsections of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and by paragraph 63 of the resolutions of the Faculty of Arts relating to combined degrees.

9. Discontinuation of enrolment

9.1 Rules on Discontinuation of enrolment within the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music Studies are governed by rule 4.6 and subsections of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. On written application to the relevant faculty, students may abandon the combined degree course and elect to complete either a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Music Studies in accordance with the resolutions governing those degrees.

9.2.1 Students resuming a course after extended leave of absence or withdrawal from a course shall be subject to the course requirements in effect at the time of resumption, and shall be required to re-enrol as directed by the Head of School. If re-enrolling in a Principal Study unit of study (as defined in 3.1 above) students shall be required to pass a re-audition at a level determined by the Head of School.

10. Suspension of candidature and re-enrolment after an absence

10.1 Rules on extended leave of absence, withdrawal for a course or unit of study are governed by rules 4.5.5 and 4.6 and subsections of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. Students resuming a course after extended leave of absence or withdrawal from a course shall be subject to the course requirements in effect at the time of resumption, and shall be required to re-enrol as directed by the Head of School. If re-enrolling in a Principal Study unit of study (as defined in 3.1 above) students shall be required to pass a re-audition at a level determined by the Head of School.

11. Satisfactory progress

11.1 Rules on progression in the program are governed by rule 4 and subsections of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and in paragraph 64 of the resolutions of the Faculty of Arts relating to Combined Degree. The relevant Dean may on the recommendation of the relevant Head of School and in accordance with paragraph 4 and paragraph 5.8 of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music or paragraph 64 of the resolutions of the Faculty of Arts relating to Joint Degree, call upon any candidate to show cause why that candidature should not be terminated by reason of unsatisfactory progress towards completion of the degree; and where, in the opinion of the Conservatorium, the candidate does not show good cause, terminate the candidature.

12. Time limit
12.1 A student shall be required to complete the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music Studies within a period of 10 years from commencement of enrolment, except that the requirements for Principal Study shall be completed within a period of eight semesters, as set out in rule 6 of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

13. Credit for previous study
13.1 A candidate may receive credit for previous study at the Conservatorium or at another institution under the regulations set down in rules 1.3, 1.4 and 1.5 of the Rules of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and paragraph 69 (Credit transfer policy) of the resolutions of the Faculty of Arts relating to combined degree.

Bachelor of Arts/Master of Nursing

These Resolutions must be read in conjunction with the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended) which sets out the requirements for all coursework courses, and the relevant Resolutions of the Senate.

1. Admission
1.1 Applicants for admission as candidates for the combined Bachelor of Arts/Master of Nursing shall:
1.1.1 be eligible for admittance to the Bachelor of Arts, the University of Sydney;
1.1.2 meet minimum standards, as specified by the Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery;
1.1.2.1 written and verbal English language competence and interpersonal communication;
1.1.2.2 numeracy; and
1.1.2.3 not hold a bachelor qualification approved for the purposes of meeting the requirements to register, or be registered as a nurse in New South Wales.
1.2 Candidates who do not meet the above criteria, may be admitted by the Dean of Nursing and Midwifery.
1.3 Applicants with qualifications gained in a country other than Australia, where the previous qualification was not taken in English, will be required to have a minimum IELTS of 7.0 with 7.0 in each band.
1.4 Mature-age applicants will be assessed on criteria determined by the Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery.

2. Units of study
2.1 Refer to the Faculty website.

3. Requirements for the Bachelor of Arts/Master of Nursing
3.1 To qualify for the award of the degree of combined Bachelor of Arts/Master of Nursing, a candidate:
3.1.1 shall successfully complete a minimum of 192 credit points including:
3.1.1.1 144 credit points from the Bachelor of Arts including:
3.1.1.1.1 a major from Part A of the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study;
3.1.1.1.2 a maximum of 48 Junior credit points from the Faculty of Arts;
3.1.1.1.3 a maximum of 12 credit points from Part B from the Faculty of Arts Table of units of study; and

3.1.1.4.2 may not commence Master of Nursing units of study without satisfactorily completing Year 1 units of study, that is 48 credit points, in the Bachelor of Arts with a grade point average of credit or better, with due regard to any exceptional circumstances, in which case their progression must be approved by the Dean or their nominee;
3.1.1.4.3 may not enrol in Year 4 Master of Nursing units of study until they have completed the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts;
3.1.1.4.4 will be under the general supervision of the Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery. General supervision covers all areas of policy and procedures affecting candidates such as combined course rules and enrolment procedures;
3.1.1.4.5 will receive separate testamurs for both the Bachelor of Arts and the Master of Nursing in accordance with appropriate rules governing those degrees;
3.1.1.4.6 will satisfy the requirements of all other relevant By-Laws, Rules and Resolutions of the University and Faculty;
3.1.1.4.7 will, where appropriate, undertake further or remedial theoretical, clinical or practical study in addition to the minimum requirements set down in 3.1.1 as required by the Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery.

3.2 The requirements of the award must be completed within a maximum of 6 calendar years for full-time students or nine calendar years for part-time students, pro-rata for those students who change their pattern of study between full- and part-time, including any time taken for a suspension of candidature.

3.3 Candidates who abandon the combined course and:
3.3.1 who do not hold a bachelor degree may elect to complete the Bachelor of Arts degree in accordance with appropriate rules governing that degree and the Faculty of Arts will recognise up to 48 credit points completed in the Master of Nursing towards the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts; or
3.3.2 hold a bachelor degree may elect to complete either degree in accordance with the resolutions governing that degree and the Faculty of Arts will recognise up to 48 credit points completed in the Master of Nursing as satisfactorily completing requirements for the Bachelor of Arts.

3.4 The Deans of the Faculties of Nursing and Midwifery and Arts shall jointly exercise authority in any matter concerning this combined degree course not otherwise dealt with in these resolutions.

3.5 Students are required to attend clinical placements and laboratory sessions as prescribed by the Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery.

3.6 A candidate who is deemed to be unsatisfactory at any time during a clinical placement may have that placement terminated, be failed in that unit of study and may be required to attend a Professional Standards Subcommittee hearing. The subcommittee may:
3.6.1 require the candidate to undertake units of study or clinical practice in addition to the minimum credit point value for the degree set down in 3.1.1 above; and/or
3.6.2 ask the candidate to show good cause as to why they should be allowed to continue the degree.

3.7 A candidate whose behaviour, performance or character may be considered to be incompatible with the safe and professional practice of nurses and midwives, or commits any serious breach of the ethical standards required for the professional practice of nursing, or is convicted of an indictable offence, may be required to attend a Professional Standards Subcommittee hearing. The subcommittee may:
3.7.1 require the candidate to undertake units of study or clinical practice or other requirements in addition to the minimum credit point value for the degree set down in 3.1.1 above; and/or
3.7.2 ask the candidate to show good cause as to why they should be allowed to continue the degree.

4. Requirements for honours degrees
4.1 Honours will be awarded in accordance with the resolutions for the degree to which the award is to be applied.

5. Details of units of study
5.1 Refer to the relevant section of the Faculty handbooks.
any one semester may, at the discretion of the Dean, be permitted to do so.

7. Cross Institutional study

7.1 Credit granted on the basis of work completed at another university or institution as part of a program of cross-institutional study may not exceed 24 credit points.

8. Restrictions on enrolment

8.1 In considering an application for admission to candidature the Faculty will select in preference applicants who are most meritorious in terms of the admission criteria.

8.2 The enrolment of candidates in units of study shall be limited by the exigencies of the timetable.

8.3 The student must demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the Faculty, that during the candidature the student will be able to complete clinical and field experience required for the course.

9. Discontinuation of enrolment

9.1 A student who has discontinued candidature or whose candidature is deemed to have lapsed must apply for re-admission in accordance with the current procedures for new applicants to the degree.

10. Suspension of enrolment

10.1 Suspension of enrolment is only applicable in cases of hardship or activities on the part of the student that are of national or state importance/are of a significant nature.

10.2 Examples of hardship may be illness or financial difficulties. Activities of a significant nature may be the inclusion of the student on a national sporting team, orchestra, etc that requires him/her to travel extensively for a specific period of time.

10.3 The granting of a suspension of candidature is at the discretion of the Dean.

10.4 Suspension of candidature will be for a minimum of one semester and a maximum of two semesters and may be granted only once during the degree.

10.5 In cases where a suspension of candidature is not granted, students may be required to discontinue their studies and follow the procedures for re-enrolment after an absence.

11. Re-enrolment after an absence

11.1 There is no automatic right of re-entry. Students who wish to be considered for re-enrolment need to fulfil the following conditions:

11.1.1 lodge an application by 30 October in the year prior to that in which re-enrolment is sought;

11.1.2 attach a current academic transcript (progress status is contingent upon an absence of not more than two years from the course); and

11.1.3 ensure that outstanding debts with the University and/or show cause requirements are attended to before submission of the application (applications cannot be considered until financial obligations and show cause requirements are completed).

11.2 Applications will be considered in conjunction with all other applications by students applying under these conditions prior to the commencement of the academic year in which the student wishes to enrol.

12. Satisfactory progress

12.1 The Board of Studies shall have the power to resolve on satisfactory progress and progression in individual cases.

12.2 A Concessional Pass (PCON) may be considered for no more than one unit of study in the final year of enrolment and will not apply to any nursing practice unit or to any previously failed unit.

12.3 Candidates who fail:

12.3.1 up to 6 credit points of the units of study in which they are enrolled in any one semester may progress to a normal full-time load in the subsequent semester. Any failed unit of study must be taken in the following year;

12.3.2 between 12 and 24 credit points of the units of study in which they are enrolled in any year may only progress to a normal full-time load in the subsequent year. This unit must include the units in which they failed previously; or

12.3.3 more than 24 credit points of the credit point load undertaken during a year, or who fail to meet the requirements of a practicum unit, or who discontinue fail enrolment in one unit of study twice shall be deemed not to have made satisfactory progress;

12.3.4 candidates who fall into category 12.3.3 shall be required to show good cause as to why they should be permitted to re-enrol in the course.

12.4 Under clauses 12.3.1, 12.3.2, 12.3.3 and 12.3.4 candidates who are enrolled in a combined degree will not be permitted to undertake Year 4 units of study until such time as they have completed their undergraduate degree.

12.5 The Faculty reserves the right to require students who are asked to show cause to enrol in and successfully complete units of study in addition to the minimum number of credit points required to complete the degree.

12.6 The Faculty reserves the right to require students who are asked to show cause and who fail to demonstrate the minimum level of spoken or written English required by the Faculty to provide documentation to show they have an IELTS (or equivalent) score of 7.0 overall and 7.0 in each band.

13. Time limit

13.1 A candidate for the degree may proceed on either a full-time or part-time basis.

13.1.1 a full-time candidate shall complete the requirements for the degree no later than the twelfth semester of candidature for a combined degree including time taken for a suspension of candidature;

13.1.2 a part-time candidate shall complete the requirements for the degree no later than the eighteenth semester of candidature for a combined degree including time taken for a suspension of candidature;

13.1.3 these times are pro-rata for candidates who change their study between full and part-time.

14. Assessment policy

14.1 Assessment will be carried out in accordance with the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended) and the general Resolutions of the Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery.

15. Credit transfer policy

15.1 Credit granted on the basis of work completed or prior learning in another course at this University or at another university may not exceed 24 credit points.

15.2 Credit granted on the basis of work completed at an institution other than a university may not exceed 18 credit points.

15.3 Credit will not be granted for any units of study which were completed more than five years before admission or re-admission to candidature.

16. Transitional arrangements

16.1 No transitional arrangements are required.

The Major and cross-listing in the Faculty of Arts Undergraduate Resolutions. The credit points completed under 2.4.1 must include all pre-requisites and entry requirements for the 4000-level units required in 2.4.3.3.

2.4.3 after completion of the requirements of 2.4.1 and 2.4.2.2 48000-level credit points from a single subject area from Part A of the Table (this may be the same subject area as the major), or from two subject areas, as required in Section 4 Requirements for Honours Degrees in the Faculty of Arts Undergraduate Resolutions. Students attempting Double or Joint Honours may include one subject area from Part B of the Table.

2.4.4 no more than 60 2000-3000 level senior credit points from any single subject area in the Table;

2.4.5 no more than 36 Intermediate/Senior credit points from units of study in Part B of the Table, except that students who intend to undertake Double or Joint Honours may take up to 48 intermediate/senior credit points from units of study in Part B of the Table in one of their Honours subjects;

2.5 To qualify for the award of the degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery a student shall complete units of study having a total value of 192 credit points as required by the Resolutions of the Faculty of Medicine.

2.6 Students may abandon the combined degree course and elect to complete the BA (Advanced) (Honours) degree.

3. Requirements for Honours Degrees

3.1 The grade of honours and the honours mark are determined by performance in the honours course according to the following:

3.1.1 Honours Class I 80-100

3.1.2 Honours Class II (Division I) 75-79

3.1.3 Honours Class II (Division 2) 70-74

3.1.4 Honours Class III 65-69

3.1.5 Awarded Bachelor of Arts degree (Honours not awarded) 50-64

3.2 A student who fails to complete 48 4000-level credit points, or whose final result is below 50, will be allowed to enrol as a Bachelor of Arts candidate under the resolutions for that degree, with full credit for all 2000-3000 level units of study completed in their Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours) candidature.

3.3 A student who fails, or Discontinue—Fails an honours course may not re-enrol in it.

4. Award of Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours)/Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery

4.1 An average mark of 60 must be maintained throughout the Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours) degree, successful completion of five SMTP units of study and 18 Junior credit points of designated Science units of study, as well as the successful completion of MBBS requirements.

4.2 Students will be under the general supervision of the Faculty of Arts until the end of the semester in which they complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours) degree. After that they will be under the general supervision of the Faculty of Medicine.

4.3 The Deans of the Faculties of Medicine and Arts shall jointly exercise authority in any matter concerning the combined degree program not otherwise dealt with in these resolutions.

5. Details of Units of Study

5.1 Students are to refer to the table of units of study provided in the Arts Undergraduate Handbook. Students are also required to complete:

5.1.1 Three compulsory zero credit point units of study:

- Communication in teams, Introduction to Clinical Research Ethics, Introduction to Medical Ethics.

