Contents

Foreword ................................................................. iii
Don Stammer, Chair, Australia–Korea Foundation

1. Introduction ................................................................. 1
   Diverse histories and shared contemporary social issues: the Australian and Korean welfare states
   Ruth Phillips

Social and demographic changes in Australian and Korea

2. Australian demographic prospects, 2004–2050 ................. 33
   Peter McDonald

3. Demographic changes in Korea during the period of 1960–2000 ........................................................................ 52
   Ik Ki Kim

The digital generation and the social impacts of new technologies

4. The impact of new technologies on the digital generation: a critical analysis and review of policy making in Australia ... 77
   Ali Mubarak

5. The digital generation and the social impact of new technologies: digital natives in Korea ................................................. 98
   Heejin Lee, Gil-Soo Han and Sangjo Oh

The sandwich generation

   Deborah Brennan

7. Child care support programs for double income families in Korea ................................................................. 140
   Jeong-hee Kim

The ageing population

8. Health, economic and policy implications of an ageing Australia ........................................................................ 164
   Hal Kendig & Ruth Phillips

9. The health, economic, and policy implications of the ageing Korean society .......................................................... 192
   Eun-Jeong Kang

Conclusion

10. The wider context: some key implications of generational change in Asia ........................................................... 206
    Eugene Sebastian

Author biographies .......................................................... 229

Index .............................................................................. 235