The Karitane peninsula is in the centre of the picture. The King family holiday home was in the trees to the right of the isthmus. Karitane is twenty-five kilometres north of the city of Dunedin and five kilometres north of the site of Seacliff Hospital.

Source: Author
Figure 2 Medical Conference at Cannes April 1919.
Left to right: Dr Emmett Holt (New York), Sir Arthur Newsholme, Dr Fritz Talbot (Harvard University-standing), Dr Hamill (Philadelphia University), Dr Truby King.
Source: M. King 'Truby King the Man' facing page 269.

Figure 3 Elizabeth (Betha) McMillan, aged 39, 1921.
Source: Mitchell Library.
Figure 4  Number 72 Buckingham Street, Karitane Products Factory, 1930
The factory is the far brick building. Dr Truby King and Mary lived at Number 68, where the men are standing. The car belonged to Truby King.
Source: M King, ‘Truby King the Man’ facing page 316

Figure 5 Number 72 Buckingham Street, occupied by the Australian Communist Party 2007
The adjoining terraces are still intact.
Source: Author
Figure 6  Trainee Karitane Nurse Betty Congreve leading the pony at the Karitane Fete, February 1934
Betty got very sunburnt that day; she suggests that past Karitane graduates were helping with the doll stall as the number of nurses in the picture above exceeded the number of trainees in her group.
Source: Sydney Morning Herald
Figure 7  Number 23 Nelson Street, Wollahra. Karitane-Sydney Mothercraft Training Centre 1926-1974
The gates were in memory of Mrs Leete, honorary secretary 1929-1944.
Source: Enid Ross

Figure 8  Number 171 Avoca Street, Randwick, Karitane Mothercraft Training Centre 1974-1994
Source: Enid Ross
Figure 9  Sydney Suzanne Pearson with her son Christopher outside Mark Foys Department Store, Liverpool Street, Sydney. Suzanne regularly visited Mark Foy’s for tea with her mother when taking Christopher to the Truby King Clinic at 283 Elizabeth Street in 1951-1952. Enid Ross also organized to have tea with her mother at Mark Foys after taking her son Ashley to the Elizabeth Street Clinic before it closed in 1953.

Source: Christopher Pearson
Figure 10  The purpose built clinic at Guilford, 1952
Source: Enid Ross

Figure 11  Kuring-gai Mobile Clinic, 1955
The vehicle was custom built by Fitch and Son, Summer Hill. It was modelled on those in use in Victoria.
Source: AMS Annual Report 1955
Figure 12 Karitane’s Nurses Graduate 1970
Front row - Left to right: Nurse Educator Miss E Maynard, Matron Miss M Hawley, President Mrs Anderson Stuart and Dr G Angel-Lord. (Note hats, veils and hemlines.)
Source: Enid Ross

Figure 13 Karitane’s Nurses Graduate 1980
Director of Nursing M Erlanger seated centre. (Note the change over a decade, no hats or veils and less formal)
Source: Enid Ross
Figure 14  CEO Craig Turner at the opening of the Liverpool Family Care Cottage 1992
Source: Enid Ross

Figure 15  Karitane Residential Family Care Unit, Carramar, 2008
The Residential Unit is situated at the corner of the Horsley Drive and Mitchell Street; this was formerly the site of Fairfield Hospital.
Source: Author