How to use this handbook

This handbook brings together all the important information you need as a student at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music in one easy-to-access place. It's a toolkit that you can download or print, view on the web, or order as a printed copy.

In it you will find information on what you need to know about the faculty, its undergraduate courses and the University. It also features information on:

• finding the best possible way to meet your own goals for learning as well as meeting the requirements of your chosen degree
• administrative requirements with which you need to be familiar, such as how to change your enrolment
• how we can support you through providing facilities such as practice rooms and technology labs as well as more personal support such as the Counselling Service
• and very importantly, how to find more help: who to ask, where to go.

The 2010 Handbook features information on the post-2008 new degrees as well as those degrees that will continue for students who enrolled prior to 2008.

Transition and credit transfer

If you are enrolling for the first time, you will automatically take your place in the post-2008 new degrees. If you enrolled prior to 2008 for the first time, you may choose to remain in your current degree or to transfer to the new one.

For further information you can:

• contact the Student Administration Office, coninfo@usyd.edu.au, +61 2 9351 1216
• read chapters 4-8 of this handbook which outline the requirements of, and all units of study offered in the post-2008 degrees (the ivory pages).

Where to find what in this handbook

Postgraduate information

Information on postgraduate courses is published in a separate publication, the Sydney Conservatorium of Music Postgraduate Handbook.

Course terminology

University terminology – such as ‘credit point’ and ‘unit of study’ – can be found in the Abbreviations and Glossary sections, at the back of this handbook.

Dates/Calendar

The start and end dates of semester can be found in the front section of the handbook where you will find two calendars, one for the University in general and one for the Conservatorium in particular.

Please read these and take note of important dates such as cut-off dates for changing enrolments, semester start dates at the Conservatorium and examination periods.

Rules and regulations

Senate and Faculty resolutions are the regulations pertaining to specific degrees in a faculty. The Conservatorium's degree resolutions for post-2008 new degrees can be found in Chapter 7 of this handbook. Degree resolutions for pre-2008 degrees can be found in Chapter 11 of this handbook. They cover issues that include admission requirements, structure and graduation requirements of each undergraduate degree.

The Conservatorium also sets out other rules that cover all degrees in a more general way. The Conservatorium Rules can be found in Chapter 12 of this handbook.

These chapters should be read along with the University’s Coursework Rule 2000 (as amended) which can be found in the University Calendar.

Altogether, these Rules and Resolutions outline the agreement between student and faculty, and student and University.

General University Information and Student Services Information sections

These are handy reference pages for all sorts of services from where to play sport to where to find help with study skills. You can find a complete list in the Contents at the front of the Handbook. The section includes, among other things:

• Summer and Winter Schools information
• international student information

Maps

This section contains:

• a map of Camperdown-Darlington campus.
• a public transport access map to the Conservatorium and also to the Arts-Music Unit located on Darlington Campus in the Seymour Centre
• a guide to what’s where in the Conservatorium.

Course planning

You might like to plot the course of your degree as you read about your units of study. A course planner can be found at the back of the handbook, as well as some tips for planning your course.
Chapter outline

In Chapter 1 the Sydney Conservatorium of Music welcomes readers to the Faculty. A complete list of all undergraduate degrees offered in 2010 and some general course information follows. The rest of the chapter sets out the Conservatorium’s mission statement, graduate attributes and contains an overview of career pathways and information on events at the Conservatorium open to your family and friends such as public concerts and courses at the Conservatorium Open Academy.

The staff of the Conservatorium is listed in Chapter 2.

Chapter 3 is an important source of information about studying at the Conservatorium, including information on some University policies and rules with which you should become familiar. For example, there are Resolutions and Rules governing how you make your way through the course (academic progress), there are Rules and policies on how to apply for special consideration. This chapter explains some of the rules in simpler language.

You can also find out about the Conservatorium’s facilities such as how to hire a locker, how your email works and how to find support for personal and study issues.

It also includes information on the ‘who and where’ of the Faculty: names and locations of people and offices you are likely to need to contact during the year.

Undergraduate degree information

Chapter 4 outlines requirements for each post-2008 undergraduate degree the Conservatorium offers, including core areas of study, a recommended sequence and which units you need to do when. We have also included enrolment patterns for each degree to help give you an idea of what your enrolment may look like. For some degrees these are typical, for others, such as the Diploma of Opera, they are mandatory.

Chapter 5 is the Table of all the units of study for post-2008 degrees. This gives a simple overview of the unit name, semester offerings and other prereq and coreq requirements.

Chapter 6 outlines details of all the units of study common to both post and pre-2008 degrees. If you want to know more about a unit of study like content and assessment details this is the best place to look.

In Chapter 7 you will find the fine print: the Undergraduate Degree Resolutions for all the post-2008 new degrees. The information in this chapter takes precedence over all other information about the new degrees in this handbook. You should read the relevant parts of this chapter, and refer to them from time to time during your studies to make sure you are on track to satisfy the requirements of your degree.

Chapter 8 outlines requirements for each pre-2008 undergraduate degree the Conservatorium offers including core areas of study and which units you need to do when. We have also included enrolment patterns for each degree to help give you an idea of what your enrolment may look like. For some degrees these are typical, for others, such as the Diploma of Opera, they are mandatory.

Chapter 9 is the Table of all the units of study for pre-2008 degrees. This gives a simple overview of the unit name, semester offerings and other prereq and coreq requirements.

Chapter 10 outlines details of all the units of study that are only specific to the pre-2008 degrees.

In Chapter 11 you will find the fine print: the Undergraduate Degree Resolutions for pre-2008 courses. The information in this chapter takes precedence over all other information about the pre-2008 degrees in this handbook. You should read the relevant parts of this chapter, and refer to them from time to time during your studies to make sure you are on track to satisfy the requirements of your degree.

The final section of the Handbook contains a variety of useful information.

Chapter 12 contains the Rules for the Conservatorium.

The remainder of the Handbook contains a Glossary and Abbreviations section, General University information and Student Services information sections, Maps and also a Course planning tips and Course planner section.

Handbook updates

The information in the Handbook is current at the time of publication. Updated information to handbooks and references to University policies such as plagiarism and special consideration, among others can be found in the University’s website.

1. Welcome to the Sydney Conservatorium of Music

Message from the Dean

IMAGINATION - INSPIRATION - INNOVATION

The Sydney Conservatorium of Music, affectionately known as The Con, is a place for artists and scholars, a magical and wonderful setting where our talented faculty members, students and visitors engage with the dynamic music and ideas of our time, as well as with the great masters and musical traditions of the past. Today, the Conservatorium is Australia’s premier music educator, a destination for the finest musicians from across Australia and around the world. The strength and heart of the Conservatorium’s excellence lies with our talented faculty and their significant contributions to research, creative activity and outstanding teaching. Among the faculty are award-winning performers and composers, world-class scholars and acclaimed musicians whose high-level contacts in the music world span Europe, the USA and Asia.

The atmosphere within the Conservatorium is exciting and inviting, due equally to the quality of its faculty, and the enthusiasm, passion and excellence of its students. All members of the student body enjoy extensive opportunities to perform, teach and present in cosmopolitan Sydney, nationally and internationally. A pillar of its stature is the year-round schedule of on-site lectures and master-classes given by musicians and scholars of the highest ilk – both local and overseas-based.

The Conservatorium has placed increasing emphasis on maintaining the eminence and rigour of its courses to underscore the opportunity for scholars to make their way in the international music market. To this end, our degrees and diplomas are internationally benchmarked and provide students with the confidence and knowledge that their education will stand them in good stead the world over.

Conservatorium courses range from undergraduate studies through to the highest levels of music performance, conducting and research doctorates in academic and performance specialisation. Representative of these innovative programs are the combined undergraduate awards – the Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery and the Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Arts where interdisciplinary courses provide students the opportunity to study across multiple faculties.

We ensure our focus concentrates on providing the best, most inspirational and fertile scholastic and performance environment possible, allowing students to reach their goals and become leaders in their fields, evidently seen through the widespread triumphs and accomplishments of our Conservatorium alumni. Allied to this is our ongoing commitment to offering the largest number of significant music scholarships in Australia providing premium places (in addition to the HECS-HELP fee places) for performers, composers and scholars. Crucially, SCM also offers key scholarships for students to study abroad as part of their development through numerous exchange opportunities.

A major attraction is the Conservatorium’s robust and diverse orchestral and ensembles program, featuring jazz, early music, contemporary, orchestral, opera, choral, wind symphony and gamelan, highlighted by International tours in 2009 and 2010. This platform provides students a pathway to perform in professional ensembles such as the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra, the Australian Chamber Orchestra, the Australian Opera and Ballet Orchestra and the Sydney Symphony Orchestra. Opera program students observe rehearsals with Opera Australia and perform three operas a year.

With record enrolments in 2009, there is a buzz of expectation surrounding the Conservatorium as we continue to improve our resources and generate an even greater level of inspiration and challenge for all concerned.

Welcome to our musical world here in Sydney.

Professor Kim Walker
Dean and Principal of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music

Bachelor degrees

Bachelor of Music
The Bachelor of Music is a degree for musically talented students aspiring to a professional career in music. The goals of the program are:

- to develop musicianship and performance, musicology, composition or music education;
- to develop students’ ability to see themselves, their musical art and their educational activity in a wide cultural perspective; and
- to develop the generic attributes of graduates of the University of Sydney.

Bachelor of Music Studies
This is a flexible course of study without specialisation: students may study in the four key areas of playing music (performance), writing music (composition and music skills), writing about music (historical and cultural studies) and teaching music.

If you enrol in the Bachelor of Music or Bachelor of Music Studies degrees you can generally choose from subjects common to both courses with the option to transfer at the end of the first year. Both degrees allow for study in other faculties at the University of Sydney if you wish to pick up subjects in non-musical disciplines.

The Conservatorium now offers a fourth year Honours program in the Bachelor of Music Studies and its combined degrees for students who meet the criteria.

Combined degrees
The combined degree Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Arts allows students to acquire musical skills in performance, composition, music education or musicology together with expertise in an arts discipline within a broad humanities context.

The combined Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery award course will allow students to combine their demonstrated interests in music and in medicine.

Students in either degree may also choose to apply for the Bachelor of Studies (Honours) award in the fourth year.

Principal Study
If you are enrolled in a Bachelor of Music or Bachelor of Music Studies degree or the Diploma of Music you will need to select a unit of Principal Study based on the performance or academic areas for which you have successfully auditioned and/or been interviewed. If you choose a Principal Study in a performance unit, it will consist of instrumental or vocal lessons as well as Performance Workshop or small group study, giving you plenty of chances to perform. You can choose from a range of brass, early music instruments, keyboard, organ, strings, woodwind, percussion and jazz performance instruments, as well as voice (opera, classical or jazz). You can also choose a Principal Study in composition or musicology.

Diplomas
The Diploma of Music is a specialised vocational course that provides training in high-level performance skills and develops artistic and intellectual knowledge that will prepare you for a career as a professional classical or jazz musician.

The Advanced Diploma of Opera will teach you to sing with technical proficiency and to perform with a sense of musical style and dramatic interpretation. This is complemented by an awareness of the professional and practical demands of the theatre and its environment. You will also be able to acquire basic piano skills, demonstrate a thorough understanding of musicianship, sing in the major operatic languages, perform movement and dance sequences and build a character on developed stagecraft skills. You need to be at least 21 years old on 1 March of your first year in the opera course.

Bachelor of Arts (Major in Music)

Arts is a generalist degree with wide career potential. A large number of students undertake specialised research training in a subject and go on to gain an honours degree followed by a higher degree or postgraduate diploma. You can major in music as part of the Bachelor of Arts degree. Duration: 3 years (4 years honours). The Arts Music Unit of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music is located on the main campus of the University of Sydney. Students from all faculties including the Con can study a wide range of subjects including music skills, musicology and ethnomusicology, performance and composition. All classes are held on the main university campus.

First year music courses accommodate a wide range of skills in musical literacy placing significant emphasis on critical listening. It is possible to begin music study without any prior knowledge of notation although literacy as well as aural skills are developed in an appropriate musical language course during the first year. There are no audition requirements for entry to first year units. Successful completion of 12 junior credit points in Music permits access to a wide range of Senior units of study including courses in Musicology (both western and non-western), Composition and Performance. Media and technology courses are also available.

A full Music major and Honours program are available and can be taken as part of a BA or combined Arts degree in many faculties of the University (Economics, Education, Engineering, Law, Nursing and Science).

Students should consult the Arts Faculty for further details on admission and degree requirements.

Career pathways

Studying music offers a variety of pathways to a vast array of rewarding careers: composition and/or arrangement; writing about music as a musicologist, journalist or critic; broadcasting and music recording; performance including conducting, as soloist or ensemble player; teaching, from early childhood to secondary; music therapy; arts administration including cultural planning, marketing, and festival or venue management. 3. Guide to the Conservatorium: Enrolment and Academic Information

This chapter provides information about studying at the Conservatorium, and explains some of the rules in simpler language. For example, there are rules governing what’s called academic progress, and other rules such as how to apply for special consideration. You can also find out about the Conservatorium’s facilities including how to hire a locker, how your email works and how to find support for personal and study issues.

The chapter contains 4 sections:

- Enrolment and Academic Information
- Facilities
- Student Support Services
- Useful contacts and further information

Enrolment and academic information

Please look after your enrolment. Your journey from first year to graduation involves a combination of meeting your academic work requirements and making sure you do your administration correctly. This section will give you information on both of these requirements. If you have any other questions, you have access to several sources of information: Student Administration Office, Student and Staff Support Services and the Conservatorium and University websites.

Some important things to note:

- Check the dates each semester for enrolment, withdrawal and discontinuation.
- Check your pathway through the course so that you enrol in the correct prerequisites and/or corequisites.
- Check you have enrolled in the correct number of credit points in the required areas.
- Please stay in contact. Keep your address (including email) updated, respond when required to written University correspondence and check your University email address regularly.
- If something unforeseen occurs, such as illness or accident, let your teacher, Chair of Unit, and Student Administration know.
- If you are struggling to meet your course requirements for any reason – work, personal issues or family commitments for example – talk to your teacher, Chair of Unit, Student Administration or make an appointment to see a Student Counsellor. All of these people can help you and/or refer you to a number of services that the Conservatorium and the University provide to students.
- If you have any questions about your enrolment, please go to the Student Administration Office at the Conservatorium.

You are responsible for ensuring your enrolment is correct each year and that your progress is in accordance with the Resolutions of the Faculty and the University Senate. While the Conservatorium makes every effort to provide advice and information, the onus is on you to ensure that deadlines and course requirements are met.

There are many University procedures and services (such as Special Consideration and the Counselling Service) to accommodate students who experience personal problems, illness and misadventure. It is important for you to familiarise yourself with the regulations for your chosen course and with the services available at the University.

All students enrolled in the Conservatorium of Music are required to familiarise themselves with the following key policies:

It is also expected that you will meet the University’s code of conduct for students. For more information please read the Academic Board policy (www.usyd.edu.au/ab/policies/Student_code_conduct.pdf) See also: Academic honesty and academic misconduct, Student Support Services, Special consideration.

Student Administration Office

The Student Administration Office is the initial point of contact for administrative enquiries. You can obtain information and advice on enrolment and your degree here, as well as accessing various forms relating to your candidature including application for transfer, leave of absence and variations of enrolment.

You can find us on Level 3 (Greenway Building) between 10am and 4pm Monday to Friday.

If you are on Camperdown campus, you can also go to the Student Centre. The Student Centre is located on Level 1 of the Carslaw Building (Building Code F07), Eastern Avenue. The Centre is open 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday.

Student Files and Privacy

All major documentation related to your candidature is attached to your student file held in the Student Administration Office. Privacy legislation applies to student records and is enforced by the University of Sydney. This means we cannot release any of your information to anyone but you or someone you have authorised in writing.

Enrolling

Admission (new students)

All undergraduate applicants are required to lodge an application for admission to a course with the Student Administration Office as well as with the Universities Admission Centre (UAC). International Students must apply to the International Office (www.usyd.edu.au/internationaloffice).

If you have undertaken any previous tertiary studies you may be eligible for credit or advanced standing. Please contact the Student Administration Office to discuss obtaining approval for previous studies.

Fees for non-award courses

Students may not generally undertake or enrol in a Principal Study on a non-award basis. Tuition fees are payable by students enrolled in non-award units of study and are calculated on a semester basis. All fees are payable in advance.

Enrolment (new students)

New students should enrol using this handbook as a reference. On enrolment day you choose your units of study for your first year. You should check the requirements for your degree, set out in the course information chapters and in the Resolutions for your degree (in chapter 7) as well as the unit of study tables and listings (chapters 5 and 6). You may also wish to use the course planner at the end of this handbook.
See also: Resolutions, Student Administration Office.

Enrolment (continuing students)

Continuing students are required to pre-enrol in October each year. At this time you choose your units of study for the following year. Pre-enrolment should be completed online. Information regarding pre-enrolment is emailed in late September. See also: MyUni, Student Administration Office.

Enrolment confirmation

All students receive a confirmation of their enrolment at the beginning of the semester. It is your responsibility to ensure that your enrolment is correct. You will receive a confirmation via email and you will also be given your Uniskey login which gives you access to your MyUnsi account. See also: Student Administration Office, MyUni.

Prerequisites/corequisites

If you wish to enrol in a unit of study that has a pre- or corequisite that you do not meet, you are required to obtain the written approval of the coordinator for the unit of study in which you wish to enrol. Student Administration cannot override any pre- or corequisites without academic approval. If you need to have a pre- or corequisite waived, your enrolment variation must be completed at the Student Administration Office. You will not be able to make the changes online.

Student ID card

All students will be issued with a student ID card upon enrolment. New students will obtain their ID card on enrolment day. Continuing students will receive information via mail once they are successfully pre-enrolled. Your ID card will indicate your student ID number and will be used as a library card. You should carry your card at all times during attendance at the Conservatorium. If you need to replace your card because it has been lost or stolen, you will have to pay for a new one. Replacement cards can be obtained at the Student Card Office, Level 2, Fisher Library. See also: Student Administration Office.

Timetables

The Conservatorium timetable is prepared twice a year. You should check class and rehearsal times at the beginning of each semester. You will be required to attend tutorials when you enrol in some units of study at the Conservatorium. You will be assigned to a tutorial through the timetabling process.

Individual timetables for Semester 1 will be available before the end of February 2010 and for Semester 2 by mid-June 2010. You can withdraw and add units for a semester until the end of Week 2 of classes. You can withdraw from a unit of study without any penalty until the end of March for Semester 1, and the end of August for Semester 2. Variations to your enrolment can affect your Weighted Average Mark (WAM) and your HECS liability. For example, if you discontinue a unit of study after 31 March, (with the permission of the Pro-Dean), you will receive a Discontinue Not Fail (DNF) grade and be liable for HECS for that unit of study. If you discontinue a unit of study after 31 March without permission, you receive a Discontinue Fail (DF) grade. This will affect your WAM and you will be liable for HECS.