5.1.2 Two elective zero credit point units of study drawn from a field of interest to the student and approved by both Faculties.

5.1.3 Six junior credit points of Chemistry.

5.1.4 Six junior credit points of Physics.

5.1.5 Six junior credit points of Biology or Molecular Biology and Genetics.

5.2 Students are to refer to the Units of Study for the University of Sydney Medical program provided in the Faculty of Medicine Resolutions.

6. Credit transfer policy in accordance with the University of Sydney Coursework Rule 20000 and Academic Board Policies.

6.1 It is not possible for students enrolled in the Bachelor of Arts (Advanced) (Honours)/MBBS to obtain credit through transfer.

Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts

[Section 1]

1. Admission

1.1 All applications for admission to candidate to an undergraduate degree or combined degree in the Faculty of Science will be subject to the Undergraduate Admissions policy of the University of Sydney.

1.1.1 A candidate for the BSc, BSc(Advanced) or BSc(Advanced Mathematics) may apply to the Dean for permission to transfer candidate to any other stream.

1.2 Cross-Faculty Management of Combined Degree Course

1.2.1 The primary Faculty for management of the combined course is the Faculty of Science. The Deans of the Faculties of Arts and Science shall jointly exercise authority in any matter concerning the combined degrees not otherwise dealt with in these resolutions.

2. Requirements for the degree

2.1 To qualify for the award of the pass degrees a student shall complete from the Table of undergraduate units of study for the Bachelor of Science and from the Table of units of study for the Bachelor of Arts, units of study having a total value of 240 credit points, including:

2.1.1 no more than 96 credit points from junior units of study, with no more than 18 junior credit points from the same Arts subject area;

2.1.2 at least 96 credit points from Science subject areas, including:

2.1.2.1 at least 12 credit points from the Science subject area of Mathematics and Statistics;

2.1.2.2 at least 24 credit points of junior units of study from at least two Science subject areas other than Mathematics & Statistics;

2.1.2.3 a major in a Science area as defined in Table I for the Bachelor of Science, normally requiring the completion of 24 credit points of senior units of study in one Science area, including any units of study specified in the table as compulsory for that major;

2.1.3 at least 72 credit points of senior units of study in Arts subject areas from Part A including:

2.1.3.1 a Part A major consisting of 36 senior credit points in a single subject area listed in Part A of the table of units of study for the Bachelor of Arts or of at least 18 senior credit points from a Part A subject area combined with no more than 18 senior credit points from units of study approved by the Dean of Arts for cross-listing with the major, except in the case of Medieval Studies, Film Studies, European Studies and Asian Studies where the entire major may be cross-listed, and in such other subject areas as may be approved by the Dean of Arts;

2.1.3.2 no more than 64 senior credit points from the same Arts subject area;

2.1.4 A student may not count a unit of study toward more than one major.

2.1.5 The testamurs for the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts shall specify the major(s) completed in order to qualify for the awards.

3. Specially designated streams

3.1 A student may proceed concurrently to the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science (Advanced) and Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science (Advanced Mathematics) and Bachelor of Arts.

3.2 BSc(Advanced)

3.2.1 To qualify for the award of the pass degree in the Advanced stream of the BSc degree, a student shall complete the requirements for the BSc degree in subsection 2 and in addition, except with the permission of the Dean:

3.2.1.1 include at least 12 credit points of Intermediate Science units of study at either the Advanced level or as TSP units;

3.2.1.2 include at least 24 credit points of Senior units of study at the Advanced level or as TSP units in a single Science subject area; and
4.2.2 Candidates who fail to maintain the required Credit average will be transferred to candidature for the Bachelor of Science degree in their next year of enrolment with full credit for the units of study completed in the Advanced stream. Candidates who fail to achieve a Credit average across all units of study attempted in the year in which they have otherwise completed the requirements for the degree will be awarded the Bachelor of Science.

4.2.3 Students who have completed at least 48 credit points may be permitted to transfer to the BSc (Advanced Mathematics) stream if:

3.2.3.1 their mark averaged over all attempted units of study is 75 or greater; and

3.2.3.2 they are able to enrol in the required number of Advanced level units or TSP units.

3.2.4 The testamur for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Advanced) shall specify the major(s) completed in order to qualify for the award.

3.3 BSc (Advanced Mathematics)

3.3.1 To qualify for the award of the pass degree in the Advanced Mathematics stream of the BSc degree, a student shall complete the requirements for the BSc degree in subsection 2 and in addition, except with the permission of the Dean:

3.3.1.1 include no more than 48 credit points from junior Science subject units of study;

3.3.1.2 include at least 12 credit points of intermediate units of study at either the Advanced level or as TSP units in the Science subject areas of Mathematics and Statistics;

3.3.1.3 include a major in Mathematics, Statistics or Financial Mathematics and Statistics;

3.3.1.4 include at least 48 credit points of senior units of study of which at least 24 are completed at the Advanced level or as TSP units in the Science subject areas of Mathematics and Statistics; and

3.3.1.5 maintain in intermediate and senior units of study in Science subject areas an average mark of 65 or greater in each year of enrolment.

3.3.2 Candidates who fail to maintain the required Credit average will be transferred to candidature for the Bachelor of Science degree in their next year of enrolment with full credit for the units of study completed as Bachelor of Science (Advanced Mathematics) candidates. Candidates who fail to achieve a Credit average across all units of study attempted in the year in which they have otherwise completed the requirements for the degree will be awarded the Bachelor of Science.

3.3.3 Students who have completed at least 48 credit points may be permitted to transfer to the BSc (Advanced Mathematics) stream if:

3.3.3.1 their mark averaged over all attempted units of study is 75 or greater; and

3.3.3.2 they are able to enrol in the required number of Advanced level units or TSP units.

4. Honours in Science and Arts

4.1 Students who are qualified to do so may undertake honours courses in either or both degrees or a joint honours course at the completion of the combined degrees.

4.2 There shall be honours courses in the following Science subject areas:

4.2.1 Agricultural Chemistry
4.2.2 Anatomy and Histology
4.2.3 Biochemistry
4.2.4 Biology
4.2.5 Cell Pathology
4.2.6 Chemistry
4.2.7 Computational Science
4.2.8 Computer Science
4.2.9 Environmental Studies
4.2.10 Geography
4.2.11 Geology
4.2.12 Geophysics
4.2.13 History and Philosophy of Science
4.2.14 Immunology
4.2.15 Information Systems
4.2.16 Marine Science
4.2.17 Applied Mathematics
4.2.18 Pure Mathematics
4.2.19 Microbiology
4.2.20 Molecular Biotechnology
4.2.21 Pharmacology
4.2.22 Physics
4.2.23 Physiology
4.2.24 Psychology
4.2.25 Soil Science
4.2.26 Mathematical Statistics

4.3 To qualify to enrol in an honours course, students shall:

4.3.1 have qualified for the award of a pass degree;

4.3.2 have completed a minimum of 24 credit points of Senior units of study relating to the intended honours course;

4.3.3 have achieved either:

3.3.3.1 a credit average in the relevant Senior Science units of study; or

3.3.3.2 a SCIWAM of at least 60; and

3.3.3.3 satisfy any additional criteria set by the Head of Department concerned.

4.4 Students shall complete the requirements for the honours course full-time over two consecutive semesters.

4.5 If the Faculty is satisfied that a student is unable to attempt the honours course on a full-time basis and if the Head of Department concerned so recommends, permission may be granted to undertake honours half-time over four consecutive semesters.

4.6 To qualify for the award of an honours degree, students shall complete 48 credit points of honours units of study in the Table of undergraduate units of study, as prescribed by the Head of Department concerned.

4.7 The grade of honours and the honours mark are determined by performance in the honours course.

4.8 Honours in the Bachelor of Science may be awarded in four classes as follows:

4.8.1 Class I (mark range: 80 and above)
4.8.2 Class II(1) (mark range: 75-79)
4.8.3 Class II(2) (mark range: 70-74)
4.8.4 Class III (mark range: 65-69)

4.9 A student with an honours mark of 90 or greater in an honours subject area and a minimum SCIWAM of 80 shall, if deemed to be of sufficient merit by the Dean of Science, receive a bronze medal.

4.10 A student may not re-attempt an honours course in a single subject area.

4.11 A student who is qualified to enrol in two honours courses may either:

4.11.1 complete the honours courses in the two subject areas separately and in succession; or

4.11.2 complete a joint honours course, equivalent to an honours course in a single subject area, in the two subject areas. A joint honours course shall comprise such parts of the two honours courses as may be decided by the Dean of Science.

4.12 There shall be honours courses in the following Arts subject areas:

4.12.1 Ancient History
4.12.2 Social Anthropology
4.12.3 Archaeology (Classical)
4.12.4 Archaeology (Near Eastern)
4.12.5 Archaeology (Prehistoric and Historical)
4.12.6 Art History and Theory
4.12.7 Australian Literature
4.12.8 Chinese Studies
4.12.9 Classics
4.12.10 Economics
4.12.11 Education
4.12.12 English
4.12.13 French Studies
4.12.14 Gender Studies
4.12.15 Germanic Studies
4.12.16 Government and International Relations
4.12.17 Greek (Ancient)
4.12.18 Hebrew (Classical)
4.12.19 History
4.12.20 Indonesian and Malay Studies (no guarantee of continuing availability of units)
4.12.21 Industrial Religions and Human Resource Management
4.12.22 Italian Studies
4.12.23 Japanese Studies
4.12.24 Jewish Civilisation, Thought and Culture
4.12.25 Korean Studies
2. Students who fail or discontinue - fail final year honours may 2.1 have qualified for the award of the pass degree; and 2.2 have completed at least 48 senior credit points in the subject area concerned, completed at an average of credit level, or 2.3 have completed the requirements of the Faculties of Sciences and Business, and Education and Social Work, for subject areas listed in Part B of the table of units of study for the BA, as appropriate; and 2.4 have met any other entry requirements as specified in the table of units of study for the BA, except that the entry requirement must not exceed 64 senior credit points in the subject area concerned; and 2.5 have the written approval of the Chair of department concerned.
2.6 A student who is qualified to enrol in two honours courses may either:
2.6.1 complete the honours courses in the two subject areas separately and in succession, or 2.6.2 complete a joint honours course, equivalent to an honours course in a single subject area, in the two subject areas. A joint honours course shall comprise such parts of the two honours courses as may be decided by the Dean of Arts.
2.7 Candidature is normally full-time. Full-time students must complete the requirements over two consecutive semesters.
2.8 A student may seek permission from the Dean of Arts to take the honours course on a part-time basis. Part-time candidature must not exceed four consecutive semesters.
2.9 A student may seek written permission from the Dean of Arts to suspend candidature.
2.10 Suspension may be granted for a maximum period of one
semester.
2.11 In the case of a student being granted suspension the student must not exceed five consecutive semesters, including the semester of suspension.
2.12 Students resuming the honours course after a period of suspension must advise the Faculty of Arts office in writing of their intention to re-enrol.
2.13 A student may not:
2.13.1 enrol in any fourth year unit of study without first qualifying for the award of the pass degree; and 2.13.2 be awarded the pass degree while enrolled in final year honours, or 2.13.3 enrol concurrently in a fourth year unit of study and any other course or unit of study.
2.14 A student may not enrol in more than two fourth year units per semester.
2.15 Candidates for combined degrees are required to transfer to the single Bachelor of Arts candidature when enrolled in fourth year units of study.
2.16 To qualify for the award of an honours degree, students shall complete 48 credit points of honours units of study, comprising four, 12 credit point semester length units of study.
2.17 The grade of honours and the honours mark are determined by performance in the honours course.
2.18 The award of honours degrees, the level at which they are awarded and the award of the University Medal shall be determined by the Dean of Arts on the advice of the Faculty Honours Committee.
2.19 A student with an honours mark of 90 and a meritorious record in previous studies may be considered by the Dean of Arts on the advice of the Faculty Honours Committee for the award of the University Medal.
2.20 The testamur for the honours course shall specify the subject area or areas and the grade of honours, and the medal if awarded. It shall not include majors.
2.21 Students who fail or discontinue - fail final year honours may not re-enrol in it.
overlapping units of study may be counted towards meeting the combined course requirements.
8.5 A candidate may not enrol in units of study having a total value of more than 30 credit points in a semester.
9. Time limits
9.1 A candidate must complete all the requirements for the award of the degrees within ten calendar years of admission to candidature or readmission without credit. If a candidate is readmitted with credit, the Faculty will determine a reduced time limit for completion of the degrees.
10. Repeating a unit of study
10.1 Where a student enrols in a unit of study which is the same as, or has a substantial amount in common with, a unit of study previously attempted but not completed at the grade of Pass or better, the Head of Department concerned may exempt the student from certain requirements of the unit of study if satisfied that the requisite competence has been demonstrated.
10.2 A student may not enrol in a unit of study which they have completed previously with a grade of Pass or better.
11. Discontinuation of enrolment
11.1 Students may abandon their combined degree course and elect to complete either a Bachelor of Science or a Bachelor of Arts in accordance with the resolutions governing these degrees.
12. Suspension of candidature
12.1 A student may seek written permission from the Dean to suspend candidature in the combined course. Suspension may be granted for a maximum period of one year on any one application.
13. Re-enrolment after an absence
13.1 A student who intends to re-enrol after a period of suspension must advise the Faculty of Science Office in writing of their intention by no later than the end of October for First semester of the following year or the end of May for Second semester of the same year.
14. Satisfactory progress
14.1 If a student fails or discontinues enrolment in one unit of study twice, a warning will be issued that if the unit is failed a third time, the student may be asked to show good cause why he or she should be allowed to re-enrol in that unit of study.
15. Assessment policy
15.1 Students may be tested by written and/or oral examinations, exercises, essays or practical work or any combination of these as the Faculty may determine.
15.2 Where a unit of study is offered at different levels of difficulty, the performance of students will be matched so that a grade obtained at one level indicates a quality of work comparable with that required for the same grade at the other level(s).
15.3 Heads of Department may arrange for further testing in cases of special consideration, in accordance with Academic Board policy governing illness and misadventure.
16. Credit Transfer Policy
16.1 Credit will not be granted for units of study completed more than 10 years prior to application, except with the permission of the Dean.
16.2 Credit may be granted as specific credit if the unit of study is considered to be directly equivalent to a unit of study in Table I or as non-specific credit.
16.3 The total amount of credit granted may not be greater than 96 credit points and may not include more than 48 credit points of units of study from other degrees for which credit is maintained or a degree has been conferred.
16.4 All students, notwithstanding any credit transfer, must complete at least 24 credit points of Senior Science units of study towards the combined course. (Specific to the Faculty of Science.)
17. Candidates enrolled before 2006
17.1 These Resolutions apply to all candidates for the degrees enrolling in units of study after 1 January, 2006.
17.2 With the permission of the Faculty of Science, candidates who first enrolled for the degrees prior to 2006 and have not had a period of suspension or exclusion may until 31 March 2009 choose to qualify for the degrees under the old resolutions.
17.3 With the permission of the Faculty of Science, candidates who first enrolled for the degrees as part-time candidates prior to 2006 and have not had a period of suspension or exclusion may until 31 March 2011 choose to qualify for the degrees under the old resolutions.

