The musical cube is located in the Place Vendome, a wealthy area in Paris, France. It is an area enriched in culture, art and theatre. The musical cube brings into this space a music school that aims to bring youth into Place Vendome where they can learn their musical craft, at an affordable price and in a comfortable space that addresses the needs of musicians.

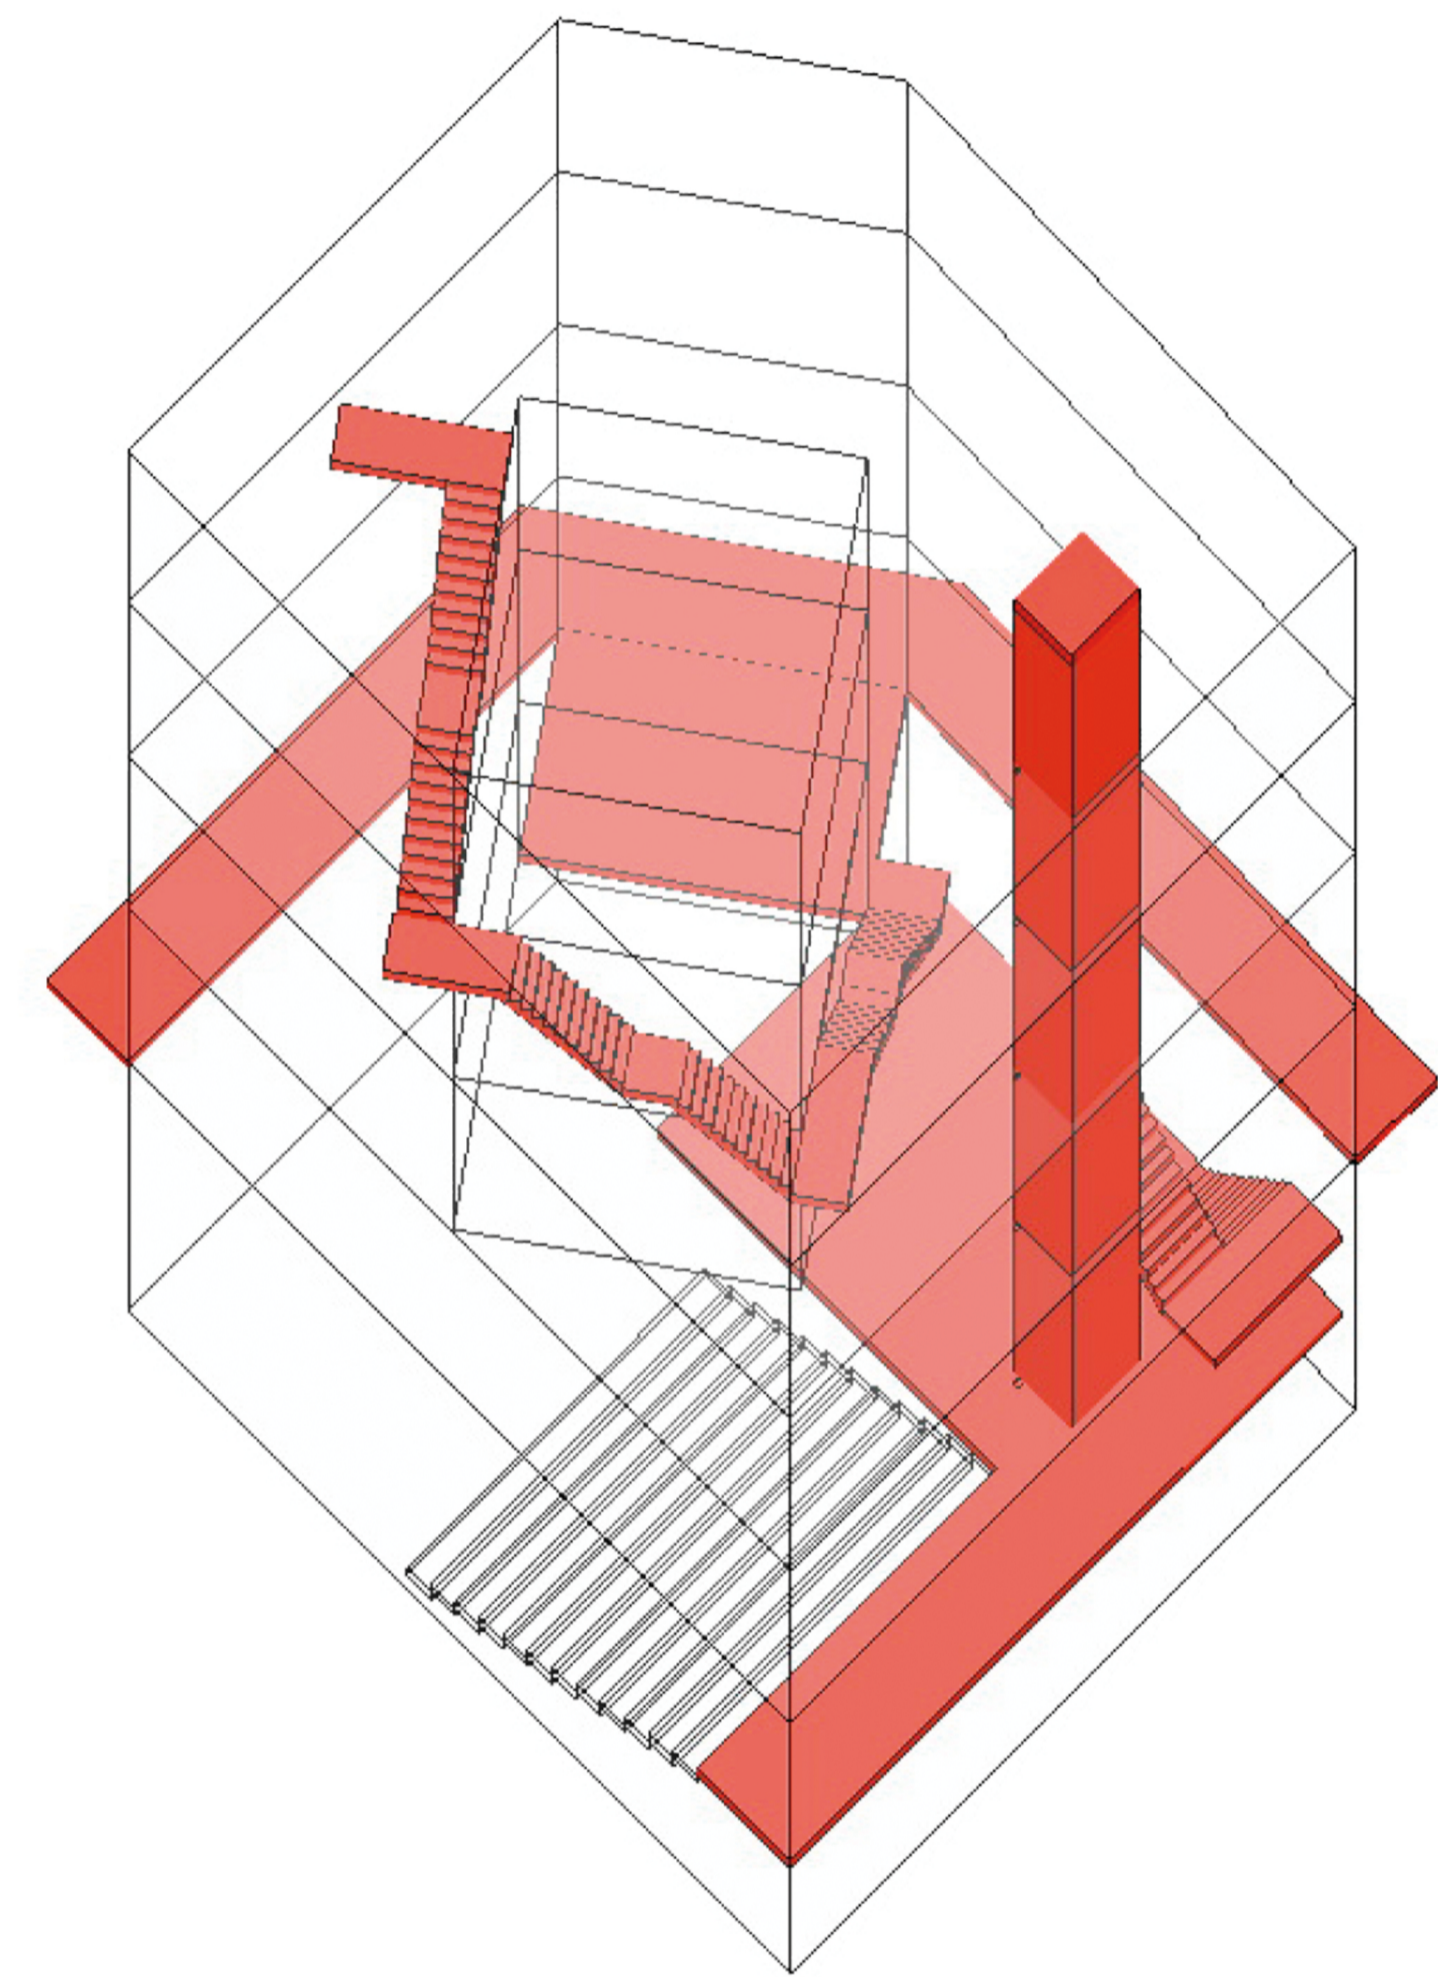

Each space has been carefully designed to encourage students to conceive, develop and present their work. The musical cube is wrapped in a glass curtain wall, creating spaces that are open and active, receiving plenty of natural light. The studio rooms are generous in size and well ventilated. Each studio has a bright coloured feature wall creating places which encourage creativity.