Most variations can be done using the MyUni website. Any other variations can be completed at the Student Administration Office. Your confirmation of enrolment can be used at the Student Administration Office to make variations to your enrolment. No one but you can make or request variations to your enrolment. See also: Enrolment, Glossary, Important dates, MyUni.

Staying enrolled

Academic honesty and academic misconduct

Academic honesty is a core value of the University of Sydney and the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. The University is committed to the basic academic right that students receive due credit for work submitted for assessment.

Deliberate breaches of academic honesty constitute academic misconduct.

These breaches may include:

• plagiarism
• fabrication of data
• recycling previously submitted material
• engaging someone else to complete an assessment task or examination on one’s behalf
• misconduct during examinations
• submitting a fraudulent special consideration application.

Plagiarism can be broadly defined as presenting another person’s ideas, findings or work as one’s own by copying or reproducing the work without due acknowledgment of the source. The most common form of plagiarism is where a student presents written work, including sentences, paragraphs or longer extracts from published work without attribution of its source. Work submitted for assessment may also be regarded as plagiarised where significant proportions of an assignment have been reproduced from the work of another student, since this exceeds the boundaries of legitimate cooperation.

Misconduct during examinations involves any actions not permitted during the exam, including communicating with others, attempting to read another student’s work, and bringing unauthorised material or equipment into the exam room.

In addition, the Conservatorium publishes a guide called “What’s Expected: The Conservatorium Guide to Academic Writing and Thinking” which you can find at: www.music.usyd.edu.au/docs/assguide.pdf

How to avoid academic misconduct
You must submit original, non-plagiarised work. In developing original work, you will often draw on the words and ideas of others. It is vitally important that these words and ideas be fully referenced.

If you require assistance with academic writing and referencing skills you are strongly advised to participate in the support programs offered by the Learning Centre in Student Services: +61 2 9351 3853 or email: lc@stuserv.usyd.edu.au

See also: Student Support.

Your address
You can view or update your address details through MyUni. You may record up to three addresses but you must nominate which of these is your preferred correspondence address. You should check for University correspondence regularly.

Alternatively, you can change your address using the Change of Address form, in person at the Student Administration Office or Student Centre on Camperdown campus, or by mail directed to the Student Centre, Level 1, Carslaw Building, F07, The University of Sydney, NSW, 2006. Please make sure you include your name and student identification number.

Change of Address Forms are available at:
• www.usyd.edu.au/studentcentre/forms/changeofaddress.pdf
• from the Student Administration Office
• from the Student Centre on Camperdown Campus.

Appeals
If you have a complaint about an academic decision, you must first attempt to discuss the matter with the academic staff member who assigned the mark (if the appeal concerns a particular assessment task) or the unit of study coordinator (if the appeal concerns the final assessment for the whole unit of study). If the matter is not resolved in the course of the initial discussion, you can ask the unit of study coordinator to have the assignment re-marked by another academic staff member. If this approach is unsatisfactory, you may write a formal appeal letter to the Chair of Unit.

Where the Chair of Unit is the subject of complaint, reports should be made to the Pro-Dean. You should contact the Student Administration Office for further avenues for appeal or if you need help with this process.

In cases where you feel you have been harassed or discriminated against, and in cases of professional misconduct, or the failure of a staff member to attend to teaching or supervisory duties, you should first approach the lecturer in charge. However, given the nature of such complaints, this may be difficult. In such situations, you are advised to contact the Student Administration Office for guidance. You should refer to the University Policy on Appeals for further information on the appeals process. See also: CSA, Grievances and appeals, SRC, Student Administration Office.

Attendance
Attendance is essential to the completion of your degree. You should notify your unit of study coordinator if you cannot attend any class. See also: Counselling Service, Leave of absence, Special arrangements, Special consideration.

Leave of absence
A student who is absent for any reason must notify the Student Administration Office, and in the case of a performance activity, the person responsible for that activity. Acceptable reasons for leave of absence include illness, professional activity or family or financial difficulties. See also: Counselling Service, Special arrangements, Special consideration.

Performance requirements
All students must complete some core performance requirements, including participation in large ensemble. Performance students are required to enrol in Principal Study in their performance area, as well as to participate in large ensemble, Performance Workshop and selected master classes in their unit areas. Information about performance examinations and Performance Workshop follows.

Performance examinations
The Conservatorium requires all public performance examination programs to be approved. Each student must complete an online Application for Recital Examination Program Approval when preparing for their performance examinations, and must submit this five (5) weeks prior to the examination.

Performance Workshop
All performance students are required to participate in and attend Performance Workshop. Programs must be presented by the due date on an appropriate form.

Information about Performance Workshop is displayed on the Performance Workshop notice board on Level 1 (opposite the Percussion Studios).

Students at Risk
In 2007, the University introduced a new policy and set of procedures. It includes the previous policy on Show Cause as part of a wider program that aims to support students displaying signs of struggle with their academic work well before the Show Cause policy and possible exclusion would arise. Students may struggle with their work for a variety of reasons: academic, financial and/or personal. Support may include information sessions and meeting with an advisor. (These may be mandatory at particular stages of the procedure.)

Each semester the Conservatorium will identify those students who are deemed ‘at risk’. You may be identified at risk if you:

• Fail to complete 50% of your semester enrolment
• Fail to complete a core unit
• Fail the same unit of study for the second time.

If you are identified as at risk for the first time you will be required to complete a Staying On Track survey and attend an information session.

A second identification of being at risk will require you to complete a second Staying on Track survey and meet with an academic adviser.

If you are identified as a student at risk for a third time you will be required to show good cause for why you failed to meet progression requirements. Failure to show good cause may result in an exclusion for two years.
If you are permitted to continue in your degree after showing good cause and are identified for a fourth time as a student at risk you will be automatically excluded for two years.

You have the right to appeal any decision made by the Sydney Conservatorium of Music regarding your status as a student at risk. More information is available at: www.usyd.edu.au/secretariat/students/riskstudents.shtml

See also: Counselling Service, Enrolment, Student Administration Office.

Special arrangements

The Special Arrangements for Examination and Assessment Policy is designed to support and assist students who are experiencing difficulty in meeting their assessment requirements or in attending examinations due to competing essential community commitments.

If you are having difficulty with the following community commitments you may wish to apply for Special Arrangements:

- Essential religious commitments or essential beliefs;
- Compulsory legal absence (e.g. jury duty, court summons);
- Sporting or cultural commitments, including political and union commitments, where you are representing the University, state or nation;
- Australian Defence Force commitments (including Army Reserve).

Special Arrangements may only be considered in the above circumstances if the commitment falls on the same day as an assessment task or examination. Special Arrangements will not be made if the commitment falls before or after the assessment task or examination.

Please see Student Administration for an application. You must submit the Application for Special Arrangements no later than seven (7) days prior to the due date of the assessment or examination for which you would like to make alternative arrangements. See also: Counselling Service, Enrolment, Student Administration Office.

Special consideration

The Conservatorium recognises that the work of students may be adversely affected by illness or misadventure which can lead to absence from lectures, inability to perform at a recital, failure to hand in an assignment and/or poor performance in an examination. In such cases, for example, you can discuss the issue with your teacher or Chair of Unit.

In the event of serious illness or misadventure, provision is made for special consideration. If you believe that your performance has been or may be adversely affected by an occurrence of serious illness or misadventure you may request that the Conservatorium grant you special consideration. All such requests must:

- include the completion of a special consideration application form available from the Student Administration Office, www.music.usyd.edu.au/docs/special_consideration_form.pdf or the main Student Centre located in the Carslaw Building at the Camperdown Campus;
- be supplied within one week of the occurrence; and
- be accompanied by an appropriate Professional Practitioner's Certificate, such as a doctor's certificate or counsellor's letter, or other relevant documentary evidence apart from your own submission. For guidelines on what constitutes satisfactory documentation, refer to the Special Consideration section at: www.usyd.edu.au/studentcentre/exams/documentation.shtml

The Conservatorium will only compensate for sub-standard performance in assessments that do not reflect your true competence in a unit of study, and will ensure this compensation does not act to the disadvantage of other students. It is important to understand that non-attendance at an examination, together with submission of any accompanying Professional Practitioner's Certificate or documentary evidence of misadventure, does not guarantee that a deferred assessment will take place.

If you have a serious disability that is likely to affect a high proportion of end-of-semester examinations you are advised to discuss the situation with your Chair of Unit and to contact the Disability Services Office on +61 2 9351 2228.

See also: Counselling Service, Disability Services, Enrolment, Student Administration Office.

Graduation

If you are enrolled in your final year you are strongly encouraged to confirm that the units you have enrolled in will enable you to complete all requirements for the award.

Changes to enrolment to establish potential graduand status must be made by 31 March for Semester 1 and 31 August for Semester 2. You should apply to the Student Administration Office for a graduation check well before the end of March or August. See also: Student Administration Office.

Other information

Scholarships

Through generous donations and bequests, the Sydney Conservatorium of Music is able to offer many scholarships that are available to all local and international students. There are three main types of scholarships – merit, financial aid and travel. The faculty endeavours to award more than 200 of these scholarships annually. Individual scholarship awards can vary in value between $800 and $10,000 annually.

All new students are considered for merit-based scholarships based on their performance at audition or interview. Students do not need to fill out an application form or present a separate scholarship audition. Continuing scholarships can be awarded throughout the students' course (subject to maintaining a high level of achievement in assessment).

To support students with financial assistance, there are many scholarships available. To be considered for these scholarships, you will need to complete an application form. These forms will be available annually from the Conservatorium’s Student Administration Office from beginning of November. Application forms can also be downloaded from the SCM website.

As part of the University of Sydney, Sydney Conservatorium of Music students are also eligible for scholarships for new, continuing and international students. Further information about these scholarships can be found at www.usyd.edu.au/fsstudent/scholarships.shtml

See also: Student Administration Office.

Student Exchange Opportunities

Both the Conservatorium and the University of Sydney have a range of student exchange programs with universities and music schools. The exchange programs allow you to complete a semester or a year of your degree overseas and have the results credited towards your degree at the University of Sydney. The Conservatorium has special exchange agreements with a number of institutions including the Royal Academy of Music, the Royal College of Music, the Staatliche Hochschule fur Musik, Freiburg, and the Hochschule fur Musik, Detmold. If you wish to apply for an overseas exchange please contact the Study Abroad and Exchange Office on +61 2 9351 3699.

See also: Scholarships, Study Abroad.

This section is a guide to the facilities available in the Conservatorium building.

Building and Equipment

Attendants
The Attendant team support the learning and teaching activities at the Conservatorium by setting up class rooms, orchestral set-ups, venue and room access and moving instruments and equipment. Any lost property queries should be directed to the attendants.

During semester they are usually on campus between 7am and 6pm.

You can find them moving around the building in their blue uniforms, or alternatively their office is located to the left of the main entrance on Level 3 in Room 3010. You can also phone them on +61 2 9351 1300.

Health and safety
Health and safety is everyone’s responsibility. You have a duty of care not only to yourself, but to other people in the building. Please report any health and safety issues immediately to the Safety Officer or the attendant team (see contact list at the end of this chapter) and complete an Incident Report form within 24 hours of an incident available as a PDF from the University website at: www.usyd.edu.au/risk/docs/forms/incident.pdf.

In addition please:
- familiarise yourself with all fire exits
- do not move equipment or instruments without supervision or prior consent from Conservatorium staff
- do not run inside the building
- do not leave unattended items in or around the Conservatorium.

Instrument/Equipment hire

Long-term
The Conservatorium has a limited stock of instruments for loan to enrolled students. Please see your Chair of Unit in the first instance for information on instruments available.

If you wish to hire an instrument you will need to pay a deposit and modest hire fee, and arrange relevant insurance cover. You will be liable for the cost of lost or damaged instruments, as well as incidental items such as strings. Hire agreement forms, including terms and conditions, are available from Student and Staff Support Services (Room 2151).

Short-term
There are a number of instruments and other equipment available for short-term loan, most of which are available from Student and Staff Support Services (Room 2151). Staff will sign instruments in and out. You need to show your student ID and your student ID number will be recorded. All loans are to be returned each day and none of the instruments or other equipment available from the Student and Staff Support Services is to be taken out of the Conservatorium. Under certain circumstances this may be possible with written permission from the Facilities Officer, proof of adequate insurance cover and, if warranted, a hire fee. For other short-term loans please contact the Facilities Officer. Phone: +61 2 9351 1295 or email: a.humphries@usyd.edu.au.

Lockers
A limited number of instrument and bag lockers are available in the Conservatorium building. You should complete an application form and present it at Student and Staff Support Services (Room 2151). The charge is $32.50 per semester or $60 per year (including GST). In some cases, combination locks will be supplied rather than keys. You need to agree and adhere to the terms and conditions of hire as part of the application. Application forms will be available on the Conservatorium website at: www.music.usyd.edu.au/CS/index.shtml.

Practice facilities
The Conservatorium has a generous supply of acoustically treated practice rooms (approximately 70) for enrolled students only. These rooms are located:
- on Level 1 in the inner corridor at the rear of the building and near the Percussion studios (percussion only)
- on Levels 2 and 3 in the corridors around the recital halls
- in the front turrets of Level 4 in the Greenway building.

Enrolled students may use these facilities at any time when the building is open without booking and are encouraged to use the rooms as much as possible.

The efficient management and sharing of this resource requires that students using practice facilities adhere to the following code of conduct:
- Students must carry their current student card with them at all times and show that card to Conservatorium or security staff on request.
- Students may practice for as long as they wish unless another student requires the room in which case they must vacate it on the hour. In periods of heavy use, if no practice rooms are available, students may knock on the door of any practice room on the hour and politely request that it be vacated. The student occupying the room at that time should vacate it promptly. Students who have vacated one room in this way may relocate to another room either when one becomes available or by using this principle.
- Practice rooms cannot be held by leaving instruments in the rooms, nor can they be used as storage facilities.
- Practice rooms equipped with pianos are to be used only by pianists.
- Practice rooms are to be used for practice only. Students may not take food or drink into practice rooms.
- Under no circumstances should practice rooms be used for private teaching. Students who teach in practice rooms may have their rights to practise in the Conservatorium rooms revoked.
- Music stands must be returned to their original location at the conclusion of any group rehearsal.
Room bookings

Ensemble room bookings can be made up to 2 weeks in advance or, at the minimum, 24 hours before. You can make a room booking with the Space and Timetabling Coordinator (Room 2156). Please bring your student card as we cannot accept room bookings by email or phone.

Please note students cannot book large venues such as the Recital Halls, the Music Workshop or Verbrugghen Hall.

IT and Communications

Email accounts

Central ICT - The University’s Information and Communications Technology (ICT) portfolio provides all staff and students with an exchange email account free of charge. On commencement of employment or enrolment, ICT will allocate you an email account.

Students will receive their email account access details as part of their documentation they receive at enrolment. For queries relating to student email, please contact the ICT Helpdesk on 9351 6000.

Staff will receive their email account access details by mail, either posted to the Conservatorium, or their home address on commencement of employment. For initial queries relating to staff email, please contact the Conservatorium IT support staff on 9351 1253 or constudentit@usyd.edu.au.

If you as a staff member are allocated a University owned computer, Central ICT will configure an email client so that you can access your email.

Alternately if you are offsite or use the onsite computer labs you can access your email through any Web browser. This basic email access, convenient for use in computer laboratories, can be accessed at: https://www.owa.usyd.edu.au/Exchweb/bin/auth

UniKey account

The University provides a number of electronic facilities to all University of Sydney students. The account you use to access them is called your UniKey account. Most systems which are only available to University of Sydney students, such as MyUni, will ask you for this login to confirm that you are a student here. Your UniKey account is generally created after your enrolment is processed and is included on most students’ confirmation of enrolment letter. It is usually a four alpha followed by four digit login name.

See also: Email, MyUni.

MyUni

MyUni is the University of Sydney’s student Web portal. This web portal enables all students at the University to access a broad range of services such as the Library, Student Support Services and Student Self-Administration. These services are common to all University students. You will need a UniKey account to login. MyUni can be found at: http://myuni.usyd.edu.au/

For Conservatorium-specific services you need to visit the current student section of the Conservatorium website: www.music.usyd.edu.au/CS/index.shtml.

Conservatorium Mailing Lists

All students will be included on the Conservatorium’s mailing lists relevant to students. Please remember to check your email.

Music Technology

The Conservatorium Music Technology area provides information technology (IT), audio-visual (AV) and music technology resources and support for students and staff to assist with their learning, teaching and research needs while at the Conservatorium. The area is located on Level 1 of the Conservatorium building, under the library. The Music Technology area includes:

- four Apple computer labs
- recording and production studios
- a range of specialist music software and hardware for use by students studying a variety of subjects including composition, music education, performance and sound recording.

Other general IT resources also available include Internet access, word processing and printing facilities. These facilities are also available in the Library, and for postgraduate students in the Postgraduate Room. More information on how to use these, and other Music Technology services can be found on the notice boards in the Music Technology area or by contacting the Music Technology support staff at constudentit@usyd.edu.au or in the Technical Support Office (Room1027).

Conservatorium Library

Library hours during semester are generally:

Monday to Thursday from 8am to 8pm
Friday from 8am to 6pm, and
Saturday from 10am to 5pm.

Variations will appear on noticeboards and the Conservatorium webpage.

Students can borrow from all University of Sydney libraries. You can request items from other libraries to be made available for pick-up at the Conservatorium Library by using the inter-library loans interface. You can also place holds on material currently on loan.

The library also provides a range of facilities and training including photocopying and printing, video-viewing, audio and seminar rooms and a comprehensive Information Literacy Program that trains students to use databases, e-journals, Internet searching and document delivery facilities. The Library also runs Library tours at the beginning of each semester.

The Library can be found on Level 2 of the Conservatorium.

Financial assistance
The University of Sydney can provide some funds to assist students who experience financial difficulties. This assistance is for help in emergencies and to supplement other income. It is not intended to provide ongoing income support or payment of fees.

Financial Assistance is available for any student enrolled at the University of Sydney who is making satisfactory progress and who is experiencing genuine financial hardship. Non-degree students are not eligible. See also: Sydney Student Development in General University Information, Scholarships.

Conservatorium Student Support Network: the Mentoring Program
The Mentoring Program is a recent initiative of Conservatorium staff and students. The program aims to assist new students with the transition from secondary to tertiary study. Through the program new students are helped to:

- meet other students
- gain familiarity with the building
- access useful information
- build networks of support; and
- make the most of the Conservatorium community.

The program works by assigning every first year student (or ‘mentee’) to a senior student (or ‘mentor’). Each student is also placed in a small group with other first year students who share the same mentor. All the mentors volunteer to work in the program. Student mentors are not trained to deal with serious personal or academic issues but they are supportive and encouraging, and often provide the most immediate means of learning about Camperdown campus services as well as life at the Conservatorium.

The program is coordinated by Dr Diane Collins. You can contact her on: +61 2 9351 1327, diane.collins@usyd.edu.au

The mentoring website is available at www.music.usyd.edu.au/CS/services/mentoring.shtml

Students with disabilities
If you have a disability you should contact Disability Services to familiarise yourself with the services and support you are eligible to receive.

