APPENDIX I. A and B.

(A).

A selection of major representatives of the higher educational tradition. They are either founders of schools, successors, or influential teachers and scholars in the mainstream tradition. The aim is to provide a general visual idea of the interaction of the schools and their practitioners. For a comprehensive reconstruction of the genealogy of the individual schools, see App.II.

Note: Explanation of symbols for the category OTHER.
A. = Alexandrian Mouseion.
C. = Cynics.
E. = Elian-Eretrian School.
M. = Megarian School.
P. = Pythagoreans.

(B).

A chronological graph depicting the schools of philosophy. It illustrates spatio-temporal intersection.
6/5th Pythagoras
Prodicus. Philolaus (P).
SOCRATES.
Antiphon.
Hippias.
Euclid (M).
Antisthenes.
Aristippus. (C).
Isocrates.
Phaedo (E).
Diogenes. (C).
Stilpon. (M).
Pyrrho.
Menedemus (E)
Bion (C).
Diodorus Cronus. (M).
Zeno.
Zenodotus (A).
Callimachus (A).
Menippus. (C).
Chrysippus.
Eratosthenes. (A).
Cicero. 379
Figulus (Np).
Middle & Neo

are a.d.

1st Ammonius.

1/2 Plutarch.
  Rufus.(C).

Gaius; Theon.

Albinus; Calvenus

Taurus. Celsus.

Marcus Herodes Atticus.
  Aurelius.

2/3

Alexander of Aphrodisias.

Aelius Aristides. Galen.

Hermogenes. Numenius.
  (Np).

Ammonius Saccas.

Plotinus.

Porphyry.

3/4

Iamblichus.

Julian of Caesarea.

Julian, the Emperor.

Prohaeresius, Sosipatra.

Libanius. St Basil.

Theon.

Hypatia.

5

Plutarch of Athens.

Proclus.

5/6 Damascius. Simplicius.

Olympiadorus.

Boethius.