18. Glossary for the BSc/BA
18.1 Completion of a unit of study means that the assessment requirements have been satisfied and a grade of Pass or better has been achieved.
18.2 Junior unit of study is a 1000 or first-year stage unit. Its prerequisites or assumed knowledge are non-tertiary qualifications and corequisites are other Junior units of study.
18.3 Intermediate unit of study is a 2000 or second-year stage unit. Its prerequisites or assumed knowledge are Junior or Intermediate units of study and corequisites are other Intermediate units of study. (Specific to the Faculty of Science).
18.4 Senior unit of study is a 3000 or third-year stage unit. Its prerequisites or assumed knowledge are Junior, Intermediate or Senior units of study and corequisites are other Senior units of study. (Specific to the Faculty of Science.)
18.5 Honours unit of study is a 4000 or fourth-year stage unit offered within an honours course.
18.6 Advanced unit of study is a unit which generally parallels a normal unit of study but which provides added breadth of material and/or sophistication of approach.
18.7 Major in the BSc normally requires the completion of a minimum of 24 credit points of Senior units of study in one Science area, including any units of study specified in the Table of Science units of study. Corequisites and prerequisites or assumed knowledge are Junior units of study. (Specific to the Faculty of Science.)
18.8 Major in the Faculty of Arts is normally 36 credit points from Senior units of study in an Arts subject area.
18.9 Major in the Faculty of Economics and Business is usually a three year sequence (A study (in some cases a two year sequence) in a particular Economics and Business subject area.
18.10 Major in the Faculty of Education is 36 credit points from Senior units of study in the areas of Education.
18.11 Dean means the Dean of Science.
18.12 Faculty means the Faculty of Science.
18.13 Science subject area means a defined field of study in science.
18.14 Degrees means the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts.
18.15 Requirements means coursework requirements for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts.
18.16 Student means a person enrolled as a candidate for the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts.
18.17 TSP means the Talented Student Program in the Faculty of Science.
18.18 SCIWAM means the weighted average mark calculated by the Faculty from the results for all Intermediate and Senior units of study with a weighting of 2 for Intermediate units and 3 for Senior units.

Bachelor of Engineering/Bachelor of Arts
Participating Faculties: Faculty of Engineering and Faculty of Arts

These Resolutions must be read in conjunction with the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended), which sets out the requirements for all undergraduate courses, and the relevant Resolutions of the Senate.

1. Requirements for the Pass BE and BA awards
1.1 Candidature for this combined degree program is a minimum of 5 years of full-time study.
1.2 Candidates qualify for the two awards from the combined degree program at the major taken at the University (a separate award is made for each part of the BE and the BA) by completing the following:
1.2.1 The units of study prescribed for the BE specialisation undertaken. These units of study are set out in the tables appended to the Resolutions relating to the BE degree.
1.2.2 BA units of study totalling at least 84 credit points, of which at least 54 must be Second or Third Year credit points from Part A of the Table of units of study for the BA degree, including a major as defined in the resolutions relating to the BA degree.
3.1.1.9 Hindi and Urdu
3.1.1.8 Hebrew (Modern)
3.1.1.7 Hebrew (Classical)
3.1.1.5 Greek (Ancient)
3.1.1.2 Chinese Studies
3.1.1.1 Arabic

Requirements for the diploma

2.1 BE with Honours
2.1.1 On completion of the requirements for the combined degrees, a student may qualify for the award of the BE with Honours in accordance with the requirements set out in the Resolutions of the Faculty of Engineering relating to the BE degree.

2.2 BA with Honours
2.2.1 On completion of the requirements for the combined degrees, a student may be qualified to enrol in Honours in the Bachelor of Arts. To qualify for the award of the BA with Honours, a student must complete successfully an additional year of study (the Honours year), as specified in the Faculty of Arts Handbook.

3. Units of study
3.1 The units of study, which may be taken for the combined Bachelor of Engineering and Bachelor of Arts program, are set out in the Resolutions of the Faculty of Engineering and the Faculty of Arts respectively.

3.2 The Faculty Resolutions specify:
3.2.1 credit point values;
3.2.2 corequisites/prerequisites/assumed learning/assumed knowledge; and
3.2.3 any special conditions.

4. Supervision of the degrees
4.1 Students will be under the general supervision of the Faculty of Engineering for enrolment and administrative matters.
4.2 Students will be under the supervision of the Faculty of Arts in relation to progression and eligibility of award of the BA component and will be under the supervision of the Faculty of Engineering in relation to the BE component.
4.3 The Deans of the Faculty of Arts and the Faculty of Engineering shall jointly exercise authority in any matter concerning the combined course not otherwise dealt with in these resolutions.

5. Transfer arrangements
5.1 A student may abandon the combined BE/BA course and elect to complete either the BE or BA degree in accordance with the resolutions governing that degree.

Resolutions of the Senate relating to undergraduate diplomas offered by the Faculty of Arts

Diploma of Language Studies

Diploma of Arts

Diploma of Social Sciences

1. Grade of diploma
1.1 The diploma is awarded in three grades: pass, pass with merit and honours.

2. Eligibility for admission
2.1 An applicant must either:
2.1.1 be enrolled in an undergraduate degree or combined degree at the University of Sydney, other than undergraduate degrees or combined degrees offered by the Faculty of Arts, which includes all combined degrees with a Bachelor of Arts component and the Bachelor of Liberal Studies;
2.1.2 be enrolled for an undergraduate degree or a combined degree at another university;
2.1.3 have been awarded, or be eligible for the award of an undergraduate degree from a recognised tertiary institution.

3. Requirements for the diploma
3.1 To qualify for the pass diploma, candidates must complete at least 48 credit points including at least 36 Senior credit points in one of the following areas:
3.1.1 Diploma of Language Studies
3.1.1.1 Arabic
3.1.1.2 Chinese Studies
3.1.1.3 French Studies
3.1.1.4 Germanic Studies
3.1.1.5 Greek (Ancient)
3.1.1.6 Modern Greek Studies
3.1.1.7 Hebrew (Classical)
3.1.1.8 Hebrew (Modern)
3.1.1.9 Hindi and Urdu

3.1.1.10 Indonesian and Malay Studies (no guarantee of continuing availability of units)
3.1.1.11 Italian Studies
3.1.1.12 Japanese Studies
3.1.1.13 Korean Studies
3.1.1.14 Latin
3.1.1.15 Sanskrit
3.1.1.16 Thai (may not be offered after 2007)
3.1.1.17 Yiddish (no guarantee of continuing availability of units)

3.1.2 Diploma of Arts
3.1.2.1 Ancient History
3.1.2.2 Arab World, Islam and the Middle East
3.1.2.3 Archaeology
3.1.2.4 Art History and Theory
3.1.2.5 Asian Studies
3.1.2.6 Australian Literature
3.1.2.7 Australian Studies
3.1.2.8 Classical Studies
3.1.2.9 Cultural Studies
3.1.2.10 English
3.1.2.11 Gender Studies
3.1.2.12 History
3.1.2.13 Jewish Civilisation, Thought and Culture
3.1.2.14 Linguistics
3.1.2.15 Medieval Studies
3.1.2.16 Music
3.1.2.17 Philosophy
3.1.2.18 Studies in Religion

3.1.3 Diploma of Social Sciences
3.1.3.1 Social Anthropology
3.1.3.2 Sociology
3.1.3.3 Sociology and Social Policy
3.1.3.4 Sociology and Social Policy
3.2 The subject area will be shown in brackets on the testamur.

4. Supervision of the degrees
4.1 Students will be under the general supervision of the Faculty of Engineering for enrolment and administrative matters.
4.2 Students will be under the supervision of the Faculty of Arts in relation to progression and eligibility of award of the BA component and will be under the supervision of the Faculty of Engineering in relation to the BE component.
4.3 The Deans of the Faculty of Arts and the Faculty of Engineering shall jointly exercise authority in any matter concerning the combined course not otherwise dealt with in these resolutions.

5. Transfer arrangements
5.1 A student may abandon the combined BE/BA course and elect to complete either the BE or BA degree in accordance with the resolutions governing that degree.

Time limits
8.1 The requirements for the diploma must be completed within 5 calendar years of commencement.

9. Credit and advanced standing
9.1 A candidate may be granted credit for up to 12 Junior credit points or 6 Senior credit points for a unit of study complete at the University of Sydney or another recognised tertiary institution before admission to candidature, subject to the following restrictions:
9.1.1 The unit of study must be in the subject area being taken for the diploma. Non-specific credit will not be approved.
9.1.2 A candidate will not be granted credit for the Diploma for any units of study:
9.1.2.1 for which the result is Terminating Pass or equivalent; or 9.1.2.2 which were completed more than nine years before admission or re-admission to candidature; or 9.1.2.3 upon which the candidate has relied, or intends to rely, to qualify for another degree or academic qualification; or 9.1.2.4 which were taken at other institutions after admission to candidature.
9.2 A candidate may be granted advanced standing on the basis of previous study.
10. Application
10.1 Direct to the Faculty of Arts Office by the end of October for graduates and students currently enrolled in other programs at the University.
10.2 Those commencing another degree who wish to enrol concurrently in a Diploma should apply to the Faculty of Arts Office when they enrol in the other program.
10.3 Concurrent enrolment in two diplomas is not permitted, except with special permission from the Dean in exceptional circumstances.
The Summer School

The Summer School is a full fee-paying, intensive program offering high quality undergraduate and postgraduate units of study from most faculties. These units of study are the same as those offered in Semesters One and Two, but are taught as an intensive program over summer. Some classes commence in December, others commence in January and continue into February (including the exam week). Some units of study run for seven weeks others are shorter. Students can take a maximum of two units of study.

The Winter School

The Winter School is held every July during the academic year. The Winter School is a smaller, more intensive three week program.

Advantages

Attending classes at Sydney University during summer offers many advantages. You can

- use this time to accelerate your academic career and to finish your degree sooner
- devote your full attention to a single area of study
- take courses that might be outside your normal degree
- reduce your workload throughout the rest of the year
- repeat units of study in which you may have been unsuccessful
- combine study with a field trip in Australia or a tour overseas.

For high school graduates, you can

- sample a university program
- get a head start on your degree.

How to apply

Applications will only be accepted online. Our website is www.summer.usyd.edu.au

Some units have limited places and fill very quickly. All places are filled strictly on a first in first served basis so it is recommended that you apply early.

Census dates – Summer School 2007

Students can withdraw from their unit of study without academic penalty and receive a full refund until the census date. However, a late withdrawal fee may apply. As classes start throughout December to February there are three census dates for the Summer School. These are based on when the class commences.

Withdrawal and Refund policy

- For classes commencing in December 2006, students withdrawing from a Summer School unit of study from 28 November 2006 to 2 January 2007, will receive a refund of tuition fees but will be liable for a $500 late withdrawal fee.
- For classes commencing after 4 January 2007, students withdrawing from a Summer School unit of study from 16 December 2006 to 12 January 2007, will receive a refund of tuition fees but will be liable for a $500 late withdrawal fee.
- For classes commencing after 12 January 2007, students withdrawing from a Summer School unit of study from 16 December 2006 to 6 February 2007, will receive a refund of tuition fees but will be liable for a $500 late withdrawal fee.
- Students may withdraw from their Summer School unit(s) of study up until 4pm on the last day of the Teaching Period for that particular unit of study. However, there may be an academic penalty (please refer to our website). The Teaching Period for purposes of this policy is defined in hours of published classes from the first day through to the last day of classes, excluding any final examination or assessment.
- Students withdrawing from a Summer School unit of study after 4pm on the relevant census date will receive no refund of their tuition fee.

Transferring between Summer School units

There will be no penalty if a student changes between units of study in the Summer School before the commencement of class. However NO transfers will be allowed after the commencement of the class.

Summer School scholarships

Merit scholarships

Only four merit scholarships are available and are automatically awarded to the top four students who achieve the highest results in their Summer School unit of study.

Educational/Financial Disadvantage scholarships

Partial or full Summer School scholarships are available to local undergraduate students for the Summer School with a good academic record. To be eligible for consideration you will need to provide evidence of long-term and serious educational disadvantage based on two or more criteria, one of which must be financial hardship. Please check our website for further details. Applications close on 27 October 2006.

University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended)

Approved by: Senate on 4 December 2000
Date of effect: 1 January 2001
Latest amendment approved by: Senate on 3 December 2001
Date of effect: 1 January 2002

[Section 1]

University Coursework Rule

Preliminary

Rules relating to Coursework Award Courses

Division 1 Award course requirements, credit points and assessment

Division 2 Enrolment

Division 3 Credit, cross-institutional study and their upper limits

Division 4 Progression

Division 5 Discontinuation of enrolment and suspension of candidature

Division 6 Unsatisfactory progress and exclusion

Division 7 Exceptional circumstances

Division 8 Award of degrees, diplomas and certificates

Division 9 Transitional provisions

Division 1: Award course requirements, credit points and assessment

1. Definitions in this Rule:

1.1 award course means a formally approved program of study which can lead to an academic award granted by the University.

1.2 coursework means an award course not designated as a research award course. While the program of study in a coursework award course may include a component of original, supervised research, other forms of instruction and learning normally will be dominant. All undergraduate award courses are coursework award courses.

1.3 credit means advanced standing based on previous attainment in another award course at the University or at another institution. The advanced standing is expressed as credit points granted towards the award course. Credit may be granted as specific credit or non-specific credit.

