The Aspiration (continued)

“il parco giochi” aims to counter this trend and help propel the increasing force that is local Venetians getting their idyllic city back. Providing young Venetians with a place of their own, they can enjoy the community facilities and socialising space that they deserve.

“il parco giochi” will bridge the broken connection between youth and sports in Venice through the inclusion of a sporting club with activities including gondoliering and soccer.

Shaded South facing ground floor space and balconies provide younger kids with warm, sunny and protected spaces where they can learn, develop and grow.