Disability Services can arrange services such as:
- access to buildings
- provision of notetaking in lectures
- loan of equipment
- letters of support to lecturers
- information on parking permits
- special exam conditions.

The Disability Services staff work closely with others in the administration and academic departments of the University to make sure that arrangements relating to teaching and assessment are made for students with disabilities.

Phone: Disability Services office +61 2 8627 8433. You can find further information on the Disability Services website at: www.usyd.edu.au/stuserv/disability.

Student organisations
Student organisations are an important part of university life. Being involved in non-academic interests at university helps you to develop a network of friends and to broaden your outlook and skills. These organisations also provide a range of support and advocacy services.

Conservatorium Students' Association (CSA)
The Conservatorium Students’ Association (CSA) represents the student body. Its aim is to promote student morale and to encourage communication amongst students and between students and staff. It also acts as a liaison organisation between Conservatorium students and the University of Sydney student organisations.

The CSA Annual General Meeting is held in September or October each year when office bearers, year and course representatives are elected. The CSA offices are located on Level 4 and can be reached on +61 2 9351 1291. This position is provided courtesy of the Students’ Representative Council (SRC).

Other student organisations
The University of Sydney Union offers many welfare, social and cultural services to all students. It provides catering facilities around the University, coordinates recreational activities and funds clubs and societies. The Union also provides welfare services such as a resting room and lockers for students with disabilities on main campus.

The Students' Representative Council (SRC) represents undergraduate students at the University. The SRC has Welfare and Education Officers to provide advice and assistance with Austudy, social security, harassment and discrimination, tenancy, course problems, grievance procedures, assessment and many other matters. There are also free legal advice and interest-free loans.

Sydney Uni Sport & Fitness provides an extensive range of sporting and recreation services including many sporting clubs you can join.

Further information

Noticeboards
An official Conservatorium noticeboard with information relevant to enrolled students is located in the corridor outside the Student Administration Office. Additional noticeboards containing information about ensemble activities, Performance Workshop, health and safety and music technology can be found at the rear of the building on Level 1 and Level 2. All students are advised to check the noticeboards regularly for announcements.

A noticeboard on Level 1 is dedicated solely to notices for gigs and classifieds: please do not place these notices on any other noticeboards or surfaces in the Conservatorium.

Website
The Conservatorium website, www.music.usyd.edu.au, provides information for students and staff specifically relating to the Conservatorium resources, facilities, policies, courses and staff.

Students are encouraged to visit the website regularly as information relating to their studies is consistently updated. For example, information on performance examinations is updated every semester, and information on new scholarships is updated as they are established.

The Conservatorium website is also designed to give an overview of Conservatorium events and concerts that will enrich your experience here as a student.

In addition, you can access MyUni services such as email and self-administration through the Conservatorium website at: www.music.usyd.edu.au/CS/index.shtml

4.1 Bachelor of Music (Performance, Composition, Musicology, Music Education)

The Bachelor of Music is a four-year degree for musically talented students who aspire to a professional career in music. The course is structured to allow students to achieve a high standard in their area of specialization, to undertake core studies central to their development as professional musicians, and to pursue other studies in an area of their choice, either within their area of specialization, in another area of musical study at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music or in another faculty of the University of Sydney.

The program supports the development of professional musicians through acquisition of an integrated body of knowledge, skills and attitudes. While students are required to specialise in their Principal Study area and to reach levels of excellence demanded by the music profession, graduates need to be prepared for a diverse range of career opportunities, including careers as performing soloists, chamber musicians and orchestral/ensemble players, as well as music educators, creators, researchers and writers.

The goals of the Bachelor of Music are:

- to develop musicianship whether it be in the area of performance, musicology, composition or music education
- to develop students’ ability to see themselves, their musical art and their educational activity in a wide cultural perspective, and
- to develop generic attributes and skills expected of University of Sydney graduates.

The degree is offered in four areas of specialisation: Performance (including Jazz Studies), Composition, Music Education and Musicology. Candidates nominate their specialisation on entry but may apply to change the specialisation at the end of the first year provided they meet the prerequisites for the new area of specialisation.

Admission for all areas of specialisation is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate (HSC), or its equivalent, at a level determined each year by the University. Candidates should normally:

- have gained a Universities Admission Index (ATAR) at the Higher School Certificate or equivalent, including two units of English and a minimum of 2 units of Music for the HSC examination (or equivalent).
- undertake a written Music Skills test or Jazz Aptitude Test, and
- undertake a practical audition or interview or submit work according to the proposed specialisation as set out below:

(a) BMus (Performance) (including Jazz Studies) – a practical audition in the nominated instrument or voice.

(b) BMus (Composition) – submission of at least three compositions in different performance media (varying instrumentation and/or electronic media) to demonstrate present level of achievement as composers, and an interview. Notated music must be submitted in hard copy score.

(c) BMus (Musicology) – submission of an example of recent written work and an interview.

(d) BMus (Music Education) – a practical audition in the nominated instrument or voice for Principal Study, or submission and/or further interview for composition or musicology, and an interview with music education staff.

Course structure

The course is structured to allow students to:

- achieve a high standard in their area of specialisation
- undertake core musical studies central to the development of the professional musician, and
- pursue other studies in an area of their choice, either within their area of specialisation, in another area of musical study at the Conservatorium or in another faculty of the University of Sydney.

The Bachelor of Music is awarded at both pass and honours level. To qualify for the pass degree, candidates must specialise in one of four areas, Performance, Composition, Musicology or Music Education, and complete courses which include:

(a) requirements for their specialisation, including a Principal Study
(b) core requirements, and
(c) other units of the student’s choice.

The course requires the successful completion of 192 credit points over four years of full-time study.

Part-time study may be available to students on application. A student who is granted approval to undertake a course on a part-time basis shall undertake units of study as determined by the Conservatorium.

Bachelor of Music – Honours

Honours is begun in the different specialisations as follows:

- Performance: seventh semester
- Composition, Musicology and Music Education: fifth semester

Eligibility for admission to honours

To be eligible for admission to honours candidates will normally have achieved the requirements as set out below according to their specialisation:

(a) BMus (Performance)

Distinction in Principal Study 4 and 6, a Credit average in years two and three of the program, successful completion of 144 credit points of study including the prerequisites for Principal Study 7 (Honours).

(b) BMus (Composition)

Distinction in Principal Study Composition 4 and a Credit average in all other units in the second year of the program and successful completion of the prerequisites for Composition 5 (Honours).

(c) BMus (Music Education)

Distinction average in Music Education and Education units of study, a credit average in all other units in the second year of the program, and have a proven capacity to write extended essays of quality; the number of honours students in any one-year group in the BMus (Music Education) will not normally exceed 25 per cent of the total numbers of that year group.
Honours enrolment requirements
Honours candidates complete a research project in their area of specialisation. To qualify for an honours degree, candidates must complete the requirements for the pass degree and additional requirements according to their specialisation as set out in the Faculty Resolutions and below:

(a) BMus (Performance)
Enrolment in Principal Study (Honours) 7 in place of Principal Study 7/Principal Study 7 (Advanced) and Principal Study (Honours) 8 in place of Principal Study 8/Principal Study 8 (Advanced) and successful completion of those units of study.

(b) BMus (Composition)
Enrolment in Composition 5 - 8 (Honours) in place of Composition 5 - 8, and successful completion of those units of study.

(c) BMus (Music Education)
Enrolment in Honours: Research in Music Education 1 and 2, and Honours Project in Music Education, and successful completion of those units of study.

(d) BMus (Musicology)
Enrolment in Musicology 5-8 (Honours) in place of Musicology 5-8 and successful completion those units of study.

Candidates wishing to undertake Honours must apply in writing to the Student Administration Office in the semester before honours study is to commence:

- generally by no later than the end of October (for enrolment in first semester the following year), or
- generally by no later than the end of the second week of May (for enrolment in second semester).

Honours mark and class
The honours mark that determines the class of honours awarded by the University of Sydney is determined from the results in Honours specific units and the HWAM (Honours Weighted Average Mark)

HWAM
The HWAM is calculated by the Faculty from results in all 3000 and 4000 level units of study attempted for the degree. Please refer to the Faculty resolutions in Chapter 7 for more detail.

Candidates who achieve First Class Honours with an honours mark of 90% or higher will be considered for the award of a University Medal. Award of a Medal will be made by the Conservatorium College Board in recognition of outstanding performance throughout the degree. Normally not more than one Medal shall be awarded in any one year.
Bachelor of Music (Performance)

As the focus is the development of performance skills, Performance specialists must take a vocal or instrumental Principal Study through 8 semesters. In senior semesters, performance specialists also take Principal Study (Advanced). Performance specialists in jazz take Jazz Performance as their Principal Study. Principal Study is taken together with Chamber Music or Jazz Ensemble (for Jazz students), Orchestral Studies (for those playing an orchestral instrument) and other performance-related studies. In addition, students take core studies in aural perception and harmony and analysis (jazz music skills for Jazz students), music history, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies. Principal study is available in the following areas:

- Brass: french horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
- Early Music: baroque flute, harpsichord, lute, recorder, viola da gamba, baroque trumpet
- Jazz Performance: in areas of bass, brass, drums, guitar, piano, vibraphone, voice, woodwind
- Keyboard: piano and accompaniment
- Organ
- Percussion
- Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, viola, violin
- Voice (classical)
- Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe, saxophone

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Performance)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 4.1. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 4.2 to 4.28 at the end of this chapter.

Typical enrolment pattern

Tables 4.2 to 4.5 show typical enrolment patterns with the appropriate credit points. These patterns are for guidance and are not mandatory as the course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Bachelor of Music (Composition)

The major focus in this degree is the development of composition skills, together with work in Electroacoustic Music and studies in Compositional Techniques and Analysis. At the end of second year, students can choose to specialise further in electroacoustic music composition or in more traditional forms of instrumental and vocal composition. Students who choose to specialise in electroacoustic composition will take a minimum of 24 credit points of electroacoustic music units of study. Students who choose to specialise in instrumental/vocal composition will work with performers in Composer-Performer Workshop where they have the opportunity to hear and refine the music they write. In addition all students take core studies in aural perception, harmony and analysis, music history, music technology, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Composition)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their courses, and reach the minimum levels of achievement as outlined in the Faculty Resolutions and in the Conservatorium Undergraduate Handbook in Table 4.6.

Typical enrolment pattern

Tables 4.7 and 4.8 show typical enrolment patterns with the appropriate credit points. These patterns are for guidance and are not mandatory as the course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Bachelor of Music (Musicology)

Students in this degree concentrate on the development of skills in researching, thinking and writing about music. Musicology specialists enrol in Musicology Workshop, units in the history and analysis of music and palaeography of music and also take core studies in aural perception, harmony and analysis, music history, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies to provide a framework for their musical research.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Musicology)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in the Faculty Resolutions and in the Conservatorium Undergraduate Handbook in Table 4.9.

Typical enrolment pattern

Table 4.10 shows a typical enrolment pattern giving the appropriate credit points. These patterns are for guidance and are not mandatory as the course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.
Bachelor of Music (Music Education)

The BMus (Music Education) degree is intended primarily as a professional training course for students wishing to become music teachers in a school environment. The music education degree course meets requirements of professional bodies responsible for the accreditation of school music teachers.

In New South Wales the major employer of school music teachers is the NSW Department of Education and Training (DET), which stipulates specific musical and pedagogical skills and knowledge in order for a teacher to be certified as employable in Departmental schools.

In addition to music teaching methods, music history and analysis, performance and compositional skills and knowledge, students must have attained information and communication technology competencies and have developed an understanding of children with special educational needs.

A significant component (80-100 days) of the course must include practical teaching experience in schools. Graduating teachers also need to meet the Teaching Standards of the New South Wales Institute of Teachers, a professional body responsible for accreditation of all NSW teachers working in schools. Graduating teachers need to demonstrate knowledge of subject content, pedagogy (including learning, teaching and evaluation strategies), NSW curriculum requirements and the needs of socially, culturally, ethnically, physically and intellectually diverse groups of students in schools.

In order to satisfy these requirements, the Music Education degree has a large core of mandated music education and general education units of study. The major focus is on developing teaching skills through studies in education, music education, choral and instrumental pedagogy and music technology.

In the fourth year students undertake extended Professional Experience sessions in schools supported by both high school teachers and experienced music education lecturers from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. Shorter periods of Professional Experience are integrated into units of study in the second and third years of the course. Music Education specialists also develop practical, compositional, or research skills by taking a minimum of 4 semesters of Principal Study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology.

Students also take part in large ensembles (e.g., Choir, Wind Symphony, Early Music Ensemble, Gamelan) and other performance units. All students take core studies in aural perception and harmony (or jazz music skills for jazz students), music history, music technology and historical and cultural studies.

For Music Education specialists, Principal Study is available in the following areas:
- Brass: french horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
- Early Music Performance: baroque flute, harpsichord, lute, recorder, viola da gamba, baroque trumpet
- Jazz Performance: bass, drums, electric guitar, piano, saxophone, trombone, trumpet
- Piano
- Organ
- Percussion
- Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, violin
- Vocal Studies: classical
- Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe, saxophone
- Composition
- Musicology

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their courses, and reach the minimum levels of achievement as outlined in the Faculty Resolutions and the Conservatorium Undergraduate Handbook in Table 4.11. Recommended enrolment patterns for the Bachelor Music (Music Education) for students whose Principal Study is Performance, Jazz Performance, Composition and Musicology are shown in Tables 4.12.1 - 4.12.5 of the Faculty Handbook.

Typical enrolment pattern

Tables 4.12.1 to 4.12.5 show typical enrolment patterns giving the appropriate credit points. These patterns are for guidance and are not mandatory as the course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

4.1 Bachelor of Music (Performance, Composition, Musicology, Music Education)
Bachelor of Music Studies

The Bachelor of Music Studies is a degree for students seeking a broad musical education and its structure facilitates creative interdisciplinary links within music disciplines and between music and other subject areas in the University of Sydney.

The course develops broadly educated musicians who are able to apply their knowledge, skills and attitudes creatively and flexibly in a variety of music and music-related professions.

The goals of the Bachelor of Music Studies are:

• to develop general musical abilities in the areas of performance, musicology, composition and music education;
• to develop students' ability to see themselves, their musical art and their educational activities in a wide cultural perspective; and
• to develop the generic attributes of graduates of the University of Sydney.

Admission is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate (HSC), or its interstate or overseas equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. Candidates should normally:

• have gained a Universities Admission Index (ATAR) at the Higher School Certificate or equivalent, including English and Music at the level of the Music 2 syllabus (or equivalent);
• undertake a written Music Skills or Jazz Aptitude Test, and undertake a practical audition;
• or submit work according to their proposed Principal Study specialisation as set out below:

(a) Principal Study in instrument or voice: an audition according to the requirements laid out for the relevant study.
(b) Principal Study in composition: submission of at least three compositions in different performance media to demonstrate the level of achievement as composers and an interview.
(c) Principal Study in musicology: submission of an example of recent written work and an interview.

Course structure
The degree is structured to allow students flexibility in their choice of units so they may pursue their own combinations of musical and non-musical disciplines.

Students may choose units of study taught at another faculty of the University of Sydney up to a maximum credit point value of 28 credit points or take units of study taught only within the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

All students take a Principal Study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology, core units in music skills, music pedagogy and music history and other units of their own choice. Principal Study is available in the following areas:

• Brass: french horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
• Composition: instrumental/vocal and electroacoustic
• Early Music Performance: baroque flute, harpsichord, lute, recorder, viola da gamba, baroque trumpet
• Keyboard: piano
• Musicology
• Organ
• Percussion
• Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, viola, violin
• Voice: classical or jazz
• Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe, saxophone.

The course requires the successful completion of 144 credit points of study over three years of full-time study. The credit points for units completed should include:

(a) six semesters of Principal Study, as defined above
(b) core requirements, as tabled in the Handbook
(c) other units of the student's choice

Part-time study may be available to students on application. A student who is granted approval to undertake a course on a part-time basis shall undertake units of study as determined by the Conservatorium.

Core requirements
Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 4.13. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 4.22 to 4.28 at the end of this chapter.

Typical enrolment pattern
A typical program in the Bachelor of Music Studies, together with the credit point value, is set out in Tables 4.14.1. to 4.14.4. The course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Honours - Bachelor of Music Studies and combined degrees

Bachelor of Music Studies (Honours)

To qualify to enrol as a Bachelor of Music Studies (Honours) candidate, a student must have qualified for the award of the pass degree of Bachelor of Music Studies from the University of Sydney or comparable three-year degree from another tertiary institution, and have achieved a credit average in years two and three of the pass degree program with a distinction average in Principal Study or area of specialisation in years two and three.

Candidates must also have written permission of the relevant unit of study chair and/or Honours coordinator, and have submitted an Honours Project proposal to the Faculty Undergraduate Studies Committee in the semester before they intend to enrol in the honours year, and have prepared an audition and/or attended an interview.

To qualify for the honours degree, eligible candidates should enrol in:

- PERF4601 Honours Project 1 (12 credit points) and
- PERF4602 Honours Project 2 (12 credit points) and
- successfully complete those units of study, and enrol in another 24 credit points to be chosen by the student in consultation with the Honours adviser and successfully complete those units of study. These credit points should be in units of study relevant to the Honours Project and may, with approval, be taken in other Faculties.

Bachelor of Music Studies and Bachelor of Arts (BMusStudies/BA)

The aim of the combined Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Arts course is to allow students to develop musical skills in composition, musicology, music education and performance together with expertise in an arts discipline within a broad humanities context.

The structure of the course facilitates creative interdisciplinary links within music disciplines and between music and other subject areas in the University of Sydney. The course develops broadly educated musicians who are able to apply their knowledge, skills and attitudes creatively and flexibly in a variety of music and music-related professions.

Admission is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate (HSC), or its interstate or overseas equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Faculty of Arts. Candidates should normally:

- have gained a Universities Admission Index (ATAR) at the Higher School Certificate or equivalent, including English and Music at the level of the Music 2 syllabus (or equivalent);
- undertake a written Music Skills or Jazz Aptitude Test;
- undertake a practical audition or submit work according to their proposed Principal Study specialisation as set out below:

(a) Principal Study in instrument or voice: an audition according to the requirements laid out for the relevant study.
(b) Principal Study in composition: submission of at least three compositions in different performance media to demonstrate the level of achievement as composers and an interview.
(c) Principal Study in musicology: submission of an example of recent written work and an interview.

Course structure

The units of study which may be taken for the degree are set out in the relevant Tables of units of study, published annually for the University of Sydney. The course develops broadly educated musicians who are able to apply their knowledge, skills and attitudes creatively and flexibly in a variety of music and music-related professions.