1.3.1 specific credit means the recognition of previously completed studies as directly equivalent to units of study;

1.3.2 non-specific credit means a 'block credit' for a specified number of credit points at a particular level. These credit points may be in a particular subject area but are not linked to a specific unit of study; and

1.3.3 credit points means a measure of value indicating the contribution each unit of study provides towards meeting award course completion requirements stated as a total credit point value.

1.4 dean means the dean of a faculty or the director or principal of an academic college or the chairperson of a board of studies.

1.5 degree means a degree at the level of bachelor or master for the purpose of this Rule.

1.6 embedded courses/programs means award courses in the graduate certificate/graduate diploma/master's degree by coursework sequence which allow unit of study credit points to count in more than one of the awards.

1.7 faculty means a faculty, college board, a board of studies or the Australian Graduate School of Management Limited as established in each case by its constitution and in these Rules refers to the faculty or faculties responsible for the award course concerned.

1.8 major means a defined program of study, generally comprising specified units of study from later stages of the award course and requiring a smaller number of credit points than a major.

1.9 minor means a defined program of study, generally comprising units of study from later stages of the award course and requiring the prior completion of relevant undergraduate degree or diploma.

1.10 postgraduate award course means an award course leading to the award of a graduate certificate, graduate diploma, degree of master or a doctorate. Normally, a postgraduate award course requires the prior completion of a relevant undergraduate degree or diploma.

1.11 research award course means an award course in which students undertake and report systematic, creative work in order to increase the stock of knowledge. The research award courses offered by the University are: higher doctorate, Doctor of Philosophy, doctorates by research and advanced coursework, and certain degrees of master designated as research degrees. The systematic, creative component of a research award course must comprise at least 66 per cent of the overall award course requirements.

1.12 stream means a defined program of study within an award course, which requires the completion of a program of study specified by the award course rules for the particular stream, in addition to the core program specified by award course rules for the award course.

1.13 student means a person enrolled as a candidate for a course.

1.14 testamur means a certificate of award provided to a graduate, usually at a graduation ceremony.

1.15 transcript or academic transcript means a printed statement setting out a student's academic record at the University.

1.16 unit of study means the smallest stand-alone component of a student's award course that is recordable on a student's transcript. Units of study have an integer credit point value, normally in the range 3–24.

1.17 undergraduate award course means an award course leading to the award of an associate diploma, diploma, advanced diploma or degree of bachelor.

2. Authorities and responsibilities

2.1 Authorities and responsibilities for the functions set out in this Rule are also defined in the document Academic Delegations of Authority. The latter document sets out the mechanisms by which a person who has delegated authority may appoint an agent to perform a particular function.

2.1 The procedures for consideration of, and deadlines for submission of, proposals for new and amended award courses will be determined by the Academic Board.

Division 1: Award course requirements, credit points and assessment

3. Award course requirements

3.1 To qualify for the award of a degree, diploma or certificate, a student must:

3.1.1 complete the award course requirements specified by the Senate for the award of the degree, diploma or certificate concerned;
3.1.2 complete any other award course requirements specified by the Academic Board on the recommendation of the faculty and published in the faculty resolutions relating to the award course;

3.1.3 complete any other award course requirements specified by the faculty in accordance with its delegated authority and published in the faculty resolutions relating to the award course; and

3.1.4 satisfy the requirements of all other relevant by-laws, rules and resolutions of the University.

4. Units of study and credit points

4.1 A unit of study comprises the forms of teaching and learning approved by a faculty. Where the unit of study is being provided specifically for an award course which is the responsibility of another faculty, that faculty must also provide approval.

4.1.2 Any faculty considering the inclusion of a unit of study in the tables of units available for an award course for which it is responsible may review the forms of teaching and learning of that unit, may consult with the approving faculty about aspects of that unit and may specify additional conditions with respect to inclusion of that unit of study.

4.2 A student completes a unit of study if the student:

4.2.1 participates in the learning experiences provided for the unit of study;

4.2.2 meets the standards required by the University for academic honesty;

4.2.3 meets all examination, assessment and attendance requirements for the unit of study; and

4.2.4 passes the required assessments for the unit of study.

4.3 Each unit of study is assigned a specified number of credit points by the faculty responsible for the unit of study.

4.4 The total number of credit points required for completion of an award course will be as specified in the Senate resolutions relating to the award course.

4.5 The total number of credit points required for completion of award courses in an approved combined award course will be specified in the Senate or faculty resolutions relating to the award course.

4.6 A student may, under special circumstances, and in accordance with faculty resolutions, be permitted by the relevant dean to undertake a unit or units of study other than those specified in the faculty resolutions relating to the award course and have that unit or those units of study counted towards fulfilling the requirements of the award course in which the student is enrolled.

5. Unit of study assessment

5.1 A student who completes a unit of study will normally be awarded grades of high distinction, distinction, credit or pass, in accordance with policies established by the Academic Board. The grades high distinction, distinction and credit indicate work of a standard higher than that required for a pass.

5.2 A student who completes a unit of study for which a pass/fail result is available will be recorded as having satisfied the requirements for the unit of study.

5.3 In determining the results of a student in any unit of study, the whole of the student's work in the unit of study may be taken into account.

5.4 Examination and assessment in the University are conducted in accordance with the policies and directions of the Academic Board.

6. Attendance

6.1 A faculty has authority to specify the attendance requirements for courses or units of study in that faculty. A faculty must take into account any University policies concerning modes of attendance, equity and disabled access.

6.2 A faculty has authority to specify the circumstances under which a student who does not satisfy attendance requirements may be deemed not to have completed a unit of study or an award course.

Division 2: Enrolment

7. Enrolment restrictions

7.1 A student who has completed a unit of study towards the requirements of an award course may not re-enrol in that unit of study, except as permitted by faculty resolution or with the written permission of the dean. A student permitted to re-enrol may receive a higher or lower grade, but not additional credit points.

7.2 Except as provided in section 7.1, a student may not enrol in any unit of study which overlaps substantially in content with a unit that has already been completed or for which credit or exemption has been granted towards the award course requirements.

7.3 A student may not enrol in units of study additional to award course requirements without first obtaining permission from the relevant dean.

7.4 Except as prescribed in faculty resolutions or with the permission of the relevant dean:

7.4.1 a student enrolled in an undergraduate course may not enrol in units of study with a total value of more than 32 credit points in any one semester, or 16 credit points in the summer session; and

7.4.2 a student enrolled in a postgraduate award course may not enrol in units of study with a total value of more than 24 credit points in any one semester, or 12 credit points in the summer session.

Division 3: Credit, cross-institutional study and their upper limits

8. Credit for previous studies

8.1 Students may be granted credit on the basis of previous studies.

8.2 Notwithstanding any credit granted on the basis of work completed or prior learning in another award course at the University of Sydney or in another institution, in order to qualify for an award a student must:

8.2.1 for undergraduate award courses, complete a minimum of the equivalent of two full-time semesters of the award course at the University; and

8.2.2 for postgraduate award courses, complete at least 50 per cent of the requirements prescribed for the award course at the University.

These requirements may be varied where the work was completed as part of an embedded program at the University or as part of an award course approved by the University in an approved conjoint venture with another institution.

8.3 The credit granted on the basis of work completed at an institution other than a university normally should not exceed one third of the overall award course requirements.

8.4 A faculty has authority to establish embedded academic sequences in closely related graduate certificate, graduate diploma and master's degree award courses. In such embedded sequences, a student may be granted credit for all or some of the units of study completed in one award of the sequence towards any other award in the sequence, irrespective of whether or not the award has been conferred.

8.5 In an award course offered as part of an approved conjoint venture the provisions for the granting of credit are prescribed in the Resolutions of the Senate and the faculty resolutions relating to that award course.

9. Cross-institutional study

9.1 The relevant dean may permit a student to complete a unit or units of study at another university or institution and have that unit or those units of study credited to the student's award course.

9.2 The relevant dean has authority to determine any conditions applying to cross-institutional study.

Division 4: Progression

10. Repeating a unit of study

10.1 A student who repeats a unit of study shall, unless granted exemption by the relevant dean:

10.1.1 participate in the learning experiences provided for the unit of study; and

10.1.2 meet all examination, assessment and attendance requirements for the unit of study.

10.2 A student who presents for re-assessment in any unit of study is not eligible for any prize or scholarship awarded in connection with that unit of study without the permission of the relevant dean.

11. Time limits

11.1 A student must complete all the requirements for an award course within ten calendar years or any lesser period if specified by resolution of the Senate or the faculty.
Division 5: Discontinuation of enrolment and suspension of candidature

12. Discontinuation of enrolment
12.1 A student who wishes to discontinue enrolment in an award course or a unit of study must apply to the relevant dean and will be presumed to have discontinued enrolment from the date of that application, unless evidence is produced showing:

12.1.1 that the discontinuation occurred at an earlier date; and 12.1.2 that there was good reason why the application could not be made at the earlier time.

12.2 A student who discontinues enrolment during the first year of enrolment in an award course may not re-enrol in that award course unless:

12.2.1 the relevant dean has granted prior permission to re-enrol; or 12.2.2 the student is reselected for admission to candidature for that course.

12.3 No student may discontinue enrolment in an award course or unit of study after the end of classes in that award course or unit of study, unless he or she produces evidence that:

12.3.1 the discontinuation occurred at an earlier date; and 12.3.2 there was good reason why the application could not be made at the earlier time.

12.4 A discontinuation of enrolment may be recorded as 'Withdrawn (W)' or 'Discontinued – not to count as failure (DNF)' where that discontinuation occurs within the time-frames specified by the University and published by the faculty, or where the student meets other conditions as specified by the relevant faculty.

13. Suspension of candidature
13.1 A student must be enrolled in each semester in which he or she is actively completing the requirements for the award course. A student who wishes to suspend candidature must first obtain approval from the relevant dean.

13.2 The candidature of a student who has not re-enrolled and who has not obtained approval from the dean for suspension will be deemed to have lapsed.

13.3 A student whose candidature has lapsed must apply for re-admission in accordance with procedures determined by the relevant faculty.

13.4 A student who enrols after suspending candidature shall complete the requirements for the award course under such conditions as determined by the dean.

Division 6: Unsatisfactory progress and exclusion

14. Satisfactory progress
14.1 A faculty has authority to determine what constitutes satisfactory progress for all students enrolled in award courses in that faculty, in accordance with the policies and directions of the Academic Board.

15. Requirement to show good cause
15.1 For the purposes of this Rule, 'good cause' means circumstances beyond the reasonable control of a student, which may include serious ill health or misadventure, but does not include demands of employers, pressure of employment or time devoted to non-University activities, unless these are relevant to serious ill health or misadventure. In all cases the onus is on the student to provide the University with satisfactory evidence to establish good cause. The University may take into account relevant aspects of a student's record in other courses or units of study within the University and relevant aspects of academic studies at other institutions provided that the student presents this information to the University.

15.2 The relevant dean may require a student who has not made satisfactory progress to show good cause why he or she should be allowed to re-enrol.

15.3 The dean will permit a student who has shown good cause to re-enrol.

16. Exclusion for failure to show good cause
The dean may, where good cause has not been established:

16.1 exclude the student from the relevant course; or 16.2 permit the student to re-enrol in the relevant award course subject to restrictions on units of study, which may include, but are not restricted to:

16.2.1 completion of a unit or units of study within a specified time; 16.2.2 exclusion from a unit or units of study, provided that the dean must first consult the head of the department responsible for the unit or units of study; and 16.2.3 specification of the earliest date upon which a student may re-enrol in a unit or units of study.

17. Applying for re-admission after exclusion
17.1 A student who has been excluded from an award course or from a unit or units of study may apply to the relevant dean for re-admission to the award course or re-enrolment in the unit or units of study concerned after at least four semesters, and that dean may readmit the student to the award course or permit the student to re-enrol in the unit or units of study concerned.

17.2 With the written approval of the relevant dean, a student who has been excluded may be given credit for any work completed elsewhere in the University or in another university during a period of exclusion.

18. Appeals against exclusion
18.1 In this Rule a reference to the Appeals Committee is a reference to the Senate Student Appeals Committee (Exclusions and Re-admissions).

18.2.1 A student who has been excluded in accordance with this Rule may appeal to the Appeals Committee:

18.2.1.1 A student who has applied for re-admission to an award course or re-enrolment in a unit of study after a period of exclusion, and who is refused re-admission or re-enrolment may also apply to the Appeals Committee.

18.2.2 The Appeals Committee shall comprise:
18.2.2.1 three ex officio members (the Chancellor, the Deputy Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor and Principal);
18.2.2.2 the Chair and Deputy Chairs of the Academic Board;
18.2.2.3 two student Fellows; and
18.2.2.4 up to four other Fellows.

18.2.3 The Appeals Committee may meet as one or more subcommittees providing that each subcommittee shall include at least one member of each of the categories of:

18.2.3.1 ex officio member;
18.2.3.2 Chair or Deputy Chair of the Academic Board;
18.2.3.3 student Fellow; and 18.2.3.4 other Fellows.

18.2.4 Three members shall constitute a quorum for a meeting of the Appeals Committee or a subcommittee.

18.2.5 The Appeals Committee and its subcommittees have authority to hear and determine all such appeals and must report its decision to the Senate annually.

18.2.6 The Appeals Committee or a subcommittee may uphold or disallow any appeal and, at its discretion, may determine the earliest date within a maximum of four semesters at which a student who has been excluded shall be permitted to apply to re-enrol.

18.2.7 No appeal shall be determined without granting the student the opportunity to appear in person before the Appeals Committee or subcommittee considering the appeal. A student so appearing may be accompanied by a friend or adviser.

18.2.8 The Appeals Committee or subcommittee may hear the relevant dean but that dean may only be present at those stages at which the student is permitted to be present. Similarly, the dean is entitled to be present when the Committee or subcommittee hears the student.

18.2.9 If, due notice having been given, a student fails to attend a meeting of the Appeals Committee or subcommittee scheduled to consider that student's appeal, the Appeals Committee or subcommittee, at its discretion, may defer consideration of the appeal or may proceed to determine the appeal.

18.2.10 A student who has been excluded in accordance with these resolutions and has lodged a timely appeal against that exclusion may re-enrol pending determination of that appeal if it has not been determined by the commencement of classes in the next appropriate semester.

