

Amsterdam Book Cafe

(A9)

Amsterdam Book Cafe is an integrated book cafe located at the side of Amsterdam canal. It is designed for book lovers who would like to spend their leisure time in a nice, secluded and comfortable ambience, having a cup of coffee while reading. The ground floor of the building consists of a book lounge, a computer section and a major book section for first hand books and exclusive books. The first floor is comprised of a residential area where most of the Amsterdam architecture has, a modern fancy glass house cafe restaurant, and another book section for second hand books. The Cafe restaurant is the main feature of the building, it is placed in a modern glass house at the front facade of the building, which faces one of the Amsterdam canals. The building is built by new bricks.
