

APPENDICES

PERCEIVED CONTROL IN THE EVERY DAY LIVES OF PEOPLE WITH PARKINSON'S DISEASE AND THEIR PARTNERS

Anne Hillman

BAppSc(OT), MAppSc

TABLE OF APPENDICES

Please note: Appendices 5.6, 5.7, 5.10, parts of 5.12, 5.14 have been omitted due to formatting difficulties.

Appendix 5.1	Interview protocol: Stage One The Occupational Role Performance Assessment (Adapted for Pd)	341
Appendix 5.2	Interview protocol: Stage Two Interview One - Doing	359
Appendix 5.3	Interview protocol: Stage Two: Interview Two - Being	375
Appendix 5.4	Interview protocol: Stage Two: Interview Three – Knowing	386
Appendix 5.5	Expression of Interest	395
Appendix 5.8	Disability definitions used to determine phase of Pd	397
Appendix 5.9	Information handout given to Parkinson’s support groups as part of talk	400
Appendix 5.11	Examples of interview summaries of doing, being and knowing interviews for participants with Pd and their partners	407
Appendix 5.12	Examples of interview field notes	422
Appendix 5.13	Transcript from ‘Being’ interview	427
Appendix 5.15	Example of analysis document as a work in progress	463
Appendix 5.16	Example of a detailed role write-up	481
Appendix 5.17	Detailed tables of barriers and strategies identified by participants	515
Appendix 5.18	Examples of final stage analysis related to model development	542

APPENDIX 5.1

THE OCCUPATIONAL ROLE PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT (ADAPTED FOR PARKINSON'S DISEASE)