Division 7: Exceptional circumstances

19. Variation of award course requirements in exceptional circumstances
19.1 The relevant dean may vary any requirement for a particular student enrolled in an award course in that faculty where, in the opinion of the dean, exceptional circumstances exist.
Division 8: Award of degrees, diplomas and certificates

20. Classes of award
20.1 Undergraduate diplomas may be awarded in five grades – pass, pass with merit, pass with distinction, pass with high distinction or honours.
20.2 Degrees of bachelor may be awarded in two grades – pass or honours.
20.3 Graduate diplomas and graduate certificates may be awarded in one grade only – pass.
20.4 Degrees of master by coursework may be awarded three grades – pass, pass with merit or honours.

21. Award of the degree of bachelor with honours
21.1 The award of honours is reserved to indicate special proficiency. The basis on which a student may qualify for the award of honours in a particular award course is specified in the faculty resolutions relating to the course.
21.2 Each faculty shall publish the grading systems and criteria for the award of honours in that faculty.
21.3 Classes which may be used for the award of honours are:
   21.3.1 First Class
   21.3.2 Second Class/Division 1
   21.3.3 Second Class/Division 2
   21.3.4 Third Class
21.4 With respect to award courses which include an additional honours year:
   21.4.1 a student may not graduate with the pass degree while enrolled in the honours year;
   21.4.2 on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned, a dean may permit a student who has been awarded the pass degree at a recognised tertiary institution to enrol in the honours year in that faculty;
   21.4.3 faculties may prescribe the conditions under which a student may enrol part-time in the honours year;
   21.4.4 a student who fails or discontinues the honours year may not re-enrol in it, except with the approval of the dean.

22. University Medal
22.1 An honours bachelor's degree student with an outstanding academic record throughout the award course may be eligible for the award of a University Medal, in accordance with Academic Board policy and the requirements of the faculty resolutions relating to the award course concerned.

23. Award of the degree of master with honours or merit
23.1 The award of honours or pass with merit is reserved to indicate special proficiency or particular pathways to completion. The basis on which a student may qualify for the award of honours or the award with merit in a particular degree is specified in the Faculty Resolutions relating to that degree.

24. Transcripts and testamurs
24.1 A student who has completed an award course or a unit of study at the University will receive an academic transcript upon application and payment of any charges required.
24.2 Testamurs may indicate streams or majors or both as specified in the relevant faculty resolutions.

Division 9: Transitional provisions

25. Application of this Rule during transition
25.1 This Rule applies to all candidates for degrees, diplomas and certificates who commence candidature after 1 January 2001.
25.2 Candidates who commenced candidature prior to this date may choose to proceed in accordance with the resolutions of the Senate in force at the time they enrolled, except that the faculty may determine specific conditions for any student who has re-enrolled in an award course after a period of suspension.

Admissions Office
The Admissions Office, located in the Student Centre, is responsible for overseeing the distribution of offers to undergraduate applicants through the Universities Admission Centre (UAC). They can advise prospective local undergraduate students on admission requirements. Postgraduate students should contact the appropriate faculty. If you are an Australian citizen or a permanent resident but have qualifications from a non-Australian institution phone +61 2 9351 4118 for more information. For enquiries regarding special admissions (including mature-age entry) phone +61 2 9351 3615. Applicants without Australian citizenship or permanent residency should contact the International Office.

Applying for a course

Domestic applicants for undergraduate courses and programs of study
For the purpose of admission and enrolment 'domestic applicant' refers to citizens and permanent residents of Australia and citizens of New Zealand. If you are in this group and wish to apply for admission into an undergraduate course, you would generally apply through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC). The deadline for application is the last working day of September in the year before enrolment. Go to the UAC website for more information.

Note that some faculties, such as Pharmacy, the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and Sydney College of the Arts, have additional application procedures.

Domestic applicants for postgraduate courses and programs of study
For the purpose of admission and enrolment 'domestic applicant' refers to citizens and permanent residents of Australia and citizens of New Zealand. Application is direct to the faculty which offers the course that you are interested in. Application forms for postgraduate coursework, postgraduate research and the master's qualifying or preliminary program and for non-award postgraduate study can be found at http://www.usyd.edu.au/studentcentre.

Please note that some faculties use their own specially tailored application forms for admission into their courses. Please contact the relevant faculty.

International applicants for all course types (undergraduate and postgraduate)
'International applicants' refers to all applicants other than Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents and citizens of New Zealand. In the majority of cases international applicants apply for admission through the University’s International Office (IO). All the information international applicants need, including application forms, is available from the IO website.

Assessment
For assessment matters refer to the relevant department or school.

Enrolment

Students entering first year
Details of enrolment procedures will be sent to you with your UAC offer of enrolment. Enrolment takes place at a specific time and date, usually during the last week of January.

All other students
A pre-enrolment package is sent to all enrolled students in late September and contains instructions on the procedure for web-based pre-enrolment.

Environmental Policy
The University of Sydney’s Environmental Policy promotes sustainable resource and product use; and encourages the practice of environmental stewardship by staff and students. The policy is supported by the University wide Sustainable Campus Program.

Enquiries can be directed to the Manager, Environmental Strategies

Financial Assistance Office
The University of Sydney has a number of loan and bursary funds to assist students experiencing financial difficulties. Loan assistance is available for undergraduate and postgraduate students enrolled in degree and diploma courses at the University. The assistance is not intended to provide the principle means of support but to help enrolled students in financial need with expenses such as housing bonds and rent; phone and electricity bills; medical expenses; buying textbooks and course equipment. Loans are interest free and are repayable usually within one year. Bursaries may be awarded depending on financial need and academic merit and are usually only available to local full-time undergraduate students. Advertised bursaries, including First-Year Bursaries, are advertised through the MyUni student portal in January each year. Freedom of Information
The University of Sydney falls within the jurisdiction of the NSW Freedom of Information Act, 1989. The act:

• requires information concerning documents held by the University to be made available to the public;
• enables a member of the public to obtain access to documents held by the University; and
• enables a member of the public to ensure that records held by the University concerning his or her personal affairs are not incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading.

(Note that a 'member of the public' includes staff and students of the University.)

It is a requirement of the act that applications be processed and a determination made within a specified time period, generally 21 days. Determinations are made by the University’s Registrar.

While application may be made to access University documents, some may not be released in accordance with particular exemptions provided by the act. There are review and appeal mechanisms which apply when access has been refused.

The University is required to report to the public on its freedom of information (FOI) activities on a regular basis and to produce two documents: a Statement of Affairs (annually) and a Summary of Affairs (every six months). The Statement of Affairs contains information about the University, its structure, function and the kinds of documents held. The Summary of Affairs identifies the University’s policy documents and provides information on how to make an application for access to University documents.

Further information and copies of the current Statement and Summary may be found at http://www.usyd.edu.au/arms/foi

(Grievances) Appeals
You may consider that a decision affecting your candidature for a degree or other activities at the University has not taken into account all relevant matters.

In some cases the by-laws or resolutions of the Senate (see the University Calendar) provide for a right of appeal against particular decisions; for example, there is provision for appeal against academic decisions, disciplinary decisions and exclusion after failure.

A document outlining the current procedures for appeals against academic decisions is available at the Student Centre, at the SRC, and on the University’s policy online website (click on ‘Study at the University’, then click on ‘Appeals’ – see the Academic Board and Senate resolutions).

Koori Centre and Yooroang Garang
Islander people in all aspects of tertiary education at the University of Sydney. The Cadigal Special Entry Program assists Indigenous Australians to enter undergraduate study across all areas of the University.

As well as delivering block-mode courses for Indigenous Australian students, the Koori Centre teaches Indigenous Australian Studies in various mainstream courses. In addition the Centre provides tutorial assistance, and student facilities such as: computer lab, Indigenous research library and study rooms for Indigenous Australian students across the University.

In particular the Koori Centre aims to increase the successful participation of Indigenous Australians in undergraduate and postgraduate degrees, develop the teaching of Aboriginal Studies, conduct research in the field of Aboriginal education, and establish working ties with schools and communities.

The Koori Centre works in close collaboration with Yooroang Garang: School of Indigenous Health Studies in the Faculty of Health Sciences at the University's Cumberland Campus. Yooroang Garang provides advice, assistance and academic support for Indigenous students in the faculty, as well as preparatory undergraduate and postgraduate courses.

Learning Centre
The Learning Centre helps students develop the generic learning and communication skills that are necessary for university study and beyond. The centre is committed to helping students achieve their academic potential throughout their undergraduate and postgraduate studies. The centre's program includes a wide range of workshops on study skills, academic reading and writing, oral communication skills and postgraduate writing and research skills. Other services include an individual learning program, faculty-based workshops, computer-based learning resources, publications of learning resources and library facilities. For details of programs, activities and online resources provided by the centre see the website via your MyUni student portal or the Services for Students website.

General University information
The Centre r ums bridging courses in mathematics at the needed f or studying first level mathematics or statistics units at university. The centre also provides teaching rooms with state-of-the-art multimedia equipment, language laboratories and video conferencing facilities for Faculty of Arts courses.

Multimedia and Educational Technologies in Arts (META) Resource Centre (Languages and E-Learning)

The centre provides access to recorded lectures, coursework and interactive self-paced learning materials for students of languages other than English (LOTE) and English as a second language (ESL). The self study room provides interactive computer assisted learning and access to live multilingual satellite television broadcasts. Computer access labs provide Internet, email and word processing access. The centre also provides teaching rooms with state-of-the-art multimedia equipment, language laboratories and video conferencing facilities for Faculty of Arts courses.

MyUni Student Portal

The MyUni student portal is the starting point and ‘one-stop’ environment for students to access all their web-based University information and services. MyUni automatically tailors what a student sees based on their login-in and offers students the option of further personalising content. Most importantly, MyUni allows students to complete tasks online that would previously have required attendance in person. The following are examples of MyUni services and information:

- support services for students in health, counselling, child care, accommodation, employment and wellbeing;
- student administration systems for obtaining exam results, enrolment and variations, timetabling, email services and links to courses and units of study information;
- links to the University’s e-learning systems;
- library services;
- important messages and student alerts;
- information technology and support services;
- information for local, indigenous and international students; and
- campus maps, with descriptions of cultural, sporting and campus facilities.

Part-time, full-time

Undergraduate students

Undergraduate students are usually considered full-time if they have a student load of at least 0.375 each semester. Anything under this amount is considered a part-time study load.

Note that some faculties have minimum study load requirements for satisfactory progress.
Postgraduate students (Coursework)
For postgraduate coursework students part-time or full-time status is determined by credit-point load. Enrolment in units of study which total at least 18 credit points in a semester is classed as full-time. Anything under this amount is a part-time study load.

Please note that classes for some coursework programs are held in the evenings (usually 6–9pm).

Postgraduate students (Research)
Full-time candidates for research degrees do not keep to the normal semester schedule, instead they work continuously throughout the year with a period of four weeks recreation leave. There is no strict definition of what constitutes full-time candidature but if you have employment or other commitments that would prevent you from devoting at least the equivalent of a 35-hour working week to your candidature (including attendance at the University for lectures, seminars, practical work and consultation with your supervisor) you should enrol as a part-time candidate. If in doubt you should consult your faculty or supervisor.

International students
Student visa regulations require international students to undertake full-time study. International students on visas other than student visas may be permitted to study part-time.

Policy online
In addition to the resolutions covering specific courses there are a number of University policies that apply to students. These include:

- The code of conduct for students
- Academic honesty in coursework
- Student plagiarism: Coursework assessment and examination of coursework

All of these policies can be accessed from the University’s Policy online website.

Privacy
The University is subject to the NSW Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the NSW Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002. Central to both acts are the sets of information protection principles (IPPs) and health privacy principles which regulate the collection, management, use and disclosure of personal and health information. In compliance with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act the University developed a Privacy Management Plan which includes the University Privacy Policy. The Privacy Management Plan sets out the IPPs and how they apply to functions and activities carried out by the University. Both the plan and the University Privacy Policy were endorsed by the Vice-Chancellor on 28 June 2000.

Further information and a copy of the plan may be found at http://www.usyd.edu.au/arms/privacy.

The following information is for international students studying onshore on an Australian Student Visa.

Full-time study
International students must maintain full-time enrolment at all times (a minimum of 18 credit points). However, in the following limited circumstances, part-time study is permitted:

- students studying in Australia on a different type of visa that does not carry study restrictions;
- students in their final semester who are required to take additional units to complete their course;
- cross-institutional students enrolled full-time at their home institution;
- students enrolled in an approved joint delivery program that involves enrolment at two institutions.

Satisfactory academic progress
The University is required to report to the Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (DIMA) any International Student who fails to maintain satisfactory academic progress. This may result in automatic visa cancellation. It is important that International Students contact the International Office if they are experiencing academic difficulties.

Distance/web-based study
International students studying onshore in Australia are not permitted to enrol in distance or web-based courses. However, a small number of web-based units within a course taught largely in face-to-face mode are allowed. Contact the faculty to discuss enrolment options.

Work permits
International students with a work permit are permitted to work for up to 20 hours during semester and full-time during the University’s official vacation periods. Contact the International Office for more information.

Change of address
International Students must notify the University of their residential address within seven days of arrival and notify any change of address within seven days. This may be done via the University’s MyUni Web portal.

Course transfers
Sponsored students will need permission from their sponsors before transferring courses. Australian Government sponsored students (AusAID, Endeavour) and Asia Development Bank (ADB) sponsored students should contact the International Office in the early stages of considering a course transfer.

Suspension/discontinuation
The University is required to report to DIMA international students who discontinue or suspend their studies. Students who suspend their studies for severe medical or compassionate reasons should contact the International Office urgently.

Overseas student health cover
Australian Student Visa holders must maintain overseas health cover for the duration of their stay. The International Office arranges health cover for the first year but it is the individual student’s responsibility to maintain health cover for each subsequent year.

Additional information
For more information related to international students, please see the Glossary in this handbook.
For a glossary of terms, describing the terminology in use at the University of Sydney, please see the glossary section.

A

Academic Board
The senior academic body within the University. In conjunction with faculties, the Academic Board has responsibility for approving, or recommending to Senate for approval, new or amended courses and units of study and policy relating to the admission and candidature of students. (For further information, see the University Calendar.)