Admission is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate (HSC), or its interstate or overseas equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Faculty of Arts. Candidates should normally:

- have gained a Universities Admission Index (ATAR) at the Higher School Certificate or equivalent, including English and Music at the level of the Music 2 syllabus (or equivalent);
- undertake a written Music Skills or Jazz Aptitude Test;
- undertake a practical audition or submit work according to their proposed Principal Study specialisation as set out below:

(a) Principal Study in instrument or voice: an audition according to the requirements laid out for the relevant study.
(b) Principal Study in composition: submission of at least three compositions in different performance media to demonstrate the level of achievement as composers and an interview.
(c) Principal Study in musicology: submission of an example of recent written work and an interview.

Course structure

The units of study which may be taken for the degree are set out in the relevant Tables of units of study, published annually for the Bachelor of Arts in the Faculty of Arts Handbook and for the Bachelor of Music Studies in the Conservatorium Undergraduate Handbook.

Full-time students normally take units of study with a total credit point value of 24 credit points per semester for 10 semesters. Prerequisites and corequisites for units of study are set out in the relevant Tables of units of study. The degree is structured to allow students flexibility in their choice of units so they may pursue their own combinations of musical and non-musical disciplines.

All students take a Principal Study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology, core units in music skills, music pedagogy and music history and other units of their own choice.

Principal Study is available in the following areas:
- Brass: french horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
- Composition: instrumental/vocal or electroacoustic
- Early Music Performance: baroque flute, harpsichord, lute, recorder, viola da gamba, baroque trumpet
- Keyboard: piano
- Musicology
- Organ
- Percussion
- Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, viola, violin
- Voice: classical or jazz
- Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe, saxophone.

To qualify for award of the pass degree, a student shall complete 240 credit points over ten semesters of full-time study. 126 credit points will come from the units of study set out in the Table of units of study in the Faculty of Arts, parts A and B, and 114 credit points will come from the units of study for the Bachelor of Music Studies as follows:

114 credit points from units of study available to candidates in the Bachelor of Music Studies including:
- (a) six semesters of Principal Study, as defined above; and
- (b) core requirements, as tabled in the Handbook; and
- (c) other units of the student’s choice.

126 credit points from the Faculty of Arts including:
- (a) A minimum of 72 senior credit points from Part A of the Table of units of study for the Faculty of Arts, including a major from Part A consisting of 36 senior credit points in a single subject area, or cross-listed between subject areas, as outlined in the Faculty of Arts Resolutions - Undergraduate Degrees and Combined Degrees – Section 9, the major and cross-listing; and
- (b) 54 credit points from the Faculty of Arts table of units of study, which may include a second major from Part A or a major from Part B. A major in Part B is as defined in the resolutions of the faculty offering the major.

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points and reach the minimum levels of achievement as outlined in Table 4.15 Core Conservatorium requirements. Part-time study may be available to students on application. A student who is granted approval to undertake a course on a part-time basis shall undertake units of study as determined by the Conservatorium.

Typical enrolment pattern

A typical enrolment program over ten semesters in the Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Arts, together with the credit point values accumulated in Conservatorium units of study (114 credit points) and those to be accumulated in the Faculty of Arts (126 credit points) are shown in Tables 4.16.1 and 14.6.2.

4.2 Bachelor of Music Studies and combined degrees (BMusStud/BA, BMusStud/MBBS), Diploma of Music, Advanced Diploma of Opera
Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery

The Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery is intended to give students an opportunity to experience a broad musical education before embarking on medical studies. In this structure the Bachelor of Music Studies functions as a specific pathway to the MBBS for the highest achieving school leavers. Its structure facilitates creative interdisciplinary links between music, science and medicine at the University of Sydney. The course develops broadly educated musicians who are able to apply their knowledge, skills and attitudes creatively and flexibly.

As a pathway degree in the combined music and medicine program, the course offers students the opportunity to engage with the Faculties of Science and Medicine in addition to the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. The Honours year in particular also offers students in the combined degree program the opportunity to engage in interdisciplinary and applied music research that will give them a grounding in generic research skills required to undertake more advanced clinical/medical research.

Entry requirements
Candidates should normally:

- have gained a Universities Admission Index (ATAR) at the Higher School Certificate or equivalent, including English and Music at the level of the Music 2 syllabus (or equivalent);
- undertake a written Music Skills or Jazz Aptitude Test (Jazz Vocal Studies only) and undertake a practical audition; or
- submit work according to their proposed Principal Study specialisation as set out below:

(a) Principal Study in instrument or voice: an audition according to the requirements laid out for the relevant study.

(b) Principal Study in composition: submission of at least three compositions in different performance media to demonstrate the level of achievement as composers and an interview.

(c) Principal Study in musicology: submission of an example of recent written work and an interview.

(d) In addition, eligible applicants will be required to attend an interview organised by the Faculty of Medicine at the point of entry.

Core requirements
Core requirements for the BMus Studies pathway degree are shown in Table 4.18 in the Conservatorium Undergraduate Handbook. The degree is structured to allow students flexibility in their choice of units so they may pursue their own combinations of musical and non-musical disciplines. Students may choose units of study taught at another faculty of the University of Sydney up to a maximum credit point value of 28 credit points. Those units must include 18 junior credit points in designated Faculty of Science units of study. In addition, in the first three years of study, students complete some zero credit point units of study offered by the Faculty of Medicine.

In the BMus Studies pathway degree, all students take a Principal Study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology, core units in music skills, music pedagogy and music history and other units of their own choice. Principal Study is available in brass (French horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba), composition (instrumental/vocal and electroacoustic), early music performance (baroque flute, baroque trumpet, harpsichord, lute, recorder, viola da gamba), piano, organ, musicology, percussion, strings (cello, double bass, guitar, harp, viola, violin), voice (classical or jazz) and woodwind (bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe, saxophone).

The BMus Studies pass degree course requires the successful completion of 144 credit points of study over three years of full-time study. The credit points for units completed should include:

(a) six semesters of Principal Study, as defined above
(b) core requirements, as tabled in the Handbook
(c) other units of the student’s choice.

Part-time study is not available to students in this award course.

Advanced Diploma of Opera (AdvDipOp)

The Advanced Diploma of Opera is a three-year course of full-time, intensive study and students must demonstrate satisfactory progress in vocal, musical and performance skills in order to progress through the course. The course prepares graduates for the various demands of the opera profession.

At the end of the course students will be able to sing with technical proficiency and perform with a sense of musical style and dramatic interpretation. Study of the vocal and physical aspects of performance will be complemented by a general awareness of professionalism and the practicalities of theatre, its requirements and environment.

During the course, students will acquire a thorough understanding of musicianship, the capacity to sing in the major operatic languages, perform movement and dance sequences, and learn to build a character utilising developed stagecraft skills.

Applicants must usually be at least 21 years old by 1 March of the year in which they intend to enrol. Admission is determined on the basis of the NSW Higher School Certificate (HSC), or its interstate or overseas equivalent, at a level determined each year by the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Candidates are expected to have presented a minimum of two units of English and two units of Music for the HSC examination or equivalent, and must also undertake an audition. Admission may also be granted on the basis of having undertaken other tertiary studies, adult entry or special admission.

Course structure
All full-time students must complete units of study worth 24 credit points per semester for a total of 144 credit points for the entire diploma course.

The course structure of the Advanced Diploma of Opera, together with the credit point value, is set out in Table 4.20.

4.3 Examinations and core requirements

The award descriptions in the first part of this chapter are intended to introduce the aims, content and structure of each undergraduate award. Senate and Faculty Resolutions which govern these awards can be found in Chapter 7 of this handbook.

Public examination recitals (undergraduate)

All students enrolled in BMus, BMusStudies, BMusStudies/BA, BMusStudies/MBBS, DipMus and Advanced DipOp whose Principal Study is an instrument or voice are required to present public performance examination recitals as part of their course.

All performance students must also successfully complete "in-unit" examinations which are usually not open to the general public. The examination recitals normally take place in June and October/November each year. The requirements for public examination recitals are set out in Table 4.21.

Please note: Students must pass all assessed components of Principal Study. Students will not normally progress if they have failed an assessed component of Principal Study.

Students should discuss their recital programs with their teacher and Chair of Unit at the beginning of the examination semester or in the semester prior to the examination. It is the student's responsibility to discuss suitable repertoire and performance requirements with teachers to avoid inappropriate choices and problems with the availability of associate artists/accompanists. Recital programs must be submitted for formal approval by the Chair of Unit by the conclusion of week 9 of the recital semester.

ACCP3611/3612/3613 Recital Preparation 1 - 3 must be taken by students who wish to use Sydney Conservatorium of Music Ensemble Studies staff accompanists. These units can only be taken in the semester in which a student has a recital or qualifying exam (ie Diploma of Music in semester 4; BMus Studies in semester 6; BMus in semesters 4, 6 and 8; BMus Hons in semesters 4, 6, 7 or 8). Students may take a maximum of 3 Recital Preparation units of study during their award course.

Forms and information concerning performance examinations and recitals will be available on the Conservatorium website: www.music.usyd.edu.au.

Candidates for public recital examinations are assessed against the following criteria:

- The performance, as a whole, displayed instrumental or vocal control appropriate to the level of examination.
- The performance was accurate with respect to rhythm, pitch, articulation and dynamics.
- The performance (where appropriate) was a faithful reading and/or memorisation of the composer's text.
- The performance displayed musically effective production, projection and variation of tone.
- The candidate communicated well with other players, demonstrating good listening and ensemble skills, and leadership (where appropriate).
- The performance communicated an understanding of expressive, stylistic, musical and structural issues.
- The performance displayed musical creativity, artistic individuality and effective audience communication.
Transfer between undergraduate awards
Students may apply to transfer from one undergraduate award to another. Students transferring into an undergraduate award from another Conservatorium of Music award must meet the entrance requirements for the award into which they are transferring and may apply for admission with credit or advanced standing on the basis of units of study completed previously under the conditions set out in Chapter 7 of this handbook. Applications to transfer must be submitted to the Manager, Student Administration at least two weeks before the commencement of teaching in the semester for which the transfer is sought. Students should note that it is not possible to apply to transfer to another course in their last semester.

Undergraduate units of study by area
Tables 4.22 to 4.28 list units of study for the Advanced Diploma of Opera, Diploma of Music, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Music Studies, Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery. They are listed by area as described in the Core Requirements tables (Tables 4.1, 4.6, 4.9, 4.11, 4.13, 4.15, 4.17). Students will be assigned to a vocal studio for one hour each week. They will be expected to act as the accompanist for the lessons throughout the semester and then perform with the student concerned at the Accompaniment concert practice. Progress will be monitored to identify those with special talent in the area of keyboard accompaniment. Reports will be written by the panel attending the concert practice and the teacher supervising the weekly practical tutorials.

Honours Units

Honours - Bachelor of Music (Performance)

The Honours strand of the BMus (Performance) exists to allow performance students of superior performance ability and potential to extend their knowledge and skill base and to develop artistic autonomy in the area of their Principal Study in preparation for employment within the musical profession or for postgraduate study. The aim of the Honours program in BMus (Performance) is to develop superior performance skills, greater artistic autonomy and a sounder understanding of the scope of skills and knowledge relating to performance in their area of Principal Study than would be expected normally of Pass BMus students. By the conclusion of this course, students will have demonstrated a superior performance ability in recital, and the understanding of artistic autonomy to develop and carry out a specialised performance project. Candidates are required to undertake a Performance Project in the area of their Principal Study in each of the final two semesters. In addition to the formal prerequisites listed for Principal Study (Honours) 7, candidates for admission to the Honours program must have achieved a Distinction in Principal Study 4 and 6 and a Credit (or higher) average in all other units and have gained at least 18 credit points in History and Analysis of Music. Candidates wishing to take Principal Study (Honours) 7 must apply in writing, setting out their proposed Performance Project. To qualify for an Honours degree, candidates should enrol in Principal Study (Honours) 7 and 8 in place of Principal Study 7 and 8, and successfully complete those units of study. The units of study are taken as part of the normal full-time load of 24 credit points per semester in semesters 7 and 8 of the course.

PERF4002 Principal Study (Honours) 7

Credit points: 12
Teacher/Coordinator: Chair of Unit
Session: Semester 1, Semester 2
Classes: 14 x 1hr one-to-one lessons in the area of Principal Study and up to 5hrs supervision for the Performance Project/sem; 2hrs performance workshop/wk; weekly Honours workshop. Prerequisites: JAZZ2824 Jazz Music Skills or MCGY2011 Harm & Analysis 4 or JAZZ2017 Jazz Harmony & Arranging 4, MCGY2005 Aural Perception 4 or JAZZ22039 Jazz Ear Training 4, MUED1002 Music Tech, GENS2005 Hist & Cult Studies 2, MCGY3034 Writing Skills for Music Professions or JAZZ3631 Music Business Skills. Assessment: Teacher's mark (20%); Performance Project 1 (80% consisting of project 50% and notes 30%)

Note: Students accepted into Honours in Performance enrol in Performance Honours in semester 7 and 8 instead of Principal Study (Major) 7 and 8 or, in the new degree, Principal Study 7 and Principal Study 7 (Advanced).

Students must complete requirements for Principal Study 7 in their instrument or voice, and complete Performance Project 1. Normally the Performance Project 1 will display a unified focus on a specialised performance area relating to the candidate's Principal Study in an area such as repertoire, style, performance practice, aesthetic ideology or innovative use of instrumental techniques or technology. The Performance Project must be accompanied by notes which give the aim of the project, background, and critical commentary or analysis. Performance Project 1 may take the form of a recital (40-45 minutes) or lecture recital, a recording or other innovative performance medium. Performance Projects will be developed and workshoped in the Honours Seminar throughout the semester. Performance Project 1 will be assessed according to three broad criteria: exposition of aims and background; originality; musical and technical achievement (as detailed for each instrument in recital assessment).

To progress to Principal Study (Honours) 8, students must obtain a minimum of 65 in Principal Study (Honours) 7, and a minimum of a Distinction in all the constituent components of Principal Study (Honours) 7. Students must complete Performance Project 2. Normally Performance Project 2 will be a public recital of 45-50 minutes duration displaying superior performance knowledge and skills. The Performance Project must be accompanied by researched program notes. Performance Project 2 will be assessed according to three broad criteria: appropriate research; creativity; and musical and technical achievement (as detailed for each instrument in recital assessment).

Compositional Techniques and Analysis 1

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Michael Smetanin
Session: Semester 1
Classes: 2 hours seminar
Assumed knowledge: It is strongly recommended that participants have a good grasp of modern and 20th century repertoire.
Assessment: One short assignment/essay 30% One long essay/analysis 70%

Studies will fall primarily into the following areas: 1. Overview of music and composition in the 20th century to the current times. The aim is to introduce students to a range of compositional styles, concepts, aesthetics and developments in the period ranging from the early 20th century to the present. 2. Concepts of notation. This component includes an historical overview of the development of musical notation and will also focus on changing practices in the 20th century - additions and modifications to traditional notation, time/space and aleatoric notation, musical graphics, notation of electronic music etc, and the ideas which underlie the techniques covered. 3. Aspects of pitch rhythm and form: an introduction to concepts relating to the way musical/sound material is organised ranging from traditional to more contemporary approaches. 4. Introduction to orchestration. Students will look at the development of the orchestra and will examine techniques of orchestration up to, and including, works from the early 20th century repertoire.

The unit aims, through performance, to help students develop vital aural and improvisational skills which will significantly enhance their compositional capacity.

CMPN1003 Composition Through Improvisation 2

Credit points: 3
Teacher/Coordinator: Michael Smetanin
Session: Semester 1
Classes: 1hr workshop/wk
Assessment: Weekly assignments (70%), final recorded composition (30%).

The unit aims through performance to help students develop vital aural and improvisational skills which will significantly enhance their compositional process.

CMPN2000 Composition Through Improvisation 3

Teacher/Coordinator: Daryl Pratt
Session: Semester 2
Classes: 1hr workshop/wk
Assessment: Weekly assignments/classroom participation (20%), 2 exams (20% each), Ensemble composition (40%)

The unit aims to introduce students to the instruments and techniques required for composition and performance in percussion. The unit will also focus on the fundamentals of rhythm in order to develop solo and ensemble performance skills.

CMPN2001 Composition Through Improvisation 4

Credit points: 3
Teacher/Coordinator: Daryl Pratt
Session: Semester 2
Classes: 1hr workshop/wk
Assessment: Weekly assignments/classroom participation (40%), composition and performance of a piece for percussion ensemble (60%)

Electroacoustic Music

CMPN1631 Electroacoustic Music 1

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Anthony Hood
Session: Semester 1
Classes: One 2 hr lab/studio class/wk
Assessment: Sound examples demonstrating electroacoustic techniques (40%), Electroacoustic composition (60%)

This unit will explore current techniques in electroacoustic composition through the completion of small tasks in signal processing and the composing of an electroacoustic sound work. Students will discuss recent examples of the electroacoustic repertoire to gain an understanding of current practices, and will gain an insight into the recording process leading to the making of their piece.

CMPN1632 Electroacoustic Music 2

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Anthony Hood
Session: Semester 2
Classes: One 2 hr lab/studio class/wk
Assessment: Composition for solo instrument and 5.1 sound (50%), Multichannel electroacoustic work (50%).

Electronic music composers have been “diffusing” stereo works in surround spaces for many years. Until recently, there has been no standard to which composers could adhere when mixing their works to multichannel tape. Although it has some limitations for the electroacoustic composer, sound encoded for 5.1 on DVD now offers the composer a medium through which to share surround sound electroacoustic works. This unit of study explores composing for a surround space, and investigates writing and electroacoustic work that also includes a live instrumental/vocal performer.

CMPN3008 Interactive and Algorithmic Composition

Credit points: 3
Teacher/Coordinator: Ivan Zavada
Session: Semester 1
Classes: 2hr lab/studio session/wk
Assessment: Workshop presentation of Max patches (60%); Workshop presentation of interactive MIDI composition (40%)

Computers now offer composers the opportunity to build software instruments with interactivity and generative elements that can operate in real-time. This can include installations or live performance works. This unit investigates the Max software environment, encouraging the student to explore the creative possibilities of interactive/generative composition.

Assessment: Submission of MSP patch (60%), Workshop performances of interactive/generative work (40%)

This unit continues from Electronic Music 3, this time looking at interactive/generative composition within the digital audio/multimedia domain. Working within the MSP environment, students will develop an understanding of advanced DSP techniques and will gain experience of writing interactive works for acoustic instruments and installations. Final works will be presented in a concert workshop at the end of semester.

The aim is to encourage students to explore and maximise the possibilities offered by the current lab and studio environments at the Conservatorium. This unit of study will also investigate the available literature on topics such as multimedia, interactive and installation work in the context of contemporary electronic music practice.

Cello Ensemble

The Cello Ensemble offers more challenge to advanced cellists than the cello part in most chamber music or orchestral literature. A wide variety of ensemble works will be studied and performed. New pieces are commissioned every year, concerts, broadcasts and tours undertaken. Performing with or without a conductor and in different positions will improve aural awareness, develop rhythmic control, coordinate pulse, balance, intonation and listening skills. Students will learn strategies to develop a cohesive ensemble with a refined and sophisticated cello sound and develop an autonomous and professional attitude to rehearsal and performance.

