Training

Launching the latest training offering from the Workplace Research Centre & Clayton Utz

The New World of Enterprise Bargaining
under the Fair Work Act 2009

*Is your workplace ready to comply with the 1 July 2009 legislation?
How can Enterprise Bargaining significantly improve your business?*

The introduction of the Fair Work Act has changed the workplace relations landscape - and your Enterprise Bargaining strategy.

Prepare yourself and your organisation via this essential, tailored skills training from the Workplace Research Centre (WRC), University of Sydney and leading law firm, Clayton Utz.

This 2-day program features:

- In-depth analysis of employer requirements under the new legislation;
- How to align your enterprise bargaining goals with broader organisational strategy;
- A negotiation skills workshop with a negotiation expert;
- A presentation of findings from WRC research into Good Faith Bargaining experiences from other jurisdictions;
- Individual attention from experienced course presenters including Dr Graham Smith, Joe Catanzariti, Michael Klug, Glen Bartlett (Clayton Utz) and Geoff McGill and Seymour Maddison, (Workplace Research Centre) ;
- Comprehensive take-home materials.