Academic cycle
The program of teaching sessions offered over a year. Currently the cycle runs from the enrolment period for Semester One through to the completion of the processing of results at the end of Semester Two. (See also Stage.)

Academic dishonesty
Academic dishonesty occurs when a student presents another person's ideas, findings or written work as his or her own by copying or reproducing them without due acknowledgement of the source and with intent to deceive the examiner. Academic dishonesty also covers recycling, fabrication of data, engaging another person to complete an assessment or cheating in exams. (See also Plagiarism.)

Academic record
The complete academic history of a student at the University. It includes, among other things: personal details; all units of study and courses taken; assessment results (marks and grades); awards and prizes obtained: infringements of progression rules; approvals for variation in course requirements and course leave; thesis and supervision details. Access to a student's academic record is restricted to authorised University staff and is not released to a third party without the written authorisation of the student. (See also Academic transcript.)

Academic transcript
A printed statement setting out a student's academic record at the University. There are two forms of academic transcript: external and internal. (See also External transcript, Internal transcript.)

Academic year
The current calendar year in which a student is enrolled. (See also Academic cycle, Stage.)

Admission
Governed by the University’s admission policy, this is the process for identifying applicants eligible to receive an initial offer of enrolment in a course at the University. Admission to most courses is based on performance in the HSC, with applicants ranked on the basis of their UAI. Other criteria such as a portfolio, interview, audition, or results in standard tests may also be taken into account for certain courses.

Admission basis
The main criteria used by a faculty in assessing an application for admission to a course. The criteria used include, among other things, previous secondary, TAFE or tertiary studies; work experience; special admission; and the Universities Admission Index (UAI).

Admission (Deferment)
An applicant who receives an offer of admission to a course may apply to defer enrolment in that course for one semester or one academic cycle.

Admission mode
A classification based on how a student was admitted to a course, for example 'UAC' or 'direct'.

Admission period
The period during which applications for admission to courses are considered.

Admission year
The year the student expects to begin the course (see also Commencement date.)

Advanced diplomas
(See Award course.)

Advanced standing
(See Credit.)

Advisor
A member of academic staff appointed in an advisory role for some postgraduate coursework students. (See also Associate supervisor, Instrumental supervisor/teacher, Research supervisor, Supervision.)

Aegrotat
In exceptional circumstances involving serious illness or death of a student prior to completion of their course, the award of aegrotat and posthumous degrees and diplomas may be conferred.

Alumni sidneiensis
A searchable database of graduates of the University from 1857 to 30 years prior to the current year.

Annual average mark (AAM)
The average mark over all units of study attempted in a given academic year (equivalent to the calendar year).

The formula for this calculation is:

\[ AAM = \frac{\sum (marks \times credit\ point\ value)}{\sum (credit\ point\ value)} \]

(sums over all units of study completed in the selected period)

Where the mark is the actual mark obtained by the student for the unit of study, or in the case of a failing grade with no mark – 0. Pass/fail assessed subjects and credit transfer subjects (from another institution) are excluded from these calculations; however, the marks from all attempts at a unit of study are included.

Annual progress report
A form which is used to monitor a research student's progress each year. The form provides for comments by the student, the supervisor, the head of the department and the dean (or their nominee). The completed form is attached to the student’s official file.

Appeals
Students may lodge an appeal against academic or disciplinary decisions. An academic appeal (e.g. against exclusion) is managed by the Student Centre – Exclusions Office while it is under consideration and a record of the outcome of the appeal will be retained.
Assessment
The process of measuring the performance of students in units of study and courses. Performance may be assessed by examinations, essays, laboratory projects, assignments, theses, treatises or dissertations. (See also Result processing, Result processing schedule.)

Formative assessment
Formative assessment is used principally to provide students with feedback on their progress in learning. It reinforces successful learning, and is an opportunity for students to expose the limitations in their knowledge and understanding.

Summative assessment
Summative assessment is used to certify competence, or to arrange students in a rank order of merit. It certifies the attainment of a standard, and is used as the basis for progression to the next part of a program, or to graduation.

Associate supervisor
A person who is appointed in addition to the supervisor of a research student, who can provide the day-to-day contact with the candidate or provide particular expertise or additional experience in supervision. (See also Advisor, Instrumental supervisor/teacher, Research supervisor, Supervision.)

Assumed knowledge
For some units of study, a student is assumed to have passed a relevant subject at the HSC and this is called assumed knowledge. While students are generally advised against taking a unit of study for which they do not have the assumed knowledge, they are not prevented from enrolling in the unit of study. (See also Prerequisite.)

Attendance pattern
Attendance pattern is classified as full-time, part-time or external, this is dependant on the student's mode of attendance and the student load.

Attendance mode
A Department of Education, Science and Technology (DEST) classification defining the manner in which a student is undertaking a course, i.e. internal, external, mixed or offshore.

Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF)
The framework for recognition and endorsement of qualifications established by the Ministerial Council on Education, Employment, Training and Youth Affairs (MCEETYA).

AUSTUDY
Austudy provides financial help to students who are aged 25 years or more who meet the required criteria, and are undertaking an approved full-time course at an approved institution. (See also Youth Allowance.)

Automated Results Transfer System (ARTS)
This system was developed by the Australasian Conference of Tertiary Admissions Centres (ACTAC) to allow the electronic academic record of a student to be accessed, via an admission centre, by tertiary institutions.

Award course
(See Course.)

Bachelor's degree
The highest undergraduate award offered at the University. A bachelor's degree course normally requires three or four years of full-time study or the part-time equivalent. (See also Award course.)

Barrier
An instruction placed on a student's record that prevents the student from re-enrolling or graduating. (See also Deadlines (fees), Suppression of results.)

Board of Studies
An academic body which supervises a course or courses, and which is similar to a faculty except that it is headed by a chair rather than a dean and does not supervise PhD candidates.

Bursaries
Financial award made to a student, based primarily on need. (See also Scholarships.)

C

Calendar
The annual University publication which provides general and historical information about the University of Sydney, the statutes and regulations under which it operates and the Senate resolutions relating to constitutions and courses in each faculty.

Cadigal program
A program, named in recognition of the Aboriginal people of the land on which the University is located, designed to increase the successful participation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in degree courses in all faculties at the University of Sydney.

Campus
The grounds on which the University is situated. There are 10 campuses of the University of Sydney:

- Burren Street (Institute of Transport Studies)
- Camperdown
- Darlington
- Camden (Agriculture and Veterinary Science)
- Conservatorium (Sydney Conservatorium of Music)
- Cumberland (Health Sciences)
- Mallett Street (Nursing)
- Rozelle (Sydney College of the Arts)
- St James (Law)
- Surry Hills (Dentistry)

Cancellation
Where enrolment is cancelled for non-payment of fees.

Candidature
Candidature commences when a student is admitted to a course of study leading to the award of a degree, diploma or certificate. There are maximum periods and in some cases minimum periods of candidature depending on the award course and whether the candidate is a full-time or part-time student.

Census date
The date at which a student's enrolment, load and HECS liability are finalised before this information is reported to DEST. (See also Commonwealth-supported Student, HECS-HELP)

Ceremony
(See Graduation ceremony.)

Chancellor
The non-executive head of the University. An honorary position, the Chancellor presides over meetings of the University's governing body, the Senate, and important ceremonial occasions such as graduations.

Clinical experience
Students undertake clinical placements in a professional environment as part of their course requirements. Many require University approved supervision. In order to undertake clinical placements a student may be required to fulfill additional requirements.

College of Health Sciences
Consists of the Faculties of Dentistry; Health Sciences; Medicine; Nursing; and Pharmacy.

College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHASS)
Consists of the Faculties of Arts; Economics and Business; Education; Law; the Sydney College of the Arts; and the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.
Colleges of Sciences and Technology (CST)
Consists of the Faculties of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources; Architecture; Engineering; Rural Management; Science, and Veterinary Science.

Combined course
A course which leads to two awards. For example the Arts/Law course leads to the separate awards of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws.

Combined degree
A combined degree is a single program with a single set of course resolutions leading to the award of two degrees (unless otherwise specified in the resolutions). (See also Combined course.)

Commencement date
The date a student commences candidature.

Commonwealth-supported student
Most of the students who study at the University of Sydney are Commonwealth supported. These students have most of the cost of their education paid by the government but must also contribute towards this cost themselves (their student contribution).

Compulsory subscriptions
Each enrolled student is liable to pay annual (or semester) subscriptions, as determined by the Senate, to the student organisations at the University. There are different organisations for undergraduate and postgraduate students.

The student organisations are specific to different campuses. The organisations at campuses other than Camperdown and Darlington include: the Conservatorium Student Association, the Cumberland Student Guild, the Orange Agricultural College Student Association and the Student Association of Sydney College of the Arts. (See also Compulsory subscription exemption, Joining fee, Life membership.)

Compulsory subscription exemption
Students of a certain age or those with disabilities or medical conditions may be exempt from the subscription to the sports body. Conscientious objectors to the payment of subscriptions to unions of any kind may apply to the Registrar for exemption. The Registrar may permit such a student to make the payment to the Jean Foley Bursary Fund instead. (See also Compulsory subscriptions.)

Confirmation of Enrolment form (COE)
This form is issued to each student after enrolment, showing the course and the units of study in which the student is enrolled, together with the credit point value of the units of study and the HECS weights. Until all fees are paid, it is issued provisionally. A new confirmation of enrolment form is produced every time a student's enrolment is varied.

Conjoint ventures
Two or more institutions cooperate to provide a unit or course of study to postgraduate coursework students. Arrangements exist between individual departments at the University of Sydney and individual departments at the University of New South Wales (UNSW) and the University of Technology Sydney (UTS), whereby students enrolled for a degree at one institution complete one or more units of study at the other institution to count towards the award program at their 'home' institution.

Continuing professional education
A process which provides a number of programs of continuing education courses for professionals as they move through their career. These programs are presently administered by the Centre for Continuing Education and a number of departments and foundations across the University. This process supports the whole of life learning concept and involves the maintenance of a long term relationship between the student and the University.

Convocation
The body comprising all graduates of the University.

Core unit of study
A unit of study that is compulsory for a particular course or subject area. (See also Unit of study.)

Corequisite
A unit of study which must be taken in the same semester or year as a given unit of study (unless it has already been completed). These are determined by the faculty or board of studies concerned, published in the faculty handbook and shown in FlexSIS. (See also Prerequisite, Waiver.)

Cotutelle Scheme
Agreement between the University and any overseas university for joint supervision and examination of a PhD student as part of an ongoing cooperative research collaboration. If successful, the student receives a doctorate from both universities with each testamur acknowledging the circumstances under which the award was made.

Course
An undertaking of study at the University of Sydney.

Award course
A formal course of study that will see attainment of a recognised award. Award courses are approved by Senate, on the recommendation of the Academic Board. The University broadly classifies courses as undergraduate, postgraduate coursework or postgraduate research. (See also Bachelor's degree, Course rules, Diploma, Doctorate, Major, Master's degree, Minor, PhD, Stream.)

Non-award course
Studies undertaken by students who are not seeking an award from the University. (See also Cross-institutional enrolment.)

Coursework
An award course not designated as a research award course. While the program of study in a coursework award course may include a component of original, supervised, other forms of instruction and learning normally will be dominant.

Research
A course in which at least 66 per cent of the overall course requirements involve students in undertaking supervised research, leading to the production of a thesis or other piece of written or creative work, over a prescribed period of time.

Course alias
A unique five character alpha-numeric code which identifies a University course.

Course code
(See Course alias.)

Course enrolment status
A student's enrolment status in a course is either 'enrolled' or 'not enrolled'. 'Not enrolled' reasons include: cancelled; suspended; under examination; or terminated. (See also Cancellation, Candidature, Course leave, Enrolment, Enrolment variation, Terminated, Under examination.)

Course leave
Students are permitted to apply for a period away from their course without losing their place. Course leave is formally approved by the supervising faculty for a minimum of one semester. Students on leave are regarded as having an active candidature, but they are not entitled to a student card. At undergraduate level, leave is not counted towards the total length of the course. Students who are absent from study without approved leave may be discontinued and may be required to formally reapply for admission. (See also Progression.)

Course rules
Rules which govern the allowable enrolment of a student in a course. Course rules may be expressed in terms of types of units of study taken, length of study, and credit points accumulated, e.g. a candidate may not enrol in units of study having a total value of more than 32 credit points per semester. Course rules also govern the requirements for the award of the course, e.g. a candidate must have completed a minimum of 144 credit points. (See also Award course, Corequisite, Prerequisite.)

Course suspension
(See Course leave.)

Course transfer
A transfer occurs when a student changes from one course in the University to another course in the University without the requirement for an application and selection process (e.g. from a PhD to a master’s program in the same faculty).

Credit
The recognition of previous studies successfully completed at this University, or another university or tertiary institution recognised by the University of Sydney, as contributing to the requirements of the course to which the applicant requesting such recognition has been admitted. Credit may be granted as specified credit or non-specified credit.

Specified credit
The recognition of previously completed studies as directly equivalent to units of study.

Non-specified credit
A ‘block credit’ for a specified number of credit points at a particular level. These credit points may be in a particular subject area but are not linked to a specific unit of study. (See also AAM – Annual average mark, Waiver, Weighted average mark (WAM).)

Credit points
The value of the contribution each unit of study provides towards meeting course completion requirements. Each unit of study will have a credit point value assigned to it. The total number of credit points required for completion of award courses will be specified in the Senate
Resolutions relevant to the award course.

Cross-institutional enrolment
An enrolment in units of study at one university to count towards an award course at another university. Cross-institutional enrolments incur a student-contribution liability (see Commonwealth-supported student) or tuition fee charge at the institution at which the unit of study is being undertaken. (See also Non-award course).

Data Audit Committee (DAC)
The Data Audit Committee’s role is to oversee the integrity and certainty of the course and unit of study data as strategic University data. It also advises the Academic Board on suggested policy changes related to course and unit of study data. A subcommittee of the VCAC Enrolment Working Party, it is chaired by the Registrar, with membership including the deans, the Student Centre, FlexSIS and the Planning Support Office.

Deadlines (Enrolment variations)
(See Enrolment variation.)

