

Postcard 1

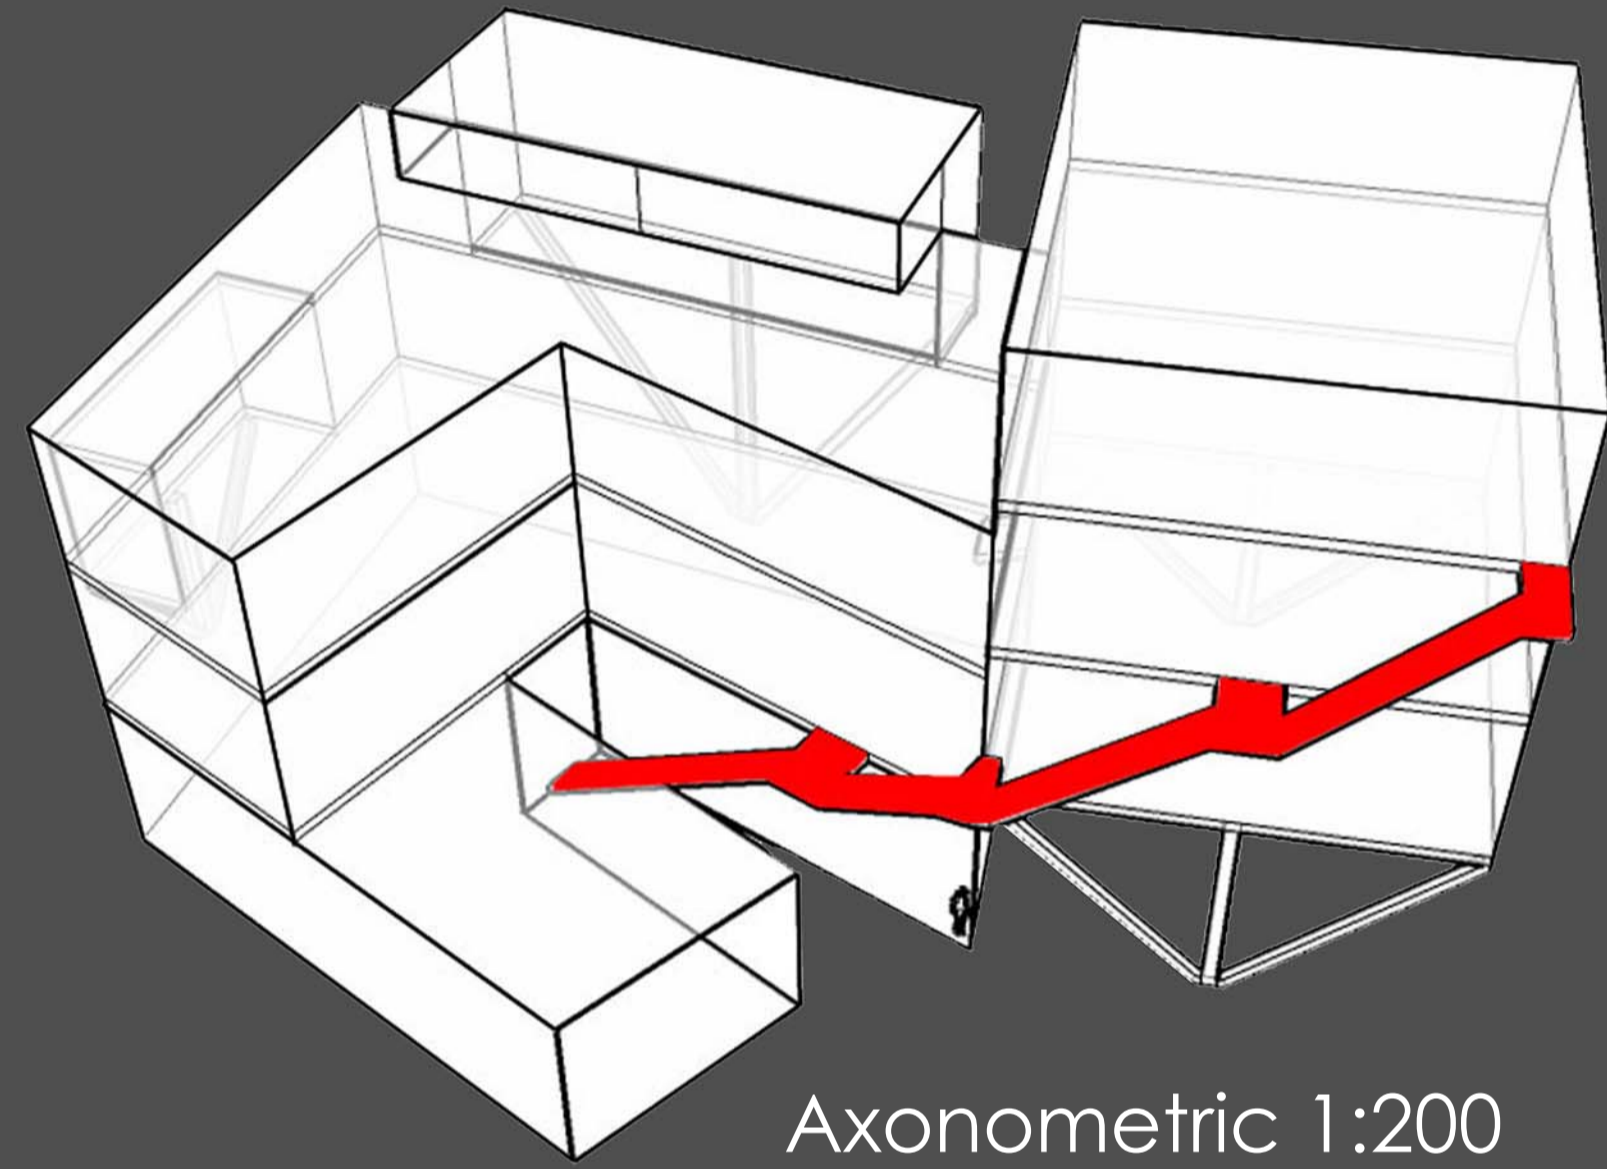

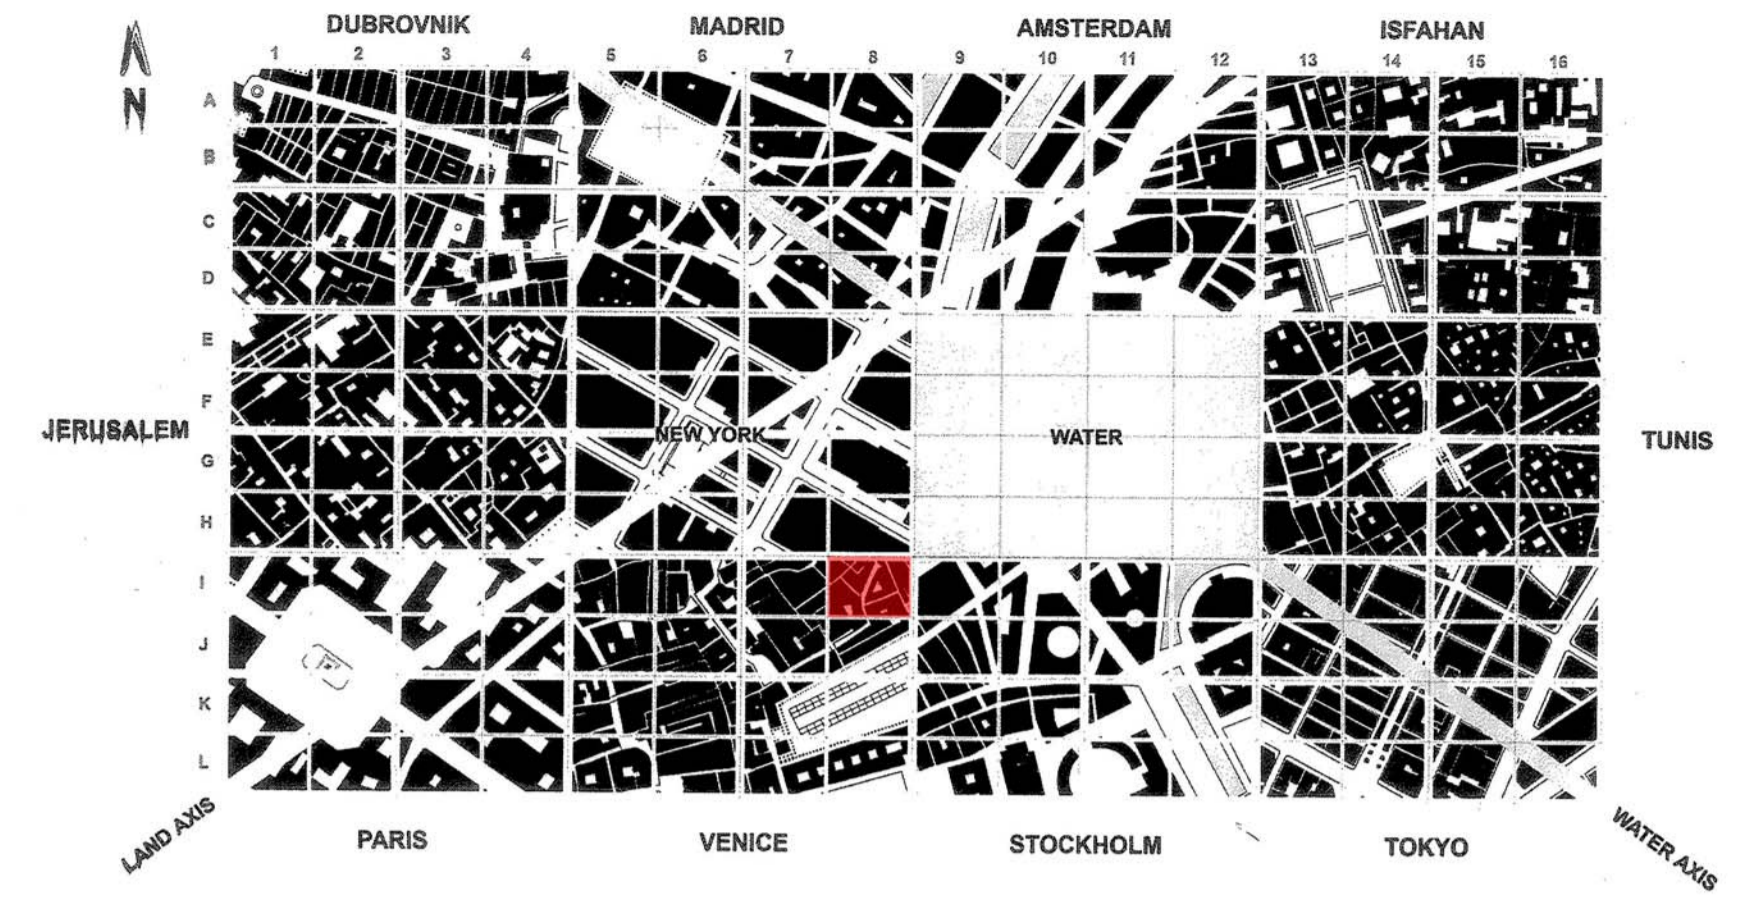

Postcard 2

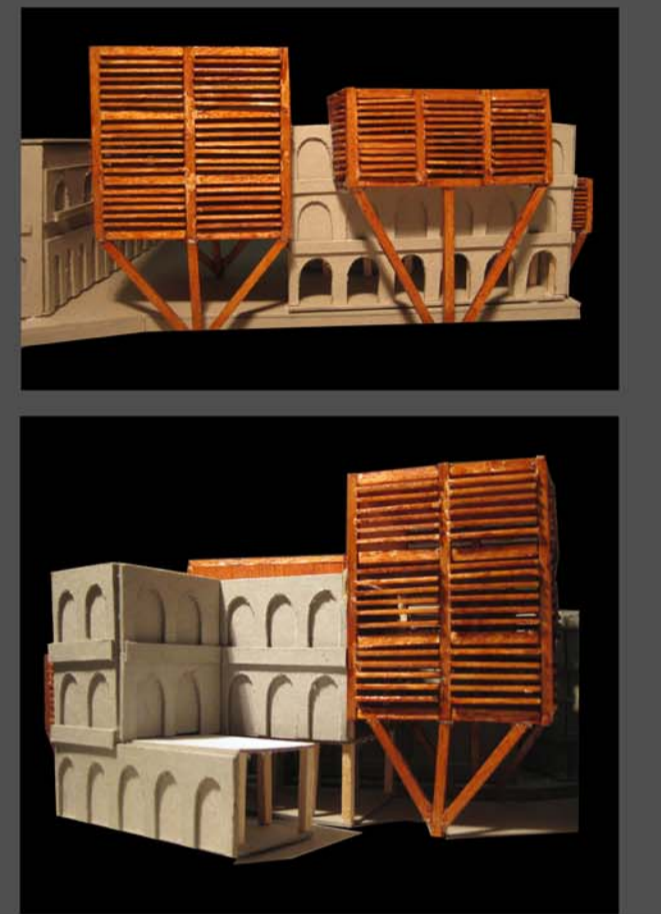

Postcard 3

18