Chamber Music

Inherent in chamber music training are numerous key skills that will enable a musician to maximize his/her effectiveness and expressiveness in all performance situations. The essential entrepreneurial skills of producing and promoting concerts are natural extensions of forming a chamber music group and creating a niche in the marketplace. In conjunction with the outreach program, our students can learn to create performance opportunities throughout the region at public and private schools, churches, senior citizen centres, music clubs, local cultural organizations and on campus thus offering a testing ground while serving the community. Chamber music and chamber music skills are studied through the focussed engagement with specific repertoire selected by relevant groups. Students enrolled in chamber music pre-register for tuition in groups and are expected to form chamber ensembles of standard configurations. After they have enrolled in a Chamber Music unit of study, all students will be contacted by email to register for chamber music groups. Further details will be found on the SCM website. Bachelor of Music students must complete a minimum of four compulsory semesters of chamber music, but may complete up to eight semesters in chamber music. Keyboard Majors take the alternative Accompaniment 1 & 2 units in their first year. Students from the Vocal Unit may enrol in Choral Ensemble in lieu of Chamber Music for a maximum of two semesters. Each student must also complete one semester of chamber music in the Composer Performer Workshop CPMN 3000, 3001, 4000 and 4001 either as an individual or as a group. This counts as one of the compulsory four semesters of chamber music required of all Bachelor of Music and Diploma of Music students. Chamber Music in this context is defined as a group of 3-10 musicians, performing without a conductor. Combinations outside these guidelines will only be acceptable under certain conditions, as prescribed by the Ensemble Studies Unit. In accordance with this definition, participation in other larger ensembles within the Conservatorium will not be regarded as an acceptable alternative to Chamber Music. Students are assigned a Principal Tutor who will advise of appropriate works for each level and coach the ensemble through the semester. Groups will be expected to cover a wide range of historical periods and styles. It is expected that students prepare and rehearse to professional standards of performance. Tutors are responsible for recommending suitable groups to participate in high-profile concerts, recitals, country tours, master-classes and professional engagements.

Orchestral Studies
The purpose of Orchestral Studies is to develop the entire range of skills which musicians must possess to prepare them to be a member of a professional orchestral ensemble. All students enrolled in Orchestral Studies must participate in two performance projects per semester. This is supported by the orchestral development program.
students will receive weekly training/instruction in all aspects of orchestral playing. This includes participating in weekly repertoire sessions in the Symphony Orchestra or, in other training ensembles and groups such as the Chamber Orchestra, Wind Symphony, Early Music Ensemble, Modern Music Ensemble, Saxophone Orchestra and Brass Ensemble. For wind, brass and percussion students, participation in the Wind Symphony program can contribute to assessment in Orchestral Studies, providing the students are not enrolled separately in Wind Symphony. The objectives of Orchestral Studies are to develop: A thorough knowledge of orchestral performing styles and practices; ensemble intonation – the ability to play precisely and rhythmically and in tune with other members of an ensemble; the ability to concentrate and play with commitment; teamwork; the ability to work with a conductor and interpret his gestures. Assessment is based on all aspects of participation in the orchestral ensemble (assessed by the ensemble director/coordinator and other involved faculty), in the weekly orchestral development classes and, in a final exam. Assessment criteria are: level of preparation, actual performance in the ensemble, commitment, concentration, ability and teamwork. For further information contact the relevant Chair of Unit. For administrative arrangements contact the Ensembles Coordinator/orchestr manager.

Saxophone Orchestra
The classical saxophone has few ensemble opportunities so the Saxophone Orchestra has been formed to fill this gap. Students are assisted to develop skills of playing in a section, learning for internal balance and pitch and adjusting tonal colour consistent with style. Repertoire includes specially composed works often involving contemporary techniques, pieces in popular/jazz style, transcriptions of music from medieval to the present day. The Saxophone Orchestra gives several public performances each year.

Wind Symphony

Enrolment in these units of study may require an audition. Positions within the ensemble are allocated each semester. As is a standard practice in many conservatories in Australia and abroad, this subject mixes all years of all awards into a composite class. First year students work side by side with their colleagues in other years and learn the necessary skills of ensemble performance in the same way as do younger, less experienced musicians in first class ensembles in the professional music world. The skills to be studied include intonation, ensemble skills (playing together precisely and rhythmically), interpreting gestures, mannerisms and wishes of the conductor, tone control as well as ethics and correct behaviour of a member of an ensemble. In this regard, assessment is based on aspects of participation in the ensemble and will be assessed by the conductor.

These aspects will be: level of preparation, performance in the ensemble, commitment, concentration, ability and teamwork. The repertoire for this ensemble is enormous and covers a wide range of styles ranging from transcriptions of early baroque works through to contemporary scores requiring new performance techniques. These units endeavour to give students a picture of these styles over a cycle of eight semesters. During that time, progressive assessment will be made regularly by the ensemble director and/or visiting conductors and improvement and greater understanding of the technique, styles and skills outlined earlier will be expected. Students can expect to take part in public performance. For wind, brass and percussion students, participation in the Wind Symphony program can contribute to assessment in Orchestral Studies, providing the students are enrolled in Orchestral Studies and not enrolled separately in Wind Symphony. For organisational matters, contact the Ensembles and Orchestral Coordinator.

Music Through Literature
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Chair of Unit Session: Semester 2 Classes: 3 hours per week Prerequisites: MCGY2612 or MCGY2613 Assessment: Online and class participation and short tasks (10%); Seminar presentation (30%); Essay 3000 words (60%). Note: This unit cannot be taken by students who have completed MCGY3017 Music Through Literature except with permission of coordinator.
This unit will explore specific works of literature which deal with musical matters or which make significant statements about musical aesthetics. The contribution towards understanding musical experience of creative artists who are not, or not primarily, musicians, is sometimes ignored in courses for the training of musicians. Yet, in the case of writers, such artists are often better equipped than musical professionals to capture in words, the ineffable nature of musical experience and aesthetics. Moreover their place as receivers rather than creators sometimes enables them to make statements about the broader cultural significance from a perspective outside that of production and performance. This course exists to allow trainee performers, teachers and musicologists an opportunity to explore such perspectives. Topics will be decided by class interest and may include work by Bruce Chatwin, Gunter Grass, Herman Hesse, James Joyce, Milan Kundera, Thomas Mann, Romain Roland, Vikram Seth, William Shakespeare, Tim Winton and others. For further information contact Chair (Musicology).

Assessment: Submission of simple arrangement in short score of two pieces of music, for choral and for mixed instrumental ensemble; submission of original composition or arrangement in detailed full score using notation software; planning and conducting of rehearsal session; submission of written rehearsal plan and written self-evaluation based on video of session.

Choral and/or instrumental ensemble programs are a significant component of school music education and commonly involve the music teacher in various musical roles in addition to those of co-ordinator and/or administrator. This Unit of Study is creative and practical in nature and provides students with both a general understanding of the fundamental components of school choral and instrumental work and a more detailed understanding of how to establish, maintain and sustain successful school choral and instrumental music programs. Key pedagogical issues are considered and relevant skills are practised, including creating scores and leading and conducting rehearsals.
The aims of this unit of study are to develop an understanding of music education research processes, and to identify research methods suitable for individual students' research topics. It examines a range of music education research paradigms which can broadly be categorised as qualitative and quantitative and introduces students to related research procedures. Readings and seminar activities are designed to facilitate students' critical analysis of research in terms of the relevant research methodologies. Students will also develop strategies for locating and reviewing literature pertaining to their fields of research interest. As an outcome of this unit, students will submit a preliminary literature review and preliminary research proposal.

MUED3630 Honours: Research in Music Education 2
Credit points: 6 Teacher/Coordinator: Dr James Renwick Session: Semester 2 Classes: 2 hour seminar per week 1 hour individual consultation per week during part of the course. Prerequisites: MUED3629 Honours: Research in Music Education 1 Assessment: Initial thesis chapters; ethics documentation. 100%
This unit of study consolidates and extends skills acquired in Honours: Research in Music Education 1. It broadens students' knowledge of a variety of research methods, concepts and research designs which are useful in answering empirical research questions. Evolving skills will be extended through practical tasks in which students examine and apply a range of qualitative and quantitative data analysis procedures. Through ongoing reading and critical evaluation of related research literature, students will prepare a research proposal for implementation in the final semester of the Honours program. This will be documented in the form of the first three chapters of a thesis. Ethical issues in music education research are an adjunct area of study and students will submit all documentation required for ethics approval of their proposed research. Students will participate in seminars and individual consultation sessions.

Note: Department permission required for enrolment. Note: This unit is commenced in the third year of the degree program and enrolment is subject to approval of the Chair of Unit and Undergraduate Studies Committee.
This unit of study instructs students in ways of teaching non-tonal and post-tonal musics, especially forms of indigenous music and electro-acoustic music through: the design and implementation of analysis methods; developing ways of notating music; devising and utilisation of transcription methods; application of analytical and transcription methods to music teaching and learning contexts. It provides students not only with process oriented skills for transcribing and analysing any piece of music in various ways, but encourages them to design and evaluate a range of transcription and analysis methods. The application of these methods to music of the last 25 years is a primary aim of this unit of study. Students will gain the ability to design and implement a range of techniques alongside study of accepted current approaches (e.g. semiotic analysis, pitch set analysis, serial grid analysis, variant analysis).

This unit of study provides the final professional experience for music education students. The program consists of a ten week teaching block in a New South Wales secondary school. Students will be required to teach both junior and senior secondary school music classes and undertake the daily responsibilities and activities of a secondary music teacher. It is envisaged that in the final weeks of this unit the students will be responsible for a music teacher’s full day program. This last practice teaching experience enables the student teacher to put into practice the theoretical and practical content of all previous general and music education courses completed in their four year degree. It provides experiences through which student teachers further develop an understanding of the ethical and professional requirements of being a teacher, successfully communicate with their students and fellow teaching colleagues and become independent, self motivated practising teachers.

Aural Perception
Aural Perception (AP) is taken as a sequence of either four or five semester units. On entry to the BMus, DipMus, BMusStudies and combined degree courses, students will – on the basis of a written test – be assigned either to AP1 or to AP1A and AP1B. Both options cover the same material and have the same exit standard, but while AP1 is a one semester unit, AP1A and AP1B extend over one year (two semesters) to enable students with limited experience or weakness to progress at a slower pace. Regardless of the results of the written test, students may request enrolment in AP1A and AP1B. Students who successfully complete AP1 in first semester progress to AP2 in second semester. Students who successfully complete AP1B at the end of second semester progress to AP2 in first semester of the following year. The AP units aim to foster musical understanding by developing the aural perception skills which are essential for any professional musician: The ability to recognise, memorise and notate musical patterns heard (dictation and analysis work); and The ability to imagine in one’s ‘inner ear’, and reproduce vocally, musical patterns from notation (Solfege work). Students are encouraged to apply the ideas and procedures studied in class to their own musical pursuits. Within the Musicology unit, AP is integrated as closely as possible with the Harmony and Music History units. For further information contact the Aural Perception Co-ordinator, Christopher Coady (Musicology).

Harmony & Analysis

MCGY1008 Harmony and Analysis 1

Credit points: 3
Teacher/Coordinator: Lewis Cornwell
Session: Semester 1
Classes: 1 lecture,1 tutorial/wk
Assessment: Assignments (40%); examination (60%)

An understanding of the materials of tonal music is fundamental to all aspects of a student’s musicianship. The acquisition of practical skills in harmony provides a means of examining in their essence issues of musical structure and technique that apply throughout the tonal repertoire. In February Semester students gain fluency in writing four-part harmonisations using diatonic vocabulary, learning the basic chord functions and voice-leading patterns that will provide a framework for later elaboration. Exercises in species counterpoint are included to assist in the comprehension of voice leading principles, and the linear conception of music is further explored through introductory exercises in analysis.

Textbooks

In Semesters 1 and 2 some separation is maintained between studies in counterpoint and harmony but the emphasis here is upon drawing together those two aspects. An ideal model for this approach is offered by the chorales of J.S. Bach, which form a focus in Semester 3. Each topic is, however, extended to embrace later styles and assignments include the writing of short piano pieces, along with choral settings and figured-bass exercises. With the benefit of a broader harmonic vocabulary, students will also investigate some aspects of fugal technique and sonata forms.

Advanced Harmony & Analysis

MCGY2600 Advanced Harmony

Credit points: 6
Teacher/Coordinator: Lewis Cornwell
Session: Semester 2
Classes: 2 hour seminar
Prerequisites: MCGY2011 Harmony & Analysis 4 recommended Assessment: Four 25-bar musical assignments (75%); 30 minute seminar presentation (25%)

The study of pre-20th century tonal harmony is completed with a consideration of chromatic techniques, particularly those found in the music of the first half of the 19th century. An exhaustive study of later 19th century chromaticism is beyond the scope of a course at this level, but is intended that students will at least acquire the ability to look further into the music of that period as they encounter it. In keeping with the stylistic orientation of the course, emphasis is placed upon developing facility with instrumental textures and working with some of the smaller forms found in 19th century music.

Composer Performer Workshop

The Composer Performer Workshop (CPW) provides both composers and performers with the opportunity to work together in the performance of new and experimental compositions. Student performers are encouraged to explore new instrumental techniques and combinations and to gain experience in performing the music of their contemporaries. Composers have the opportunity to try out ideas, compose for a variety of ensembles, direct and conduct their works and gain experience in working with performers. Moreover, composers gain experience in concert production and management. Performers are allocated to ensembles according to either pre-existing works by the composers or to ensembles for which new works will be composed. Under the supervision of staff composers and performers, student compositions are rehearsed, workshopped and, where appropriate, publicly performed at the assessment concerts at the conclusion of the semester. Performance students wishing to join CPW for their compulsory Chamber Music unit should refer also to the entry on Composer Performer Workshop in this handbook. Assessment for Composers: Professional approach in workshops to include presentation of clear scores and parts, assistance to performers, conducting rehearsals as necessary and supporting ideas with research when appropriate. Attendance at each workshop is compulsory. Each non-attendance other than those for which a medical certificate has been produced will result in the loss of 5 percentage points. (80%) CPW concert attendance, submission of program notes and 2 copies of each score to be played, and concert management duties such as stage managing and preparation of programs and publicity, (20%) Assessment for Performers: Professional approach in workshops to include presentation or assistance to composers of research pertinent to each player’s instrument and an openness to experimentation with various performance techniques. Attendance at each workshop is compulsory. Non-attendance will result in the loss of 5 percentage points for each unexplained absence. (60%) Workshop participation, (40%) Performance at CPW concert.

Bachelor of Music (BMus)
The Bachelor of Music is a degree for musically talented students aspiring to a professional career in music. The course supports the development of scholar-musicians through their acquisition of an integrated body of knowledge, skills and attitudes which provide a sound basis for future professional growth.

The goals of the Bachelor of Music are:

• to develop musicianship whether it be in the area of performance, musicology, composition or music education;
• to develop students’ ability to see themselves, their musical art and their educational activity in a wide cultural perspective; and
• to develop generic attributes of a tertiary graduate.

The degree is offered in four areas of specialisation: Performance (including Jazz Studies), Composition, Music Education and Musicology. Candidates nominate their specialisation on entry but may apply to change the specialisation at the end of the first year provided they meet the prerequisites for the new area of specialisation.

Course structure
The course is structured to allow students to:

• achieve a high standard in their area of specialisation;
• undertake core musical studies central to the development of the professional musician; and
• pursue other studies in an area of their choice, either within their area of specialisation, in another area of musical study at the Conservatorium or in another faculty of the University of Sydney.

The Bachelor of Music is awarded at both pass and honours level. To qualify for the pass degree, candidates must specialise in one of four areas, Performance, Composition, Musicology or Music Education, and complete courses to the value of 192 credit points, which include:

(a) requirements for their specialisation, including a Principal Study, (b) core requirements, and (c) other units of the student’s choice.

The course requires the successful completion of 192 credit points of study over four years of full-time study. A minimum of half of the credit points for the entire course is taken in the area of specialisation.

Part-time study may be available to students on application. A student who is granted approval to undertake a course on a part-time basis shall undertake units of study as determined by the Conservatorium.

Bachelor of Music – Honours
Honours is begun in the different specialisations as follows:

• Performance: seventh semester

Bachelor of Music (Performance)

As the focus is the development of performance skills, Performance specialists must take a vocal or instrumental Principal Study at the major level of study. Performance specialists in jazz take Jazz Performance as their Principal Study. Principal Study is taken together with Chamber Music or Jazz Small Ensemble (for Jazz majors), Orchestral Studies (for those playing an orchestral instrument) and other performance-related studies. In addition, students take core studies in aural perception (jazz ear training for Jazz majors), harmony and analysis (jazz harmony and arranging for Jazz majors), music history, music technology, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies. Major level study is available in:

- Brass: french horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
- Early Music: baroque flute, harpsichord, lute, recorder, viola da gamba
- Jazz Performance: bass, brass, drums, guitar, piano, vibraphone, voice, woodwind
- Keyboard: pianoforte
- Organ
- Percussion
- Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, viola, violin
- Voice: classical
- Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe, saxophone.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Performance)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 8.1. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 8.18 to 8.25 at the end of this chapter.

Typical enrolment pattern

Tables 8.2 and 8.3 show typical enrolment patterns with the appropriate credit points. These patterns are for guidance and are not mandatory as the course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Bachelor of Music (Composition)

The major focus of this degree is the development of composition skills, together with work in Electroacoustic Music, and studies in Compositional Techniques and Analysis.

Students work with performers in Composer-Performer Workshop where they have the opportunity to hear and refine the music they write.

In addition students take core studies in aural perception, harmony and analysis, music history, music technology, pedagogy, and historical and cultural studies.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Composition)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 8.4. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 8.18 to 8.25 at the end of this chapter.

Bachelor of Music (Music Education)

The major focus is on developing teaching skills through studies in education, music education, choral and instrumental pedagogy and music technology. In the third and fourth year students undertake extended Practice Teaching (Practicum) sessions in schools supported by both high school teachers and experienced music education lecturers from the Conservatorium.

Music Education specialists also develop practical, compositional, or research skills by taking a minimum of 6 semesters Principal Study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology. The Principal Study may be taken at either major (6 credit points) or minor level (3 credit points), depending on ability. Students also take part in Choir, Wind Symphony or Orchestra and other performance units. All students take core studies in aural perception, harmony and analysis, music history, music technology, pedagogy and historical and cultural studies.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music (Music Education)

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 8.8. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 8.18 to 8.25 at the end of this chapter.

Bachelor of Music Studies (BMusStudies)

The Bachelor of Music Studies is a degree for students seeking a broad musical education and its structure facilitates creative interdisciplinary links within music disciplines and between music and other subject areas in the University of Sydney. The course develops broadly educated musicians who are able to apply their knowledge, skills and attitudes creatively and flexibly in a variety of music and music-related professions.

