It's about.....
Accidental communication, (eating, washing, community board....). Creating excuses to talk. Welcoming all backpackers making them part of the community but also allowing privacy. Reflecting the dynamic randomness of the backpackers, their relaxed and kooky lifestyle. Home, creating a warm and comforting place, forever remindful of the place that they call home. Experiencing the raw essence of Madrid. Confronting locals of Madrid to the world of backpackers. Chaos Vs Relaxation, creating an equilibrium between the two. Bringing the street life into the hostel. Taking something regular and making it irregular. Fun.

UNITING. REFLECTING. MEETING. HOME. DYNAMICS. SPONTANEITY. BALANCE.
