ANZCCC2010: THE AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND CRITICAL CRIMINOLOGY CONFERENCE

9.00AM-6.00PM, 1 & 2 JULY 2010

REGISTRATION, 8.30AM

SYDNEY LAW SCHOOL (CAMPERDOWN CAMPUS)

---

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Sydney Institute of Criminology at the University of Sydney and the School of Social Sciences at the University of Western Sydney are proud to invite academics, researchers, activists, students and criminal justice professionals to the 2010 Australian and New Zealand Critical Criminology Conference. The conference venue is the New Law Building at the University of Sydney Camperdown Campus.

Since 2007, the Critical Criminology Conference has been hosted by a range of universities throughout Australia with the intention of promoting critical and analytic perspectives on crime and justice. The conference in 2010 will continue to foster dialogue beyond the traditional boundaries of the discipline of criminology and promote the ground-breaking research of critical criminologists from Australia and New Zealand.

---

REGISTRATION

There is no cost to attend the conference.

REGISTRATION IS ESSENTIAL: click here for details, or visit the online events calendar: sydney.edu.au/law/events

This conference is presented by the Sydney Institute of Criminology at the University of Sydney and the School of Social Sciences at the University of Western Sydney.

---

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

T +61 2 9351 0248
F +61 2 9351 0200
E law.events@sydney.edu.au
sydney.edu.au/law/events
9.00-10.30AM  INTRODUCTION AND KEYNOTE ADDRESS
LECTURE THEATRE 106
Pat Carlen, Doing Critique, Doing Politics.

10.30-11.00AM  MORNING TEA

11.00AM-12.30PM  GLOBAL CRIMES
LECTURE THEATRE 106
Russell Hogg, ‘In Situations Like This You Don’t Call In the Tough Guys, You Call In The Lawyers’: Torture, Killing, Law and Denial in the ‘Global War on Terror’.
Michael Welch, Obama’s War on Terror: Executive Rights and Human Rights.

CRIME, SPACE AND PLANNING
SEMINAR ROOM 105
Awais Piracha and Karen Chapman, Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design - An Analysis of Safer by Design Initiatives at the Local Councils in NSW, Australia.
Garner Clancey, Crime Risk Assessment Made to Order.
Penny Crofts and Jason Prior, Sex, Planning and Policing.

PRISONS AND PRISONERS
SEMINAR ROOM 107
John Pratt and Anna Eriksson, ‘Mr Larseen is Walking Out Again’: The Origins and Development of Scandinavian Prison Policy.

Eileen Baldry, Phillip Snoyman, Leanne Dowse and Melissa Clarence, A Marginalised Space.
Brian Steels and Dot Golding, Researching Prison Rape: The Researchers’ Journey.

12.30-1.30PM  LUNCH

1.30-3.00PM  LECTURE THEATRE 106
SEXUAL OFFENCES
Haley Clark, Giving Voice To Victim/Survivors’ Knowledge Of Sexual Offending.
Michael Salter, Multi-Perpetrator Sexual Abuse and Testimonial Legitimacy.
Rezana Karim, A Qualitative Study of Stakeholder Perspectives on NSW Law Reform for Sexual Assault Prosecutions.

JUVENILE JUSTICE
SEMINAR ROOM 105
Kelly Richards, Trends in Juvenile Detention in Australia.
Jeeva Niriella, Issues in Rehabilitation and Re-Integration of Juvenile Offenders: Special Reference to Sri Lanka.
Angela Dwyer, ‘Damaged Goods’: Riskiness and LGBT Young Peoples’ Interactions with Police.

REFUGEES AND MIGRATION
SEMINAR ROOM 107
Mariastella Pulvirenti and Gail Mason, Refugees, Violence and Resilience.
Michael Grewcock, From Liminality to Liberty: Escapes from Immigration Detention.
Sharon Pickering, Women at the Border.

4.30-5.30PM  GLBTI PEOPLE SENTENCING AND DETENTION
SEMINAR ROOM 105
Selda Dagistanli, ‘Throw Away the Key!’: Public Ethics and the Justification for Indefinite Detention.

5:30-6:30PM  BOOK LAUNCH
LAW LOUNGE, LEVEL 1
Michael Grewcock, “Border Crimes: Australia’s War on Illicit Immigrants” and Pat O’Malley “Crime and Risk”.

8:00PM  CONFERENCE DINNER
Rubyos, 18-20 King Street, Newtown.
Please note: the dinner is for delegates that have pre-registered their attendance only.
CONFERENCE PROGRAM

DAY 2

11.30AM-1.00PM
TECHNOLOGY AND SOCIAL MEDIA
LECTURE THEATRE 106
Sanja Milivojevic, Social Networking Sites and Crime: Is Facebook More Than Just a Place to Procrastinate?
Alyce McGovern, Tweeting the News: Criminal Justice Agencies and Their Use of Social Networking Sites.

CRIMINOLOGICAL THEORY
SEMINAR ROOM 105
Kerry Carrington and Russell Hogg, Critical Criminology in Australia.

MEDIA REPRESENTATIONS
SEMINAR ROOM 107
Murray Lee, Force Selling: Policing and the Manufacture of Public Confidence.
David Brown and Melanie Schwartz, Images of Prison and Prisoners in Australian Popular Culture and Media.
Kylie Doyle, A Deconstruction of the Dichotomy of the Self and the Other in Crime Prevention Campaigns.

1.00-2.00PM
LUNCH

2.00-3.00PM
KEYNOTE ADDRESS
LECTURE THEATRE 106
Nicholas Cowdery AM QC, Director of Public Prosecutions NSW, The Law of the Ruler.

3.00-3.30PM
AFTERNOON TEA

3.30PM-5.00PM
CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND INDIGENOUS PEOPLE
LECTURE THEATRE 106
Jennifer Balint and Julie Evans, Transitional Justice and Settler States.

Claire Spivakovsky, Writing and Rewriting the Relationship Between Koori Offenders and the Australian Government.

MASCULINITIES AND VIOLENCE
SEMINAR ROOM 105
Stephen Tomsen, Felon Fights: Masculinity, Spectacle and Suffering.
Kate Seymour, (Re)gendering Violence: Men, Masculinities and Violence.

THE POLITICS OF JUSTICE
SEMINAR ROOM 107
Tyrone Kirchengast, The Integration of Victim Lawyers into the Adversarial Criminal Trial.
Annette Houlihan, Offences Against the (Moral) Person: HIV Transmission Offences in Australia.

5.00PM
CLOSING ADDRESS
LECTURE THEATRE 106