My building is a general hospital in Manhattan, New York. The main concept is to give the New York people a peaceful, tidy, comfortable place for healthy care. The roof garden is the basic idea to release the patients' depressed emotion. It is a design idea to use the sky space which especially in the crowd New York city.