Born, a great place to visit or live with sunny days and endless fields you'll feel right at home in this nature-rich environment. The Zurzise music theatre in Born is a great attraction, exploring the history, present and future of music through the local and international acts performing. Its architecture is one that must be seen on a visit to Born. With the dazzling metallic roof contrasting with the black-and-white-themed interior, the human eye is forced to stare and marvel.