The goals of the Bachelor of Music Studies are:

- to develop general musical abilities in the areas of performance, musicology, composition and music education;
- to develop students’ ability to see themselves, their musical art and their educational activities in a wide cultural perspective; and
- to develop the generic attributes of graduates of the University of Sydney.

Course structure

The degree is structured to allow students flexibility in their choice of units so they may pursue their own combinations of musical and non-musical disciplines. Students may choose units of study taught at another faculty of the University of Sydney up to a maximum credit point value of 28 credit points or take units of study taught only within the Conservatorium.

All students take a principal study in an instrument, voice, composition or musicology, core units in music skills, music history and technology and other units of their own choice. Principal study may be at major level (6 credit points) or minor level of study (3 credit points) depending on preference and level of ability. Principal study is available in:

- Brass: french horn, trombone, trumpet, tuba
- Composition (Major level only)
- Early Music: baroque flute, harpsichord, lute, recorder, viola da gamba
- Keyboard: piano
- Musicology
- Organ
- Percussion
- Strings: cello, double bass, guitar, harp, viola, violin
- Voice (including Jazz Minor)
- Woodwind: bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe, saxophone.

The course requires the successful completion of 144 credit points of study over three years of full-time study and is awarded only as a Pass degree. The credit points for units completed should include:

(a) six semesters of Principal study, as defined above
(b) core requirements, as tabled below
(c) other units of the student’s choice

Part-time study may be available to students on application. A student who is granted approval to undertake a course on a part-time basis shall undertake units of study as determined by the Conservatorium.

Core requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Music Studies

Students should complete at least the minimum number of credit points in each area throughout their course, and reach the minimum levels of achievement, as outlined in Table 8.10. Units of study in each area are listed in Tables 8.18 to 8.25 at the end of this chapter.

Typical enrolment pattern

A typical program in the Bachelor of Music Studies, together with the credit point value, is set out in Table 8.11.1. The course structure is designed to allow considerable choice in the units of study taken and flexibility over when units are taken.

Bachelor of Music Studies (Honours)

To qualify to enrol as a Bachelor of Music Studies (Honours) candidate, a student must have qualified for the award of the pass degree of Bachelor of Music Studies from the University of Sydney or comparable three-year degree from another tertiary institution, and have achieved a credit average in years two and three of the pass degree program with a distinction average in Principal Study or area of specialisation in years two and three. Candidates must also have written permission of the relevant unit of study chair and/or Honours coordinator, and have submitted an Honours Project proposal to the Faculty Undergraduate Studies Committee in the semester before they intend to enrol in the honours year, and have prepared an audition and/or attended an interview.

To qualify for the honours degree, eligible candidates should enrol in:

- PERF4601 Honours Project 1 (12 credit points) and
- PERF4602 Honours Project 2 (12 credit points) and
- successfully complete these units of study, and enrol in another 24 credit points to be chosen by the student in consultation with the Honours adviser and successfully complete those units of study. These credit points should be in units of study relevant to the Honours Project and may, with approval, be taken in other faculties.

Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery

The Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery is intended to give students an opportunity to experience a broad musical education before embarking on medical studies. In this structure the Bachelor of Music Studies functions as a specific pathway to the MBBS for the highest achieving school leavers. Its structure facilitates creative interdisciplinary links between music, science and medicine at The University of Sydney.

The course develops broadly educated musicians who are able to apply their knowledge, skills and attitudes creatively and flexibly. As a pathway degree in the combined music and medicine program, the course offers students the opportunity to engage with the Faculties of Science and Medicine in addition to the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. The honours year in particular also offers students in the combined degree program the opportunity to engage in interdisciplinary and applied music research that will give them a grounding in generic research skills required to undertake more advanced clinical/medical research.

Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery (Honours) - Music

Public Examination Recitals (undergraduate)

All students enrolled in BMus, BMusStudies, BA/BMusStudies, BMusStudies/MBBS, DipMus and DipOp whose principal study is an instrument or voice at the major level are required to present public performance examination recitals as part of their course. All performance students must also successfully complete "in-unit" examinations which are usually not open to the general public. The examination recitals normally take place in June and October/November each year.

Please note: Students must pass all assessed components of Principal Study. Students will not normally progress if they have failed an assessed component of Principal Study.

It is the student's responsibility to discuss suitable repertoire and performance requirements with their teachers to avoid inappropriate choices and problems with the availability of associate artists/accompanists. Recital programs must be submitted for formal approval by the Chair of Unit by the conclusion of week 9 of the appropriate semester. Forms and information concerning performance examinations and recitals will be available on the Conservatorium website: www.music.usyd.edu.au. Candidates for public recital examinations are assessed against the following criteria:

- The performance was accurate with respect to rhythm, pitch, articulation and dynamics.
- The performance (where appropriate) was a faithful reading and/or memorisation of the composer's text.
- The performance displayed musically effective production, projection and variation of tone.
- The candidate communicated well with other players, demonstrating good listening and ensemble skills, and leadership (where appropriate).
- The performance communicated an understanding of expressive, stylistic, musical and structural issues.
- The performance displayed musical creativity, artistic individuality and effective audience communication.
Transfer from Minor to Major Principal Study

Students requesting transfer may be expected to undertake an audition, and/or interview to demonstrate skills and achievement equivalent to that required of students in the award program to which they wish to transfer.

Application forms are available from Student Administration. For further information students should contact the appropriate Chair of Unit.

Transfer between undergraduate awards

Students may apply to transfer from one undergraduate award to another. Students transferring into an undergraduate award from another Conservatorium award must meet the entrance requirements for the award into which they are transferring and may apply for admission with credit or advanced standing on the basis of units of study completed previously under the conditions set out in Chapter 11 of this handbook. Applications to transfer must be submitted to the Manager, Student Administration at least two weeks before the commencement of teaching in the semester for which the transfer is sought. Please note that from September 2007 students transferring degree/diploma programs will only be able to transfer to the new 2008 award programs. Students should note that it is not usually possible to apply to transfer to another course in their last semester.

Application forms are available from Student Administration. For further information students should contact the appropriate Chair of Unit.

Undergraduate units of study by area

Tables 8.18 to 8.25 list units of study for all pre-2008 degrees (Diploma of Music, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Music Studies, Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music Studies and the Bachelor of Music Studies/Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery). They are listed by area as described in the Core Requirements tables (Tables 8.1, 8.4, 8.6, 8.8, 8.10 and 8.12). Students should consult the individual unit of study descriptions for information about prerequisites and corequisites, restrictions on enrolment and other information.

Admission
Please also see Admission in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.
All undergraduate applicants are required to lodge an application for admission to a course with the Student Administration Office as well as the Universities Admission Centre (UAC). All applicants for admission to a postgraduate course must submit an application form to the Student Administration Office at the Sydney Conservatorium. Postgraduate applicants are requested to attach a certified copy of their full academic record. Photocopies cannot be accepted unless they are clear copies and officially signed and certified as to their accuracy.

Admission restrictions
It is necessary to regulate the admission of candidates for courses to ensure that students accepted will not exceed the number for which adequate accommodation and facilities are available. Entry to the courses is competitive. For further information please refer to course descriptions later in this handbook.

Advanced standing
Please also see Credit in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.
Students admitted to a course at the Conservatorium may be granted advanced standing based on previous attainment in another course at a recognised tertiary institution. Advanced standing is granted in the form of credit points which count towards the requirements for the course.

Applications for advanced standing in Principal Study shall be made at the time of making application for admission and determined at the audition. Application forms are available from the Student Administration Office and must be submitted along with complete information about the relevant prior study before a student will be permitted to enrol with advanced standing.

Award
An accredited tertiary course of study conducted by the Conservatorium consisting of such units of study, progressive sequences and other requirements as are presented in the Conservatorium Rules, Faculty Resolutions for each course (where enacted) and associated schedules and documents. After successful completion of a course of study, students graduate with an academic award.

Board
The College Board of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Census dates
Please see Census date in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.

Credit
Please also see Credit in the Glossary at the back of this handbook. Credit is the recognition of prior work successfully undertaken by the student in an approved academic institution and allowing its contribution towards a Conservatorium award. Specific credit may be given for recognition of prior work as directly equivalent to a unit of study at the Conservatorium or as non-specific credit when it is not linked to a Conservatorium unit of study. Generally, the same unit of study cannot be counted towards the requirements for two different awards.

Graduates, however, may be given a limited amount of credit for units of study already counted in a completed qualification. The Academic Board policy on Advanced Standing, Credit and Exemption states that the maximum credit granted in such cases will be determined by the requirement that a graduate who is admitted to candidature for a degree of bachelor with credit for completed units of study shall attend units of study for the equivalent of at least two full-time years in that course, unless additional credit from an uncompleted course or courses has also been granted.

Application forms are available from the Student Administration Office.

Credit point
The value assigned to a unit of study as specified in the schedule for the course and indicative of the relative weight of the unit of study in the course. The requirements for each course are expressed as a minimum total number of credit points. Students earn an approved number of credit points for each unit of study which is successfully completed.

Concurrent enrolments
A student enrolled in a course at the Conservatorium cannot be concurrently enrolled in another course at the Conservatorium, the University of Sydney or in another tertiary institution without the approval of the Board.

Conservatorium
The Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Corequisite
A unit of study which must be undertaken concurrently with another prescribed unit of study.

Course transfer
Students wishing to transfer from one Conservatorium course to another (possible only at the beginning of a semester) must submit an application form at least two weeks prior to the commencement of semester to the Manager, Student Administration, who will submit the application to the Chair, Undergraduate or Graduate Studies Committee for determination.

Deferment of enrolment
Please also see Admission (deferment) in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.
A candidate offered admission to a Conservatorium course who then applies to defer enrolment in that course for a semester, is subject to re-audition/interview prior to enrolment.

Enrolment
Enrolment is the process by which an applicant officially accepts the offer of a place in a particular course. Enrolment is the nomination by a student of the units of study to be studied in a specified semester or year of a course. Enrolment comprises completion of the official enrolment form and payment of all prescribed fees, including arrangements for the HECS-HELP scheme.

Exemption

Exemption is the granting of a "waiver" from parts of the prescribed work for a particular unit of study on the basis of fully documented study successfully undertaken by the student at an approved academic institution. In such cases no credit is given and the student will be required to complete an alternative unit of study as approved by the appropriate Chair of Unit and the Head of School. Application forms are available from the Student Administration Office.

Full-time student

Please also see Attendance pattern in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.

A local student who undertakes a minimum of three-quarters (18 credit points in any one semester) of a full-time enrolment (24 credit points in any one semester).

An international student who undertakes a full-time enrolment (24 credit points per semester).

Head of School and Head of Department

Head of School and Head of Department both formally mean the Dean. However, in most instances, the Dean's powers have been delegated to other officers. Students should initially consult with Student Administration on the application of the Rules to determine how they are applied, what forms need to be completed and who has the authority to make a decision on an application.

Major and minor level of study

Principal Study (as defined below) is, in some instances, available at major or minor level, reflecting different levels of entry and attainment, different workload expectations and different credit point values.

Principal Study

In undergraduate awards, Principal Study is study in Composition, Musicology, or in Performance. Performance Principal Study is study in Accompaniment, French Horn, Trumpet, Trombone, Tuba, Baroque Flute, Early Music Performance, Harpsichord, Lute, Recorder, Viola da Gamba, Jazz Performance (Bass, Brass, Drums, Guitar, Piano, Vibraphone, Woodwind), Percussion, Piano, Organ, Double Bass, Guitar, Harp, Viola, Violin, Violoncello, Bassoon, Clarinet, Flute, Oboe, Saxophone, or Voice (Classical, Jazz, Opera) and such other instruments as may be approved by the Undergraduate Studies Committee.

Except with the approval of the Board, students will normally be enrolled in a Principal Study in each semester of their course, until they have completed the minimum requirements in Principal Study for their award.

Part-time student

A student who undertakes less than three-quarters (18 credit points in any one semester) of a full-time enrolment (24 credit points in any one semester).

Prerequisite

A prescribed unit of study which must be completed satisfactorily before a student is permitted to enrol in another prescribed unit of study. Units of study which have prerequisite requirements are either related in subject matter or are at a higher level of difficulty than the previous unit of study.

Unit of study

Please also see Unit of study in the Glossary at the back of this handbook.

The Sydney Summer and Winter Schools

2010 Dates
Summer School December 2009 to February 2010
Winter School 28 June to 24 July 2009

The Summer School
The Summer School is a full fee-paying, intensive program offering high quality undergraduate and postgraduate subjects from nine faculties. These subjects are the same as those offered in Semesters One and Two, but are taught as an intensive program over summer.

Some classes commence in December; others commence in the first week of January; others in the third week and continue into February (including the exam week). Some subjects run for six weeks; others are shorter. Students can take a maximum of two subjects.

The Winter School
The Winter School is a smaller, more intensive program that runs for four weeks, including the exam week, during July.

Advantages
Attending classes at the University of Sydney during the summer and winter holidays offers many advantages. You can:

- accelerate your academic career and finish your degree sooner
- devote your full attention to a single area of study
- take subjects that are outside your normal degree
- reduce your workload throughout the rest of the year
- repeat subjects in which you may have been unsuccessful
- combine study with a field trip in Australia or a tour overseas.

High school graduates can sample a university subject, and get an early start on their degree.

How to apply
Applications are only accepted online (at www.summer.usyd.edu.au). Most subjects have limited places and fill very quickly. All places are filled strictly on a first-in, first-served basis so it is recommended that you apply early.

Applications open on:
- 1 October 2009 (Summer School)
- 24 May 2010 (Winter School)

Applications close:
27 November 2009 (Session 1, Summer December)
11 December 2009 (Session 2, Summer Main)
8 January 2010 (Session 3, Summer Late)
11 June 2010 (Winter School)

Late application fees may apply after these dates.

Census dates
Students can withdraw from their subject without academic penalty and receive a full refund until the census date (based on when the class commences). However, a late withdrawal fee may apply.

There is one census date for the Winter School, and three for the Summer School, as classes start between December and February.

ID Session name Classes begin Census date
42* Summer December 7 December 2009 4 January 2010
43 Summer Main 4 January 2010 11 January 2010
44 Summer Late 18 January 2010 29 January 2010
11 Winter School 28 June 2010 3 July 2010

* 42 Summer December: Allows for a unit to run for 3 to 9 weeks, provided that the 20 per cent criterion is met.
 44 Summer Late: Last exam must be held by 1 March.

Withdrawal and refund policy
- For Summer School classes starting in December 2010, students who withdraw from a subject between 28 November 2009 and the relevant census date will receive a refund of tuition fees but will be liable for a $500 late withdrawal fee.
- For Summer School classes starting in January 2010, students who withdraw from a subject between 12 December 2009 and the relevant census date will receive a refund of tuition fees but will be liable for a $500 late withdrawal fee.
- For Winter School classes starting on 28 June 2010, students who withdraw from a subject between 21 June 2010 and the relevant census date will receive a refund of their tuition fees but will be liable for a $500 late fee withdrawal.

Students may withdraw from their Summer or Winter School subject(s) up until 4pm on the last day of the teaching period for that particular subject. However, there may be an academic penalty (please refer to our website). The teaching period for purposes of this policy is defined in hours of published classes from the first day through to the last day of classes, excluding any final examination or assessment.

Students who withdraw from a subject after 4pm on the relevant census date will receive no refund of their tuition fee.

Transferring between subjects
Students on a waiting list can transfer between subjects at any time prior to the commencement of class. For all other students, transfers should be completed a week before classes commence. No transfers will be allowed after commencement of the class.

Summer and Winter School scholarships

Merit scholarships
Three undergraduate merit scholarships and one postgraduate merit scholarship are available. These are automatically awarded to the top four students in their respective faculty (Arts, Science, or Economics and Business) for their Summer School subject.

Educational/Financial Disadvantage scholarships
Full Summer School scholarships are available to local undergraduate students who have a good academic record. To be eligible for consideration you will need to provide evidence of long-term and serious educational disadvantage based on two or more criteria, one of which must be financial hardship. Please check our website for further details. Scholarship applications close on 30 October 2009 (Summer School), and 9 June 2010 (Winter School).

Academic progression

The University requires students to maintain a minimum rate of progression throughout their candidature. Any student who does not satisfy progression requirements for their degree will be placed on a monitored academic progression program. This program requires students to consult an academic adviser in their faculty, to attend a support services information session, and to fill in a survey. Students will be advised of program requirements by their faculty.

Students who do not sustain the minimum academic progression requirements may be asked to ‘show cause’ as to why they should not be excluded from their degree. For further information, please see www.usyd.edu.au/secretariat/students

Accommodation Service

The Accommodation Service helps students find off-campus accommodation. It maintains an extensive database of accommodation close to campus or with easy access to public transport. For more information visit the Accommodation page: www.usyd.edu.au/current_students

Domestic applicants for postgraduate courses and programs of study

For the purpose of admission and enrolment, 'domestic applicant' refers to citizens and permanent residents of Australia and citizens of New Zealand. Application is direct to the faculty which offers the course that you are interested in. Application forms for postgraduate coursework, postgraduate research and the master’s qualifying or preliminary program, and for non-award postgraduate study can be found at www.usyd.edu.au/future_students

Note: some faculties use their own specially tailored application forms. Check with the relevant faculty.

International applicants for all course types (undergraduate and postgraduate)

'International applicants' refers to all applicants other than Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents and citizens of New Zealand. In the majority of cases international applicants apply for admission through the University's International Office (IO). Freedom of information
The University of Sydney falls within the jurisdiction of the NSW Freedom of Information Act 1989. The Act:
• requires information concerning documents held by the University to be made available to the public
• enables a member of the public to obtain access to documents held by the University
• enables a member of the public to ensure that records held by the University concerning his or her personal affairs are not incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading.

A 'member of the public' includes staff and students of the University.

It is a requirement of the Act that applications be processed and a determination made within a specified time period, generally 21 days. Determinations are made by the University’s Deputy Registrar.

While an application may be made to access University documents, some may not be released in accordance with particular exemptions provided by the Act. There are review and appeal mechanisms which apply when access has been refused.

The University is required to report to the public on its freedom of information activities on a regular basis and to produce two documents: a Statement of Affairs (annually) and a Summary of Affairs (every six months).

The Statement of Affairs contains information about the University, its structure, function and the kinds of documents held. The Summary of Affairs identifies the University’s policy documents and provides information on how to make an application for access to University documents. More information and copies of the reports can be found at www.usyd.edu.au/arms/info_freedom

Grievances and appeals
You may consider that a decision affecting your candidature for a degree or other activities at the University has not taken into account all relevant matters. In some cases the by-laws or resolutions of the Senate provide for a right of appeal against particular decisions. For example, there is provision for appeal against academic decisions, disciplinary decisions and exclusion after failure.

A document outlining the current procedures for appeals against academic decisions is available at the Student Centre, the Student Representative Council, and on the Policy Online website (www.usyd.edu.au/policy click on 'Study at the University', then 'Appeals' – see the Academic Board and Senate resolutions).