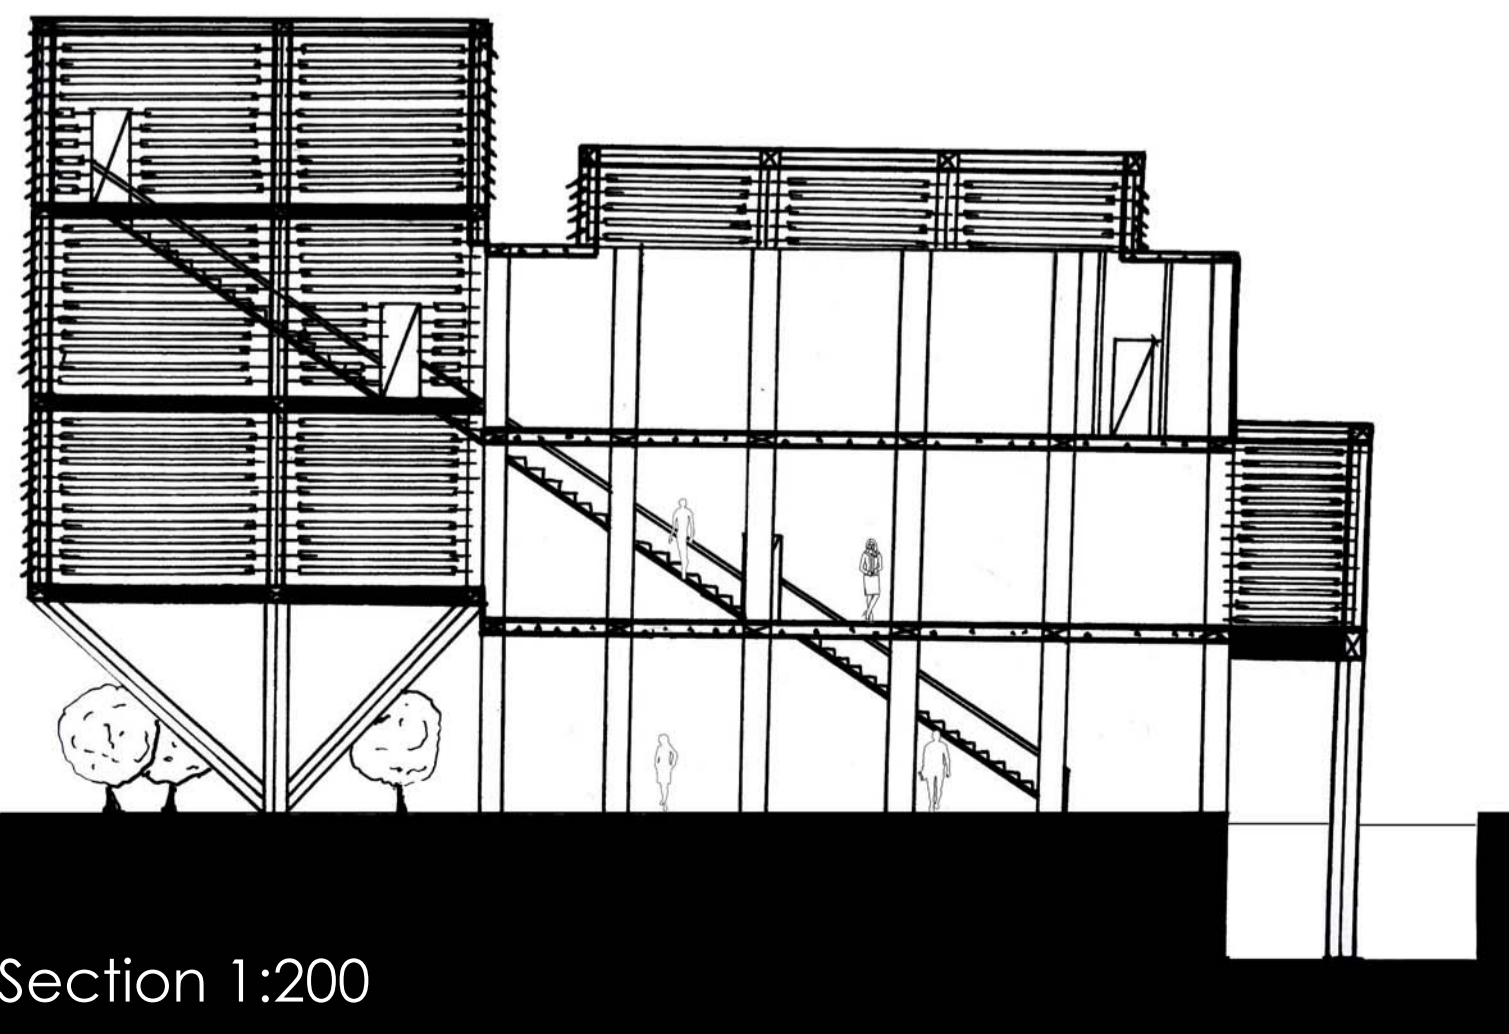

Axonometric 1:200

Located in the heart of Venice, this Market Place and adjoining Restaurant offers public access from both the land and water via an open plan ground floor. The design successfully combines elements of both past and present, creating a uniquely distinct structure that embraces the traditional Venetian architecture through the inclusion of arched windows and entrances and stone masonry, whilst simultaneously offering an insight into contemporary structures through the interspersion of cubed wooden forms.

