My building is located in Madrid, near the Plaza Mayor. The function of this building is Aquarium Cafe. Madrid is a continental land, having aquarium in this land broadens people’s view of the city. Materials used for this building are mainly glass and steel, brick walls and concrete—considering the weight of water and water tanks are heavy.