Deadlines (Fees)
The University has deadlines for the payment of fees (e.g. HECS, compulsory subscriptions, course fees). Students who do not pay fees by these deadlines may have their enrolment cancelled or they may have a barrier placed on the release of their record. (See also Barrier, Cancellation.)

Dean
The head of a faculty, or the principal or director of a college (such as the Sydney Conservatorium of Music or the Sydney College of Arts).

Dean’s certificate
A statement from the Dean certifying that all requirements, including fieldwork and practical work, have been met and that the student is eligible to graduate. Not all faculties use Dean’s Certificates. In faculties that do, qualified students have ‘Dean’s Certificate’ noted on their academic record.

Deferment (Deferral)
(See Admission (deferment), Course leave.)

Degree
(See also Award course, Bachelor’s degree.)

Delivery mode
Indicates how students receive the instruction for a unit of study. The delivery mode must be recorded for each unit as distinct from the attendance mode of the student, i.e. an internal student may take one or more units by distance mode and an external student may attend campus for one or more units.

Distance education
Where subject matter is delivered in a more flexible manner, such as correspondence notes, and student may only attend campus if required. (See also Extended semester, Distance education, International – off shore.)

Intensive on campus
Attendance of scheduled lectures, tutorials etc at a campus of the University.

Department
(See School.)

Department of Education, Science and Training (DEST)
The Commonwealth Government department responsible for higher education.

Differential HECS
(See Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS).)

Diploma
The award granted following successful completion of diploma course requirements. A diploma course usually requires less study than a degree course. (See also Award course.)

Direct admissions
For some courses, applications may be made directly to the University.
Applications are received by faculties or the International Office, and considered by the relevant department or faculty body. Decisions are recorded and letters are forwarded to applicants advising them of the outcome. (See also Admission, UAC.)

Disability information
Students may inform the University of any temporary or permanent disability which affects their life as a student. Disability information is recorded but it is only available to particular authorised users because of its sensitive nature.

Disciplinary action
Undertaken as the result of academic or other misconduct, e.g.
plagiarism, cheating, security infringement, criminal activity.

Discipline
A defined area of study, for example, chemistry, physics, economics.

Discipline group
A DEST code used to classify units of study in terms of the subject matter being taught or being researched.
Discontinuation (course)
(See Enrolment variation.)

Discontinuation (unit of study)
(See Enrolment variation.)

Dissertation
A written exposition of a topic which may include original argument substantiated by reference to acknowledged authorities. It is a required unit of study for some postgraduate award courses in the faculties of Architecture and Law.

Distance education
Where a student does not attend campus on a daily basis for a given course or unit of study. (See also Delivery mode, Extended semester.)

Doctorate
A high-level postgraduate award. A doctorate course normally involves research and coursework; the candidate submits a thesis that is an original contribution to the field of study. Entry to a doctorate course often requires completion of a master's degree course. Note that the doctorate course is not available in all departments at the University.

(See also Award course, PhD.)

Domestic Student
A student who is not an international student. (See also Local student.)

Double degree
A double degree is a program where students are permitted by participating faculties (and/or by specific resolutions within a single award) to transfer between courses in order to complete two awards.

Downgrade
Where a student enrolled in a PhD reverts to a master's by research, either on the recommendation of the University on the basis that the research they are undertaking is not at an appropriate level for a PhD; or at the student's own request, for personal or academic reasons.

Equivalent full-time student unit (EFTSU)
The equivalent full-time student unit (EFTSU) is a measure of student load based on the workload for a student undertaking a full year of study in a particular course. A student is then recorded as having generated one EFTSU. (See also Load, Stage.)

Equivalent full-time student load (EFTSL)
The equivalent full-time student load (EFTSL) for a year. It is a measure, in respect of a course of study, of the study load for a year of a student undertaking that course of study on a full-time basis (effective 1 January 2005).

Embedded courses
Award courses in the graduate certificate, graduate diploma and master's degree by coursework sequence which allow unit of study credit points to count in more than one of the awards, e.g., the Graduate Certificate in Information Technology, Graduate Diploma in Information Technology and Master of Information Technology.

Enrolment
A student enrolls in a course by registering with the supervising faculty in the units of study to be taken in the coming year, semester or session.

Commencing
An enrolment is classified as commencing if a student has enrolled in a particular degree or diploma for the first time.

Continuing
Students already in a course at the University re-enrol each year or semester. Most continuing students are required to pre-enrol. (See also Pre-enrolment.)

Enrolment list
A list of all currently enrolled students in a particular unit of study. (See also Unit of study.)

Enrolment status
(See Course enrolment status.)

Enrolment Variation
Students may vary their enrolment at the beginning of each semester. Each faculty determines its deadlines for variations, but HECS liability depends on the HECS census date. (See also HECS.)

Examination
A set of questions or exercises evaluating on a given subject given by a department or faculty. (See Examination period, Assessment.)

Examination period
The time set each semester for the conduct of formal examinations.

Examiner (Coursework)
The person assessing either the written/oral examination, coursework assignments, presentations, etc of a student or group of students.

Exchange student
Either a student of the University of Sydney who is participating in a formally agreed program involving study at an overseas university or an overseas student who is studying here on the same basis. The International Office provides administrative support for some exchanges.

Exclusion
A faculty may ask a student whose academic progress is considered to be unsatisfactory to 'show good cause' why the student should be allowed to re-enrol. If the faculty deems the student's explanation unsatisfactory, or if the student does not provide an explanation, the student may be excluded either from a unit of study or from a course or faculty. An excluded student may apply to the faculty for permission to re-enrol. Normally, at least two years must have elapsed before such an application would be considered.

University policy relating to exclusion is set out in the University Calendar. (See also Progression, Senate appeals.)

Exemption
A decision made at a sub-unit of study level to allow a student to complete a unit of study without also completing all the prescribed components of coursework and/or assessment. (See also Credit, Waiver.)

Expulsion
The ultimate penalty of disciplinary action is to expel the student from the University. The effect of expulsion is:

• the student is not allowed to be admitted or to re-enrol in any course at the University;
• the student does not receive their results;
• the student is not allowed to graduate; and
• the student does not receive a transcript or testamur.

Extended semester
A distance-learning student may be allowed more time to complete a module or program if circumstances beyond the student's control, e.g., drought, flood or illness, affect the student's ability to complete the module or program in the specified time. (See also Distance education.)

External
(See Attendance mode, Distance education.)

External transcript
A certified statement of a student's academic record printed on official University security paper. It includes the student's name, any credit granted, all courses the student was enrolled in and the final course result and all units of study attempted within each course together with the result. It also acknowledges prizes the student has received.
Marks can be included or omitted, as required. (See also Academic transcript, Internal transcript.)

F

Faculty
A formal part of the University’s academic governance structure, consisting mainly of academic staff members and headed by a dean, which is responsible for all matters concerning the award courses that it supervises. Usually, a faculty office administers the faculty and student or staff inquiries related to its courses. The University Calendar sets out the constitution of each of the University’s faculties. (See also Board of Studies, Supervising faculty.)

Faculty handbook
The annual University publication for each faculty which provided detailed information about the faculty and its courses.

FEE-HELP Loan
Fee-paying students who are Australian citizens or holders of a Permanent Humanitarian Visa can gain assistance in paying their fees through the Commonwealth Government’s FEE-HELP program. There is a $50,000 limit to the amount students can borrow and a 20 per cent loan fee on the amounts borrowed through FEE-HELP.

Fee-paying students
Students who pay tuition fees to the University and are not liable for HECS.

Fellows of Senate
Members of the governing body of the University.

Flexible learning
(See Delivery mode, Distance education.)

Flexible start date
Full fee-paying distance students are not restricted to the same enrolment time frames as campus-based or HECS students.

Flexible Student Information System (FlexSIS)
The computer-based Flexible Student Information System at the University of Sydney. FlexSIS holds details of courses and units of study being offered by the University and the complete academic records of all students enrolled at the University.

Formative assessment
(See Assessment.)

Full-time student
(See also Attendance pattern, EFTSU.)

!Glossary

G

Grade
The outcome for a unit of study linked with a mark range. For example, a mark in the range 85–100 attracts the grade 'high distinction' ('HD'). (See also Mark.)

Graduand
A student who has completed all the requirements for an award course but has not yet graduated. (See also Graduation, Potential graduand.)

Graduate
A person who holds an award from a recognised tertiary institution. (See also Graduand, Graduation.)

Graduate Certificate
(See Award course.)

Graduate Diploma
(See Award course.)

Graduate entry degree
A bachelor’s, or undergraduate degree, that requires another undergraduate degree as a prerequisite of entry. Examples of graduate entry degrees at the University of Sydney include: the Medical Program; Graduate Law and the Bachelor of Dentistry.

Graduation
The formal conferring of awards either at a ceremony or in absentia. (See also In absentia, Potential graduand.)

Graduation ceremony
A ceremony where the Chancellor confers awards upon graduands.
In absentia
Latin for 'in the absence of'. Awards are conferred in absentia when graduands do not, or cannot, attend the graduation ceremony scheduled for them. Those who have graduated in absentia may later request that they be presented to the Chancellor at a graduation ceremony. (See also Graduation.)

Instrumental supervisor/teacher
All students at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and BMus students on the Camperdown Campus have an instrumental teacher appointed. (See also Advisor, Associate supervisor, Research supervisor, Supervision.)

Internal mode
(See Attendance mode.)

Internal transcript
A record of a student’s academic record for the University’s own internal use. It includes the student’s name, student identifier (SID), address, all courses in which the student was enrolled and the final course result, and all units of study attempted within each course together with the unit of study result. (See also Academic transcript, External transcript.)

International student
Any student who is not an Australian or New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident of Australia is an international student. An international student is required to hold a visa that allows study in Australia and may be liable for international tuition fees.

Fee-paying
A private International Student who is liable to pay tuition fees for their studies with the University.

Fee-paying – Outgoing exchange
An international fee-paying student undertaking short term study at a recognised overseas institution with which the University has a student exchange agreement. Exchange study counts towards the student’s University of Sydney award and students remain enrolled in their University of Sydney course during the period of exchange.

International – cross-institutional
An international fee paying student undertaking non-award study at the University on a cross-institutional basis. They are liable to pay fees for the study they undertake at the University, but there is no compliance reporting requirement, which rests with their ‘home’ institution.

International – Sponsored
A private international student who is fully sponsored for his/her tuition; his/her sponsorship may also cover Overseas Health Cover and Compulsory Subscriptions.

Offshore studies
International offshore students undertake their program of study at one of the University’s offshore campuses and hence do not enter Australia; therefore they do not require a visa. They are distinct from international students who are on outbound exchange programs as they never enter Australia during their program of study.

Short course
An international fee-paying student undertaking a short course with the University of Sydney comprising such programs as international development programs, executive training or study visits. The study undertaken by these students is non-award and generally a student visa is not required.

Sponsored award
An international student sponsored by the Australian government, undertaking a program of study at the University. Currently Australian Development Scholarships holders, funded by AusAID, are the only students in this category. These students are fully sponsored for their tuition and other costs such as travel and health cover, and are paid a stipend.

Study Abroad
An international student who is undertaking short-term study at the University under the Study Abroad scheme. Study Abroad students must have completed at least one year of study towards a degree at a recognised institution in their home country and are continuing towards the degree of their home institution. (See also Local student, Student type.)

J

Joining fee
Students enrolling for the first time pay a joining fee in addition to the standard subscription for the University of Sydney Union or equivalent student organisation. (See also Compulsory subscription.)

L

Learning Entitlement
Each student has a seven year full-time period during which they can remain Commonwealth supported. This seven year period is called their ‘learning entitlement’.

Leave
See Course leave.

Legitimate cooperation
Any constructive educational and intellectual practice that aims to facilitate optimal learning outcomes through interaction between students. (See also Group work.)

Life membership
Under some circumstances (e.g. after five full-time years of enrolments and contributions) students may be granted life membership of various organisations. This means they are exempt from paying yearly fees. (See also Compulsory subscriptions.)

Load
The sum of the weights of all the units of study in which a student is enrolled. The weight is determined by the proportion of a full year’s work represented by the unit of study in the degree or diploma for which the student is a candidate. Student load is measured in terms of Equivalent full-time student units (EFTSU). (See also Equivalent full-time student units (EFTSU).)

Local Student
Either an Australian or New Zealand citizen or Australian permanent resident. New Zealand citizens are required to pay their Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS) fees upfront. (See also Commonwealth-supported student, Domestic student, International student.)

M

Major
A field of study, chosen by a student, to represent their principal interest. This would consist of specified units of study from later stages of the award course. Students select and transfer between majors by virtue of their selection of units of study. One or more majors may be awarded upon the graduand’s assessment of study. (See also Award course, Major, Stream.)

Major timetable clash
The term used when a student attempts to enrol in units of study which have so much overlap in the teaching times that it has been decided that students must not enrol in the units simultaneously.

Mark
An integer (rounded if necessary) from 0 to 100 indicating a student’s performance in a unit of study. (See also Grade.)

Master's degree
A postgraduate award. Master’s degree courses may be offered by coursework, research only or a combination of coursework and research. Entry to the course often requires completion of an honours year at an undergraduate level. (See also Award course.)

Method of candidature
A course is either a research course or a coursework course and so the methods of candidature are ‘research’ and ‘coursework’. (See also Course – Coursework, Course – Research.)

Minor
Studies undertaken to support a Major. Requiring a smaller number of credit points than a major students select and transfer between minors (and majors) by virtue of their selection of units of study. One or more minors may be awarded upon the graduand’s assessment of study. (See also Award course, Major, Stream.)

Mixed mode
(See Attendance mode.)

MPhil
The Master of Philosophy (MPhil) is a master’s by research degree offered by some (but not all) of the University’s faculties. (See also Award course, Master’s degree.)

Mutually exclusive units of study
(See Prohibited combinations of units of study.)

MyUni
The University of Sydney’s student portal system. It provides students with access to information about the University and its courses, including access to email, library services, student support services, student self-administration and e-learning software such as Blackboard and WebCT.

N

Non-award course
(See Course.)

Non-standard session
A teaching session other than the standard February and August sessions – e.g. Summer School, in which units of study are delivered and assessed in an intensive mode during January. (See also Semester, Session.)

Orientation Week
Orientation or ‘O Week’, takes place in the week before lectures begin in Semester One. During O Week, students can join various clubs, societies and organisations, register for courses with departments and take part in activities provided by the University of Sydney Union.