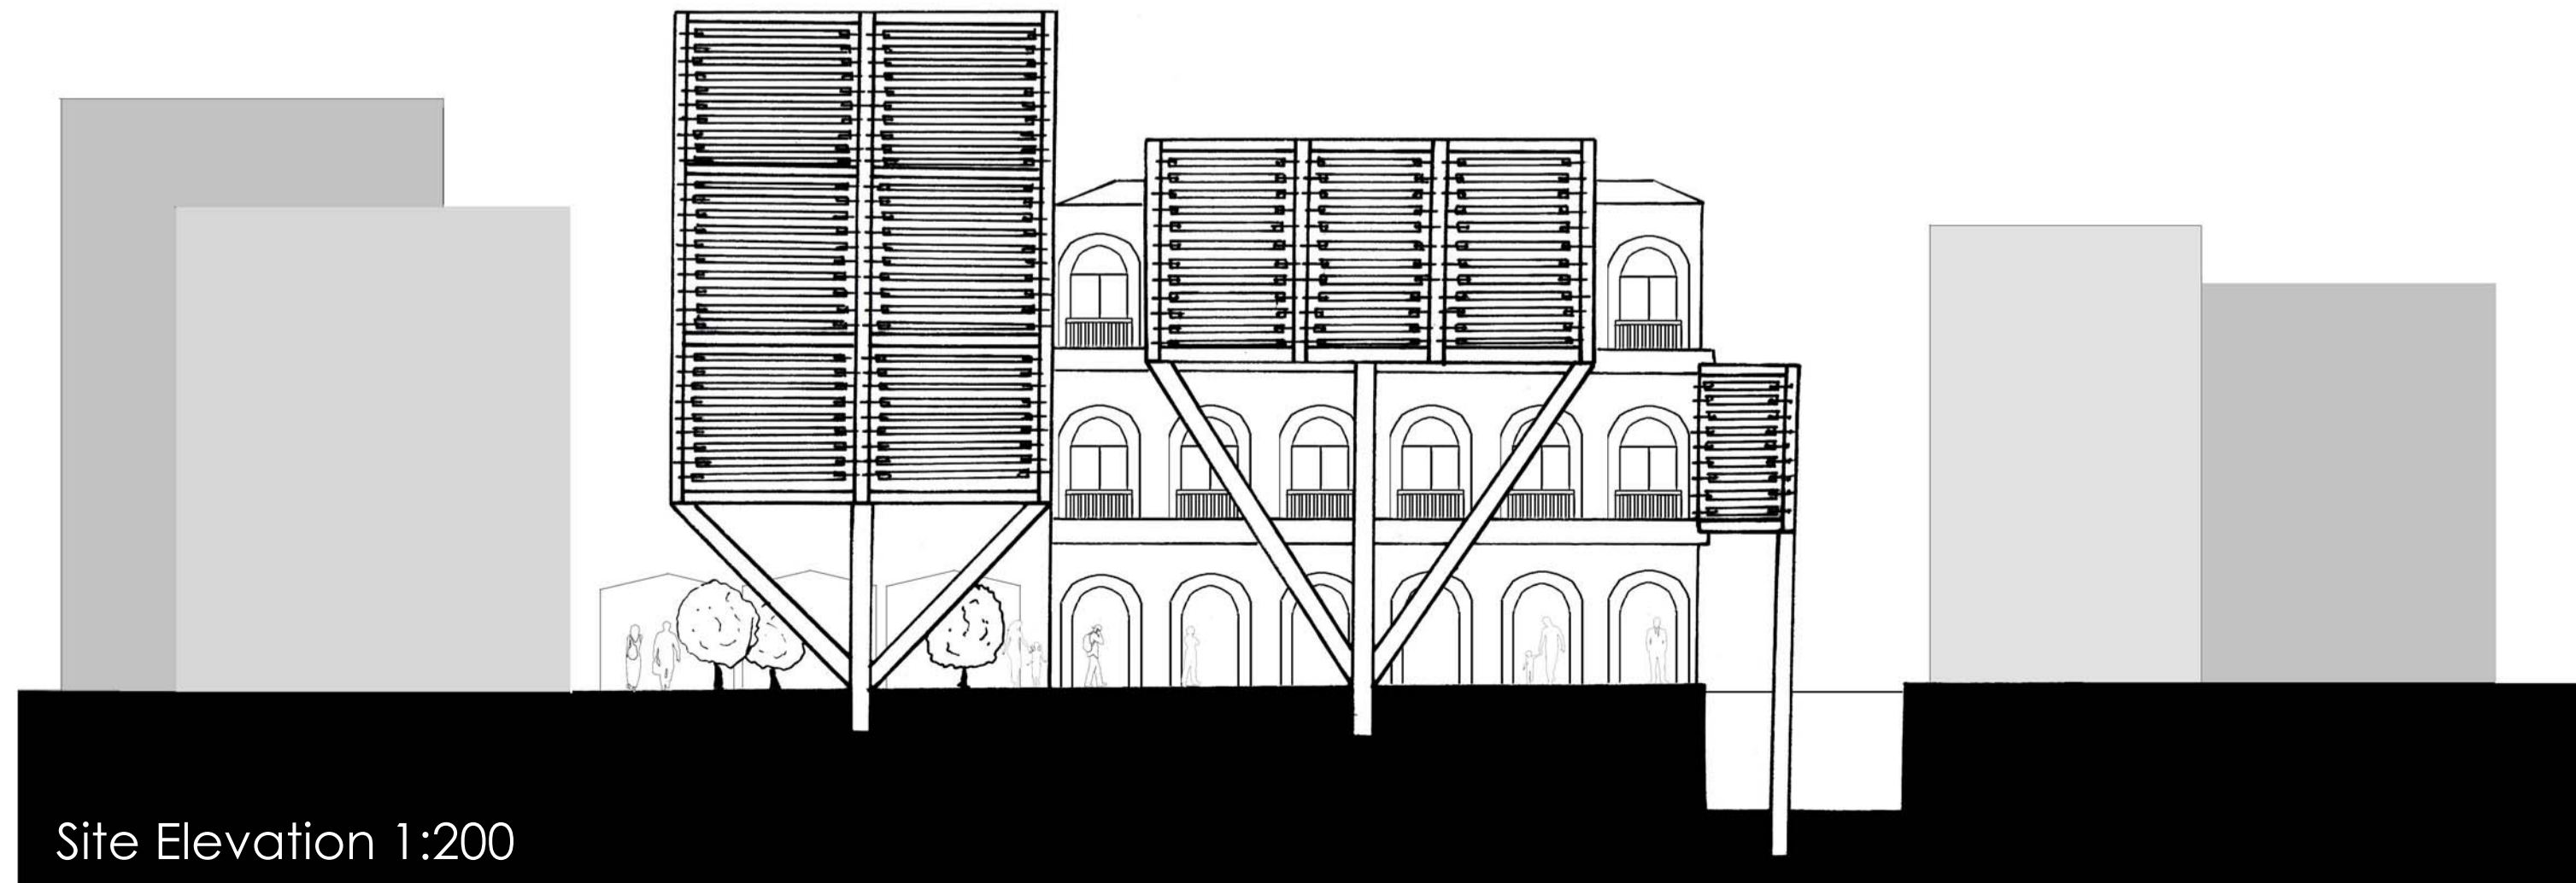

Market Place and Restaurant, Venice

Gillian Bennett
SID: 309245710
Tutor: Donna

Site Section 1:200

Site Elevation 1:200

Site Section 1:200