Peer-reviewed Publications

Conference Presentations

Homeopaths Actually Practice Homeopathy: the First Australian Qualitative Investigation.

9th Australian Homeopathic Medicine Conference: October 24-25th 2014 Hobart, Tasmania. The Future of Homeopathic Theory: Aid or Impediment to Practice?

Conference on Communication, Medicine, and Ethics (COMET) 26-28 June, 2014 Lugano, Switzerland. Homeopathy, Hermeneutics and the Therapeutic Encounter.

Presentations at the University of Sydney

Centre for Values, Ethics and the Law in Medicine (VELiM)

Making Sense of Methodology in Hermeneutic Phenomenology (May 20, 2010)
Aberrant Science? The Case of Homeopathy (November 29, 2012)
A Gentle Ethical Defence of Homeopathy (September 19, 2013)
Mapping Empathy in Homeopathy (December 11, 2014)
Qualitative Health Research Collaboration (QHeRC)

Homeopathic Clinical Reasoning in Australia: Exploring and Understanding the Lived Experience (July 20, 2010)

Valuing Coherence and Accepting Messiness in Qualitative Health Research (July 27, 2011)