The Medina of TUNISIA is a traditional place which kept lots of ancient festivals and celebrations. My project is a mini colosseum for sheep ramming, this is one traditional festival in Tunisia which has over thousand years, my idea comes from the picture of dressing sheep, and I thought one building just for ramming could be nice. This place also provided sheep show for general publics, which is an ideal space for people to have fun.