

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Editor invites submission of papers related to the aim of Change: Transformations in Education. Papers will not be considered if they have been published previously or are being considered for publication elsewhere. All papers are fully refereed.

Manuscripts

1. Manuscripts should be typed double-spaced on one side of the paper, with generous margins all round. Single-spaced manuscripts will not be considered for publication. Three hard copies and a disk should be submitted (see below).
2. For anonymity in the reviewing process, author's name, affiliation, postal address and telephone numbers should appear on a separate covering page.
3. Articles should be approximately 6,000 words in length.
4. An abstract of approximately 150 words should accompany each manuscript.
5. Manuscripts should conform to the style of papers published in Change: Transformations in Education.
6. References should be indicated in the manuscript by giving the author's name, with the year of publication in parentheses. If several papers by the same author and from the same year are cited, a, b, and so on should be placed after the year of publication. References should be listed in full at the end of the paper in the following format:
Smith, G. (1990) Freedom in referencing. Chicago: St. Valentine's Press.
Smith, G.X. (1989) 'The pleasure of footnotes'. The Pedant Journal, 43, pp.21-45.
Thompson, D.G. (1996) 'Future methods of producing journals', in D. Thompson & X. Smith (eds), Tomorrow's science (pp. 341-342), Sydney: Academic Publishing Corporation.
Urbane, I.M. (1995) June. Civilisation in the Holy Roman Empire. Paper presented at the Annual Conference of Medieval Scholars, Trier.
7. All figures must be in camera-ready form.
8. Once a manuscript has been accepted often after revisions, it must be submitted on a microcomputer disk as well as in hard copy. The required format is:
Apple Macintosh 3.5 inch disk Double Sided High Density.
The preferred data format is Microsoft Word 6 or earlier.
9. Manuscripts not conforming to the above guidelines will not be considered for publication.

Book Reviews

1. Books relevant to education may be sent to the Book Review Editor, Dr Nigel Bagnall, 'Change: Transformations in Education', Faculty of Education, University of Sydney, 2006, Australia, who will consider soliciting a review for inclusion in the Journal.
2. Book reviews must be typed double-spaced, and should be prepared in the style of reviews published in the Journal. One copy only of book reviews is required.

Proofs

Proofs will be sent to the authors if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be corrected and returned to the Editor within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Offprints

Authors are entitled to 3 copies of the journal free.