P

Part-time student
(See Attendance mode, Attendance pattern, Equivalent full-time student units (EFTSU).)

Permanent home address
The address used for all official University correspondence with a student, both inside and outside of semester time (e.g. during semester breaks), unless the student provides a different overridden by semester address for use during the semester. (See also Semester address.)

PhD
The Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) and other doctorate awards are the highest awards available at the University. A PhD course is normally purely research-based; the candidate submits a thesis that is an original contribution to the field of study. (See also Award course, Doctorate.)
Plagiarism
Presenting another person's ideas, findings or work as one's own by copying or reproducing them without the acknowledgement of the source. (See also Academic dishonesty.)

Postgraduate
A term used to describe a course leading to an award such as graduate diploma, a master's degree or PhD which usually requires prior completion of a relevant undergraduate degree (or diploma) course. A 'postgraduate' is a student enrolled in such a course. (See also Course – Coursework, Course – Research.)

Postgraduate Education Loans Scheme (PELS)
An interest-free loans facility for eligible students who are enrolled in fee-paying, postgraduate non-research courses. It is similar to the deferred payment arrangements available under the Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS). This scheme was replaced by the FEE-HELP scheme on 1 January 2005. (See FEE-HELP Loan.)

Potential graduand
A student who has been identified as being eligible to graduate on the satisfactory completion of their current studies. (See also Graduand, Graduation.)

Pre-enrolment
Pre-enrolment – also known as provisional re-enrolment – takes place in October, when students indicate their choice of unit of study enrolment for the following year. After results are approved, pre-enrolment students are regarded as enrolled in those units of study for which they are qualified. Their status is 'enrolled' and remains so provided they pay any money owing and comply with other requirements by the due date. Students who do not successfully pre-enrol in their units of study for the next regular session are required to attend the University on set dates during the January/February enrolment period. (See also Enrolment.)

Prerequisite
A unit of study that is required to be successfully completed before another unit of study can be attempted. Prerequisites can be mandatory (compulsory) or advisory. (See also Assumed knowledge, Corequisite, Waiver.)

Prizes
Awarded in recognition of outstanding performance, academic achievement or service to the community or University.

Probationary candidature
A student who is enrolled in a postgraduate course on probation for a period of time up to one year. The head of department is required to consider the candidate's progress during the period of probation and make a recommendation for normal candidature or otherwise to the faculty.

Professional practice
Students undertake placement in a professional practice as a part of their course requirements. May require University approved supervision. Professional placements are located in a wide range of professional practices environments, and may not require additional criteria to be fulfilled.

Progression
Satisfactory progression is satisfying all course and faculty rules (normally assessed on an annual basis) to enable the completion of the chosen award within the (maximum) completion time allowed. (See also Exclusion.)

Prohibited combinations of units of study
When two or more units of study contain a sufficient overlap of content, enrolment in any one such unit prohibits enrolment in any other identified unit. (See also unit of study.)

Provisional re-enrolment
(See Pre-enrolment.)

Q
Qualification
An academic attainment recognised by the University.

Qualifier
A mandatory (compulsory) prerequisite unit of study which must have a grade of pass or better. (See also Assumed knowledge, Corequisite, Prerequisite, Waiver.)

R
Recycling
The submission for assessment of one's own work, or of work which substantially the same, which has previously been counted towards the satisfactory completion of another unit of study, and credited towards a university degree, and where the examiner has not been informed that the student has already received credit for that work.

Registration
In addition to enrolling in the faculty in units of study, students must register with the department responsible for teaching each unit. This is normally done during Orientation Week. Note that unlike enrolment, registration is not a formal record of units attempted by the student.

Research course
(See Course – Research.)

Research supervisor
A supervisor is appointed to each student undertaking a research postgraduate degree. The supervisor will be a full-time member of the academic staff or a person external to the University recognised for their association with the clinical teaching or the research work of the University. A research supervisor is commonly referred to as a supervisor. (See also Advisor, Associate supervisor, Instrumental supervisor/teacher, Supervision.)

Result processing
Refers to the processing of assessment results for units of study. For each unit of study, departments tabulate results for all assessment activities and assign preliminary results. (See also Assessment, Formative assessment, Examination period, Summative assessment.)

Result processing schedule
The result processing schedule will be determined for each academic cycle. All departments and faculties are expected to comply with this schedule. (See also Assessment, Examination period, Result processing.)

Result
The official statement of a student's performance in each unit of study attempted as recorded on the academic transcript, usually expressed as a mark and grade. (See also Grade, Mark.)

Research Training Scheme (RTS)
The RTS provides Commonwealth-funded higher degree by research (HDR) students with an 'entitlement' to a HECS exemption for the duration of an accredited HDR course, up to a maximum period of four years full-time equivalent study for a doctorate by research and two years full-time equivalent study for a master's by research.

S Scholarships
Financial or other form of support made available to enable students to further their studies. (See also Bursaries.)
Glossary

School
A school or academic unit shall encourage and facilitate teaching, scholarship and research and coordinate the teaching and examining duties of members of staff in the subjects or courses of study with which it is concerned.

Semester
A half-yearly teaching session whose dates are determined by the Academic Board. Normally all undergraduate sessions will conform to the semesters approved by the Academic Board. Any offering of an undergraduate unit not conforming to the semester dates (non-standard session) must be given special permission by the Academic Board. (See also Session, Non-standard session.)

Semester address
The address to which all official University correspondence is sent during semester time, if it is different to the permanent address.

Senate
The governing body of the University. (See the University Calendar for more details of its charter and powers.)

Senate appeals
Senate appeals are held for those students who, after being excluded by a faculty from a course, appeal to the Senate for readmission. While any student may appeal to the Senate against an academic decision, such an appeal will normally be heard only after the student has exhausted all other avenues, i.e. the department, faculty, board of study and, in the case of postgraduates, the Committee for Graduate Studies. (See also Semester, Non-standard teaching period.)

Session
Any period of time during which a unit of study is taught. A session differs from a semester in that it need not be a six-month teaching period, but it cannot be longer than six months. Each session maps to either Semester One or Two for DEST reporting purposes. Session offerings are approved by the relevant dean, taking into account all the necessary resources, including teaching space and staffing. The Academic Board must approve variation to the normal session pattern. (See also Semester, Non-standard teaching period.)

Session address
(See Semester address.)

Short course
A fee paying student undertaking a short course with the University of Sydney comprising professional development, executive training etc. The study undertaken by these students is a non-award course.

Show cause
(See Progression, Exclusion.)

Special consideration
Candidates who suffer serious illness or misadventure which may affect performance in any assessment, may request that they be given special consideration in relation to the determination of their results.

Sponsorship
Financial support of a student by a company or government body.

Stage
A normal full-time course of study taken in a year. (See also Course rules, EFTSU, Progression.)

Stream
A defined award course, which requires the completion of set units of study as specified by the course rules for the particular stream, in addition to the core program specified by the course rules. A stream will appear with the award course name on testamurs, e.g. Bachelor of Engineering in Civil Engineering (Construction Management). (See also Award course, Major, Minor.)

Student
Student means a person enrolled as a candidate for an award course or unit of study.

Student identifier (SID)
A nine-digit number which uniquely identifies a student at the University.

Student ID Card
All students who enrol are issued with an identification card. The card includes the student’s name, SID, the course code, a library borrower’s bar code and a passport-style photo. The card identifies the student as eligible to attend classes and must be displayed at formal examinations. It must be presented to secure student concessions and to borrow books from all sections of the University Library.

Student progress rate (SPR)
A calculation which measures the rate at which load undertaken is passed annually in each award program.

Student type
Student type identifies whether a student is local or international and the type of study the student is undertaking. (See also International student, Domestic student, Exchange student.)

Study Abroad program
A scheme administered by the International Office which allows international students who are not part of an exchange program to take units of study at the University of Sydney, but not towards an award program. In most cases the units of study taken here are credited towards an award at their home institution. (See also Exchange student.)

Subject area
A unit of study may be associated with one or more subject areas. The subject area can be used to define prerequisite and course rules, e.g. the unit of study ‘History of Momoyama and Edo Art’ may count towards the requirements for the subject areas ‘Art History and Theory’ and ‘Asian Studies’.

Summative assessment
See Assessment.

Summer School
(See Sydney Summer School.)

Supervising faculty
The faculty which has the responsibility for managing the academic administration of a particular course, i.e. the interpretation and administration of course rules, approving students' enrolments and variations to enrolments. Normally the supervising faculty is the faculty offering the course. However, in the case of combined courses, one of the two faculties involved will usually be designated the supervising faculty. Further, in the case where one course is jointly offered by two or more faculties (e.g. the Liberal Studies course), a joint committee may make academic decisions about candidature and the student may be assigned a supervising faculty for administration.

Supervision
Refers to a one-to-one relationship between a student and a nominated member of the academic staff or a person specifically appointed to the role. (See also Advisor, Associate supervisor, Instrumental supervisor/teacher, Research supervisor.)

Suppression of results
Results for a particular student can be suppressed by the University if the student has an outstanding debt to the University; or the student is facing disciplinary action. A student may also request a suppression for personal reasons.

Suspension
(See Course leave.)

Sydney Summer School
A program of accelerated, intensive study running for approximately six weeks during January and February each year. Both undergraduate and postgraduate units are offered. Summer School provides an opportunity for students at Sydney and other universities to catch up on needed units of study, to accelerate completion of a course or to undertake a unit that is outside their award course. All units attract full fees and enrolled students are also liable for compulsory subscriptions. Some fee-waiver scholarships are available.

Semester Weighted Average Mark (SWAM)

Is the WAM calculated over all units of study undertaken in a semester (except those 'Discontinued – Not to count as failure' and those with only a 'Satisfied Requirements' result), weighted according to credit point value. The SWAM may be expressed as:

SWAM = \frac{\sum (\text{Mark} \times \text{Credit points})}{\sum \text{Credit points}}

T

Teaching department
(See School.)

Teaching end date
Official finish date of formal timetabled classes.

Teaching start date
Official commencement date of formal timetabled classes.

Terminated

Term used when a student's candidature has been officially closed because they are not able to complete the Course requirements. (See also Candidature.)

Testamur

A certificate of award provided to a graduand, usually at a graduation ceremony. The Award conferred will be displayed along with other appropriate detail.

Thesis

A major work that is the product of an extended period of supervised independent research. (See also Course – Research.)

Timetable

The schedule of lectures, tutorials, laboratories and other academic activities that a student must attend.

Transcript
(See Academic transcript.)

Transfer
(See Course transfer.)

Tuition fees

Tuition fees may be charged to students in designated tuition fee-paying courses. Students who pay fees are not liable for HECS.

U

Universities Admissions Centre (UAC)

The UAC receives and processes applications for admission to undergraduate courses at recognised universities in NSW and the ACT. Most commencing, local undergraduate students at the University apply through the UAC.

Universities Admission Index (UAI)

A measure of overall academic achievement in the HSC that assists universities in ranking applicants for university selection. The UAI is based on the aggregate of scaled marks in ten units of the HSC, and is a number between 0.00 and 100.00 with increments of 0.05.

Under examination

Indicates that a research student has submitted their written work (thesis) for assessment, and is awaiting the finalisation of the examiners' outcome and recommendation.

Undergraduate

A term used to describe both a course leading to a diploma or bachelor's degree and a student enrolled in such a course.

Unit of study

Unit of study or unit means a stand-alone component of an award course. Each unit of study is the responsibility of a department. (See also Prohibited combinations of unit of study.)

Unit of study enrolment status

The enrolment status indicates whether the student is still actively attending the unit of study (i.e. currently enrolled) or is no longer enrolled. (See also Discontinuation or Cancellation.)

Unit of study level

Units of study are divided into Junior, Intermediate, Senior, Honours, Year 5, and Year 6. Most majors consist of 32 Senior credit points in a subject area (either 3000 level units of study or a mix of 2000 and 3000 level units of study).

University

Unless otherwise indicated, University in this document refers to the University of Sydney.

University Medal

A faculty may recommend the award of a University Medal to a student qualified for the award of an undergraduate honours degree (or some master's degrees), whose academic performance is judged to be outstanding.

Upgrade

Where a student enrolled in a master's by research course is undertaking research at such a standard that either the University recommends that the student upgrade their degree to a PhD, or the student seeks to upgrade to a PhD and this is supported by the University.

USYDnet

The University of Sydney's intranet system. It provides access to other services such as directories (maps, staff and student, organisations), a calendar of events (to which staff and students can submit entries), and a software download area.

V

Variation of enrolment
(See Enrolment variation.)

Vice-Chancellor and Principal

The chief executive officer of the University, responsible for its leadership and management. The Vice-Chancellor and Principal is head of both academic and administrative divisions.

W

Waiver

In a prescribed course, a faculty may waive the prerequisite or corequisite requirement for a unit of study or the course rules for a particular student. Unlike credit, waivers do not involve a reduction in the number of credit points required for a course. (See also Credit, Exemption.)

Winter School

An intensive session offered by the University during the mid-year break.

Weighted average mark (WAM)

This mark uses the unit of study credit point value in conjunction with an agreed 'weight'. The formula for this calculation is:
Where \( W_c \) is the weighted credit point value – i.e., the product of the credit point value and the level of weighting of 1, 2, 3, or 4 for a first, second, third or fourth year unit of study respectively; and where \( M_c \) is the greater of 45 or the mark out of 100 for the unit of study.

The mark is the actual mark obtained by the student for the unit of study, or in the case of a failing grade with no mark – 0. Pass/fail assessed subjects and credit transfer subjects (from another institution) are excluded from these calculations; however, the marks from all attempts at a unit of study are included. (Effective from 1 January 2004.)

In addition, faculties may adopt other average mark formulae for specific progression or entry requirements. If such a formula is not specified in the faculty resolutions, the formula outlined above is used. (See also WAM weight.)

WAM weight
A weight assigned to each unit of study to assist in the calculation of WAMs.

Y

Year of first enrolment (YFE)
The year in which a student first enrols at the University. (See also Commencement date.)

Youth Allowance
Youth Allowance is payable to a full-time student or trainee aged 16–24 years of age who is enrolled at an approved institution such as a school, college, TAFE or university, and undertaking at least 15 hours a week face-to-face contact.
