BERN is the capital city of Switzerland, which is famous for banks. The idea of the design comes from the traditional pig shape money box, which represents lucky, fortun and wealthy. The exterior of the building is just like the money box, and the interior circle is the symbol of coin.