Orientation and O-Week
Orientation
Starting university study brings both opportunities and challenges. A successful transition is important in developing a sense of belonging and better academic adjustment and success. The University of Sydney seeks to facilitate students' successful transition through a wide range of programs and activities.

Orientation activities for both undergraduate and postgraduate students are scheduled at the beginning of each semester. Transition support continues throughout the academic year within faculties, while student support services are available to help students throughout their study.

For more information visit
www.usyd.edu.au/current_students/orientation

Undergraduate students
In the week before Semester One, the Sydney Welcome Orientation and Transition (SWOT) program offers all commencing undergraduate students an opportunity to learn more about the University of Sydney.

During this week you can get to know the University, develop key skills for success, discover other key resources for getting the most out of university life and develop a sense of belonging. All students are welcome to attend activities, which are based at the Camperdown and Darlington campuses. Faculties based on other campuses also provide orientation activities and programs.

SWOT 2010 will run from 24 to 26 February 2010.
For more information, see www.swot.usyd.edu.au

Postgraduate students
Postgraduate students are supported by their faculties in transitioning to postgraduate study at the University of Sydney.

For more information visit
www.usyd.edu.au/current_students/orientation

O-Week
O-Week is the orientation event at the beginning of Semester One. Organised by the University of Sydney Union (USU) and other student organisations, it runs in parallel with the SWOT program. O-Week 2010 will run from 24 to 26 February 2010.
For more information visit www.usuonline.com
Part-time, full-time attendance

Undergraduate students
Undergraduate students are usually considered full time if they have a student load of at least 0.375 each semester. Anything under this amount is considered a part-time study load.

Note that some faculties have minimum study load requirements for satisfactory progress.

Postgraduate students (coursework)
Part-time or full-time status for postgraduate coursework students is determined by credit-point load. Enrolment in units of study which total at least 18 credit points in a semester is classed as full time. Anything under this amount is a part-time study load.

Please note that classes for some coursework programs are held in the evenings (usually 6pm to 9pm).

Postgraduate students (research)
Full-time candidates for research degrees do not keep to the normal semester schedule. Instead they work continuously throughout the year with a period of four weeks recreation leave.

There is no strict definition of what constitutes full-time candidature but if you have employment or other commitments that would prevent you from devoting at least the equivalent of a 35-hour working week to your candidature (including attendance at the University for lectures, seminars, practical work and consultation with your supervisor) you should enrol as a part-time candidate. If in doubt, consult your faculty or supervisor.

International students
Student visa regulations require international students to undertake full-time study. International students on visas other than student visas may be permitted to study part-time.

Policy Online
In addition to the resolutions covering specific courses, there are a number of University policies that apply to students. These include:

- Code of Conduct for students
- Academic Honesty in Coursework
- Student Plagiarism: Coursework Assessment and Examination of Coursework
- Identifying and Supporting Students at Risk.

Printing service
The University Printing Service (UPS) provides printing and binding services including high-volume printing and copying, short run/low-volume printing, and four-colour process printing. It also offers finished artwork and design, including website design, document scanning, file conversion and CD burning.

UPS products range from stationery, books, brochures, handbooks, graduation certificates and examination papers through to invitations, flyers and banners.

UPS also offers a variety of finishing options plus collating, addressing and filling of envelopes, mail merge options and print-brokering services.

Privacy
The University is subject to the NSW Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the NSW Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002. Central to both pieces of legislation are the sets of information protection principles (IPPs) and health privacy principles which regulate the collection, management, use and disclosure of personal and health information.

In compliance with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act the University developed a Privacy Management Plan which includes the University Privacy Policy. The Privacy Management Plan sets out the IPPs and how they apply to functions and activities carried out by the University. Both the plan and the University Privacy Policy were endorsed by the Vice-Chancellor on 28 June 2000.

Further information and a copy of the plan may be found at www.usyd.edu.au/arms/privacy

Any questions regarding the Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act, the Health Records and Information Privacy Act or the Privacy Management Plan should be directed to Archives and Records Management Services. See www.usyd.edu.au/arms for contact details.

To obtain exemption from re-attendance, apply at your faculty office.

Staff and Student Equal Opportunity Unit (SSEOU)

The Staff and Student Equal Opportunity Unit works with the University community to promote equal opportunity in education and employment, to create opportunities for staff and students who have traditionally been disadvantaged by mainstream practices and policies, and to create an environment that is free from discrimination and harassment.

The Staff and Student Equal Opportunity Unit is responsible for:

- providing policy advice to staff on harassment and discrimination
- providing equal opportunity policy development, promotion and training for staff and students
- coordinating and monitoring equity programs and initiatives
- providing information and advice to staff and students on equal opportunity matters
- resolving individual staff and student concerns about harassment and discrimination
- overseeing the University's Harassment and Discrimination Resolution procedure

Sydney Summer School
Nine faculties at the University offer subjects from undergraduate and postgraduate degree programs during a Summer School program. As the University uses its entire quota of Commonwealth-supported places in Semesters One and Two, these units are full fee-paying for both local and international students and enrolment is entirely voluntary.

Summer School enables students to accelerate their degree progress, make up for a failed subject or fit in a subject which otherwise would not suit their timetables. New students may also gain an early start by completing subjects before they commence their degrees.
Timetabling Unit
The Timetabling Unit in the Student Centre is responsible for producing personalised student timetables which are available through MyUni. Semester One timetables are available 10 days before that semester begins. Semester Two timetables are available from the beginning of Semester One examinations.

Student organisations

Students' Representative Council (SRC)
The Students' Representative Council represents, campaigns and advocates for undergraduate students throughout the University.

SRC caseworkers advise students on a range of issues, including academic appeals, Centrelink, tenancy, harassment and discrimination. The solicitor (from Redfern Legal Centre) provides legal assistance and court representation. These services are free and confidential. The SRC also offers financial support in the form of emergency loans of up to $50.

In addition, the SRC runs a second-hand bookshop that specialises in the purchase and sale of coursework textbooks. Among the publications produced by the SRC are the weekly student newspaper Honi Soit, the Counter-Course Handbook and the O-Week Handbook.

The SRC, which recently celebrated its 80th anniversary, is one of the oldest student organisations in Australia, and is run by and for students. It's a great way to get involved in student life. Officers elected to the student council campaign on issues that directly affect students, such as course cuts and assessments, fee increases, discrimination and welfare rights. They also advocate on social justice matters both within the University and throughout the wider community.

Completion within the expected duration
Education providers are required to ensure that international students complete their studies within the duration specified on the electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE). Extensions to a student’s course duration are allowed only in limited circumstances (for example, for compassionate or compelling reasons, where an intervention strategy has been implemented or where there has been an approved leave of absence or suspension).

It is important students ensure they are on track to complete their studies within the expected duration, or that they have permission from their faculty to extend their duration.

Satisfactory academic progress
Maintaining satisfactory course progress is a mandatory student visa condition. Education providers are required to monitor course progress, intervene where students are at risk of failing to achieve satisfactory course progress, notify students who fail to achieve satisfactory course progress, and report students who fail to achieve satisfactory course progress to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC).

It is important that every student is aware of the progress rules for their course and participates in the intervention strategies implemented by their faculty. Exclusion from a course due to unsatisfactory progress can have serious implications for student visa holders including visa cancellation and restrictions on returning to Australia.

The University provides many avenues of support for students who are struggling academically. International students who experience any difficulties with their academic progress should consult their faculty, the international student advisers in the International Office or the counsellors in the International Student Support Unit (ISSU).

Distance/web-based study
International students may undertake no more than 25 per cent of their total course by distance and/or online learning. Students must not enrol in exclusively distance or online study in any compulsory study period.

Students who are supported by United States Financial Aid are not permitted to undertake distance and/or online learning at any time during their course of study.

Work permits
International students with a work permit are permitted to work for up to 20 hours per week during semester and full-time during the University’s official holiday periods. Contact the international student advisers in the International Office for more information.

Change of address
International students must notify the University of their residential address within seven days of arrival and notify any subsequent change of address within seven days. This should be done online via the University’s MyUni student portal (http://myuni.usyd.edu.au).

Sponsored students
Sponsored students need permission from their sponsors before transferring courses, suspending their studies or varying their study load. Students sponsored by the Australian Government (AusAID, Endeavour), or Asia Development Bank (ADB) should contact the International Office in the early stages of considering a change to their program.

Suspension/discontinuation
The University is required to report to DIAC any international students who discontinue or suspend their studies. Students who suspend their studies for medical or compassionate reasons should contact the international student advisers in the International Office urgently.

Health cover
The Australian Government requires that all international students and their families pay for health insurance in Australia through the Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) scheme. The University-preferred provider is OSHC Worldcare. The International Office will, on receipt of the student’s first payment of tuition fees and the OSHC premium, pay the compulsory amount to OSHC Worldcare on their behalf.

OSHC provides free access to the University health service and public hospitals. Higher-level coverage (e.g., access to private hospitals for spouse and family) is the student’s responsibility. Alternatively, international students may arrange their own OSHC through an approved provider. You can find a list of approved OSHC providers by searching for ‘OSHC’ on the federal government’s Department of Health and Ageing website: www.health.gov.au

The University of Sydney Foundation Program (USFP)
The University of Sydney offers its foundation program to international students as a preparation for undergraduate degrees at several Australian universities.

The Foundation Program is conducted by Taylors College on behalf of Study Group Australia and the University of Sydney. It allows both first and second semester entry to undergraduate courses at the University of Sydney and other Australian universities.

Academic Board
The senior academic body within the University. The Academic Board has, as principal responsibility, to maintain the highest standards in teaching, scholarship and research at the University and advises Senate and the Vice-Chancellor in that regard. In conjunction with faculties, the Academic Board has responsibility for approving new or amended courses and endorsing faculty development of units of study. The Board is also responsible for the formulation and review of policies, guidelines and procedures in relation to academic matters. For further information, see the University of Sydney (Academic Governance) Rule 2003 (as amended).

Academic Consortium 21 (AC21)
An international network, of which the University is a member, which comprises educational, research and industrial organisations throughout the world with the objective of encouraging the further advancement of global cooperation to the benefit of higher education and to contribute to world and regional society.

Academic cycle
The program of teaching sessions offered over a year. Currently the cycle runs from the enrolment period for Semester One to the completion of the processing of results at the end of Semester Two. See also ‘Academic year’, ‘Stage’.

Academic dishonesty
Academic dishonesty occurs when one person presents another person’s ideas, findings or written work as his or her own by copying or reproducing them without due acknowledgement of the source and with intent to deceive. Academic dishonesty also covers recycling, fabrication of data, engaging another person to complete an assessment or cheating in exams. See also ‘Plagiarism’.

Academic record
The complete academic history of a student at the University. It includes, among other things: personal details; all units of study and courses taken; assessment results (marks and grades); awards and prizes obtained; infringements of progression rules; approvals for variation in course requirements and course leave; thesis and supervision details.

Access to a student’s academic record is restricted to authorised University staff and is not released to a third party without the written authorisation of the student. See also ‘Academic transcript’.

Academic transcript
A printed statement setting out a student’s academic record at the University. There are two forms of academic transcript: external and internal. See also ‘Academic record’, ‘External transcript’, ‘Internal transcript’.

Academic year
The current calendar year in which a student is enrolled. See also ‘Academic cycle’, ‘Stage’.

Ad eundem gradum
Long-standing full-time members of the University’s academic and general staff who are not graduates of the University may be considered by Senate, upon their retirement, for admission Ad eundem gradum (‘to the same degree’) to an appropriate degree of the University.

Admission
 Governed by the University’s admission policy, this is the process for identifying applicants eligible to receive an initial offer of enrolment in a course at the University. Admission to most undergraduate courses is based on performance in the HSC, with applicants ranked on the basis of their Australian Tertiary Admissions Rank (ATAR).

Other criteria such as a portfolio, interview, audition, or results in standard tests may also be taken into account for certain courses. Admission to postgraduate courses is normally on the basis of performance in a prior undergraduate degree and other criteria as specified in the relevant degree resolutions.

Admission basis
The main criterion used by a faculty in assessing an application for admission to a course. The criteria used include, among other things, previous secondary, TAFE or tertiary studies, work experience, special admission, and the Australian Tertiary Admissions Rank (ATAR).

Admission (Deferment)
An applicant who receives an offer of admission to a course may apply to defer enrolment in that course for one semester or one academic cycle. (Note: this policy is currently under review.)

Admission mode
A classification based on how a student was admitted to a course, for example ‘UAC’ or ‘direct’.

Admission period
The period during which applications for admission to courses are considered.

Admission year
The year the student expects to begin the course. See also ‘Commencement date’.

Advanced diplomas
See ‘Course’.

Advanced standing
See ‘Credit’.

Aegrotat
In exceptional circumstances involving serious illness or death of a student prior to completion of their course, the award of an aegrotat, or posthumous degree or diploma, may be conferred.

Alumni
See ‘Graduate’.

Alumni sidneiensis

Annual average mark (AAM)
The average mark over all units of study attempted in a given academic year (equivalent to the calendar year). The formula for this calculation is:

AAM = \frac{\sum (\text{marks} \times \text{credit point value})}{\sum (\text{credit point value})}

(Sums over all units of study completed in the selected period.)

The mark is the actual mark obtained by the student for the unit of study, or in the case of a failing grade with no mark – 0. Pass/fail assessed subjects and credit transfer subjects (from another institution) are excluded from these calculations. However, the marks from all attempts at a unit of study are included.

Annual progress report
A form used to monitor a research student's progress each year. The form provides for comments by the student, the supervisor, the head of the department and the dean (or their nominee). The completed form is attached to the student's official file.

Annual Report
The University’s yearly financial and audit report, submitted to the NSW Parliament. It also includes a broad range of the University’s activities and the strength of their performance in relation to the University's stated roles, values and goals.

Appeals
Students may lodge an appeal against academic or disciplinary decisions. See also 'Student Appeals Body', 'Student Disciplinary Appeals Committee'.

Appeals against an academic decision
A student may appeal to the Student Appeals Body against a decision by the University that affects the academic assessment or progress of a student within his or her award course, including a decision:

(a) to exclude a student in accordance with the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended)
(b) not to readmit or re-enrol a student following exclusion in accordance with the University of Sydney (Coursework) Rule 2000 (as amended)
(c) to terminate a student's candidature for a postgraduate award.

A student may appeal to the Student Disciplinary Appeals Committee against a determination being:

(a) a finding by the Vice-Chancellor or the Student Proctorial Board that the student is guilty of misconduct
(b) the imposition of a penalty upon the student by the Vice-Chancellor or the Student Proctorial Board
(c) an order made by the Vice-Chancellor or the Student Proctorial Board.

Assessment
The process of measuring the performance of students in units of study and courses. Performance may be assessed by examinations, essays, laboratory projects, assignments, theses, treatises or dissertations. See also 'Result processing'.

Formative assessment
Used principally to provide students with feedback on their progress in learning. It reinforces successful learning, and is an opportunity for students to expose the limits in their knowledge and understanding.

Summative assessment
Summative assessment is used to certify competence, or to rank students by order of merit. It certifies the attainment of a standard, and is used as the basis for progression to the next part of a program, or to graduation.

Associate supervisor
A person who is appointed in addition to the supervisor of a research student to provide particular expertise or additional experience in supervision. See also 'Instrumental supervisor/teacher', 'Research supervisor', 'Supervision'.

Association of Pacific Rim Universities (APRU)
A consortium of leading research universities in the Pacific Rim, of which the University is a member. APRU aims to foster education, research and enterprise, thereby contributing to economic, scientific and cultural advancement in the Pacific Rim.

Assumed knowledge
For some units of study, a student is assumed to have passed a relevant subject in the HSC – this is called assumed knowledge. While students are generally advised against taking a unit of study for which they do not have the assumed knowledge, they are not prevented from enrolling in that unit of study. See also 'Prerequisite'.

Attendance mode or attendance pattern
The attendance pattern for a course is full-time, part-time or external, depending on the student attendance requirements and student load.

Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF)
The framework for recognition and endorsement of qualifications established by the Ministerial Council on Education, Employment, Training and Youth Affairs (MCEETYA).

Australian Tertiary Admissions Rank (ATAR)
A measure of overall academic achievement in the HSC that helps universities rank applicants for university selection. The ATAR is a rank of any student's performance relative to other students. It is calculated from the aggregate of scaled marks in 10 units of the HSC (two best English units plus eight other units, including only two category B units) and is presented as a number between 0.00 and 99.95 with increments of 0.05. The ATAR replaced the Universities Admissions Index (UAI) in June 2009.

Austudy
Provides financial help to students who are 25 years old or over who meet the required criteria, and are undertaking an approved full-time course at an approved institution. See also 'Youth allowance'.

Automated Results Transfer System (ARTS)
This system was developed by the Australasian Conference of Tertiary Admissions Centres (ACTAC) to allow access to a student's electronic academic record, via an admission centre or tertiary institution.

B

This notice is issued to each student after enrolment, showing the course and the units of study in which the student is enrolled, together with the credit point value of the units of study and the student-contribution weights. Until all fees are paid, it is issued provisionally. A new confirmation of enrolment notice is produced every time a student's enrolment is varied.

Coursework
An award course not designated as a research award course. While the program of study in a coursework award course may include a component of original work, other forms of instruction and learning will normally be dominant.
Research
A course in which at least 66 per cent of the overall course requirements involve students undertaking supervised research over a prescribed period of time, leading to the production of a thesis or other piece of written or creative work.

Course alias
A unique five character alpha-numeric code which identifies a University course.

Course code
See 'Course alias'.

Course leave
Students are permitted to apply for a period away from their course without losing their place. Course leave is formally approved by the supervising faculty for a minimum of one semester. Students on leave are regarded as having an active candidature, but they are not entitled to a student card. At undergraduate level, leave is not counted towards the total length of the course. Students who are absent from study without approved leave may be discontinued and may be required to formally reapply for admission. See also 'Progression'.

Course rules
Rules that govern the allowable enrolment of a student in a course. Course rules may be expressed in terms of types of units of study taken, length of study, and credit points accumulated. For example, a candidate may not enrol in units of study that have a total value of more than 32 credit points per semester.

Course rules also govern the requirements for the award of the course. For example, in many cases a candidate must complete a minimum of 144 credit points. See also 'Course', 'Corequisite', 'Prerequisite'.

Course transfer
Applies to students transferring between courses, either within the University of Sydney or between institutions. In some circumstances a student may be eligible to transfer to a course directly, ie without reapplying for admission.

Credit
The recognition of previous studies successfully completed at the University of Sydney (or another university or tertiary institution recognised by the University of Sydney), as contributing to the requirements of the course to which the applicant requesting such recognition has been admitted. It may be granted as specified credit or non-specified credit.

Specified credit
The recognition of previously completed studies as directly equivalent to units of study.

Non-specified credit
A ‘block credit’ for a specified number of credit points at a particular level. These credit points may be in a particular subject area but are not linked to a specific unit of study. See also 'Annual average mark (AAM)', 'Waiver', 'Weighted average mark (WAM)'.

