ID: 308211650

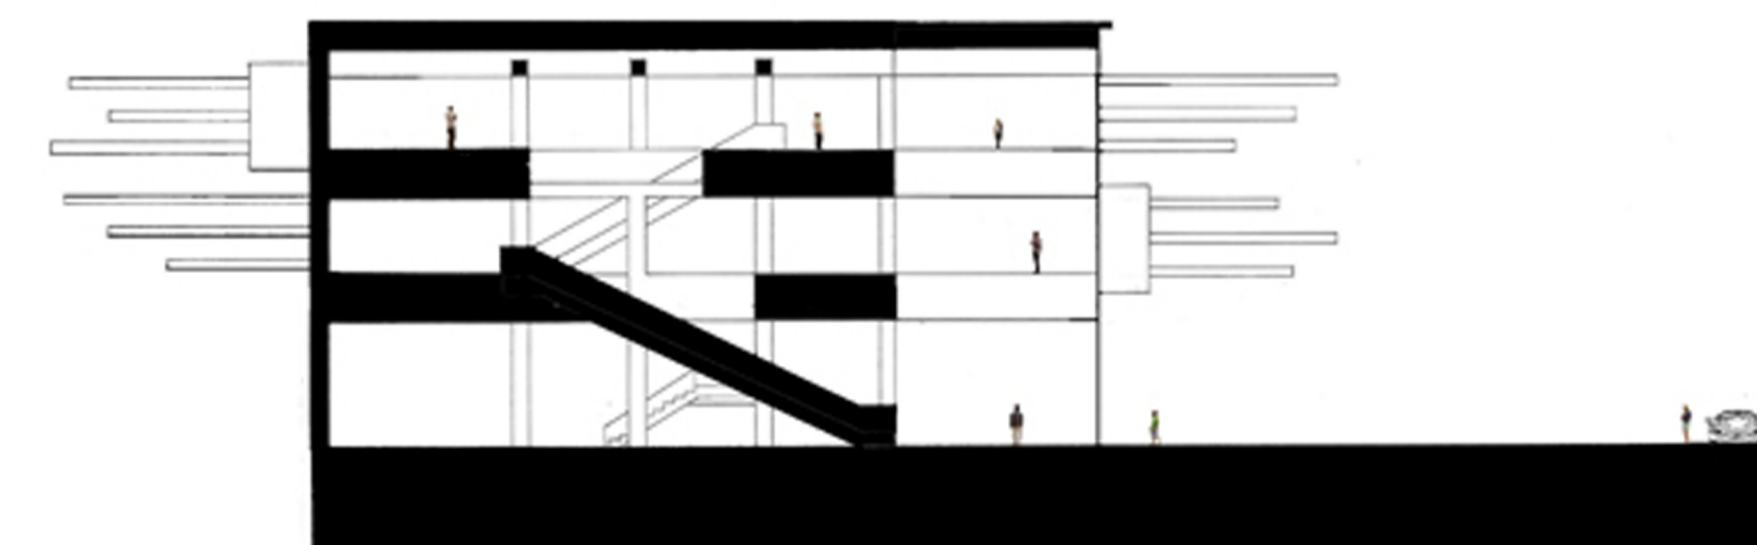

Wine tasting pavilion is a place where you can sit down to relax and drink your favorite wine. The design concept for this building is about giving customers a set of different experiences when they carry out activities through the building; the open space to the grass at the front allowed customer drink wine at the same time they can also enjoy the beauty of nature or capsule is where they can go if someone likes silent.....under special events, YOU WILL SEE THE MOST AMAZING PART is when the building "moves" !!
