PATRICK WHITE WITHIN THE WESTERN LITERARY TRADITION

John Beston
CONTENTS

Foreword by David Tacey v
Author’s Preface xiii

SECTION 1: PATRICK WHITE WITHIN THE WESTERN LITERARY TRADITION

Introduction: The Raison d’Être of this Book 3
1. A Survey of White’s Life and Novels 9

SECTION 2: EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN INFLUENCES ON WHITE

2. The Influence of Madame Bovary on The Tree of Man 25
3. Patrick White and Rimbaud 46
4. Out of Childhood: The Love Story in Le Grand Meaulnes and Voss 63
5. Three Conclusions: Buddenbrooks, The Aunt’s Story and Voss 81
6. The Influence of John Steinbeck’s The Pastures of Heaven on Patrick White 88
7. Willa Cather and Patrick White 92
8. Patrick White and Theodora Goodman in New Mexico 105
9. Films and Patrick White 112
SECTION 3: STUDIES OF WHITE’S MAJOR NOVELS

10. The Several Lives of Theodora Goodman: The ‘Jardin Exotique’ Section of Patrick White’s The Aunt’s Story 119
11. The Black Volcanic Hills of Meroë: Fire Imagery in Patrick White’s The Aunt’s Story 136
12. Love and Sex in a Staid Spinster: The Aunt’s Story 148
13. Dreams and Visions in The Tree of Man 161
14. The Tree of Man as a Pioneer Novel 182
15. Stan’s Grandson, the Lost Boy, and White’s Ars Poetica in The Tree of Man 198
16. The Theme of Spiritual Progression in Voss 206
17. Alienation and Humanisation, Damnation and Salvation in Voss 223
18. Will Voss Endure? Fifty Years Later 239

SECTION 4: THEMATIC STUDIES OF WHITE’S NOVELS

20. Why are Epiphanies so Prominent in Patrick White’s Novels? 271
21. Mythmaking in Patrick White’s Novels 287
22. White’s Style 316

Bibliography 363
Index 373