Credit points
The value of the contribution each unit of study provides towards meeting course completion requirements. Each unit of study normally has a six credit point value assigned to it. The total number of credit points required for completion of award courses will be specified in the Senate resolutions relevant to the award course.

Cross-institutional enrolment
Enrolment in units of study to count towards an award course at another university. See also 'Course (Non-award course)'.

D

Dean's Certificate
A statement from a faculty dean certifying that all requirements, including fieldwork and practical work, have been met and that the student is eligible to graduate. Not all faculties use Dean's Certificates. In faculties that do, qualified students have 'Dean's Certificate' noted on their academic record.

Deferment (Deferral)
See also 'Admission (Deferment)', 'Course leave'.

For example, an internal student may take one or more units by distance mode and an external student may attend campus for one or more units.

Distance education
Where subject matter is delivered in a more flexible manner, such as correspondence notes, a student may only attend campus if required. See also 'Distance education', 'Extended semester', 'International student (Offshore studies)'.

Intensive on-campus
Core content is delivered with support learning in an intensive (one or more days) format on campus. Participation is usually compulsory. Previously this may have been called residential, block mode, or weekend workshop.

On-campus (normal)
Attendance of scheduled lectures, tutorials etc at a campus of the University.

Direct admissions
For some courses, applications may be made directly to the University. Applications are received by faculties or the International Office, and considered by the relevant department or faculty body. Decisions are recorded and letters are forwarded to applicants advising them of the outcome. See also ‘Admission’, "Universities Admissions Centre".

Enrolled student
A person enrolled in an award course of the University.

Enrolment
Refers to a period of time in a student's candidature. This period:

(a) commences at the time the student has complied with all government and University requirements for enrolment
(b) unless the student re-enrols, ceases at the date on which:
   i. the University cancels, or the student withdraws from or discontinues enrolment; or
   ii. the next new enrolment period commences.

A student enrolls in a course by registering with the supervising faculty in the units of study or program of research to be taken in the coming year, semester or session.

Commencing
An enrolment is classified as commencing if a student has enrolled in a particular degree or diploma for the first time.

Exclusion
A faculty may ask a student whose academic progress is considered to be unsatisfactory to 'show good cause' why the student should be allowed to re-enrol. If the faculty deems the student's explanation unsatisfactory, or if the student does not provide an explanation, the student may be excluded either from a unit of study or from a course or faculty.

An excluded student may apply to the faculty for permission to re-enrol. Normally, at least two years must have elapsed before such an application would be considered. University policy relating to exclusions is set out in the Calendar. See also ‘Appeal’, ‘Progression’.

Postgraduate Education Loans Scheme (PELS)
See ‘FEE-HELP’.

Potential graduand
A student who has been identified as being eligible to graduate on the satisfactory completion of their current studies. See also ‘Graduand’, ‘Graduation’.

Pre-enrolment
Pre-enrolment – also known as provisional re-enrolment – takes place in October, when students indicate their choice of unit of study enrolment for the following year. After results are approved, pre-enrolment students are regarded as enrolled in those units of study for which they are qualified. Their status is ‘enrolled’ and remains so provided they pay any money owing and comply with other requirements by the due date.

Students who do not successfully pre-enrol in their units of study for the next regular session are required to attend the University on set dates during the January/February enrolment period. See also ‘Enrolment’.

Professional practice
Some students undertake placement in a professional practice as part of their course requirements. This may require University-approved supervision. Professional placements are located in a wide range of professional practice environments, and may not require additional criteria to be fulfilled.

Program
Each degree is composed of various units of study. The way the units are put together for a degree is referred to as a student’s ‘program’.

Progression
Satisfactory progression is satisfying all course and faculty rules (normally assessed on an annual basis) to enable the completion of the chosen award within the (maximum) completion time allowed. See also ‘Exclusion’.

Prohibited combinations of units of study
When two or more units of study contain a sufficient overlap of content, enrolment in any one such unit prohibits enrolment in any other identified unit. See also ‘Unit of study’.

Provisional re-enrolment
See ‘Pre-enrolment’.

Qualification
An academic attainment recognised by the University.

Qualifier
A mandatory (compulsory) prerequisite unit of study which must have a grade of pass or better. See also ‘Assumed knowledge’, ‘Corequisite’, ‘Prerequisite’, ‘Waiver’.

Recycling
The submission for assessment of one’s own work, or of work which is substantially the same, that has previously been counted towards the satisfactory completion of another unit of study, and credited towards a university degree, and where the examiner has not been informed that the student has already received credit for that work.

Registration
In addition to enrolling with the faculty in units of study, students must register with the department responsible for teaching each unit. This is normally done during Orientation Week. Note that unlike enrolment, registration is not a formal record of units attempted by the student.

Research course
See ‘Course (Research)’.

Research supervisor
A supervisor is appointed to each student undertaking a research postgraduate degree. The supervisor will be a full-time member of the academic staff or a person external to the University recognised for their association with the clinical teaching or the research work of the University. See also ‘Associate supervisor’, ‘Instrumental supervisor/teacher’, ‘Supervision’.

Research Training Scheme (RTS)
The RTS provides Commonwealth-funded higher degree by research (HDR) students with an ‘entitlement’ to a HECS exemption for the duration of an accredited HDR course, up to a maximum period of four years full-time equivalent study for a doctorate by research and two years full-time equivalent study for a master’s by research.

Result
The official statement of a student’s performance in each unit of study attempted as recorded on the academic transcript, usually expressed as a mark and grade. See also ‘Grade’, ‘Mark’.

Result processing
Refers to the processing of assessment results for units of study. For each unit of study, departments/schools tabulate results for all assessment activities and assign preliminary results. See also ‘Assessment’, ‘Examination period’, ‘Formative assessment’.

Result processing schedule
The result processing schedule will be determined for each academic cycle. All schools and faculties are expected to comply with this schedule. See also ‘Assessment’, ‘Examination period’.

Scholarships
Financial or other form of support made available to enable students to further their studies. See also ‘Bursaries’.

School
A school or academic unit that encourages and facilitates teaching, scholarship and research, and coordinates the teaching and examining duties of members of staff in their subjects or courses of study.

Semester
A half-yearly teaching session, the dates for which are determined by the Academic Board. Normally all undergraduate sessions will conform to the semesters approved by the Academic Board. Any offering of an undergraduate unit not conforming to the semester dates (non-standard session) must be given special permission by the Academic Board. See also ‘Non-standard session’, ‘Session’.

Semester address
The address to which all official University correspondence is sent during semester time, if different to the permanent address.

Senate
The governing body of the University. See the University Calendar (www.usyd.edu.au/calendar) for more details of its charter and powers.

Session
Any period of time during which a unit of study is taught. A session differs from a semester in that it need not be a six-month teaching period, but it cannot be longer than six months. Each session maps to either Semester One or Two for DEEWR reporting purposes. Session offerings are approved by the relevant dean, taking into account all the necessary resources, including teaching space and staffing. The Academic Board must approve variation to the normal session pattern. See also ‘Non-standard session’, ‘Semester’.

Session address
See ‘Semester address’.

Short course
A fee-paying student undertaking a short course with the University of Sydney such as professional development or executive training. The study undertaken by these students is a non-award course.

Show cause
See ‘Exclusion’, ‘Progression’.

Special consideration
Candidates who suffer serious illness or misadventure which may affect performance in any assessment may request that they be given special consideration in relation to the determination of their results.

Special Studies Program (SSP)
A period of release from normal duties to allow academic staff to undertake a planned program of academic activity and development.

Sponsorship
Financial support of a student by a company or government body.
Glossary

Stage
A normal full-time course of study taken in a year. See also ‘Course rules’, ‘Equivalent full-time student load’, ‘Progression’.

Strategic Directions
See also ‘University Strategic Directions’.

Stream
A defined award course, which requires the completion of set units of study as specified by the course rules for the particular stream, in addition to the core program specified by the course rules. A stream will appear with the award course name on testamurs, eg Bachelor of Engineering in Civil Engineering (Construction Management). See also ‘Course’, ‘Major’, ‘Minor’.

Student
A person enrolled as a candidate for an award course or unit of study.

Student Appeals Body
Any student may appeal to the Student Appeals Body against an academic decision on the ground that due academic process has not been observed by the relevant faculty in relation to the academic decision. Refer to the University of Sydney (Student Appeals against Academic Decisions) Rule 2006 for more details. See also ‘Appeals’.

Student Disciplinary Appeals Committee
Any student may appeal to the Student Disciplinary Appeals Committee against a misconduct determination by the Vice-Chancellor or a Student Proctorial Board. See also ‘Appeals’.

Student identifier (SID)
A nine-digit number that uniquely identifies a student at the University.

Student ID Card
All full-time or part-time students who successfully enrol at the University of Sydney will receive a Student Card. New students will have their card issued in person at the time of enrolment. Successful re-enrolling students will receive their card by mail.

The Student Card includes the student’s name, student identification number (SID), a digitised photo and the library borrower’s number and barcode. Where applicable, it will also display a travel concession logo from the Ministry of Transport (if student eligibility requirements are met).

The card has a number of interoperable uses, such as the ability to purchase printing and photocopying services at the University’s libraries and gain access to certain secure buildings. The card identifies the student as eligible to attend classes and must be displayed at formal examinations. It must also be presented to secure student concessions and to borrow books from all sections of the University Library.

For more information about Student ID Cards please visit the Card Centre (or see the website: www.usyd.edu.au/card_centre).

Student learning entitlement
All Australian citizens, New Zealand citizens and holders of a permanent visa are allocated a Student Learning Entitlement (SLE) of up to seven years equivalent full-time study. This is measured in equivalent full-time student load (EFTSL), which is the proportion of a full-time load that a unit of study represents. The University sets an EFTSL value for each unit of study it offers. To be Commonwealth-supported for a unit, a student must have enough SLE to cover the EFTSL value of that unit.

Student progress rate (SPR)
A calculation that measures the rate at which the load undertaken is passed annually in each award program.

Student type
Student type identifies whether a student is local or international and the type of study the student is undertaking. See also ‘Domestic student’, ‘Exchange student’, ‘International student’.

Study Abroad program
A scheme administered by the International Office that allows international students who are not part of an exchange program to take units of study at the University of Sydney, but not towards an award program. In most cases the units of study taken here are credited towards an award at the student’s home institution. See also ‘Exchange student’.

Subject area
A unit of study may be associated with one or more subject areas. The subject area can be used to define prerequisite and course rules, for example the unit of study ‘History of Momoyama and Edo Art’ may count towards the requirements for the subject areas ‘Art History and Theory’ and ‘Asian Studies’.

Summative assessment
See ‘Assessment’.

Summer School
See ‘Sydney Summer School’.

Supervising faculty
The faculty which has the responsibility for managing the academic administration of a particular course, such as the interpretation and administration of course rules, approving students’ enrolments and variations to enrolments.

Normally the supervising faculty is the faculty offering the course. However, in the case of combined courses, one of the two faculties involved will usually be designated the supervising faculty. In the case where one course is jointly offered by two or more faculties (eg the Liberal Studies course), a joint committee may make academic decisions about candidature and the student may be assigned a supervising faculty for administration.

Supervision
Refers to a one-to-one relationship between a student and a nominated member of the academic staff or a person specifically appointed to the role. See also ‘Associate supervisor’, ‘Instrumental supervisor/teacher’, ‘Research supervisor’.

Suspension of candidature
See also ‘Course leave’.

Suppression of results
Results for a particular student can be suppressed by the University when the student has an outstanding debt to the University (this particularly applies to international students who have not paid their tuition fees), or when the student is facing disciplinary action. A student may also request a suppression for personal reasons.

Sydney Summer School
A program of accelerated, intensive study running for approximately six weeks during January and February each year. Both undergraduate and postgraduate units are offered. Sydney Summer School provides an opportunity for students at Sydney and other universities to catch up on required units of study, to accelerate completion of a course or to undertake a unit that is outside their award course. All units attract full fees, but some scholarships are available.

Sydney Winter School
An intensive session offered by the University in July during the mid-year break. See ‘Sydney Summer School’.

Testamur
A certificate of award provided to a graduand, usually at a graduation ceremony. The University award conferred is displayed along with other appropriate details.

Thesis
A major work that is the product of an extended period of supervised independent research. See also ‘Course (Research)’.

Tuition fees
Tuition fees may be charged to students in designated tuition fee-paying courses. Students who pay fees are not liable for HECS.

U

Universities Admissions Centre (UAC)
The UAC receives and processes applications for admission to undergraduate courses at recognised universities in NSW and the ACT. Most local undergraduate students at the University of Sydney apply through the UAC.

Universities Admission Index (UAI)
A measure of overall academic achievement in the HSC that helps universities rank applicants for university selection. The UAI is a rank of any student’s performance relative to other students. It is calculated from the aggregate of scaled marks in 10 units of the HSC (two best English units plus eight other units, including only two category B units) and is presented as a number between 0.00 and 99.95 with increments of 0.05.

In June 2009 the UAI was replaced by the Australian Tertiary Admissions Rank (ATAR). See ‘Australian Tertiary Admissions Rank’.

Undergraduate
A term used to describe both a course leading to a diploma or bachelor’s degree and a student enrolled in such a course.

Unit of study
Unit of study or unit means a stand-alone component of an award course. Each unit of study is the responsibility of a department. See also ‘Prohibited combinations of unit of study’.

Unit of study enrolment status
This indicates whether the student is still actively attending the unit of study (currently enrolled) or is no longer enrolled. See also ‘Cancellation of enrolment’, ‘Discontinuation’.

Unit of study level
Units of study are divided into junior, intermediate, senior, honours, Year 5, and Year 6. Most majors consist of 32 senior credit points in a subject area (either 3000 level units of study or a mix of 2000 and 3000 level units of study).

University
Unless otherwise indicated, the term ‘University’ in this document refers to the University of Sydney.

University Calendar
The annual University publication available in print and online that provides general and historical information about the University of Sydney, the statutes and regulations under which it operates and the Senate resolutions relating to constitutions and courses in each faculty.

University Medal
A faculty may recommend the award of a University Medal to a student qualified for the award of an undergraduate honours degree whose academic performance is judged to be outstanding.

University Strategic Directions
This refers to the University of Sydney Strategic Plan 2007–2010. A new plan is currently in development.

Upgrade
Where a student enrolled in a master’s by research course is undertaking research at such a standard that either the University recommends that the student upgrade their degree to a PhD, or the student seeks to upgrade to a PhD and this is supported by the University.

V

Variation of enrolment
See ‘Enrolment variation’.

Vice-Chancellor and Principal
The chief executive officer of the University, responsible for its leadership and management. The Vice-Chancellor and Principal is head of both academic and administrative divisions.

W

Waiver
In a prescribed course, a faculty may waive the prerequisite or corequisite requirement for a unit of study or the course rules for a particular student. Unlike credit, waivers do not involve a reduction in the number of credit points required for a course. See also ‘Credit’, ‘Exemption’.
WAM weight
A weight assigned to each unit of study to assist in the calculation of WAMs.

Weighted average mark (WAM)
This mark uses the unit of study credit point value in conjunction with an agreed 'weight'. The formula for this calculation is:

\[ WAM = \frac{\sum (W_c \times M_c)}{\sum W_c} \]

(Sums over all units of study completed in the selected period.)

The mark is the actual mark obtained by the student for the unit of study, or in the case of a failing grade with no mark – 0. Pass/Fail assessed subjects and credit transfer subjects (from another institution) are excluded from these calculations. However, the marks from all attempts at a unit of study are included. (Effective from 1 January 2004.)

In addition, faculties may adopt other average mark formulae for specific progression or entry requirements. If such a formula is not specified in the faculty resolutions, the formula outlined above is used. See also 'WAM weight'.

Winter School
See 'Sydney Winter School'.

Y

Year of first enrolment (YFE)
The year in which a student first enrolls at the University. See also 'Commencement date'.

Youth allowance
Youth allowance is payable to a full-time student or trainee aged 16 to 24 years of age who is enrolled at an approved institution such as a school, college, TAFE or university, and who is undertaking at least 15 hours a week face-to-face contact.

Getting There

The Sydney Conservatorium of Music is located in Sydney’s CBD on Macquarie Street, opposite the junction with Bridge Street. It is next to the Royal Botanic Gardens and the gates to Government House.

The Conservatorium is easily accessible by public transport. It is a 5 to 10 minute walk from Circular Quay ferry and train station and a similar distance from Martin Place train station. Buses also travel into the city to Circular Quay or Wynyard.

There is no public parking on site. Secure parking is available in 131 Macquarie Street (tel: 8912 4900). There is a short stay drop-off point for people with a disability.

The Arts-Music Unit of the Conservatorium of Music is located in the Seymour Centre on the Main Campus of the University. The 400 series buses travel along Parramatta Road or City Road to and from the Main campus. Redfern is the nearest train station.

Course Planning Tips

Once you have accepted your offer of admission to the Conservatorium, it is worth taking time to preview your degree and study options. If you are studying full-time, you will usually complete 24 credit points per semester. Most courses (units of study) at the Con are worth either 6 or 3 credit points.

In addition, all degrees at the Conservatorium have mandatory core units of study, which must be fulfilled to a set minimum level of achievement. For some degrees, such as the Advanced Diploma of Opera, every unit of study is prescribed. For the Bachelor degrees and other Diplomas, mandatory core units of study are combined with other elective units.

The main areas of study encompassed in the core for the Bachelor and Diploma degrees are:

- Principal Study
- Music Skills
- Studies in the History & Analysis of Music
- Performance (including ensemble study)
- Teaching Music
- Historical & Cultural Studies.

Each degree has a unique enrolment pattern and core requirements. You should refer to the information and tables in chapter 4 for exact details and recommended enrolment patterns.

You can use the Course Planner that follows this section to help plan your course over the years of study.

An academic adviser will be available on enrolment day to guide you through the process of enrolment. Most students will enrol in all their units of study for both semesters. However, it is possible to change your enrolment choices up to a certain date. University cut-off dates to either add or withdraw a unit of study are listed at the very front of this handbook. Contact the Student Administration Office for any further advice.

Unit of Study: These can be thought of as the building blocks of your degree and are “subjects.” For example, “Russian Music History” or “Trombone 1.” Each unit of study is assigned a credit point value and for each unit of study you successfully complete, you will be awarded credit points towards the completion of your degree.

Credit Points: You accumulate credit points by successfully completing units of study. For a three-year degree you need to complete units of study to a total of 144 credit points, a four-year degree to a total of 192 credit points, and a five-year degree to a total of 240 credit points.

Pre- and co-requisites: Many Units of Study build on previous units (prerequisites), which provide progression through your degree. Some are obvious, such as having to complete French Horn 1 before French Horn 2. However, some are not, and may require multiple prerequisites. Some units can also require co-requisites, such as Orchestra Studies 2 when you enrol in Violin 2. If you are enrolled in a degree that allows you some scope of choice, carefully check the unit of study pre- and co-requisites before you enrol. If you feel you meet the requirements of the course in other ways, please talk to your Chair of Unit. In some cases, these requirements can be waived with written approval.
